Chapter 441

Draxton told him about the fight between the two groups of people.

Patriarch Barker said angrily, "Those people are really high off their asses. Forget about Star Society. Although they are from the underworld, they have been keeping a low profile because they are being suppressed by the Lockwood Group.

'But that foreign faction actually got involved. How ridiculous!'

"Grandpa, some foreign forces from Southeast Aelinne have surged into Maestria recently. All of you should bring a few more bodyguards when you go out. It's better to be careful."

Draxton reminded.

"Since you know that, why did you bring Bella and the children over at this time?' Patriarch Barker's tone was slightly reproachful.

"I've settled the Lockwood family's matters. Bella and I happen to be free, so we came over to take a look. Grandpa, don't worry. Why would I be afraid of those small fries?" Draxton smiled.

Patriarch Barker heaved a sigh of relief. He looked at Draxton seriously and then at Isabella. He smiled and said, "The two of you are a good match. You're really a good match!"

Isabella also smiled and said, "Grandpa, you have good taste!"

Patriarch Barker was stunned. Then, he laughed heartily.

Madame Barker hugged the two little children and looked at Isabella with a smile. The atmosphere was very warm.

Draxton asked, "Grandpa, Grandma, Megan, where's Stanton?"

The smiles on their faces gradually disappeared.

An unnatural expression flashed across Megan's face. Isabella turned to look at her and said, "Megan, we're family. Just tell us if there's anything. Draxton and I will definitely help you!"

Shelly stood in the courtyard and had no intention of entering the house. She also knew that the Barker family did not like her. Moreover, she was not that familiar with Yvette.

Isabella saw a girl standing quietly beside the small pond with a letter in her hand when she came out with Yvette.

Her long and straight black hair was scattered behind her back, and there was a jeweled hair clip on the left side of her temple. She was wearing a fairy-like light yellow sweater and a pair of light blue slim-fit jeans. She looked pure and beautiful.

She seemed a little uneasy and kept her head lowered. When she heard footsteps, she suddenly raised her head and looked over.

Isabella squinted slightly as she sized up the other party with interest.

Yvette, on the other hand, looked serious. She walked to Shelly's side politely and asked, "Hello, Miss Flouder. Why are you looking for me?"

Shelly was also very polite. She hurriedly said, 'I'm sorry to suddenly come and disturb you, but... I wanted to hand you a letter.'

As she spoke, she handed the letter to Yvette.

Yvette took the letter and opened it. It was an invitation.

"A birthday party?" Yvette looked at Shelly in surprise.

Shelly was a little uneasy as she said, "Yeah, it's my birthday party the day after tomorrow. I invited many of my peers within the circle. I thought..."

'Although we haven't interacted much in the past, what's happening between the elders is their business. It has nothing to do with us. Yvette, are you willing to come?'

Draxton looked at him without saying anything.

Stanton said, "At that time, although many people approached me, the person who left the deepest impression on me was Joseph Page. This person had never interacted with me in the past and had never worked with me in business. Yet, he suddenly approached me so eagerly at that time. I did not overthink it although I felt that it was a little strange."

' Joseph Page?" Draxton had no impression of such a small fry. Stanton said, "Joseph is Denver Wheeler's brother-in-law."

"It's related to the Wheeler family again?" Draxton snorted coldly and looked at Stanton. 'Stanton, don't worry. I'll definitely help you find out the truth and clear your name. When that time comes, let Megan treat you well!'

Stanton immediately flew into a rage out of humiliation. "Hey, brat, when did you learn to tease people like that? You really see everything when you live long enough!" Draxton smiled.

Stanton snorted and said, "You've changed now that you have a wife!'

Erica brought Shelly to her mother's house. The family sat around a table for dinner.

Chapter 444

On the night of Shelly's birthday, Isabella and Yvette packed up and prepared to go out.

Yvette wore a traditional dress with embroidered white magnolia flowers, accentuated by pearl accessories. She took off her glasses and braided her hair, revealing her beautiful and exquisite face.

Only then did Isabella realize that Yvette's eyes and brows were quite similar to Jeanne Lockwood's.

Especially when she smiled.

Blood relations were really magical.

Compared to Yvette's dignified dress, Isabella wore a dark purple dress with shimmering purple gems.

Her V-neck was slightly low, making her already slender neck look even more slender and fair.

Today, she did her long hair into waves and stuck a purple jade hairpin on the left. She had light makeup on. She had an aggressive brightness and a strong aura when she was serious.

Betty and Ricky stood side by side opposite Isabella. Both of them had starry eyes.

Betty was the naughtier of the two. She covered her mouth exaggeratedly and praised, "Wow! Mommy is so beautiful!"

"Is Aunt Yvette not beautiful?" Yvette teased her with a smile.

Betty immediately said with an intoxicated expression, 'Aunt Yvette is so beautiful too.'

A sly look flashed across Yvette's eyes as she asked, Then... between Aunt Yvette and me, who's prettier?"

"Ugh..."

Betty widened her watery eyes and bit her finger awkwardly. Her gaze lingered between Isabella and Yvette.

The entire family gathered around as if they were watching a show. They smiled at Betty.

Betty was in a difficult position. Her mother was naturally the most beautiful in her heart.

Erica winced in pain as Michael continued to tighten his grip on her wrist.

The next moment, Michael stared at her and said in a deep voice, "Erica, listen carefully. You can't touch the Barker family.

Bring Shelly here and take her away from the Wheeler family. I'll handle the rest!"

Erica could not take it anymore. She looked at him in disbelief and said, Michael, what are you talking about? Today is Shelly's birthday banquet. You're asking me to take Shelly away. Isn't that a joke!"

"It's just a birthday banquet. Is it more important than her life?" Michael said in a low voice.

Erica said, 'Michael, what are you talking about? Is this a situation of life and death? How is this related to her life?"

Michael stared at her and said, 'The Wheeler and Flouder families will suffer together if we touch the Barker family. Do you think the Lockwood family's protectiveness is a joke?

'Hehl'

Erica sneered. She stared at Michael, her gaze indignant. "The Lockwood family. It's the Lockwood family again. What's so great about the Lockwood family?

'Michael, you're good at everything, but you don't have courage. Because of that, the Flouder family can only stay in Maestria forever. On the other hand, the Lockwood family is the number one family in Lucsia. You'll never be able to compare to Philip Lockwood!

'However, as long as you dare to do stuff, it'll be possible for you to surpass the Lockwood family. Doesn't the President dislike the Lockwood family? What are you afraid of?"

'Erica, you..." Michael widened his eyes and looked at Erica in shock and anger.

Erica snorted coldly and said, "Fine, you don't dare to do it, but you can't stop the Wheeler family from doing it.

Chapter 446

Patriarch Wheeler's eyes lit up when he saw Mr. Chancely's expression. The corners of his lips curled up mysteriously as he looked in the direction of Isabella and Yvette. In his opinion, whether it was Yvette or Isabella, they would not be able to escape as long as Mr. Chancely took a fancy to them.

He would not let go of any opportunity to deal a blow to the Barker family and the Lockwood family.

In fact, it would be a huge blow to the Lockwood family if Mr. Chancely could really take Isabella for himself. In comparison, Yvette would not be as important.

Therefore, compared to Yvette, he was more willing to see Isabella be targeted by Mr. Chancely.

There was a hint of coldness in Isabella's eyes after she heard what Patriarch Wheeler and Mr. Chancely said.

Those who knew her well knew that someone was going to be unlucky when she showed such a look.

On the other hand, Yvette was so angry that her face turned red. However, she, who had been raised well since she was young, did not retort at all. She only held Isabella's hand and said worriedly, "Isabella... Why don't we... leave the gift behind and leave?"

Erica's expression changed when she heard what she said.

Isabella smiled.

She turned her head and looked at the girl beside her who was like an innocent rabbit.

There was a smile in her cold eyes as she said, 'Silly girl, we're already here. How can we leave just like that!'

Erica immediately said, "Yes, yes, yes. Yvette, what are you saying? You're already here. How can you just leave like that?

‘ Although the Barker family and the Wheeler family don’t have any dealings, you and Shelly are both juniors and of the same age. She invited you here out of goodwill. It’s not kind of you to leave just like that!’

Yvette was speechless. Her expression was conflicted.

Obviously, she could not do something so rude.

Isabella glanced at Erica and whispered into Yvette’s ear, Don’t be afraid. Hold my hand tightly and don’t leave my sight.

Yvette was stunned. She looked at Isabella and Isabella and winked at her.

Isabella’s eyes were filled with interest. It was like a stabilizing force that calmed Yvette’s uneasy heart.

The sound of the wine glass shattering shocked everyone back to their senses.
Frieda stumbled backward and almost fell. Patriarch Wheeler supported her.
Erica covered her mouth in shock while Denver shouted, "Isabella, what are you extremely innocent.

' Impudent! This is outrageous!' Frieda calmed herself down and wiped the wine that flowed down from her head. She pointed at Isabella ferociously.

Isabella looked at her contemptuously and snorted lightly. She then stared at her nonchalantly.

Frieda rolled her eyes in anger when she saw how arrogant Isabella still was. She leaned against Patriarch Wheeler and panted continuously. Mr. Chancely suddenly started clapping. He stared at Isabella and said, ‘ Good, good. Miss, you really surprised me. I admire you very much!’ After saying the last few words, he leaned forward slightly toward Isabella. His voice was also lowered slightly, revealing a hint of flirtatiousness.

The room was decorated sensually, and the space was sealed and suffocating. There was also a man with ill intentions in the room with them.

Yvette's face was pale. She leaned toward Isabella in panic.

Isabella turned her head and looked at her. She patted her shoulder and said, "Yvette, calm down!"

Yvette looked at Isabella in panic as she thought, 'Calm down? How can I be calm?'
'Isabella, did you bring your phone? Give Draxton a call,' Yvette said in a trembling voice.

Isabella answered readily, "I didn't bring it.'

Yvette's eyes were filled with despair. She did not bring her phone because it was inconvenient for her to bring it while wearing a traditional dress. They had handed their phones over to the members of Big Dipper for safekeeping.

Jerico could not help but smile playfully when he saw the fear on her face. He did not conceal the excitement on his face at all as he walked toward them with interest.

Yvette could not help but tremble. Suddenly, she saw the copper lamp on the bedside table. Without thinking, she picked up the lamp and held it in front of her chest. She glared at Jerico with fear and ferocity.

Adorably, she stood in front of Isabella protectively despite trembling in fear.

Isabella raised her hand and touched her chin. She was being protected by an innocent rabbit.

'Don't come over, don't come over! I won't let you off if you do!"

Yvette raised the lamp high and threatened fiercely.

Jerico stopped in his tracks and burst out laughing.

He stared at Yvette with interest. Previously, he thought that he would only feel a sense of accomplishment in getting Isabella. But now, he realized that this rabbit-like girl was also very energetic.

He did not expect this surprise. He thought that he was only coming to the Wheeler family today to get Shelly.

The hum at the end was slightly raised, sounding teasing and arrogant.

Jerico gasped for breath. He was ashamed and angry. He had never suffered such humiliation in his life. This was simply unimaginable!

Isabella ignored his expression. The smile on her face suddenly disappeared, replaced by something cold. Without blinking, she grabbed Jerico's hair and stood up. She dragged Jerico up and to the door by his hair.

Yvette stood rooted to the ground like a statue.

Jerico's face twisted in pain as his hair was pulled.

However, Isabella smashed Jerico's head against the door and shouted toward the outside, "Wheeler, open the door. Someone will die if you don't open the door! "

Of course, no one outside the door paid attention to her.

Five minutes had passed. Seeing that Isabella had yet to come out, the members of Big Dipper immediately took action.

The Wheeler family naturally wanted to stop them when they saw that they were about to rush upstairs. However, a member of Big Dipper suddenly took out his gun and fired a shot at the sky.

The moment the gunshot rang out, the entire banquet hall fell into dead silence.

There were also Jerico's men in the hall. When they saw the member of Big Dipper shoot, they looked at each other and took out their guns as well. They stared at the members of Big Dipper warily.

The members of Big Dipper also looked at them coldly. The leader pushed away the Wheeler family's security guards and rushed upstairs.

Patriarch Wheeler was furious and shouted, "Stop them, don't let them go up!"

A member of Big Dipper pointed his gun at Patriarch Wheeler and said, "We're going up to look for our patriarch's wife. Blood will fill this banquet venue if you dare to stop us!"

Yvette was lost in thought and in a daze. Isabella took Yvette's hand and walked out of the room with Yvette.

As soon as they went out, they saw Frieda and Erica who had also come out. As their eyes met, Frieda and Erica's faces were filled with shock. ' They look fine?

"How could they be fine?' They muttered in their minds.

They then shifted their eyes to the person one of the Big Dippers was holding...

Frieda and Erica were horrified. "Mr. Chancelly? What did you do to Mr. Chancelly?'

Frieda's eyes widened as she roared.

Seeing Frieda lose her temper, Isabella was boiling with anger.

Isabella sneered and went forward to lift Jerico up and dragged him to the railing of the stairs.

She glanced down and her eyes met the stares of the people downstairs.

Patriarch Wheeler was helpless with disappointment at the sight of Isabella's turning up safe and sound. It seemed that Mr. Chancely had failed. Patriarch Wheeler was so deep in contemplation that he did not notice that Isabella was dragging someone.

At this moment, there was a commotion at the entrance of the hall. Then, a group of people marched in.

Seeing the crowd, Patriarch Wheeler wore a dazzling smile. He and Denver then stepped forward to welcome them.

Behind Isabella, Frieda was still chattering. She threatened, "Isabella, what are you doing? Let go of Mr. Chancely. Do you know the consequences of hurting Mr. Chancely?"

Isabella didn't reply. One of the Big Dippers sneered, "Madame Wheeler, do you know the consequences of your Wheeler family treating our patriarch's wife like this?"

"You..." Furious, Frieda was rendered speechless.

Erica spoke nicely to Isabella after seeing Isabella fix her eyes downstairs, "There must be a misunderstanding between us. Mrs. Lockwood, please don't be angry. Can't we sit down and have a talk?
