

Kick Ass Wife 60

Chapter 60 Mrs. Lang

Samantha covered her burning face with her palms. Tears of humiliation and pain rolled down her face. This time, she was genuinely crying because she was upset.

Lawrence's face darkened. Regardless, he had been looking forward to meeting his idol, Samantha. And yet, even before he could have his way with her, she was already being humiliated in front of him. Honestly, it was a let-down.

However, when he saw Isabella's sidelong glance at him, Lawrence felt an inexplicable chill run down his spine. He was stunned and did not dare to move for a while.

As Samantha cried, she stole a glance at Lawrence. She felt even more embarrassed when she noticed all the customers in the café were looking at them.

However, Samantha was a celebrity. She was aware of the benefits of public discussions and search trends. She was not afraid of being recognized or someone taking a video of her and uploading it online.

She was the one who got hit. If news of her being bullied by Isabella spread, she would top the search trend again. And Isabella would only face even more public backlash.

However, this mall was a high-end mall that valued the privacy of its customers. Usually, paparazzi could not enter, and the patronizing customers would not have anything better to do than to take such videos.

As a result, Samantha did not realize that someone was secretly filming her.

Samantha looked at Isabella's cold and mocking expression. Lawrence did not do anything either. At that moment, Samantha felt immensely ashamed and resentful. She covered her face and ran away in a sorry state.

Lawrence glared at Isabella. He then quickly chased after Samantha.

Olivia looked at Isabella with admiration. "Isabella, just look at that guy with purple eyes and purple hair. He is obviously furious but does not even have the guts to confront us. He seems to be very afraid of you!"

Isabella smiled and said, "He was my patient. I treated him before. But he was in a bad state then and did not know my identity. Hence, I recognize him, but he does not recognize me.

"The reason he is afraid of me is probably that he is the patient, and I am the doctor. Just like how a child is terrified of injections!"

Isabella smiled mischievously.

"Isabella, you're really amazing!"

Olivia was now brimming with indescribable admiration for Isabella.

Looking at the starry-eyed and blushed-face Olivia, Isabella could not help but feel that she was exceptionally adorable, Isabella chuckled and pinched Olivia's fair and tender cheek gently. Then, she narrowed her eyes in satisfaction. This feels so good!"

Olivia's face turned even redder. She grabbed Isabella's hand and said, "Isabella, please don't do this. You are making my heart race. I'm afraid my brother will kill me if he finds out!"

Isabella was stunned at first. Then, she burst out in laughter. Smiling and shaking her head, Isabella held Olivia's hand as they returned to her seat.

Now that those obnoxious people were out of their faces, they finished their coffee and went shopping.

It was a scary thing when a woman was shopping. Putting four wealthy women shopping together was even

In the end, the bodyguards who were secretly following them had to help them load their shopping bags into the car.

As for Samantha, she did not run to the hospital this time. Instead, she went back to the Lang family.
