

King Hall 1741

Chapter 1741 Humanoid Tribulation Lightning! Finally Crossing the Creation Tribulation!

"Boom!!"

In Mu Jinyu's shock, a purple thunderbolt as thick as a barrel suddenly descended from the rolling tribulation clouds, striking towards Qingli below!

With a grasp of her hand, Qingli summoned the Sky-Piercer Halberd, which appeared in her grasp.

At this moment, her Sky-Piercer Halberd had reverted from a bronze color back to a golden hue, shimmering with brilliant golden light!

"Boom!"

Qingli swept the war halberd, its power fierce, directly cleaving the purple thunderbolt into pieces!

Then, unhurried, Qingli calmly retrieved a golden mask and placed it over her face.

"Rumble!"

At this moment, an even thicker bolt of lightning, tinged with black and emanating a destructive aura, bombarded down towards Qingli.

"Bang!!"

Qingli swung her war halberd again, shattering this bolt of lightning as well.

Then Mu Jinyu noticed that the golden war halberd in her hand was covered with intertwining thunderbolts, making her war halberd even more dazzling in its golden brilliance.

"Is this the weapons and armor undergoing tribulation and refinement too?"

Mu Jinyu observed this scene and softly muttered to himself from afar.

"Crack crack crack..."

And as the next heavenly tribulation was still brewing, Qingli moved unhurriedly yet swiftly donned her set of golden armor!

Instantly, Qingli's aura became even more terrifying and refined!

"Boom!!"

At this moment, a five-meter-thick black lightning bolt finally brewed from the tribulation clouds, carrying terrifying life-destroying force, slashing directly towards Qingli.

Mu Jinyu watched this with a mixture of fright and awe, feeling that this heavenly tribulation was utterly terrifying.

He did not know whether he could easily withstand it when he reached the Peak of the Life and Death Realm, but at least, as someone with only Divine Transformation Realm Cultivation, he would face certain death if he tried to block this heavenly tribulation!

Not a chance for survival!

However, just as Mu Jinyu thought Qingli was about to exert all her strength to obliterate this black lightning bolt brimming with destructive power.

In the next second, Qingli unexpectedly held her halberd steady, welcoming the descent of this bolt without any defensive posture.

"Rumble!!"

In an instant, the spot where Qingli stood erupted in brilliant and dazzling light, so intense that Mu Jinyu's eyes ached and watered uncontrollably, forcing him to look away.

"Sizzle sizzle!"

After a long while.

Mu Jinyu noticed that the electric light had dissipated.

Only then did he reopen his eyes and look over.

There stood Qingli, in her original position, surrounded by a thousand miles of scorched black earth, emitting steaming heat, devoid of any life.

And Qingli standing there, with her golden armor and war halberd, both had dimmed considerably, intermittently flickering with arcs of black lightning, still containing terrible destructive power.

"Could she be dead?"

Mu Jinyu saw Qingli standing motionless, her whole body showing no signs of life, only emanating death and destruction, guessing whether she might have been struck dead by the lightning bolt.

He felt it should not be like this.

But if Qingli really was too arrogant and ultimately died under this lightning bolt...

What should he do then?

Would all his efforts following her be in vain?

Would he have to find a way to borrow the "Humanity Path Sutra" from the royal clans himself?

Mu Jinyu felt utterly helpless!

"Sizzle sizzle!"

At this moment, Mu Jinyu discovered that while Qingli still hadn't moved, the deadly qi and destructive force emanating from her were quickly dissipating. Simultaneously, a more abundant and intense breath of life began to radiate from her body.

Like trees struck dead by lightning but struggling back to life to sprout new shoots...

Like a prairie scorched by fire but, under the caress of spring showers, grows hardy grass anew...

"Boom!!"

Finally, Qingli stood tall amidst it all, her entire aura even more terrifying than what was once the oppressive might of the Peak of the Life and Death Realm.

She survived the destructive lightning, learned creation from destruction, and was about to step into the Creation Realm.

"Sizzle!!"

Qingli's body shuddered, and the black electricity that still gnawed at her body and armor was instantly scattered.

Her entire golden armor and Sky-Piercer Halberd radiated even more brilliantly and gorgeously with golden light.

They too, after enduring tribulations, were transforming from Life and Death Divine Weapons into Creation Divine Weapons!

And above Qingli, the tribulation clouds that failed to strike her down with those three terrifying lightning bolts began to dissipate, no longer rolling together in dense masses.

"Is it over?"

Mu Jinyu let out a slight sigh of relief.

But he felt something was not quite right; should the heavenly tribulation be over so easily?

Only three lightning bolts and done?

Although the third lightning bolt was indeed terrifying, hundreds of times more so than the previous two combined.

It ultimately gave him a feeling that it ended too quickly.

This made him feel something was not quite right.

"Boom!!"

Just then, the dense swirling tribulation clouds in the sky suddenly shuddered slightly, then quickly condensed together.

"Boom!!"

Finally, the tribulation clouds dispersed, revealing a female figure clad in black battle armor and holding a black war halberd, appearing in mid-air.

Upon closer inspection, that figure was exactly identical in stature to Qingli.

"Is that Qingli? A human-shaped lightning tribulation transformed from lightning?"

Seeing this, Mu Jinyu felt an overwhelming sense of fear, as though a small white rabbit facing a primordial beast, utterly powerless and nearly suffocating.

Imaginably, this human-shaped lightning tribulation was horrific, far more terrifying than the third black lightning bolt, several times over!

"Kill!"

At this moment, the life force emanating overwhelmingly from Qingli grew even more robust, and she broke free from her paralyzed, rigid state.

Seeing the human-shaped lightning tribulation, she was not surprised, letting out a delicate command, her starlike eyes flickering with intense battle intent, like flames burning high, holding her golden war halberd, surging into the skies to fight!

"Boom!"

"Clang clang clank..."

The two sides engaged in a fierce battle, every move aimed to kill!

The human-shaped tribulation seemed to embody some of Qingli's consciousness, and thus their attacks mirrored each other almost identically, as if Qingli were battling herself!

"Hee hee!!"

"Kill!!"

Ultimately, after battling for more than half a shichen, as the world grew dark and the void cracked, Qingli, drenched in blood, succeeded in shattering that human-shaped lightning tribulation!

"Bang!!"

It exploded like fireworks, dispersing in its wake.

Then, rich surges of life essence rained down like sweet rain upon Qingli, healing her terrifying injuries and restoring her damaged armor and more.

"Boom!!"

With a thunderous roar, the heavens and earth both shuddered, resonating with the array, and at that moment, Qingli formally stepped into the Domain of the Creation Realm!

"Huff huff..."

With the breakthrough in her cultivation, Qingli's rapidly healing wounds instantaneously closed up. Her eyes opened, radiating an immensely piercing brilliance, profoundly captivating!

"Congratulations!"

Mu Jinyu approached as Qingli finally overcame the creation tribulation, offering his congratulations.

"Mm."

Seeing Mu Jinyu come over, the brilliance in Qingli's eyes gradually faded, returning to normal. She nodded lightly at Mu Jinyu and softly said, "Please wait a moment, let me digest my gains properly, then we can go together to those royal family residences to borrow the 'Humanity Path Sutra!'"

Chapter 1742 Prepare to Be the Enemy of the World! Assault on the Yao Imperial Clan!

Qingli adjusted her breath and digested the gains from the Tribulation Transcendence, which didn't take much time.

Half a day later, she opened her eyes and looked at Mu Jinyu, saying, "Alright, which scripture chapter do you want to find first?"

Mu Jinyu replied, "It's best to find the 'Humanity Path Sutra,' the 'Bone Tempering Section,' and then the 'Five Viscera and Six Bowels'..."

If one were unfamiliar with the 'Humanity Path Sutra' and a foreign race, they would certainly not understand what Mu Jinyu was talking about, but Qingli had studied the 'Humanity Path Sutra' and naturally understood his meaning.

"The 'Bone Tempering Section,' right? I remember the 'Bone Tempering Section' seems to be in the hands of the Yao Imperial Clan in the Eastern Region, and it's not far away, so let's go..."

Qingli pondered slightly, recalled who kept the 'Bone Tempering Section' most intact, then nodded.

Then, they left this desolate mountain and wilderness and headed toward the domain where the Yao Imperial Clan was located!

The Yao Imperial Clan among the Human Race resides in a state domain called Tianhong State, which is not far from the Donghua Continent and is situated nearly in the center of the Eastern Region.

Although they had left the Human Emperor Relic of Cangyan State, traveled to Ghostflame Province, and then came to this Uninhabited Region, they were still not far from Tianhong State.

Moreover, Qingli had a breakthrough in her cultivation, advancing to the Creation Realm, making her speed naturally faster.

So, in just half a day.

Qingli brought Mu Jinyu to Tianhong State.

And with a clear purpose, they did not linger elsewhere and headed straight for the Yao Imperial Mansion!

"Isn't this a bit rash? Shouldn't we send a greeting card first?"

Mu Jinyu watched Qingli charging aggressively toward the Yao Imperial Mansion and felt it was a bit too reckless, so he advised.

Qingli's flying speed didn't pause for even a second, and upon hearing Mu Jinyu's words, she said calmly, "Why would we need to send a greeting card? We're not really going to visit them as guests. Although we are not going there to rob things, it's almost the same. We are essentially becoming villains!"

The scriptures are very important and generally, big families would not easily disclose their core scriptures.

Although the 'Humanity Path Sutra' is somewhat special and most royal clans don't really cultivate it, it was still one of the important scriptures of the Human Race in the past. They are now going to the Yao Mansion to borrow and read the 'Humanity Path Sutra.'

It's like going to the Divine Race's territory and not making a move to kill a God of Killing but asking them to give you a barrel of Divine Blood.

Although giving a barrel of Divine Blood wouldn't affect the Divine Race much, who would offer it to you?

This is a kind of provocation and insult!

So, they are going to the Yao Imperial Mansion, and although they do not intend to rob their cultivation scriptures, forcibly borrowing them is inevitably offensive.

Therefore, Qingli did not think they needed to treat this matter nicely.

After saying this, Qingli added, "Besides, what do they call a royal clan? Just self-praise. In the eyes of my War Clan, they are nothing. Do I need to specially send them a greeting card to visit them?"

She didn't consider the Yao Clan worth her attention at all.

In Qingli's eyes, this alleged royal clan, having abandoned their own cultivation path to walk the path of Foreign Bloodlines, now nearly reduced to vassals of those foreign races, was not as honorable as a Divinity Transformation Realm cultivator like Mu Jinyu!

Although Mu Jinyu had no significant background, he at least dared to walk the cultivation path of the Human Race, rather than being a vassal to the Foreign Race!

At least he lived like a human!

Those so-called royal clans are nothing more than lapdogs of foreign races!

After hearing Qingli's words, Mu Jinyu couldn't help but smile wryly, saying, "You're a proud daughter of the War Clan and unafraid of offending them, but I'm just an ordinary person, and my cultivation is only of the Divinity Transformation Realm. If we forcibly go to their mansion to borrow cultivation manuals, although they may not dare to retaliate against you afterward, they might against me..."

"If you don't dare to take even this little risk, then you might as well stop cultivating."

Qingli still had no kind attitude as she continued speaking, "Why not walk the path of Foreign Bloodlines, then? The cultivation speed is fast, you have a backing, and there's no danger. Isn't it great!"

"Without the courage to oppose the world, then don't dream about walking this path!"

Qingli spoke with an underlying meaning.

Mu Jinyu understood Qingli's implication when he heard her words, realizing that the cultivation path he now walks, which was proven to be a dead end in the past, once trod successfully, would make him an enemy of the world!

Those foreign races would never allow him to tread this path smoothly, lest the Human Race rises again, climbing from a humble species to the esteemed ranks of the Ten Great Strong Races once more.

And those royal clans immersed in the path of Foreign Bloodlines, now proudly identifying themselves as Half-God Tribe, Half-Demon Tribe, and Royal Clan, have already adopted a servile mentality.

Seeing a normal person walk a normal path, without relying on or being controlled by foreign races, how could they be happy? Would they cheer for the Human Race's rise?

No!

The appearance of such a person would only make them a thorn in their eyes, a pain in their flesh.

His presence would only infuriate them, suggesting that their choices could be wrong!

Therefore, to prove that their choices over the millennia were not mistaken, they might have an even stronger resolve to eliminate him than the other foreign races!

Mu Jinyu silently contemplated for a while and sighed, "Alright, offending them beforehand will be fine, and if worse comes to worst, I will wander the world again!"

He wasn't too worried about these things.

After all, in the Kunlun Ruins, he also offended many families and sects, wasn't he chased around like a dog by the Wu Family from the Central Continent back then?

Did he not eventually succeed in destroying the Wu Family?

"Haha, now that's more like it."

Qingli chuckled softly, perhaps as a form of encouragement or praise.

Just as Mu Jinyu was about to say something.

Qingli suddenly said, "We're here!"

Mu Jinyu looked intently ahead, only to see an open space without any mansion.

"Boom!!"

Qingli directly took out the Golden War Halberd and smashed it towards the void ahead!

Instantly, a fierce roar resounded, and the void before them began to ripple.

Watching this scene, Mu Jinyu immediately understood.

Indeed, even the location of Dongyue Mansion was a Minor World, so the Yao Clan, claiming to be a royal clan and possessing a strong Foreign Race Bloodline, would certainly have a Minor World as their place of residence, right?

However, since they were hiding in a Minor World, Qingli breaking in by force might be a greater humiliation compared to forcefully barging into an outside mansion!

Following Qingli in later, he would probably be even more hated by the Yao Clan!

Mu Jinyu thought to himself with a silent helplessness.

"Booming!!"

After Qingli delivered three strikes with the halberd, accompanied by a thunderous roar, and the sight of something akin to glass shattering, appeared.

Finally, the void before them twisted and fluctuated, revealing a vast mansion hidden in the Minor World before Mu Jinyu and Qingli's eyes.

"Who dares to attack the Yao Clan!"

"Audacious! Yao Imperial Clan, who dares to act rashly!"

As Qingli broke the passage to the Minor World with three strikes, a series of angry shouts and curses erupted from within.

Chapter 1743 An Unyielding Stance! No One Dares Refuse!

When the people of the Yao Clan were first attacked by Qingli, they immediately sensed a formidable enemy was invading!

They promptly began preparations to gather their forces to eliminate this audacious invader.

Unexpectedly, before they could even assemble their manpower, the barriers and array and restriction techniques they took pride in were directly breached by the intruder!

This was beyond imagination, filling their hearts with shock, anger, and a trace of fear.

After all, following the news of the Earth Emperor Relic's emergence in Cangyan State, countless foreign race supreme talents had gone to Cangyan State to investigate. Their own supreme experts from the Yao lineage had also gone!

Currently, the Yaaos lineage's territory was in a very vacant and vulnerable moment!

And now, this intruder, with just three strikes, had breached their minor world. Even if all of them joined forces, they might not be able to stop the opponent!

This caused a sliver of fear to rise in their hearts.

They could only hope that the fame of the Yaaos would intimidate the opponent from committing an act of genocide.

"Who goes there?!"

"Invading the Yaaos lineage, a debt paid with death!"

Amidst the minor world that had been breached, there were constant shouts of anger, but no one dared to charge into the minor world to intercept the invaders who had breached it.

So-called threats, but inwardly weak!

"Let's go!"

Qingli cast a disdainful glance at the space of the Yaaos' minor world. She looked at Mu Jinyu, beckoned, and then walked straight in with her long legs leading the way.

Mu Jinyu didn't hesitate either. At this critical moment, offending the Yaaos Imperial Clan in exchange for obtaining the complete "Bone Tempering Section" to break through his cultivation...

Clearly, his desire for the latter directly outweighed nervousness about the former.

"Boom!!"

Qingli brought Mu Jinyu directly into the Yao Clan's minor world.

Her whole body shone with dazzling golden light, like a blazing sun hanging high in the sky.

"Is this a master from the Divine Race?"

"No, this aura isn't that of the Divine Race, this is..."

"It's a mighty one from the War Clan!"

Upon discovering that the intruders forcing their way into their territory weren't enemies but a mighty one from the War Clan,

The members of the Yao lineage left in the territory heaved a long sigh of relief but remained somewhat uneasy.

They hadn't offended the War Clan, but not knowing why a War Clan mighty one would inexplicably intrude into their territory still made them uneasy.

Soon, after a commotion,

An elderly man, with a face marked by time, slowly stood up. Looking up at the dazzling sun-like Qingli in the sky, he performed a grand salute and respectfully asked, "What brings the great one from the War Clan to our Yao lineage?"

He maintained a low posture,

Even though Qingli had just breached their minor world without prior notice,

He dared not express any resentment or anger.

After all, the War Clan was a powerful race, ranked approximately twentieth among the ten thousand clans in the Canglan Realm!

And while the Yao Clan considered themselves a royal clan, they were merely royal within the Human Race. Many of their members possessed a faint Demon Tribe or Divine Race bloodline, but the concentration was not high, and they weren't pure-bloods. Overall, they could at most be ranked barely among the top two to three hundred genuine foreign races!

Similar to the branch races of the Palm Demon Clan or the Demon God Clan!

With such a difference, how could the Yao Clan dare to show any negligence towards the War Clan?

Seeing someone stand out, Qingli gradually gathered her golden light, revealing herself and Mu Jinyu behind her.

"I have come here to request something!"

Qingli stated coolly.

Though she spoke of a request, her demeanor was casual, and her actions of directly breaching their territory couldn't be considered as an act of requesting.

However, the Yao elder found it very reasonable, without any surprise or sense of inappropriateness. He just cast a glance at Mu Jinyu standing behind Qingli, vaguely sensing he might be a human.

But since the War Clan and the Human Race shared similar appearances, and without revealing his primordial qi, he couldn't be sure if it was a War Clan person or a human!

"May I ask what the great one needs from us that warrants such a visit?" The Yao elder respectfully inquired.

Qingli replied indifferently, "I wish to peruse your clan's 'Humanity Path Sutra' and 'Armament Martial Scripture'!"

"This..."

Upon hearing Qingli's words, the Yao elder's expression involuntarily changed slightly.

Such a request was indeed somewhat offensive.

However, upon realizing it was the 'Humanity Path Sutra' and 'Armament Martial Scripture,' he felt slightly relieved.

After all, within their clan, these two scriptures were regarded as insignificant and no one practiced them. They were merely left to gather dust.

Considering Qingli had breached their territory already, requesting to peruse these two scriptures couldn't be seen as overstepping boundaries.

Because she had long since crossed that line!

If Qingli had asked to peruse their most important cultivation methods for the Divine and Devil Clan, they would have refused with a resolute determination, even if it meant facing death.

Since those divine scriptures weren't entirely theirs to give away, they had remained loyal to these races. Even in the declining years of the Human Race, these powerful races hadn't yet taken back the cultivation methods they held.

It was due to their loyal service that, when these races turned dominant, they didn't reclaim these methods.

Leaking them out would mean a devastating fate...

Thus, if Qingli had demanded those crucial scriptures, even if they didn't want to engage in a life-or-death struggle, they would have no choice but to fight.

"Very well!"

After long deliberation, realizing that the humanity path sutra wasn't crucial and with their supreme experts gone to the Cangyan State ruins, the clan currently had no match for Qingli, the elder decided to agree.

"Lead the way."

Seeing the Yao elder agree, Qingli showed no surprise and spoke indifferently.

Then the Yao elder led Qingli and Mu Jinyu towards the Scripture Pavilion within their clan.

Only after Qingli and Mu Jinyu entered the Scripture Pavilion and disappeared from sight did the people of the Yao Clan dare to speak.

"Wow, that sister from the War Clan is so beautiful!"

"She was wearing a mask, how do you know if she's pretty or not?"

"Even though she wore a mask, her eyes and hair are beautiful, and her figure is so good, how could she not be pretty!"

"And she's so bold, daring to intrude into our Yao territory with just two people!"

"Well, mainly because the Clan Leader and the others aren't here, otherwise..."

"There's nothing otherwise, I can see she's about as strong as the Clan Leader, maybe even stronger. Even if the Clan Leader were here, seeing her request is just to peruse 'Humanity Path Sutra' and 'Armament Martial Scripture', he wouldn't start a big fight over it!"

"Yeah, it's strange. Why does she want to read these two useless scriptures?"

"Hey, could it be that the man whose face we can't see behind her is actually human? That's why this sister wants to borrow these two scriptures for him to learn?"

"How could that be possible? You're thinking too much!"

"Exactly, you're overthinking. I think this War Clan sister wants to gather the strengths of various schools and create her own unique battle technique, so she's looking at the 'Armament Martial Scripture' and the 'Humanity Path Sutra'..."

Chapter 1744 A Bountiful Harvest! Next Stop, Ji Clan!

The discussion of the young clansmen of the Yao lineage was not given much attention by Qingli and Mu Jinyu.

Otherwise, Mu Jinyu would definitely praise that person, who has quite a sharp vision to see the truth at a glance.

The two of them followed the elder of the Yao Clan, slowly entering their exceedingly spacious Scripture Pavilion.

After arriving in the Canglan Realm, Mu Jinyu had only seen the Scripture Pavilion at Dongyue Mansion, where the books were truly numerous, almost like a library.

Although the Scripture Pavilion of the Yao Imperial Clan was also large, Mu Jinyu noted that it wasn't as extensive or varied as Dongyue Mansion's!

After all, Dongyue Mansion is an academic institution, enrolling geniuses with various foreign race bloodlines, naturally requiring more foreign race cultivation methods.

As for the Yao Clan, most of their members only possess bloodlines within the top fifty or so foreign races. If someone's bloodline rank drops, they are immediately expelled from the Yao Clan, left to fend for themselves.

This is to maintain the strength of their royal clan!

Thus, their Scripture Pavilion mostly contains cultivation methods of these foreign races and related experience insights...

Far from matching the scale and variety of Dongyue Mansion's Scripture Pavilion!

"Found it, here..."

The elder of the Yao Clan led them through winding paths in the Scripture Pavilion, ultimately finding the collection corner of the Humanity Path Sutra and Armament Martial Scripture of the Yao Clan, along with some other human race cultivation techniques.

Some of these human race cultivation techniques were cultivated by the Yao Clan when they reached a peak of resplendence, during the time when humans became a top-grade powerful clan.

However, as the world in Canglan Realm changed, with spiritual energy dispersing, these techniques have become unusable.

Thus, these cultivation methods that were once treasured and strictly guarded are now tossed into the corner of the Scripture Pavilion, ignored.

They're not even worried about being stolen.

"Sir, you may start viewing."

The elder of the Yao Clan spoke, not leaving after guiding them, but instead stood aside.

He certainly wouldn't just walk away. What if they take advantage of his absence to view the few crucial cultivation methods of the Yao Clan nowadays?

Therefore, he had to stand here, supervising them to prevent any mischief.

"Alright, go ahead. I hope you can embark on the path you're meant to take!"

Qingli slightly raised her chin, speaking to Mu Jinyu.

"Alright, thank you."

Sincerely, Mu Jinyu thanked Qingli and proceeded to browse through the Humanity Path Sutra.

Of course he thanked Qingli, as Qingli had just mentioned about exposing himself to the Yao Clan, allowing him to prematurely experience the thrill of being universally challenged.

But after they infiltrated the Yao Clan's territory, Qingli did not act as she had claimed verbally.

Instead, she veiled her appearance and aura with mana.

Making others assume that he too was from the War Clan.

Now she intentionally spoke before the elder of the Yao Clan in such a manner, giving the impression to the elder that he is indeed from the War Clan, albeit having just emerged, intending to synthesize the best of many schools to develop a suitable combat strategy.

However, Qingli's true intention was to hope he could navigate that broken path, and restore human race glory!

Confronted with Qingli's cold exterior but warm heart, Mu Jinyu naturally appreciated her blessing.

Upon hearing Mu Jinyu's gratitude, Qingli beneath the golden mask couldn't help but slightly curl her lips into a faint smile.

She didn't have any particular thoughts about Mu Jinyu, merely curious to see if he could break free from human conventions and restore humanity's glory, invigorating the seemingly lifeless Canglan Realm.

In this way, their War Clan could gain another worthy opponent.

Nothing entices her joy more than nurturing an adversary that is both enemy and friend.

Unaware of Qingli's thoughts, Mu Jinyu quickly immersed himself in the Humanity Path Sutra despite the presence of two people watching him reading.

The Humanity Path Sutra of the Yao Clan had an incomplete Blood Tempering Section, while the Bone Tempering Section was relatively complete, recording not only the tempering of the limbs, but also detailed records of the tempering of the spine Great Dragon, skull, and other bones!

Mu Jinyu viewed it with delight and excitement.

With this complete Bone Tempering Section, he can finally break through to the Divinity Transformation Realm, at least reaching the early Fanxu Realm!

He wonders if he will be able to initiate a minor domain that allows him to fly by then?

Mu Jinyu looks forward to it.

Soon, Mu Jinyu finished reading the Bone Tempering Section and turned over to the subsequent Organ Refining Chapter.

Unfortunately, the Organ Refining Chapter was incomplete and fragmented.

Along with the subsequent Marrow Nourishment Chapter and Skin Membrane Chapter, there was scarcely any recording; all were missing.

Mu Jinyu felt a bit regretful.

It seems he will have to visit other royal clans next!

After finishing the Humanity Path Sutra, Mu Jinyu set it aside and began to look into the Armament Martial Scripture!

The Yao Clan's Armament Martial Scripture was improperly preserved, with significant omissions, leaving only a few scrolls viewable for learning.

Namely the Sword Scroll, Hammer Scroll, and Staff Scroll!

Mu Jinyu had obtained the Sword Scroll early on, thus it held no use for him. The Hammer Scroll and Staff Scroll taught how to use hammers and staffs.

Though Mu Jinyu does not use these two weapons, he decided to spend time remembering them.

Because he understood by now that the Armament Martial Scripture was developed later on by influential human leaders from the remaining scriptures of the War Emperor among the Nine Great Human Emperors.

Though not the War Emperor's personal cultivation method, it still holds significant referential value.

Perhaps when he cannot forge a path via the Humanity Path Sutra, he will have to rely on the Armament path to break through!

Therefore, he intends to gain knowledge of the various weapon techniques in the Armament Martial Scripture.

Finally finished viewing these two scriptures.

Mu Jinyu hesitated, then turned back to ask the elder of the Yao Clan, "Can I see the other cultivation methods?"

"Yes."

The elder of the Yao Clan did not refuse, agreeing readily.

Since he had already seen the Humanity Path Sutra and Armament Martial Scripture, these former core cultivation methods of the Yao family no longer have any utility; letting him see them poses no harm.

After all, no one can cultivate them now.

With the elder's approval, Mu Jinyu started browsing through the human race's documents and cultivation techniques.

He found that the Yao Clan's Heart Method, the Demonic Martial Emperor Scripture, was in no way inferior to the Five Emperors Technique, and even exceeded it in some places.

It seems the Five Emperors Technique is quite potent in the Canglan Realm as well.

Due to environmental changes, however, these once supreme techniques gradually fell into oblivion.

After reading through these techniques and documents, Mu Jinyu felt he had gained much and that the trip was worthwhile.

"Alright, shall we leave?"

Mu Jinyu set down the bamboo slip, exhaled lightly, and looked towards the patiently waiting Qingli.

"Agreed, let's go then."

Qingli nodded and commanded the elder of the Yao Clan, "Alright, we've finished; you may escort us out."

"Certainly."

The elder of the Yao Clan saw that they were about to leave, secretly breathed a sigh of relief, and hastily sent them respectfully outside!

"Clack clack..."

As Mu Jinyu and Qingli exited the minor world of the Yao Clan, the breach in the minor world behind them was closed and sealed once again.

"Is the Organ Refining Chapter complete?" Qingli asked Mu Jinyu.

Mu Jinyu shook his head, saying, "Not complete, it is fragmented, even more so than the Bone Tempering Section I obtained in Dongyue Mansion, without a single internal organ refining technique."

"Alright then, our next stop will be to the Ji Clan. I remember the Humanity Path Sutra they possess has a more complete Organ Refining Chapter."

Chapter 1745: Only Missing the Marrow Nourishing Chapter! Qingli's Amazement and Decision!

"Ji Clan's lineage?"

Mu Jinyu heard Qingli's words and wondered if this so-called royal clan's surnames were all among the eight ancient maternal surnames.

Not really sure, and not knowing if there's any connection inside, Mu Jinyu didn't want to think too much and asked Qingli to take him to the Ji Clan's lineage.

The state domain where the Ji Clan's lineage was located was the one closest to the Central Domain of Canglan Realm, named Dongli Province.

It's considered the boundary of the Eastern Region.

However, compared to the remote corner Mu Jinyu arrived at when he came to Canglan Realm, it was bustling beyond compare.

Although Qingli's cultivation had risen to the Creation Realm, expanding the range of Void Shift significantly, it took her five days to take Mu Jinyu from Tianhong State to Dongli Province.

"Are we finally there?"

Mu Jinyu learned from Qingli that they had arrived in Dongli Province, and they could find the Ji Clan's lineage in two hours, which made him secretly relieved.

He felt fortunate that Qingli was flying him over; otherwise, relying on himself, he didn't know how long it would take to get here from Donghua Continent.

If not using the teleportation array, it would've probably taken years?

Mu Jinyu was filled with emotion.

More than an hour later.

Qingli, with Mu Jinyu, stopped again in a void.

"Boom!!"

It was still the plain way of greeting.

Qingli wielded the Golden War Halberd and pierced a hole through the void, smashing it several times.

Finally succeeding in breaking the boundary of the Ji Clan's minor world, a passage appeared for entry.

Inside came a burst of furious curses.

Qingli, brimming with fighting spirit, shining with golden light, swaggered in with Mu Jinyu.

The final outcome was naturally no different than the Yao Clan's lineage.

Most of the Ji Clan's supreme powers had gone to Cangyan State to see if they could seize the Emperor's Relic; now, they were probably fighting fiercely over there.

Among those who stayed in the clan's grounds, there were some strong ones, but they were far inferior to Qingli. Moreover, they didn't want to offend the War Clan and believed the "Humanity Path Sutra" and "Armament Martial Scripture" did not count for much.

Eventually, they opted to let Mu Jinyu view these two scriptures of the clan, to avoid conflicts between the two sides.

Mu Jinyu also found the complete "Organ Refining Chapter" and the subsequent "Skin Membrane Chapter" in the Ji Clan's "Humanity Path Sutra."

As for the final "Marrow Nourishment Chapter," although the Ji Clan's preservation was no better than the Yao Clan's, it was left with only some scattered phrases with not much record.

On the other hand, the "Armament Martial Scripture" preserving intact versions of the "Spear Scroll," "Whip Scroll," "Hook Scroll," "Halberd Scroll," "Mace Scroll," etc., by the Ji Clan is much better than the Yao Clan.

It allowed Mu Jinyu to have a great harvest.

"Let's go."

After finishing the Ji Clan's humanity path collection, Mu Jinyu did not linger and left their clan grounds with Qingli.

"Have you ever studied the 'Halberd Scroll'?"

Mu Jinyu asked Qingli after stepping out of Ji Clan's minor world.

"No," Qingli replied, shaking her head.

The clan grounds she previously visited did not have a record of the "Halberd Scroll" in the "Humanity Path Sutra" or the "Armament Martial Scripture."

After that, she was too lazy to search more, feeling it wasn't very useful, so she didn't bother.

"I found the 'Halberd Scroll' in Ji Clan's lineage. Do you want to take a look?" Mu Jinyu asked.

"Really?"

Qingli was a bit surprised by Mu Jinyu's words.

Unexpectedly, after visiting four or five human royal clans' Scripture Pavilions, never finding the "Halberd Scroll," she only accompanied Mu Jinyu to this Ji Clan and found the "Halberd Scroll."

That was quite lucky.

"Okay, pass it to me," Qingli said, without hesitation and refusal. She was quite interested in the human race's "Armament Martial Scripture." While many foreign races couldn't cultivate it, the War Clan was similar to the Human Race and might be able to.

Even if it can't be cultivated, it would be useful for reference.

Seeing Qingli's interest, Mu Jinyu lifted his hand and tapped her forehead, teaching her the cultivation method of the "Halberd Scroll."

"Hmm~"

Qingli quickly absorbed the content of Mu Jinyu's teaching, then blinked her long eyelashes, looking at Mu Jinyu with a curious gaze, asking, "Hey! How come your soul force isn't around the Divinity Transformation Realm? It feels like the Void Breaking Realm level?"

Having reached the Creation Realm, her perception was more keen. Normally, Mu Jinyu didn't release much Power of Divine Sense, so she wasn't aware of the magnitude of Mu Jinyu's soul force.

Yet, at the moment when Mu Jinyu's soul invaded her Sea of Consciousness, though Mu Jinyu withdrew quickly, she sensed the difference between Mu Jinyu's soul force and his cultivation.

Logically speaking, Mu Jinyu's cultivation is only at the Divinity Transformation Realm; even strong soul force shouldn't surpass the Fanxu Realm.

Yet, he actually was at the Void Breaking Realm level.

This surprised Qingli greatly.

It also led Qingli to guess that Mu Jinyu's original cultivation probably wasn't limited to the Divinity Transformation Realm but at least about the Late Stage Hedao Realm.

Mu Jinyu hadn't expected that merely passing on the "Halberd Scroll" to Qingli would let her perceive the extent of his soul force. However, since it wasn't really a secret, Mu Jinyu openly stated that his original cultivation was at the Hedao Realm.

Later, realizing the Path of Foreign Bloodlines wasn't the proper route, he ultimately cut off his cultivation and bloodline to retread the humanity path.

Therefore, his cultivation was stuck at the Divinity Transformation Realm.

Yet, he had the ability to slay the Void Breaking Realm, and even slay the Life and Death Realm experts with the help of the Earth Emperor's Tome.

He said half truth, half lie, as he couldn't possibly tell Qingli he came from Earth and wasn't originally from Canglan Realm.

Even though Qingli wasn't interested in conquering Earth, if he accidentally slipped it out, it would be very troublesome!

"I see! No wonder your combat strength is so amazing!"

Qingli, after listening to Mu Jinyu's explanation, understood immediately.

She then looked at Mu Jinyu with more appreciation, "I originally thought you didn't have a foreign race bloodline in your body and couldn't step onto the cultivation path, so you chose this very difficult path."

"Unexpectedly, at your age, you were already at the Peak Hedao Realm; clearly, both your talent and bloodline were excellent. But you dared to cut off your bloodline and cultivation to walk this unknown path. I admire your courage."

"Good!" Qingli said, making a decision, speaking in a deep voice, "I was originally thinking, if we don't find the 'Marrow Nourishment Chapter' after searching several more royal clans' Scripture Pavilions, then forget it. But since you have such determination and courage, even if I have to waste a few months,

I will join you to search all royal clans' Scripture Pavilions! To find the 'Marrow Nourishment Chapter' for you!"

Hearing Qingli's words, Mu Jinyu felt a bit flattered and said, "There's no need to waste your time like this. If we really can't find it, forget it; for now, these several chapters are enough for my cultivation!"

"Besides, the cultivation of the 'Humanity Path Sutra' will also be hard to continue later; it's probable I'll have to forge a new path on my own. Even if there's no 'Marrow Nourishment Chapter,' it makes no difference to me."

Mu Jinyu said openly.

"No problem, there's always a way. With one more 'Marrow Nourishment Chapter,' perhaps your future path can be smoother!" Qingli laughed nonchalantly.

With Qingli's insistence, Mu Jinyu couldn't refuse this, plus it was beneficial to him, so there was no need to truly reject it wholeheartedly!

Chapter 1746: Finally Assembled the Humanity Path Sutra! Cultivation Reaches Void Breaking Realm!
Qingli's Strong Support!

In an instant.

Mu Jinyu followed Qingli, walking among various royal families for over a month.

The time wasted on the road was almost half a month.

Apart from the Yao Clan and Ji Clan, they visited four other human royal families.

Ultimately, Mu Jinyu successfully found the "Marrow Nourishment Chapter" in the fourth family's Jiang Clan.

"Lucky, now the 'Humanity Path Sutra' is almost complete, right?"

Qingli and Mu Jinyu walked out of the minor world of the Jiang Clan's territory, smiling and congratulating Mu Jinyu.

"Thank you!"

Mu Jinyu sincerely thanked Qingli.

Over this past month, Qingli worked really hard, taking him everywhere to seek out human royal families' lands and forcibly borrowing their scriptures.

During this time, Qingli hardly cultivated herself to consolidate her cultivation.

While Mu Jinyu was riding on her flying boat, he continuously cultivated along the way.

In one month's time, he had successfully cultivated the "Bone Tempering Section," "Organ Refining Chapter," and "Skin Membrane Chapter."

His cultivation also broke through from the Mid Divine Transformation Realm to the Fanxu Realm, and then with the successful cultivation of the "Organ Refining Chapter," he advanced to the Unity Realm Stage.

However, the "Skin Membrane Chapter" was not so easy to cultivate; it required constant beating along with the assistance of various herbs. Qingli generously provided these herbs and helped him by striking and applying the medicine, assisting him greatly.

This eventually allowed him to successfully cultivate the "Skin Membrane Chapter" and advance his cultivation to the Void Breaking Realm!

From then on, Mu Jinyu's cultivation realm not only fully restored his previous realm on Earth but also broke through to the Void Breaking Realm.

But consequently, his subsequent cultivation couldn't just proceed smoothly and break through consecutively without encountering any bottlenecks.

After all, he had never touched upon this domain before.

The road ahead would need to be explored on his own.

Of course, with the "Marrow Nourishment Chapter," at least in the Void Breaking Realm, he wouldn't need to explore much. As long as he could cultivate the "Marrow Nourishment Chapter," he could at least step into the First Layer of the Life-and-Death Realm!

But the road ahead would truly require him to walk blindly, creating his own cultivation technique to forge a path centered on humanity.

Upon hearing Mu Jinyu's thanks, Qingli smiled and didn't say "You're welcome," as she felt that she indeed worked hard and could receive Mu Jinyu's gratitude.

After laughing, Qingli asked, "Do you still need the 'Armament Martial Scripture'?"

Although the 'Humanity Path Sutra' is essentially complete, the 'Armament Martial Scripture' encompasses various weapons and armor types, many of which are quite obscure, while these human royal families tend to retain only the most popular scriptures like the 'Sword Scroll,' 'Spear Scroll,' and 'Scroll of the Sword.'

Thus, they searched the scripture pavilions of these six royal families but didn't even collect half of the 'Armament Martial Scripture,' with most being duplicates.

Qingli was unsure whether Mu Jinyu's path of focusing on humanity would truly pan out, so she suggested he collect the 'Armament Martial Scripture' to explore the path of the War Emperor.

Mu Jinyu shook his head slightly and said, "Judging from the 'Armament Martial Scripture' in the hands of these royal families, it's likely the same for others; there's probably no complete 'Armament Martial Scripture' in the world!"

"It's meaningless; these fragments are enough for my reference. After all, the weapons I primarily use are swords, spears, and knives!"

"Alright then." Seeing Mu Jinyu's decision, Qingli didn't insist on spending half a year or even a year to take him to the Central Domain, Western Regions, and Southern Domain to see if other royal families had a more comprehensive 'Armament Martial Scripture.'

After all, the promise was to complete the 'Humanity Path Sutra,' and the 'Armament Martial Scripture' was merely secondary.

In addition, she was truly exhausted after running around the Canglan Realm for over a month and didn't want to travel all over the place!

Since Mu Jinyu decided to give it up, so be it.

If there's a chance in the future, she would pay more attention to the 'Armament Martial Scriptures' held by other royal families and try to find fragments that Mu Jinyu hasn't collected yet, and give them to him then.

"Shall we part ways here, or shall I take you somewhere else?"

Qingli was getting ready to return to her war clan's land but was worried that Mu Jinyu might be heading somewhere far, and if he had trouble getting there on his own. She asked out of concern.

"No need, the place I need to go is nearby. Now that my cultivation has reached the Void Breaking Realm, I can use Void Shift to return on my own. No need to trouble you." Mu Jinyu shook his head.

"Alright, then farewell until we meet again." Qingli didn't mind, waved goodbye to Mu Jinyu, and prepared to leave.

Mu Jinyu also prepared to perform a Void Shift and head towards Dongyue Mansion!

However, just then, Qingli thought of something and didn't leave but called out, "Hey, wait a moment."

"What's up?"

Mu Jinyu halted his actions and looked back at her.

Qingli waved her hand and took out a Yinming Life and Death Fruit Tree, which was black and white intertwined, from her domain minor world.

"Here, take it!" Qingli handed the fruit tree to Mu Jinyu, said.

"Hmm? Weren't you going to take it back for the war clan to use?" Mu Jinyu saw the Yinming Life and Death Fruit Tree and showed a hint of surprise, curiously asking.

The Yinming Life and Death Fruit Tree is considered a fine spirit plant. For the various foreign races stuck in the Life-and-Death Realm, consuming its fruit means having a high probability of breaking through the realm to reach the Creation Realm.

That's why the Ghost Clan has heavily guarded it.

Qingli, although she consumed the fruit and reached the Creation Realm, could still bring the fruit tree back for other clan members to use. Moreover, Mu Jinyu's own cultivation wasn't enough to reach the stage of consuming the Yinming Life and Death Fruit. Thus, he hadn't even desired to obtain this fruit tree.

Unexpectedly, Qingli suddenly decided to give the fruit tree to him.

Qingli explained, "I initially intended to bring it back to the war clan, but seeing you're now at the first layer of the Void Breaking Realm, it's actually not far from the Life-and-Death Realm. You should need to consume the fruit in the future to reach the Creation Realm. Moreover, the Yinming Life and Death Fruit Tree requires a long time to naturally bear fruit, but your Earth Emperor's Tome can accelerate the ripening process. So I'm lending it to you now; when you break through to the Creation Realm, return the fruit tree to me."

After pausing, she advised, "Of course, not without interest; when you return the fruit tree, it must bear fruit."

"Okay, no problem."

Upon hearing this, Mu Jinyu agreed without any hesitation.

This condition, for him, was practically no condition at all.

With his current Void Breaking Realm cultivation, combined with the Firewood Chopping Saber Technique and other comprehensive abilities, defeating a powerful being in the Life-and-Death Realm is now effortless.

And the nutrients needed to ripen the Yinming Life and Death Fruit are only those provided by the Ghost Clan's powerful beings in the Life-and-Death Realm.

Would he worry about not achieving it?

Mu Jinyu understood well that Qingli placing this condition was essentially not purposely asking for interest but merely ensuring that he didn't feel burdened by another favor.

But he knew that he owed her a favor nonetheless.

After all, even if he successfully cultivates the "Marrow Nourishment Chapter," it will only advance his cultivation to the first layer of the Life-and-Death Realm.

Just as when he cultivated the "Blood Tempering Chapter," he only advanced his cultivation from the Body Tempering Realm to the first layer of the Divine Transformation Realm.

And the road ahead would essentially need to be walked alone; transitioning from the Life-and-Death Realm to the Creation Realm would likely be very dangerous.

Yet with the help of the Yinming Life and Death Fruit, he might achieve success somewhat smoothly.

Qingli lending him the Yinming Life and Death Fruit Tree is indeed a significant favor.

However, anyway, there's already a considerable amount of favor owed to her, as they say, too many lice don't itch. Mu Jinyu didn't mind it at all.

Chapter 1747: Return to Dongyue Mansion! Chu Huannian Is Injured! I've Reached the Void Breaking Realm!

"Alright, it's settled. I'm really leaving this time! Goodbye."

Qingli smiled, watching Mu Jinyu take the Yinming Death-Life Fruit Tree, she waved at him. Her whole body burst into golden light and she disappeared from sight.

Mu Jinyu watched her leave, suddenly feeling a sense of emptiness in his heart.

Shaking his head slightly, Mu Jinyu stopped thinking too much and planted the Yinming Death-Life Fruit Tree in his Domain Space.

Since his cultivation advanced to the Void Breaking Realm, allowing him to construct a Domain World, Qingli volunteered to teach him how to build his own true Minor World.

However, the cultivation path he followed focused on the self rather than merging with heaven and earth. Instead, he mainly developed the cosmic potential of the human body, meaning he originally couldn't merge with the Heaven and Earth Laws like others to create a Domain World.

But through mutual exploration with Qingli, they eventually came up with an optimal solution.

That was to forcibly create a Domain World.

If the normal cultivation route of absorbing nature's spiritual energy and Origin Qi involved gradually merging with the world, reaching a state of Unity of Heaven and Man, and finally manipulating the Heaven and Earth Laws as effortlessly as using one's own limbs...

As if this realm became part of one's body...

Then the path Mu Jinyu took was not to merge with the world, but to continually develop the cosmic potential within himself, unlocking potential and growing stronger step by step. In this way, he couldn't manipulate the Heaven and Earth Laws. Heaven was heaven, man was man, distinctly separate, without Unity of Heaven and Man. So how could he use Space Law to construct a Domain World?

The solution they explored was to subdue the Heaven and Earth Laws by brute force, constructing a Domain World through Space Law.

While others smoothly manipulate the Heaven and Earth Laws as if they were a third hand, he didn't have this luxury. Instead, he could only subdue the laws by force, crafting them into weapons like knives and swords.

Though man remained man and the world remained the world, if he forged the Heaven and Earth Laws into weapons, could he not wield them forcefully?

This might be the only method.

But the risk was great.

Mu Jinyu endured countless near-death experiences before finally subduing part of the Space Law, forcibly crafting them into his own Domain World.

Of course, his Domain World was not large, much smaller than others'.

But Mu Jinyu was satisfied enough.

With this experience, as he continued down the path of focusing on the self and carving out a cosmic world within, he had some experience, reducing the risks.

"Phew..."

Having planted the Yinming Death-Life Fruit Tree in the Domain World, Mu Jinyu took one last deep look in the direction Qingli had left, then shifted space using his Domain World to forcibly manipulate the nearby Space Laws, heading towards Dongyue Mansion!

He had been away from Dongyue Mansion for over a month. It was time to return and see Chu Huannian and the others.

Originally, when leaving, he worried about anyone causing trouble after he killed those few seniors trying to steal his so-called Heavenly Mysterious Ice Spirit Marrow.

But after encountering a few mentors in Cangyan State, who seemed unaware, Mu Jinyu had no concerns.

It seemed the students with lower cultivation weren't even given life medallions or similar warning items by Dongyue Mansion.

Thus, he had no reason to fear returning.

"Whoosh!"

With Mu Jinyu's application of Void Shift, he soon vanished on the spot.

A few days later.

Mu Jinyu finally returned to Donghua Continent after traveling through various state domains.

Originally, when he followed Qingli to the Ji clan's territory, they were close to the Central Domain. Just crossing the endless ocean would take them there.

Back then, he was quite far from Donghua Continent. If returning on his own, it might take half a month.

But after Qingli took him to seek other royal clan territories, running back and forth, by the time they parted, they were only seven or eight state domains away from Donghua Continent.

So Mu Jinyu only spent a few days to successfully return to Donghua Continent.

"Finally back. Traveling wasted so much time. If only the teleportation arrays were freely accessible."

"Or if my cultivation was high enough to cross most of the Eastern Region in one Void Shift, I wouldn't worry about this..."

Mu Jinyu lamented, feeling a bit helpless as he returned to Donghua Continent.

Immediately, Mu Jinyu hurriedly arrived at the place where they attended the Enrollment Training at the Examination Mansion.

Mu Jinyu went directly into the Examination Mansion, found the Teleportation Array, and after using some Source Crystals, he retrieved his Identity Plaque, successfully activating the array.

With a "whoosh," he was back in Dongyue Mansion.

"Long time no see!"

Now that Mu Jinyu's cultivation had improved and he could manipulate Space Law, he didn't feel dizzy after the teleportation shift.

He breathed in the fresh air of Dongyue Mansion, feeling at ease.

"Let's find Sister Nian first, then go see Little Yun and the others."

Mu Jinyu decided, heading towards the small cabin where they previously stayed.

Quickly.

He arrived at the small cabin.

"Knock knock."

He bypassed his own cabin, stopping in front of Chu Huannian's cabin, he knocked on the door.

"Who?"

Chu Huannian's voice came from inside, weak and wary.

Mu Jinyu's heart skipped a beat, sensing that Chu Huannian might be injured.

"It's me, Jinyu, I'm back..."

Mu Jinyu spoke solemnly.

"Creak!"

Shortly after, hearing him, the restriction on the cabin was lifted, and the door opened.

Revealing Chu Huannian's slightly pale, weak face, lacking much rosiness.

"Sister Nian, how did you get hurt?"

Seeing her complexion, Mu Jinyu could tell she was indeed injured. Grabbing her hand, he began transferring Blood Essence to heal her while asking with concern.

Chu Huannian didn't resist Mu Jinyu taking her hand, feeling the rich Blood Essence enter her body, slowly healing her serious injuries, and her complexion started regaining some color.

"I was hurt by someone. They were still after the so-called Heavenly Mysterious Ice Spirit Marrow we had. I had no choice but to confront them, which led to my injuries."

Chu Huannian spoke with some frustration.

After Mu Jinyu left Dongyue Mansion, others followed him, attempting to kill him to seize the Ice Spirit Marrow.

Although Chu Huannian hadn't left, during the Enrollment Training, many still knew about the Ice Spirit Marrow's existence, leading to constant challenges against her.

Ultimately, out of necessity, Chu Huannian had to fight, but she lost, leaving her in a difficult situation at Dongyue Mansion.

"Who hurt you? Tell me, I'll help you get revenge!"

Mu Jinyu's eyes turned cold upon hearing Chu Huannian's words, speaking gravely.

"You?!"

Chu Huannian intended to dissuade him, thinking although his combat strength was formidable, he couldn't possibly stand against those opponents.

But soon, she noticed something odd. Why was his Blood Essence healing her so quickly? And his cultivation—why couldn't she fully gauge him?

Mu Jinyu noticed Chu Huannian's confusion, responding: "I've now found a Cultivation Technique and advanced to the Void Breaking Realm!"

"Boom!"

Chu Huannian felt a detonation in her mind upon hearing his words.

How could this be possible?

Mu Jinyu had been gone for just over a month, yet he moved from the Divinity Transformation Realm to the Void Breaking Realm?

What unbelievable breakthrough speed!

She had only barely advanced from the Early Stage of Fusion Realm to the Mid Hedao Realm!

Chapter 1748: The One Who Harmed and the Surging Winds and Clouds

Although it was hard to believe, after Mu Jinyu displayed the techniques of Flight through the Sky and Miniature Universe, Chu Huannian finally accepted that Mu Jinyu advanced to the Void Breaking Realm earlier than himself.

"The one who injured you, even if not in the Unity Realm Stage, would be in the Void Breaking Realm. You know my combat strength. I'm now in the Void Breaking Realm; I don't even fear the Life and Death Realm battles. You needn't be afraid of anything."

Mu Jinyu said to Chu Huannian in a deep voice.

"Okay."

Chu Huannian hesitated after hearing Mu Jinyu's words, and finally nodded, "The one who injured me is an intermediate student at the academy named Ji Fei, whose cultivation has been stuck in the Middle Stage of the Void Breaking Realm for years. He believes his bloodline concentration might be the issue. He's been looking for Heavenly Materials and Earthly Treasures to enhance his bloodline concentration. He found out from the academy that some of us obtained Heavenly Mysterious Ice Spirit Marrow in the Secret Realm and has tried every possible way to get it from me."

"Initially, he intended to purchase it, but after many refusals, he must have been enraged, ultimately forcing me to agree to a battle with him."

"After I lost the battle and failed to produce the Heavenly Mysterious Ice Spirit Marrow, the teacher responsible for the fight checked my Qiankun Ring and confirmed there was indeed no Heavenly Mysterious Ice Spirit Marrow, only then did he let it go."

Chu Huannian paused and looked up at Mu Jinyu, saying, "Afterwards, he probably set his sights on you, but since you're not in Dongyue Mansion, he has no way against you. I've been worried recently about whether he might cause trouble for Little Yun and Ah-Xui through Teacher Chen!"

"After all, the day we went to the Treasure Pavilion and Scripture Pavilion together, many people noticed it. He might suspect I handed them the so-called Heavenly Mysterious Ice Spirit Marrow!"

"Now that you've returned to Dongyue Mansion, he's probably watching you too."

Chu Huannian cautioned.

Mu Jinyu, hearing this, considered a question, "Since you were injured, what about Chen Qinglian who acted with us earlier? Did anything happen to her?"

"I haven't contacted her, so I'm not clear about this issue." Chu Huannian shook her head.

Originally, Chu Huannian quietly focused on cultivation, occasionally attending lectures given by Spirit Clan bloodline mentors.

After being injured by Ji Fei a dozen days ago, she mostly stayed here recovering, not daring to seek Teacher Chen, lest it remind them of Ji Xiaoyun and Chu Huaxiu.

Mu Jinyu, hearing this, nodded, dismissing thoughts about Chen Qinglian.

Given that she followed Mu Jinyu and Chu Huannian and benefited considerably without much input, if trouble befalls her now, it might be a destined calamity.

Yet, it's likely she was also injured like Chu Huannian; Dongyue Mansion forbids mortal injuries, except for life or death battles!

"We should head to Teacher Chen's place first to check on Ah-Xui and Little Yun. After viewing them, we can hunt down Ji Fei for repayment." Mu Jinyu suggested.

"Alright." Chu Huannian agreed.

She also longed to see her sister but feared involving them, knowing their status in Dongyue Mansion was just that of maids, even if they belonged to a mentor, their standing wasn't high.

If an advanced student took advantage of Teacher Chen's absence to barge into the cave residence to mistreat them, there's no guarantee they'd face post-act punishment.

Now with Mu Jinyu back, his prowess leaping to the First Layer of the Void Breaking Realm, his combat power could challenge Life and Death Realm early stage experts, thus lessening these fears.

Subsequently, Mu Jinyu departed the wooden cabin with Chu Huannian, heading toward Teacher Chen's mountain!

"So, you did return!"

Suddenly, a sharp-faced, monkey-like youth who'd been monitoring Chu Huannian's home for long noticed Mu Jinyu's emergence, his eyes lighting up as he sprang forth to intercept them.

"Senior Ji has directed that upon your return you must come to follow orders, so come with me now!"

The youth spoke arrogantly to Mu Jinyu.

"Hmm?!"

Mu Jinyu halted, eyeing the fellow who sprang up to block him, baffled.

Upon hearing "Senior Ji," he realized this must be Ji Fei's sent man watching their premises.

Waiting for him to return, demanding he meet to hand over the Heavenly Mysterious Ice Spirit Marrow?

After all, to them, he was merely a young cultivator in the Divinity Transformation Realm.

Mu Jinyu sneered, pushing the sharp-faced youth aside, saying, "Ji Fei, right? I will confront him later for justice, clear the way, or if he's impatient, he can come find me, I won't mind sending him down the path!"

"You?!"

Shoved aside, the youth nearly fell flat, standing up again in anger, glaring at Mu Jinyu's retreating figure.

He was astonished, wasn't Mu Jinyu just a kid in the Divinity Transformation Realm?

How did he push him away so easily, leaving him defenseless?

He couldn't discern Mu Jinyu's cultivation either?

Hmm...probably careless of him, failing to dodge, hence was thrust aside.

The youth quickly rationalized, glaring hatefully at Mu Jinyu and Chu Huannian's disappearing path, then grabbed his identity plaque, messaging Senior Ji Fei.

Notifying Mu Jinyu's return and recounting his rebellious words!

Dongyue Mansion.

A high-end villa-style residence.

This was for intermediate students, far superior to beginner students joining Dongyue Mansion.

Currently, a youth, his face smooth yet attractive, was in cross-legged meditation, surrounded by blood energy.

This was the very Ji Fei who injured Chu Huannian!

"Beep beep..."

The identity plaque beside Ji Fei suddenly vibrated, interrupting his cultivation.

Divine Sense entered the plaque, rapidly absorbing the transmitted information.

"Finally back?"

"I've waited for you long!"

Ji Fei's eyes were cold, yet faintly expectant; his cross-legged figure twisted, dissipating like smoke.

This anticipation led him himself to hunt down Mu Jinyu, demanding the Heavenly Mysterious Ice Spirit Marrow!

...

Mu Jinyu had no idea Ji Fei acted swiftly, now pursuing them. Meanwhile, he and Chu Huannian were heading towards Teacher Chen's mountain where Ji Xiaoyun and others were.

They conversed about the appearance of the Earth Emperor Relic near Cangyan State.

"Many academy tutors have left for it, Teacher Chen too, dunno about Ah-Xui and Little Yun's situation, hope nothing's amiss?"

Chu Huannian's tone carried worry.

She felt jittery, sensing ongoing trouble nearby, unsettling her.

Yet this whimsy of essence blood didn't resonate like kinship sacrifice; she guessed it connected to Chu Huannian's side?

Yet, heavily injured as she was, with surrounding eyes on her, she doubted her guesses' fidelity, avoiding action that might mislead and indeed harm her sister.

"Hope all's well; Teacher Chen's mountain has many Restrictions, unauthorized entry isn't feasible, though whether we could enter is uncertain."

Mu Jinyu expressed this concern.

Chapter 1749: Chu Huaxiu and Ji Xiaoyun in Trouble! Enemies Face Each Other with Crimson Eyes!

They walked and chatted along the way.

Soon, Mu Jinyu and Chu Huannian arrived at the foot of Teacher Chen's mountain peak.

"Buzz!!"

The restrictions were still in operation, and entry was not allowed without permission.

"I wonder if Teacher Chen had specifically set up a pass before leaving to allow us to enter?"

Mu Jinyu looked at the restrictions and was confident in breaking them to enter directly.

But since Teacher Chen had been kind to them, he felt it was inappropriate to break the restrictions and barge in.

"Let's give it a try first."

Chu Huannian sighed.

Saying this, she took out her identity plaque and tentatively stretched it toward the rippling light curtain before her.

"Buzz!"

The light curtain trembled slightly, successfully allowing Chu Huannian to extend her hand through, but she was struck back as if by lightning!

"It worked?"

Chu Huannian was surprised and delighted. She quickly walked through the light curtain.

Seeing this, Mu Jinyu also took out his identity plaque, mimicking her actions, and followed through.

It seemed Teacher Chen had considered this before leaving, so he set the restrictions to allow them entry.

Mu Jinyu and Chu Huannian entered Teacher Chen's mountain, and then hurriedly proceeded up the peak.

Mu Jinyu went first to find Ji Xiaoyun, while Chu Huannian went to find her sister, Chu Huaxiu.

Their tasks on Teacher Chen's mountain included caring for the spirit beasts and spirit medicine.

"Little Yun?!"

Mu Jinyu approached a wooden house by the spirit beasts, remembering Ji Xiaoyun's task was looking after the spirit beasts.

Scanning the nearby beast pen, he noticed that there was still quite a bit of fresh feed inside, indicating someone had been tending to the spirit beasts today.

It seemed they were likely alright.

Mu Jinyu secretly breathed a sigh of relief.

Then he pushed open the wooden house door, only to find it empty.

"Hmm? She must have gone to find Chu Huaxiu then?"

Mu Jinyu slightly furrowed his brow but quickly figured out the reason, relaxing his expression.

Afterward, Mu Jinyu turned around and headed toward the spirit medicine field.

"Ah!"

At this moment, he heard a cry of grief and anger from Chu Huannian, filled with fury and killing intent.

His heart skipped a beat, realizing something might have really happened?

He hurriedly dashed toward the wooden house beside the spirit medicine field!

"Bang!"

He quickly arrived at the front of the wooden house, glancing inside.

He saw three women inside.

It was Chu Huannian, Chu Huaxiu, and Ji Xiaoyun.

Ji Xiaoyun's face was pale, with no trace of blood, looking quite injured but still able to move with difficulty.

It seemed she had been handling the task of caring for the spirit beasts and spirit medicine field these past few days.

Chu Huaxiu, on the other hand, was lying on the bed, face ashen like gold paper, her breathing weak, clearly severely injured.

The extent of damage to her five viscera and six bowels was evident.

It was astonishing she had held on this long.

Seeing Chu Huaxiu's state, anger surged in Mu Jinyu's chest, murderous intent raging.

At this moment, he understood why Chu Huannian had let out that cry of grief and anger.

Being injured himself was bearable, but seeing her defenseless sister bullied and gravely injured, how could she not feel hatred, anger, and despair?

Especially since she had sensed something unusual these days but had various concerns, refraining from visiting her sister and Ji Xiaoyun.

How remorseful would she feel at this moment?

If she had checked on her sister sooner, perhaps she wouldn't have ended up like this!

"Ah-Xui, quickly eat this, eat this..."

Chu Huannian, usually very calm, now had trembling hands, hurriedly taking out precious life-saving elixir to feed her sister.

But Chu Huaxiu, already a bit unconscious, didn't even realize Chu Huannian was there, nor that her sister was giving her healing medicine.

Chu Huannian struggled greatly but finally managed to make her sister swallow the life-saving elixir.

"Jinyu... Jinyu?!"

After giving her sister the life-saving elixir, unsure if her sister's life could be saved, Chu Huannian quickly thought of Mu Jinyu's blood essence divine effect, promptly wanting to find Mu Jinyu to save her sister.

"Brother Jinyu~~~"

At this moment, Ji Xiaoyun, who was watching Chu Huannian save Chu Huaxiu with worry, turned and saw Mu Jinyu arriving at the door, her eyes lighting up with stars, exclaiming excitedly.

"Jinyu, save my sister..."

Chu Huannian, seeing Mu Jinyu rush over, quickly called to him.

Her tone even carried a hint of pleading.

She only had one sister, Chu Huaxiu; their parents disappeared when they were young, and her sister couldn't cultivate. She swore to give her sister a happy life.

Originally planning to leave her sister in the Chu Kingdom, plans changed, and she brought her along to Dongyue Mansion.

If something happened to her sister because of it, she could never forgive herself.

"Don't worry, she'll be fine!"

Mu Jinyu reassured Chu Huannian with a calm tone.

Then he immediately entered the room, placing his hand on Chu Huaxiu's pale, weak wrist, began to channel blood essence.

While saving Chu Huaxiu, Mu Jinyu frowned tightly.

He discovered Chu Huaxiu was indeed severely injured.

If they hadn't come today, Chu Huaxiu might not have lasted a week before perishing completely.

"Who was ruthless enough to do this?"

Mu Jinyu quickly cooperated with the life-saving elixir Chu Huannian used on Chu Huaxiu to stabilize her injury, then turned to look at Ji Xiaoyun, asking in a deep voice.

He initially suspected if Teacher Chen mistreated them?

But on second thought, it seemed impossible!

However, after Teacher Chen left, no one else should have been able to enter due to the restrictions.

So what happened?

Ji Xiaoyun whispered, "It's a man, looking sinister and wicked. He asked me and Sister Hua Xiu for some Heavenly Mysterious Ice Spirit Marrow, we didn't have it, he didn't believe us and attacked!"

"I forgot what Sister Hua Xiu said at the time, then he just tortured her like this..."

"It's him!"

Hearing Ji Xiaoyun's account, deep hatred surged in Chu Huannian's eyes, gritting her teeth.

Seeing Chu Huannian's reaction, Mu Jinyu quickly deduced who the attacker was!

It was likely Ji Fei, the one who had injured Chu Huannian!

But...

How did he manage to enter Teacher Chen's mountain and injure Chu Huaxiu and the others?

"Mm..."

At this time, as Mu Jinyu's blood essence continued to flow into Chu Huaxiu, since she was just an ordinary person, he quickly healed her severe injuries.

Chu Huaxiu let out a soft moan, her expression calmed, no longer twisted with pain, she fell into a deep sleep.

"Little Yun, come over. I'll heal you too!"

After treating Chu Huaxiu, Mu Jinyu turned to Ji Xiaoyun, motioning her over.

"Okay."

Ji Xiaoyun's voice was also weak, lacking its usual clarity.

Mu Jinyu took her wrist, channeling blood essence, quickly healing her not-severe injuries too.

"Tap, tap, tap..."

At this moment, they heard footsteps behind them.

Chu Huannian turned and saw the face that drove her nearly insane with hatred.

"Ji Fei, die!!"

Chu Huannian roared in anger, clasping her spear, charging at Ji Fei like a madwoman!

Chapter 1750: Threatened to Ascend the Life and Death Platform! Agree! Are You Sure You Want to Ascend the Life and Death Platform?

"Bang!!"

Although Chu Huannian was very strong and could contend with ordinary cultivators of the Void Breaking Realm, crushing them in the process,

Ji Fei was a genius of Dongyue Mansion and now also an intermediate student. Despite having only the cultivation of the Middle Stage of the Void Breaking Realm, he was not someone Chu Huannian could easily handle.

With just a "bang," Chu Huannian was directly hit by Ji Fei, spewing blood and being knocked back!

"A defeated opponent dares to come and humiliate themselves!"

Ji Fei, with a sullen face, coldly glanced at Chu Huannian and said disdainfully, "If Dongyue Mansion didn't have a rule against students killing each other, you'd be dead twice by now!"

Mu Jinyu had just finished treating Ji Xiaoyun's injuries when he heard the commotion behind him. His face turned grim as he reached out to catch Chu Huannian's flying body, secretly using Blood Essence to heal her.

He stared at Ji Fei, whose face was both gentle and handsome, and asked in a deep voice, "Since the academy forbids students from killing each other, how dare you use such a heavy hand on them?"

Ji Fei understood Mu Jinyu's intention, glanced coldly at Chu Huaxiu, who was lying on the bed breathing steadily in sleep, and sneered, "Are they really our classmates? They're just lowly maids who got into Dongyue Mansion through their maid status. Killing them is no big deal. Do you think Dongyue Mansion would punish me for this?"

After a pause, he said indifferently, "There might be some trouble with Teacher Chen, but since he's probably off to the Earth Emperor Relic in Cangyan State, who knows if he's dead or alive? Why should I fear him?"

"Good, you're ruthlessly bold!"

Mu Jinyu nodded solemnly at Ji Fei's words, admiring the guy's audacity.

"Hmph, stop rambling, hand over the Heavenly Mysterious Ice Spirit Marrow, or don't blame me for taking action!"

Ji Fei said coldly.

Mu Jinyu stared at Ji Fei, sneering, "Not only do we not have the Heavenly Mysterious Ice Spirit Marrow, but even if we did, I wouldn't give it to someone like you who only dares to bully those weaker than you!"

"You?!"

Upon hearing Mu Jinyu's words, Ji Fei was instantly furious.

Mu Jinyu coldly laughed, "Am I wrong? Dongyue Mansion is full of geniuses, surely many have divine items similar to the Heavenly Mysterious Ice Spirit Marrow. Would you dare to rob them? You wouldn't dare. You only pick on those temporarily weaker than you. Aren't you ashamed?"

"Fine, fine, you've got guts to talk to me like that! If you dare, face me on the Life and Death Platform for a death match!"

Ji Fei said to Mu Jinyu with a grim expression.

Fearing Mu Jinyu might refuse, he threatened, "If you refuse, I'll kill these two lowly maids right in front of you!"

Dongyue Mansion isn't a rigid traditionalist sect. If students indeed hold irreconcilable grudges, resulting in a blood feud to the death, they wouldn't create rules against it. However, it requires approval and must be resolved on the Life and Death Platform.

Once on that platform, only one person can come down.

Over the years at Dongyue Mansion, not many have stood on the Life and Death Platform. The last death match on it was over ten years ago.

This demonstrates how much Mu Jinyu's earlier words hurt Ji Fei's pride and how much Ji Fei desires Mu Jinyu's Heavenly Mysterious Ice Spirit Marrow!

Hearing Ji Fei provoked into seeking a death match on the platform, Mu Jinyu's eyes lit up. However, when Ji Fei dared to threaten the lives of Ji Xiaoyun and the others, Mu Jinyu's killing intent towards him became uncontrollable.

"Fine, then let's fight on the Life and Death Platform!"

"Go and apply to the instructors!"

Mu Jinyu, eyes filled with killing intent, stared at Ji Fei and said coldly.

To have a death match on the Life and Death Platform requires approval from several instructors.

Otherwise, if a senior with higher cultivation wanted to take things from those with lower cultivation by forcing them onto the platform, it would be an easy way to kill.

Therefore, to fight to the death on the Life and Death Platform, one must first apply to Dongyue Mansion, then have the instructors check the cultivation realms of both parties to assess if there's too much disparity.

If the difference is too great, the request will be denied.

But if they're close, just a few minor realms apart, it can still pass approval if the lower-ranked student insists!

"Hmph!"

Ji Fei snorted coldly, reminding, "Well then, remember when the instructors come to check your cultivation, don't use any means to hide your cultivation at the Divinity Transformation Realm!"

"Of course!"

Mu Jinyu readily agreed to Ji Fei's words.

He thought this guy was amusing, thinking his actual cultivation was already at the Void Breaking Realm, and he merely concealed it to appear at the Divinity Transformation Realm.

Yet such a thought was understandable. Even Chu Huannian found it unbelievable that he had advanced from the Mid Divine Transformation Realm to the Void Breaking Realm in just a month?

Considering his previously shown ability to overpower the Void Breaking Realm, Ji Fei's suspicion of hidden strength was reasonable.

Mu Jinyu almost teased Ji Fei, questioning how he was so sure his true cultivation was only at the First layer of the Void Breaking Realm, questioning if he hadn't concealed it further.

But fearing the timid young man might get scared and refuse to face him on the Life and Death Platform, Mu Jinyu refrained.

He planned to reveal this on the platform, to unsettle Ji Fei's mental state!

Mu Jinyu mused coldly.

Unaware of Mu Jinyu's intentions, after Ji Fei heard his agreement, he snorted coldly and turned to leave.

Heading to find the relevant instructors to apply for a life-and-death battle with Mu Jinyu.

"Damn it!"

Chu Huannian, filled with hatred, watched Ji Fei's departing figure and said begrudgingly.

Mu Jinyu understood Chu Huannian's feelings; with her sister beaten like this and repeatedly insulted, how could she not wish to kill Ji Fei herself?

Unfortunately, her strength was far from Ji Fei's level, not his match at all.

She also couldn't ask Mu Jinyu to spare Ji Fei's life so that she could take revenge once she became stronger.

Because on the Life and Death Platform, only one remains!

Mu Jinyu said to Chu Huannian with a forced smile, "Sister Nian, Hua Xiu is also my sister, and having her treated this way, I empathize with you. Whether it's you or me killing him, it makes no difference!"

"I know..." Chu Huannian nodded lightly, quickly coming to terms with it.

"Brother Jinyu, be careful..."

Ji Xiaoyun said to Mu Jinyu with some grievance and worry.

She had clearly understood Ji Fei's threat to Mu Jinyu earlier and felt awful knowing she was being used to threaten her brother.

But she worried more about Mu Jinyu's safety!

Mu Jinyu nodded, "Don't worry, I'll definitely kill him to vent your anger!"

"I'm not after revenge, I just want you to be safe..." Ji Xiaoyun whispered.

Soon after, an instructor notified Mu Jinyu to come out from Teacher Chen's peak for a cultivation check.

Mu Jinyu stepped out of the restriction barriers for the instructor to examine.

"Yes, your cultivation is at the First layer of the Void Breaking Realm, it meets the conditions!"

This instructor was a rather beautiful woman, long hair cascading to her waist, exuding a charming presence.

After confirming Mu Jinyu's cultivation, she reminded, "By the way, Ji Fei, the one you're fighting a death match with, is at the Fifth Layer of the Void Breaking Realm and has a record of defeating someone at the Eighth Level. Are you sure you want to proceed?"

Upon hearing this, Mu Jinyu nodded resolutely, "I'm sure!"
