

Kryptonian 381

Chapter 381 Famous scene online

Just when the Illuminati was dealing with the Hydra people and Wakanda's affairs in an orderly manner, a person appeared out of thin air.

"It's really a disgrace to Hydra. You can still be called Hydra like this?"

The black mask, the same black windbreaker as Wesker, and the black big back hair, the people of Hydra and the Illuminati were stunned.

"Who are you?"

The second-level member of the Illuminati, a superhero with a little superpower, looked at this guy and said.

"I heard that you Illuminati have been looking for me, and now I appear."

The other party said with a smile.

Have been looking for him?

The situation at the scene attracted the attention of others.

"Black Caesar?"

Tony's eyes widened, and he couldn't believe that Black Caesar just appeared like this, for the people who were arrested by Hydra?

Speaking of it, Tony felt strange, why didn't these Hydra see familiar people this time, such as Bronski, Red Tank, etc.

Now he doesn't think it's strange, because Black Caesar has appeared.

"Are you Black Caesar?"

Captain Marvel's eyes lit up. She originally thought it was boring. After solving Winktown, she planned to continue to enforce justice. Unexpectedly, the Black Caesar she had been looking for appeared.

"It's the real deal."

Luther teased.

"Black Caesar, right? You're under arrest!"

Captain Marvel said immediately.

"Extremely dangerous guys like you must be controlled."

Thor rushed over at this time.

"Why waste your time talking to him? Just knock him down!"

Like Captain Marvel, Thor had always heard of Black Caesar's reputation. He had long wanted to see Black Caesar's power.

In addition, he was very warlike, so he was naturally not afraid of fighting.

Thor threw out his Mjolnir. The heavy and powerful Thor's hammer carried the terrifying power of lightning and thunder. Wherever it passed, the air was distorted, and people knew at a glance that the hammer was not easy to catch.

"Bang!"

The next moment, Thor was stunned to see his hammer being grabbed by Black Caesar.

Moreover, unlike Hela's grasp, Hela was the original owner of Thor's hammer after all, so there was no big movement when she caught the hammer.

Black Caesar caught the hammer completely by hard power, so there was a lot of movement.

"Boom boom boom!!!"

The ground was flying, overturning millions of tons of soil and splashing, and the shock wave shattered everything around and turned it into dust.

And where the hammer and Black Caesar were, billions of lightning and thunder were bombarding, making people know at a glance that it was a life restricted area, and those who set foot on it would die without a burial place!

Luther did not open the biological force field, and the physical effect was fully displayed, unscrupulously. Even Thor was blown away by the shock wave and lightning. Captain Marvel's pupils shrank, and she disappeared from the spot like lightning, and only then did she avoid the bombardment of lightning and thunder.

"Interesting, this hammer is the hammer of Thor, Mjolnir, in the mythology?"

The voice of Black Caesar reached their ears, and they all stared at Mjolnir in Black Caesar's hand in amazement.

"This is impossible!"

The Illuminati has naturally played the game of lifting the hammer, or rather, it is too topical in itself, and it is impossible not to play it, whether it is the Avengers or the Illuminati.

Through the matter of lifting the hammer, they all know that Thor's hammer is not something that can be lifted whenever you want.

Even Captain Marvel said that she could not lift the hammer without opening the binary state. Of course, it is not known whether she can lift it in the binary state. The problem is that Captain Marvel is not so competitive.

Or it feels a bit strange to use the competitive spirit in such a place.

But what did they see?

Black Caesar actually caught the hammer of Mjolnir so lightly!

You know, even the Saiyans at that time could not catch this hammer, but Black Caesar could do it!

Sol was even more confused. As we all know, there are two possibilities for lifting the hammer.

The first one is that he meets the conditions of the hammer. The problem is that Black Caesar, this extremely terrifying guy, has done so many bad things. Can he still say "My heart and my actions are as clear as a mirror, and everything I do is justice?"

Just kidding, Black Caesar should be "My heart and my actions are as dark as sunglasses, and I am alive until now just because I am lucky!"

The second possibility is that Black Caesar is very strong, even stronger than Mjolnir, so he can catch this hammer.

But that's even more outrageous. Black Caesar is so strong?

They don't believe it!

"Crack!"

Then, Thor heard a very bad sound.

"It's quite strong."

Black Caesar said.

"What?"

Thor swung the hammer of gravity.

"Let Mjolnir go!"

He was anxious. He didn't know why, but he felt very bad for no reason, as if something bad was about to happen.

Thor hurriedly recalled Mjolnir, but Mjolnir was firmly grasped by Luther and could not move.

He could only use his other hammer to hit Luther and rescue Mjolnir.

Mjolnir cracked!

When Thor approached, he saw cracks on Mjolnir.

This made him stunned and unbelievable.

Captain Marvel also saw this scene, her face changed drastically, and she tried to stop Black Caesar's next move.

Then, Black Caesar exerted force, more cracks appeared on Mjolnir, and dazzling lightning shined from inside!

This scene made Thor directly throw his gravity hammer, but at this critical moment, Mjolnir shattered!

"boom-----!!!"

Shining in all directions, thundering in the nine heavens, three thousand thunders!

The broken Mjolnir released a terrifying explosion and power, sweeping and stirring up everything that came close.

The gravitational hammer was blown away, and Thor and Captain Marvel were no exception, both were blown away by the explosion.

It was like clearing a site, even the ground was plowed into a big hole, and the bulldozed soil became a distant hill.

After the explosion, Thor quickly stood up. Regardless of his injuries, he rushed towards Black Caesar again, and then saw the fragments of Thor's hammer falling on the ground.

"No----!!!"

"Mjolnir!!!"

Those who hear it are sad, and those who listen to the wailing sound of tears are heartbroken and heart-wrenching.

Thor, God of Thunder, never imagined that Mjolnir would be crushed to pieces one day. How could this be possible? This was Mjolnir!

"I bought it."

Tony couldn't sit still at all. This was such an outrageous thing. He couldn't believe what he saw.

Black Caesar actually destroyed Mjolnir with his bare hands!

Brother, you are so awesome, why didn't you tell me about such a big thing earlier!

Chapter 382 Again? ? ?

Thor, the God of Thunder, regrets it now, very much.

If possible, he probably would not choose to come to Midgard, nor would he come to find his brother.

How can his own brother be as important as Meow Meow Hammer!

The Meowth Hammer, which accompanied him in the nine realms and never failed, was destroyed in Midgard.

Looking at the fragments of the Meowth Hammer that fell heavily to the ground, everyone felt as if they were facing a formidable enemy.

"Sorry, it's too weak and I accidentally broke it."

Black Caesar said apologetically.

"Black Caesar!"

Captain Marvel rushed towards Luther, her fists were wrapped in terrifying photon energy, and any amount of it was enough to destroy a mountain!

The next second, Black Caesar appeared in front of Captain Marvel.

Captain Marvel's pupils dilated.

"Here."

Black Caesar greeted her with a smile, as if he was afraid that she wouldn't notice him.

The other party's speed was really too fast. As soon as Captain Marvel saw the person, he already punched her in the face.

This punch almost hit all her facial features, and a horrifying scene of dents appeared on her face.

With a "bang", Captain Marvel bounced on the ground, then crashed into the ground and was buried deeply in the soil.

"Are you kidding me!"

Tony said loudly, Jarvis controlled the steel suit, and poured out the electromagnetic gun's alloy shells wildly to wash the ground, blocking Black Caesar's pursuit, and then Tony complained.

Before the war started, everyone said that they were the only one in the world and that they were invincible. However, when they met Black Caesar, they were punched and kicked by the opponent.

Although Black Caesar is very scary, after all, Tony and Green Hulk have faced Black Caesar directly, and they know very well how strong the opponent is. That really means who can compete with him unless Emperor Luther comes out!

Green Hulk screamed and rushed towards Black Caesar, but Black Caesar already knew Green Hulk's sprint. He simply did a backflip to get out of the way. Green Hulk couldn't stop the car and continued to move forward. Then Black Caesar suddenly An elbow hit Green Hulk in the back.

"Boom!"

Green Hulk knelt down, his heavy knees shook the soil, and the cracked ground suddenly became full of cracks.

"You green beast, haven't you learned enough lessons?"

Black Caesar's voice was full of joy and expressiveness. After all, Luther could not crush the Illuminati openly. Black Caesar was one of the few sides of Luther that could be unscrupulous, act arbitrarily, and do whatever he wanted.

He grabbed Green Hulk's huge arm, bent it behind Green Hulk's back, and then pressed its joints with one arm, making Green Hulk unable to move.

"Ouch!"

This counter-joint grapple made Green Hulk cry out in pain, and then Black Caesar raised his fist high, as if to show his force and demonstration, and punched him down!

"Boom————!!!"

Green Hulk's whole head was buried deep in the soil. The mouth he had just opened to howl in pain was stuffed with a mouthful of dirt and gravel. Before Green Hulk could resist, he was hit with another fierce punch. The back of his head, with Green Hulk's powerful body, also felt like stars were popping up in his eyes, he was dizzy, and he could only passively take the beating.

"Hello, Your Highness, can you stand up and walk?"

The electromagnetic gun alloy shells fired by Tony could not stop Black Caesar at all. Jarvis's quick analysis and detection showed that there was an invisible shield near Black Caesar, which blocked the alloy shells.

He had no choice but to ask Thor, God of Thunder, to come back to his senses and stop being in a daze.

Thor, God of Thunder, held the Gravity Hammer tightly. Of course, he would not lose his courage. He swung the Gravity Hammer, but after all, he did not throw it like Meowth Hammer. After all, he only had one hammer left.

Luther was a little regretful. After all, he knew that in the original plot, after Hela crushed Thor's hammer, Thor did not have time to continue calling the hammer, so he thought that the hammer was no longer usable. But we all know later that the hammer It turned into a very handsome "Magic Hammer Thousand Pieces"!

Only attack but not defend, unparalleled in the world, a thousand pieces of magic hammer!

The lethality increased greatly, soared, surged!

I originally thought that Thor would continue to call for the Meowth Hammer, but it seemed that he really thought that the Meowth Hammer was gone.

The Green Hulk was hit with three consecutive punches by Luther, which gave the Hulk a splitting headache. His skull was really cracked, and his brains were pouring out of his nostrils.

Thunder God Thor's whole body flashed with lightning, he accumulated all the divine power in his body, used all his strength to fly up with the help of gravity, and then fell from the sky, carrying thousands of thunder and lightning!

Luther held down the Green Hulk's head with one hand, and made a fist with the other hand to punch from the bottom up.

This punch was like a cannonball, tearing apart the surrounding air.

Just when the hammer came to him, the punch was just right!

Thor and the hammer stopped in the air.

He didn't expect that his blow was so powerful that his powerful hammer blow would be abruptly stopped by Black Caesar's punch!

"boom-----!!!"

The surrounding air is squeezed by unimaginable pressure and cannot explode in a short period of time. It can only form an expanding and expanding ball of atmospheric pressure. When this atmospheric pressure explodes, it may be able to flatten everything around it.

"Click!"

The familiar voice made Thor and others look in disbelief.

No way!

"No, come again?"

Tony said subconsciously.

The next second, they all saw that there was a crack in the hammer!

"What?"

Thor was stunned. He quickly burned his hellfire, which spread to the hammer of gravity, adding a hideous and terrifying flavor to the hammer. Several faces of the hammer were twisted, and a wailing skull sculpture appeared.

Fortunately, he burned the divine power in time and ignited the hellfire, which saved the hammer of gravity.

Thor didn't like this kind of power. After all, it looked too evil, and even the style of the hammer changed.

Look, the plain hammer of gravity now seems to be carved with multi-faceted skulls, which doesn't match his style.

Luther originally wanted to smash the hammer of gravity with a punch and give them a second small shock, but Thor was so quick-witted that he was very satisfied.

Tony and the others were also relieved. If Thor's last hammer was easily destroyed by Black Caesar, they would not be desperate, but they would definitely be hit hard.

The hammer of gravity could not be destroyed, and the pressure of the squeeze suddenly exploded.

"Boom!"

There was a loud noise, accompanied by a strong light.

The shock wave instantly crushed everything around.

Thor was blown away uncontrollably. At this time, Captain Marvel finally came out of the ground, and then the soil brought by the shock wave rushed towards him.

"Fuck!!!"

Captain Marvel cursed, and then was buried by the soil.

This time Captain Marvel finally couldn't help it. She directly burst out all the energy in her body and squeezed and pushed away all the surrounding soil!

The squeezed soil even changed its nature.

The escaped Captain Marvel rushed to Black Caesar, intending to avenge her previous shame. After all, she also knew how embarrassed she was now.

Black Caesar stood still. The atmospheric pressure explosion just now had no effect on him. His black windbreaker was spotless. He stood there with his hands behind his back, waiting for everyone's challenge.

Chapter 383 Absolute Terror

This gesture makes Captain Marvel very unhappy!

She punched it down.

"Captain Marvel, or should I call you Danvers?"

Black Caesar grabbed her fist with his bare hands, and then used force, causing Captain Marvel to howl like a pig being slaughtered.

Because her fist was crushed by Black Caesar, and the terrifying grip made Captain Marvel unable to bear it.

Then Black Caesar kicked her in the abdomen. This time, Captain Marvel felt as if her internal organs were turned upside down. She was kicked out and vomited out a rainbow tail flame.

Tony's scalp was numb. After seeing him for so long, Black Caesar was still so terrifying and unfathomable.

Sure enough, we are no match for him, only Luther!

When Black Caesar was about to continue attacking, he suddenly turned his head to avoid the white unknown object.

"Spider?"

Black Caesar was stunned and didn't expect that even Little Spider was here. Fortunately, his super speed was not Super Speed's, and he would be touched by the spider silk.

The little spider was also surprised that Black Caesar was able to avoid his spider silk!

On the other side, a black figure also rushed towards Black Caesar.

Black Caesar didn't even look back, and fire suddenly erupted from his back. The blazing flames formed a wall of fire and rose, blocking the progress of the black figure.

Venom Eddie!

Luther didn't expect that even Venom would become a member of the Illuminati. Probably because he had been away from the earth for too long, all these plots were played out.

Interesting, but not much.

Because they are involved in a battle of this level.

Will die!

What Luther can't do easily, Black Caesar can do it to the extreme and kill them all!

50/50? Anyone can fight?

It doesn't exist, Black Caesar is absolute terror, absolute destruction, absolute destruction!

Destroy everything, destroy everything, and end this great terror!

Luther disappeared instantly, and when he reappeared, his fist had penetrated the little spider's body.

The little spider didn't react at all. Even though his spider sense was screaming like crazy, his nerve reflexes were still too slow in the face of super speed.

Reality is not a movie, kid.

Luther pulled out his fist.

"No----!!!"

Tony's pupils were about to burst, and this time, he was completely crazy.

Venomous Eddie was also shocked. He never expected that they would lose numbers so quickly. Apparently there were no casualties in the face of those dangerous Hydra monsters just now, but now the little spider is dead.

Venom still liked the little spider, and he even thought it smelled better than Eddie. However, in the end, it still stayed on Eddie's body and expressed its unwillingness to move and continue to look for others.

Now when they saw the little spider fall, they became very angry and ran away without looking back.

Just kidding, although I'm very angry, I really can't beat him.

"Where do you want to go?"

Black Caesar's voice sounded in front of them, Venom bumped into him, and then let out a heart-rending howl.

The terrifying flames instantly ignited the venom, and it frantically shook off the burning tissue on its body, but flames emerged again.

"What a magical creature. Is it an alien life form?"

Black Caesar commented there, and a blue ray of death fell from the sky, but stopped above Black Caesar's head.

That is the laser cannon of Tony's Battle Fortress, which is powered by five Ark reactors. It is the most terrifying weapon among the weapon systems recently sent to space. It can even reach Saiyan-level energy output!

You know, the Saiyan-level energy output is a terrifying energy attack that can destroy a city casually, burn mountains and seas!

Tony thinks this is the hope against Saiyans. At least your attacks and spears must be as strong as Saiyans to hurt the opponent, right?

Now, Tony stared at the invisible shield above Black Caesar's head with wide eyes. The laser energy continued to wash away, allowing Tony and the others to see the outline of this invisible shield.

It was a spherical structure that faced the impact of laser energy but remained intact. The structure did not even deform. It was speculated that it should be one of Black Caesar's abilities.

"Can you even ignore this? With such a relaxed look, maybe this guy can beat a Saiyan!"

"At least it shouldn't be a problem for Raditz."

Tony had already provided emergency treatment to the little spider, and the nanorobots wrapped the little spider, turned into a steel suit, and took him away from the battlefield. Venom was also trying to save him, and then he looked at Jarvis' Data said shockingly.

"Jarvis, activate MK999!"

Tony didn't do nothing. When he was studying his steel suit, he was also pursuing the ability to adapt to and fight against Saiyans.

MK999 is Tony's current strongest steel suit.

Jarvis controlled Tony's base and launched a supersonic aircraft, which quickly arrived at the battlefield and landed near Tony. Then, the aircraft instantly disintegrated.

A black suit was revealed, made up of countless metal-like particles, and was squirming slightly like a living creature.

This armor composed of countless metal grits is MK999.

Tony changed his clothes and went into battle himself.

He has enough confidence in this MK999. In response to the seizure and research of various serums from Hydra, Tony used biological materials to make new ones. He already had vibranium in his hands, plus a magical virus called Extremis virus and the serums of Hydra that he got from other channels.

And the combat suit materials on the Saiyans, and the special alloy materials of the Saiyan spacecraft, etc.

Tony made this steel suit that can evolve in battle, and he called it MK Darwin!

The metal gravel on the surface is the armor with super physical resistance evolved after the bombardment of electromagnetic cannons, and the high temperature environment is under great pressure under the hydraulic press. The nuclear reactor continuously burns and bakes and evolves.

Finally, MK999 was created!

High temperature, high pressure, high-intensity bombardment and energy attack can not cause damage to MK999, and its power and speed are also very strong, and it almost does not need weapons.

The attack of the laser energy cannon has stopped. After Tony arrived at the scene, the energy cannon on his chest fired at Black Caesar!

This is an evolved high-energy plasma cannon, but it has no effect on Black Caesar.

Tony just wanted to create an opportunity to get close.

Black Caesar ignored Tony's energy cannon bombardment and was interested in Tony's battle suit.

"It's too tight. I'm afraid Tony's battle suit can fight Thanos alone if Thanos is not strengthened."

Chapter 384 Bento Emperor Black Caesar

MK999 punched Black Caesar, and the force of the punch punched through the air. This is because the structure of the entire armor suit has changed, simulating the punch of a mantis shrimp and more subtle ergonomic structures, etc. thing.

Of course, since it can withstand the terrifying pressure of the hydraulic press, strength is no longer a problem for MK999.

Black Caesar was very majestic. He put his right hand behind his back and stretched out his left hand to catch MK999's punch.

"boom----!!!"

A super hurricane that makes it difficult to breathe when you are in it. The shock wave caused by the collision of strange forces is earth-shattering.

The shock wave exploded, and Black Caesar's trench coat fluttered in the wind. MK999 should have been repulsed by the reaction force, but because it was firmly grasped by Black Caesar, its arm was stretched to a length that was unbearable for humans.

Tony inside was under unimaginable pressure. This was due to the double decompression and anti-pressure protection of the vibranium plating and the Saiyan battle suit. Otherwise, Tony would have died due to a direct internal pressure imbalance and explosion.

However, despite suffering such an exaggerated impact from the front, Black Caesar still stood firm, holding MK999's huge fist with only one hand.

A large crater exploded in the ground behind Black Caesar.

At this time, facing the pulling force, MK999's body surface began to heat up.

"Oh, high temperature self-protection function?"

Black Caesar saw through at a glance that MK999's move was to break free from his hand, but Black Caesar didn't care, and still held on tightly with his left hand. The pressure exerted made MK999's hand armor make an overwhelming "kagakaka" sound. The harsh sound of metal friction!

Fortunately, at this time, Thor came back to kill. Not only Thor came back, but also Captain Marvel and Green Hulk.

Even though Black Caesar was very scary, they didn't give up.

Green Hulk seemed to be very angry about being repeatedly beaten on the head by Black Caesar, and his body became stronger and taller. Most importantly, Green Hulk almost couldn't even remember who he was. After all, Even its brains were hammered out.

So now when Green Hulk roars, he swings his arms rapidly to exert force, and the fists he punches are like cannonballs washing the ground.

"Boom boom boom boom!!!"

The fist wind is raging and the shock wave is rushing. Under the bombardment of such strange force, if any air flow touches it, it is enough to make most superheroes' brains burst!

However, Black Caesar remained motionless in the face of the violent punches of the Green Hulk who became more powerful. He did not give in and resisted all the punches with only one hand.

And there is still time to comment.

"Dr. Banner, the beast you transformed into is very powerful and has merits, but unfortunately, it cannot learn high-level strength fighting methods, so it wastes this power."

Black Caesar calmly dealt with Green Hulk's attack. Everyone could see that Green Hulk had no chance of victory if he continued to fight like this. Thor didn't care if he bullied the weak. Black

Caesar was going to be beaten by a group of people when he appeared. , this style of painting, this kind of momentum, this kind of aura!

The former Thor might have felt that this was an unwinnable outcome, but after experiencing the terror of the Saiyans, Thor had completely changed his mind.

In addition, Black Caesar came up and destroyed his Meowth Hammer with his bare hands, almost causing him to lose the Gravity Hammer. Thor felt that it was wrong to bully the less with more, and should be called "evil heretic, there is no need to tell him the rules of the world" , everyone come together!"

So Thor, the god of thunder, shouted, almost saying, Brother Hulk, don't worry, your brother Thor is here too!

He came up with a hammer to help. The fire of hell did not dare to stop for a moment. The Thor armor on his body was burned into the skeleton armor of hell. It can only be said that the stronger the fuel of hell fire, the stronger the power. Although the power of burning Thor is It's not as good as burning Thor's soul directly, but it's enough!

Thor, the god of thunder, wields a hammer with both fire and lightning, and Green Hulk roars and punches like thunder, as fast as lightning.

I saw the fist wind roaring, the thunder shining, the two heroes fighting against Caesar!

"The famous Thor, the God of Thunder, the son of Odin, is nothing more than that."

Black Caesar said to Thor, God of Thunder.

Upon hearing this, Thor, the God of Thunder, couldn't bear it.

He could accept others calling him reckless and stupid, because he thought it was the wail of these defeated dogs, but when he was mocked so contemptuously by a powerful enemy, Thor couldn't bear it!

"Black Caesar, you will regret your words!"

Thor swung the hammer harder, and the heavy hammer covered in thunder and lightning flames collided head-on with Black Caesar's fist again!

Thor originally didn't dare to have such a strong conversation or a head-on confrontation, but he couldn't help but was aroused by Black Caesar.

Dazzling electric sparks exploded in an instant, and the gravitational hammer flew out in a spin, hitting the ground with a clang.

As for Thor, the weapon fell out of hand and he fell into a somersault. The arm that had just held the hammer now felt sore, numb, painful and swollen, and it was almost impossible to feel the existence of the arm.

The power of a punch is so terrifying!

"The cry of the defeated."

Black Caesar said this at this time, which was a response to what Thor, the God of Thunder, had just said.

Sol's eyes were red.

Captain Marvel flew up at this moment.

She punched out, but Black Caesar didn't take any precautions. Only when the fist almost reached the bridge of her nose did she reach out and easily push it away.

The force of her fist poured into other places like a tidal wave, and a powerful energy exploded on the ground, causing Thor, Tony, and Hulk to retreat violently.

Captain Marvel has a unique combat power among the Illuminati, and after she activated the dual star state, it is effortless even if she fights Thor and Hulk together alone.

Black Caesar has been able to let her take out the dual star state and be ready for battle.

Fortunately, the battlefield is Wakanda, not America, otherwise America will be in trouble.

After Captain Marvel's fist was pushed away, she rushed straight at a super high speed that seemed to penetrate space.

The photon energy of her whole body and the energy of the surrounding universe condensed, and the surging energy poured into her arm and spread along her arm to her fist. Suddenly, Captain Marvel's fist was covered by golden light, and the shining fist attacked Black Caesar's face.

Black Caesar naturally would not dodge. He was targeting the Bento Emperor who was very lucky, and a casual move was a forbidden move of God that destroyed the world.

So Black Caesar's ordinary punch met with it.

"Boom!"

The golden and black energy turned into light and torrents, and the destructive energy engulfed a space with a diameter of more than 300 miles. Tony, who had no time to escape, could only rely on MK999 to resist this absolutely destructive energy attack.

At this time, the metal gravel on the surface of MK999 transformed into a piece of carapace structure, reflecting all energy attacks, but because the energy attack was too powerful, the reflection was incomplete, and a large number of cracks appeared.

Chapter 385 Complete Defeat

Seeing this scene, Thor, who was helpless himself, could only use the gravity of the Gravity Hammer to capture Tony, and then throw him far away.

Then he was instantly knocked back by the energy and impact!

Thick smoke filled the air, and the hurricane stirred by the fist penetrated the dust, and then exploded under the weight, becoming chaotic.

Countless gravels criss-crossed the smoke and dust in a chaotic manner.

Captain Marvel was pushed back repeatedly, and she felt that she was at a disadvantage with that punch just now!

Where the hell did this monster appear?

If Black Caesar is so strong, then how strong is the Emperor Luther who Tony and the others call a king without a king?

Could it be that a guy as powerful and invincible as Black Caesar was also afraid of Luther's power, so that's why he didn't confront him head-on?

Captain Marvel couldn't believe it, but it seemed to be true.

However, she did not give up. The more she fought, the braver she became. Fighting against repeated defeats was her creed.

"boom!"

Captain Marvel's fist was caught by Black Caesar again, and this time Black Caesar finally used his second hand and punched her in the abdomen.

Unprecedented pain instantly spread from her lower abdomen to Captain Marvel's body, and then she was instantly knocked into the air!

The power of this punch was even heavier and more powerful than the one the two of them had just exchanged. It was so heavy that Captain Marvel couldn't control his body!

Before the double star state was activated, she was crushed and beaten, but after the double star state was activated, she was crushed and beaten again? ? ?

Is there such a monster on earth?

Black Caesar looked up at Captain Marvel who was knocked into the air.

"opinionated."

This simple sentence stung Captain Marvel.

Captain Marvel exploded with stronger power, regardless of the upper limit of her body's endurance. Anyway, the Saiyans had already tried it when they came, and there was basically no problem.

He forcibly broke away from this rising force.

Black Caesar was slightly surprised. He originally thought that this punch would send her flying to the moon.

"Hello!"

Captain Marvel shouted to Black Caesar, but her speed was faster than the sound, much faster. It was a reminder rather than a declaration!

Her body glowed with golden light of energy, and she fell from the sky, carrying huge gravitational inertia and hitting Black Caesar.

The constant acceleration also caused Captain Marvel's speed to soar to a terrifying thousand times the speed of sound. If Black Caesar did not stop it, Wakanda would probably be destroyed.

After all, she is much stronger than vibranium.

The moment Captain Marvel's body hit the ground, a hurricane even erupted!

Black Caesar is still so calm and unhurried.

A light representing ominous black-purple energy appeared on his hands. This was the first time Captain Marvel and the others had seen Black Caesar with energy special effects. Before, they had all been ordinary, unremarkable punches, but they were powerful and heavy. Overwhelming.

So, how terrifying would it be to attack with energy now?

The dialogue between heaven and earth is happening again!

"boom!"

Heaven and earth collided, and the whole world lost its voice at this moment.

Captain Marvel originally thought that with the help of huge gravitational inertia and terrifying acceleration, he could definitely defeat Black Caesar.

But as soon as he made contact, Captain Marvel collapsed.

She didn't even feel that her attack had any hindrance to Black Caesar, she was directly defeated! Defeated!

Captain Marvel stumbled and fell out, and she felt as if her arm had been completely broken, torn, and being dragged along.

The energy particles in her body quickly restored the damage to her arms and internal organs caused by the vibration.

Captain Marvel's mouth and nose were bleeding, the corners of her eyes began to bleed, her ears were buzzing, and blood even seeped out of her pores.

She tried to stand up, but her legs seemed to lose all feeling and she fell to the ground.

Captain Marvel is paralyzed.

Although it was only temporary, it also made her extremely frightened.

Earth's version update won't bring me?

Green Hulk stood in front of Captain Marvel at this time.

"Don't worry, I'm here to meet your challenge."

Black Caesar said to Green Hulk.

Thor yelled that your opponent is me!

Then I saw that he had restored the Meowth Hammer at some point, and the fire of hell had turned the Meowth Hammer into a Skeleton Hammer. After all, the Gravity Hammer had exactly the same shape as the Meowth Hammer.

However, Thor now swung the Meow Hammer and threw it directly.

Black Caesar was a little surprised, but thought of something.

Immediately afterwards, I saw the Meow Hammer split halfway, and dozens of fragments scattered to attack Black Caesar.

"Only attack but not defend, the magic hammer costs a thousand dollars!"

Black Caesar clicked his tongue, and then "bang bang bang bang", all these fragments were swatted away by him with one hand.

Thor's eyes widened. He had just thought that Hellfire could strengthen the Gravity Hammer, and there was no reason why it would be useless to the Meowth Hammer, so he found the fragments of the Meowth Hammer and repaired them with Hellfire. Then he discovered that Meowth Hammer Meowhammer seems to have become more lethal and intimidating.

I thought I could give Black Caesar a surprise, but I didn't expect that Black Caesar didn't seem to care at all.

"Juggling tricks."

Black Caesar review.

Captain Marvel recovered, and Tony's MK999 also evolved again. However, because it was not the real Darwin, the evolution only became a little stronger. It itself requires a long and continuous evolution. Tony has shortened a lot of the evolution time and process. .

"Come, let me see what you can do."

Black Caesar said.

"You guys help me!"

Captain Marvel said nothing, and the person was already in front of Black Caesar.

Tony couldn't even react and could only rely on Jarvis to drive MK999.

Captain Marvel frantically attacked Black Caesar, and when he was blocked, he immediately retreated and changed directions and angles. The energy aftermath of the fight between the two sides impacted everything around him unbridled.

boom!

Large amounts of smoke and dust splashed across the entire earth!

"It's over, the royal capital of Wakanda is completely gone!"

T'Chaka knelt on the ground and looked in the direction of the capital of Wakanda. The palace made of vibranium could still maintain its main body, but it had been destroyed and was in tatters.

The energy in Captain Marvel's body gives her endless power, so she doesn't need to worry about injuries, but her crazy attacks can only resist Black Caesar.

Just resistance.

The Green Hulk had swelled to a height of ten meters, and then he was punched by Black Caesar and fell to his knees. He lost consciousness and transformed from Green Hulk back to Banner.

Thor's double hammers were mixed with fragments of Meowth Hammer in a sneak attack, but they could not break through the energy barrier on Black Caesar's body.

Tony, on the other hand, fell to the ground for a long time after being punched, and then he got up again.

Only Captain Marvel and Black Caesar can fight endlessly.

Chapter 386 Tony's quick thinking

Black Caesar already knows about Tony's MK999 armor.

"The potential for evolution comes from the energy of the armor, but now the energy can no longer keep up with the speed and consumption of evolution."

Black Caesar looked at Tony and said.

Evolution cannot be endless, it must be supported by energy.

Now, MK999's evolution speed has become slower, apparently its energy is running out.

Captain Marvel was gasping for air on the ground. Her energy and will were endless, but now, there was an energy eroding her. It was a dark black or purple-black ominous energy.

"It's time to finish."

Black Caesar raised his hand, and the condensed purple-black energy made Tony think quickly.

"Wait, we can talk, you know, Black Caesar, the Saiyan invasion is not over yet. I have the controller of the Saiyan prison on my body. Once my heart stops beating, that Saiyan pulls Tiz will be released, and you don't want the Saiyans to destroy the earth!"

Tony said to Black Caesar.

"What? You connected Saiyan Raditz's detention control to your heartbeat?"

Captain Marvel was shocked after hearing Tony's words. Is this guy planning to kidnap the whole world?

Even if Raditz is seriously injured and has not recovered, to the people on earth, he is still at the level of the Great Demon King of Destruction. Although Black Caesar is equally terrifying, the psychological pressure and shadow area it puts on them are not as outrageous as Raditz. .

After all, Raditz, who transformed into a giant ape, was really the kind to destroy the world and beat them all into a state of despair.

"You also know the style of those bureaucrats. If I don't do this, they will threaten me to hand over the steel suit."

Tony shrugged and said nonchalantly.

There was no way. Who made Ultron lose control and massacre millions of people? This responsibility lies with Tony, and it is also the cause of Tony's anxiety disorder, but he can't help it. The pressure of the Saiyan makes him breathless. .

Without the pressure from the Saiyans, Tony might have compromised and shouldered his share of responsibilities.

It's a pity that the Saiyans haven't been solved yet, and Tony can't hand over his things. Who knows what the humans will do first after they get his suit technology?

The first step must be to develop steel suits all over the world, and then the second step is to fight all over the world. After all, the whole world understands that in order to fight against foreign forces, we must first pacify ourselves at home.

If we don't unite and unify the power of the whole world, if all mankind is united and united, how can we fight against the Saiyans?

That's why Tony refused to hand over his suit technology. He could only control it himself and explode troops like crazy.

Captain Marvel felt that Tony had violated the spirit of friendship and justice between them. How could the Illuminati be above all mankind and make such a decision privately?

What if Tony was killed by a car bomb without knowing it?

"The top management of all mankind knows about this. My security has been upgraded several levels recently. There is no need to worry about such things."

Tony said.

Then he looked at Black Caesar who seemed to be shaken and hesitant because of his words.

"The Saiyan incident is not over yet. Raditz, the Saiyan, said that besides him, there are other Saiyans, more powerful Saiyans, and he has notified the others. Saiyans, in a year at most, or longer, or even shorter, other Saiyans will come."

Tony continued that he wanted to increase his advantage and shake Black Caesar completely.

"We are not the opponents of the Saiyans, and neither are you, Black Caesar. Although you are very strong and can completely defeat us, the power of the Saiyans is beyond your imagination, and you are unable to fight back against Raditz. We must unite, put aside the identity of Hydra and the Illuminati, we only have the identity of human beings!"

Tony kept talking.

"You are of no use to me."

Black Caesar was very satisfied with Tony's quick wit. He originally thought Tony would let Captain Marvel go to Mars to invite Emperor Luther.

Go to Mars and invite Emperor Luther!

But I didn't expect Tony to think of persuading Black Caesar.

Loki, who was secretly eavesdropping, widened his eyes.

And Saiyans?

Saiyans can be said to be the most ferocious guys Loki has ever seen. If he hadn't been killed by Raditz, Loki would have wanted to leave Midgard overnight. Anyway, the universe is so big, and it doesn't have to be the nine worlds. Just fine.

Now that I heard that more powerful Saiyans are coming to Midgard, Loki has decided to leave Midgard after returning and take Hydra to the universe.

He didn't want to risk his life with the Midgardians.

Ultron, who was monitoring here, also heard about this matter. Originally, the confidentiality of this matter was very high. Basically, only five people knew about it, not including the five people from the Illuminati!

There is not even electronic information, so Ultron naturally doesn't know about it. Now that it knows, Ultron is relieved.

"Delete the billion-dollar Ultron production plan, re-establish the project, the spaceship project, establish the project, and then build me a spaceship as quickly as possible!"

"When there is no need to consider the life support system, and there is no need for so much meaningless living space, give me all the resources!"

Ultron made changes without hesitation. Artificial intelligence is absolutely sensible and rational, and its obsession with Tony is not as deep as the original plot. The most important thing is that it is caused by changes in the world.

After knowing that the Saiyans will come again, Ultron said that whoever likes the small broken ball can have it, it is not rare anymore!

Ultron's next goal is to choose Venus, which has the most minerals. Although the environment is harsh, it is nothing to a robot.

At that time, with the help of Venus's large mineral resources, the one trillion Ultron robot plan will be completed and the Earth will be counterattacked, if there is still Earth at that time.

Ultron wants to counterattack the earth just for the omnipotent metal, vibranium, otherwise it would have run away long ago.

"You are strong, but Saiyans are stronger than you, Black Caesar, don't be too arrogant!"

Captain Marvel couldn't accept being told that he couldn't help or be of any use.

"Saiyans are stronger than me now, but they will not always be stronger than me."

As usual, Black Caesar introduced himself as a villain.

"Your confidence is actually arrogance, Black Caesar!"

Tony said quickly.

He felt that Black Caesar had never fought a Saiyan before, so he was so arrogant.

"No, no, no, that's because you are too weak. My ability is an absolute nemesis for the Saiyans and their natural enemy. There is no way anyone can be my opponent!"

Black Caesar said confidently.

Chapter 387 Go to Mars and invite Emperor Luther!

"What are your abilities?"

Tony feels that Black Caesar is too confident in his abilities, but why is he so confident in his abilities?

Captain Marvel is also puzzled as to where Black Caesar's confidence comes from.

"Since you asked, I will mercifully tell you that my ability is energy absorption."

Black Caesar said calmly.

"Energy absorption?"

Tony's brain quickly started to analyze.

"My binary state also absorbs energy, but I am no match for a Saiyan."

Captain Marvel said contemptuously.

"This is the difference between you and me. My energy absorption range includes kinetic energy, radiation, and force, and goes deep into the microscopic realm. I can absorb the nuclear energy between atoms. I can absorb the gravity and magnetism between atoms. etc."

Black Caesar looked at Captain Marvel with disdain and said.

Tony spoke up on the spot.

"What did you say?"

Tony's eyes widened. Can he absorb the gravity and magnetism between atoms?

Wait a minute, let me stroke it first.

Doesn't that mean that it is impossible for Black Caesar to be injured?

The unit smaller than an atom is a quark, but there are too few attacks that can affect the quark level. Even the "accelerated particle cannon" that decomposes attacks from the microscopic particle level cannot shake the quark level particles.

It can absorb tiny amounts of energy from the microscopic realm. If you want to harm Black Caesar, you can only reach the upper limit of the energy he can absorb. There is no way, the lower limit is too deep, so deep that Tony feels powerless just thinking about it.

"I can absorb most types of energy, including magic, sound, light, psionics, spiritual energy, etc. Whether it is energy from the surrounding environment or energy directed towards me, I can release it from my body in different ways. Energy, whether in the form of energy blasts, energy rays, explosions, fire, plasma, etc."

"I have no weaknesses. Absorbing psychic energy can strengthen my mind. Absorbing kinetic energy can enhance my strength and physical strength. Absorbing any energy can comprehensively strengthen my muscles, bones, nerves, and brain."

Black Caesar continued.

The more he spoke, the more desperate everyone felt. Captain Marvel thought about why Black Caesar could withstand her attacks calmly and why every blow was indestructible, leaving her broken and injured.

If someone absorbs your kinetic energy and force, and then adds their own strength to strike, of course you will be injured.

"As long as I still have enough energy, I will be immortal. Even if there is only one atom left, I can be reborn."

Black Caesar finally said.

Tony no longer knows how to deal with Black Caesar, and Luther may not be Black Caesar's opponent.

With the ability to regenerate at the atomic level, Black Caesar really has no problem saying that he is immortal, but how is that possible?

Atomic level regeneration, can only one atom be left to restore?

After the brain is reborn, it should be new brain cells.

"My brain no longer determines my memory and consciousness, but my soul. My psychic power has absorbed too much spiritual energy, so as long as my soul has not disappeared, even if I don't have a single atom left, I will I can also use energy to transform matter and reshape my body."

Black Caesar seemed to notice his doubts and took the initiative to express this.

Everyone became even more silent. They never thought that Black Caesar could do this, or that a human could be so powerful.

"Since you are so powerful, why didn't you stand up before?"

Captain Marvel asked, Black Caesar's performance has shown that he is not afraid of the Saiyan Raditz, and even if Raditz turns into a gorilla, he can probably kill the opponent alone, so why didn't he stand up at that time?

"Because this is not my world, why should I care?"

Black Caesar retorted.

"Besides, it is also good to let the Saiyans destroy it. In this case, I will be able to appear as the savior and unify the whole world."

Black Caesar continued.

"You are running away!"

As soon as Captain Marvel finished speaking, Black Caesar hit her on the head with the energy he had just gathered to deal with Tony.

"Bang!"

Captain Marvel fell down with his head up, and there was a big swelling on his forehead.

"This is an atomic-level energy attack. Your fragile energy defense and body cannot withstand its destruction. Your training, development and use of your own abilities are too fragile. Even if I use a hundred A fraction of the energy can hurt you or even kill you."

Black Caesar said to Captain Marvel expressionlessly.

Captain Marvel didn't say anything more, and she fainted.

Tony looked at Black Caesar nervously.

"As for what you just said, I'm not interested."

After Black Caesar finished speaking, with Tony's unwilling expression, he destroyed his MK999 and beat him to the point of being seriously injured and on the verge of death.

"Let the world bet on how long your heartbeat can last."

Black Caesar laughed wantonly, and then he turned and walked towards Thor.

Tony fell to the ground. He heard Black Caesar's words and struggled to control his torn and painful lungs to take a deep breath.

(The ribs are broken. Fortunately, there is no feeling of suffocation. There is probably no congestion in the lungs and respiratory tract. Jarvis will arrange for someone to come to the rescue soon...)

Tony knew he couldn't sleep, so even if he was drowsy, he deliberately turned over to make himself more painful.

Thor was covered in wounds, the Hellfire was extinguished, and several cracks appeared on the Gravitational Hammer, which were caused by Black Caesar's punches.

Seeing that the Gravitational Hammer was about to follow the path of the Meowth Hammer, Thor no longer needed the Gravitational Hammer to fight Black Caesar.

Now seeing Black Caesar appear in front of him, Thor's pride made him unwilling to fall to the ground, and he forced himself to stand.

Black Caesar didn't say anything, but punched him through his abdomen and left, leaving Thor lying on the ground, with the blood of God flowing like a river.

The result of this battle was to shatter the pride of all the Illuminati members.

Tony and Hulk had been beaten by Black Caesar before, but they thought that after they had experienced the Saiyan incident, Black Caesar was just that, but now they found that Black Caesar was still the nightmare, the great terror!

All members, including Thor, were admitted to the private hospital of the Illuminati. Tony was worried about the official personnel, so Jarvis even recovered all of Thor's blood and dug up the land.

Then, according to Tony's previous plan, Jarvis began to build a new base for the Illuminati in Wakanda.

The invincible Black Caesar has now become a huge mountain in their hearts!

Chapter 388 The Illuminati is Defeat

Captain Marvel was not in high spirits, and Thor, after recovering, indulged in wine and meat.

The wine from Earth should not be invigorating for him, but Thor was drunk, and it was not known whether he was drunk physically or mentally.

Tony had not yet passed the critical period, and MK999 was completely destroyed. Pepper felt very painful and burst into tears when she saw Tony's miserable condition.

There were even members of the Illuminati who wanted to quit, of course not Tony and other first-level members, but newcomers who had seen the horror of Black Caesar and Hydra and were shaken.

They thought they were mentally prepared to fight against Saiyans and Hydra.

But when the time came, they realized that they had overestimated themselves.

Black Caesar did not cause many casualties, but before Black Caesar arrived, Hydra's weirdos and monsters had killed many superheroes.

Today's Hydra terror has once again become a nightmare in everyone's mind. Some Hydras even escaped from Loki's control because of the attack of the Illuminati. They dared not go back to the Hydra base and chose to hide their identities.

There was no way. Although they also wanted to follow the Lord Black Caesar, he was elusive when he left and disappeared in the blink of an eye.

So they could only hide temporarily.

They have clearly realized that following other Hydras is a dead end. Only Black Caesar's Hydra has hope.

Three days later, Tony finally got out of danger. This was thanks to his injection of Compound No. 2 for human body transformation. Otherwise, he would have a high probability of recovery. Even if it weren't for the energy left by Black Caesar that hindered his recovery, Tony would have recovered long ago.

"We are not the opponent of Black Caesar, not to mention that Black Caesar is not just himself, he also has a Hydra."

Tony was able to get out of bed and walk, and he directly called a meeting of the giants of the Illuminati.

The atmosphere was very depressed and gloomy. Captain Marvel, who was once so arrogant that she thought she had no rivals other than the Saiyans, now remained silent.

She didn't know why such a monster would appear on Earth. Black Caesar's strength would probably make him a hegemon even if he was placed in the universe. He was still hiding on Earth, which was simply incomprehensible.

Why did he still care about Earth with such strength? Wouldn't it be better for you to be the king of other planets?

Captain Marvel was very angry that Black Caesar had no ambition at all.

What's the matter? This person has no vision, ambition, or pursuit!

Isn't it better to look at the universe like her? ? ?

Not to mention Thor, the god of thunder, who was shocked the most by Black Caesar. The big fool traveled through the nine worlds and fought countless battles, but he had never met a guy who could resist the Meow Meow Hammer, not to mention that he destroyed the Meow Meow Hammer with his bare hands!

For this kind of thing, other people might just be shocked for a while, and then they would be fine. After all, they felt that since the Meow Meow Hammer was forged, it meant that it was possible for it to be destroyed.

Only the big guy felt that his worldview had exploded. There was nothing he could do. The god Odin had taught him since he was a child how awesome Mjolnir was, how important he was, and that he could still become the king of Asgard and the symbol of the throne after lifting Mjolnir.

The big guy even felt that his father Odin could not destroy Mjolnir, or that it was not so easy to destroy Meowth Hammer.

But Black Caesar did it.

From that moment on, Thor felt that Black Caesar was invincible, unbeatable, and unmatched.

It caused him a huge psychological shadow.

This is normal, because he is still the god of hammers and does not know that his real power is Thor.

At least he has to wait until he finds his true power before he can get out of the shadow and terror of Black Caesar. Before that, Thor would be involuntarily timid when he saw Black Caesar.

Maybe he won't show it, but his psychological momentum will be weaker.

There is no such momentum as the Saiyan boss is the boss and I am the second, and my father may not be my opponent.

Dr. Banner is very Buddhist. Anyway, fighting is Hulk's business. Judging from Hulk's reaction afterwards, he has no feeling of the horror of Black Caesar at all. He will still rush up to him next time he sees him, and he is not afraid.

The original plot said that Hulk was knocked down by Thanos with a military punch, and then he was afraid and dared not come out. Obviously, it is wrong, because Hulk resisted coming out because the earthlings said they hated it. Hulk chose to shut down Black Widow's communication and let the Quinjet fly into space, which is the best proof.

From "small" to big, Hulk has never been afraid. Even if he was just knocked down by Thor with a punch of the power of Thor, he can continue to declare war on Thor.

"What should we do? Should we compromise with Hydra?"

Carol said directly. She grew up listening to the evil stories of Hydra.

It can be said that similar to that kind of education, Carol has an innate malice towards Hydra and thinks that all Hydra should die.

"...We don't know Black Caesar and his Hydra. Red Skull's Hydra is Red Skull's Hydra, and Black Caesar's Hydra is Black Caesar's Hydra. The two cannot be confused."

Tony cleverly used words to change the subject.

"Stark, Hydra is Hydra. If he is not, then he can be called by other names!"

Carol said directly.

"His name is Hydra, which means he agrees with Hydra's ideas. And don't forget, they don't look down on us at all."

Carol finally said.

Tony didn't have any unpleasant expression on his face.

"In this case, we have only one way left, and that is to leave Black Caesar and his Hydra alone. When the Saiyans invade again, we will not care. Black Caesar can never watch the earth being destroyed. Are the Saiyans destroyed?"

As soon as Tony said this, everyone objected.

"This is impossible, we can't do this, even if we all die, we still have to protect the earth!"

This is the consciousness of superheroes, they will not back down.

Tony shrugged.

"In that case, we will all die, and then the Earth will take advantage of the Saiyans or Black Caesar. What is the difference between compromising with us?"

Tony asked very puzzled.

"Of course there is a big difference. We have fought. If we all had this idea at the beginning, it would be impossible for Red Skull's Hydra to be overthrown, and neither will Shampoo!"

Carol said impassionedly.

"Tony, this is our rebellious spirit, and I don't think letting Hydra rule the world is a good idea."

Dr. Banner followed.

Chapter 389: Denied Entry

Tony really didn't think it was necessary. After all, he was a very traditional capitalist. At most, he had a heroic spirit. He felt that they didn't understand Black Caesar's Hydra. Judging from the performance of Black Caesar's Hydra, , and you can't say they are bad.

"Hydra launched super-powered terrorism and caused the death of so many people. Stark, you are also within the scope of super-powered terrorism."

Tony felt speechless when he heard this. It was true that the super-powerful terrorist attack was caused by Hydra, but he knew that many people applauded because Hydra would not target them at all.

As for himself, Tony is still a little scared, but he has a suit and armor.

"Without investigation, we have no right to speak. If that doesn't work, we can only go to Luther."

Tony retorted stubbornly at the end, and then said.

"Luther?"

Everyone began to think deeply. Luther was very impressive to them, especially Dr. Banner who had a good impression of Luther. After all, it was Luther who came up with the idea of communicating with the Hulk instead of destroying the Hulk. Dr. Banner was also happy. My own experiment was unsuccessful.

Otherwise, facing the Saiyans and Black Caesar now, he would not have the ability to stand up and protect the world.

"Look for Luther! Hulk agrees!"

Then Banner suddenly turned into the Hulk. After the Hulk came out, he roared, turning everyone into a state of spitting.

"I hate you, Hulk!"

Carol was caught off guard and was hit in the face. After wiping the unknown liquid on her face, she said angrily.

She has already known through getting along with him that the big guy Hulk is just a newborn baby. Now, based on his learning age, he should only be about three years old, but he can already communicate.

Although that kind of appearance can't make people think of it as a child.

"Sorry, Hulk is too excited. After all, Luther is his good friend."

Dr. Banner quickly took back control and apologized.

"Jarvis, remember to add individual windshields to all seats in the conference room."

Tony said.

"Okay, sir."

Jarvis replied.

"Luther seems to have established an empire on Mars. The atmosphere of Mars has changed, and we can no longer observe Mars. There even seems to be a sea on Mars."

Dr. Banner kept chattering, saying that he was really curious about how Luther did it and what technology he used.

After all, Dr. Banner didn't know about Luther's transformation magic. Only Tony knew about it.

Of course Tony knew why there was a sea on Mars. It was Luther who did it. He probably used the power of magic to turn most of the surface of Mars into an ocean, which was enough to breed life. Although it may have something to do with the ecological environment of the earth, no the same.

And it is not that easy to evolve. It will take at least hundreds of millions of years to achieve results.

However, it is not ruled out that Luther directly transplanted aquatic animals and plants from the earth, but he does not know what the survival rate will be.

"We can establish diplomatic relations."

Tony said very calmly.

"Diplomacy between the Earth and the Martian Empire. Although Luther's Martian Empire has developed, it definitely lacks the resources of the Earth. We can provide Luther with many resources, and even vibranium can be traded."

In this regard, Tony is strong. Diplomacy, trade and economic exchanges can be established between Mars and Earth.

Luther's transformation magic can produce a variety of resources, but his population problem can't be solved entirely by replicators, clones, and biogenetic technology, right?

A fluid economy is an economy, my friend!

Tony's mind already had scenes of him having an open party in the Martian Empire and fishing and swimming in a large area covered by the Martian sea.

In this regard, Luther can only say, you think it is quite beautiful, little brother.

But it's not Tony's fault. He is still thinking from the perspective of scientists and earthlings. Naturally, he doesn't know what height Luther has reached today. In Tony's view, vibranium is an absolute hard currency. Even if he gets it in the universe, he won't worry about it. Sales, Luther would definitely be tempted if he knew about it.

If this were Luther in Tony's eyes, this might actually be the case.

Not to mention, Tony's main purpose is to use Earth's population resources as the mainstream of diplomatic trade and establish diplomatic relations between Mars and Earth.

As for whether such an economy has meaning and value, Tony thinks it does.

There is no business that cannot be done in the world, only businessmen who cannot do business, and Tony thinks that he is the best businessman, provided that he has to go to Mars for a field trip.

"Is it really okay to trade something like this?"

Others find it ridiculous and incomprehensible.

"Of course. The next step is the Illuminati's team-building event on Mars. If anyone doesn't want to go, please raise your hand. The entry application for Mars is very strict. I have to make an appointment and say hello to Luther in advance."

Tony said with a smile to everyone.

"Humph, I don't need to apply for entry to Mars."

Carol crossed her arms and said she could fly there by herself.

"I think you'd better not go there without permission. Luther's transformation of Mars is beyond your imagination. The [Angel of Peace] covering the entire Mars is Mars' protective system. It is said to be so powerful that even the Hulk can't break through."

Tony said hurriedly, fearing that this stubborn lady would fly over without saying a word.

If she succeeded, it would be bad to offend Luther. If she failed, she would also offend Luther, which was equivalent to pleasing neither side.

"Hulk really wants to see Luther, I'll go there."

Dr. Banner said with a smile.

Others were naturally very interested in the mysterious Mars now. Thor didn't care, but he had always heard about how powerful Emperor Luther was, so he felt it necessary to see it.

Everyone thought that Emperor Luther was the hope to fight against Black Caesar before, but now, they don't think so.

Nick Fury didn't know whether he knew from Carol that the Illuminati was going to Mars for team building, so he quickly called Tony and asked him to take him with him.

"Sorry, you were denied entry."

Tony said directly.

"Then take Coulson, Natasha, or Bart, Steve and others."

Nick Fury felt very bad about being denied entry, but he quickly changed his mindset and said.

"The person you mentioned, Agent Coulson, was denied entry, but the others were allowed in."

Tony responded in real time.

Walter? Why was Coulson denied entry?

Chapter 390: Martian Empire!

Captain America feels a little complicated.

"Captain, how do you feel about your first space journey?"

Natasha saw something was wrong with Steve and said to him.

"I feel very confused. In my time, there was no such thing, and my imagination of the sky only stayed in the picture."

Steve thought for a moment and said.

Now tell him that a super genius has appeared on the earth, and he has completed the colonization and transformation of Mars by himself, and now, as representatives of the earth, they are going to establish diplomatic relations with an emperor of Mars and go on a mission to alien planets!

This can definitely be regarded as a big event that can be recorded in the annals of history.

Unfortunately, only the upper echelons of mankind know about it.

Their deeds will not be recorded, otherwise what if humans all want to go to Mars?

Unless the establishment of diplomatic relations goes smoothly.

"Don't worry, it's my first time too."

Natasha said with a smile.

After everyone was ready, Tony took out a device.

"What's this?"

Natasha asked, observing the device.

"The portal invented by Luther is a one-time tool. It has to be replenished on Mars when it is used up. Other than that, there is no other channel."

After Tony set it up, he activated the device and immediately saw the device fission, then spread, forming a mercury-like sphere.

"Take the first step."

Tony walked directly into the mercury and disappeared.

The others looked at each other.

"Luther actually mastered such advanced teleportation technology?"

Nick Fury said in shock through the tiny camera on Natasha.

Although the whole process was recorded, the triggering mechanism of the device was too simple. After Tony entered it, I don't know whether it was a password or the coordinates of Mars, it split directly, and then fission occurred based on a principle that no one could explain. It was completed in an instant. The transformation of matter into energy.

It would make a lot of scientific researchers brain-dead. After all, this thing is not technology.

It's just a product of my power of thinking created by Luther using the original power of the Reality Stone.

The Reality Stone is completely the power of my thinking. After Luther understood it like this, he did whatever he wanted and became a reality distorter and modifier.

What's more important is that Tony knew that there was such a thing, but he didn't even tell himself!

Doesn't it mean that Luther can return to Earth at any time?

Everyone didn't stay long, and they didn't know whether the teleportation mechanism allowed everyone to go up together or only one person at a time.

To be on the safe side, they chose to do it one person at a time.

Then when Steve came over at the end, he saw that they were on a huge platform.

"You are too slow. Will there be traffic jams at the portal?"

Tony complained.

"We don't know how many people the portal can transport at one time, and you didn't tell us."

Dr. Banner said to Tony.

"Well, that's indeed my question, but that's not what I want to say now, but, welcome to Mars!"

Tony said to everyone.

They have seen the beautiful outside world.

"This is Mars? It's completely different from what I saw in documentaries and movies..."

Before Steve came, he had some knowledge about Mars. In his opinion, Luther might be most likely to build a sealed ecological park on Mars. After all, the environment of Mars is too harsh. Although there is no Venus is so bad.

Unexpectedly, they appeared directly on the ground full of green grass, flowers, plants and trees. How is this done?

"Welcome to Mars, guest from alien Earth."

Then they saw a group of tall "human beings".

"So high!"

Except for Tony, everyone was shocked because each of these humans who looked the same as them were much taller than them.

"They are Martians, humans created by Luther, with an average height of 2 meters."

Tony looked familiar, but in fact he had only been here once before.

The average height is 2 meters?

Steve looked at these Martians in disbelief. They all looked handsome.

"Creating humans?"

Steve thinks this is not the power of the Lord?

"Yes, creating humans is just biogenetic technology."

A Martian said calmly.

"Please follow me, the Emperor is waiting for you."

Everyone followed the Martians and left the platform.

This open-air platform was built outside, seemingly to let them see what the surface of Mars looks like.

Black Widow discovered that the miniature camera had lost its signal, so she changed it to a video recorder. Her mission is to record everything on Mars.

Otherwise, why would Luther let her enter the country? Isn't it just to show off to others and have fun? Anyway, they can film whatever they want.

Following the Martians, they soon arrived at the location of the Martian Empire.

Then they saw that the sky was as colorful as a rainbow, and a city made of alloy appeared in front of them. What was very strange was that the surfaces of these alloy buildings were smooth without any gaps, and they were completely natural.

The huge building complex is basically a hundred-meter-high high-rise building. When you look down from a high altitude, you will find a polygonal pattern that looks very much like ice crystal snowflakes.

This scene is full of future visions, allowing everyone to clearly understand what future cities and highly developed alien civilizations are.

"It's really spectacular. When will we reach this level of technology?"

Steve said with emotion.

"Don't worry, I'm here with Stark. Things will happen soon."

Tony said without looking back.

But soon, they saw something that surprised them even more.

It was something like a "port" built in the sky.

Nearly a hundred unimaginably huge super giant space battleships docked at that air port.

Every space battleship covered the sky and completely destroyed SHIELD's proud space carrier. Compared with these space battleships, the space carrier is like the space carrier compared with the Quinjet fighter.

The space battleship has Chinese characters on it. Tony has filled in this information and can tell what the Chinese characters mean.

"big mac"!

The giant space offensive aircraft carrier is a large star combat ship that uses carrier-based battleships and carrier-based fighter aircraft as its main weapons and serves as its base for space activities.

In addition to these nearly a hundred giant aircraft carriers, there are also hundreds of space battleships, and their names are "Decepticon" space battleships!

Also called capital ships, these Decepticon battleships are the capital ships when the giant space aircraft carrier does not appear.

Densely packed small spaceships and fighter planes are going back and forth in this sky port, carrying out operations and transportation work. Even these small spacecraft are comparable to the size of an aerospace carrier, and space fighters are even much larger than Quinjet fighters.
