Chapter 371 Wake Up, Cecilia Is Over

Seeing the Evolution Poison-transformed golden butterfly flying towards Patriarch Grey and Hayden, Cecilia narrowed her eyes. She suddenly thought of a terrifying consequence.

The Evolution Poison was the supreme ruler of bugs. It was definitely not something an ordinary bug king or any artificially cultured poisonous bugs could compare to.

It would be fine if the Evolution Poison were still as weak as before. However, the Evolution Poison was clearly alive and kicking. It had even transformed into a butterfly. Even the Grey family's ancestors might not know how powerful it was.

Then, what would happen if the Delusion Bug encountered the Evolution Poison?

A strong wave of fear surged into Cecilia's heart.

Cecilia pounced and opened her arms to block Patriarch Grey and Hayden, not letting the golden butterfly get close to them.

She shouted in panic, "Get lost. Don't come over. Get lost!"

Upon seeing this scene, Landon, Jocelyn, and Isabella couldn't help but narrow their eyes.

As expected, Cecilia felt guilty and afraid.

When Julian saw this, he also understood something. He took a step forward and stood in front of Patriarch Grey and Hayden. He looked at Isabella and Jocelyn with a stern expression and questioned.

"What do you mean? Are you going to use the bug to hurt them? Jocelyn, although there's a misunderstanding between you all, they're still your father and brother. How can you be so heartless and harm them?"

Landon looked at Julian angrily. It seemed that Julian knew about the Delusion Bug. Otherwise, he would not have stopped the golden butterfly from approaching the Grey family.

He couldn't help but shout coldly, "Julian, get lost!"

Of course, Julian would not move away. As though the guardian of justice, he stood before the Grey family's father and son, not letting the golden butterfly get close.

Cecilia even cried as she looked at Jocelyn and said, "Senior sister, how could you allow your disciple to use the Evolution Poison to hurt Father and Hayden?"

Seeing this scene, Patriarch Grey and Hayden were moved to tears. They said, "Celia, don't worry. Get up and let the Evolution Poison approach us. We don't believe Jocelyn will dare to do anything to us!"

However, Hayden was still not satisfied. He was so angry that he actually chased after Cecilia in huge strides. He raised his leg and mercilessly kicked Cecilia, wishing he could turn her into a pile of meat paste. He was raging. His eyes were bloodshot and filled with hatred.

Julian gestured for his subordinates to go forward and pull him away. Hayden was pulled back. Furious, he let out a roar like a trapped beast.

"The Delusion Bugs. I can't believe you used the Delusion Bugs. Cecilia Grey, you were originally an orphan in the slums with your parents dead. Our family pitied you and brought you back. I didn't expect you to repay kindness with ingratitude. You're so ungrateful!"

He looked at everyone present and said with grief, "Everyone, can you imagine that we got deceived for over 20 years? For 20 years, we have been muddle-headed and controlled by the Delusion Bugs. From young to middle-aged and to old... In these 20 years, although my father and I are still alive, what's the difference between the dead and us?"

"It's this bitch who turned my father and me into her puppets. The entire Grey family became a toy in her hands. She did whatever she wanted and even..."

Hayden looked in the direction of Jocelyn.

"She even sowed discord among us and made my father treat his biological daughter like enemies. We misunderstood her, forced her, hunted her down, and drove her out of Mystical Island for over 20 years. We are useless!"

Hayden shouted loudly. His sorrowful cries were deafening in the silent hall.

He sobbed uncontrollably as he stared at Cecilia with hatred. At the same time, he would turn his head from time to time and look at Jocelyn with extreme regret.

Patriarch Grey also stared in the direction of Jocelyn. Tears covered his entire face. His lips trembled, but he could not say a complete sentence. He could not even call out Jocelyn's name.

At this moment, everyone looked at the Grey father and son in shock. Even if everything about the Grey family had nothing to do with them, they still felt some sympathy.

Hayden was right. They were controlled and tricked for over 20 years. They lost their memories and even treated their family as an enemy. Nobody would be able to accept it.

Jocelyn's expression was very calm.

In fact, her expression was a little cold.

Suddenly, she chuckled and looked at Patriarch Grey and Hayden. "Actually, it's not just 20 years.

Chapter 373 Cecilia Is Dead

Cecilia felt dizzy. When she saw Jocelyn walking over with a cold expression, fear completely drowned her.

“Jocelyn, don’t come over. You can’t kill me!”

Cecilia trembled and kept walking backward in fear. She could not accept that she was going to die.

The corners of Jocelyn’s lips curled into a mocking smile. She looked at Cecilia as if she was looking at a clown. Cecilia’s face was as pale as paper. Gradually, hatred took up her terrified eyes.

“Jocelyn, don’t be smug. Why are you feeling smug? Do you think you’ve won just because you killed me? Let me tell you. Your birth was destined to be a tragedy. Why do you think they brought me back to the Greys?”

“Haha, you have no idea what kind of person your father is. He brought me back to the Grey family to distract and comfort himself. The guiltier he subconsciously feels for you, the more he dotes on me. He hurts you and pampers me endlessly to ease the guilt and emptiness in his heart.”

“Even without me, Jocelyn Grey, you won’t be happy to have such a father!”

“B*tch, shut up!”

Hayden roared and looked at Cecilia with extreme hatred. He wanted to let Jocelyn settle the grudge between Cecilia and her. Otherwise, he would have been the first to rush up and skin Cecilia alive.

As for Patriarch Grey, his entire body instantly stiffened like iron.

He looked at Cecilia in shock, as if he was stunned by her words.

When he heard Cecilia’s words, he suddenly realized that Cecilia was right.

In fact, the colder he was to Jocelyn, the deeper the guilt in his heart. However, as time passed, he really could not face Jocelyn.

Then, when he saw Cecilia in the slums, he resolutely brought her back to the Grey family. He made up for what he owed Jocelyn.

How ridiculous was all of this!

Patriarch Grey suddenly lowered his head. He was so ashamed of himself that he couldn’t lift his head.

He turned out to be such a despicable father.

Cecilia said coldly, “The Grey family had shown me prosperity outside the slums. It’s like heaven. Having enjoyed the sweetness in life after tasting bitterness, who is willing to let go? Who can let go? Is it wrong for me to protect myself?”

Chapter 374 Betty Taking Her Leave

Jocelyn pulled Betty into her arms again while Betty obediently allowed Jocelyn to caress her like a doll. "Baby, were you scared just now?" Jocelyn kissed the tip of Betty's nose and asked gently.

Betty shook her head and said furiously, "Betty is not a coward. Grandma Grey did the right thing. Grandma Grey is the best!"

Jocelyn's red lips curled up happily. Then, she said, "But you secretly praised Grandpa Jaye, saying he was the best last time. There was this one time when I heard you praising Grandpa Lyons. And last time..." Betty blushed and avoided eye contact like a guy who was caught cheating. She said sweetly, "No, no. Grandma Grey, you must have misheard me. You are the best. Betty loves Grandma Grey the most!"

As she spoke, she gave Jocelyn a kiss. Jocelyn immediately narrowed her eyes in satisfaction. At this moment, she felt so blissful

Isabella narrowed her eyes and looked at them. She looked amused. Betty would definitely be good at coaxing people when she grew up. She could already imagine how many boys would fall for her sweet words

Seeing that Jocelyn was only playing with the child and not casting them a glance, the Grey family stood rooted to the ground, feeling awkward.

However, they could not bear to leave at all.

Zachary and Hayden's wives were so shocked by today's events that their minds went blank.

Zachary had never met Jocelyn before. His hatred for Jocelyn was influenced by his grandfather and father. However, that feeling was not firm. He wasn't affected by the Delusion Bug. As long as he had a clear mind, -he would know how to make a judgment.

Therefore, after Cecilia exposed her true colors and revealed the truth, he no longer had any ill feelings toward Jocelyn. Instead, he felt curious and sympathetic.

More than 20 years ago, Hayden married his wife. She didn't spend much time with Jocelyn, so there was no conflict between her and Jocelyn. Patriarch Grey, Hayden, and Cecilia were the ones who spread malicious rumors about her.

As the daughter-in-law who married into the Grey family, she naturally had no thoughts about Jocelyn. Patriarch Grey and Hayden were different.

Their emotions had already calmed down, but the calmer they were, the crueler the truth was. It was so painful that their internal organs felt numb.

Isabella and Draxton sat in the pavilion in the courtyard and drank coffee. They seemed relaxed.

*Julian suffered a huge loss today. He won't let this go," Isabella said as she poured coffee.

Draxton said, "Bella, I have an idea next, but..."

Isabella looked up at him and asked, "What?"

Draxton said, "Let's pretend to hurt ourselves and beat them at their own game."

Isabella lowered her eyes and pondered. After a moment, she said, "No matter what you want to do, I'll support you."

The corners of Draxton's lips curled up slightly. He looked smug yet sweet. "Thank you, Bella." "Hey!" Isabella looked at him in amusement. "How do you plan to hurt yourself and beat them?"

Draxton's expression was slightly solemn as he said, "Since we have to hurt ourselves, we'll have to suffer a little. How can those masterminds hiding in the dark reveal their true selves if nothing happens to you and me? Julian is just an enemy that we can see."

At this moment, Betty ran over with her short legs. She opened his tiny arms and was about to throw herself into Isabella's arms. "Mommy, Betty Baby is here."

Suddenly, a large hand reached out from afar and grabbed the girl.

Betty was struggling in mid-air.

Isabella laughed out loud.

Betty fell into a firm and broad embrace. She turned around and smiled coquettishly. "Daddy."

Then, she planted a kiss on Draxton's face.

Draxton smiled contentedly and pinched her little nose. She said unhappily, "Betty, you're a little baddie. You only love Mommy, not me."

Isabella and Draxton carried Betty and walked past Jocelyn's room. The door was closed, and only empty wine jars were left outside.

Isabella's eyes flashed, and a smile appeared on her lips. She looked at Draxton and said, "Draxton, what do you think they're doing in the room?"

Draxton coughed lightly and said uneasily, "Maybe they drank too much and fell asleep."

"Fine..." Isabella replied ambiguously

As for the Grey family, after they returned home, Patriarch Grey fainted.

Patriarch Grey woke up the next morning.

He strolled outside and heard a commotion.

He walked over and saw Hayden chasing out many servants and guards.

Patriarch Grey's eyes darkened. He didn't need to ask to know why these people were chased out.

They were all Cecilia's men.

After chasing those people away, Patriarch Grey said slowly. "This is far from enough. It had been 20 years. The entire Grey family and Clan Mobius might probably be hers."

"Clan Mobius is still alright. We can use bugs to control it." Hayden's eyes were cold.

Patriarch Grey paused and said, "Our ancestors said that the person who has the Evolution Poison is the leader of Clan Mobius. Hayden, what do you think of Isabella?"

Hayden was silent for a while before forcing a smile and said, "Father, you want Isabella to take over Clan Mobius? I'm afraid Jocelyn won't agree."

His sister was disappointed in them. She would never agree to her disciple becoming the leader of Clan Mobius.

Patriarch Grey said, "She will agree."

Hayden thought of Jocelyn's deep hatred for the Grey family. She was already planning to cut ties with the Grey family. Why would she agree to her disciple becoming Clan Mobius's leader?

In the afternoon, Jocelyn and Landon walked out of the room. Isabella sat at a small table and drank coffee. Draxton was playing with Betty. When they saw Jocelyn and Landon coming out, the three looked over in unison.

Isabella's gaze slid past Jocelyn and landed on Landon's face. He smiled and said, "I didn't expect Uncle Landon to be so strong despite his age. How was yesterday?"

Landon's eyes lit up as he excitedly said to Betty, "That's right, Betty. Mr. Wright is no longer the same as before."

He was not ashamed but proud. He said with a smile.

Betty blinked her big eyes and looked at Landon thoughtfully for a moment. She turned around and asked Isabella, "Mom, is Mr. Wright living off a woman?"

Isabella said, "This doesn't count. Mr. Wright is good-looking and capable. He's an amazing person. Living off a woman is only temporary for him."

Betty nodded solemnly. "Oh, I got it. My future partner must be capable. Even if he's a freeloader, he must be capable."

Isabella's expression changed drastically. She said in shock, "Betty, you're only five years old, and you're already thinking of looking for a partner?"

Betty innocently asked, "If you have Dad and Grandma Grey has Mr. Wright, why can't I have a partner?"

Isabella was speechless.

It made perfect sense.

However, her daughter was only five!

Isabella stuffed Betty into Draxton's arms and said furiously, "Look at your daughter. Do as you see fit. I can't control her!"

Draxton hugged Betty with a dark expression. He could not accept his daughter wanting a boyfriend when she was only five.

Jocelyn could not stop laughing. "Gosh, my Betty Baby is so cute!"

Landon smiled. He looked at Jocelyn gently and said, "Jocelyn, I wouldn't even dare to dream of being able to live off you!"

Jocelyn glared at him and pinched his arm. "Stop spouting nonsense. Look at how Betty Baby has been influenced."

Chapter 378 The Shortest-Serving Leader

Even for Isabella and Draxton, the cliff with the height of more than 4,000 meters was a bottomless pit. If they fell, they would definitely die.

Moreover, they had been bombed and suffered serious injuries.

Nonetheless, they were falling at great speed down the cliff. Suddenly, Isabella took out a bag from under her wide skirt. She didn't open the bag right away. Instead, she reached out her hand and rushed towards Draxton.

Draxton saw her moving in his direction, so he tried his best to get closer to her.

When their hands finally touched, they held each other's hands tightly.

Finally, Draxton turned around and wrapped his strong arms around her waist.

Isabella leaned in his arms and allowed the two of them to fall rapidly while opening the bag in a nimble way. With a light shake, a colorful two-person parachute suddenly emerged.

The speed of their descent dropped suddenly. The two of them leaned against each other. Although they were in a distressed situation, they could not help but laugh.

"How are you doing?" Isabella asked.

"Don't worry, I won't die." Draxton's back was seriously injured by the bomb and was bleeding.

Isabella's shoulder was also hurt. Both of them were covered in blood.

"This is your so-called self-injury ruse and beating them at their own game? We pay a heavy price for that." Isabella said angrily.

Draxton said, "We didn't get hurt for nothing."

Isabella sighed. "Forget it. This won't kill me. I might as well enjoy the beautiful view."

Draxton nodded. "Yes, enjoy the beautiful view."

They flew through the sea of clouds and kept falling. When they were approaching the ground, they were shocked because they saw a surging river below.

Isabella blinked and said angrily, "Draxton, didn't you say we only need a parachute? Why didn't you prepare a boat as well?"

Isabella also wanted to ask about Draxton, but she suddenly felt dizzy and her body swayed a little.

She struggled to balance herself while the beautiful young woman held her and placed two soft pillows behind her.

"Ganyra, your name sounds beautiful. I am Aurora," that young woman said with a gentle voice.

"This is my father. This is my mother, and this is my younger brother, Aiden. As you can see, he is a little special."

Isabella nodded.

Aurora continued, "Ganyra, you've lost a lot of blood. I'll get someone to prepare some food for you to rebuild your blood supply. Don't be a stranger. You need to rest well."

Isabella nodded again.

With that, Aurora left.

Aiden, the fatty, was about 20 years old. He was standing obediently at the side. His eyes were clear and bright as black pearls.

Turning to his mother, he said, "Miss Fairy's name is Ganyra Josephina. Mom, is that a kind of white butterfly? Is Miss Fairy originally a white butterfly?"

His eyes sparkled.

The middle-aged woman slapped his shoulder lightly and rebuked, "Aiden, don't talk nonsense."

"She is not?" Aiden blinked in confusion.

Isabella looked at them with a smile. Although the fatty was silly, she could see that his parents didn't look at him with disdain and impatience. Instead, their eyes were filled with genuine love.

After a short while, Aurora carried a tray over. Mrs. Hendrix asked, "Aurora, didn't Nathaniel go to pick up Luna? Why are they not back yet?"

Aurora replied, "I guess they are almost here. Don't worry about them. They'll come back soon."

Aurora brought the bread to Isabella and said, "Ganyra, eat something to nourish your body. No matter what happened to you, you have to recover first."

Isabella took the bread with a smile and said, "Thank you, Aurora. Thank you, Mr. Hendrix and Mrs. Hendrix. Also, Aiden, thank you for saving my life. I will definitely repay you."

Aiden glared at her and go to the other side with Caleb. As they walked, he said, "Hmph, you're so rude. I despise you."

Luna chased after him hurriedly and said, "I'm helping you to get a wife, Aiden. Ganyra is such a pretty woman. How am I rude?"

Aiden had a proud look on his face as he dragged Caleb around and kept walking. "Hmph, Mom said it's rude to ask Ganyra to be my wife. You're a bad person!"

Luna stomped her feet furiously and ran after them again. This time, she ignored Aiden and pulled Caleb over.

"Caleb, come with me. Don't play with the fool."

She yanked Caleb so hard that he fell to the ground. The little boy was stunned for a moment before bursting into tears.

A hint of impatience flashed across Luna's eyes as she chided him in low voice, "Stop crying! I'll beat you up if you keep crying!"

She raised her hand threateningly.

Caleb cried even louder. Aiden widened his eyes in anger and pushed Luna. "You're so mean! How dare you hit Caleb? I want to tell Mom and Dad, Aurora and Nathaniel..."

Luna looked at him with annoyance and said, "Get lost, you fool. I'm not talking to you!"

After saying that, she went to pick Caleb up. She was rough, showing no compassion for the kid at all.

Isabella even saw a trace of disgust in her eyes. She raised her eyebrows in surprise and thought, "Luna is Caleb's Aunt. Why does she dislike him?"

"That was not a reaction an aunt should have."

Caleb was still crying. He swung his little hands and hit Luna. "I want to play with Aiden. Aiden, boohoo..." Isabella could not stand it anymore. So, she walked over and put her hand on Luna's shoulder.

"Who is it?" Luna's voice trembled. She loosened her grip and Caleb fell to the ground.
