Chapter 78 Little Betty Going Home

Betty widened her cute eyes and looked at Isabella for confirmation.

Isabella rubbed her forehead and said to Philip. "Dad, Betty is definitely Draxton's."

She knew very well whether she was Draxton's biological daughter or not. Moreover, just by looking at her appearance, there was no need to doubt Betty's identity.

Philip was anxious. He was afraid that his son would lose his wife. If his daughter-in-law were to run away with his grandson in a fit of anger, he figured that he would definitely beat his son to death!

He glared fiercely at Draxton. He really couldn't tell that not only did he have Bella and Ricky, but he also had a daughter outside.

He really did not expect Draxton to be such a person!

Draxton didn't know what to say.

He was at a loss of what to do.

"Bella, don't misunderstand. Although this baby looks like Draxton, I guarantee you that she's not... Eh, Bella, how do you know her name? Do you know her?"

This time, it was Isabella's turn to feel guilty. She lowered her head and moved towards Draxton guiltily. Then, she said, "Dad, mom, let Draxton explain it to you!"
