Chapter 521: The Monster Association

Eating monsters and feeding on them not only satisfies his hunger, but also increases his deterrence and strength.

The monsters began to realize that they were facing not only a powerful enemy, but also a monster who had completely become a beast.

They tried to unite and fight against Garou together.

However, their numbers seemed to have no effect in front of Garou. He easily tore their bodies apart, as if he was playing with a group of powerless toys.

"Damn it, I'm also a monster, and I'm helping humans?"

A monster shouted angrily.

But Garou just smiled coldly, he had no idea of helping humans.

He just simply longed for power and longed to become the most powerful existence. And in this process, anyone or monster who blocked his way would become his food.

"Come together, there's only one of them, and it can't beat us!"

A monster tried to boost morale, but Garou just smiled disdainfully.

He instantly attacked and tore apart the few monsters who rushed to the front. Their bodies collapsed instantly under the attack of Garou, and they didn't even have time to scream.

"That's right!"

The other monsters were also inspired to fight, and they rushed towards Garou again.

However, this time they did not attack without any rules like before. They began to work together, some were responsible for attracting Garou's attention, and some were responsible for attacking from the side.

However, these tactics did not seem to have any effect in front of Garou. He easily dodged the attacks of the monsters, and then instantly attacked and tore them apart one by one. His speed and strength were far beyond ordinary people, as if he was an invincible existence.

"Sorry, the number of people is invalid." Garou stretched his muscles after eating and drinking.

His body seemed to become stronger and more flexible.

He felt that his strength was growing, which made him more eager to fight stronger enemies.

Finally, he came to the location of the Monster Association.

At this time, the Phoenix Man who had been monitoring him was stunned. He did not expect Garou's growth to be so terrible and abnormal.

It returned to the Monster Association first to report to the big eye that Garou had come to kill.

"Really? It seems that his talent is beyond my expectation."

Da Yanyan was also surprised at Garou's growth rate. You know, even the big snake she found didn't grow so terribly.

"It's really troublesome. I didn't expect him to come to my door, but it doesn't matter."

Da Yanyan is still very confident in the power of the Monster Association, especially those sent out to cause damage are just ordinary ghost-level and tiger-level minions, used to cover the actions of dragon-level monsters such as Elder Centipede and Haojie.

This also includes Fukiri, a member of the Sword Saint Society.

Haojie Meow Meow Harakiri and several single-person recruits should all be dragon-level.

The base of the Monster Association is under the uninhabited street in Z City.

After Garou came here, he went in without hesitation.

At the same time, Da Yanyan also felt Garou's invasion.

"Haha, Garou, you are too confident."

"Route is D-9..."

There are a total of nine entrances and exits in the underground base of the Monster Association. However, the passages connecting the nine entrances and exits are intricate and complex, like a maze. The monsters named each passage a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, and i, and supplemented them with numbers, just like the names of city streets, such as Dabei East Road and Yihuan South Road.

Of course, there are also some small entrances and exits similar to manhole covers.

"Did you actually run into Pochi? Your luck is really bad..."

Da Yanyan said.

After entering the underground, Garou soon came to a tunnel.

In this dark and long tunnel, the walls around were neatly built, smooth and hard, as if they were artificially carved.

There was a dead silence inside the tunnel, with only the ticking sound from a distance, like the sound of water dripping on some hard object, echoing in this empty space, which was chilling.

Hungry Wolf looked around vigilantly. His eyes were as sharp as a knife, and he could clearly capture every subtle movement in this dim environment.

Suddenly, several objects like car lights lit up in the darkness, emitting strange fluorescence, illuminating an area. Hungry Wolf curiously leaned over to see what it was.

At this moment, a violent roar sounded, shaking the air in the tunnel as if it was trembling.

A tall ancient beast slowly walked out of the darkness. It was huge and muscular, like a moving hill.

It was pitch black, and there were two rows of eyes like car lights on its head, flashing fiercely, staring at Hungry Wolf, as if it wanted to eat him alive.

"Dog?"

Hungry Wolf was stunned. He looked at the beast in front of him, and an indescribable fear surged in his heart.

Although this beast looked a bit like a dog, it was much larger and more ferocious than a dog.

It exuded a suffocating pressure, making Hungry Wolf feel difficult to breathe.

Garou knew that he had met a powerful opponent.

He did not dare to be careless and quickly adjusted his state to prepare for the upcoming battle.

He took a deep breath, his body tensed as a string, ready to attack at the first opportunity.

This dog is not an ordinary dog, but a dragon-level monster, Pochi!

It has extremely strong defense and a laser cannon ejected from its mouth, which is extremely powerful.

Ryushang's strength is not possessed by all dragon-level monsters, and is even stronger than Haojie.

However, Pochi did not give him this opportunity.

It opened its mouth wide, and an energy bomb took shape instantly.

The speed was so fast that the pupils of the hungry wolf's illuminated face shrank.

He clearly felt the powerful energy fluctuations, and his heart sank.

"Buzz buzz!"

Pochi's roar was deafening, as if he was provoking a hungry wolf.

The energy bomb continued to condense in Pochi's mouth, and finally turned into a dazzling light.

Hungry Wolf didn't dare to neglect, he quickly raised his hand and used his Flowing Rock Shattering Fist.

This punch condensed all his strength, and he hoped to use it to knock Pochi's energy bomb away.

"boom----!!!"

At the moment when the energy bomb was about to hit the hungry wolf, his fist hit the energy bomb hard.

In an instant, the dazzling energy was blown away and landed on the wall.

With a deafening explosion, the entire passage shook. In an instant, a large area of the passage collapsed, revealing a large crater around it.

The hungry wolf took the opportunity to jump away to avoid being affected.

He looked at Pochi in front of him and couldn't help but feel a sense of fear in his heart.

If I hadn't reacted in time, I might have been dead or disabled just now.

"Hmph, it is indeed a weirdo association, a watchdog is so strong."

The hungry wolf sneered.

Chapter 522 Hard Fight

Pochi opened his mouth again, as if to swallow the whole world. The energy accumulated inside was like a volcano about to erupt, hot and powerful.

Garou was also ready for the fight. He knew clearly that facing an opponent like Pochi, he could not relax at all.

He stared at Pochi closely, and all the muscles in his body were tense, ready to attack at any time.

The next battle was more intense. Garou and Pochi fought a life-and-death battle in a narrow tunnel.

Garou's flowing rock-crushing fist was as fierce as a storm, while Pochi's energy bomb was as unstoppable as thunder.

Their attacks collided in the tunnel, producing a deafening explosion. The entire passage became bumpy and dusty under their power, and human figures were looming in it.

Every time they collided, Garou could feel Pochi's amazing power. He knew that he had to be more careful, otherwise if he showed a flaw, he might be killed by Pochi.

And Pochi did not give Garou any chance to breathe. It kept ejecting energy bombs, trying to completely destroy Garou.

However, Garou did not retreat. He blocked Pochi's attacks again and again, and also launched counterattacks.

His flowing rock-breaking fist and Pochi's energy bombs intertwined in the tunnel to create a thrilling picture that made people unable to look away.

In the passage, explosions came one after another, as if it was a devastating disaster.

The originally smooth passage became bumpy and dusty under their attack, making it impossible to see the scene ahead. The figure was looming in it, as if it was wandering on the edge of life and death.

Garou's fists hit Pochi like thunder, and each attack was full of power.

However, Pochi's defense seemed to be beyond imagination. No matter how fierce Garou's attack was, it could not leave too much scars on it.

Pochi seemed to be angered by Garou's tenacious resistance. It let out a deafening roar, opened its mouth again, and a larger energy wave rushed out instantly.

This time, the energy wave was more turbulent than before, as if it was going to swallow up the entire tunnel.

Garou felt unprecedented pressure. He knew that he had to go all out this time, otherwise it would be difficult to resist Pochi's attack.

He took a deep breath, and the air around his hands vibrated faintly. The sharp sound of breaking wind whistled far away, and the fierce wind lifted layers of soil.

His fists emitted a faint fluorescence, as if containing some mysterious power, and then slammed into the energy wave ejected by Pochi.

"Boom!"

The deafening sound echoed in the tunnel, as if the whole world was shaking.

Garou stared at Pochi closely, trying to confirm whether his attack was successful.

However, when the dust gradually dissipated, his eyes suddenly widened.

Pochi still stood there steadily, standing like a mountain.

Although there were traces of Garou's attack on its body, those scars were like insignificant scratches that could not shake its foundation at all.

Its eyes flashed with fierce light, as if it wanted to devour Garou completely.

Pochi seemed to be enraged by Garou's attack. It let out a more deafening roar, and the energy wave in its mouth condensed again. This time, the energy wave was larger than before, and the energy contained was even more amazing.

It seemed to release all its power and completely destroy Garou.

He knew that he had to go all out, otherwise it would be difficult to get any benefit from Pochi.

Garou took a deep breath and adjusted his state. He stared at Pochi closely, and all the muscles in his body were tense, as if he was about to burst out with amazing power at any time.

His fists were clenched, his steps were steady, and the whole person seemed to be integrated with the earth.

He knew that he could not be intimidated by Pochi's momentum and must remain calm and firm.

He punched Pochi again and collided fiercely with the torrent of energy waves.

This time the collision was more intense than before, and the whole tunnel was shaking.

Garou's fist collided with Pochi's energy wave, making a deafening sound.

Their attacks canceled each other out, creating a powerful shock wave that instantly blew away the surrounding dust and rocks.

However, even in the face of such a powerful attack, Garou did not retreat.

He punched at Pochi again, ready to launch a more violent attack.

He knew that he had to keep attacking and constantly testing Pochi's weaknesses in order to find a chance to defeat it.

Garou used the Flowing Rock Crushing Fist to the extreme, and his fists attacked Pochi violently like a storm.

His attack speed was so fast that even Bang was probably inferior to him.

He no longer flew or resisted Pochi's energy bullets, but chose to dodge.

With the Flowing Rock Crushing Fist, Pochi's energy bullets could hardly hit him!

But seeing Garou change his fighting style, Pochi actually changed his fighting style as well.

It opened its bloody mouth and ejected countless energy bullets from it.

These energy bullets were like blazing meteors, with long tail flames, shooting at Garou at an astonishing speed.

Their light drew dazzling rays in the tunnel, illuminating the entire tunnel.

Each energy bomb contained a terrifying power, as if it was going to completely destroy Garou.

Garou's pupils shrank, and he felt an unprecedented crisis.

"What?"

He didn't expect Pochi to make such a change.

He quickly adjusted his pace and attack method, trying to avoid these energy bombs.

However, there were too many energy bombs from Pochi, and Garou could hardly avoid them completely.

"Boom boom boom boom boom————"

He didn't have time to react, and those dense energy bombs hit him like a rainstorm.

Each energy bomb was like a small bomb, releasing amazing energy.

They hit Garou's body and instantly produced a violent explosion.

Each explosion was accompanied by a deafening roar and dazzling light.

The air in the tunnel seemed to be ignited by these explosions, forming a sea of hot fire.

Garou was in it, and he only felt waves of hot air constantly washing over his body, making his skin seem to be burned.

His body was hit by energy bombs, and the severe pain made him scream.

The shock wave and heat generated by the explosion made Garou feel unprecedented pain.

The parts of his body hit by energy bombs were instantly charred, and his clothes and skin turned to ashes under the high temperature.

The strong impact caused him to fly out and hit the tunnel wall heavily.

"Cough cough cough..."

The hungry wolf coughed, blood oozing from the corner of his mouth.

Chapter 523: The real monster!

He felt pain all over his body, as if every inch of his skin was burned by fire.

However, even in such pain, Garou's eyes were still firm.

He knew that now was not the time to give up.

He had to stand up and continue fighting.

Garou stood up with his willpower, and then a crisp sound like popping beans came from his whole body, and his body suddenly changed.

It was as if something was spreading wildly in his body.

Some power inside the body was awakening wildly.

Then, black unknown substances began to spread from his wounds and quickly covered his whole body.

These black substances were not simple blood or body fluids. They seemed to be a mixture of various substances in Garou's body, including blood, hair, skin fragments and even clothing fibers.

Under extreme pressure and crisis, these substances mutated and reorganized in an unknown way, forming a new and powerful substance.

They spread wildly on the surface of Garou's body, as if they were going to devour him whole.

A strong pain came from deep in Garou's body, as if something was tearing his muscles and bones wildly.

His body began to tremble uncontrollably, as if a powerful force was emerging from it.

As the black substance spread, Hungry Wolf's body began to change.

His figure became taller, his muscles became more developed, and the whole person exuded a terrifying aura.

His eyes became red, as if burning with flames, and his hair became sharper and harder, as if it had become a pair of horns.

"This is..."

Hungry Wolf's heart was full of confusion.

"This... What on earth is going on?"

However, his body did not give him much time to think.

In the process, Hungry Wolf felt that his strength was growing wildly. His body seemed to have become an endless source of energy, with powerful forces emerging continuously, as if countless tentacles were exploring inside his body.

His muscles began to become stronger and more powerful, and his bones became harder and more durable.

His body seemed to have turned into a monster made of black matter, full of terror and majesty.

Hungry Wolf took a deep breath and then exhaled violently.

His voice became deeper and hoarse, as if it was a roar coming from the depths of hell.

"I'm Garou... I'm back again!"

As these words fell, Garou rushed towards Pochi.

His speed became faster and his strength became stronger.

Each of his attacks seemed to tear the air apart, producing a strong sonic boom.

Pochi's attack came again, and the energy bombs poured down like a rainstorm again.

"Boom boom boom boom boom————"

As a series of explosions sounded, Garou's body was hit by energy bombs again.

However, this time he was not hurt at all.

Those energy bombs hit his black carapace, as if blocked by an invisible force.

Garou's body rushed forward, and his speed became faster and faster, as if a black lightning shuttled through the tunnel.

He waved his fists and soles, and hit Pochi hard.

Each attack carried a terrifying force, as if to completely destroy Pochi.

Pochi's body kept shaking under Garou's attack, as if it would collapse at any time.

If the previous transformation of Garou was due to the absorption of a large amount of Dragon-level monsters' body tissues and contamination, then after Pochi violently destroyed the "shell" of all this, Garou stood up with his own willpower, and evolved again because of his enlightenment and deepening of obsession, awakening the power of true monsterization!

In other words, Garou is now a real monster.

A black bull-horned alien!

"Thank you for your care just now, sit down!"

Garou grinned and punched Pochi on the top of his head.

A punch with overwhelming power is infinite and domineering.

The essence of the Flowing Rock Crushing Fist is to continuously accumulate power and accelerate the flow rate. Now Garou no longer needs this process. He can accumulate terrifying power in an instant, and his blood is also accelerated to a terrifying speed.

Pochi wailed and was hit by Garou's punch and his head was broken and bleeding.

In the original plot, only Saitama could do this, and now Garou can do it too.

After the dragon-level shell was broken, Garou gave birth to the real "Monster Garou", whose current strength has completely surpassed Pochi, and even Super Alloy Black Light is no match for him.

Officially reached the level of Dragon Above or even "Dragon Peak".

"Awoo————!!!"

Pochi's scream attracted the attention of Big Eye.

"Is it Pochi?"

Big Eye never expected Pochi to make such a wail. What a joke, that's Pochi!

"Garou is so strong?"

Big Eye was already surprised that Garou and Pochi could fight to such an extent, which could be called the collapse of the sky and the crack of the earth. It could feel the strong vibration underground.

Unexpectedly, it thought that Garou was struggling, but now it seems that Pochi is struggling?

"I underestimated you, Garou, I didn't expect you to reach this level by yourself."

Big Eye was still thinking of using death as a way to let Garou constantly break the limit and surpass the monster king Orochi.

I didn't expect Garou to have such strength on his own.

If he is stronger than Pochi, he has surpassed all the dragon-level monsters and can be compared with Monster King Orochi.

Big Eyes doesn't know that Black Sperm has a trump card that can be comparable to Monster King Orochi. It knows very well how strong the dragon-level monsters of the Monster Association are, and it is sure that they are not as strong as Monster King Orochi.

"It's really tricky, just let him come directly."

On the eve of the war with the Hero Association, if the losses are too heavy, it will be very disadvantageous to the Monster Association.

Thinking of this, Big Eyes immediately locked Garou through telekinesis.

"Huh?"

Monster Garou felt like there was something on his body.

"It's so heavy?"

Big Eyes was even more shocked. Its strength has increased a lot, but it can't shake Garou's body!

Compared to the original plot, which casually made Garou unable to move, the current telekinesis naturally has no qualifications to shake Garou.

There are very few monsters at Dragon-level or even Dragon-peak level, and each of them is extremely difficult.

Basically, if Blast and Tornado are not deployed, they can sweep the Hero Association!

You can imagine how strong they are.

Before Big Eyes could think about what to do, the monster Garou's eyes locked on the ground.

"Underground?"

He saw it!

Chapter 524: Battle at the Dragon Level

In the dark depths of the underground, Dazongyan, who was locked by the hungry wolf, couldn't help but panic in his heart.

It originally thought that deep underground, thousands of meters below, hungry wolves would not be able to pose a threat to him.

The next moment.

The hungry wolf directly broke through the ground and punched it down to the ground.

The power of this punch was simply unimaginable. Hungry Wolf's current strength and innovation of Liushuiyan Shattering Fist allow him to accurately control every bit of power.

He did not choose an attack method that caused large-scale concussions. Instead, he focused his punch on one point, like a drill, with extremely strong penetrating power.

This kind of meticulous control allows the hungry wolf to maximize every ounce of his strength.

His attack is no longer like the light of a flashlight before, but like a laser. Although the attack range seems to have been reduced, its destructive power has increased a hundred times.

"boom-----"

As a punch suddenly penetrated the ground, Da Zong looked at the large hole in the ceiling above his head and fell into deep thought for a moment.

It knew that it could no longer despise the hungry wolf like before.

The opponent's strength and skills have reached a level that he can't even imagine.

Hungry Wolf flashed his body, penetrated an unknown number of floors from the upper level, and appeared at the bottom of the Monster Association base.

His speed was so fast that Da Zhengyan could not react at all.

After entering, the hungry wolf found that the room was densely covered with strange eyes, which looked very strange and creepy.

These eyes are the sight and telekinesis enhancers cultivated by the Great Evil Eye, similar to things like antennas and base stations.

Daxunyan sat on a huge sofa or cushion, his bloated body sinking into it.

This is actually made of the material of the outer shell.

After the hungry wolf saw the big eyes, he smiled coldly.

"Hey, you were the one who attacked me just now, right? Looking at you, do you think you are a gangster?"

"I didn't expect that I accidentally broke into the place where the leader of the Weird Association is. That's great. As long as I beat you up, this garbage Weird Association will naturally disband!"

The aura exuded by the hungry wolf was so strong that even the Great Eye felt the pressure, but it remained calm and unhurried.

"Haha, hungry wolf, you are too confident."

The Great One chuckled, staring at the hungry wolf with his huge one eye and said.

"oh?"

The hungry wolf stretched out his muscles. He did not underestimate the big evil eye. Since the other party can become the leader of a group of weirdos, he must have the strength. Apart from anything else, the watchdog just now is very powerful, and the evil eye is not as strong as the big evil eye. If the other party is strong, how can you let the other party go to the door?

"Orochi, it's your turn."

The Great Emperor did not take action, but said directly.

After all, even the telekinesis he had just used was unable to shake the hungry wolf. Da Zhenyan already knew that he could not be the hungry wolf's opponent, so he simply called on his trump card.

As soon as Da Zhengyan finished speaking, Hungry Wolf suddenly tensed up.

His instinct instantly made his heart beat faster, his skin became numb, and he felt a pinprick-like feeling all over his body. This was an absolute warning of danger!

"What's going on?"

The hungry wolf's eyes quickly scanned everything around him, looking for possible threats.

Then he stared at the ground closely, and saw the ground suddenly burst open, and several tentacles pierced the ground and stabbed at him. He dodged, trying to avoid these attacks, but the speed of the tentacles was too fast, and he was still caught by one of the tentacles.

Immediately afterwards, the floor shattered, the hungry wolf was caught by the tentacles, and the entire room collapsed.

The hungry wolf tore the tentacles into pieces, and the Great Zheng was startled, as was the Monster King Orochi.

"Found you!"

The hungry wolf broke through the wall with a grin and entered a tall and open place. The surrounding walls formed a circle, and then there were passage-like things higher up around it. The whole place looked like the Colosseum.

Then the hungry wolf's eyes locked on a behemoth.

It was a giant creature sitting on the wall. It had hair-like tentacles on its head. It had pits and cracks on its face. It was expressionless and looked like it was wearing a mask.

The body is also very weird. It looks like it is made up of countless snake heads. It is tens of meters tall. It is only so tall when sitting. It is hard to imagine how tall it would be when it stands.

The legs are inside the wall, making it look like it is soaking its feet.

It is the notorious Monster King Orochi of the Weird Association.

The hungry wolf stood proudly on the ground, looking up at this huge weirdo.

"It's really unexpected, hungry wolf."

The Great Emperor sat on the cushion and watched.

"Orochi, try to keep him alive as much as possible. I'm still useful..."

Before Da Zong could finish his words, he saw the hungry wolf disappear in an instant.

The weirdo king, Orochi, shrank his pupils.

The hungry wolf's speed once again exceeded his expectations.

call out! !

A tentacle the size of a python pierced out, and the hungry wolf easily avoided it. This straight-line attack was too simple.

As a result, the tentacles suddenly turned towards the hungry wolf in mid-air and swept away.

Being able to maintain such flexibility and change direction at any time at such a high speed was beyond the hungry wolf's expectations.

But the hungry wolf grabbed it with one hand and grabbed the tentacle.

These tentacles are the tentacles on the head of the big snake, which evolved from his human hair. They can be long or short, hard or soft.

The hungry wolf chopped off the tentacles contemptuously.

More tentacles of the Monster King Orochi thrust forward, but Garou was not afraid at all.

"Even if you have great power, you still lack the temperament that makes people fear you. Therefore, you will never be the king of monsters, and I will definitely step on you to reach the top!!"

Garou shook off the tentacles in his hand and kicked his feet. The terrifying explosion instantly caused the entire space to vibrate on the ground, and the room where the big eye was located also began to shake.

He shot out with a fierce wind with both hands.

"Let me tell you what fear is!!"

A gleam flashed in the eyes of the Monster King Orochi. With his super learning ability, he directly learned Garou's Flowing Rock Crushing Fist, and it was the Flowing Rock Crushing Fist that Garou had innovated himself!

Garou saw the Monster King Orochi cross his hands and used a posture that he was very familiar with.

"What?"

Garou was stunned by this unexpected scene, and then he was beaten away by the Monster King Orochi.

However, Garou's control over power at this time was extraordinary. He directly spread the damage caused by the Monster King Orochi to himself, and almost 90% of it was spread to the surrounding air by him, and he himself was almost unharmed!

As both of them were monsters at the Dragon or even Dragon Peak level, the gap between them was not big, but not small.

And each of them had advantages.

After the Monster King Orochi noticed that Garou was not injured and realized that Garou was a monster beyond imagination, he also used his full strength!

Chapter 525 Feeding on Strange People

I saw that the whole body of the monster king snake suddenly changed, and it changed drastically!

His skin was originally full of mysterious lines. At this moment, these lines seemed to come alive, one by one, like a winding river, running freely on his huge body.

And these lines gradually bulged out while rolling and twisting, as if something was about to break out of his shell.

Then, a shocking scene appeared. Those bulging lines turned into "Jiao"-like things that looked like dragons but not dragons, with forelimbs.

It looked like a python had just transformed. Although these Jiaos were extremely small in size compared to the monster king snake, each of them exuded a powerful aura, as if each of them was a hegemon, but was summoned by some mysterious power and attached to the body of the monster king snake.

At this moment, those Jiao dragons suddenly opened their mouths, and streams of dazzling light burst out from their mouths.

Bursts of thunder burst out, and these energy beams converged into brilliant beams of light.

These beams of light drew dazzling trajectories in the air, as if they were going to tear the entire sky apart.

At this moment, the body of the Monster King Orochi was also surrounded by these beams of light, as if he himself was a volcano about to erupt, with the power to destroy the world.

Garou's pupils shrank. He didn't expect that the Monster King Orochi would have such a change.

However, because he had dealt with Pochi before, Garou was familiar with it, not to mention that his current strength had become so much stronger.

"Boom boom boom boom————"

The searchlight-like light cannon hit Garou and the surrounding area of Garou, and then exploded due to the annihilation effect of energy and matter, and the light was as bright as the sun, which was breathtaking.

When these beams of light hit the ground or other objects, they would cause violent explosions.

This explosion not only has a strong impact force that can destroy surrounding objects into pieces, but also produces strong light and heat radiation.

This radiation can cause serious damage to organisms and may even cause the death of organisms.

In addition, since the energy released during the annihilation process is released in the form of high-energy photons, such as gamma rays, these high-energy photons will also damage the surrounding matter.

Gamma rays are a type of electromagnetic radiation with high penetrating power. It can penetrate thick layers of matter and cause serious radiation damage to organisms.

However, Garou has become accustomed to this kind of attack. With his strong strength and keen perception, he cleverly shuttled through the explosion of the light cannon and avoided most of the attacks.

The monster King Snake did not stop there. He took advantage of the opportunity when Garou was submerged by the light cannon explosion and lost his perception. The hair on his head suddenly shot out like a spear, making a sharp sound of breaking wind.

These hairs seemed to have strong penetrating power and could easily penetrate thick layers of objects.

Just when these hairs were about to hit Garou, he suddenly appeared in another place.

Garou turned his body and passed through the dragons that blocked King Snake in the blink of an eye.

He used these dragons as leverage points and flexibly flipped to the top of King Snake's head.

Then, Garou chopped down with a tomahawk-like kick!

His movements were swift and fierce, like a flash of lightning piercing the night sky.

"Bang————"

This kick hit the head of the monster king snake hard, and the powerful force almost broke his head.

The monster king snake felt as if a mountain had hit his head, and his whole body shook involuntarily.

The huge body of dozens of meters high was shaky and seemed to fall at any time.

However, despite suffering such a heavy blow, the monster king snake did not give up.

He quickly adjusted his state and began to fight back.

The little dragon on his body sprayed a group of light bullets at the hungry wolf in the sky like a machine gun.

These light bullets were extremely fast, with strange trajectories, making it difficult to predict.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Thunderous noises continued to sound, and the hungry wolf moved left and right, passing through the light bullets.

Having never encountered such a difficult enemy, Monster King Orochi quickly attacked with both fists, with great force and power, and roared with a huge fist that could destroy the earth.

Compared with light bullets and light cannons, Monster King Orochi's own attack is faster, and Garou can hardly dodge it.

However, he used a little force to push away Monster King Orochi's fist. After Monster King Orochi reacted, he also used the flowing water force to connect and transform Garou.

The fists of the two, one big and one small, began to touch and separate at high speed, and the force went in all directions. Wherever they passed, the mountains collapsed and the ground cracked, and the earth shook.

At this time, a bald man who was exercising at home felt the vibration.

"Earthquake?"

Saitama, who had been working hard, wiped his sweat.

"Will it not knock down my house?"

Saitama thought it would be better to go and take a look. Although he found a new goal, it would be miserable if he had no place to live before the new goal was completed.

The battle between Monster King Orochi and Garou has already been decided.

When Monster King Orochi tried his best but still couldn't defeat Garou, the victory was already decided.

But Monster King Orochi was unwilling to accept it. He had been on the verge of death so many times to break the limiter and then recover to have such strength. How could Garou have such strength?

"Flowing Water Hundred Fission Fist!"

Galang threw hundreds of punches, and the punches were like drills that hit the body of the Monster King Orochi, and then the body of the Monster King Orochi exploded.

In less than a moment, the originally huge body of the Monster King Orochi exploded into pieces!

Galang fell to the ground, and the mask of the Monster King Orochi also fell in front of him.

The failure of the Monster King Orochi made Da Yan panic.

Never expected that Garou could actually defeat the Monster King Orochi.

"It's your turn, Da Yan."

Galang tore a piece of meat from the Monster King Orochi and threw it into his mouth to chew.

Originally, there was no mouth on his face, but when he "wanted to eat", it split open, and a mouth with a broken lotus root appeared.

Seeing Garou's actions, Da Yan was stunned.

You know, monster cells are all taken from the Monster King Orochi and then made.

Although Garou seems to have become a real monster, and although no other monsters have eaten monster cells, they are all monster cells eaten by humans.

But no one knows what will happen if monsters eat monster cells.

"Pah, it tastes terrible."

Garou spit. He feeds on monsters, and originally thought that the monster king Orochi would taste good, but it turned out to be too unpalatable.

Chapter 526: Extremely Hungry, a Real Hungry Wolf

"Orochi!"

It feels unbelievable.

The hungry wolf's eyes were already locked on her.

"It's your turn next."

Hungry Wolf said with a grin.

Da Zongyan's face was ugly, but he was not panicked.

Although she was really shocked that the hungry wolf could defeat the big snake. She didn't expect that the hungry wolf had grown to such an extent, but it was still far from it!

The real identity of the great evil is Sikes.

She usually appears in the form of a pink and purple flesh puppet, but her real body is hidden 1,500 meters underground. She is a young girl with long wavy hair wearing black-rimmed glasses.

In other words, the puppet in front of Hungry Wolf is just a pile of useless pieces of meat.

However, this is the setting of the original version. In the remake of Hell Tornado, Sykes is pulled directly out of the pile of meat in the Great Eye.

The Great God knows that the snake is not dead yet.

Only the heart part of the snake is left, which can assimilate everything around it.

The amorphous body can move and change at will, absorbing nearby buildings and living creatures to continuously strengthen its own strength. It can also merge with other creatures and share consciousness.

The hungry wolf tore the eyes to pieces and ate the meat, which was equally unpalatable.

"But it doesn't matter. There are many weirdos in this weirdos association."

The hungry wolf's body has mutated again. It has not yet turned into a demon hungry wolf, just a weird hungry wolf, but it is close.

Especially after eating monsters like the Monster King Orochi who are dragon-level or above, the hungry wolf mutates a lot faster.

In fact, even if he defeated Monster King Orochi, he would still feel uncomfortable. After all, Monster King Orochi's full-power centipede-like form is very strong. The image when the mask on his face is torn off is the true final form.

The face is composed of several tentacles intertwined with each other, and the body is shaped like a centipede and also has multiple tentacles. It is so powerful that it can shake the planet just by absorbing energy, causing the interior of the earth to deform, and the aftermath can also cause huge earthquakes and volcanic eruptions.

Saitama can win because he is Saitama, and the hungry wolf can win because the hungry wolf never wastes time.

Without giving the Monster King Orochi a chance to absorb energy, he directly interrupted the Monster King Orochi.

The underground city occupied by the Weird Association seems to have been invaded by wild beasts at this moment.

The hungry wolf, who was once considered a threat to the Heroes Association, is now creating panic in the underground city in another way.

After the battle with the Monster King Orochi, his evolution was activated again, and his hunger spread crazily in his body like a blazing fire, swallowing up his sanity.

Different from the battles in the past, the hungry wolf at this moment is no longer to challenge the strong or prove his strength.

There was only endless hunger in his eyes, as if the whole world had become his dining table, and those weirdos of various shapes had become the delicacies in front of him.

He was like a ruthless machine, relentlessly chasing those fleeing weirdos.

His movements were swift and ruthless, and every shot hit the target accurately.

Those weirdos who used to run rampant in the underground city were now like lambs waiting to be slaughtered in front of hungry wolves, with no power to fight back.

"This fits his name."

Luther looked at the scene in front of him and couldn't help but sigh.

Hungry Wolf, this name seems to exist just for this moment. He is no longer a simple warrior, but a true killing machine.

In the passages of the underground city, the pursuit of hungry wolves continues.

The fleeing weirdos kept shouting in terror, but none of this could stop the hungry wolf. There was only endless hunger and ever-expanding power in his eyes.

At this moment, the hungry wolf suddenly turned sideways to avoid the jet of water.

The water flow easily penetrated the wall and the ground, leaving a bottomless hole.

The hungry wolf captured the target.

That's a ball of water!

It looks like two eyeballs floating in the water. It is particularly sensitive to murderous intent and will become stronger as the murderous intent increases. It uses a high-pressure water cannon as its main weapon, which can absorb moisture in the air to replenish the consumed water, almost ignoring physics. Damage unless its core is destroyed.

Dragon-level disaster, Evil natural water!

Also called evil natural water.

Staring at the water, the hungry wolf felt a strong desire in his heart, and suddenly felt that his throat was a little dry.

He had consumed a lot of energy in the battle just now. Although he drank some enemy's blood to quench his thirst, how could that sticky liquid compare to the cool and sweet water?

He couldn't help but start to miss the clear springs and streams he once drank from.

He felt as if he was extremely thirsty, and every cell was calling for the moisture of water.

Evil Natural Water sensed the strong killing intent from the hungry wolf and immediately became restless.

It began to fluctuate its body wildly, and high-pressure water cannons shot at the hungry wolf like a heavy rain.

However, the hungry wolf relied on its powerful instincts to easily dodge all attacks. He seemed to be one with the water flow. No matter how the water flow changed, he could accurately find the best avoidance path.

Seeing how easily the hungry wolf evaded his attack, Evil Natural Water began to become even more violent.

It continuously sprays out more dense and powerful water cannons and water cannon attacks, trying to submerge the hungry wolves in this ocean of water.

However, Hungry Wolf seemed to be like a fish in water, and he was at ease in this water world. With his familiarity and control over the water flow, he deflected and pushed away all the attacks, as if he was dancing a beautiful dance.

You have to know that he is an unconscious Hungry Wolf, the strongest Hungry Wolf state in the remastered version.

Hungry Wolf is actually very familiar with water flow.

He has practiced the water flow power after countless encounters with waterfalls. Now, relying on instinct, all the attacks of the evil natural water were deflected and pushed away by him!

In the end, Hungry Wolf seized a flaw in the evil natural water and pounced into its body.

The evil natural water thought it could drown Hungry Wolf in this ocean of water, but it didn't expect that he would invade his body in this way.

It began to expand wildly, trying to completely wrap Hungry Wolf up and make him unable to breathe.

However, Hungry Wolf opened his mouth at this critical moment, as if he wanted to swallow everything.

A strong suction emanated from his mouth, forming a small vortex.

This vortex continuously devoured the surrounding water and the power of the evil natural water, causing the evil natural water to gradually become weak.

"Suck——"

With the wolf's low roar, the evil natural water seemed to be attracted by an invisible force and began to flow into the wolf's mouth frantically.

This scene looked extremely strange, a physical creature was actually sucking a ball of water.

Chapter 527: The Monster Association is eaten up

But this is the instinct of the hungry wolf. As the evil natural water is constantly sucked into the hungry wolf's body, his strength is constantly increasing.

He feels as if his body has become a huge reservoir, absorbing water continuously.

His throat seems to have become a bottomless cave.

Constantly swallowing the surrounding water and the power of the evil natural water. The water flow is drawn into it, as if it is pulled by an invisible force, and constantly pours into the hungry wolf's mouth.

As the swallowing continues, the hungry wolf's body begins to undergo wonderful changes. His skin becomes smoother and more elastic, as if it has been moistened by water.

His eyes also become brighter, full of vitality and vigor. This is because in the process of swallowing, he not only absorbs water, but also absorbs the power of the evil natural water.

The evil natural water began to feel fear and despair.

It found that its power was being swallowed up bit by bit by the hungry wolf, as if its existence was gradually being erased. It began to resist frantically, but no matter how it struggled and resisted, it could not escape the fate of being swallowed.

In the end, under the continuous swallowing of the hungry wolf, the evil natural water completely disappeared into the air. Garou stood there, feeling the new power inside his body.

In his body, these water elements began to undergo wonderful changes.

They seemed to be activated, releasing powerful energy and vitality. These energies and vitality quickly spread to every corner of Garou's body, nourishing his muscles, bones and internal organs.

"Natural water was eaten."

A black guy like Teletubbies hid in the dark and witnessed this scene.

It is Black Sperm, or rather, part of Black Sperm.

The whole body is black, the face is white, the appearance is wretched, and there is a tentacle on the head.

It is also a dragon-level monster, which can continue to split and increase in value by absorbing protein.

It can stack its own body to make it huge, and its strength will be greatly enhanced.

Separate any number of "selves" and perform "elimination-style fusion" in its body. After the fusion is completed, it becomes an independent individual. The strength of this individual depends on the number of fusions.

Luther has always felt that Black Sperm is the most likely monster to surpass Boros and Garou.

Because it can become stronger by eating protein!

It's nothing that tens of trillions of black sperms in the original version can't beat the Bull-Horned Garou, but the incomplete Hell Tornado was completely defeated, and it was definitely a dragon-level combat power.

It's just too wasteful. If Luther was a black sperm, he would eat, eat, eat, eat, eat, eat, eat like crazy, and then come out when he was a trillion cells. A trillion cells combined, it must be a dragon-level battle.

After all, the golden sperm with 10 trillion cells is the dragon-level, and the cells that are a hundred times more than the golden sperm can't be above the dragon?

It is estimated that he will be one of the strongest monsters above the dragon by then?

"Who is this guy? He is so arrogant, and Big Eyes doesn't care about him?"

The black sperm was still thinking, and suddenly Big Eyes' voice appeared in his mind.

"A powerful enemy has invaded the Monster Association. Dragon-level monsters and ghost-level monsters should immediately encircle and suppress him!"

Big Eyes already knew that the evil natural water was killed by Garou, and she couldn't let Garou continue to destroy it, otherwise the Monster Association she worked hard to run would be gone.

So she could only summon powerful dragon-level monsters and demon-level monsters to encircle and suppress Garou.

"So it's the enemy."

Black Sperm understood, because the coordinates were here.

But Black Sperm naturally had no intention of showing up.

Let others go first, and he will see the situation first.

After hearing this, the other dragon-level monsters and demon-level monsters were very interested in what enemy invaded the Monster Association. You know, there are so many dragon-level monsters and demon-level monsters, but the other party is so confident?

"Could it be a hero?"

A middle-aged man with long hair and beard wearing a crown and a cloak, with ragged clothes, said with interest.

He is the dragon-level monster, Wandering Emperor!

Just like his name.

A month before joining the Monster Association, he was still a homeless man. He was driven out of human society because he lost his job and couldn't pay the rent. In the process of looking up at the sky, he awakened his hatred for humans, and thus gained the favor of "God" and was given a powerful force "Light Power".

A cat man with a weird appearance leaned against the wall.

"Invaders? It's probably not easy for Big Eye to summon so many monsters to encircle and suppress them. It's better not to go."

Dragon-level monster meow!

A monster with huge teeth, a fat body, and a big mouth as the only facial feature, has a strong swallowing ability.

After hearing Big Eye's words, it went straight to the target.

Dragon-level monster · Gums with very low IQ!

In the original plot, he was tricked by Bang with "Look, there is a flying saucer", and then was killed instantly by Bang.

A very ugly monster who loves to read comics and has extremely strong physical abilities.

Dragon-level monster · Ugly President!

The ghost-level monsters basically rushed over.

Then, they all became food for Garou.

Wandering Emperor looked at Gums whose body was hollowed out by Garou in disbelief.

Garou easily put one hand deep into Gums' body, and Gums' defense seemed like paper to him.

After being eaten by Garou, Ugly President joined the battle.

Wandering Emperor also attacked at this time, but neither his light power nor the strange power of the Ugly President could threaten Garou. Instead, Garou took off the head of the Ugly President.

Wandering Emperor himself was slapped by Garou and flew against the wall. Now he was shattered and waiting to die.

Not to mention the demon-level monsters, Garou ate half and threw away half, and he no longer looked down on the demon-level materials.

At the same time, when Garou was killing and eating, the big eyes controlled the monster king Orochi to devour the leftovers that Garou didn't want. Fortunately, its own limbs were not beaten to pieces by Saitama like in the original plot, which made the monster king Orochi recover faster.

And after absorbing so many monsters' residues, the monster king Orochi became stronger again, and even wanted to devour Sekkusu.

Sekkusu has always been on guard against Orochi, so she has kept a lot of tricks.

She didn't want to merge with Orochi at this time. In that case, even if she could defeat Garou, it would not be worth the loss.

Therefore, after Sikes regained control of the snake, she ran away.

Fortunately, she ran fast and avoided the transformation of Garou.

After devouring a large number of monsters, Garou's appearance has become the devil Garou!

Chapter 528 The Devil Wolf is born!

But this demon Garou is still very different.

It seems that because it devoured a large number of monsters, its head has changed to look like a wolf's head, similar to Guts in Berserk. His Berserker Armor has also become a wolf's head or a dog's head because of him?

The shape is similar, but it has more characteristics of the demon Garou.

Garou's bull-horned form appears when he just turns into a monster. In this form, Garou's god-level strength, speed, strength, skills, and defense are impeccable, making it impossible for a group of S-level heroes to start.

And Garou in this state has complete consciousness, has not been eroded by the monsterization and lost his mind, can fully exert the martial arts he created, even Saitama has to take the serious mode when fighting him.

When Saitama fought against the bull-horned Garou, he used two killer moves in total. One is to seriously flip the table and throw Garou and the floor into the air, because there he can better exert his strength without causing too much damage.

While in the air, Saitama used his second killer move on Garou, a two-handed continuous normal punch. The continuous normal punch can be said to be the strongest killer move in Saitama's normal series.

Boros was seriously injured after receiving a one-handed continuous normal punch, so the damage of the two-handed continuous normal punch can be imagined.

And Garou in the horn form withstood such a powerful move. Although his strength and speed are far inferior to Saitama, his martial arts skills can help him dissolve some of the power.

But after withstanding the continuous normal punch, Garou felt a little autistic, because Saitama's strength was completely unreasonable, so he could only become an even more unreasonable weirdo.

With this belief, Garou once again broke through the limit and became the demon Garou.

But in the demon form, Garou only strengthened his strength, while his speed, skills, and consciousness were correspondingly weakened, which was equivalent to Garou giving up these abilities and replacing them with unreasonable power.

But no matter how much Garou's power increases, how can he compare with Saitama? Saitama smashed most of his body with a serious headbutt, leaving him with no power to fight back, which is far inferior to the Bull Horn form.

Obviously, in the original work, the combat power of Demon Garou is completely weaker than that of Bull Horn Garou.

Because Garou in the Bull Horn period is still working hard for the goal of being the strongest monster, but in the Demon period, he was completely stunned by his teacher and forced to come up with an answer that is more deviated from his original intention. He thought that the more he degenerates, the stronger his power will be, but that is just what he thinks.

Because at this moment, he even began to waver in what he wanted. He thought that the less human he was, the stronger he would be, but his original intention was to be the ideal strongest hero, which was completely the opposite.

Saitama has already said that the combat power standard has weakened, and Saitama is the standard answer, and there is no need to doubt too much.

And now Demon Garou is undoubtedly the strongest Garou.

Putting aside the crazy setting of Cosmic Wolf, the power absorbed from several powerful dragon-level monsters and even monsters above the dragon level and a lot of ghost-level monsters, and finally condensed with his own martial arts pureness - Demon Wolf!

"It's time, Esdeath."

Luther said.

"Hmm?"

Esdeath looked at the Demon Wolf below.

She felt the powerful breath emanating from the wolf, which was a fierce and violent breath like a beast, as if it wanted to swallow everything around it.

From the breath alone, the wolf is indeed very powerful.

The Demon Wolf also instantly noticed Esdeath's gaze, he raised his head and looked at Esdeath in the air.

His eyes were as dark as the abyss, revealing a breath of evil and madness.

"Hero?"

The Demon Wolf grinned, revealing a smile full of sharp teeth.

The cruelty and cunning revealed in that smile made people shudder. However, Esdeath was not overwhelmed by his momentum, but slowly fell to the ground.

"I'm not a hero." Esdeath said lightly, "But I'm very interested in you."

Esdeath slowly landed on the ground. This strange scene did not surprise the Devil Wolf.

"Superpower?"

The Devil Wolf said with interest, and disappeared in the next moment.

He trampled the ground with his feet, punched out like lightning, and moved forward with a terrifying airflow!

No nonsense, the Devil Wolf is an evil existence, so after he saw no fear on Esdeath's face, he planned to make her feel fear!

Execute evil, spread fear!

Esdeath's eyes lit up, without any evasion, and also punched forward.

The Devil Wolf was slightly surprised, and he actually saw his speed clearly?

But it's useless to see it clearly, the gap between us...

"Bang!!!"

The moment the two fists collided, a deafening sound broke out.

The terrifying airflow spread out from the two people as the center, rolling up a piece of flying sand and rocks. Everything around seemed to have lost its color and sound at this moment, leaving only the two figures colliding on the battlefield.

The Devil Wolf was a little surprised.

He originally thought that his speed was so fast that Esdeath could not see clearly, but the opponent accurately met his fist.

This shows that Esdeath also has good speed and reaction ability.

However, it is useless even if he can see his speed clearly.

Because the gap between the two is not so easy to make up. Demon Wolf believes that his strength and skills are far superior to Esdeath, and he only needs to work a little harder to defeat the opponent.

However, things did not develop as Wolf imagined.

At the moment when the two fists collided, he felt a strong recoil from the opponent. The force was as terrifying as a landslide, and he couldn't help but take a few steps back before he could stabilize his body.

But Esdeath still stood there motionless.

This scene made Demon Wolf feel a little surprised and daunted.

He originally thought that he could easily defeat this woman, but now it seems that the other party is not that simple. Her strength, speed and reaction ability are beyond his expectations, so he has to re-evaluate the other party's strength.

"Interesting..."

Demon Wolf licked his lips, and a bloodthirsty light flashed in his eyes.

"It seems that I need to show my real ability to deal with you."

Esdeath didn't feel any pressure. Under the strengthening of Qi, his fists were indestructible and invincible.

"Use all your abilities to please me!"

Esdeath raised the corner of her mouth.

Chapter 529: Crushing

Gorilla's smile suddenly disappeared, as if blown away by a cold wind.

His body shook slightly, as if the whole world was shaking with it.

At this moment, many phantoms burst out like wild horses, spinning wildly around him.

Each phantom was as clear as a solid, like a frame of meticulous pictures, depicting the whole process of his fist from the beginning to the end.

Under the impact of this force, the ground seemed to have turned into a spring bed that swayed left and right, shaking violently.

The gravel seemed to be given life, jumping with the rhythm of the vibration, as if it was setting the rhythm for this fierce battle.

Esdeath looked ahead, as if she couldn't see Garou.

She could clearly sense the flow of qi, which enabled her to accurately capture every move of Garou, even the slightest change, could not escape her perception.

Just when Garou was about to launch a fatal attack, Esdeath's fist hit his face like lightning.

The power of this punch was so great that Garou's head was buzzing, and he was unable to react for a moment.

His body fell backward uncontrollably, as if he was about to fall to the ground.

However, Garou was a battle-hardened warrior after all. He instinctively adjusted his body posture, stretched out his hands to support the ground, and used the rebound force to complete a gorgeous backflip and regain his footing.

Then, Garou bent his legs and inserted them into the ground like an iron plow, instantly sinking to his knees.

He used this force to draw two deep grooves on the ruins, as if he was going to tear the whole world apart.

However, just when everyone thought that Garou would launch a more fierce attack, his body suddenly became ethereal, bursting into the air like a bubble, and disappeared without a trace.

"Flowing Rock Crushing Fist!"

When Garou appeared again, he was already beside Esdeath.

His hands moved in a special trajectory, launching attacks from incredible angles.

Each punch contained a powerful force, as if to distort the space.

Esdeath raised her eyebrows. She felt the threat of Garou's move, but she did not intend to retreat.

"Wolf Fang Wind Fist!"

Esdeath shouted, clenched her hands into fists, and swung them at a very fast speed. This is one of the moves she learned from No. 18, Wolf Fang Wind Fist.

After all, No. 18's database contains a lot of fighters' skills and data, not to mention Yamcha's move.

And it can also be used with the Whirlwind Iron Fist, making it more powerful.

Esdeath's boxing and Garou's Flowing Rock Crushing Fist collided violently in the air, making a deafening noise. The figures of the two crossed each other in an instant and returned to the original place again.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The battle between the two entered a white-hot stage.

Their speed was getting faster and faster, and their movements were getting more and more fierce. Every punch and every kick contained deadly power.

The battle scene was like lightning across the night sky, and only a glimpse could capture their figures.

Others could only hear the sound of the battle, but it was difficult to see the specific details of the battle.

Garou's figure faded again, and he moved behind Esdeath in a weird way and launched a sneak attack.

However, Esdeath seemed to have expected it, and slightly turned her body to avoid this fatal blow.

She took advantage of the situation and swung a punch, hitting Garou's waist heavily.

Garou groaned in pain, and his body flew out as if hit by a giant hammer, and fell heavily to the ground.

"Is it just this extent?"

Esdeath stood there with one hand on her waist, her tone full of disappointment. She thought Garou could bring her a greater challenge, but she didn't expect the battle to end so quickly.

"Ha, hu, ha, hu..."

Garou struggled to stand up, and his breathing began to become rhythmic.

This is the breathing method he has integrated from the martial arts he has learned, which can improve basic physical fitness and make better use of strength.

After becoming a monster, this move can make up for the defect that the body cannot bear full strength.

Although he looks a little embarrassed on the surface, he is not actually hurt too much.

As the breathing method is running, Garou's body begins to change.

His muscles gradually tightened, and wisps of smoke came out of his body, like a steam engine jet.

These fumes lingered around him, as if forming a mysterious aura.

His eyes became sharper, as if he could see through all illusions.

"Breathing method?"

Esdeath naturally knew what this was.

"Come on! Let me see how strong you are!"

Esdeath took the initiative to attack Garou.

Her figure disappeared in an instant, and when she appeared again, she was in front of Garou.

She threw a punch, straight at Garou's face. The speed and power of this punch were enough to flatten a mountain.

However, Garou did not dodge.

He stood there, took a deep breath, and then exhaled violently.

The moment he exhaled, the smoke on his body instantly condensed into a white airflow, facing Esdeath's fist.

The airflow and the fist collided violently in the air, making a deafening noise. The shock wave generated by the collision spread out in all directions, cracking the surrounding ground.

Esdeath's fist destroyed the airflow easily, and the remaining force broke through the airflow and hit Garou.

Garou was just exerting his strength. The exhaled airflow generated by the breathing method could even directly kill a monster of the Dragon Shame level, not to mention his punch?

"Boom!!!"

The air was blown up, and there was a crackling sound of air explosion. This punch was wrapped in a terrifying sonic boom, and it instantly reached an acceleration of 100,000 kilometers per hour!

When Esdeath used a stronger force to fight Garou, the collision between the two instantly caused an earth-shattering explosion.

Garou's power, which was already terrifying enough, seemed to be completely detonated in front of Esdeath's even more powerful power, releasing even more amazing energy.

The collision of this punch was like two stars colliding violently in the void, and the shock wave generated instantly spread out.

The surrounding ground instantly collapsed, and the huge cracks spread like a spider web, swallowing everything around. Under the impact of this force, the nearby buildings were as fragile as paper, collapsed one after another, and turned into ruins.

The air was filled with thick dust and smoke, as if the end of the world had come. The force was so strong that it even caused the surrounding air to tremble, as if space itself was distorting.

At the center of the collision, Garou and Esdeath stood firm like a rock in a storm.

Chapter 530 Crazy Evolution

Their figures were looming in the smoke, as if two gods of war were fighting on the battlefield.

However, even such a powerful existence was hurt by the impact of this force.

Garou felt a strong force rushing into his body, as if to shatter his internal organs.

A trace of blood flowed from the corner of his mouth, but his eyes were more determined.

However, Garou was just holding on, and Esdeath looked at him calmly.

That expression was as if saying.

That's it?

Garou didn't expect Esdeath to be so strong. He supported his body and gasped heavily.

His eyeballs almost popped out of his eye sockets, which was a manifestation of his anger and unwillingness.

He roared: "I am the weird Garou!"

His voice was full of anger and unwillingness.

"I will never lose!"

He roared, and the muscles all over his body began to change strangely.

The originally slender body gradually swelled, and the muscles were abnormally developed, turning into a behemoth like a small giant.

The original hair on the top of his head evolved into a pointed horn that stretched and curved like a bull's horn, and his teeth gradually turned into fangs that intertwined like gears.

Four bone spurs protruded from his broad back, and the sharp bone spurs made him look like a demon.

If Garou still maintained a human form before, he was now a complete monster.

"Is this... is this me?"

Garou looked at his hands, which were no longer human hands, but monster hands full of power and destructive desire.

His body was constantly changing, and his strength was constantly increasing.

He felt as if he had broken through some kind of limitation, and the shackles that bound him from exerting his full strength had been broken.

His breathing became increasingly rapid, and his whole body's momentum soared into the sky like a long rainbow.

The air nearby gradually became heavy, and the wind sounded shrill.

The invisible and perceptible powerful energy magnetic field firmly attracted everyone's attention.

It was a heart-pounding power that could not be ignored.

The next moment, Garou punched Esdeath.

At the same time, a streak of light and fire was produced by the friction of the air brought by the fist wind.

The ruins and rubble were instantly burned into powder under the fist wind.

With one punch, no grass grows!

That kind of power makes people feel terrified, as if it can destroy everything.

However, even such power is just a trivial matter in the eyes of Esdeath.

The shocking battle between Garou and Esdeath intensified. Every time they fought with fists and feet, it seemed to shake the world and fill the entire battlefield with a murderous atmosphere.

Although Garou's body changed and his strength doubled, he still seemed insignificant in front of Esdeath, the female war god.

Every time Esdeath attacked, it was as fierce as a storm. Her fist wind was like a sharp blade that tore through the world, causing the surrounding air to twist instantly.

Her footsteps were like the wrath of the earth, and every step seemed to make the entire battlefield tremble.

However, Garou did not succumb to this powerful sense of oppression. There was an unyielding flame burning in his eyes, and every attack was full of crazy determination. Like an enraged beast, he rushed towards Esdeath desperately, trying to break the defense of the goddess of war with his thunderous attack.

However, no matter how hard he tried, he could not change the situation. Esdeath was like an invincible myth, her speed and strength were beyond Garou's imagination. She responded to Garou's attack with a contemptuous smile, and easily defeated him every time.

However, Garou did not give up.

He knew that giving up meant complete failure. He gritted his teeth, endured the pain in his body, stood up again, and rushed towards Esdeath. This time, his attack was more fierce and more crazy, as if he wanted to release all his strength to fight to the death with the goddess of war.

This earth-shaking battle made the entire battlefield devastated, with ruins, rubble, and smoke intertwined, like a doomsday painting. The duel between Garou and Esdeath made the battlefield even more tragic.

Garou's heart was full of unwillingness and despair, but he still stood firmly on the battlefield. He knew that he couldn't just succumb to fate. He wanted to become a true god of war and defeat Esdeath!

Suddenly, a powerful force that seemed to come from the abyss surged into Garou's body.

His body seemed to have turned into a huge furnace, smelting and reshaping every cell of itself.

This was a power from primitive instinct, an evolutionary power that exceeded human limits.

His muscles expanded and contracted at an almost crazy speed, and his bones seemed to be re-polished, becoming harder and sharper.

There was a sharp light flashing in his eyes, as if he could penetrate all illusions and look directly at the essence of life. His breath became as cold as ice, as if even the air was frozen by this chill.

He once again turned into a beast with endless power and speed. Every move he made was full of power and threat, as if even the heaven and earth were trembling.

He roared and rushed towards Esdeath again. His fist seemed to have turned into a huge iron ball, full of destructive power. He punched Esdeath's chest, as if to smash her entire body.

When his fist touched Esdeath's body, the air around him seemed to be torn apart by this force, forming a huge energy vortex. This vortex spread at an astonishing speed, engulfing all the surrounding gravel, smoke and debris on the battlefield.

This energy vortex seemed to have infinite power. It constantly devoured everything around it, and then released it in a more violent way. A spectacular energy storm was formed, covering everything on the battlefield.

Facing this sudden energy storm, Esdeath couldn't help but show a surprised expression. She responded quickly, put her hands together, and condensed a powerful energy. This energy seemed to have a mysterious power that could control the elements between heaven and earth.

When she pushed this energy out, a dazzling light instantly broke through the sky and collided fiercely with the energy storm of the hungry wolf. The two powerful forces met in the air, making a deafening noise.

Everything around seemed to be shattered by this power, and the smoke and gravel on the battlefield were engulfed in it, forming a chaotic scene.

However, in this fierce battle, Garou did not stop attacking. He seemed to have surpassed the limits of human beings and became a real beast. Each of his attacks was filled with endless power, as if he wanted to destroy the whole world.
