Chapter 511

Harlow was uninterested in what Xhalar said. Instead, Harlow was still immersed in his world and rambled on. Harlow would say the word 'bug' every other minute.

Xhalar stared at Harlow with his big eyes for a while. Xhalar thought, "Is this fool in front of me really my ambitious and ruthless big brother?"

'Why did he become like this after his trip to Lucsia?

'What exactly happened to him?

"If everything was not unusual, I really want to go to Lucsia to investigate.

'It couldn't be about damned bugs, right?

"I didn't believe it!"

Seeing Harlow immersed in his world again, Xhalar walked out of the room with an upset expression.

After Xhalar went out, he happened to see the newly arrived goods. There were five women, and they were locked in five separate rooms.

Xhalar walked over. He decided to choose and send two girls to his beloved older brother.

He chose the red-haired foreign girl. Then he went to Harlow raised his head and looked at Isabella in horror. Harlow thought, "Miraculous Doctor must be dissatisfied with my escape that day.

Therefore, she chased me to Southeast Aelinne. She wants to feed me bugs!1'

Harlow said, "Miraculous Doctor. Show some pity on me, please. I don't want to eat bugs. I won't work with Henderson anymore. I've already returned to Southeast Aelinne. I won't dare to go to Lucsia again. Please let me go."

Tears and snot flowed down Harlow's face as he cried sadly.

Seeing this, Xhalar was dumbfounded.

Xhalar looked at Isabella and then at Harlow. Xhalar strode forward and angrily pulled Harlow up from the ground, shouting, "Harlow, are you crazy? Look carefully. She's just a product!"

Xhalar pointed at Isabella and said sternly, Hurry up! Do something to please my brother!"

Isabella looked at Xhalar and thought, "What a young man. He must have never experienced danger and doesn't know what's good for him. Look at how well-behaved Harlow is now.'

Therefore, Isabella decided to teach this young man a lesson since he had no idea what cruel reality was.

' Before I please your brother, I plan to please you first,' Isabella said with a chuckle.

Xhalar was stunned. At first, Xhalar thought Isabella looked down on his brother and was trying to seduce him.

However, when he saw the teasing smile on Isabella's face, Xhalar was immediately furious.

Xhalar thought, "A product should not have such a smile."

Therefore, Xhalar shouted, "You... You're trying to get yourself killed!"

Xhalar felt his brother would continue to punch him if he did not explain. Thus, Xhalar shouted, 'I didn't

Harlow retracted his hand and glared at Xhalar, asking, 'Did you buy her?'
Isabella squinted at them.

Xhalar answered, "Yes, I bought her. However, I didn't know who she was before I bought her. It was Soy. I traded with him."

Xhalar explained to Harlow, aggrieved.

Harlow turned to look at Isabella and said, "Miraculous Doctor, look, Xhalar didn't do it on purpose."

Isabella waved her hand and said, "Don't worry. I'm not angry."

Hearing this, Harlow finally heaved a sigh of relief and looked at Isabella cautiously. At this moment, someone brought food over.

Isabella raised her head to glance at the food and was instantly amused. That was because the person sent over Lucsian dishes.

The fragrance of the food immediately filled the air. Isabella was hungry before. Smelling the food, she felt a stronger hunger in her stomach.

Isabella slowly picked up a fork and started eating.

Harlow smiled and said, 'Miraculous Doctor, do you like the food? I don't know what you would like, so I asked people to make Lucsian dishes first. If you want to eat our local delicacies, I will definitely recommend them to you."

It was hard to be mean to a smiling person. What's more, Harlow was trying to be friendly. Therefore, Isabella nodded and said, "Thank you. I'm looking forward to it."

For the rest of the meal, Harlow did not say anything else. He and Xhalar sat aside and waited for Isabella to finish eating.

Xhalar was very dissatisfied. His eyes kept darting back and forth between Isabella and Harlow. Xhalar could not understand why his brother, who was such an arrogant person, would please this woman.

It was an unbelievable thing for Xhalar to see his brother respect this woman from the bottom of his heart.

Xhalar thought, "Is this woman really Miraculous Doctor?

' But if she is Miraculous Doctor, why did she become a product and bought by me?"

Xhalar was confused.

"It's blood, I' Harlow said.

Isabella was stunned.

Harlow continued, 'It's a tube of the blood of Mr. Philip Lockwood. No. To be precise, its value is not on the blood, but genes.'

'What?' Isabella was shocked.

Harlow continued, The organization said that this tube of blood is exceptional. After modifications, the genes will become more powerful.

"If it's used... Well, it can create one child or even more generations of children. In other words, it can create children with Mr. Philip Lockwood's genes.'

Isabella was petrified. She had never been like this before.

Harlow continued, "The 'child' refers to creatures, including but not limited to humans."

Isabella's pupils suddenly constricted violently, and she had a terrifying expression.

Isabella thought, "Auctioning a person's blood is a provocation to the person's dignity.

'Moreover, they dared to say those words confidently. They were trying to make the Lockwood family go crazy.'

Isabella could not imagine what kind of disaster and humiliation it would be if those words were true.

Isabella continued to think, "Do that organization and the Lockwood family have a feud?

"If it isn't that case, why did they think of such a vicious means to humiliate the Lockwood family?"

But soon, Isabella denied that idea. She continued her thoughts, "No. Their goals are not just to humiliate the Lockwood family. They might have further plans.'

Soon, it was the day of the auction. Isabella and Harlow were in a private room, standing in front of the floor-to-ceiling window on the highest floor and overlooking the auction hall outside.

The participants arrived one after another. Harlow looked at the powerful woman beside him and sighed, saying, "I didn't expect to be able to stand with Miraculous Doctor one day. I feel honored."

Harlow's eyes were filled with sincerity.

Isabella glanced at Harlow and did not comment.

Harlow fawned at Isabella, "Miraculous Doctor, you're so beautiful today. This outfit suits you pretty well. I'm sorry. You look wonderful in anything!"

Isabella was getting more and more amused.

Isabella was wearing a casual loose-knitted suit for comfort.

However, to cater to the local characteristics, Isabella put on a white gauze robe, which wrapped her entire figure. This robe was not cumbersome. Instead, it also made Isabella look taller and slenderer.

Isabella's long hair was braided into a long ponytail coiled at the back of her head. Isabella rounded it up and placed it with a silver hairpin.

As a result, Isabella's neck looked even more slender and beautiful. She wore a pair of silver earrings with long fringes.

When Isabella was not smiling, her expression was cold and aloof, making people revere her.

At least, it was Harlow's thought. He continued to praise, "You're as beautiful as the Moonlight Goddess!"

Isabella did not bother replying to Harlow. Suddenly, Isabella thought of something and patted her forehead. She asked, "Where are the girls who were sold here like me?"

Harlow was stunned. Then he replied, "They will be the auction items tonight."

Isabella took a deep breath.

Harlow looked nervous and asked, "Miraculous Doctor, are you unhappy?"

Isabella was silent for a moment. Then she said seriously, "Harlow, I have a small request."

Harlow's entire body tensed.
