Chapter 361 Exterminating The Moore Family

Isabella's long hair fluttered in the breeze. Grabbing a strand and playing with it on her fingertips, she chuckled and said, "Why? Are you surprised that we're still alive?"

The eye expression under the golden butterfly mask was contemptuous and cold.

Jumping off the window sill, Isabella walked toward the people of the Moore family step by step.

Being tall and slender, every step she took was graceful and charming. However, her footsteps seemed to be stepping on the hearts of the people of the Moore family. It made them feel suffocated.

As assassins, they certainly knew Butterfly very well. The Moore family had even analyzed Butterfly's murder cases.

And the outcome of the analysis showed Butterfly was a true expert, an expert that surpassed all the assassins in the Moore family.

But Butterfly was without a partner.

Seeing a man wearing a flower mask quietly protecting Isabella, Desmond said ferociously in appearance but feebly in essence.

"I heard Butterfly has always been a loner. Why are you bringing a partner this time? Is Butterfly also afraid of our Moore family?"

Isabella stopped in her tracks and could not help laughing.

However, after laughing, she suddenly moved.

Her figure was like an agile breeze, and her long hair raised a long arc in the air. Desmond's eyes widened as he looked at the golden butterfly mask which was within striking distance.

The woman's exquisite chin and beautiful lips were exposed. The corners of her lips curled up at this moment, revealing several sparkling white teeth. She said in a captivating tone and a low voice.

"Who said Butterfly can't have a partner? There will be one moving on!"

Isabella, at this moment, was both dangerous and captivating. She was simply awesome and charming.

However, in less than three seconds, Draxton reached out and pulled Isabella back.

He said in a deep voice, "Bella, how could you show an old man such an expression? You can only show it to me..."

However, before Draxton could finish speaking and Desmond was still grinning hideously, about to say something, Desmond's head fell off without any signs.

Seeing the head rolling toward his feet, Draxton fell silent.

Isabella was also silent for a while. Curling up the corners of her lips, she looked at Draxton's stiff figure in amusement. She smiled and said, "What's the matter? Draxton, what did you say just now? What can only be shown to you?"

Draxton was silent.

The chicken's cooing immediately triggered the dogs barking. Instantly, the entire Grey family was bustling.

The people of the Grey family, who were sleeping soundly, were woken up. They were stunned when they saw the turmoil in the courtyard with snakes, bugs, rats, and ants on the surveillance camera.

"What's going on?" Hayden walked out hurriedly while putting on his clothes.

His wife also looked lost. In the other room, Cecilia also woke up.

Cecilia went out and bumped into Hayden and her sister-in-law, who were on their way out. Cecilia said, "Hayden, for such a big matter, do we want to tell dad?"

Thinking of Patriarch Grey's injured arm and the fact that he was probably studying General Red, he shook his head.

"It's a small matter. There's no need to alarm dad."

As such, they didn't go to Patriarch Grey's room and thus were not aware Betty was gone.

Betty was hiding in a chicken coop at this moment.

The chickens inside had all flown away. She had crawled into the chicken coop to hide from the Grey family's guards. Therefore, the Grey family's guards did not notice her.

Of course, the people of the Grey family would not catch the bugs one by one. Hayden played the flute, and a unique flute tone sounded. The fleeing poison bugs all followed the flute tone one after another.

At this moment, the person who retrieved the surveillance video saw Betty was the one who released the poison bugs.

That person immediately gasped and said to Cecilia beside him, "Miss Grey, I found it. Look!"

Seeing the little figure who was sabotaging in the surveillance video, Cecilia's expression changed instantly. She quickly turned around and walked toward Patriarch Grey's room. As she was walking, she gave the instructions.

"Search everywhere. Don't let go of any corner. That brat definitely can't escape."

Someone immediately took the order and left.

Cecilia pushed open Patriarch Grey's room door and saw Patriarch Grey lying unconscious on the floor. Her expression instantly turned unsightly.

Isabella felt as if a knife was cutting her heart apart. She strode forward and hugged Betty in her arms. Betty’s small arms hugged Isabella’s neck tightly as she cried pitifully.

Heartbroken, Isabella comforted her.

Draxton’s face was as cold as ice. Without another word, he kicked Hayden in front of him.

There was no way Hayden could dodge. As Hayden’s body was sent flying, he viciously released his natal bug

It was a colorful poisonous spider.

Draxton watched as the spider spat out a poisonous web, aiming at him. He stretched out two fingers and pinched them ruthlessly. The spider struggled for a while, and the web got cut off by Draxton.

Draxton strode forward and grabbed the spider.

When Hayden saw this, his face turned pale.

Cecilia’s eyes widened as she looked at the scene before her. Her entire body was trembling. She knew how ruthless Draxton was, so she quickly looked at Landon.

“Landon, we didn’t do anything. Isn’t that child fine? Quickly help us plead for leniency. You know how important the natal bug is to a bug poison crafter. You and Hayden grew up together.”

Landon looked at her indifferently before looking at Betty, crying non-stop.

Isabella had no time to care about anything else. The most important thing was to coax her daughter.

Her heart ached terribly. As she wiped Betty's tears, she kissed her little face. At the same time, she could not help but whisper, "Betty Baby, little darling, don't cry, okay? If you continue crying, your voice will be hoarse. Mommy will be heartbroken."

Betty buried her face in Isabella's shoulder and shook it hard. She said shamelessly, "No, no, no. I'm going to cry."

After saying that, she cried even louder.

Isabella was speechless.

She didn't know how to react. "Alright, keep on crying then. Anyway, your throat is going to turn hoarse from crying. I'm the one who will get hurt, but you."

Betty stopped crying for a while but continued to cry.

Betty's cries were ear-shattering. At this moment, her cries echoed across the Grey family's courtyard.

The members of the inspection team were stunned. The woman stood in front of the railing of the liner. Her long black waves and red skirt swayed gently with the morning breeze. The woman looked in their direction with an indifferent expression. Her expression was extremely calm, without a trace of panic. The inspection team members were all young, but the captain was a middle-aged man in his forties. He stared at the woman's figure as a trace of confusion gradually appeared in his eyes. Why did he feel that this woman looked familiar? Just as he was feeling puzzled, the woman walked down the liner and headed up the stairs to them. The middle-aged captain immediately raised his gun and said coldly, "Who are you? Do you have a pass?" If the woman didn't have a pass, he had to kill the woman on the spot according to the rules of Mystical Island. Jocelyn looked at them indifferently and took out a plaque from her bag.

Originally on guard against her action, the inspection team members were surprised when they saw the plaque.

Shock flashed in their eyes, but in the end, they knelt on the ground in unison and said respectfully, "It's the tenth elder. We didn't know that you'll be visiting. I hope you can forgive our offense, tenth elder

At the same time, in the council.

The council was the ultimate department of the tribunal committee. They held great power and controlled the inspection team and investigation team.

The inspection team even had the power to supervise the president. If the president did something wrong, the council had the right to dismiss them.

In that case, the power of the council was even higher than the president.

However, under normal circumstances, the council would not interfere with the president's actions at all. In fact, they would unanimously support the president's decision.

Unless the president did something to harm the tribunal committee.

Ten elders were in charge of the council. However, all their decisions had to be agreed upon by the ten elders before they could take effect. If one elder disagreed, any decisions made by the council would be invalid.

This was a check and balance of power.

Those who could enter the council and become an elder were influential people. Their background and ability were unquestionable.

However, they had already given their lives to the council as soon as they entered. They would be cut loose from their ties to their past family backgrounds and all benefits.

They had the highest authority, but they did not have freedom.

Their words and actions were all restricted by the various rules of the council.

"The tenth elder has been wandering outside for more than 20 years. She's finally back!"

Seth looked at Jocelyn and said with envy.

"Seth, you don't have to envy her. Now that she's back, her carefree days will end," Richard said.

Jocelyn sat at the end of the oval round table. She could not help but smile when she heard the jealous voices of these men.

"Everyone, it's not like you don't know why I left the council back then and went to the outside world. After all, you were the ones who asked me to join the council back then. You were also the ones who let me out."

Cecilia stood rooted to the ground. She dropped her phone and did not bother to pick it up. At this moment, her mind was filled with Julian's words.

Jocelyn was the tenth elder of the council!

"How could this be? How could Jocelyn be the tenth elder of the council?"

Cecilia muttered to herself as her face started turning pale.

She knew there was a tenth elder in the council, but the tenth elder had never revealed themselves before. However, she never dreamed that the tenth elder would be Jocelyn!

She had painstakingly forced Jocelyn out of the Grey family and left her with nothing. How did she end up becoming an elder of the council?

"No! I can't accept this. I can't accept this!"

Cecilia could not accept this fact at all. She threw everything in the room like a lunatic. When Hayden came in, he saw Cecilia's distorted face. Smashing everything in the room, she looked like a crazy woman.

Shock flashed in his eyes. He had never seen such a crazy side of Cecilia. She had always been gentle and beautiful in his heart.

This was not something she would do at all.

"Celia?" Hayden called out, his voice uncertain.

When Cecilia heard Hayden's voice, she stopped her actions. She turned around and quickly controlled the expression on her face. She looked at Hayden with red eyes and pounced on him.

The atmosphere became awkward.

After a moment of silence, Draxton came to his senses and said expressionlessly. "Mr. Sullivan, Miss Sullivan, I'm afraid I'll have to disappoint you. We can't lend you the Red Crystal because of this!"

Ian and Kimberley were stunned.

Immediately, their expressions darkened. Ian said in a deep voice, "What's the reason?"

"Mr. Lockwood, although we had some unpleasant memories in the past and did target you, those small conflicts are nothing based on this win-win cooperation. I don't think you should be so short-sighted."

Ian stared at Draxton and observed the change in his expression.

Draxton said, "It's not that I'm short-sighted, but..."

Draxton looked at Isabella with a conflicted expression.

Ian and Kimberley suddenly felt a strange feeling. They suddenly had a bad premonition.

Isabella coughed lightly and said, "Mr. Sullivan, Miss Sullivan, let's not talk about the lack of vision. The key is we have no reason to lend our people to you and attack ourselves instead!"

Ian and Kimberley were stunned. The two widened their eyes at the same time and stared at Isabella.

Isabella's lips curled into a slightly cold smile as she said, "To be honest with the two of you, the even more mysterious expert in Mercenari Uno is me."

Ian and Kimberley were speechless.

The duo's faces flushed red at a speed visible to the naked eye. They stared at Isabella. Ian sneered dryly and said with a stiff expression, "Miraculous Doctor, are you joking?"

Isabella's expression also turned serious. "Why would I joke about such a thing? Jackson Vaughn is my master, and Jake Quillon is my senior. I... Oh, right, I have Mercenari Uno's regiment emblem on this chain. If the two of you don't believe me, why don't you take a closer look?"

Landon's face flushed red. He panicked and lost his composure.

The smile on Jocelyn's lips deepened when she saw him like this.

Landon's gaze was fleeting. He did not dare to look her in the eye at all. He stammered, "Jocelyn, you know that my memory has been good since I was young."

Jocelyn nodded seriously. "That's right. Your memory has been good since you were young. You've been smart since you were young."

"That's right, that's right." Landon nodded in agreement.

"You're just a little timid. You're afraid of snakes and insects. You once accidentally stepped on a green insect and were so frightened that your face turned pale. I was the one who chased the insect away," Jocelyn said.

Landon's expression stiffened slightly. He said helplessly, "Jocelyn, can we not talk about this in front of the children?"

It was too embarrassing!

Jocelyn smiled gently and continued, "But later on, you seemed to have overcome those fears. In the end, even poisonous insects and snakes were nothing to you. You could catch them with bare hands."

Landon was speechless.

Jocelyn sighed. There was a hint of melancholy and nostalgia in her eyes. "Back then, I was young and frivolous. I thought that no one in this world was worthy of hanging around, so I left decisively. After over twenty years, I really miss the past a lot whenever I think about it."

"Jocelyn..." Landon's eyes dimmed slightly as he looked at Jocelyn worriedly.

Isabella smiled and touched her chin. She said, "Master Grey, Mr. Wright, why don't Draxton and I leave first to make room for the two of you to catch up?"

Hearing this, Draxton stood up cooperatively and really planned to leave.

At that time, Isabella and the others were having breakfast.

Seeing the group of people barge in aggressively, Jocelyn did not even look up and continued to feed Betty. Meanwhile, Betty was also very calm. She only glanced curiously at those bad guys who barged in and continued to eat happily. She took a bite herself and fed Jocelyn a bite. The corners of Draxton's eyes twitched.

His daughter had never been so intimate with him.

Landon was sitting beside Jocelyn. His expression darkened as he looked sharply at the crowd that had barged in.

Isabella and Draxton also raised their heads and looked at everyone. Draxton said coldly, "You people came uninvited early in the morning and are so aggressive. It seems like you don't take the district master's manor seriously. I heard the previous district master got assassinated. I guess it has something to do with all of you!"

Everyone was stunned.

They never expected that before they could question Draxton, Draxton would speak first and accuse them of the death of the previous district master.

The former district master had been dead for about seven years. Draxton was ridiculous. He was indeed cunning.

Everyone's expressions darkened.

Paul shouted angrily, "Draxton, we're here to crusade against you today. You have to give us an explanation for the destruction of the Moore family!"

Draxton's expression darkened. He stared at Paul and said calmly, "Who do you think you are? What right do you have to question me, the patriarch?"

Paul was so angry that his face flushed red. He panted and said, "How arrogant! If you can destroy the Moore family, you can destroy the Beck family, the Sullivan family, and everyone else in the future! Don't forget you're just an outsider!"

As he spoke, he looked at Julian and said, "Vice president, look at him. He obviously doesn't take the Mystical Island and the tribunal committee seriously. You are right here, yet he dared to act so arrogantly. He is really defiant!"

Julian was called out. With a serious expression, he said, "Mr. Lockwood, the Moore family is now under the control of James. James is your man. What do you have to say to this?"

Jocelyn smiled contemptuously.

Patriarch Grey was furious. He banged his crutches on the ground. "Don't be arrogant, unfilial daughter! After so many years, you still won't repent. You're really hopeless!"

Landon couldn't stand it anymore and said, "Patriarch Grey, Jocelyn is your biological daughter. How can you be bewitched by others and treat her like this?"

Once upon a time, he was very respectful toward Patriarch Grey. But now, he had lost his respect toward him. Patriarch Grey said furiously, "You're protecting her. You're the one who got deceived by her. I think you both are the same!"

Landon could not help but sigh. "Patriarch Grey, you'll regret it."

"Landon, don't blame Father. Father is too disappointed in senior sister," Cecilia said.

Hearing her words, Patriarch Grey couldn't help but think of Jocelyn's evil deeds. He raged and said sternly, "That's right, I didn't wrong her! Unfilial daughter, why aren't you handing over the Love Bug and Evolution Poison? I've already expelled you from the Grey family. If you don't return the Love Bug and Evolution Poison today, don't even think about walking out of this door!"

Patriarch Grey looked at Jocelyn murderously.

Hayden also stared at Jocelyn with disgust and said, "Jocelyn, don't think that you can do anything you want just because you're the tenth elder of the council. We didn't kill you 20 years ago. So, we won't let you off now. You know how Clan Mobius dealt with traitors."

Although Jocelyn had long been disappointed and lost all affection for the Grey family, she could not help but feel angry at this moment.

"Grandma Grey," Betty called out softly. She held Jocelyn's hand and snuggled into her arms.

Instantly, Jocelyn felt a warm current running through her cold and stiff body. She hugged Betty in her arms, and her expression immediately softened.

She smiled and kissed Betty on the cheek. She turned to look at the Grey family and no longer felt any emotions.

Betty wrapped her arms around Jocelyn's neck and angrily stared at the Grey family.

When Patriarch Grey saw Betty, his fierce attitude wavered. The veins on his forehead twitched, and he actually felt a dull pain in his head again.

felt that a leopard could not change its spots. How could Jocelyn Love Bug and the Evolution waited for her reaction. She wanted to Jocelyn only looked at her mockingly. It was bitch is always a bitch. Cecilia, are you sure the Love Bug is with she knew the Love Bug was indeed took the Evolution Poison. the Evolution Poison for so many years. make Jocelyn hand uttered, "Senior sister, Patriarch Grey and silent, but Hayden shouted, Jocelyn Grey, you really haven't changed a bit. Are you still refusing to admit "You really want to get the Evolution Poison, stared at Jocelyn excitedly and to use the Evolution sneer not only Cecilia and the Grey family members but Julian and the others also shook her head repeatedly. The Evolution Poison is with her? How is that possible? Jocelyn Grey, are you crazy? You outsider is? If my disciple is an outsider, Jocelyn reprimanded loudly. Hayden also looked at Isabella. Clearly, they never thought that the Evolution Poison really sorry, everyone. Master Grey had given me the Evolution Poison a long time ago." she raised her hand, and a golden butterfly slowly appeared on her beautiful and slender butterfly appeared, specks of gentle sparks and the fragrance of flowers spread. gently and flew up. It made its way to Isabella's cheek and kissed it. It then flew in front of Jocelyn stared at the golden butterfly with a burning gaze. His gaze became darker
