Chapter 1551 Finally Leaving! Unexpected Encounter With Riders and Attempted Questioning!

"No need, even though the village went through such an ordeal and many young men died, we old folks were just lazy, not incapable. With us holding on, it's enough to wait for the next generation to grow up!"

"Yes, although we feel you don't have to leave, with such things happening and your cultivation, you really can't just stay here in Xiaohuang Village, so go without worry!"

After hearing Mu Jinyu's words, the old village chief and Elder Ji pondered for a moment, then made the decision and advised.

It's not because of Mu Jinyu's fault causing the death of over a hundred villagers of Wang Ye, making them harbor resentment towards Mu Jinyu, wanting him out of the village!

But rather because they seriously considered that after Mu Jinyu started cultivating the Humanity Path Cultivation Method, he quickly broke through to the Divine Transformation Realm, showing that his pureblooded human physique suits this path. Staying in this small village would only waste his time!

After all, the initial cultivation of the Humanity Path Cultivation Method involves developing various organs and bones, indicating that the younger, the better.

They now deeply feel it, recalling their youth, the progress was swift, but now, with the depletion of Qi and blood, the progress has not only slowed down but even regressed at times.

Therefore, they hope Mu Jinyu, while still young, should venture out more. Staying in the village to cultivate might squander his rare, once-in-a-million-years talent as a pureblooded human!

"Alright!"

Understanding the thoughts of the old village chief and Elder Ji, Mu Jinyu finally decided to leave the village.

Besides wanting to rapidly improve his cultivation outside, he also didn't want to make things difficult for them.

Although yesterday's incident had its reasons, and Wang Ye's death was entirely self-inflicted, ultimately, it was because of him that Xiaolin Village lost so many people. Staying would indeed be awkward, and he didn't want to put the village chief in a tough spot.

"Goodbye, Brother Jinyu..."

Before leaving, Ji Xiaoyun, along with the old village chief, stood at the village entrance, reluctantly waving goodbye to Mu Jinyu.

"Hmm, goodbye, Little Yun. If there's a chance, I'll come back to see you!"

Seeing Ji Xiaoyun's timid expression, Mu Jinyu reached out to pat her little head, smiling as he spoke.

Ji Xiaoyun, who had been worried that because of her, the massacre would become more terrifying and make Mu Jinyu dislike her, saw his still kind attitude, and her pale little face lit up with a smile again.

"Okay!" she nodded vigorously, sweetly saying, "Brother Jinyu, you must come back to see Little Yun when you have the chance..."

Mu Jinyu smiled, then took large strides forward, waving back at them.

His figure gradually disappeared from their sight.

"That guy finally left!"

"He's just a bringer of bad luck, causing the deaths of so many people, leaving our village in such a bad state, and just walks away!"

"Sigh, forget it, if he stayed, could you all really let him work as our labor with peace of mind?"

"It's better this way; no need to stay on edge!"

"..."

The old village chief, listening to the whispered gossip of the villagers hiding in their houses, showed a wry smile at the corners of his mouth, then shook his head and said to Elder Ji, "Let's go; there's not much food left in the village, let's go hunting again!"

"Alright!"

...

After leaving Xiaolin Village, following the map drawn by the old village chief, Mu Jinyu headed out of the mountains, away from the direction of the Qinghe Sect.

Because the old village chief feared that if Li Hu learned of Old Li's death, he might seek revenge crazily.

Though Li Hu's cultivation wasn't strong, he did manage to get into the Qinghe Sect, and he might persuade some experts to hunt down Mu Jinyu!

So, caution was advised.

However, he didn't elaborate much to Mu Jinyu, only drawing a path on the map, telling him this path was the easiest way out of the mountain range.

He didn't mark the Qinghe Sect's location on the map either, so Mu Jinyu wouldn't immediately see the two paths were completely opposite.

"Aowhoo!"

A tiger's roar echoed, resounding for miles, and soon, a massive, pitch-black tiger, almost devoid of any other color, leaped in front of Mu Jinyu, glaring menacingly at him.

"Aowhoo!"

The black tiger scabbled its claws a few times before letting out another ferocious roar. With a gale of wind, it lunged at Mu Jinyu like a black bolt of lightning!

"Hmph!"

Mu Jinyu's expression turned cold, his eyes flashing with cold light, black hair fluttering, unfazed by the approaching ferocious giant tiger nearing the Fanxu Realm, and he punched straight at it!

Though his cultivation was now only at the Divine Transformation Realm, and he couldn't channel nature's spiritual energy or use divine skills due to switching to the Humanity Path Cultivation Method,

He once held strength at the Ninth Layer Hedao Realm. Now, even with only Divine Transformation Realm strength left, his rich combat experience remained. Killing a ferocious black tiger at the peak of the Divine Transformation Realm was still quite simple!

"Boom!!"

"Rip!!"

Mu Jinyu blasted the tiger's head with one punch, then drove his hands into the black tiger's neck, tearing it open ferociously, disemboweling it!

He then collected the intact tiger pelt, followed by the tiger claws, tiger bones, and most importantly, the Great Tonic Whip!

As for the tiger meat, Mu Jinyu roasted and ate it on the spot.

While savoring the golden, sizzling, oil-dripping roast meat, he practiced the "Blood Tempering Method," continually tempering his Qi-blood, accumulating blood essence!

However, the effect was much less than when he first started cultivating.

The increase in cultivation wasn't enough for Mu Jinyu to reach the Mid Divine Transformation Realm.

Then, Mu Jinyu remembered something, the old village chief mentioned that the "Humanity Path Sutra" contains not just the "Blood Tempering Method," but also chapters like the "Bone Tempering Technique," "Flesh Refining Method," and "Marrow Nourishing Technique!"

And rituals for the five organs, developing the body's universe, etc.

Thinking of this, Mu Jinyu realized that if he wanted to continue enhancing his cultivation, the sole reliance on the "Blood Tempering Method" wasn't enough to break through to the Fanxu Realm. He needed other chapters!

"Sigh, after all, even without that incident in Xiaolin Village, I would have had to leave in the end because of this reason..."

Mu Jinyu lamented lightly, returning to devouring the tiger meat, replenishing his Qi-blood power.

Although currently restricted by the cultivation technique, continuing to consume and refine flesh could not increase his cultivation, accumulating more Qi-blood power is always beneficial.

If he could gather the complete "Humanity Path Sutra" in the future, he figured his cultivation might rapidly advance again.

After finishing the tiger meat, Mu Jinyu resumed his journey.

Time slowly passed.

After seven or eight days, Mu Jinyu finally walked out of the Qinghe Mountain Range, arriving on the main road outside.

"Neighhh!"

Upon exiting the mountain, Mu Jinyu saw a team of people riding majestic unicorns slowly advancing.

"Hello, may I ask..."

Seeing people passing by, Mu Jinyu, beamed with joy, eagerly spoke to ask them.

After all, the outside world was vast, and the old village chief and others, living in the Qinghe Mountains all their lives, didn't know the specific directions outside. The map they gave him was only for leaving Qinghe Mountains and Rivers.

However, just as Mu Jinyu was about to ask, a burst of fierce wind swept through, and dozens of green-glowing darts shot straight at him.

Mu Jinyu was taken aback by the scene, then became furious!

Chapter 1552 The 13th Prince! Upholding Justice!

"Clang! Clang! Clang!!"

Mu Jinyu swung his fist, exploding with fist strength, surging blood energy, instantly shattering the dozen or so poisoned darts into fragments!

"Not bad!"

"Clap, clap!"

As Mu Jinyu successfully fended off this wave of attacks, before he could retaliate in anger, a clear male voice sounded, followed by a light and steady applause.

Then, the curtain of the carriage was lifted, and a young man dressed in luxurious clothing stepped out of the carriage, looking at Mu Jinyu with appreciation, lightly clapping his hands.

"Why did you attack me?"

Mu Jinyu asked coldly.

He felt quite baffled; he was just asking them a question, was there a need to attack so silently?

If it had been someone else, they might have really died from those poisoned darts just now.

The young man in luxurious clothing gave Mu Jinyu a surprised look, then laughed: "Brother, you approached us so suddenly before, how would we know whether you were human or a demon beast in disguise? Naturally, we had to make a move to test it out."

Mu Jinyu frowned in displeasure: "Aren't you afraid of hurting ordinary people?"

"Hurting ordinary people?"

Upon hearing Mu Jinyu's words, the young man in luxurious clothing was taken aback, then couldn't help but laugh.

As he laughed, his guards and maids also burst into laughter.

Mu Jinyu, seeing their reaction, looked at them with the same gaze as one would at a clown, and his expression gradually darkened.

He really didn't understand, was there something so funny in what he just said?

Or in their eyes, ordinary lives were so insignificant?

At this moment, the young man in luxurious clothing gradually ceased his laughter and paused, explaining: "Sorry, I wasn't laughing at you; I just found your words kind of amusing. Ordinary people wouldn't dare approach our convoy casually. If an ordinary person did dare to approach, then they must be out of their mind; if they die, they die; there's nothing more to be said..."

Upon hearing the explanation, Mu Jinyu initially felt quite displeased.

But then he thought, this isn't Earth, the environment and rules are different. Perhaps the young man in luxurious clothing was right; if ordinary people dared approach them, dying would be dying in vain. Normal ordinary people wouldn't approach them.

Only he would recklessly approach them.

It's probably like how on Earth, ordinary people wouldn't casually run onto a battlefield to get themselves killed, right?

If an ordinary person really ran into a battlefield full of gunfire to get killed, it indeed would be dying in vain!

Thinking this way, Mu Jinyu somewhat accepted their actions.

But he still felt a bit uncomfortable inside.

At this moment, the young man in luxurious clothing looked at Mu Jinyu a few times, noticing his clothes were dirty and torn, covered with quite a bit of mud and sand, looking quite like a beggar, with a pensive expression: "Could it be, brother, that you came out from the Qinghe Mountain Range?!"

"Yes!"

Mu Jinyu, hearing the question, came out of his thoughts, hesitated for a moment, and finally answered.

Because of their aggressive move earlier, Mu Jinyu wasn't too keen on getting too close to them now, but there were no other people around, and he didn't know if he could meet anyone later, so Mu Jinyu decided to ask them for directions.

"It's my first time out; I don't know where this place is and what's nearby. Can you tell me?" Mu Jinyu asked.

"Hmm, I could tell it's your first time out of the mountains..."

The young man in luxurious clothing nodded slightly.

But he was still somewhat surprised, feeling that Mu Jinyu's eyes didn't seem as ignorant as other countryside folks?

Yet his actions and questions did appear equally silly.

Thus, the young man in luxurious clothing didn't think too much of it.

He just thought that Mu Jinyu's strength at his age was indeed not bad and considered recruiting him as a guard.

"Let's go; we'll talk as we go..."

The young man in luxurious clothing didn't want to waste time and let his guards bring over a unicorn for him; he then went back into the carriage.

Seeing this, Mu Jinyu hesitated for a moment but ultimately got on the unicorn.

After that, the convoy quickly moved forward again.

But the young man in luxurious clothing didn't speak to Mu Jinyu again; from the carriage, occasionally, some coquettish laughter from women could be heard.

However, the Guard Commander understood the young man's intention and directly sent a guard riding a unicorn close to Mu Jinyu so they could talk while riding.

"Is there a country nearby?"

Mu Jinyu wasn't offended by this; after all, the young man's identity seemed indeed quite extraordinary, and his current appearance was akin to a savage just out of the mountains. That the young master allowed him to follow was already quite gracious. Did he really expect the young master to personally resolve his confusion?

Moreover, facing the attendant guards, Mu Jinyu felt no pressure or concerns, so when he saw the guard riding closer, he directly asked.

The guard, having noted Mu Jinyu's ignorance and lack of knowledge, directly explained: "This place is the Qinghe Mountain Range, located in the Great Zhou Kingdom, and the one who invited you to join the convoy is the Thirteenth Prince of the Great Zhou Kingdom!"

"A prince, huh?"

After hearing the guard's introduction, Mu Jinyu immediately understood why, as soon as he approached the convoy, poisoned darts flew, and why they said that ordinary people wouldn't dare come near, or dying would be dying in vain.

In similar situations on Earth, although not this severe, people still wouldn't be allowed to approach.

And in the Canglan Realm, there were no laws against killing, so it was normal for ordinary people to be killed if they got close.

Then Mu Jinyu continued to ask: "So where are you heading now?"

"We are heading to Qingshi City, at the border between the Great Chu Kingdom and our Great Zhou Kingdom. After passing through the city gate, we are going to present gifts to Lord Chiji in the Great Chu Kingdom!" the guard replied.

"The Great Zhou Kingdom and the Great Chu Kingdom..."

Mu Jinyu murmured these names, then continued to ask various questions.

Although the guard was quite impatient, due to the Guard Commander's orders, he eventually answered all the questions.

This allowed Mu Jinyu to learn more about the Canglan Realm.

He was currently in a corner of the Eastern Region in the Canglan Realm, surrounded by many countries and sects, quite chaotic.

And because this was a remote corner of the Canglan Realm, there were no top-grade powerful races nearby, only some ranked around a thousandth like the Chixing Clan and the Rampant Wolf Clan...

And their destination, the one they were to present gifts to, Lord Chiji, was an expert from the Chixing Clan!

According to Mu Jinyu's estimation, his strength should be around the Peak Unity Realm Stage!

Or in the Void Breaking Realm!

Anyway, in this small place, he was already considered very powerful.

As for what business the Thirteenth Prince and his group had with the other party, Mu Jinyu didn't ask.

However, it didn't concern him, so Mu Jinyu didn't intend on digging any deeper.

The guard, tired of Mu Jinyu's questions, noticed they were soon to reach Qingshi City. He was preparing to directly ask Mu Jinyu if he wanted to become a guard for the Thirteenth Prince.

If he did not wish to, they would drop him off then, saving a city exit fee.

Just then, Mu Jinyu suddenly saw a few foreign tribe members covered in red fur on the road ahead, forcibly dragging a group of young girls, tearing at their clothes, and making disgusting laughs.

Seeing the foreign tribe people bullying the human race, the surrounding onlookers simply watched, expressionless, not one trying to save them!

Enraged, Mu Jinyu pressed the horse's belly with his legs and charged towards them.

"Hey?! What are you doing? Stop immediately!"

The guard who had been explaining things to Mu Jinyu along the way was stunned when he saw Mu Jinyu burst out from the convoy and charge at those red-haired aliens, and shouted in a panic.

"Damn, is this guy crazy!"

The Thirteenth Prince, sitting inside the carriage, watched Mu Jinyu's actions, his pupils suddenly contracted, and he cursed angrily!

Chapter 1553 People of Chixing Tribe! Massacre Across All Sides! Unmatched!

Mu Jinyu didn't think much about it. Upon seeing those disgusting creatures humiliating people in front of everyone, while others simply ignored it, he couldn't stand it.

Immediately, he rushed over and punched the creature resembling a baboon with red fur, who was closest to him!

"Boom!!"

Fist Strength erupted, Qi-Blood surged like a tide. As he threw this punch, a cracking sound echoed like thunder!

"Huh?!"

Feeling the terrifying impact of the Fist force, those red-haired monsters immediately spun around, staring with wide, green bean-like eyes that gleamed with a twinkling green glow.

Then, the red fur on their bodies unfurled like dense wild grasses being blown by a strong wind, wildly entwining towards Mu Jinyu.

"Boom!!!"

However, although their reaction speed was quick, the red-furred Monster that Mu Jinyu targeted was too late to respond.

Mu Jinyu's punch shattered the hastily entwined red fur, and then the punch effortlessly slammed into the opponent's head!

"Bang!!"

The sound of a watermelon smashing on the ground resounded!

"No!!!"

"You..."

"Stop!!!"

"..."

Just then, the guards of the Thirteenth Prince of the Great Zhou Kingdom behind Mu Jinyu, as well as the surrounding onlookers who hadn't intended to stop the red-haired aliens from disrespecting the human race girls, erupted into shocked cries of anger.

But as the sound of the head exploding like a watermelon echoed, their shouting abruptly stopped.

It was as if a group of quacking ducks had their necks suddenly grabbed, unable to utter another word.

"How dare he?"

"He actually killed a Chixing Clan member..."

"It's over..."

"It's really over now..."

Regardless of whether they were already in Qingshi City or had brought Mu Jinyu over with the Great Zhou Thirteenth Prince and guards, upon witnessing Mu Jinyu's punch exploding the head of the red-haired alien, all were stunned, followed by expressions of deep despair and fear, trembling as they muttered.

Indeed, the red-haired creature whose head was exploded by Mu Jinyu was a powerful alien active in this area, a member of the Chixing Clan!

This is why, outside Qingshi City, they had been openly disrespecting human race girls in front of everyone without anyone daring to stop them, instead smiling alongside them.

But now, suddenly came an impetuous Mu Jinyu who unexpectedly punched a Chixing Clan member dead. Although they were surprised at how Mu Jinyu could kill a Chixing Clan member, it wasn't the main issue now. They were all terrified how to face Ancestor Chiji dominating this area!

At this moment, they truly wished they could skin Mu Jinyu alive!

"Damn it!"

"Ah!! Chi Yuan!! Damn it, damn it..."

As the head of the Chixing Clan member was exploded by Mu Jinyu, the remaining three members of the Chixing Clan immediately burned with rage, their entire bodies of red fur rapidly extending and growing, either like needles piercing towards Mu Jinyu's vital points and apertures, or like vines and seaweed, entwining towards Mu Jinyu's limbs...

"Ha!!"

Mu Jinyu killed a red-haired alien with one punch, completely ignoring the rebuking angry shouts of the surrounding human race, his figure once again maneuvering, moving towards another Chixing Clan member!

"Boom!"

Another punch blasted out, the iron fist like a shell shot out, an intense thunderous sound resounded, his entire Qi-Blood was mobilized, dispersing the oppressive Evil Qi from the heavens and earth!

And the surging Qi-Blood rose like a beacon wolf smoke, ascending to the skies, seemingly transforming into a blazing blood fire, burning all the red fur attempting to entwine him.

"Sizzle sizzle!"

Instantly, all the countless red fur was burned into ashes by Mu Jinyu's abundant Qi-Blood, turning into strands of black ash that fell to the ground!

"How is this possible?!"

"How can he burn our Divine fur?!"

"Damn it?! What's going on?!"

"Why is this human's Qi and Blood Power so terrifying, making me afraid to approach?!"

"..."

As the red hairs attempting to kill Mu Jinyu were all burned into ashes by Mu Jinyu's erupted terrifying Qi-Blood, those three Chixing Clan members immediately roared in anger and shock.

Their words also contained an indescribable fear and unease!

"Kill!!!"

Mu Jinyu, however, didn't care about these. Initially, he somewhat feared these red furs, contemplating how to avoid them, but upon seeing that his Qi-Blood could actually restrain these ominous red furs, his Spirit instantly lifted, roaring with anger, violently stepping forward.

"Boom!"

Mu Jinyu's black hair flitted, eyes shining cold electricity, releasing astonishing murderous intent, his left hand forming a Sword technique, right hand gripping a Fist Seal, punching out like an unsheathed sword, fiercely smashing into the chest of a Chixing Clan member!

"Bang!!!"

The Chixing Clan member was still fearful of how Mu Jinyu could dissolve their red fur, hurriedly spawned dense red furs again, but no longer attacking Mu Jinyu.

Instead, it wrapped around his body, forming an armor looking like a porcupine in an instant!

The dense red fur emanated a disturbing aura, if it were others, they wouldn't dare to approach the Chixing Clan member.

But Mu Jinyu didn't care at all, punching relentlessly towards the opponent's chest!

"Boom!!"

To the despair of the three Chixing Clan members, as Mu Jinyu's fist approached, the intricately intertwined and thick red-haired battle armor on the target Chixing Clan member couldn't withstand Mu Jinyu's abundant Qi-Blood, as if dry wild grasses met the imposing Sea of Fire. It all turned to ashes!

"No!!!"

The Chixing Clan member just uttered an unwilling angry roar, was hit in the chest by Mu Jinyu's punch, and his form shattered, exploded to all sides!

With the Chixing Clan member's body exploding, the humans originally intending to join the siege against Mu Jinyu all stopped in fright.

Fearing a touch of Crimson Blood, making them suffer unbearable pain in the future!

"Kill!!!"

A punch once again killed an enemy, leaving only the last two red-haired monsters. Mu Jinyu's eyes filled with determined murderous intent, his steps turned and charged, moving like a wild goose, swiftly closing in on the two grouped-up Chixing Clan members, twin fists shooting out, radiating brilliant red glory, more dazzling and intense than their red hair!

"No!!!"

"Stop this!!!"

"You dare, brat!!!"

"..."

This time, the humans stunned by Mu Jinyu's actions, seeing Mu Jinyu actually kill two Chixing Clan members within a minute, snapped back from their daze, all eyes widened in shock, glaring at Mu Jinyu, roaring furiously.

"Bang bang!!!"

"Boom!!!"

However, Mu Jinyu didn't pay any attention to these weaklings' angry roars, his fists met with the two Chixing Clan members, regardless of their counterattacks, attempts to protect themselves, or struggles, ultimately none could withstand his fists, bodies exploded loudly!!

Accompanied by two booming sounds, blood flowers splattered, flesh shattered, all fell silent!

Chapter 1554 Cowards Show Their Rage by Turning Their Blades on the Weaker

"Huff..."

The biting cold wind swept through, lifting the fallen leaves on the ground into a swirling dance before they plummeted back down.

The cultivation levels of everyone present allowed them to resist the cold wind without feeling a hint of chill. Yet, at this moment, seeing the scene before them drenched in blood and scattered with bits of red fur filled them with an unprecedented cold that pierced their bones, leaving their lips cracked and pale, shivering continuously.

"You, you, you..."

"Do you know what you've done?"

"Damn! Damn! You actually killed them all!"

"We're done for, completely done for!!"

"..."

In the deathly silence, some quickly came to their senses. They glared angrily and despairingly at Mu Jinyu standing in the midst of the massacre, pointing at him with trembling hands and continuously accusing him.

"What? The foreign tribe humiliated our people in broad daylight, and I'm supposed to stand by and smile obsequiously like you?"

Listening to their angry accusations, Mu Jinyu increasingly felt that the human race of the Canglan Realm had fallen into a sickening state of pandering to the foreign races.

Those red-furred monsters, they weren't even from one of the top-grade powerful races. Their strength was around the peak of the Divine Transformation Realm, yet weren't they easily killed by my early stage of Divine Transformation Realm with one punch each?

Such a weak tribe, and they have to humble us to this extent, to the point where even when our own people are humiliated openly by them, we don't dare to fight back, just standing by and smiling obsequiously!

This truly disgusts Mu Jinyu!

"Do you know what you've done? Do you understand the huge trouble you've caused by killing them? You don't know anything, just acting recklessly!!"

At this point, the guard who had come with Mu Jinyu earlier and had shared quite a bit of useful information was clutching his forehead in despair, shouting at Mu Jinyu.

"What? After killing them, will the entire human race be exterminated immediately?"

Hearing this, Mu Jinyu looked rebelliously at the guard, coldly questioning.

The guard was at a loss for words, but soon glared angrily at Mu Jinyu, saying, "Of course, it's not that serious, but do you know how many hundreds or thousands of people will still die?"

"Because they are from the Chixing Clan, and Ancestor Chiji of the Chixing Clan is always protective. If any clan members are harmed, he will never let it go, he must cause rivers of blood before he's satisfied! Do you know that killing these people from the Chixing Clan will cause many others to die alongside you?"

Mu Jinyu sneered coldly and asked, "What is the cultivation level of Ancestor Chiji?"

The guard sighed deeply, his voice filled with helplessness, "Peak of the Unity Realm Stage!"

Hearing this, Mu Jinyu let out a dismissive laugh, saying, "Just a foreign tribesman at the peak of the Unity Realm Stage, and he has scared you to this extent? You allow his clan members to humiliate our race without retaliation? Has our massive human race fallen from one of the top ten powerful races to the point where we can't even produce one at the peak of the Unity Realm Stage?"

"What do you know?! Of course, we have strong human cultivators at the peak of the Unity Realm Stage, and there are stronger ones too, but..."

The guard seemed both helpless and frustrated, unable to finish his sentence.

Seeing this, Mu Jinyu's expression also darkened, and he said faintly, "But they are unwilling to help us weaklings? But they want to protect the bigger picture, afraid that targeting the Chixing Clan will provoke animosity and attacks from other races? But they have their reasons, so they'd rather let Ancestor Chiji kill hundreds or thousands of humans to vent his anger, calm his fury with so many lives, not willing to risk it to take him down?"

"But those human powerhouses are unwilling to help, don't the Great Zhou Kingdom and the Great Chu Kingdom have any strong cultivators at the early to middle stages of the Unity Realm Stage? Without the Unity Realm Stage, don't we have the Fanxu Realm?"

"Just as much sacrifice, we could unite and wear down Ancestor Chiji to death, why choose to remain indifferent? Allow him to kill people to vent his anger to calm him down? What's the point of doing this?"

"Why can Ancestor Chiji make you so fearful that you'd rather let him kill people to vent his anger, that you wouldn't dare to stop the Chixing Clan from harassing our people, isn't it exactly because of his ferocious protectiveness? And you, you're just continuously escaping and enduring?!"

"It's said that seeking peace through compromise will lead to peace's demise, while seeking peace through struggle will preserve peace. Has the Chixing Clan become so strong in this region, where no one dares to provoke them, by being humble? No! They gained their notoriety through killings by the hands of Ancestor Chiji! Which of the other Ten Great Strong Races hasn't earned their fame through battle?!"

"The glorious name that the human race once held among the Ten Great Strong Races, living by hunting the other great races, has now dwindled to surviving in humiliation and stealth, not just because of changes in circumstances, but also because all you know is how to escape and endure, leading the human race to this end!"

"Wake up, sheer endurance is useless. If we want other races to respect the human race, there is only one word, kill!"

"Kill out the reputation of the human race, kill out the once blood-stained glory of the human race as part of the Ten Great Strong Races, only then can the Ten Thousand Clans be in awe of us!"

With Mu Jinyu's words, some among the crowd were infected by the force contained within, their expressions hesitant and struggling, their eyes glowing amidst confusion.

But for most, their expressions remained numb and indifferent, looking at Mu Jinyu as if watching a pathetic clown perform.

"Oh, please, you've already caused a disaster and now you want to trick us into bearing the blame with you?"

"Exactly, Ancestor Chiji is such a powerful foreign race leader, yet in your words, it seems like he's easy to challenge, just a measly Unity Realm Stage. Do you think Unity Realm cultivators are as common as cabbages?"

"What do you mean by saying get Fanxu Realm powerhouses to besiege and wear down Ancestor Chiji to death? Why would they risk their lives with you for no reason?"

"Stop wasting words with him. These Chixing Clan members are dead, and Ancestor Chiji will likely sense it and come soon to seek justice. We might as well quickly capture him and hand him over to Ancestor Chiji, hoping to calm his anger!"

As they spoke, their glances at Mu Jinyu turned increasingly hateful, as they collectively drew their weapons and began to surround him, intending to take him down first!

Seeing this, Mu Jinyu's eyes revealed a sadness and frustration with their cowardice, "The brave are angry, and turn their blades to the stronger, the cowardly are angry, and turn their blades to the weaker!"

"You..." He shook his head slightly, sighing, "are just a bunch of spineless cowards!!"

"Courting death!"

"An early stage Divine Transformation Realm kid dares to talk so big, capture him!"

Upon hearing Mu Jinyu's last remark, some became both angry and embarrassed, immediately shouting in rage as they all charged together to attack Mu Jinyu!

Chapter 1555 No One Is a Match! The Thoughts of the 13th Prince!

"Sigh..."

Mu Jinyu saw them finally swing their blades towards him, and the sorrow in his eyes was unmistakable.

He had hoped to persuade them, at least ignite a spark of self-empowerment within them, but unfortunately, their centuries of servility had seeped deep into their bones, making them deaf to his counsel, only thinking of escape and concession!

Perhaps it was because his current strength was too weak, making them think he was just trying to make excuses to lure a strong protector? Hence, it was difficult to make them agree with him.

It seems only when he becomes strong and occupies a voice within the Human Race can he be more convincing!

"Kill!"

"Kid, stop struggling lest we accidentally kill you; it'll be hard to answer to Ancestor Chiji then!"

"Blabbing so much, yet just an Early Divine Transformation Realm Stage, watch how I deal with you!"

"..."

A group of people rushed to kill Mu Jinyu, faces full of hatred and anger, grinning sinisterly, ready to take Mu Jinyu down!

Mu Jinyu watched the scene, listening to their words, only thinking they were truly ridiculous!

Since they thought his Early Divine Transformation Realm Stage cultivation was nothing, weren't those earlier Chixing Clan members also of the Divine Transformation Realm? Facing these foreign races, they were as humble as watchdogs! Not daring to be insolent!

Now, facing a fellow Human Race like himself, they were overwhelmingly aggressive!

Maybe they were really just adept at internal strife, bullying their own kind?

"Clang!!"

"Bang!!"

Mu Jinyu slightly shook his head, his gaze turning cold. Then, his body moved, swiftly dodging the magic treasures and flying swords that were bombarding him!

Afterward, he formed a Fist Seal and forcefully struck, shattering all their magic treasures into pieces!

"How is that possible?!"

"Isn't this kid just at the Early Divine Transformation Realm Stage? How can he be so powerful?"

"Well, no wonder he could kill those Chixing Clan members; turns out he does have some skills!"

"..."

Those besieging Mu Jinyu were irate, seeing him display such might, forcing even those in the Peak of the Divine Transformation Realm, and Early Fanxu Realm strong practitioners, unable to approach, cursed repeatedly.

Mu Jinyu's eyes released cold light like electricity. He didn't employ any magic treasure attacks, nor use magic treasures for defense, merely relying on his formidable physical body to rampage through the Killing Formation, shattering those encircling him utterly!

Currently, although he self-abandoned his cultivation body, causing his cultivation to truly fall to the Early Stage Divine Transformation Realm, through the "Dragon Elephant Prison Suppression Scripture," his body remained immensely strong despite the slight weakening due to the loss of Divine Dragon Blood.

The power of one dragon might be gone, but the strength of ninety-eight giant elephants is still solidly present!

Even facing Elite Fanxu Realm practitioners head-on, as long as the opponent doesn't try to escape with tricks, confronting him directly, he can punch them to death!

Moreover, most of them possess only Divine Transformation Realm cultivation!

"Bang!!"

Mu Jinyu punched through a flying sword, swung a palm, knocking a person flying.

Then, his solid back received two strikes from heavy hammers, his body slightly wobbled, he suddenly raised a hand and struck backward!

"Bang!!"

The flying hammer and the Great Cauldron were all shattered by Mu Jinyu's Fist Seal!

"Ho!!"

Mu Jinyu roared angrily, his foot stamping heavily, then his whole body soared straight up into the sky!

"Think you can run?!"

"No way!"

"Chase!"

"Don't let him escape, or we won't be able to answer to Ancestor Chiji!"

"..."

As Mu Jinyu rose into the sky, the besieging crowd retreated by Mu Jinyu's might, hesitated briefly, then charged upward again towards Mu Jinyu!

The Thirteenth Prince of the Great Zhou Kingdom, sitting in a carriage, seeing this scene, hesitated, then said, "You all take action too! Sigh..."

His heart was filled with endless regret, feeling like he must have been crazy to think of recruiting Mu Jinyu and bringing him all the way here?

Ultimately, Mu Jinyu went mad and killed those Chixing Clan members!

Currently, the people of Qingshi City still don't know Mu Jinyu came along with him, but once he's captured, they are sure to find out.

He fears he too will be implicated by Mu Jinyu.

Well, it's not that bad; he's the Thirteenth Prince of the Great Zhou Kingdom; these people probably wouldn't dare do anything to him.

It's just that his original plan to seek Ancestor Chiji is now likely unfeasible, and he might be out of luck in competing with the other princes for the Crown Prince position!

"Yes!"

"Kill!"

"Damn it!"

Upon hearing the Thirteenth Prince's words, the dozen guards around the carriage only left three to five to protect the Thirteenth Prince, while the others all rushed upward to attack Mu Jinyu!

Among them, particularly the guard previously with Mu Jinyu, bore the strongest killing intent, wishing he could swallow Mu Jinyu whole!

Mu Jinyu stomped the ground, soaring into the sky, his body moving swiftly in mid-air, not intending to flee, as his cultivation Path is centered on humanity, focusing on human bodily treasures, unlike his previous cultivation method integrated with Heaven and Earth, utilizing Heaven and Earth Vital Energy during Divine Transformation Realm to fly through the sky...

His current cultivation path cannot do that!

Therefore, he rose skyward only to briefly shake off these pursuers, so he could gather strength for a major strike to defeat them all, leaving them powerless to entangle him again!

"Ho!!!"

Mu Jinyu yelled long, his hands forming circles expertly, quickly under the impetus of the "Killing Character Secret Technique," two Yin Yang Fish were evolved, spinning and entwined together.

Generating endless terrifying energy!

"Go!!!"

As the Yin Yang Fish turned completely into a Tai Chi Circle, Mu Jinyu's gaze concentrated, raising his hand to hurl the frantically spinning gray Tai Chi Circle downward, its Yin Yang life and deadly Qi indistinguishable!

"Boom!!!"

As this Tai Chi Circle bombarded down, instant thunderclapped across the plain!

At the same time, a splendid and enormous mushroom cloud exploded in mid-air!

The forty to fifty people pursuing Mu Jinyu were all blasted by this single strike, leaving them bloodied and collapsed on the ground, barely breathing!

"This..."

The Thirteenth Prince and others who did not pursue watched this scene, their pupils contracting fiercely, faces full of disbelief.

They never imagined Mu Jinyu, as a humble Early Divine Transformation Realm cultivator, could defeat so many Peak Divine Transformation Realm, even three to five Early Fanxu Realm strong practitioners, in one blow!

What terrifying and abnormal combat power is this!

The Thirteenth Prince suddenly recalled Mu Jinyu's recent words: "Compromise breeds peace to extinction; struggle breeds peace to survival!"

Seeing Mu Jinyu defeat them all now, with no one capable of stopping him, the Thirteenth Prince was suddenly deeply touched.

Yes, if Mu Jinyu only sought refuge through words, clearly, no one would let him go in the end, and he would be handed over to Ancestor Chiji.

But Mu Jinyu chose resistance directly, defeating them to the point of not daring to oppose him anymore, who dares to think of capturing him for Ancestor Chiji now?

In an instant, the Thirteenth Prince fell into contemplation.

Perhaps his constant concessions were indeed wrong.

He should indeed contend with those Imperial Brothers properly!

If so, his current situation might not be as difficult as it is now?

Chapter 1556 Chu Kingdom's God of War Appears! You Don't Need My Help?

Mu Jinyu's figure slowly descended from the air, then looked at the severely injured people on the ground, eyes indifferent. He did not continue to mercilessly kill the assassins, taking the opportunity to slay them all.

After giving them a glance, he turned around and walked straight towards the Qingshi City ahead, leaving a faint sentence: "You need not worry that after I kill those red-furred monsters, I will run away and cause you big trouble. I will personally seek out that Ancestor Chiji and kill him to eliminate future threats!"

Those who did not chase Mu Jinyu into the sky and thus survived by chance, looked at Mu Jinyu with fear in their eyes. Upon hearing his words, their eyes flickered with suspicion and uncertainty.

They truly did not know whether Mu Jinyu's words were real or false.

But regardless of whether it's true or false, they currently lacked the ability to stop Mu Jinyu and could only watch him leave helplessly.

"Haha, a true brave man, angry, wields the knife against the stronger; the coward, angry, wields the knife against the weaker! Well said..."

At this moment, a clear and elegant voice suddenly sounded from not far away, the tone filled with undisguised admiration.

"Hmm?!"

Mu Jinyu heard the voice and couldn't help but pause, raising his eyes to look towards the source.

In front, a female general clad in exquisite fitted armor was gazing at him appreciatively.

The one who just spoke was this female general.

Her appearance was exquisitely beautiful, her brows filled with heroic spirit, possessing a unique gallant charm. Her beauty was slightly inferior to Xilin but surpassed that of Mu Jinyu's wives on Earth by far.

Mu Jinyu slightly frowned, sensing no malice from her, yet his disappointment with the Human Race from the Canglan Realm made him unsure of her intentions!

"It's Chu Huannian!"

"Chu Kingdom's God of War? Why would she come to Qingshi City?"

At this moment, those who were discontent with Mu Jinyu leaving like this watched as Chu Huannian appeared in front of them. Instantly, their eyes lit up as they quickly shouted:

"Chu War God, this young man just killed the people of Chixing Tribe, please apprehend him! Otherwise, there will be endless trouble!"

"Indeed, this guy is rather tricky, be careful, Chu War God!"

"..."

Mu Jinyu couldn't help but glance back at these people, eyes slightly narrowing, considering whether these people have the value to keep living.

If all they know is snuggling up to the powerful and internal strife, it'd be better to send them on their way early!

"Shut up! A bunch of trash!"

Chu Huannian heard these people's words, her eyes narrowed, and a terrifying murderous aura erupted forth with the force of a mountain, surging like a tide!

In an instant, everyone who intended to complain felt as if their necks were squeezed by a ghost hand, their breathing almost cut off!

Even Mu Jinyu, feeling the overwhelming fearsome aura, couldn't help but have goosebumps rise all over.

This woman has definitely slaughtered countless souls, with lost souls numbering at least over a million!

No wonder she became Chu Kingdom's God of War as a woman!

Chu Huannian's shout, accompanied by unrestrained murderous aura, made everyone present shut their mouths, afraid to utter a single word.

Soon, Chu Huannian withdrew her murderous aura, allowing everyone to catch their breath.

"Sister!"

Then, one of the young girls saved by Mu Jinyu couldn't help but burst into tears, running towards Chu Huannian!

"What?!"

Hearing the girl's address to Chu Huannian and seeing her throw herself into Chu Huannian's embrace, and Chu Huannian comfort her softly, everyone present was stunned.

They never expected that among the girls teased by the Chixing Tribe, one would be the sister of Chu Kingdom's God of War!

No wonder Chu Huannian suddenly appeared in Qingshi City at the border between the two countries!

"Sister, he just saved us, and yet he was bullied by this group, a bunch ganging up on him..."

At this time, the girl complained to Chu Huannian, venting her fear and worry, and then remembered something, praising Mu Jinyu.

Upon hearing the girl's words, everyone present, including those gravely injured and near death, their expressions changed drastically.

It's bad!

Had they known this girl was Chu Kingdom's God of War's sister, they would never have sat back watching her and the group of girls being teased by the Chixing Tribe!

Even if they wouldn't have been as aggressive as Mu Jinyu, killing directly, they would at least have mediated!

Or knowing the girl's identity, after Mu Jinyu killed the Chixing Tribe to save the girl, they certainly wouldn't dare act against Mu Jinyu recklessly!

This is bad.

Not only did they remain indifferent when Chu Huannian's sister was bullied by outsiders, but after someone rescued the girl, they wanted to take the savior to Ancestor Chiji!

This time, they have truly offended Chu Huannian!

At this moment, all that remained in everyone's minds was a single thought.

They hope Chu Huannian, like them, prioritizes the bigger picture, and by no means exempt Mu Jinyu for this minor favor nor provoke a war against the Chixing Tribe!

Chu Huannian listened to her sister's words, smiled slightly at Mu Jinyu, and said softly, "I know, I arrived very early. When he was rescuing you, I also arrived, ready to help. But he acted first, so I just kept watching..."

"Ah, sister, how could you do that?"

Young Chu Huaxiu was surprised hearing her sister's words, then complained discontentedly: "Sister, how could you do that? He was surrounded by so many people, and you didn't come to help. What if something happened to him?"

Chu Huannian smiled slightly, pinched the young girl's nose, and said with a laugh: "Didn't you see he is unharmed? Moreover, I was watching the whole time, ready to intervene if needed, you don't have to worry!"

"Oh, that's good..."

Chu Huaxiu heard those words, patted her chest and relaxed, breathing a sigh of relief.

Chu Huannian smiled gently: "What? Did you fancy him? After all, the hero saving the beauty really touches a girl's heart!"

Chu Huaxiu's face immediately flushed with bright red upon hearing this, anxiously glaring at Chu Huannian, saying coquettishly: "Sister, don't say nonsense!"

While speaking, she sneakily glanced back at Mu Jinyu, whose expression remained indifferent, heart sinking with disappointment.

But when their eyes met, she quickly withdrew her gaze timidly like a startled young deer, afraid to meet him again.

Mu Jinyu had no interest in caring about Chu Huaxiu's little thoughts. After hearing the conversation between Chu Huannian and Chu Huaxiu, he knew Chu Huannian wouldn't bother him.

With a faint smile, Mu Jinyu said, "Since you are safe, I am relieved. Farewell!"

After saying this, Mu Jinyu turned around, planning to move in a different direction towards Chu Kingdom, to find trouble with Ancestor Chiji!

He wanted no dealings with Chu Huannian, as the aura emanating from her was quite terrifying. Although he was not at Ninth Layer Hedao Realm's cultivation level, he couldn't accurately assess her cultivation, but she should at least have an Early Stage Cultivation of Fusion Realm!

With such cultivation, Mu Jinyu, now only retaining Divinity Transformation Realm cultivation and roughly capable of destroying strong Fanxu Realm Physical Body, truly wished for less contact.

If a battle were to break out, leaving wounds behind, it would complicate his plans to deal with Ancestor Chiji.

Seeing Mu Jinyu intending to leave even after her appearance, Chu Huannian's eyes flashed with surprise before saying, "In such a hurry to leave? Don't you need my assistance?"

Chapter 1557 You're Not Afraid of Me?! When Asking a Name, You Should Introduce Yourself First!

"Hmm?!"

Hearing Chu Huannian's words, Mu Jinyu halted his steps and slightly frowned as he looked at her.

"What? You're not happy about it? Are you really planning to go alone to trouble Ancestor Chiji?" Chu Huannian noticed Mu Jinyu's frown and couldn't help but chuckle.

"No." Mu Jinyu lightly shook his head and said, "I just didn't expect that there would be someone who dares to resist!"

"You're only at the Divinity Transformation Realm and you dare, I've just broken through to the Unity Realm Stage, so why shouldn't I dare!" Chu Huannian said proudly.

"What?!"

"The Chu Kingdom's God of War has already reached the Unity Realm Stage?"

"No wonder she's planning to team up with this guy to deal with Ancestor Chiji!"

"But Ancestor Chiji is no simple opponent. Even those at the early Void Breaking Realm Stage might not be his match. They're going like this to deal with Ancestor Chiji; won't it cause trouble for our Great Zhou Kingdom?"

"I suppose not? If there's trouble, it should involve the Great Chu Kingdom. After all, the Chu Kingdom's God of War is so famous; Ancestor Chiji surely knows her. As the saying goes, enemies have owners, so he shouldn't be seeking trouble with us..."

Upon hearing Chu Huannian's words, the crowd erupted, none had anticipated that the Chu Kingdom's Female War God had broken through to the Unity Realm Stage!

It's not just the breakthrough, but she's also going mad, preparing to partner up with Mu Jinyu of the Divinity Transformation Realm to trouble Ancestor Chiji!

It truly made them wonder if these two had consumed a dragon's heart and qilin's courage, daring to tread on Tai Sui's territory!

Then, they began worrying if Chu Huannian and Mu Jinyu joining forces might implicate them, whispering concerns among themselves.

Chu Huannian listened to their chatter and shook her head, saying, "Hopeless, let's go, we'll talk elsewhere!"

She then waved her hand, instantly taking Mu Jinyu and several girls away from Qingshi City.

Watching Chu Huannian and Mu Jinyu disappear, the Thirteenth Prince of the Great Zhou Kingdom looked slightly lost and eventually sighed, saying, "Indeed, I lack the eye to recognize talent..."

After Mu Jinyu defeated the group surrounding him, he thoughtfully pondered Mu Jinyu's earlier words, finding them increasingly reasonable, and realizing Mu Jinyu was indeed talented!

Subsequently, Chu Huannian appeared and took Mu Jinyu, further validating Chu Huannian's appreciation for him.

This left him regretting his earlier choice.

If he hadn't chosen to stand by, or better yet, had commanded his guards to aid Mu Jinyu, Mu Jinyu could have been his guard by now.

Instead, he's headed to the Chu Kingdom.

Unfortunately, Mu Jinyu was already taken by Chu Huannian; regretting now was too late!

Upon hearing Chu Huannian's words, before Mu Jinyu could react, he felt a gentle Qi Force engulfing his body, followed by the familiar sensation of Teleportation.

After a moment of discomfort, Mu Jinyu realized he had been taken to a guest room by Chu Huannian.

"Sit down!"

Chu Huannian, at some point, had removed her tightly fitting armor and donned a white dress, smiling as she gestured to Mu Jinyu.

"Alright."

Mu Jinyu felt no tension, considering Chu Huannian had brought him here.

He responded, pulled over a chair, and sat down.

He noticed a teapot with brewed tea on the table, took a cup, poured himself a drink, and drank casually.

"Aren't you afraid?" Chu Huannian watched Mu Jinyu behave so comfortably in her presence, amusedly asking.

Mu Jinyu glanced at her, set down the teacup, refilled it, and casually replied, "What's there to fear? My body is essentially immune to poisons; what harm could your poison do?"

Indeed, Mu Jinyu's body had been refined by Mu Shao'ai to be largely immune to poisons, though that immunity was on Earth; in the Canglan Realm, with its unique plants and ferocious beasts, it likely wouldn't match his former immunity!

However, Mu Jinyu remained unfazed due to the Three-Leaf Youlian within him, capable of absorbing poisons, leaving him carefree!

As for bodily concerns, Mu Jinyu lacked such worry, given that the Three-Leaf Youlian, as theorized, originated from the Canglan Realm, ensuring it maintained its ability to absorb toxins here!

"..." Chu Huannian, hearing Mu Jinyu's words, was speechless, responding, "I wasn't talking about poison; I meant, aren't you afraid of me?"

Curiously, she looked at Mu Jinyu, realizing he genuinely wasn't afraid of her, not pretending.

To know, among the Great Zhou Kingdom, the Great Chu Kingdom, the Great Qi Kingdom, and the Great Yan Kingdom, anyone hearing her name feared her!

Even seasoned Fanxu Realm experts and Unity Realm Stage beings showed some apprehension.

Yet, Mu Jinyu seemed entirely unaware of her, behaving as if he hadn't heard of her achievements, with no fear, leaving Chu Huannian slightly frustrated.

Mu Jinyu raised an eyebrow, looking at Chu Huannian in surprise, and said, "Why should I fear you? You're not my wife; shouldn't you fear me instead?"

Hearing this, Chu Huannian's expression subtly shifted to a frosty one, "You've got nerve, flirting with me?!"

Mu Jinyu shook his head, "I'm not flirting; I'm stating facts. I'm someone who fears only my wife and mother; why should I fear other women? You ought to fear me instead, being a rather strong man."

"Haha..."

Chu Huannian couldn't help but laugh, "You seem only seventeen or eighteen, dare call yourself a man in front of me?"

Mu Jinyu, hearing this, touched his own youthful face and murmured, "Do I look that youthful? Auntie, how old are you?"

"Auntie?!"

Chu Huannian's voice sharply rose a few decibels.

Mu Jinyu corrected himself, "Big sister! Uh... big sister..."

Chu Huannian chuckled and casually replied, "A woman's age is a secret, don't concern yourself with how old I am; I'll be older than you, for sure."

Afterward, she asked again, "What's your name?"

Mu Jinyu felt irritated when Chu Huannian jabbed him and casually responded, "When asking for someone's name, it's basic courtesy to introduce yourself first, right?"

"You don't know my name?" Chu Huannian asked, surprised.

Mu Jinyu shook his head, earnestly saying, "How would I know? You're not a famous celebrity. I've heard them call you the Chu Kingdom's God of War, the Huannian something; how would I know your name? Besides, even if I heard it just now, it came from others' mouths, not your self-introduction. For courtesy's sake, you should introduce yourself first!"

"Quite right!" Chu Huannian conceded, nodding, "Nice to meet you, I'm Chu Huannian!"

Mu Jinyu nodded, "I'm Mu Jinyu."

Chapter 1558 Splitting Up! Lost and Don't Know the Way!

"Mu Jinyu..."

Chu Huannian muttered softly a few times, then nodded gently, and said, "Not a bad name. So, tell me, what were you thinking? Are you really planning to kill the members of the Chixing Clan and then head out to find Ancestor Chiji to kill him? That's quite daring!"

Mu Jinyu smiled and said casually, "Because I'm human, and as a human, one aspires to be immortal. Born on earth, one wishes to reach the heavens!"

"Hahaha..." Chu Huannian couldn't help but laugh, "Interesting. However, you're just at the early Divine Transformation Realm Stage. Although your physical body is well-tempered enough to take down Fanxu Realm cultivators, there's no way you can handle Ancestor Chiji with that. Are you really planning on just facing him directly like this?"

"Pretty much, but I'm not foolish enough to confront him head-on. After all, there's still a gap." Mu Jinyu replied casually.

Although Chu Huannian currently seemed to be on his side, human intentions are unpredictable, so Mu Jinyu wasn't going to reveal too much to her casually.

Since he dared to kill those members of the Chixing Tribe and wanted to settle scores with Ancestor Chiji, he naturally wouldn't rush over without a plan. He was well-prepared and confident he could trap and kill the opponent!

"So, you don't have much confidence then?" Chu Huannian detected from Mu Jinyu's tone that he wasn't completely confident, otherwise he wouldn't have spoken like that.

Thus, she smiled and said, "Originally, when I had just broken through to the Unity Realm Stage, I received a distress signal from my sister, which enraged me, and I hurried over to kill those Chixing clan beasts. But on the way, I received a message from the rulers telling me to calm down and not act impulsively. Honestly, I hesitated a lot. If you hadn't directly killed those people of the Chixing Clan, I might never have dared to kill them directly!"

"But you killed them on the spot in your fury and said something profound to those numb people. They were indifferent, but I found what you said very sensible. Seeking peace through struggle ensures peace, whereas seeking peace through concession leads to its destruction. Only through struggle can one achieve true peace. At any time, friend or foe, only the strong are respected!"

"Therefore..." Chu Huannian looked up at Mu Jinyu, her expression serious, "I've decided to join you in a daring venture and go trap and kill Ancestor Chiji with you!"

"Hahaha..." Upon hearing Chu Huannian's words, Mu Jinyu couldn't help but laugh and self-deprecatingly said, "Did I really convince you? But I'm just a young cultivator at the early Divine Transformation Realm Stage. Even if you've lost your mind, shouldn't you settle scores with Ancestor Chiji yourself instead of going crazy with me?"

Chu Huannian wasn't annoyed. She looked at Mu Jinyu deeply and said, "Because you can't be considered an ordinary Divine Transformation Realm cultivator. You actually have the strength of a Fanxu Realm cultivator, just without the multitude of methods they possess. Therefore, I can naturally treat you as an equal."

"Moreover, observing how calm and composed you seem, it doesn't look like you're hot-headedly confronting Ancestor Chiji. You must have a plan to trap and kill him. By cooperating with you, I can greatly enhance your plan, right?"

"Alright." Mu Jinyu hesitated for a moment, then smiled and said, "Since you want to help me, I certainly won't refuse. The plan is as follows..."

As he spoke, Mu Jinyu communicated secretly with Chu Huannian, guiding her on how to cooperate.

After listening, although Chu Huannian didn't fully understand what Mu Jinyu intended to do, she nodded and agreed.

Mu Jinyu didn't disclose his entire trap plan to Chu Huannian, only part of it involving luring Ancestor Chiji to a certain dangerous place!

He also told her where he intended to set up the restrictive killing formation.

Indeed, Mu Jinyu had already planned how to trap and kill Ancestor Chiji. When conversing with the guards of the Thirteenth Prince of the Great Zhou Kingdom, he had already inquired about the nearby dangerous and treacherous areas between the Great Zhou Kingdom and the Great Chu Kingdom.

Although initially, he casually asked without the intent to trap someone, after taking action against those members of the Chixing Tribe and learning about Ancestor Chiji's cultivation, he quickly devised this trap against him!

However, at that time, Mu Jinyu planned to both set up the killing formation and set the trap himself, and then personally lure Ancestor Chiji into it, which was indeed quite risky.

But now, since Chu Huannian wanted to help, Mu Jinyu thought for a moment and ultimately decided to let her execute the act of luring.

If she didn't pretend to agree while secretly opposing, with her Unity Realm Stage cultivation, she should indeed increase the chances of the plan's success. And if she wanted to sabotage, merely revealing one of the dangerous spots wouldn't be a major issue, as he could still calmly adapt the setup.

"The sooner the better, let's split up and act now."

Seeing Chu Huannian agree, Mu Jinyu decided to swiftly head to the first dangerous area to set up the killing formation and stood up to leave.

Chu Huannian said, "No rush. I notice your cultivation seems a bit peculiar. Although at the Divine Transformation Realm, you seem... unable to fly through the sky?"

Mu Jinyu felt a bit embarrassed upon hearing that.

When he previously cultivated True Yuan, upon reaching the Divine Transformation Realm, he instinctively entered a Unity of Heaven and Man state and easily harnessed the surrounding nature's spiritual energy for his use.

But his current cultivation method is human-centric, without borrowing external power. Thus, even though he's reached the Divine Transformation Realm stage, he can't harness spiritual energy to fly gracefully.

He estimates he'll need to wait until the Fanxu Realm, by converting his own Qi-Blood into a domain, to barely manage flying, perhaps?

Now that Chu Huannian brought it up, it's indeed a little awkward.

Seeing Mu Jinyu not refuting, Chu Huannian chuckled, waved her hand, and took out a flying boat, saying with a smile, "This is a Spiritual Treasure Flying Boat, embedded with a small amount of inferior Demon Crystal. It can make at least thirty laps around the Chu Kingdom and the Zhou Kingdom, with hardly any restrictions. With a bit of Elemental Force, anyone can operate it..."

"Alright, I'll accept it then."

Mu Jinyu pondered for a moment, and then accepted the flying boat directly.

He himself also had a few flying boats, but they were powered by Spirit Stones. When he came to the Canglan Realm, due to the inability to fly, he considered using a flying shuttle to leave the Qinghe Mountain Range. However, upon taking out the flying shuttle, he found that both the Spirit Stones embedded in it and those in his Storage Bag had all shattered.

It's unclear whether this change is related to the increasingly thin spiritual energy and Elemental Qi in the Canglan Realm, making it difficult for the human race to follow the old cultivation path.

In any case, Mu Jinyu couldn't use the flying boat he brought, and without another Energy Crystal, it took him seven or eight days to walk out of the Qinghe Mountain Range.

After accepting the flying boat, Mu Jinyu immediately left the guest room and then turned back, asking Chu Huannian, "Where are we, exactly?"

After all, he didn't know the way. Unclear where Chu Huannian had taken him, he considered how much time he'd have to waste figuring out the route to the first dangerous location for the setup.

Chu Huannian was a bit taken aback upon hearing Mu Jinyu's question, frowning, "You don't know the way? Yet you're asking me to provoke Ancestor Chiji and lead him to that dangerous place?"

Chapter 1559 A Young Girl's Thoughts! Ancestor Chiji!

Mu Jinyu shrugged his shoulders, justifying himself, "You know, I came from the backwoods, it's normal not to know the way or recognize you, isn't it? I just asked someone for directions to these places, so isn't it normal not to know the way?"

Chu Huannian: "..."

After a moment of speechlessness, Chu Huannian muttered, "Even though you seem a bit unreliable, well, let's give it a try, I'll help you once more..."

With that, she flicked her fingers, and a strand of divine light shot out, instantly entering into Mu Jinyu's sea of consciousness.

Soon, Mu Jinyu absorbed the memories Chu Huannian transmitted, making him very familiar with the surrounding environment and routes.

"Thanks a lot."

Mu Jinyu smiled, then turned and left the inn, and soon piloted his flying boat away from this little town.

Watching Mu Jinyu leave, Chu Huannian was in no hurry to alert Ancestor Chiji, opting to remain seated in her room, lost in thought.

Mu Jinyu's plan, from telling her of a dangerous place, leading her to lure Ancestor Chiji, she vaguely guessed Mu Jinyu's intention, but the problem is, Ancestor Chiji isn't just some mindless animal, he's not some fool, would he really stupidly follow the plan and rush headlong in?

Chu Huannian was very skeptical, Mu Jinyu was too naive!

But just from the conversation with Mu Jinyu and careful observation, Chu Huannian could see that Mu Jinyu wasn't an inexperienced naive youth, even though she couldn't understand what Mu Jinyu's true plan was.

"Sister, has he gone? Are you really going to find Ancestor Chiji?"

At this moment, Chu Huaxiu, hearing the movement of departure, came alone to Chu Huannian's room, asking worriedly.

"Hm." Chu Huannian looked up at her sister and smiled, "What? Really taking a liking to him?"

Upon hearing this, Chu Huaxiu blushed, her face reddening like a captivating pink peach blossom, very shy. But to Chu Huannian's surprise, she actually nodded and said, "Yes."

Chu Huannian sighed faintly, "I came too late, if I had acted earlier, it wouldn't have been his turn, and you wouldn't be all starry-eyed."

"What are you talking about, sister." Chu Huaxiu stomped her foot, playfully reproaching.

Chu Huannian shook her head slightly, earnestly saying, "He already has a wife, and several at that, you better not think too much about it."

"Huh?"

Chu Huaxiu was taken aback by her sister's words.

She didn't expect Mu Jinyu to have married so early, and that he had several wives already.

However, in the Great Chu Kingdom, polygamy isn't uncommon, she wasn't too concerned, biting her lip, she said, "Then I'll just be a concubine?"

Hearing this, Chu Huannian was really shocked this time, looking at her sister incredulously, "Are you crazy? How could Father possibly agree!"

Thinking about it, Chu Huannian added, "And the most important thing is, whether he likes you or not is a big question. Didn't you see he never looked at you properly? Didn't even think to say goodbye when leaving?"

Hearing Chu Huannian's words, Chu Huaxiu's face dimmed, the captivating blush on her face faded like wilting peach blossoms.

How could she not see, that Mu Jinyu saved her and her sisters not because of their beauty or status, but simply because he couldn't stand seeing his fellow humans being bullied by the foreign race.

This made her even more fond of Mu Jinyu.

Later, hearing Mu Jinyu's speech, she realized that such a man was really attractive to her.

She even found that her sisters also started to develop feelings.

That was why Chu Huaxiu, disregarding her shyness, ran to confide in Chu Huannian.

But she was severely discouraged by her sister!

Chu Huaxiu, face pale, looked at her sister with a dim expression, unhappily muttering, "It's all because of you, sister. If you hadn't come out, I might have had a chance to talk to him. But once you appeared, you overshadowed me completely, isn't it normal he didn't even glance at me?"

"Oh, are you blaming your sister now?"

Chu Huannian, hearing her sister's slightly resentful tone, couldn't help but chuckle, "To be honest, I didn't steal your spotlight, actually, he didn't give me a proper look either!"

"That can't be?!"

Chu Huaxiu looked at Chu Huannian in surprise, feeling her sister was deliberately saying that to comfort her.

Chu Huannian laughed, "But the truth is, in front of me, he didn't put on any airs, not afraid of leaving a bad impression. I can see, he genuinely doesn't care about my impression of him, not like those fools who play hard to get."

"This..."

Chu Huaxiu was very surprised by her sister's words.

Chu Huannian's beauty and charm were among the best in the Great Chu Kingdom and even neighboring countries, hard to find another woman comparable.

With her years on the battlefield, she added a heroic and valiant grace, and a broad-mindedness and courage not inferior to men, it was almost impossible to find a woman better than her!

And yet Mu Jinyu didn't care about her at all, how excellent must his wife be?

"I'm not lying, I feel quite disturbed by it too." Chu Huannian laughed self-mockingly, "Alright, no more talking, since I've agreed to cooperate with him to trap and kill Ancestor Chiji, it's almost time, I should get going too!"

Finishing her words, Chu Huannian advised Chu Huaxiu not to run around, and with a flicker of her figure, she disappeared from the room.

Within the Great Chu Kingdom, there is a palace even more magnificent than the capital of Chu Kingdom.

Here is where Ancestor Chiji resides.

With the death of the four people of the Chixing Clan, Ancestor Chiji, who was entertaining himself with many concubines, immediately felt a sense of discomfort welling up.

"Boom!!"

Instantly, Ancestor Chiji's red hair erupted furiously, strangling his concubines to death turning them into minced meat, yelling, "Daring to kill people of the Chixing Clan! How bold!"

The Chixing Clan has always had difficulty propagating its lineage, up to now, with a total population of just over a thousand, far less than the Human Race or other weaker races!

If four people die suddenly, naturally Ancestor Chiji would be furious.

Of course, though furious, Ancestor Chiji wasn't foolish enough to charge in blind revenge before investigating, didn't order the Chixing Clan army to find the culprit.

Quickly, he dispatched someone to investigate the life medallion remnants left when those four people died.

If the culprit who killed them is from a top-grade powerful race, he obviously wouldn't dare make a sound.

If it's not a powerful race but much stronger than the Chixing Clan, Ancestor Chiji might still negotiate compensation.

But if it's a weaker race, then today, blood will flow like rivers, corpses will litter the ground!

"Ancestor, the killer is a young human located at the border of Chu Kingdom and Zhou Kingdom!"

Quickly his subordinate, having checked the remnants, informed Ancestor Chiji.

Hearing this, Ancestor Chiji gave a sinister smile, "Humans are the most useless and cowardly, though I can't provoke many strong ones within the race, due to their vast numbers, those strong ones wouldn't go to war with other races over the deaths of a few thousand. Let's go, today if I don't make the Chu Kingdom and Zhou Kingdom run red with blood, I don't deserve the name Ancestor Chiji!"

Immediately, Ancestor Chiji ordered the entire Chixing Clan to assemble, heading towards Qingshi City in great numbers.

Chapter 1560 Chased Into the Killing Trap! Blood Flame Stone Giant!

Just as Ancestor Chiji was leading a thousand Chixing Tribe people, heading grandly toward Qingshi City.

Chu Huannian intercepted them midway, from the inn where he had been staying.

"Hmm?!"

The towering figure, nearly over Sanmi tall, with red fur that could freely contract and appear much like an ordinary person, Ancestor Chiji, stopped in his tracks upon sensing the momentum of the Unity Realm Stage.

"Who dares block my path?!"

Ancestor Chiji glared with his pea-sized eyes emitting a eerie green light, and lightly demanded at the figure at the front emanating radiant light that was hard to look directly at.

"A dying fool, what need is there for pointless talk!"

"Die!"

Chu Huannian snorted coldly, directly attacking, swinging the long spear in his hand, charging at Ancestor Chiji like lightning!

Instantly, a rolling murderous aura soared into the sky.

Facing the peerless killing intent of Chu Huannian, the first War God of the Chu Kingdom, Ancestor Chiji felt his scalp tingling, even though he possessed Peak Hedao Realm cultivation, having records of battling Void Breaking Realm powers without falling behind.

"Drink!!"

Ancestor Chiji roared angrily, suddenly his red fur, originally trimmed to resemble an ordinary person's flat head, stretched out from his head.

Meanwhile, dense red fur sprouted from all over his body!

"Sizzle sizzle sizzle!!"

The red fur stretched and coiled, transforming into spear and shield, charging fiercely towards Chu Huannian while protecting his own safety with a red-furred shield in front.

"Drink!!"

However, what Ancestor Chiji did not expect was that Chu Huannian's spear was originally locked onto his vital points but suddenly swung towards the tribe members behind him!

"Ah!!"

"Bang bang bang!!"

"Boom!!"

In an instant, with a sweep of the spear, nearly a hundred Chixing Tribe people were slain!

Broken limbs flew, blood spilled, creating an extremely brutal scene!

"Ah!!"

Seeing the massacre of his tribe members, Ancestor Chiji let out a roar of fury!

Though they were called tribe members, they were in fact his descendants!

He wanted revenge on the Human Race with the death of four descendants, now losing over a hundred.

Left with a tenth less of his descendants, how could Ancestor Chiji remain content?

Against anyone who dares harm his tribe, as long as they weren't of Top-grade Powerful Races, he would fight relentlessly for blood debt repayment!

As Ancestor Chiji's red fur frenziedly scattered, dropping crimson blood tainted with strange aura, the perpetrator who had slain his hundred descendants suddenly turned and fled into the distance.

"Damn it, wanting to escape!!"

Seeing this, Ancestor Chiji roared repeatedly, commanding his sons, also strong figures of the Chixing Tribe, to protect the remaining tribe members, while he transformed swirling red fur into wings and pursued Chu Huannian, now just a shadow!

"Die!!"

Though Ancestor Chiji's cultivation far exceeded Chu Huannian's, allowing Chu Huannian to succeed in killing a hundred heirs was due to his lack of preparation. But enraged now, he quickly caught up, roaring as red fur on his arms hardened and fell, transforming into steel needles with Heaven-reaching spiritual treasure-like power, shooting toward Chu Huannian!

A hundred red-furred steel needles shot toward Chu Huannian like a hundred Heaven-reaching spiritual treasures, proving formidable even for Peak Hedao Realm experts, let alone Void Breaking Realm Great Powers!

This was the source of Ancestor Chiji's notorious reputation!

"Bang!!"

Yet, as the steel needles hit Chu Huannian, to Ancestor Chiji's surprise, he wasn't torn to shreds nor penetrated in every direction!

Instead, as a sound like a mirror breaking echoed, Chu Huannian's figure instantly vanished, reappearing a thousand miles away, continuing his escape swiftly!

"He actually has life-saving Spiritual Treasures, but how many do you have, and how many times can they save your life?"

Watching this, Ancestor Chiji was furious, his pea-like eyes turning red as he growled, relentlessly pursuing Chu Huannian with a terrifying red-fur transforming into a sinister red whirlwind!

Chu Huannian materialized a thousand miles away, fleeing continuously, shivering internally, "Indeed hard to face this wretch, losing another life-saving trump card, unsure if I can reach the destination!"

"Hope Mu Jinyu's plan isn't in vain!"

Today, Chu Huannian felt unclear-headed—risking life because of Mu Jinyu's speech.

Gaining nothing, losing his life-saving trump card!

Now, all she could do was hope for Mu Jinyu's reliability.

"Boom!!"

After fleeing thousands of miles, Ancestor Chiji caught up again, engaging in another fierce clash.

Once more, Chu Huannian sacrificed a life-saving card, fleeing onwards!

A chase, an escape.

Soon, Chu Huannian neared an absolute end.

But it wasn't the destination Mu Jinyu suggested, but a perilous place beyond!

Chu Huannian begrudged internally and continued leading Ancestor Chiji toward the goal!

Ancestor Chiji shivered, afraid of traps upon unintentionally nearing this famous peril, slowing pursuit.

Fearful of falling into an ambush!

Yet, seeing Chu Huannian fleeing, Ancestor Chiji cursed, realizing he'd been fooled, nearly letting him escape!

Thus, yelling anew, he resumed the chase!

"Bang!!"

"Boom!!"

"Kill!!"

Ten minutes, Chu Huannian was caught three times, costing another three life-saving cards, leaving only one.

Fortunately, crossing two dangers, she finally led Ancestor Chiji to a perilous vicinity.

"Finally here, Mu Jinyu, don't ditch me, or I'll haunt you even as a ghost!"

Chu Huannian desperately eluded Ancestor Chiji, running further while cursing internally.

Then, she saw Mu Jinyu sitting leisurely atop a tree ahead.

This gave her relief.

Seeing Ancestor Chiji, Mu Jinyu smiled gently, noting, "Humans overcame others due to wisdom, not mere tool use!"

"Snap!"

Mu Jinyu snapped his fingers, igniting a concealed red hair.

"Boom!!"

As red hair burned, the aura spread!

Suddenly, from the silent valley came fierce roars—a ten-meter Stone Giant emerged burning strange blood flame, charging at Ancestor Chiji without heed!
