

Kick Ass Wife 411

Chapter 411 Not Smart And Weak

Eighth Master's pupils constricted Ian actually knew his trump card

Even Ian knew about it. How could Joshua not know about it then?

All these years, he had been suppressed by Joshua and had been secretly developing his force so that he could give Joshua a fatal blow at a critical moment. But now, it seemed that his secret was not a secret.

Seeing Eighth Master's frightened expression, Ian revealed an old fox-like smile

"Oh, Eighth Master, don't be surprised. I didn't know you had such an Expendable Legion. Mr. Doyle was the one who told me this news!"

"Mr. Doyle? Which Mr. Doyle? Oh, you mean the vice president, right?" Eighth Master was stunned and asked Ian looked at him speechlessly and said, "Eighth Master, how insensible you are. The vice president? Isn't it only a matter of time before Mr. Doyle becomes the president? Why do you have to say that he's the vice president?"

"You should also know that the council is about to start selecting a new president. It will only be a few days. Mr. Doyle will definitely take over the position!"

Eighth Master looked hesitant "Alright, I don't care whether Mr. Doyle will be the president or the vice president. I just want to know how he knows that I have an Expendable Legion.

"Even he knows about it. How could Joshua not know?"

The more Eighth Master spoke, the more terrified he became.

He stood up and rubbed his hands as he paced back and forth. "What should I do? Joshua is a shrewd and cunning smiling tiger. I couldn't even hide it from Julian. I definitely couldn't hide it from Joshua either!"

Ian's expression was a little strange. He said, "Eighth Master, it hasn't been easy for you all these years!

"Look, Joshua has already traumatized you. Are you that afraid of him?"

Eighth Master was of medium build. He had a mustache and small eyes.

Hearing this, he widened his small eyes and said angrily, "You know nothing about it!"

Ian's face darkened.

Eighth Master had been pretending to be submissive and timid just now. Now, his expression immediately changed. He was really courting death.

Eighth Master was terrified. He nodded repeatedly in fear. "Yes, yes."

"You can't be as stupid as he is, can you?"

Isabella smiled at him.

Eighth Master nodded desperately.

Isabella praised, "Eighth Master, you're the real smart one."

Eighth Master asked cautiously, "When are you leaving?"

Isabella's smile froze. Then, she was so angry that she laughed. She was about to speak when footsteps came from outside.

Isabella turned around in surprise and saw a group of people walking in unison.

The person in the lead was Joshua.

Isabella's eyes flashed with surprise.

However, Eighth Master was not surprised at all.

Obviously, this was not the first time such a scene had happened.

Eighth Master widened his small eyes in despair.

Joshua walked in and ignored Eighth Master. Instead, he walked straight to Isabella.

Chapter 413 Meeting Of District Masters

Not to mention how depressed the Eighth Master was, even Isabella was stunned.

She looked at Joshua and blinked. Then, she could not help but burst out laughing. She could not help but give him a thumbs up.

Joshua could not help but smile. He was a smiling tiger and often smiled. However, no one could see through his true emotions.

However, at this moment, his smile was a little smug and ostentatious. He was like a naughty child who had been praised by his parents. His entire body was filled with a smug aura.

Joshua's move had indeed trampled on the Eighth Master's last bit of pride and dignity.

One could imagine what kind of life the Eighth Master had been living all these years.

It was fine if he was suppressed by Joshua and could not turn things around. It was not easy for him to secretly develop his trump card, but in the end, he did everything for his enemy.

And he had always been complacent about it..

The Eighth Master cried.

He was really crying now. He slid out of his chair and onto the floor. He sat there sobbing like a child, looking so desperate all over.

Isabella tilted her head and could not help but reveal a trace of sympathy in her eyes.

With a smile on his face, Joshua slowly walked to the Eighth Master and squatted down.

He placed an arm on the Eighth Master's shoulder and said, "Eighth Master, why are you crying? You've done very well all these years. You're a successful district master."

The Eighth Master sobbed as he glanced at Joshua and said, "Kill or torture me if you want, but don't insult me!"

Everyone turned around and saw that it was Julian

Julian had clearly heard the commotion here and walked out

When he saw the Nine flame Plaque in Landon's hand, his pupils suddenly trembled. Then, a hint of determination flashed in his eyes

He snorted and smiled "Why do you stop Mr Wright and Mrs Lockwood? Tom, what's going on?"

He seemed to be asking Tom, but he was actually staring at isabella

Isabella glanced at Julian and moved her foot away from Tom. "Your master is here."

Tom gasped in pain. He got up from the ground and walked to Julian's side to sue Isabella for her evil deeds. Isabella sneered nonchalantly.

Just as Isabella was feeling complicated, Julian was simply stunned. He roared in disbelief, "Sixth Master! Sixth Master, what are you doing? You're the dignified district master of District 6. Aren't you ashamed?" Sixth Master looked at Julian expressionlessly. There was a trace of confusion in his eyes as he said, "I didn't do anything embarrassing!"

Julian was furious. He said angrily, "Sixth Master, you're the Sixth Master. How can you ask her for an autograph? This is simply ridiculous! Isn't this embarrassing?"

Sixth Master's facial paralysis seemed to get worse. He looked like he was about to hit someone the next moment

Isabella glanced at Julian, snorted, and sneered. Then she took the handkerchief and pen from Sixth Master. Sixth Master looked at her. Isabella gave him a friendly smile and said, "Thank you for your appreciation, Sixth Master. It's just an autograph. It's nothing!"

With that, she lowered her head and signed her name on the handkerchief

Sixth Master stared at the tip of the pen with a hint of excitement in his eyes.

He carefully took the handkerchief and carefully put it into his pocket. His face was slightly red as he said, "Thank you, Mrs. Lockwood!"

Isabella lamented in her heart. Men couldn't be judged by their looks. Who would have thought that the fierce-looking Sixth Master was also her fan?

Isabella looked in Julian's direction and smiled with narrowed eyes. "Mr. Duncan, you're too narrow-minded. What's so embarrassing about asking for an autograph? You're a little narrow-minded. Oh, you're also short-sighted!"

She criticized Julian. Julian was so angry that his face turned ashen.

He looked around. The people around him were watching the show silently, but no one came out to speak for him.

Julian's eyelids twitched, and he became even angrier.

At this moment, there was a sudden silence in the air. Then, ten elders walked out one after another.

This time, Julian could care less about the small matter of the Sixth Master asking for an autograph. His attention was focused on the elders. When he saw Jocelyn come out, Julian's eyes darkened.

The corners of his lips twitched as he sneered inwardly. How could the strength of Jocelyn compare to the entire council?

As long as it concerned the overall situation of the tribunal committee and Mystical Island, the elders of the council would not show any mercy.

Julian knew those old men very well, so he was confident that he could eliminate Landon and Isabella today. All district masters and the big shots of the forces stood up and bowed respectfully when they saw the people from the council.

Fifth Master's words and attitude made all the district masters stand up straight and watch the show. They looked over with bright eyes.

"What is this lunatic trying to do?" Third Master asked in surprise.

Seventh Master's eyes flashed. "I didn't expect Mrs. Lockwood to subdue him too."

"That lunatic isn't that easy to subdue!" Third Master said.

Seventh Master said, "Let's see what he wants to do!"

Julian was completely stunned by Fifth Master's attitude

His heart suddenly skipped a beat and he said sternly, "Fifth Master, what nonsense are you talking about? Have you lost your mind from drinking?"

Julian's eyes stared sharply into Fifth Master's eyes as a warning.

Fifth Master's eyes were filled with drunkenness as he said, "Julian, what are you staring at? Others might be afraid of you, but I'm not!

"Back then, not only did you kill the old president, but you also killed Hannah. Do you think I don't know?"

Fifth Master roared.

Julian's eyes immediately turned red. He said angrily, "Justin, you're slandering me. I didn't kill them!"

Fifth Master sneered. "Whether you killed them or not, you have to speak with evidence!"

"Where's the evidence? Show me the evidence!" Julian was furious. He never thought that this lunatic would stand up to testify against him at such a critical moment

Initially, he thought that at most, he could not count on this lunatic. However, he did not expect that the person who embarrassed him was this lunatic.

Julian found it ridiculous!

He had planned for so many years. How could he make such a fatal mistake?

That video was real because everything that happened in the video had really happened.

However, he did not understand. He had racked his brains to do it. Why he would leave such a fatal video behind?

An invisible surveillance camera that no one knew about? This was ridiculous!

Julian's mind was buzzing. He hadn't recovered from this huge blow.

"Lock him up in the death cell and execute him at a later date." Jaye's cold and ruthless voice sounded, immediately sobering Julian up.

He hadn't fully come to his sense from the terrible blow. He hadn't come to terms with reality.

Julian's body trembled when he heard Jaye's order, and his eyes widened.

The death cell was the place where the tribunal committee held prisoners under sentence of death.

Once one went in, there was no chance of coming out.

He could not help but look at the district masters. He did not want to go to the death cell. If all the district masters pleaded for him, he would at least have a chance.

Even if he was convicted, as long as he didn't go to the death cell....

However, when he looked over, he saw that those district masters didn't have any intention of pleading for him. Moreover, they looked like they were watching a show.

Julian's mind instantly exploded. The next moment, he saw those district masters surrounding Landon with smiles on their faces. They did not even look at him.

No, someone was still looking at him.

It was Fifth Master. Fifth Master's drunken eyes were looking at him mockingly.

Julian's eyes instantly turned red. He could not help but shout again, "Justin, I said, I didn't kill Hannah!"

However, he had already been forcibly detained.

Justin waved his hand nonchalantly. "Jaye, if you're not used to it, depose me and let someone else take over District 5. Anyway, my life is boring!"

Jaye's face darkened.

Isabella did not say anything. Instead, she quietly sized up Fifth Master.

Fifth Master also looked at Isabella and said, "Mrs. Lockwood, I have something to discuss with you. Do you have time to follow me back to District 5?"

Isabella was stunned. Just as she was about to speak, Jaye said in a deep voice, "Justin, is the Black Crystal Potion in your hands?"

Justin glanced at Isabella and knew that it was Isabella who told Jaye about it. He did not hide it and spoke. indifferently.

"That's right. The old president entrusted the Black Crystal Potion to Hannah back then. Unfortunately, Hannah was killed by Julian.

"Fortunately, Hannah had hidden the Black Crystal Potion in advance. I arrived in time and Hannah entrusted the Black Crystal Potion to me.

"Hannah asked me to give the Black Crystal Potion to Old Mr. Wright. However, Julian had been in power all these years, and Mr. Wright was forced to live in the slums settlement. I didn't dare to say anything, so I could only remain quiet all these years.

"Mrs. Lockwood, I came to you because of the Black Crystal Potion. Jaye, I want to hand the Black Crystal Potion to Mrs. Lockwood. Do you have any objections?"

Jaye looked at him for a while and didn't say anything. It was a tacit agreement.

Isabella said, "Jaye, I'm not greedy for the Black Crystal Potion, but Fifth Master has invited me to District 5. I'd better go with him."

Jaye nodded.

Without much delay, Isabella and Fifth Master left District 1 and headed for District 5.

However, just as they were about to reach District 5, their car was stopped by someone.

A group of heavily armored mercenaries rushed out with weapons in their hands and surrounded their car. The roads on Mystical Island were different from the outside world. This place was desolate and uninhabited. If a murder really happened, it would probably take a few days for people to discover it.

but Kimberley dared to fight her

Chapter 419 Fought With Kimberley

Kimberley's entire body trembled.

She stared at Ian's corpse as two streams of tears rolled down her face.

She had no mother since she was young. Her father raised her alone, trained her, and gave her everything he could.

No matter what she did, her father would support her without hesitation.

Even if she wanted to play with men, her father had never said anything.

As long as it could make her happy, her father would do his best to satisfy her.

This time, it was also because she had guessed that the Black Crystal Potion was in Fifth Master's hands and suggested to surround him halfway. That was why her father cooperated with her.

But now, her father who doted on her had been killed.

Her only family in this world was gone.

"Isabella!" Kimberley gritted her teeth and slowly called out Isabella's name. The expression on her twisted face was replaced by ruthlessness.

Isabella stood upright with Butterfly Wing in her hand. She became serious.

She did not expect Kimberley to be so extraordinary.

At the very least, the aura that erupted from Kimberley was worthy of her attention.

Isabella's beautiful face revealed a trace of solemnity.

Kimberley moved.

She pounced over violently, and a strange scimitar appeared in each of her hands, flashing with a faint blue light.

The blades swept past, and Isabella could smell the fishy smell of two blades.

The two blades had been poisoned.

Kimberley's pair of hands worked perfectly. In the beginning, Isabella indeed felt threatened.

However, Isabella and Evolution Poison were one. Her stamina, speed, and reflexes were all above that of ordinary people.

Fifth Master continued, "Kimberley is not an ordinary person. She is talented. When she was young, she met a boxing expert from a reclusive family and acknowledged that person as her master. Kimberley is the star of the Sullivan family and is a legend in the hearts of those mercenaries.

"Since you broke Kimberley's arms, those mercenaries will definitely not let you off.

"If you chase them to District 9, the Sullivan family and the Mercenary Association won't let you off. If you're alone, you're not their match at all."

The wound on Isabella's shoulder had already congealed. The scab was black, but at the same time, the area around her wound was swollen. There was a faint numb feeling.

Isabella took out a pill from the metal pendant around her neck and put it into her mouth.

Fifth Master was shocked again. "It's an antidote?"

Isabella still ignored him.

"That won't do. Even if you can control your injuries, it will be troublesome once you go to District 9. I heard that your Red Crystal Team went to District 1 with Landon. They should still be in District 1 now, right?" "You talk too much!" Isabella said coldly.

"I'm just telling the truth. I'm not afraid. Anyway, I'm living a boring life. But you're different. Do you really want to die?"

"Who said I'm going to die? I'm going to kill someone!" The car sped up, as fast as a willow leaf.

In front, the mercenary who saved Kimberley also drove quickly.

The two cars sped down the road. Two hours later, they pulled into District 9.

As soon as they stepped into the range of District 9, dozens of cars rushed over like dozens of ferocious beasts.

They hit Isabella's car with all their might.

Isabella jumped out of the car and nimbly dashed out.

Countless mercenaries also rushed out of the dozens of cars and surrounded Isabella.

Isabella narrowed her eyes. Her clear and beautiful eyes were completely pure at this moment. It meant that she forgot about life and death and all her worries.

Other than killing, she didn't think about anything else.

At this moment, she seemed to have transformed into a killing machine.

Butterfly was famous in the assassin world not only because she had never lost, but also because she was ruthless.

Unfortunately, those who had witnessed her ruthlessness were all dead.
