Chapter 421 Golden Butterfly Contact

Meanwhile, at the foot of a barren mountain in the slums settlement, Draxton held a crystal-like ore in his hand.

He activated the ancient mental rhythms, and strands of invisible energy surged out of the ore and entered his body.

He could feel a warm power in his body. It was very comfortable.

His expression turned grave.

This type of ore was not metal, but it was incomparably precious because it was an ore similar to energy. If it was discovered by the outside world, no one knew what kind of disturbance it would cause.

"Everyone present today must keep their mouths shut. You should know how powerful this ore is.

"Once the secret is leaked, the entire Mystical Island will no longer exist. You don't want to see such an outcome, right?"

Everyone's hearts skipped a beat as they revealed horrified expressions.

Mr. Riley and Mr. Hendrix let go of their prejudices at this moment. The two of them looked at each other and promised solemnly, "Mr. Lockwood, we will definitely control our subordinates. We will not leak a word about this mine."

Draxton nodded. The Riley family and the Hendrix family were equivalent to the local tyrants here. It was naturally possible for them to keep a secret.

Mr. Riley said obsequiously, "Mr. Lockwood, we will mine these ores as soon as possible for the next step of research. We will definitely not disappoint you."

Draxton nodded.

Mr. Hendrix looked at Mr. Riley in disdain and said, "Mr. Lockwood. Just holding this thing makes people feel comfortable. It's definitely good for our bodies. I'll get someone to polish the ores into accessories and send them to Mrs. Lockwood and Miss Lockwood."

Mr. Riley immediately glared at Mr. Hendrix indignantly.

As they argued, the golden butterfly stud on Draxton's left ear suddenly emitted a sizzling sound. It was the sound of the electric current when the signal was connected.

Isabella finally understood Fifth Master's real purpose. It turned out that he actually wanted to use her as a test subject.

Isabella sneered. "You know how powerful the test subject of the crystal potion is. If your experiment fails, I'll die. If the experiment succeeds and I survive, aren't you afraid that I'll take revenge?"

Fifth Master shook his head and said with a smile, "Mrs. Lockwood, you worry too much. We naturally have a way to control you. You don't have to worry about this."

"You?" Isabella caught the keyword. She asked, "Who are you working for?"

Fifth Master's expression changed, but he did not say anything.

"The council?" Isabella guessed. "Or is it a force on Mystical Island?"

Isabella noticed that there was no change in Fifth Master's expression, so she continued, "President? Fifth Master, could it be that you're a spy? Do you work for someone else?"

Fifth Master's drunken eyes suddenly became clear and sharp. He turned his head and stared at Isabella. He said coldly, "I've said it before. People who are too smart don't live long. Mrs. Lockwood, don't be too careless."

"Do you think you can kill a test subject like me so easily?" Isabella asked in reply.

Fifth Master was stunned for a moment and laughed. "Mrs. Lockwood, you're right. Since that's the case, I have nothing to hide. That's right. It's the President's order. Only those old men from the council are considered smart. Those idiots on Mystical Island are out of touch with reality. They are not qualified to order me to do things."

"Then why did you help us ruin Julian? Isn't it better to leave such an enemy for the Lockwood family? Aren't you afraid that Landon and Jocelyn will find trouble with you in the future?"

"Haha..." Fifth Master laughed. "Landon is much kinder and easier to deal with than Julian."

"When I worked with Julian, I was constantly on guard against being schemed against by him."

"However, if I worked with Landon, as long as I knew his weakness, he would naturally be obedient."

"The rise and fall of Mystical Island is something that Landon and those old men from the council care about."

"Mrs. Lockwood, do you think such a person is much easier to deal with than Julian?"

"Once someone has something that he cares about, he will not become so powerful. At least, they will not be invincible."

Isabella fell silent. She had to admit that Fifth Master's words made sense.

"Furthermore, I can also gain your trust by helping you destroy Julian. Otherwise, Mrs. Lockwood, why would you be lying here and allowing me to experiment?"

As Fifth Master spoke, he poured half a bottle of wine in his hand toward Isabella.

Fifth Master, who was running away, looked up and saw the helicopter landing. His expression changed, and he almost instantly thought of Draxton.

Without hesitation, Fifth Master turned around and fled. At the same time, he pressed the communicator in his hand to contact his own people to save him.

When the helicopter landed halfway, the door suddenly opened. Draxton did not wait for it to land and directly jumped down from the door.

At this moment, the helicopter was still more than ten meters high above the ground. When he jumped down, his aura was shocking. He quickly attacked Fifth Master who was fleeing.

Fifth Master felt the sound of rushing wind behind him. When he turned around, he saw Draxton's murderous expression.

On the helicopter, Mr. Riley and Mr. Hendrix looked at Draxton's figure in shock. Both of them gasped. Fifth Master was directly tackled by Draxton.

Draxton bent his leg and pressed Fifth Master to the ground. His right hand firmly held Fifth Master's neck, and his knuckles kept tightening. Fifth Master's eyes were wide open. With his strength, he actually could not break free.

Draxton's gaze was like ice that had been frozen for ten thousand years. It was filled with killing intent as he stared at the person below him emotionlessly.

Fifth Master opened his mouth a few times and finally squeezed out a few words, "You... dare... kill... me..." "Why not?" Draxton asked coldly.

"Isabella..."

Draxton was stunned. "Are you threatening me?"

Fifth Master stared at him without saying anything, but his gaze was self-evident.

Draxton was a little hesitant, but he still did not want to let Fifth Master go. He let go of Fifth Master's neck and saw two bruised finger marks on Fifth Master's throat.

Fifth Master secretly rejoiced that he had escaped death. However, Draxton did not stop what he was doing. The next moment, he directly broke Fifth Master's wrists. Then, he stood up and kicked Fifth Master violently, crushing Fifth Master's ankles.

Fifth Master grunted and his eyes widened.

He had no sense of touch, so he could not feel pain, but he could feel fear.

He met Draxton's eyes.

Draxton said coldly, "Didn't the President tell you what kind of person I, Draxton, am? If the President hurts my family, even he wouldn't dare to face me head-on, not to mention that you're just the President's lackey."

Chapter 424 Bella Waking Up

In the end, Draxton only straightened Betty's sleeping posture and covered her with a blanket.

He turned around and walked out to discuss the energy ore with Landon and Jocelyn.

In the blink of an eye, another five days passed. Isabella was still asleep and showed no signs of waking up. Draxton and Betty were a little anxious.

Over at the mine, with the protection of Landon, the president, the mining of the ore became smoother.

However, for some reason, the news of the mine still attracted some attention.

Landon was now in a relationship with Jocelyn. He basically lived in Jocelyn's manor.

This afternoon, Jocelyn had two expected quests in her manor.

They were the two chiefs of the Arcana Group, Terry and Jacqueline.

The two of them were more enchanting than the other. As a man, Terry had long hair that was even more beautiful than a woman's.

He and Jacqueline had been interested in working with Landon before. Now that they were here, Landon was very friendly.

Draxton was there too.

Terry smiled and said, "Mr. Lockwood is here too? Previously, it was rumored that Mr. Lockwood had an accident. As I said, a person like Mr. Lockwood is not someone those people can hurt."

Draxton sized up the Big Chief of Arcana Group and said, "Chief Turner, you are too polite. I am very curious about the Arcana Group, I wonder if you can explain it to me."

Terry was wearing a white robe. Judging from the style, it was not much different from a bathrobe. Coupled with his enchanting and beautiful face, he was even more stunning than a woman.

He waved his hand and said with a smile, "Mr. Lockwood, you flatter me. Actually, the so-called supernatural abilities mean that some people are innately more talented than others in certain aspects.

"Everything in this world follows the laws of nature. People with supernatural abilities must have other flaws. The talent and flaws are all arranged by God. It's not worth mentioning."

"Oh, I see. Forgive me for being presumptuous, but may I know what supernatural abilities Chief Turner and Chief Jacqueline have?"

Terry smiled. "I'm just a little faster than ordinary people. As for Jacqueline, her voice is just a little more pleasant than ordinary people's."

Everyone's expression changed. Draxton strode forward and held her body. He said in a deep voice,

"Bella, what is ailing you?"

His dark blue pupils were a little dark and filled with deep worry.

Isabella was not feeling very calm at the moment. She ignored Draxton and looked at Jocelyn eagerly.

Jocelyn's expression also became serious. She did not hesitate and reached out to check Isabella's pulse.

After a moment, her expression suddenly relaxed as she looked at Draxton with a complicated expression.

When Isabella saw Jocelyn's expression, she guessed that the result should be the same. However, she was still worried. She reached out her other hand and handed it to Jocelyn again. Then, she stood up without saying a word and looked down at Draxton. Her gaze was so scary that it made his hair stand on end.

Draxton was a little scared by her gaze. His face was a little pale as he said, "What's wrong? Master Grey. what's wrong with Bella's body?"

At the end of the words, his voice actually trembled a little. Could it be that the Black Crystal Potion had caused extremely serious damage to Bella?

Landon also looked at Jocelyn and said, "Jocelyn, is Bella's body alright?"

When Jocelyn saw that Draxton was so frightened that his face turned pale, she calmed down for a moment before saying, "Bella's pulse is the same as when I first met her."

Draxton's brain immediately exploded. When Bella encountered Jocelyn for the first time, wasn't she seriously injured and on the verge of death?

Could it be...

Draxton's entire body stiffened. He looked at Jocelyn in disbelief. "No, Master Grey, Bella will definitely be fine..."

Jocelyn looked at him strangely. "What are you thinking about? I mean, Bella is pregnant. When I first saw her, she was about to die, but the two little guys in her belly were very tenacious."

Draxton's expression twisted.

Before he could recover from his immense sorrow and fear, he was shocked by the meaning of Jocelyn's words.

Draxton's expression did not change. He asked, "Then when the child is born, Bella will recover, right?"

"Yeah."

Draxton said to Isabella, "Bella, during your pregnancy, even if you still have your strength, are you going to fight while pregnant?"

"Therefore, it makes no difference whether you have combat strength or not during pregnancy."

Isabella nodded. Then, she smiled and said, "Draxton, don't listen to Master Grey. I'm indeed no different from an ordinary person now, but how can my combat strength be said to be zero?"

"A person's power doesn't depend on how much strength they have, but on experience, things they've gone through, mentality, and various other factors. These are all the foundations of my power.

"The current me is no longer the girl in the past."

Isabella's smile was gentle. She lowered her eyes and touched her belly. "Evolution Poison gene slumbers to protect this little guy. When the child is born, the Evolution Poison gene will naturally wake up.

"Back then, when Master Grey fused with Evolution Poison, I was pregnant with Ricky and Betty. At that time, after the fusion was successful, Evolution Poison was also in a deep sleep. It only woke up when the children were born. This was golden butterfly's protection for itself and me and the children."

Draxton heaved a sigh of relief and said, "Bella, I will definitely protect you and the child."

"I'll also protect mommy and my younger sister or brother," Betty said softly. She crawled out of Jocelyn's arms and carefully climbed onto the bed. She touched Isabella's belly and said seriously, "Brother, or sister, you have to come out quickly. I'll catch the most powerful worm for you to play with."

As she spoke, she took Silver General down from her hair and shook it in front of Isabella's belly. Her eyes were filled with pride and a sense of accomplishment..

The corner of Draxton's eyes twitched as he looked at Isabella worriedly. "Bella, well..."

Isabella's eyes curved and she smiled. She gently stroked Betty's soft and curly hair and said, "Alright, with such a powerful elder sister like Betty, the younger brother or sister in my belly will definitely be very happy."

Draxton was speechless.

"By the way, why are there so many stones on my bed?" Isabella asked.

When the guards left, they also cleaned up the other corpse. Isabella was also in a bad mood, so she brought Betty back to the house.

At the same time, on the mine, a scarred man was tied up and brought to Draxton.

"Mr. Lockwood, this is the person who tried to steal the ore. If it weren't for our people keeping a close eye on him, he would have really escaped.

"This person is also an Arcanist. He knows how to turn Invisible!" Thomas said with lingering fear.

Draxton said, "Is this person your subordinate?"

Thomas's forehead was covered in cold sweat as he said, "Yes, Mr. Lockwood. This person has always been the captain of one of my guards. However, I never expected him to hide his strength!"

At this point, Thomas could not help but look angry. He never expected that there would be a spy beside him, and it was an Arcanist.

The more he thought about it, the angrier he became. He couldn't help but kick the man and say angrily, "I've really wronged you!"

That man had been tortured before, and now he was kicked by Thomas, but he did not make a sound. His expression was very cold as if he did not care about his situation.

Draxton glanced at the man. The man looked ordinary, but at this moment, he had a fearless aura.

Draxton smiled and said, "Take him away and kill him."

The man's calm expression changed.

Thomas was also shocked and said, "Mr. Lockwood, are you not going to interrogate him?"

Draxton said, "He's just a spy. I know who he works for. There's no need to interrogate him."

Draxton's expression was indifferent but resolute. Thomas was originally a little hesitant, but at this moment, he did not dare to disobey at all. He agreed and brought that person down to deal with it.

"You can't kill me!"

Halfway through the way, that person was finally afraid. He couldn't help but roar and start to struggle.

Draxton ignored him. Seeing this, Thomas sneered and kicked that person again. He ordered someone to quickly bring that person down.

Mr. Hendrix walked over and said to Draxton, "Mr. Lockwood, I really didn't expect Thomas's man to be a spy. He's even an Arcanist. Now, I'm not sure if there is a similar spy in the Hendrix family."

Mr. Hendrix looked uneasy.

Draxton looked at him and said, "It's hard to say. However, there must be other spies in this mine. But it doesn't matter. With the Red Crystal Warriors mixed in, even if there are spies, they won't be able to cause trouble."

Betty also heard the voice from the other side, but she cleverly covered her mouth, afraid that she

She tilted her head and looked at the big snake. The big snake spat out its tongue at the communicator.
Not far away, Terry and Jacqueline's expressions changed when they saw this scene.
Jaye looked at the two of them coldly. "I didn't expect the reason why you two are so quiet is that you have other backgrounds. The tribunal committee has been treating you badly all these years."

Terry did not say anything. Jacqueline's temper was hot. She said angrily, "Since we have been arrested by you, use whatever means you have. Let's see if we will say anything."

Jaye said, "There's no need for you to say anything. Mr. Lockwood has investigated you thoroughly. We know what you know, and we also know you don't know."

Terry and Jacqueline's expressions changed.

"That president is really impressive. He secretly arranged for you to be on Mystical Island. 20 years ago, you were only children, right?"

Jaye exclaimed.

Terry said, "Jaye, do you think Draxton is a trustworthy person?"

"Have you ever thought that Draxton has also planted someone on Mystical Island? With Draxton's methods, he definitely has planted someone on Mystical Island."

Jaye looked at him indifferently and said, "The instigation failed. The tribunal committee and the Lockwood family have just established a partnership. Originally, Mr. Lockwood wanted the President to work directly with us. However, your president has ruined this opportunity himself."

Terry's expression did not look too good. He glanced at Betty and the big snake, trying to say something to send the news back.

Both Draxton and Isabella decided to return to Dawton City. Little Dipper and the scientific research team brought by Grey and Aaron stayed on Mystical Island.

Draxton said to Grey, "It's good that you're here. Joshua will be very happy to see you."

Before leaving, Draxton said to Grey.

Grey was stunned. "Mr. Lockwood, are you talking about Theo?"

"Yes, Theo. However, his name is Joshua now."

Grey said, "Mr. Lockwood. In his heart, he prefers to be called Theo."

Draxton said, "Back then, I secretly sent him to Mystical Island. In order to cover his identity, I got a substitute for Theo in the Lockwood family's direct descendant.

"Whether he's Joshua or Theo, it doesn't affect the fact that he's one of the Lockwood family."

Isabella said, "I was wondering why there were two Theos in the Lockwood family. So that's what happened." Draxton said, "Joshua is an orphan adopted by the Lockwood family. Theo is the son of the family. Theo replaced Joshua's position. Over the years, everyone has gotten used to it. Joshua, however..."

"Pretty good. Joshua is very outstanding," Isabella said.

Draxton said, "Bella, it's rare to see you praise someone."

Isabella smiled.

Grey also said, "I'm a little envious of Joshua because he is praised by Mrs. Lockwood. I'll have a good chat with him later."

Landon and Jocelyn walked over with their men.

Jocelyn was a little worried and said, "Bella, although Terry and Jacqueline have been captured, I don't know if the President will cause any trouble. You have to be careful on the way back. Although your fetus is stable, you have lost all your strength. You're not as powerful as before."

Chapter 430 Here Comes The Troublemaker

The Lockwood family's residence.

Draxton, Isabella, and Betty were escorted in by a large family.

They returned smoothly. As Draxton had expected, the President did not take any further action.

Knowing that they were back, the Lockwood family gathered at the old residence.

They were surrounded by a large family.

Madame Emma Lockwood wiped her tears and went forward to pull Betty into her arms. Her heart ached so much that she was unwilling to let go of Betty.

Betty made a trip to Mystical Island. During this period, she was less delicate and more sensible.

She patted Madame Emma Lockwood's back and said in a childish voice, “Great-grandma, I miss you and great-grandpa so much!”

Madame Emma Lockwood's heart was about to melt. She sized up Betty and said with heartache, “Baby, my baby, you've lost weight. Did you suffer?”

Madame Emma Lockwood's heart was about to break.

Sir Graham Lockwood also went forward. His heartache was not inferior to Madame Emma Lockwood's.

On the other side, Philip patted Draxton's shoulder and said, “Thank you.”

A smile flashed across Draxton's eyes. “So, dad, how do you plan to compensate for my hard work?”

Philip's expression froze and instantly changed. “You're the patriarch. How do you want me to compensate you?”

“For example, you can let me take a vacation with Bella and go on a honeymoon,” Draxton said.

Philip's expression became even stiffer. He dryly changed the topic. “Your mother and I have already discussed that we're going to Maestria to visit your grandparents. I can't help you.

“You're the patriarch, so work harder.

“Besides, the Lockwood family is currently being targeted by the President. The outside world is saying that. the Lockwood family can't take it anymore and is about to be replaced. As the patriarch, why are you taking leave at this time?”
