The Billionaire's Kick-Ass Wife Chapter 491

When Patriarch Wheeler and Frieda Barker heard this, they felt extremely disappointed.

Patriarch Wheeler quickly said, "Mr. Chancely, although that's the case, the cooperation between the Chancely and the Wheeler families can continue. As long as you..."

"The Wheeler family? The Wheeler family is nothing to me!" The voice on the phone was still gentle, but the tone was disdainful.

Even though it was a phone call, Patriarch Wheeler was embarrassed and could not hold back the angry expression on his face. However, he had to swallow his pride and said, Mr. Chancely, please listen to me..."

Before he could finish his sentence, the opposite party ended the call.

Patriarch Wheeler stared at his phone with a blank expression.

"Hubby..."

Frieda's voice was trembling. She wished that what she had heard just now was just an illusion. She hope that it was her hearing problem!

However, the dejected look on Patriarch Wheeler's face was real. It was not her hallucination. It was the cold hard truth.

Their cooperation with the Chancely family had ended.

The Wheeler family did not even have the last chance to make their comeback.

Patriarch Wheeler wondered why they did so much and spent so much effort.

In the end, not only did he fail to bring down the Lockwood family, he even implicated his own family.

"Frieda, our family... is finished..."

Patriarch Wheeler felt weak and fell to the ground. His phone slipped out of his hand. Frieda looked at him in a daze. The two of them looked at each other, but their eyes were not focused.

There was a depressing silence in the room.

"The efforts of the past generations of the Wheeler family have all been destroyed in my hands..."

After a while. Patriarch Wheeler covered his face and cried, breaking the silence.

Madame Barker slammed the fruit plate on the table with a bang and waved her hand with an irritable expression. "Ask her to get lost! We don't entertain monsters!"

Alfred said, "Madame Barker, she's kneeling at the door!"

Madame Barker scoffed and said, 'Let her continue kneeling!"

Alfred understood the situation. No matter what, Madame Barker would not allow Frieda Barker into the house.

He thought for a moment and said, "Erica is also here. She seems to be injured and has been kneeling at the door too. I'm afraid it is not good for our reputation. Shall we call the police?"

Madame Barker glared at him and said, "Of course! Call the police! What are you waiting for?"

Alfred nodded and turned to leave.

Frieda and Erica knelt at the door of the Barker residence. Erica had many injuries on her body, and her head was still bandaged. Frieda pulled her out of the hospital to come and kneel with her here.

Erica was on the verge of collapse as she stared in the direction of the door in a daze.

The collaboration between the Wheeler family and Jerico Chancely was ruined. Erica had been badly assaulted under Jerico's order. She became seriously injured, and now she felt a little lost. Hence, when Frieda asked her to come and kneel with her, Erica did not think twice. She just came along.

No matter what, the Wheeler family must not go bankrupt.

Now, when Erica thought of herself kneeling here in such a sorry state, she could not feel calm.

At this moment, the siren of a police car was heard. It came closer and closer, bringing her back to her senses.

Erica turned around and saw a police car approaching and stopping a short distance away. Two police officers got out of the car and walked towards them.

Frieda suddenly widened her eyes and stared at the two police officers warily.

Frieda turned around and stared hard at Isabella and Jeanne. A cold smile appeared on her lips.

'If Jeanne is here, it means that Philip is here too!' Frieda said.

Erica's expression suddenly changed, and her heart couldn't help but beat very quickly.

She could not get rid of Philip's dignified and gentle figure in her mind.

He was noble and strong, yet gentle, devoted, and humorous.

When Philip smiled at Jeanne, he showed he cherished and loved her a lot.

Looking at Jeanne, who was walking toward them not far away, Frieda and Erica realized that she still looked very young and elegant. It was impossible to tell that she was already a grandma.

Jeanne was walking with Isabella. It was difficult to tell that they were from two different generations.

In fact, Jeanne's face was still brimming with a girlish smile a moment ago.

She said something to Isabella excitedly. The next moment, when Jeanne saw Erica, the smile on Jeanne's face disappeared.

She was so vibrantly beautiful but Erica was in such a sorry state.

For a moment, Erica stared at Jeanne as if she wanted to kill Jeanne. She felt furious and resentful.

Especially when Erica thought of her current situation, the injustice in her heart turned into a raging flame of jealousy that almost consumed her.

However, in the blink of an eye, Isabella and Jeanne had already reached the entrance of their residence. They stopped chatting, and both of them tacitly looked straight ahead and walked past Frieda and Erica.

Isabella and Jeanne had absolutely no intention of paying any attention to Frieda and Erica.

"Stop right there!"

Frieda shouted. Her gaze was as sharp as a knife as it landed on Isabella and Jeanne. At the same time, she strode forward and stretched out her hands to block Isabella and Jeanne.

Jeanne subconsciously stood in front of Isabella as she wanted to protect Isabella.

Isabella sighed helplessly. "Oh my god! You must remember your age. You are not young anymore, and yet you still shielded me so quickly. How ridiculous!"

Everything happened too quickly.

Frieda grabbed Isabella's legs tightly.

Although Frieda was already old, she still had the strength to grab Isabella's legs tightly. It was really difficult for Isabella to break free.

Isabella's face instantly darkened.

At this moment, Draxton ran over and supported Isabella from behind to prevent her from falling.

Isabella leaned back onto Draxton's arms.

Draxton revealed a ruthless expression and kicked Frieda without saying anything.

He did not hold back at all although Frieda was an old woman. With this kick, Frieda groaned in pain as she fell. She staggered and nearly fell onto the ground.

Even so, her hands were still tightly wrapped around Isabella's legs.

In fact, Isabella could feel Frieda's hands desperately pinching her legs, and it was painful.

The situation was getting out of control.

At the same time, on the other side, Jeanne was also pulled to the ground by Erica. However, Erica fell together with Jeanne.

Philip rushed over and reached out his hands to help Jeanne up. Erica's eyes were red. Seeing this, she lowered her head and actually rushed toward Philip's arms.

She was coming on too fast and furious. It frightened Philip so much that he quickly retracted his hand to dodge. Although he dodged Erica, he did not manage to catch hold of Jeanne.

Patriarch Barker was the last to rush over. He shouted angrily, 'Let go, all of you! What a disgrace!'

The crazy Frieda and Erica did not listen.

Ricky and Betty looked at the chaotic scene in shock. The twins looked at each other and hatched a plan.

One of them ran towards Jeanne while the other ran towards Isabella.

A moment later, Erica suddenly screamed, "Ahhh, insects! why are there so many insects? Help...'

It seemed that thousands of insects had surrounded Erica. She no longer bothered about pulling Jeanne. She was forced to stomp on the spot by the insects, but she couldn't move a step.

When Patriarch Barker heard the word 'brother', the corner of his eyes twitched.

He stared at Frieda, and his expression was hard to read. He could not imagine that Frieda could descend to such a level of shamelessness in her whole life.

How could she still have the cheek to address him as her brother at a time like this?

Patriarch Barker was not a soft-hearted person. His patience with Frieda had run out.

The shrew in front of him was just a stranger who was related to him by blood.

In fact, he was reluctant to admit that they were related by blood.

Patriarch Barker stared coldly at Frieda.

Frieda's eyes met his cold stare. Before she could react to the meaning behind it, she felt a piercing pain in her left foot.

"Ahhh!" Frieda screamed and turned around. She realized that her ankle, had been stabbed by a sharp dagger. Isabella pulled the dagger out swiftly, and there was not a drop of blood on it.

In fact, the dagger was as clean as before.

However, Frieda saw blood gushing out of her wound.

"That's a very impressive technique!" Philip could not help but exclaim.

Isabella moved her fingers nimbly and kept the dagger. She smiled and said proudly, "It's really nothing. The title 'Miraculous Doctor' was not given to me for nothing!"

Philip immediately rolled his eyes and said to Jeanne, 'Jean, listen to her. She's praising herself now!"

Jeanne replied, "Our Bella is really outstanding."

At this moment, Ricky and Betty recalled the insects. When Erica saw that the insects had disappeared completely, she stopped jumping. ' Mom!1' She screamed and leaped to Frieda's side. She tried to treat Frieda's wound but to no avail. The wound still bled profusely.

Erica's eyes couldn't help but turn red. She looked pitiful and weak as she turned to look at Philip's direction. She cried, 'Philip, my mother is old. She can't withstand such injuries. Please save her! Please!'

As Erica spoke, she rushed toward Philip. Even at this time, she still wanted to put on an act to get a reaction from Philip. No one knew if she was really concerned about Frieda's injuries.

Erica suddenly came back to her senses. She turned her head and saw Michael beside her.
Panic flashed across her face as she asked in surprise, W... When did you get here?’
Michael looked at her expressionlessly and said, ‘ I was here long enough.’
Only then did Erica remember something. She looked in Frieda’s direction, but she had already disappeared.
The veins on Michael’s forehead twitched. He said, I’ve carried Frieda to the car. I need to send her to the hospital. Let’s go, Erica.”
Erica answered as though she was in a daze. Then she suddenly remembered that she still had to settle the business here.
Since Frieda’s injuries had been treated, Erica wanted to deal with another matter.
She said to Michael, “Send Mom to the hospital. I still have something to settle.”
With that, she ignored Michael and turned to look at Philip.
She looked miserable and said, “Philip, as you can see, the Wheeler family is in dire straits now. Michael can’t help at all, unlike you. I beg you, for the sake of our past relationship, ask the Barker family to give the Wheeler family a chance. The Wheeler family is about to go bankrupt...”

Michael's eyes gradually darkened.

He looked at Erica quietly. Her face was full of greed and malice. He had accepted the fact that she was not very beautiful, but he had been willing to accommodate her, even her flaws.

However, at this moment, he felt that his life spent with Erica was ridiculous.

It had been more than 20 years. Erica should have accepted him by now but it was clear to him now that she just thought of him as a clown.

'What, you're unwilling?' Erica couldn't help but sneer when she did not hear his reply.

Michael took a deep breath and said, "Erica, you must know that what you are asking for is not realistic."

Erica replied, "Alright, I don't want half of the Flouder family's shares. I know that it will be difficult for you. Although you're the head of the Flouder family, you have other family members. I have changed my mind. I want half of what you have."

Michael said, "Erica, don't even think about it. You can't take anything from the Flouder family, and I won't give you anything."

Erica's expression suddenly changed. 'Then I'll not agree to a divorce.'

Michael said, "You know, I have many ways to divorce you. If you agree to the divorce, I will still give you alimony after the divorce.

'However, if you insist on exhausting the last bit of our relationship and making things ugly, don't blame me for being heartless.'

'Alright, then show me. Let's see what you can do to me!'

She was fearless.

Michael looked at her with a deep gaze and said, "Do you know something? People who are pampered and loved will be fearless and demanding.

'However, I have to tell you that I don't love you anymore. You have already lost the right to be fearless and demanding.'

Erica was completely dumbfounded.

She felt that she was now completely helpless. Her whole world was now grey and gloomy.

Both her husband and daughter had turned the table against her.

She gritted her teeth. She did not want to let them have their way. She wanted to see if Michael would really leave the Flouder family and give up everything if she did not agree to the divorce tomorrow.

Erica wondered if Michael was really willing to give up everything and leave the Flouder family.

She didn't believe him.

At eight o'clock the next morning, Michael arrived at the hospital punctually.

Erica glanced at his empty hands and subconsciously asked, 'Where's breakfast?'

Michael was stunned. "What breakfast?"

"Didn't you bring me breakfast?" Erica asked as a matter of fact.

Michael was speechless. He did not know what to say.

"There's not going to be breakfast. What is your decision?" Michael asked directly.

Erica stared at him without saying anything.

'Michael, are you really going to be so heartless to me?' Erica's eyes were red.

Michael said, "I just didn't bring breakfast. That doesn't mean I'm heartless, right?"

"Do you really want to divorce me? Even if it's a divorce, you really don't want to give me anything?" Erica asked again.

Michael was surprised and asked, 'I thought you'll be happy to divorce me. After all, you don't love me. You can find someone better.'

When Erica thought of Philip, her expression changed. Her disdain for Michael rose again.

Micah walked out of the Wheeler residence in high spirits.

Michael had gone to the hospital to check on Shelly. Before he entered the ward, he was stopped by Erica.

He frowned and looked at Erica in silence.

Erica's eyes were red. Her head was still bandaged, and she was wearing a hospital gown. Her face was pale, and she asked faintly, 'Do you really have to be so heartless?'¹

Michael thought that she was talking about the divorce, so he answered, "You don't love me. We don't have to torture each other anymore."

Tears welled up in Erica's eyes as she said aggrievedly, "I agree to the divorce. Can you... help the Wheeler family?"

She actually wanted to ask if he could let the Wheeler family off, but she became greedy.

Michael expected this, and he said emotionlessly, "Erica, I have nothing now. The Flouder family has nothing to do with me anymore. I can't help you now."

Erica held her breath and said in disbelief, "You can't really...'

"That's right. I have handed everything to Micah. I have nothing now."

Erica turned even paler. "No wonder...'

Michael frowned and looked at her strangely.

Erica stared at Michael with bloodshot eyes and could not help but say, Well done! I really didn't expect you to be so ruthless. You actually did it..."

Michael lowered his eyes and said calmly, "Perhaps you've never understood me at all.'

Erica was stunned, and then she said, "Let's go."

Michael looked at her feeling puzzled.

"Didn't you say you wanted a divorce? Let's go. Let's do it now.' Erica turned around and left.

Michael looked at her suspiciously. He could not believe that she had suddenly agreed.

He hesitated for a moment and followed her. Michael was wary. He had a feeling that Erica would not divorce him so easily.

Shermaine passed by with her tablet and happened to see Shelly standing outside the door crying.

Shelly heard Shermaine's words and quickly raised her hand to wipe her tears. She looked up at Shermaine and turned to leave.

In the study, Michael and Micah looked in the direction of the door. After Micah had calmed down, he asked, "Was Shelly outside?"

Michael was silent for a moment before saying, "She's not that fragile."

Shelly returned to the bedroom and locked the door. She stopped crying.

She sat in front of the mirror and looked at herself in the mirror. Her lips slowly curled into a mocking smile.

Shelly was mocking how she was in the past.

The Flouder family, whom she had distanced herself from, was furious because of what happened to her.

The Wheeler family, whom Shelly had always been close to, did not react to her tragic encounter. They even helped the perpetrator leave Lucsia. Even her mother said that she did not see the big picture.

Everything that had been done or had happened was for the Wheeler family. All for the Wheeler family.

She found it extremely ridiculous!

The atmosphere at the Wheeler family residence had never been this depressing.

Erica left the hospital and returned to the Wheeler family.

Patriarch Wheeler looked like he had aged even more overnight. He asked weakly, "Erica, what did you and your mother do when you went to the Barker family? Why did Michael want to divorce you suddenly?"

Erica remained silent. She was in an extremely terrible mood.

Denver was the first to speak. "What else can it be? I really didn't expect Michael Flouder to be such a person. He decides to abandon Erica after realizing that our Wheeler family has gone bankrupt!"
