Chapter 721: Flowing Blade vs. Sea of Blood and Corpses

Unohana Retsu's eyes swept over Luther and Esdeath, and finally fixed on Esdeath.

Although Esdeath was a woman, the strong aura and cold temperament she exuded surprised Unohana Retsu.

She seemed to be able to feel the unique breath in Esdeath - a desire and pursuit for power and killing.

Esdeath also noticed Unohana Retsu's gaze, she raised her head slightly and looked at Unohana Retsu.

At that moment, time seemed to stand still. The auras between the two women collided and stirred each other, as if to set off a storm.

Esdeath could feel the powerful healing power of Unohana Retsu and the madness hidden in it. She couldn't help but have a strong interest in this healing master of the Soul Society.

"It's really interesting."

Esdeath smiled lightly, her voice full of playfulness and provocation.

Aizen Sosuke looked at the tense situation between the two sides and felt helpless in his heart.

He originally thought that he was the protagonist of this scene, but he was ignored by these people. However, he didn't care about these. He knew what he wanted, and he also knew that his plan could not have any deviation.

He glanced at the Hōgyoku in his hand, then raised his head and said to everyone: "I know you are all confused now and don't know why I do this. But it doesn't matter, you will understand everything soon."

His voice was full of confidence and calmness, as if everything was under his control.

Yamamoto Genryūsai Shigekuni did not relax his vigilance because of Aizen Sosuke's words. He knew that Aizen Sosuke was an extremely dangerous person, and his ambitions and plans were chilling.

Moreover, he knew that Aizen Sosuke wanted to involve the secret of that existence-that was the biggest taboo of their Soul Society.

Hearing this, Yamamoto Genryūsai Shigekuni finally couldn't help but explode.

"Aizen Sosuke! You betrayer! I must completely eradicate you today!"

Yamamoto Genryūsai Shigekuni's voice echoed in the void like thunder, shaking the air around him. He took off his coat, revealing muscles as hard as steel, and every muscle seemed to tell of his former glory and honor.

Time is unforgiving, and this "sword" that was once invincible has begun to show a little vicissitudes under the erosion of time, and a little rust flashes on the blade.

However, when Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni decided to take action, all the hesitation and hesitation disappeared, and the "sword" became sharp again.

He raised the Zanpakutō in his hand high and whispered: "Everything will return to ashes. Ryujin Jakka!"

With this whisper, Ryujin Jakka was instantly released, and the katana that was usually hidden in the cane finally revealed its true appearance at this moment. The dark purple handle, the oval blade guard, and the brown scabbard all look so ordinary, but they contain infinite power.

The flames began to jump on the blade.

The flames were so hot that they seemed to devour the whole world.

This is the power of the strongest and oldest Zanpakuto in the flame system!

The heat released by its Shikai is enough to turn everything it passes through into ashes.

"Aizen Sosuke, are you ready to die?"

Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni's voice was full of determination and firmness.

He seemed to be eager to kill the betrayer in front of him.

"So I said, you don't know anything yet."

Aizen's voice echoed on the battlefield, and his tone was full of sarcasm and confidence. He did not have any intention of hiding, but stood quietly in place, waiting for Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni's attack.

However, just when everyone thought that Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni would kill Aizen directly, something strange happened.

The figure of old man Yamamoto suddenly disappeared from the spot, as if he had merged into the air. Then, his figure suddenly appeared beside Esdeath.

Esdeath's reaction speed was extremely fast. Almost at the moment when Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni appeared, she released her soul blade - it was a blood-red sword, and countless wronged souls seemed to be wailing on the blade.

She waved her sword to resist Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni's attack, and the two swords collided in the air, making a deafening roar.

"What?"

Unohana Retsu and Kyoraku Shunsui and other Shinigami captains were stunned after seeing this scene.

They thought that Captain-General Yamamoto would attack Aizen directly before, so why did he suddenly attack Esdeath?

This sudden change made them all a little confused.

Unohana Retsu, Kyoraku Shunsui and others looked at each other, and they all felt that this matter was a bit strange.

Although Esdeath was also their enemy, Captain-General Yamamoto should not do such a sneak attack.

After all, as the captain of the Shinigami, Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni was not easy to say before, but now he will be very particular.

However, the facts are in front of them, Captain Yamamoto did attack Esdeath.

This made them begin to doubt their own judgment. Could it be that Captain Yamamoto has changed?

They could not understand Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni's behavior at all. Why did he attack Esdeath? Was what he said before about killing Aizen all false?

However, Luther knew that all this was a conspiracy of Aizen Sosuke.

He had long known Aizen's intentions.

He knew that the reason why Aizen asked Captain Yamamoto to attack Esdeath was to test the strength of the Ryogoku.

After all, the Ryogoku who could subdue the wild beast Kenpachi Zaraki must be extraordinary.

If he could find out their details through Captain Yamamoto's test, it would undoubtedly be a huge gain for Aizen.

Therefore, he deliberately asked Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni to attack Esdeath just to see how strong the Ryogoku was.

There is no test more valuable than Captain Yamamoto.

If the Ryogoku was killed by Captain Yamamoto with one sword, it means that they are just so-so and don't need to care at all.

But if they can withstand Captain Yamamoto's attack, it means that they have good strength and need to be more careful.

"Want to sneak attack me?"

Esdeath said sarcastically, and it seemed that she completely blocked the attack of Ryujin Jakka, and even the blazing flames did not affect Esdeath.

"Zanpakuto?"

The others looked at the sword in Esdeath's hand, which suddenly turned red and changed its appearance.

But it was different from the Zanpakuto, they were sure of this, it should be a similar weapon?

Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni turned a deaf ear to it, and seemed to be determined to deal with Esdeath.

Chapter 722: The Swastika Residual Fire Sword!

"boom!"

A huge collision echoed over the quiet Seireitei. The blades of Esdeath and Yamamoto Genryu Saishigekuni clashed. Sparks flew everywhere, as if even the surrounding air was torn apart.

Every time Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni swung his sword, it was accompanied by a blazing heat wave, forcing the surrounding Shinigami to retreat continuously.

Esdeath could feel the unfathomable strength of Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni, but for her, although a strong man of this level was rare, it was not impossible to deal with.

After all, she is the kind of powerful being who can easily explode stars.

However, the Ryukenwaka in Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni's hands did cause her some trouble. If she hadn't used Qi to strengthen and protect her body, she might not have dared to confront the flame at such a close range.

"This is the situation now. Let's stop making small fuss. You...you should still have a swastika."

Esdeath smiled slightly, her eyes full of anticipation. She longed to fight with strong men, and even more eager to see stronger moves.

Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni frowned slightly when he heard this.

He knew that the ultimate move Esdeath was talking about was not a child's play, but a real battle of life and death.

However, he also knew that his swastika was extremely powerful. Once it was used, the entire Seireitei might be affected, and it might even endanger the surrounding subordinates. Therefore, he hesitated.

"My swastika cannot be used casually."

Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni said in a deep voice.

However, Esdeath didn't give him much time to hesitate.

She increased her strength and swung out the sword. The powerful energy directly knocked Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni away, and Liu Ren Ruohuo was almost cut off by this blow.

"If you don't take it seriously, you will die."

Esdeath's voice was cold and decisive, and her words were like a sharp sword, pointing directly at the heart of Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni.

Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni stood up again, with several scars and blood stains already appearing on his body.

Although these scars were not deep, they were enough to prove the strength gap between him and Esdeath.

Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni no longer knows when he was last injured. His reiatsu is so powerful that it can break through his reiatsu defense, and not many people can hurt him.

Now he was actually injured, and he still resisted most of the force in the aftermath.

He knew that if he didn't go all out, he might really die here.

So, at this critical moment, Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni made a difficult decision - he wanted to liberate his own swastika!

He took a deep breath, and then clenched the Blade Ruohuo in his hand again.

"I haven't used swastika for a long time..."

Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni said in a deep voice. His voice was full of determination and helplessness, as if he also realized that this would be a life and death battle.

"Swastika: Can Huo Tai Sword!"

On this silent battlefield, Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni's voice exploded like thunder, shocking everyone present.

I saw Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni tightly holding the Ryuken Wakahu in his hand. This oldest and most powerful heat-type Zanpakuto seemed to be given life at this moment.

Hot flames danced on the blade, as if it was about to ignite the surrounding air. He took a deep breath, concentrated all his strength on the blade, and swung it violently.

With this wave, an indescribable force burst out from his body. This force was as violent as a volcanic eruption, instantly detonating the surrounding air.

A huge pillar of fire rose into the sky, hundreds of meters high, reaching into the sky. The color of the pillar of fire was so bright that it seemed to dye the entire sky red.

The temperature of this pillar of fire reaches 15 million degrees, which is hotter than the core of the sun.

Flames danced wildly in the air, even the space was burned and distorted.

Everything around this pillar of fire turned into powder.

Whether it was hard rock or soft soil, everything was reduced to ashes at this moment.

There wasn't even a burning process, it just turned into ashes.

The people in the distance were shocked by this power, and they retreated one after another for fear of being affected by this power.

There was a look of horror on their faces, because they knew that this was no longer a simple battle, but a life-and-death contest between two of the world's top powerhouses.

Opposite the pillar of fire, Esdeath did not dodge.

She looked at the pillar of fire in front of her, a hint of excitement flashing in her eyes. She could feel the terrifying power contained in this flame, but it was this power that made her even more excited.

Esdeath smiled slightly, her smile full of confidence and arrogance.

"You really surprised me."

Esdeath looked at Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni and said calmly.

Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni looked at Esdeath, with a trace of determination flashing in his eyes. He knew that his swastika was so powerful that once it was released, it would continuously evaporate and vaporize the entire Soul Society.

If it lasts for too long, the entire Soul Society will turn into a scorched earth. Because the flames he is releasing now are equivalent to a real sun appearing in Soul Society.

"I have to deal with you as soon as possible!"

Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni shouted loudly.

The surrounding air seemed to solidify due to his momentum, and everyone felt an invisible pressure rushing towards their faces, which was suffocating. However, at this moment, Luther gently snapped his fingers.

This snap was crisp and loud, shocking like a morning bell and an evening drum.

Its sound seemed to penetrate the air and hit everyone's heart directly. Everyone present was shocked, as if they were hit by an invisible force, and they stopped their actions involuntarily.

Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni was no exception. His pupils shrank and he showed a surprised expression. He stared at the scene in front of him with wide eyes, as if he saw something incredible.

His face was full of shock and confusion, as if he couldn't understand what was happening in front of him.

"What's going on?"

Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni said with a tremor and uneasiness in his voice. He thought he had been fighting with Aizen Sosuke, and the opponent's power was beyond his imagination.

It also forced Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni to use Bankai.

But now, he suddenly found himself fighting with a completely stranger.

Aizen Sosuke looked at Luther.

Unohana Retsu, Kyoraku Shunsui, Ukitake Jushiro and the others were all confused as to why Captain Yamamoto had stopped again, and he still had a shocked expression on his face.

"What happened?"

Esdeath was ready. She felt that the endless heat was concentrated on the knife, and the next knife would definitely be a knife that would destroy the world.

Chapter 723 The show is about to begin

"I'm not fighting Aizen Sosuke?"

Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni stood in the center of the battlefield, his eyes full of doubts.

He still held the residual fire sword in his hand, which symbolized his majesty, but at this moment, he felt an inexplicable emptiness and uneasiness.

He was silent for a moment, seeming to recall the previous battle.

However, when his eyes swept across the battlefield and landed on the faces of Kyōraku Shunsui and Ukitake Jūshirō, he couldn't help but feel a trace of doubt in his heart.

Kyoraku Shunsui, the unruly Shinigami captain who always had a relaxed smile, also showed a surprised expression at this moment.

He widened his eyes and looked at Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni, as if to confirm whether he heard something wrong.

He couldn't help but laugh, but there was a hint of uneasiness in his laughter.

"Old man, what are you talking about? Are you at an age where your eyesight is dim and you can't see the enemy clearly?"

Kyoraku Shunsui said with a hint of joking.

However, Kyoraku Shunsui's laughter soon solidified in the air.

Because he realized that Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni's words were not without purpose.

He suddenly held down his bamboo hat, as if trying to suppress the fear in his heart.

He realized that there seemed to be something more terrifying hidden on this battlefield.

Kyōraku Shunsui's words stunned Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni for a moment, and he suddenly realized something.

He looked around, trying to find that familiar figure - Aizen Soyousuke.

At this moment, Aizen Sosuke suddenly laughed.

His laughter was like the spring breeze blowing on his face, but with a hint of chill. He slowly raised his left hand, and the Zanpakutō in his hand shone coldly in the sunlight.

"Let me reveal the answer to the mystery, break it into pieces, mirror flowers, water moon."

As his voice fell, the surrounding air seemed to freeze.

"My Zanpakutō, Kyōka Suigetsu, its ability is...complete hypnosis."

Aizen Sosuke said with a smile, and every word pierced everyone's hearts like a needle.

Totally hypnotic?

Everyone was stunned because they had never heard of such an ability. This was completely different from what Aizen had said before, and they were extremely shocked.

"A lie?"

"I always feel like there's something wrong with your body. Could it be that... it's not the doll, but... I'm under hypnosis?"

Unohana Retsu said immediately, with a tremor in her voice.

She thought of Aizen's body she had seen before, and felt uneasy in her heart.

Could it be...that it wasn't a doll, but that she herself was hypnotized?

The thought made her shudder.

"Complete hypnosis can control a person's five senses, causing people to misjudge shape, state, quality, touch, and even taste, and treat the target as an enemy."

Aizen Sosuke explained with a smile.

"So Captain, do you understand? You thought the person you killed was me...but you found the wrong person."

Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni was silent for a moment, and then nodded slowly.

This is all Aizen's conspiracy. He set this up from the beginning, trapping everyone in his hypnosis.

"The conditions for activating Mirror Flowers, Water Moon are for people to see the moment of liberation."

"As long as I meet you once, you will be completely hypnotized from then on. As long as I liberate Jing Hua Shui Yue, you will be completely controlled by me."

Aizen Sosuke said calmly.

"I see....."

Unohana Retsu, Kyoryu Shunsui and others finally understood the truth of the matter.

"Wait... only met once?"

Suddenly, Kyōraku Shunsui thought of something.

He looked at Sosuke Aizen, a trace of anger flashing in his eyes.

It turns out that the reason why they were tricked was because they had seen the moment when Aizen released his Zanpakutō before. This discovery made them feel extremely angry and helpless.

"Yes, only once."

Aizen Sosuke said with a smile.

"Of course, invisible people can't do it, so... Dong Xian will be my subordinate from the beginning."

As he spoke, he waved his hand, and two figures appeared next to him - Ichimaru Gin and Tosen Kaname.

The two of them have been hiding in the dark, waiting for this moment to come.

"Captain Aizen, it seems that our plan is going to fail. This travel accident can actually break the mirror."

Ichimaru Gin stared at Luther and said.

"Yin, there is no need to worry. Although Jinghua Shuiyue was cracked beyond my expectation, there is no invincible ability in this world."

Aizen Sosuke still said confidently.

"If you can no longer control your five senses, do you think you can escape from me?"

Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni's voice was low and majestic, and every word was like a heavy hammer, hitting the hearts of everyone present.

Aizen smiled slightly, and that smile was full of confidence and calmness.

He raised his head and looked at Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni.

Aizen still had that signature smile on his face, as if everything was under his control.

"Captain, I have never underestimated you."

He said slowly, a hint of teasing in his voice.

"However, this world is always full of surprises, isn't it?"

His eyes turned to the group of figures next to him, which were travelers from another world.

They were involved in this dispute for various reasons, but unexpectedly became a key part of Aizen's plan.

"If it weren't for the help of this traveler, I really wouldn't dare to act rashly, but now, the things are in hand, and the time is almost up."

"Hmph, Aizen. You have been hiding so deeply that I even began to doubt whether I really know you."

Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni said.

Aizen smiled slightly, as if everything was under control.

"Captain, you are indeed a respectable opponent. However, you are too obsessed with power itself and ignore the real goal. And I know what I want from the beginning."

"What you want is just to rule the world."

Kyoraku Shunsui said coldly, his eyes full of vigilance and doubt.

"Rule the world? That's just the first step."

Aizen's voice was full of ambition and arrogance.

"What I want is to transcend this world and reach a higher realm. There, there are no gods, no people, only myself."

At this moment, a huge crack suddenly appeared in the sky. This crack seemed to tear the boundaries of time and space, exuding a terrifying breath.

There seemed to be some huge creature roaring in the crack, and the sound was deafening and frightening.

Suddenly, three dazzling lights descended from the crack, covering Aizen, Ichimaru Gin, and Tosen Kaname. These lights exuded a mysterious atmosphere, as if they came from another world.

Chapter 724: Stay

"Is this...anti-membrane?"

Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni stared at the strange light that gradually spread in front of him, and his expression instantly became solemn.

He knew very well that this thing called "anti-membrane" was the mysterious power that Daxu used to save his companions when facing desperate situations.

As the light fell, the entire space seemed to be torn apart, and the interior and exterior were ruthlessly separated into two completely different worlds.

They, the people inside, were now powerless to stop Aizen from using this anti-membrane power to escape from the territory they had sworn to protect to the death.

Kyōraku Shunsui, Ukitake Jūshirō and other elite members of the Gotei 13 had their faces filled with solemnity and helplessness.

They know that Aizen's departure not only means that Soul Society has lost a powerful fighter, but also means that the world will face unprecedented threats.

"Aizen, what exactly do you want to do?"

Kyōraku Shunsui couldn't help but asked loudly, his voice full of anger and confusion.

Aizen turned around with a faint smile on his face, as if he was already accustomed to everyone's anger and confusion.

"For a higher realm."

He spoke slowly, with an indescribable firmness and persistence in his voice.

"From the beginning, there has been no one in heaven, not you, me, not even God. But this unbearable interregnum of the throne in heaven is about to end, and from now on... I will rule heaven. "

Aizen's words were full of ambition and domineering, making everyone present feel a chill.

They knew that Aizen was not an ordinary traitor, his ambitions went far beyond that.

What he wants is the whole world, endless power and power.

"you....."

Kyōraku Shunsui wanted to say something angrily, but was interrupted by Yamamoto Genryū Sai Shigekuni.

"Stop talking."

Yamamoto Genryū Sai Shigekuni said in a deep voice, his voice full of helplessness and determination.

"The matter has come to this, we can only accept the reality. But Aizen, you have to remember, no matter where you escape, no matter what you become, we, the Gotei Thirteen, will never let you go!"

When Aizen heard this, he just smiled slightly, as if he didn't care about the threat of Yamamoto Genryū Sai Shigekuni.

"Then we'll see."

He said calmly, and then turned to look at the two people shrouded in reflective light - Ichimaru Gin and Tosen Kaname.

"Yin, Dongxian, let's go."

He said, his voice full of unquestionable determination.

"There is nothing left in this world that we can miss."

Just when the three of them were about to step into the reflective membrane and disappear from everyone's eyes, a crisp and loud snap of fingers suddenly sounded.

The sound of snapping fingers is as shocking as morning bells and evening drums, which makes people feel excited.

Immediately afterwards, the reflex membrane that was about to close suddenly stopped abruptly, and then dissipated into the air like broken glass.

Aizen, Ichimaru Gin and Tosen Kaname were stunned on the spot, looking at the scene in front of them with disbelief on their faces.

They didn't understand why this originally foolproof counter-membrane failed at this critical moment.

Not far away from these three people, Luther was sitting on the magic car with a playful smile on his face.

"It would be too arrogant to suddenly attack my men and then leave like this, Death God."

Luther said calmly, with an undoubted majesty in his voice.

Aizen's face instantly turned gloomy when he heard this.

He did not expect that at this critical moment, such an unimaginable opponent would appear.

"I see."

Aizen Sosuke nodded and said.

"In that case, let's have a real battle."

As soon as Aizen Sosuke finished his words, his figure dissipated in the air like smoke, as if he had never existed.

His voice still echoed in the air, but he had disappeared.

Luther has threatened him, and he wants to test Luther's background.

"let me!"

Zaraki Kenpachi shouted loudly.

However, just as he finished speaking, Aizen Sosuke's figure appeared again.

He held Kyouka Suigetsu and waved it lightly, causing a deep stab wound to appear on Zaraki Kenpachi's body.

The whole process was incredibly fast. No one saw when Aizen Sosuke took out the knife and when he put it away.

Zaraki Kenpachi covered his wound, his eyes full of shock and unwillingness.

He never imagined that he would be so vulnerable in front of this man.

Jingraku Shunsui stood aside, watching this scene, his pupils couldn't help but shrink.

He thought Aizen Soyousuke was so arrogant because he hypnotized all of them with Kyoka Suigetsu. But now it seems that even without the mirror, this man is still terrifyingly strong!

He could only vaguely see the traces of Aizen Sosuke's sword.

You know, he was trained as the next captain, and he is extremely powerful.

Compared to the Death God Captain who has been a thousand years, the only thing he lacks is his knowledge of spiritual pressure.

The gap between captain Shinigami is greater than the gap between captain-level Shinigami and ordinary Shinigami.

They are also captains. Some people can kill a hundred captains instantly, and some people are the captains who are killed instantly.

Especially the captains of the millennium who have been captains for a thousand years, all of them are the type of people who are strong and invincible.

Kyoraku Shunsui is a captain of the centenary, and he has been a captain for at least a hundred years. For the god of death, time is a symbol of foundation and strength.

It is enough for them to hone their skills, strengthen their spiritual pressure, and control their bankai.

Even Kyoraku Shunsui could only vaguely see a trace of Aizen Sosuke's sword, so you can imagine how fast he swings the sword.

"The strength of this man..."

Kyoraku Shunsui was shocked.

Luther looked at Kenpachi Zaraki who fell to the ground and supported his forehead helplessly.

"Really, Kenpachi Zaraki is too embarrassing."

He knew that Kenpachi Zaraki was still very weak. Not only did he seal most of his power by himself, but he had not even learned Shikai and Bankai for his Zanpakutō.

It was reasonable for him to be killed by Aizen Sosuke with one sword.

However, at this moment, Esdeath suddenly stood in front of Aizen Sosuke.

But Aizen Sosuke was also blocked by Esdeath.

Aizen Sosuke looked at Esdeath with a hint of surprise in his eyes.

He didn't expect that this woman could actually block his attack.

He smiled slightly and said, "It's really curious, what exactly are you?"

Aizen Sosuke knew how strong he was. He had reached the limit of the god of death in all aspects, so he sought a breakthrough. The next step was to go to the Hueco Mundo to study the power of the hollows and the essence of the Hougyoku, and then break the limit of the god of death.

Chapter 725 Nemesis

Aizen Sosuke boasted that his strength was at the top of the Three Realms, but suddenly two unfathomable travel disasters occurred.

Esdeath was able to block his own sword with one hand, which shows that the strength of these two travelers is beyond imagination.

Of course Aizen Sosuke would be curious when two such powerful beings suddenly appeared.

Both of them were dazzlingly fast, and every attack seemed to be able to tear apart space.

The surrounding air was affected by their battle, causing ripples.

Ichimaru Gin and Tosen Kaname were also surrounded by people from Seireitei.

"Captain Aizen, what should we do?"

Ichimaru Gin narrowed his eyes and asked with a smile.

"Yin, Dongxian, it's up to you to decide whether you want to resist or surrender."

Aizen Sosuke said without any panic.

"Do you still have the ability to speak?"

Esdeath sneered.

Esdeath felt that Aizen Sosuke still had room to speak during the fight, which meant that she did not put enough pressure on Aizen.

As a result, all the strength in her body gathered at one point like a raging wave, preparing to deliver a fatal blow to Sosuke Aizen.

Aizen Sosuke felt that Esdeath's power was rising sharply. He knew that if he didn't go all out, he might lose.

Aizen Sosuke felt unprecedented pressure.

Although his Mirror Flower and Water Moon ability is extremely powerful, facing an opponent like Esdeath, he knows that his output ability is still lacking.

To make up for this shortcoming, he quickly unleashed the power of Kidō.

"Beast bones scattered everywhere! Spires and wheels of red crystal steel. What moves is the wind, what is still is the sky. The sound of spears hitting each other resounds throughout the virtual city!"

This is the sixty-three spell of Kidō·Bōdō. Aizen Sosuke is preparing to release this powerful Kidō to fight against Esdeath.

"Broken Path No. 63, Thunder Roar Cannon!"

As the spell was completed, a ball of dazzling thunder and lightning was launched from Aizen Sosuke's palm.

This ball of thunder and lightning contains huge energy, and once it hits the target, it will cause a violent explosion.

When Esdeath saw this, she immediately realized that this attack was not trivial, and she wanted to dodge it, but at this time, Luther asked her to concentrate her spiritual pressure in the way he said.

Esdeath was shocked, but she didn't panic. She took a deep breath and concentrated all her spiritual pressure on her fingertips.

The next moment, a dark blue ray of light shot out from her fingertips.

Divine flash!

Divine Flash is a ray-like flash created by Esdeath's highly concentrated spiritual pressure, which is extremely powerful.

This dark blue ray drew a beautiful arc in the air, and then slammed into the thunder and lightning released by Sosuke Aizen. The moment the two collided, an astonishing wave of energy erupted.

The entire battlefield seemed to be shaking under this energy, as if even the space was about to be torn apart.

"At least equivalent to the power of a No. 80 broken path!"

Kyōraku Shunsui and Ukitake Jūshirō, as the top experts in the Shinigami world, they could feel the terrifying power contained in Esdeath's attack, which was at least equivalent to a broken path No. 80 or above.

Such power is extremely rare in the world of Death.

The roar was deafening, and the entire battlefield seemed to be swallowed up by this energy. Where the divine flash collided with the thunder and lightning, a dazzling light burst out.

In the light, the thunder cannon was directly penetrated by the divine flash to offset and annihilate it. Aizen Sosuke's face changed slightly when he saw this. He knew that he could not underestimate the power of this blow, otherwise the consequences would be disastrous.

He reacted quickly and recited the incantation again: "The proud son of heaven, the city wall made of iron, the dragon moves, the lion roars, the tiger roars, the wolf runs, cut off the heaven and the earth before collapse, the eighty-one of the bound road - break the sky!"

As the spell was completed, a huge translucent defensive wall appeared in front of Sosuke Aizen. This defensive wall exudes a faint light and seems to be able to block all attacks.

Duan Kong can completely defend against broken paths below number 89.

However, Esdeath's divine flash seemed to ignore this layer of defense. It hit the sky like an arrow piercing the sky.

"Boom!!!"

The sound was like thunder exploding in his ears, and Duan Kong instantly collapsed under the bombardment of the divine flash.

A violent energy ran wildly like a wild horse, kicking up a thick layer of dust on the surrounding ground. The dust filled the air, covering the sky and the sun, as if the end was coming.

At the moment when the sky was shattered, Aizen Sosuke had quickly left the place.

His brows were furrowed, and there was some confusion in his eyes. He carefully analyzed the characteristics of that energy and felt that it was like a virtual flash, but it had a completely different charm.

"Virtual flash?"

Aizen Sosuke whispered to himself, with a bit of uncertainty in his voice.

However, Aizen Sosuke analyzed it carefully and found that it did not feel like a false flash.

"Special spiritual pressure."

Aizen Sosuke felt the specialness of that spiritual pressure, which was as powerful as a broken bamboo, invincible and invincible.

However, just as he was doubting, Luther's voice suddenly sounded: "It is the power of destruction."

These words were like thunder, shocking everyone present. They all looked at Luther, trying to get more information from him.

"The power of destruction?"

Kyoraku Shunsui asked doubtfully, his voice full of confusion.

Luther nodded and continued: "Yes, the power of destruction. We are the gods of destruction, and we have the power of destruction that is different from your Shinigami, Hollows, and Quincy. Such spiritual pressure allows us to easily destroy spiritual beings." In front of our God of Destruction, your spiritual pressure is nothing."

Luther's words were like a bombshell, setting off a storm in everyone's mind. They couldn't imagine that someone could destroy the spirit son. It was like saying that they could destroy atoms.

In the world of Death, spirit sons are equivalent to the basis of everything, the atoms that make up all things.

"Impossible, destroy the spirit son???"

However, the facts were in front of them, and they had to believe it.

That violent energy is the best proof.

Not only can it destroy powerful defenses like Duan Kong, it can even destroy the spirit child itself. Such power is simply like a nightmare in the world of Death.

"Not even the Quincy's power of annihilation is so overbearing."

Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni thought to himself, after all, the source of the Quincy is the Soul King. The Soul King used the power of Quincy to kill the unprecedented king. Otherwise, there would be no one who could be that king. Virtual opponent.

Could it be that the origins of these Gods of Destruction are similar?

"The God of Destruction and the Power of Destruction?"

Aizen Sosuke was thoughtful.

Chapter 726: Aizen is forced into a desperate situation

Faced with an enemy he didn't know the details of and didn't know how to deal with, Aizen Sosuke didn't know what to do for a moment.

The power of destruction sounds difficult to deal with, and it is actually so.

Under Aizen Sosuke's full-strength chant, Dankong judged that he could block Esdeath's God Flash, but it collapsed at the touch, just like a sand castle that was piled up and collapsed directly when it encountered the erosion of sea water.

Aizen Sosuke felt that facing these gods of destruction, the battle rules he had adapted to in the past were no longer applicable.

The battle of the death god is a battle of spiritual pressure. If the spiritual pressure is strong enough, the enemy with weak spiritual pressure will not be able to hurt himself.

But the gods of destruction are different. Aizen Sosuke feels that even if his spiritual pressure is stronger than the opponent, he may not be able to block the opponent's attack.

In simple terms, the destructive power of the gods of destruction is true damage + invincible penetration, ignoring defense and directly penetrating.

This requires Aizen Sosuke to use more spiritual pressure to offset the opponent's destructive power.

Esdeath used the Divine Flash again on Aizen Sosuke with interest. She had learned how to transform spiritual pressure into destructive power.

The Quincy of the Quincy is just the power of Quincy produced by special changes in the spirit particles, and the destructive power is the same.

It's just that the destructive power is more advanced because it is produced by Luther.

Strictly speaking, Esdeath at this moment is the original Soul King.

"That's enough, Esdeath, let them solve it themselves next."

Luther didn't want Aizen Sosuke's good show to be ruined by himself, otherwise why did he keep Aizen Sosuke?

Esdeath naturally wouldn't go against Luther's words, and she appeared next to Luther with a flash-like teleportation.

Aizen Sosuke didn't continue to attack. He couldn't even deal with Esdeath, let alone Luther?

Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni took a deep look at Esdeath and Luther, and focused his attention on Aizen Sosuke.

Now, the most important thing is to get rid of the traitor!

"Aizome Sosuke, I swear to kill you today!"

Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni's eyes were like torches. Although he was old, his domineering and determination were still the same. His words echoed in the empty battlefield, as if foreshadowing the coming storm.

Just now, although Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni verbally said that he would let it go for the time being, it was only because he knew the difficulty of the anti-membrane power.

At this moment, the anger in his heart could no longer be suppressed. He wanted to let Aizen Sosuke understand what the strongest death god of a thousand years was!

Zanka Tachi, this legendary weapon shone brightly in the hands of Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni.

With a light wave, the invisible heat swept out like a frenzy, burning everything in front of him.

Aizen Sosuke felt this terrifying power and disappeared instantly.

His instant step, as the ultimate skill of the death god, was brought to its extreme at this time.

However, Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni seemed to be able to see through everything. He followed closely behind Aizen Sosuke, and every step seemed so calm.

The title of the strongest god of death in a thousand years is not groundless.

Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni has cultivated all the skills of the god of death to the extreme. No one can beat him in terms of strength, speed or skills.

Although Aizen Sosuke is also an outstanding god of death, he can only be regarded as a challenger in front of him.

Aizen Sosuke knew that something was wrong. He quickly turned the mirror flower and water moon upside down, with the tip of the knife facing down, ready to release the mirror flower and water moon again.

However, at the moment he was about to release it, Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni had already appeared in front of him.

One knife, without any hesitation or fear.

Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni believed in his own strength. He believed that he could kill Aizen Sosuke before he released the mirror flower and water moon.

Aizen Sosuke's pupils shrank, and he felt an unprecedented crisis.

He had never thought that someone could be so fast that he could approach him before he was ready to release Jinghua Shuiyue.

He could only use the instant step again and barely dodge the knife.

However, Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni did not give up.

He put away the knife in time. Although he did not kill Aizen Sosuke, the terrifying power contained in the knife still split the earth.

The soil and rocks on the ground were instantly vaporized and sublimated at a high temperature of 15 million degrees, and tens of thousands of tons of soil were evaporated out of thin air.

The entire battlefield seemed to be shocked by this power, as if even time had stopped at this moment.

Aizen Sosuke looked at the scene in front of him, and a chill rose in his heart.

He had never thought that he would face such a powerful opponent. He knew that if he continued like this, he might really be killed by Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni.

Compared with Ryujin Jakko, there is a huge gap between Kyoka Suigetsu and Ryujin Jakko.

Aizen Sosuke couldn't help but think of the strongest Zanpakutō of the ice and snow type, Hyorinmaru.

If he got such a Zanpakutō, he would definitely be able to confront Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni head-on.

After all, his spiritual pressure strength is not inferior to Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni, and his abilities in all aspects are almost the same. The only thing he lacks is the ability of his Zanpakutō.

There is also the suspected strongest lightning-type Genremaru. Judging from the Bleach, there is only this one lightning-type Zanpakutō. Together with Hyorinmaru, they are the only two Zanpakutō that can control the weather. If there is only this one lightning-type Zanpakutō, Genremaru is the strongest lightning-type Zanpakutō.

Aizen Sosuke had no choice but to attack through Kidō.

"The emblems that faintly reveal the turbidity, the talent of the unruly and arrogant; the tide·denial·paralysis·a moment, hindering the long sleep. The crawling Princess of Steel, the clay doll that constantly hurts itself, combine·rebound·extend to the ground, know your own powerlessness! The Ninety of the Broken Path - Black Coffin!"

Aizen Sosuke chanted with all his strength.

Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni frowned, and his body was swallowed by a huge black cube that appeared out of thin air.

But the next moment, before the Black Coffin could burst out the damage, a knife split it open. The Zankao Tachi seemed to have no flames, but everything that touched it would turn into ashes.

The Black Coffin was no exception.

Aizen Sosuke frowned, and originally wanted to use the Black Coffin to restrict it, but Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni didn't care so much, and with one knife, everything would turn into ashes.

Moreover, the release time is too long now, and the moisture in everyone's body begins to evaporate, and the surroundings are shrouded in huge heat.

Aizen Sosuke has begun to feel tired.

Originally, he was not ready to face Yamamoto Genryusai Shigekuni. At least he had to wait until he studied the Hogyoku and figured out the power of the Hogyoku.

Chapter 727 Aizen Sosuke: Experience a new future

But in this situation, Aizen Soyosuke has no other choice.

Luther's mechanical deity destroyed his plan completely unreasonably.

Luther patted Esdeath's butt.

"Put on the air conditioner."

Although Luther didn't care about the temperature of only 15 million degrees, there was a human-shaped air conditioner next to him. How could he embarrass himself?

Of course, it depends on what makes you feel comfortable.

Esdeath was photographed giving Luther a charming look, and she also knew that Luther didn't care about heat.

But she still released the chill.

The cold air only enveloped Luther's position, not even Zarakī Kenpachi on the ground.

Kenpachi Zarakī woke up quickly despite the heat.

"What's going on? Why is it so hot?"

When Kusaka Yachiru saw Zarakī Kenpachi waking up, he immediately dragged him to the cold range of Esdeath.

"Xiaojian, are you okay?"

Kusaka Yachiru asked.

"Ah, it's okay."

Zarakī Kenpachi's wound no longer bleeds because the blood has been evaporated, which is equivalent to changing direction to stop the bleeding.

He saw Yamamoto Genryū Sai Shigekuni chasing Aizen Soyōsuke, who didn't dare to fight back and didn't even think of using Kyōka Suigetsu to resist.

If you really dare to resist, I'm afraid that Jinghua Shuiyue will be directly transformed into gas.

Yamamoto Genryū Sai Shigekuni also discovered that Aizen Soyōsuke is really difficult to deal with, and his abilities in all aspects are almost the same as his own. If the Zanpakuto's ability was not based on illusions, the two of them should be fighting now. It has reached the point of destroying the heaven and the earth, and the heaven and earth are falling apart.

Jingraku Shunsui stood aside, his bamboo hat drooped, covering his complicated eyes.

"Aizen Sosuke..."

He didn't expect that under the circumstances where the old man Yamamoto Genryū Sai Shigekuni was showing his true strength, Sosuke Aizen could persist until now without being injured. At most, he looked a little embarrassed.

Aizen Sosuke released ghost attacks from time to time. Although they were all defeated by Yamamoto Genryū Sai Shigekuni, these counterattacks still caused some trouble for Yamamoto.

Yamamoto Genryū Sai Shigekuni knew that this stalemate could not continue. He must exert greater strength to win this battle.

"Resident Fire Taishō·Xi——Resident Ri Prison Clothes!"

Yamamoto Genryū Sai Shigekuni shouted and turned his spiritual pressure into a 15 million degree flame.

The flames covered his body and the blade like a blazing sun. If you approach the knife-wielding person unprepared, you will instantly turn into flying ash.

Aizen Sosuke's face changed slightly when he saw this.

He felt the terrifying power of the flames and knew that he had to distance himself further to avoid it.

Otherwise, even at this distance, he will be burned up and reduced to ashes!

The ground turned into a field of magma, making it more difficult for Aizen Soyosuke to evade.

However, Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni did not give him this opportunity. He swung his sword again and performed a more powerful move.

"Bodies, the ashes of the dead burned to death by my flames, lend me a helping hand, allowing you to temporarily enjoy the joy of fighting..."

"Remnant Fire Taishou Nan——Fire Fire Ten Trillions Death Burial Formation!"

Following Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni's order, he inserted the blade of the residual fire sword into the ground. The high temperature of the Zanpakutō quickly awakens the ashes of those who died under his sword in the past.

These ashes were burned by the flames and turned into an army of charred skeletons. They held weapons and endlessly killed those whom Yamamoto regarded as enemies.

Aizen Sosuke looked at these skeleton legions, a trace of solemnity flashed in his eyes.

He knew that these skeleton legions were once powerful warriors, and their strength should not be underestimated. Moreover, the number of these skeleton legions was huge enough to pose a great threat to him.

Yamamoto Genryu Sai Shigekuni looked at Aizen Sosuke being besieged by the skeleton army, with a sneer on his face.

He knew that his move had successfully made it more difficult for Aizen Soyosuke to avoid.

Now, Soyosuke Aizen must keep a greater distance to avoid the blazing flames of the Zanri Prison Clothes. At the same time, the dead who emerge will continue to interfere with his actions.

Aizen Sosuke stood in the distance, his eyes flashing with cold light. He knew that he couldn't sit idly by, otherwise once entangled by these skeleton legions, it would be difficult to escape.

So, he waved the mirror in his hand and launched an attack on the skeleton army.

However, the strength of these skeleton legions was far beyond his imagination. They seem to be tireless and can recover quickly no matter what kind of attack they receive.

Moreover, their numbers were huge and they were constantly pouring out of the ground, making Aizen Soyosuke feel a little powerless.

He waved the mirror in his hand and started a fierce battle with the skeleton army.

Every swing of the sword was accompanied by a flash of cold light, forcing the surrounding skeleton army back a few steps.

At this moment, a tall skeleton raised a big knife and struck hard at Sosuke Aizen. Aizen Sosuke casually waved Kyouka Suigetsu in an attempt to block the blow.

However, he underestimated the skeleton's power. The big knife struck Jing Hua Shui Yue hard, making a deafening sound. Aizen Sosuke's hand trembled slightly, and the mirror flowers and water moon also trembled.

He almost failed to hold Jinghua Suiyue, but fortunately he reacted in time and did not let Jinghua Suiyue escape.

"These guys..."

A trace of surprise flashed in Aizen Sosuke's eyes.

"Just ashes, don't block the road."

Then Aizen increased his strength and cut the skeleton open with one knife.

"This thing actually has attack power."

Luther said with interest, thoughtfully.

When reading the comics, it should have no attack power. The fake Yuhabach can break them with his bare hands.

I didn't expect that the corpses that appeared now could actually shake Aizen Sosuke.

At this moment, Yamamoto Shigekuni gave Aizen Sosuke the last blow.

When he was surrounded by corpses.

"Aizen Sosuke, your great evil ends here. I will not have any mercy on the great evil. Let me end it all with my own hands!"

Yamamoto Shigekuni said.

"Zankadachi·North——Heaven and Earth Ashes!"

This is a slash released at a very fast speed from a super long distance, and everything touched by the slash will be reduced to ashes.

Aizen Sosuke felt the fatal threat. At this moment, Yamamoto Shigekuni's movements began to slow down in his eyes.

He raised the knife very slowly, and then swung it down very slowly.

But his body was even slower, and it was impossible to dodge this knife!

Aizen Sosuke's pupils shrank.

"As expected of Captain-General Yamamoto, then, in my Bankai, experience a new beginning, the future."

Chapter 728 The Omniscient and Almighty God King

The shape, state, and abilities of the Zanpakutō are modeled after the soul of the God of Death himself.

The Shinigami gains power by knowing the name of the Zanpakutō given to him and by having spiritual conversations with it.

Who told you this?

Is your world really your world?

Is everything you know in your world really everything?

"The interpretation of the swastika·Flowers in the mirror and the moon in the water·Like a dream."

Its capabilities are:

"Confusing the lines between reality and hypnosis."

① His senses were controlled by Jing Hua Shui Yue Shijie's ability.

② Can recall Aizen's face and know Aizen's name, and at the same time can be recalled by Aizen and know his name.

All creatures that meet the above conditions will be lost in reality and hypnosis the moment it is activated.

This is what it means to start a new beginning in the future.

The ability to change all situations that are not conducive to oneself into dreams, and then change reality.

This ability seems extremely powerful, but for Aizen Soyousuke, it is a helpless choice.

He, a proud and confident Shinigami, a strong man standing at the pinnacle of Soul Society, was now forced into a desperate situation and had to use this ability to admit failure and disadvantage.

All this stems from Luther's sudden intrusion and intervention.

This unexpected variable broke the originally balanced battle situation and put Sosuke Aizen into an unprecedented predicament.

He had to use Kyoka Suigetsu's swastika to try to change the situation of the battle and gain a chance for himself.

"Welcome to my Soul Society."

Aizen Sosuke's voice echoed in the air, with a hint of ridicule and helplessness.

His Kyouka Suigetsu Swastika Kai has been activated, and the entire Soul Society is shrouded in a dreamlike light.

Yamamoto Shigekuni, the captain of the Soul Society, frowned, and the ashes of his world disappeared the moment he was about to cut them out.

"Swastika?"

Yamamoto Shigekuni spoke slowly.

He realized that everything he saw and heard now might be false or it might be true. This uncertainty made him feel unprecedented pressure.

The other Shinigami are also on the verge of a formidable enemy. They know that Sosuke Aizen's first release, Kyoka Suigetsu, is terrifying enough, let alone the swastika?

They began to guess that the scope of Swastika's ability was a large-scale expansion of Shiji's ability?

Or is it a further strengthening of capabilities?

But no matter what, this ability will be a threat they cannot ignore.

Under Kyoka Suigetsu's swastika interpretation, Soul Society seemed to have turned into a huge dream. Reality and fiction are intertwined, making it difficult to distinguish.

However, this ability does not come without a price. The dreamlike effect can only be used once. After one time, all people hypnotized by Mirror Flowers, Water Moon will "wake up".

This is also the reason why Aizen Sosuke did not use swastika in the original plot. He knew the limitations of this ability, and he also understood that once he used the swastika, it meant that he had to end the battle within this limited time.

"This time, I failed."

Aizen Sosuke looked at Luther and said.

Luther ignored Aizen Sosuke. He raised his head and looked at the sky and then at the ground.

"A magnified version of the flowers in the mirror and the moon in the water. The flowers in the mirror and the moon in the water are like a dream."

What Aizen Sosuke said about welcome to my Soul Society is not wrong, because now, this is his Soul Society.

Esdeath hates this type of illusion ability. I don't know why, I just hate it.

"Strengthen your eyes with the power of destruction, and you will be able to see through the illusion. After all, the battle between the Shinigami is a battle of spiritual pressure, and your spiritual pressure is stronger than his."

Luther said to Esdeath.

Although the theory of reiatsu is wrong and a fallacy, it still makes sense for the Shinigami.

Aizen Sosuke's spiritual pressure must have become much stronger after the swastika, but Esdeath's spiritual pressure is even greater than his.

It's just that Esdeath is not used to the fighting method of spiritual pressure. Now after hearing what Luther said, Esdeath used the power of destruction to strengthen her eyes, and also strengthened her ears and sense of touch without any teacher. .

Then she saw Aizen Soyousuke again.

The other party had already opened his dark voice and walked in with Ichimaru Gin and Tosen Kaname.

Even if his Mirror Flower, Water Moon, and Swastika interpretation can modify reality, it depends on the target.

Yamamoto Shigekuni is not an ordinary opponent. Even if the reality is modified, Aizen Sosuke will not be able to defeat him, otherwise he will not find a way to create a fire-extinguishing prince, and he still breaks the limit of the death god and obtains the victory. Yamamoto Shigekuni's stronger spiritual pressure came to deal with Yamamoto Shigekuni later.

Therefore, Aizen Sosuke chose to leave.

He knew that he could not defeat Yamamoto Shigekuni here, so he chose to find stronger power to fight against this powerful opponent.

"Do you want to stop it?"

Esdeath asked Luther.

"No, he has no more means now. We will wait until he fuses with Bengyu."

Luther shook his head. Although Jiuba said that Aizen's upper limit has been locked at the fifth stage by the Soul King, the strength of another dimension reached by Sosuke Aizen in the end is still quite impressive, for example, for the God of Death and the Hollow and Quincy are causing trouble.

The Invisible Empire didn't know what it would think after seeing the God of Destruction.

After Aizen Sosuke left, the dreamlike illusion was lifted, and everyone "woke up" from the mirror flower and water moon. In the future, Aizen Sosuke could only release the mirror flower and water moon again if he wanted to hypnotize them.

But those who were already on guard would naturally not be fooled again.

The next step would definitely be more fun.

They looked at the gods of destruction in front of them, and their hearts were full of vigilance and doubts.

"Don't worry, the creations of the Soul King, I have no ill will towards you."

Luther's voice echoed in the air, breaking the silent atmosphere.

Luther thought about it, and he didn't intend to put himself lower than the Soul King, so he said.

He stood on a high place, overlooking the people below. Although his voice was calm and gentle, it revealed an unquestionable majesty.

Yamamoto Shigekuni and the others looked at Luther and Esdeath, and didn't know what to do.

These gods of destruction suddenly appeared, why hadn't they heard of their existence before?

"The creations of the Soul King?"

With a simple sentence, people who are smart enough can extract a lot of information.

Could it be that this person is similar to the King of Quincy?

"I am the God King, omniscient and omnipotent. You are the creation of the Soul King, or you have obtained the power of the Soul King."

Luther said this and looked at Ukitake Jushiro.

The other party's heart tightened. He didn't know why Luther looked at him, but he knew that there was only one possibility that he was targeted by such an existence.

That was the Lord Mimihaji in his body.

Chapter 729 God's World!

In the depths of Soul Society, there is a secret that no one knows about - an omniscient and omnipotent being, known as the Soul King.

He is not only the key to maintaining the delicate balance between the real world, Soul Society, and Hueco Mundo, but also the link that connects the three worlds, like a huge wedge that tightly holds the three together.

The Soul King is closely guarded by Squad Zero, in the deepest part of the Soul King Palace, the Soul King Great Inner Palace. It is a mysterious and solemn place that even the most senior Shinigami have never set foot in.

According to legend, the Soul King is a being with endless wisdom and power, and every decision he makes can affect the fate of the entire world.

In the world countless years ago, everything was in chaos, there was no life or death, no progress or retreat. Hollows, as part of the Soul Cycle, should have coexisted harmoniously with humans.

However, as time went on, the Hollows began to gradually devour humans, and this delicate balance was broken.

If this situation is allowed to continue, all souls will be reduced to a huge Hollow, and the world will fall into complete stillness.

At this critical moment, the Soul King was born. He used the power of annihilation to destroy the rampant Hollows one by one, allowing the cycle of the world to be restarted.

From then on, the real world, Soul Society, and Hueco Mundo began to have clear boundaries, and each maintained relative stability.

Yamamoto Shigekuni, as a veteran of Soul Society, naturally knew this secret.

He knew that it was the Soul King who used his omnipotent power to separate the chaotic world into three parts: the world of spirit particles, the world of instruments, and the desert paradise where the Hollows arrived - that is, the current three realms.

However, in Yamamoto Shigekuni's cognition, the Soul King is the first power entity in the world and the source of all superpowers such as Quincy, Shinigami, and Fullbringers.

He was born at the beginning of the universe, and was a life born by the world itself to reject the chaotic development of the original world.

The original world is composed of the chaotic world and hell, and the purpose of the Soul King's birth was to solve the three main problems caused by the chaotic development: the hollows that devour everything, the expansion of hell, and the dead world.

Now, Luther claims to be the omniscient and omnipotent God King.

This news is like a heavy bomb. Although Yamamoto Shigekuni was shocked, he remained calm and tried to find flaws in Luther's words.

"This is impossible."

Yamamoto Shigekuni said in a deep voice.

"When the Soul King was born, there was no God King in the original world."

Luther smiled calmly.

"It's just that my existence was hidden from your cognition."

He said lightly.

"You did a good job in separating the power of the Soul King."

Among the people present, several knew the truth about the Soul King, but many knew nothing about it.

Therefore, they were confused and didn't know what Luther meant.

But Luther didn't seem to care about these. He continued:

"This world is indeed full of infinite possibilities."

"And I also want to experience it myself."

As soon as Luther finished speaking, he snapped his fingers lightly. This simple action seemed to have touched some mysterious mechanism, and the whole space trembled.

Everyone saw that the originally empty ground in the distance began to rise slowly, as if some huge power was emerging from the ground. Gradually, a magnificent building began to rise from the ground.

This building was not built in one go, but like a scroll, it gradually unfolded in front of everyone's eyes. Its outline gradually became clear, the lines were smooth and elegant, and every detail was full of artistic sense.

The main body of the building was towering into the clouds, and the top seemed to pierce the sky and connect with the blue sky. Its appearance was shining with golden light, as if it was inlaid with countless precious gems.

Under the sunlight, the whole building exuded a dazzling light, which made people dare not look directly.

This building is not only magnificent and majestic in appearance, but more importantly, it also carries a symbolic meaning and concept. When everyone saw it, an inexplicable feeling surged in their hearts.

They seemed to be able to feel the majesty and sacredness exuded by this building, as if facing a palace of a god.

God World, this name is not only the name of a building and a city, it also carries a symbolic meaning and concept. It represents the domain and power of God, and is an existence beyond the mundane world.

When everyone saw it, the concept of cognition of this building and city emerged in their minds.

It was as if Luther had materialized a spirit and engraved it on the city.

No declaration or announcement was needed, as long as you saw it, you could understand and recognize what it was.

That kind of shock and cognition seemed to be a resonance of the soul, which made people irresistible.

Those who wanted to become the God of Destruction, those who wanted to become the Hollow of the God of Destruction, and even the Quincy, could go to the 'God's World'.

The whole scene was boiling again.

Everyone felt the strong shock and expectation. They seemed to see a brand new world opening its doors to them, a world belonging to God waiting for their arrival.

At this time, the figures of Luther, Esdeath, and Kenpachi Zaraki suddenly disappeared. They seemed to have merged into the light of the God's World and disappeared without a trace.

“God's World?”

Yamamoto Shigekuni stood in the distance, with a solemn expression on his face. As the leader of the Soul Society, he deeply felt the threat and impact of this new world.

The Soul Society has been established for a thousand years, and it has always been an important force in maintaining the order of the Three Realms.

However, now, with the emergence of the God World, the balance of the entire Three Realms seems to have been broken.

The God World is not only a physical existence, but also a symbolic and conceptual entity. It represents the domain and power of the gods, and is an existence beyond the mundane world.

And now, it is opening its doors to the entire Three Realms, attracting countless wandering souls, death gods, hollows and Quincy masters.

What does this mean? It means that the number of destroyers will exceed their imagination!

What kind of impact and damage will those destroyers who come out of the God World cause to the entire Three Realms?

Yamamoto Shigekuni can't imagine the consequences.

He knows that he must take action to deal with this crisis.

But what can he do in front of this brand new world?

At this time, there are already wandering souls in Rukongai who have begun to go to the God World.

They embarked on this new path with a desire for power and a yearning for the unknown.

Kenpachi Zarakī didn't understand those messy things, he only knew that he had changed places.

Chapter 730: Changes in Soul Society

The world of gods is a completely different place from Seireitei. The air here seems purer, the light is softer, and even the wind has a strange rhythm.

Zaraki Kenpachi stood in this new world, feeling the tranquility and mystery that he had never experienced before.

"I want to be the God of Destruction."

Zaraki Kenpachi's voice echoed in the empty world of gods.

"It's not that easy to become the God of Destruction."

Esdeath said to Zaraki Kenpachi.

Knowing that he has lost too much, he wants to become stronger.

However, Zaraki Kenpachi didn't care at all. He grinned ferociously, his eyes flashing with madness.

He believes that as long as he works hard, nothing is impossible. He can even become the God of Death, let alone the God of Destruction?

Although Kenpachi Zarakī doesn't have much training in death at all, he doesn't know how to do ghosts and can only slash people with his sword. There is a high probability that Shunpo has only been learned 70% to 80%, let alone fighting in vain.

But Kenpachi Zarakī has this confidence.

At this moment, Luther's voice suddenly sounded.

He waved his hand gently, and a soul blade shining with blue light appeared out of thin air and was inserted in front of Zaraki Kenpachi.

"If you want to become stronger, pick up the Soul Blade."

Luther's voice was calm and deep, as if carrying a mysterious magic power.

Zaraki Kenpachi reached out and picked up the Soul Blade without hesitation.

"Is this a Zanpakutō?"

Zaraki Kenpachi felt that the Soul Blade gave him a very strange feeling.

This feeling is something that Zanpakutō doesn't have.

However, at this moment, Kusuka Yachiru suddenly spoke: "Aken!"

Her voice was clear and sweet, but it made Zaraki Kenpachi feel a little uneasy.

He turned around and looked at Kusuka Yachiru's clear eyes, feeling a strange feeling in his heart.

Luther looked at Kusuka Yachiru at this time, his eyes full of amusement.

He slowly said: "Interesting, she is your split soul. You decide for yourself, whether you want to give up the Zanpakutō and keep this split soul; or give up the Soul Blade, and finally let this split soul return to you. body."

Zaraki Kenpachi was stunned. He had never thought that Kusuka Yachiryu was his split soul.

This girl who has been by his side all this time is actually a part of himself? This fact shocked and puzzled him.

He looked at Kusuka Yachiru and saw that her eyes were also full of confusion and uneasiness. He knew that this decision was very important to both of them.

Once you make a choice, there's no going back.

However, Zaraki Kenpachi did not hesitate for long.

He looked deeply at Kusuka Yachiru, and then slowly let go of her hand. He picked up the Soul Blade, turned around and walked towards Luther.

"I choose to be the God of Destruction."

His voice echoed in the empty temple, firm and decisive, like a sharp sword pointing straight into the sky.

Zaraki Kenpachi, the god of death who once respected strength and took pleasure in fighting, now stood at the crossroads of his life and made the most important decision in his life.

Kusuka Yachiru stood beside him, his innocent eyes shining with expectation. For Zaraki Kenpachi, the importance of Kusuka Yachi-ryu has long surpassed that of a Zanpakutō.

The Zanpakuto that had accompanied him in battle and witnessed his growth had now become insignificant in his heart. He is willing to give up everything just to protect this girl who is more important to him than life.

"Those who are not capable of Soul Blade and Drawing the Sword are not qualified to become the God of Destruction and can only become ordinary gods."

Luther continued.

"In other words, as long as you can draw a sword, you can become the God of Destruction?"

Kenpachi Zaraki watched Esdeath draw the sword, and the soul blade was liberated, which was probably similar to the original release of the Zanpakutō.

He couldn't free the Zanpakutō because Zaraki Kenpachi subconsciously didn't take the Zanpakutō seriously, but it was different now.

He wants to become stronger now!

"Drawing the Soul Blade will gradually transform your spiritual pressure. As soon as you draw the sword, your spiritual pressure will automatically be converted into destructive power. Although this power is very small at the beginning, as time goes by, When you can fully master the Return Blade, you will transform into a true God of Destruction."

Luther said to Zaraki Kenpachi.

There was no way, Esdeath didn't understand the setting of his nonsense, Luther could only speak for himself.

Zaraki Kenpachi nodded to express his understanding, and then looked at Kusaka Yachiru.

"...Can I get another Soul Blade?"

After Luther heard what Kenpachi Zaraki said, he just waved his hand, and another soul blade appeared. Kusaka Yachiryu naturally knew that this soul blade was what Kenpachi Zaraki asked for her, so he grabbed it directly knife.

"A lot of souls will come next, you have to decide what to do." Luther said to Zaraki Kenpachi, "The world of God also needs something like Rukongai, but instead of calling it Rukongai, it will be renamed Soul City."

It was like leaving all the affairs to Zaraki Kenpachi.

Zaraki Kenpachi nodded to express his understanding. He knew that this was the task assigned to him by Luther.

On the other side, in Seireitei.

After learning that their captain had betrayed Seireitei, Madarame Ikkaku and his companions fell into deep thought.

They all used to worship Zaraki Kenpachi's soul, so they joined the Seireitei as a Shinigami with him. Now that Zaraki Kenpachi has left Seireitei, they will naturally follow in his footsteps.

In the history of Soul Society, there has never been a record of Shinigami betrayal.

Once the Shinigami join Soul Society, they will fight to the death to protect the balance.

But now, they are facing an unprecedented choice.

After some thought, Ikkaku Madarame and his companions made a decision.

They chose to leave Soul Society and go to the God World to find Kenpachi Zaraki.

They knew that this was a difficult decision, but they were willing to give everything for faith and friendship.

When Captain Yamamoto learned the news, he was not surprised or angry.

Because Luther, the omniscient and omnipotent God King, Captain Yamamoto did not say anything after knowing it, and did not send anyone to stop them, but deleted their names from the records of Soul Society.

The change of Soul Society is inevitable, and the Central Forty-Six Chambers were all killed by Aizen Sosuke, and no new sages have been selected until now. For a while, I don't know what to do.

And Captain Yamamoto will not act rashly, he will only maintain order and balance.

The current situation is unclear, and Captain Yamamoto intends to remain unchanged in the face of change.

Kurosaki Ichigo and his fellow travelers have witnessed the changes in Soul Society with their own eyes.

It was very shocking.
