

Kick Ass Wife 47

Chapter 47 Meeting Parents At The Ancestral Residence

Regardless of how Samantha Lang and the Lang family were doing, Isabella Thompson was living life comfortably.

If she had nothing to do during the day, she would mess with the Thompson family online.

At night, she messed around with Draxton Lockwood. The two of them were extremely compatible and enjoyed their moments together.

During this process, the two of them quickly established a strong relationship. There was no longer any estrangement between the two of them. It was as if they were a normal couple.

Finally, Draxton could not help but bring Isabella and Ricky back to the Lockwood family.

He brought them back all of a sudden.

He did not inform anyone in advance.

Cooper did not expect the three of them to leave the Northenville Manor and return to the main residence, so he did not inform anyone there.

Madame Emma Lockwood was still complaining in the Whatsapp group. "That brat, Draxton. When will he bring my granddaughter-in-law and great-grandson back? Didn't they already register their marriage?"

Cooper comforted her. "Madame Lockwood, don't be anxious. The chieftain said that Mrs. Lockwood is timid. She's probably shy. However, the chieftain should bring Madam back to the old residence in a few days." "Cooper, you have to tell her that I like young and beautiful girls the most. Tell her not to be shy and to come back quickly."

These were the voice messages Madame Emma Lockwood sent.

Cooper agreed. Then, he looked melancholic. The chieftain probably forgot to bring his wife back to the ancestral home. He knew that the chieftain had been enjoying his days with his wife. His mind was filled with thoughts about how to spend the night with his wife. He completely forgot about returning to the ancestral home. Cooper was even the one who guided Ricky to have dinner yesterday night.

It seemed the two were engrossed with each other and there was no going back.

The ancestral manor of the Lockwood family was a simple but classical residence.

Such a mansion was very rare now.

Around the mansion, there were patrol robots equipped with guns.

Draxton said, "This is the Lockwood family's ancestral residence. This residence has been passed down for hundreds of years. It has been renovated several times during this period. Grandpa and grandma like to live here. Mom, Dad, and Uncle don't usually live here. They each have their own residence."

“However, today is the 15th. On the 1st and 15th of every month, everyone has to put down what they’re doing and return to the ancestral residence to reunite no matter what. We have always done this.”

“Is our arrival here too abrupt?” Isabella asked.

Draxton said, “Of course not. They’ve been waiting for you. When they see you, they’ll be pleasantly surprised.”

Isabella pursed her lips and smiled. She was not worried that the Lockwood family would not like her. Even if they did, she did not care. She only had to keep her man. When the time came, she could stay or leave.

All in all, Isabella would not let herself suffer a loss.

Silas Yanter was driving in front while Draxton’s family of three sat in the back. Seeing that Isabella seemed a little nervous, Draxton took out his phone and pulled her into his family’s group chat.

Someone was talking in the Lockwood family’s group chat.

Olivia Lockwood sent a message while tagging Cooper. [My brother is getting more and more unreasonable. It’s the 15th today. He doesn’t even bring sister-in-law back to the ancestral home!]

Kevin Lockwood replied soon after, tagging Cooper. [Cousin-in-law is too timid. It must be because Eldest Cousin is too fierce, so she must have misunderstood. Maybe she thinks everyone in the family is like that Cooper, you have to put in a good word for us.]

Roger Lockwood agreed. [That’s right. I think Eldest Cousin is scary. Maybe he scared her.]

Olivia sent a message. [It’s not easy for him to find a wife. And he even intimidates his wife. I’m worried for him.]

Yale Lockwood had something to say about that. [I heard that they’ve already registered their marriage.]

Olivia added, [I heard that it was Draxton Lockwood who escorted her to the registry. Poor sister-in-law. She must be the mercy of my brother every day!]

Roger agreed. [Yeah, that’s pitiful.]

Yale thought the same. [Indeed.]

Samuel Lockwood saw eye to eye with him [I know, right?]

Just as the juniors were discussing, Patriarch Lockwood who has a profile picture of a rose sent a message. [This brat is indeed outrageous. Tonight, I’ll make my way to Northernville Manor to see my granddaughter-in-law and great-grandson. In the future, I’ll be in charge. Let’s see if he still dares to bully others!]

Everyone was in unison. [Hurray for grandpa!]

Draxton looked at the chat history in the group, and his lips twitched imperceptibly. Then, his lips curled into a slightly nasty smile.
