

Kick Ass Wife 39

Chapter 39 Bridget's Ambition

Therefore, when Isabella saw Bridget, a subtle feeling rose in her.

Carlos was Grandmaster's younger brother. Years ago, Carlos killed almost half of the village to steal the Legacy of Evil Doctors. He was then expelled from the sanctum by his and Grandmaster's master.

From then onwards, Grandmaster kept and sealed the Legacy of Evil Doctors.

Carlos's medical talent was not as high as the Grandmaster back then. So, he looked for another path and wanted to learn the Legacy of Evil Doctors secretly.

Although he did not get it, he had learned some poison usages in the Legacy of Evil Doctors.

Later, the master passed away, and Grandmaster never found any disciples he liked.

As the leader of the Sanctum of Holy Doctors, he was a bachelor. Only when he met Isabella did he find his successor.

After Isabella learned everything, he excitedly handed the leader position to her.

Meanwhile, Carlos disappeared after being chased out of the sanctum.

But time changed and decades passed. Soon, Carlos's name was heard again.

He claimed to be the leader of the Sanctum of Holy Doctors and had high medical skills. After all, he did have some medical skills.

Even though they were of average quality, the disciples who came out of the Sanctum of Holy Doctors were much better than ordinary doctors.

Carlos's reputation grew after he cured several prominent figures.

From then on, his reputation soared. His image changed from the guilty disciple who had been chased out of the sanctum into the traditional medicine practitioner and the leader of the Sanctum of Holy Doctors with outstanding medical skills.

The true former leader of the Sanctum of Holy Doctors, Greg Falkona, and Isabella, the current leader, always kept a low profile, unlike Carlos.

For some reason, Grandmaster was unwilling to leave Lotus Village.

Meanwhile, Isabella would not use the name of the Sanctum of Holy Doctors unless she had no choice.

Isabella was not even going to show others her ability.

She liked the freedom and life filled with leisure. All she wanted was to educate her kids and live an easy life. Fame was not what she yearned for.

The Grandmaster and her were totally different from Carlos.

However, Carlos and his disciple, Bridget, were keen on fame and fortune.

Isabella had even heard of rumors that Bridget was from the Riker family. They had brought Bridget up by the standard of the chieftain's wife of the Lockwood family.

"It's indeed..." An ironic smile appeared on Isabella's face.

Bridget, whose face was cold, was enraged when she saw Isabella remaining calm and even sneer.

That woman was more beautiful than she expected. Even if she did not want to admit it, she had to accept the fact that Isabella was more beautiful than herself.

It was still tolerable if Isabella was just pretty. Yet, that woman was eating something from her house.

"I can sue you for breaking and entering!" Bridget showed her anger.

Isabella laughed and took another sip of wine. "Really? Well, can I call the police and report Skydragon's territory and shut it down?"

"Then, track your place from the Skydragon's territory, Miss Riker?"

"You know me?" Bridget said as she squinted her eyes and prepared to use her dagger.

Isabella glanced at the dagger in Bridget's hands and saw the faint blue luster. She saw that the dagger was poisoned, as expected from Carlos's disciple.

She smiled and hid her disdainful gaze.
