

Kick Ass Wife 53

Chapter 53 Heart To Heart

Isabella Thompson blinked and looked at him, astounded.

Draxton Lockwood looked at her earnestly. His voice was low, and he spoke slowly. "I have indeed been looking for you for the past five years. Perhaps because of this, it is difficult for you to trust me."

The corners of Isabella's mouth twitched. He said he had been looking for her for the last five years... He wasn't hunting her down?

She couldn't help but say, "It's not that I don't trust you. I believe that you won't hurt me and Ricky now."

Her dazzling eyes were fixed on him, staring right into his midnight blue eyes.

Draxton's grim expression finally relaxed a little, and a smile appeared on his lips.

Isabella then said, "But... Do you trust me?"

Draxton was stunned.

Did he trust her?

It could be said that he did not trust her completely. He trusted her partially because he was confident in himself. That could not be considered trust.

Isabella could see through him at a glance, but she did not care because she would not show all her trump cards either.

Today, she revealed her medical heritage to prove to the Lockwood family that she was not worthless. Draxton's face, which was extremely similar to Ricky's, tensed up again.

He did not answer the question. Instead, he said, "I like you. I want to spend the rest of my life with you. You're my wife. I'll trust you as time progresses because you'll be the closest person to me for the rest of my life. You're also the person who's going to grow old with me."

He said he would trust her completely as time progresses...

Isabella held her forehead and chuckled. She couldn't help it at the sight of the man in front of her. He was sitting upright with a grave expression.

The man looked very serious.

She didn't want his trust because she couldn't trust him completely in the first place.

They were incomparably compatible physically and mentally. As long as they did not hurt each other, that was enough.

But she wasn't expecting him to treat things so seriously.

Isabella felt that he was kind of adorable.

He was completely different from the rumored image of the Lockwood family chieftain.

"If I hadn't brought you here today, I wouldn't have known that you are actually the true successor of the Sanctum of Holy Doctors."

Draxton was slightly disappointed.

Most importantly, Second Aunt must have seen through his predicament. He had lost all his dignity. Isabella shook her head. "No, I'm not the successor of the Sanctum of Holy Doctors." Isabella saw the surprised look on his face and continued, "I'm the leader from the Sanctum of Holy Doctors."

Draxton stared at the woman in front of him in utter shock.

She was the leader of the Sanctum of Holy Doctors, that legendary sect full of Miraculous Doctors?

She had the true inheritance of the Sanctum of Holy Doctors.

Isabella smiled. "I've told you everything!"

Draxton did not know how to reply to that. He felt conflicted.
