

Kick Ass Wife 391

Chapter 391 Miraculous Doctor

No matter how much the Hendrix family believed in Nathaniel, at this moment, the seeds of doubt were planted.

When Nathaniel saw the Hendrix family's reaction, his heart skipped a beat. Instantly, he looked at Isabella as if she were dead.

Killing intent surged in his heart. Even though he had the intention to kill Ganyra, he revealed a strong sense of sorrow and disappointment in front of the Hendrix family.

He looked at Mr. Hendrix and said, "Dad, I grew up in the Hendrix family. All these years, I've worked so hard for the Hendrix family. When have I ever asked for anything in return?"

"I treat you all as my family members, Aurora as my wife. Everything I do is for my family and the entire Hendrix family.

"Now, this woman who came out of nowhere is framing me. If you believe in Ganyra, you can go ahead and investigate. "A clean hand wants no washing."

"Since things have come to this point today, I'll immediately resign from my position in the Hendrix Corporation. It won't be too late for me to come back when you all don't suspect me anymore.

"If you don't believe me, then I'll move out with Aurora and Caleb. Since Aiden is fine now, the Hendrix family doesn't need me anymore!"

As he spoke, tears streamed down his face, and his voice was already filled with grief.

Isabella was amazed. She clapped her hands and said, "Mr. Easton, you're good at acting!"

"Ganyra, what do you want?" Aurora stood up for Nathaniel.

Isabella glanced at Aurora and ignored her. Instead, he looked at Mr. and Mrs. Hendrix and said, "Mr. and Mrs. Hendrix, the Hendrix family saved me. I have no intention to destroy the harmony of your family.

"I can also turn a blind eye to certain things. You can also choose not to believe Caleb and Aiden's words. However, since Mr. Easton is so magnanimous, you might as well investigate.

"After you've checked, if there's nothing wrong with him, then treat it as me biting the hand that feeds one. If there's something wrong with him..."

Isabella chuckled and glanced at Nathaniel. "Doesn't that mean that I helped your Hendrix family remove a black sheep and saved the entire Hendrix family?"

"After all, I've always been a person who takes revenge immediately. I'm also very timely in repaying kindness!"

Mr. and Mrs. Hendrix looked at each other.

Chapter 392 Idol's Autograph

For the past few days, Isabella had been staying at the Presbyterian Medical Center. During this period, she treated many patients. It was pretty carefree.

Patients who had been treated by Isabella might not know that they had been treated by the Miraculous Doctor for the rest of their lives.

That was an opportunity that many people could not get, even if they begged.

After sending off another patient with flu, Isabella looked up and couldn't help but look at Felix behind the counter.

Over the past few days, when she was, in the consultation room, Felix would always sneak glances at her. When she looked over, he would look away and pretend to be serious as he packed the medicine.

On one occasion, Isabella saw him put chamomile in a drawer of Echinacea.

It was deadly.

*Felix!" Isabella called out. Felix's body suddenly stiffened, and his face tensed up.

Isabella said curiously, "Felix, why do you always look at me secretly? Even if I'm beautiful, I'm already married. Besides, you're a little older!"

Felix's mouth twitched a few times, and his facial expression changed. In the end, he gritted his teeth and walked towards Isabella with a book.

Felix awkwardly handed the book to her, cleared his throat, and said, "Ms. Josephina, this is our Monroe family's medical record. Can you please sign it?"

Felix's words left Isabella at a loss for words.

Isabella gradually came back to her senses. The corners of her lips slowly curled up, and she said with a faint smile, "Felix, do you admire my medical skills?"

The goatee on Felix's chin trembled a few times. He lowered his voice and said, "Chief had told me your identity. Please sign it for me!"

Felix leaned forward slightly and blushed.

After dealing with the troublemakers, Isabella and the Seventh Master entered the back hall and sat opposite each other. There were two cups of coffee on the small table in the middle.

The smell of coffee wafted in the air.

"Miraculous Doctor's medical skills are indeed amazing. I'm honored to have seen it."

Isabella smiled. "Seventh Master, you flatter me."

"You know who I am?" Seventh Master asked with a smile.

Isabella shook his head. "I've read up on all the district masters. Among all the district masters, the only one with the surname Thompson is the Seventh Master."

"That's true."

"If I'm not wrong, you and Mr. Lockwood should have faked your death. Aren't you afraid that I'll tell Julian that you're still alive?"

Isabella glanced at him and said indifferently, "If you leak our news of being alive, we will just change our plan. However, it will not affect the overall situation, and I'll probably kill you first to vent my anger.

"It was strenuous and unrewarding if you're doing this. It harmed others without benefiting yourself. The moment I saw you, I knew that you were a smart person and would never do anything stupid."

Isabella took a sip of coffee and smiled sincerely.

The Seventh Master looked at her for a while and sighed. "Miraculous Doctor is right."

He continued, "Miraculous Doctor sits in my medical center every day. There are too many people coming in and out. Some people will inevitably see it. If the news leaks from other places, please don't blame me for that."

Isabella Thompson said, "Don't worry, Seventh Master. Although all the district masters of Paradise Settlement are under Julian, it's just a matter of benefits.

Nathaniel did not expect the Seventh Master to embarrass him in that way. He said stiffly, "Seventh Master, I'm the son-in-law of the Hendrix family and also the future successor of the Hendrix family. It seems that you do not take the Hendrix family seriously."

"The Hendrix family doesn't have an heir like you!"

Suddenly, a furious voice sounded. Everyone turned around and saw the Hendrix family.

Mr. Hendrix, who was in the lead, looked furious. His eyes were spitting fire.

Beside him, Aurora's face was pale, and her eyes were red. She looked like she was about to cry. She looked like her worldview had been overturned.

Mrs. Hendrix's expression was equally terrible. She stared at Nathaniel without saying a word.

Isabella looked past them and looked back. He saw Aiden holding Caleb's hand. The two of them also looked very serious.

"Dad!"

Nathaniel cried out in shock.

"Don't call me dad. I don't dare to have a son-in-law like you!" Mr. Hendrix interrupted Nathaniel coldly

Nathaniel was stunned by his shout. Panic flashed in his eyes. "Could it be that the Hendrix family had found out something in the past few days?"

However, he had erased all traces. Aspen couldn't discover it!

Mr. Hendrix said to the two district masters, "Third Master, Seventh Master, I'm sorry to disturb you all. Something has happened to our family. I'm here to look for this evil creature!"

Mr. Hendrix pointed at Nathaniel.

"Mr. Hendrix, don't be angry. What exactly happened?" the Third Master asked.

He and the Hendrix family had always worked together in business. The Third Master knew Nathaniel because of the Hendrix family.

Mr. Hendrix had no intention of hiding it. He took out a stack of documents.

"Third Master, our family is unfortunate. The Hendrix family would probably have been killed without Ms. Josephina's guidance.

"Nathaniel is simply a vicious person. He has brought disaster upon the Hendrix family."

The Third Master was shocked. He picked up the information and looked at it for a moment. His expression gradually changed.

Draxton was silent for two seconds. The corners of his lips could not help but curl up slightly. He wrapped his long arm around Isabella's waist and made her cling tightly to him.

He lowered his eyes and looked into her smiling eyes. With a serious expression, he said in a low voice, "Miss, I have also fallen in love with you at first sight!"

Isabella stared at him. "Hehe. This man's ears are indeed red."

She was satisfied now, and the smile in her eyes deepened.

However, some people were unhappy.

Ingrid and Ivory, who had come with Mr. Riley, were furious.

Hmph, men were all liars. Joshua even said that Mr. Lockwood already had a wife and warned them to behave themselves.

But now, this man was still hugging another woman. It was inappropriate!

Why could other women do it but not them?

For a moment, their thoughts raced as they stared at Isabella in an unfriendly manner.

Isabella looked up and happened to see the expressions of the two little beauties. She could not help but be amused.

Just as she was about to say something, Nathaniel, who was on the ground, suddenly groaned and woke up.

Isabella's attention was instantly diverted. She looked at Draxton and asked, "Didn't you use force with that kick just now? How did he wake up so quickly?"

Draxton was silent for a moment and said, "Maybe he is good at resisting beating?"

As they were talking, Nathaniel opened his eyes and saw Draxton and Isabella hugging each other.

Isabella stared at Nathaniel's resentful eyes and tugged at Draxton's tie to complain. "This person tried to molest me previously. He didn't even take a look at himself. With this obscene appearance, he still wanted to touch me. How can he compare to you?"

Draxton's eyes immediately darkened. Coldness and anger intertwined. He raised his leg and crushed Nathaniel's calf. Instantly, Nathaniel's face turned pale from the pain.

Nathaniel stared at them with even more hatred. His gaze swept around and finally landed on Aurora.

“Aurora, we’ve been husband and wife for so long. Do you have to be so cruel to me? Even if you don’t care about our past relationship, I’m still Caleb’s father. Do you want to see Caleb live without a father?”

His words simply hurt Aurora.

As expected, Aurora’s entire body stiffened, and a trace of hesitation appeared on her face. However, in the next moment, she became even angrier. “You still dare to mention Caleb? How do you usually threaten Caleb behind my back?

Isabella held Mr. Hendrix's arm and helped him up. "The Hendrix family saved me. It's only right for me to repay you."

Aspen was excited.

He thought that his relationship with Miraculous Doctor was special that other people could compare to. She had saved the Hendrix family's life As long as the Hendrix family adhered to their duty, the Hendrix family would never be afraid of being suppressed by the Riley family

At the thought of this, he glanced at the Riley family proudly

Mr. Riley also thought of this, and his face darkened slightly.

This was the Hendrix family's territory. Therefore, the Hendrix family personally arranged a banquet to entertain everyone.

Everyone agreed

“From now on, we’re all on the same side.” The Seventh Master said with a smile.

At the Hendrix family, as Isabella’s identity changed, everyone’s attitude was no longer as casual as before Aurora led Caleb over. Nathaniel had been sent to prison and would probably never be able to come out again.

Aurora looked a little uncomfortable as she had chased Isabella away previously

“Ms Josephina. No, Miraculous Doctor. I was blind before and wronged you. Please, don’t mind me.”

Caleb held Aurora’s hand and looked at Isabella quietly with his dark eyes.

He was young and ignorant, but he also vaguely feel that something was different.

Isabella smiled and comforted her. “Aurora, it’s hard to suspect the person who has been with you for so many years.

If you suspect your partner just because of a few words from others, that would be abnormal.”

Tears streamed down Aurora’s face as she turned her head away in embarrassment.

The corners of everyone's mouths twitched, and they were speechless.

Isabella looked at him in amusement and said, "Alright, I'll be jealous next time, okay? The next time a woman approaches you, I'll hang that person up and beat her up, okay?"

Draxton didn't say anything, but his ears turned slightly red, and the corners of her lips curled up silently.

Ingrid was holding the wine and was already stiff like a piece of wood. Mr. Riley raised his head and shouted angrily, "What are you waiting for? Back off!"

Ingrid quivered, and tears gushed out. She was so embarrassed that her face turned red. She turned around and ran away.

Seeing Ingrid being embarrassed, the corners of Ivory's lips curled up. After that, Ivory followed Ingrid and comforted her.

Mr. Riley stood up and raised his wine glass. He looked at Isabella apologetically and said, "Miraculous Doctor, it's my daughter's fault. I hope you will be magnanimous and forgive her."

Isabella played with the glass in her hand and did not have the intention to return the favor. She only said calmly, "Of course, I won't lower myself to the level of an ignorant little girl. Mr. Riley, this is your fault as a father. How can you let a good little girl be so rash?

"I'm not one at a disadvantage in the end. Am I right?"

Mr. Riley broke out in a cold sweat. His face was pale and filled with fear.

He had a feeling that Miraculous Doctor knew that he was the one who instigated his daughter to do that.

He belatedly realized that Miraculous Doctor was the patriarch's wife. If he tried to let his daughter seduce the patriarch again, he would probably be destroyed by the patriarch's wife before they could get close to the patriarch.

Moreover, looking at the patriarch's attitude, it was clear that he was devoted to the patriarch's wife and had no intention of betraying her.

Mr. Riley thought this through and broke out in cold sweat again. He seemed to have made a wrong decision. previously.

Isabella looked at him and took a sip of her wine. She smiled and said, "Mr. Riley, I've always been tolerant of my people. I don't care about this little girl's thoughts."

In other words, she was willing to give Mr. Riley a chance.

Chapter 398 The New Boss

Ian opened the jar and poured his blood into it. Instantly, there was a fierce hissing sound from the jar.

In the blink of an eye, the tide of black bugs surged out and rushed into the district master's manor. Jocelyn and Betty were not around today. It was the big snake that accompanied Landon.

Without Betty around, the big snake was living very comfortably. In any case, Landon did not dare to provoke it easily.

The big snake had high spirits. It went around the courtyard of the district master's manor.

It could go wherever it wanted.

It was sleeping on the wall when it suddenly raised its head and stared ahead coldly. It flicked its tongue and hissed threateningly.

In front of them was a poison bug army.

Seeing that the threat was useless, the big snake hesitated for a moment, then swung its tail and whipped it. Buzz!

The black bugs' tide was dispersed. The insects flapped their wings and flew in with a buzzing sound. The big snake was stunned. It turned around and ran away.

Landon was in the middle of a discussion with Hector, Corey, and the others. When he saw the big snake enter bewilderedly, his expression immediately changed.

“Be careful!”

Landon notified them, stood up, and walked out. When he went out to take a look, his scalp immediately went numb.

“Bugs!”

Landon immediately recognized it. Then, he quickly said, “Quick, call Patriarch Grey. Only the Grey family can deal with these bugs.”

Hector quickly went to make a call.

However, the bugs did not attack them. Instead, they headed towards the Red Crystal with a very purposeful goal.

Landon’s face darkened, and he said angrily, “Despicable! They want to use this method to snatch the Red Crystal!”

Hector and the others were also furious. “Father, what should we do?”

Landon gritted his teeth. “It can’t be helped. Let’s see how the Red Crystal deal with it.”

In the end, to their surprise, none of the Red Crystal retaliated.

Jaye looked around and saw that the other old men were clapping. He chuckled and walked nimbly towards Betty.

He opened his arms. "Betty, you must be tired. Grandpa Jaye will carry you down to eat something delicious." The other old men's expressions changed, and they rushed out.

"Jaye, how could you carry Betty without discussing it with us? We agreed to discuss it!"

Richard said unhappily.

Jaye rolled his eyes. "It doesn't matter who carries her. I came here first. Of course, I'm the only one carrying her!"

Richard naturally wouldn't give in. Neil and the other four elders didn't admit defeat either. The few old men fought over who would carry Betty.

Betty sighed and climbed down from the table alone. She ran towards Jocelyn with cold and ruthless steps. Jocelyn finally woke up. She looked at the old men speechlessly and led Betty to the lounge.

After the elders finished arguing, they turned around and saw that Betty had already disappeared.

The walls of the lounge were covered with surveillance camera screens.

Usually, other than the elders, no one else was allowed to enter this lounge.

Perhaps even Julian did not know that the surveillance camera screen here could see most of the entire Paradise Settlement.

This was terrifying. There were nine districts in Paradise Settlement, and all surveillance cameras of these nine districts can be seen here.

Betty had gotten used to this place over the past few days. In the beginning, she even tried to find her parents through these surveillance cameras to locate them.

In the end, she did not discover it.

Jocelyn took a cupcake and a glass of warm water to Betty. Betty drank a few sips of water obediently. She saw Julian walking towards the council on a screen when she looked up.

Betty rolled her eyes.

Chapter 400 President’s Action

Isabella was stunned.

How was this related to Mr. Lyons?

“There are two crystal potions of each color, so there are likely to be two Black Crystal Potions.

“First, let’s not discuss the potion in Mystical Island. Many years ago, I heard from my grandpa and my father that the President and his younger brother had fallen out over some potions.

“When I went to Lotus Village previously, I didn’t recognize Mr. Lyons at first, but later on, I remembered that Mr. Lyons was President’s younger brother. You know this, Bella.”

Isabella was silent for a moment. "So, you think that the reason why Mr. Lyons stayed in Lotus Village for so long is very likely related to the Black Crystal Potion."

"That's right."

Isabella fell silent and fell into deep thought.

Draxton said, "However, the Black Crystal Potion that disappeared after the old president died must still be somewhere on the Mystical Island.

"If Julian killed the old president for the Black Crystal Potion and framed Uncle Landon, then Julian must still be looking for that Black Crystal Potion."

Isabella said, "Could it be that the Black Crystal Potion is with Julian now?"

Draxton shook his head. "That's unlikely. If it was in his hands, his attitude would be even more unyielding, unlike his current attitude."

Isabella thought about it and agreed.

At this moment, the Second Master said, "Patriarch, Mrs. Lockwood. The First Master mentioned that it's best to look for the Fifth Master if we want to track down the traces of that Black Crystal Potion. The Fifth Master might know something."

The Second Master's expression was a little strange. There was something he did not know.

Isabella and Draxton looked at each other. They temporarily put aside the matter of the President and Master Lyons and said, "Then let's go pay a visit to Fifth Master."

Dawton City.

Alderic waited outside the kindergarten for a long time. Seeing that the other children had been taken away and their young master had yet to come out, Alderic gradually felt uneasy.

When all the children had lined up. Alderic still did not see Ricky. He quickly went forward to ask.

The teacher looked surprised and said, "Sir, didn't Little Ricky get picked up by his family member?"
BOOM!

panic appeared on the face of this fierce-looking tough man. "Teacher, that's impossible. We didn't send anyone to pick up the young master. When
