

Kryptonian 891

Chapter 891 Exploring the World

Luther saw that Virgil had been fooled and felt satisfied.

In fact, it doesn't matter if Virgil isn't fooled, it's all true anyway.

In order to have fun, Luther made a main god space by himself.

Of course, there will definitely be characters he knows in this main god space.

For example, Tony Stark, Batman, Thor, etc. are all very good.

King Frieza and Son Goku can also be considered to be thrown in.

And any character you see in the future may not be able to escape.

Dante and Nero looked at Vergil's body, unaware that he had gone to another world.

Although it is true to say so.

Dante was used to Vergil's death. Even so, he was still a little sad, but he didn't show it.

He doesn't want others to know his weakness.

Even if he is sad, Dante will only hide it in his heart.

"Sorry, Dante, I can't keep my hand."

Luther said to Dante.

"It's none of your business, it's his own choice."

Dante shook his head. Of course he couldn't blame Luther. If it hadn't been for Luther, he might have been the one who died.

He was only sure that he and Virgil would both suffer losses.

The result now is actually better.

But Dante left next, leaving the mess here to Luther and the Magic Sword Order.

Nero looked at Dante's back. He knew that Dante must be sad now, otherwise, Dante would not have left without saying a word.

Luther has finished basking in the sunshine of the Devil May Cry world and plans to leave a phantom here.

As for his identity, of course he focuses on Virgil's days in the BOSS team.

Main God Space, BOSS Team!

Virgil stood there, staring deeply at the door of time and space that suddenly appeared, with complicated emotions surging in his heart.

This door not only connects the unknown world and tasks, but also seems to reveal an invisible pressure and rules.

There was a subtle sense of tension in the air, but there was also a tacit calmness in this tension, as if they had long been accustomed to such scenes, accustomed to the daily life of wandering on the edge of life and death.

"You mean, those bosses who are unwilling to obey or are too arrogant have been eliminated by the Lord God?"

Virgil's voice was low and strong, as he tried to capture more information from Wesker's words. He realized that behind this seemingly relaxed team was the Lord God's ruthless screening mechanism.

Wesker nodded, with a complicated smile on his lips. The smile contained both helplessness about the cruel facts of the past and a deep understanding of the current situation.

"That's right, the main god space is never a greenhouse. It is more like a survival game with no end point. Everyone and every BOSS is a player in it. The reason why we can still stand here is because we have learned How to survive under the rules and how to remain humble and cooperative in an environment full of strong people."

At this point, Wesker's eyes became profound. He slowly turned around, looked around at everyone in the room, and continued: "Remember, here, strength is important, but wisdom, strategy, and most importantly, The most important thing - team spirit is the key to how far you can go. The reason why we are called the 'loving BOSS team' is not only because of our superficial harmony, but also because we know deeply that in the world, When facing the endless challenges of the Lord God, only by uniting can we have a chance to survive."

Virgil was not surprised why Wesker seemed to be the talker.

Because Boros is not interested in this kind of thing, let alone Alex. His whole person exudes the aura that no strangers should enter. He is very dangerous and very powerful.

More importantly, he is really not human.

People are just walking viruses.

As for Wesker, at least he can talk.

Virgil and the others entered the light gate.

Then the next moment, they found themselves in a completely unfamiliar environment.

The main god's mark also appears with task information at this time.

"Explore the current world!"

But Luther was already one step ahead of them and knew what this world was.

Naruto!

Although this world is not an advanced dimension in the traditional sense, it conceals power and legends that can shock the soul. Especially the existence of the Otsutsuki clan fully interprets the word "extraordinary".

Otsutsuki Shibaju is the most dazzling existence on this boundary. He seems to have crossed the boundary of the single universe and entered a broader dimension.

Otsutsuki Shibaju, this name echoes in the universe, like a god in the creation myth. He has an almost miraculous ability - manifestation.

This ability allows him to directly transform every thought and imagination in his mind into a part of the real world.

Whether it is the fall of stars, the churning of the sea, or the birth and death of life, everything can be made possible under his will. This kind of power is something that few even the ancestors of the Otsutsuki clan can match.

What's even more amazing is that Otsutsuki Shibaju's power is not static.

As he continues to devour the chakra fruits containing cosmic energy, his control over the real world becomes stronger and stronger, and he can even affect the basic laws of the universe.

Every swallowing is a subtle adjustment to the order of the universe, bringing him one step closer to the supreme "God" realm.

In addition to the ability to materialize, Otsutsuki Shibai also possesses an amazing eye technique. These eyes can penetrate the mist of time, allowing him to observe every corner of the universe in real time, and even look back to the past and witness those historical events that have already happened.

This ability is undoubtedly the key to mastering the secrets of the universe for the Otsutsuki clan.

However, even such a powerful eye technique has its limitations - it cannot peek into the world before Shibai was born, as if it was a forbidden land that even gods cannot reach.

In the Otsutsuki clan, the strength is often closely related to the purity of the bloodline and the results of personal cultivation. Although the outside world often regards the Otsutsuki clan as an invincible existence, in fact, there are significant differences in strength within them.

Isshiki, as a leader in the clan, is famous for his powerful strength and unfathomable means. However, above him, there is an even more powerful existence - Kaguya who took the chakra fruit.

Before obtaining this power, Kaguya was able to severely injure Isshiki with her own strength, which shows how terrifying she is.

In comparison, Momoshiki, Urashiki, and Kinshiki, who are about to descend, are more representative of the average level of the Otsutsuki clan.

Chapter 892 Virgil's Journey to Another World

Momoshiki has a high status, but even after swallowing the chakra fruit of Kinshiki's incarnation, his performance has not surpassed Isshiki under normal circumstances.

Kinshiki and Urashiki are more ordinary. Although they are strong, they are far from the level of the Six Paths. In the confrontation with the Kage-level ninja, although Kinshiki can compete with them, it is difficult to kill them instantly, and he may even be temporarily restrained.

In an action of traveling back to the past, Urashiki was defeated by the middle-aged Sasuke, Jiraiya, Boruto, and the young Naruto, which further confirmed the fact that they are not the top strong in the clan.

Although Kinshiki and Urashiki performed poorly on some occasions, they are not the real shame of the Otsutsuki.

In fact, even Kinshiki, who has the lowest status, has accepted offerings from other Otsutsuki members, which is enough to show that he still has a certain status and influence in the clan.

And Urashiki, although he occasionally loses in battle, his ability to travel through time and space is a very rare special skill in the Otsutsuki clan, which also gives him a place in the clan.

Luther had not expected to come to this world.

Exploration missions are naturally very easy for several bosses.

Although the other bosses, except Boros, were carefully fabricated by Luther based on his own memory and imagination.

Nevertheless, these fictional bosses have restored their prototypes abnormally in terms of personality and behavior patterns.

["Exploration mission, mission completion reward: 3000 points, failure penalty: deduction of 5000 points."] The cold and mechanical voice of the main god space echoed in everyone's mind, reminding them of the urgency and importance of this mission.

"Exploration mission, is there anything special to pay attention to?"

Virgil asked the others around him in his signature calm voice. His eyes showed both a desire for the unknown and a vigilance against possible dangers.

Wesker, the experienced and senior reincarnationist, stood up and explained: "There is no strict time limit for this mission, but we must hurry up. I suggest that we act separately, investigate the situation in different areas, and then come back here to gather in 3 hours. Remember, no matter what happens, do not expose our identity as reincarnationists to the natives of this world, so as not to cause unnecessary trouble."

Several BOSSes nodded in agreement, and then dispersed according to their own ideas and plans. Virgil also left the team without hesitation and embarked on the road of exploration alone.

For ordinary new reincarnationists, acting separately is undoubtedly an extremely dangerous choice, but in the eyes of villain BOSSes like Virgil, this is an excellent opportunity to show their strength and courage.

He is never afraid of loneliness and challenges, because he knows that only with a strong heart and strength can one survive in this cruel world.

Then Virgil was seen leaving the forest and walking away.

He was looking at this world along the way. Although he was sure that the main god space was real, was this really another world?

Virgil strolled on the land of the unknown world, and every step he took showed his curiosity and desire to explore this new world.

The sunlight shone through the sparse clouds and sprinkled on his black windbreaker, adding a bit of mystery to this outfit that already exuded a cold atmosphere.

All around, there were strange vegetation that had never been seen before. They were either towering into the clouds, with lush branches and leaves, as if they could touch the sky; or they were low and crawling, colorful, emitting a faint fluorescence, attracting insects and unknown creatures to surround them.

The air was filled with an indescribable freshness and vitality.

"Stop, who are you!"

Suddenly, several voices appeared in Virgil's ears.

However, Virgil had already noticed it, and then he saw several people in strange clothes appear in front of him.

Looking at their uniform clothes and forehead guards with the same logo on their heads, it can be seen that they are powerful people.

"Where is this place?"

Virgil asked.

He was confident that his strength would not be weak even in other worlds, otherwise there would be no concept of BOSS team.

There are many reincarnation teams in the main god space, among which the BOSS team is the most special, because they are called the "strongest" team.

When Virgil knew this, he was naturally very proud and satisfied.

According to Wesker, although the BOSS team is very strong, there are still teams that can compete with them.

That is the "protagonist team". As the name suggests, the protagonist team is the protagonist of each world. They will be selected by the main god and then join the main god space to become a member of the "protagonist team".

However, the BOSS team has always won more than lost. Wesker is a newcomer to the third-generation BOSS team and witnessed how the invincible second-generation BOSS team failed.

In addition, there are "villain teams" and "extras teams", and then there are various teams composed of humans and various races in the heavens and the worlds.

I even saw a caterpillar that can explode stars. It's a real caterpillar, but it's a little bigger, equivalent to the size of a person, but it can explode stars with its flesh and smash the planet directly!

"Where?"

The leading warrior frowned, obviously not satisfied with such an answer.

"This is the outskirts of the Hidden Leaf Village. Anyone who enters here without permission will be considered an intruder."

There was unquestionable majesty in his words, and the team members behind him stepped forward and surrounded Virgil.

Virgil smiled slightly, and this calmness made everyone present feel a little uneasy.

"Konohagakure? It sounds like an interesting place."

He thought to himself, but remained calm on the surface.

"Don't resist, come back with us!"

The captain of Konoha Chunin said.

He felt that Virgil was very suspicious, with a dress he had never seen before, and that dangerous aura, as if the man in front of him was some terrible monster.

"Sorry, let me try the sword on you first."

Virgil felt that intelligence was not as good as fighting, and he could learn a lot of things in fighting.

After seeing Virgil show the Yan Mo sword in his hand, which was not as short as their ninja swords, they realized what Virgil wanted to do.

"Such a long sword, it's a samurai sword, is this guy a samurai from the Iron Country?"

The captain of the Chunin guessed.

And several Konoha Genin had already started to attack, throwing ninja tools!

Shurikens and kunai were thrown at Virgil. This was the tragedy of Konoha Genin. Their poor chakra prevented them from using several ninjutsu, and they could only rely on ninja tools to attack.

Only Chunin could use multiple ninjutsu in battle.

Chapter 893 The first action of the BOSS team

Virgil's eyes became sharp in an instant, as if he could see through all illusions.

Facing the ninja tools coming towards him, he did not rush to dodge. Instead, he turned slightly to one side in an almost leisurely manner. Those sharp shurikens and kunai seemed to have encountered an invisible barrier, and they started to rush. They deviated from their original trajectory, were either embedded in the soil, or fell at his feet, posing no threat to him at all.

"Hmph, it's just a toy, but you want to hurt me?"

The corner of Virgil's mouth curled up with a touch of disdain, and then his figure swayed, shuttling between Konoha genin like a ghost, so fast that it was dizzying to see.

His movements are smooth and elegant, and every turn and every step seems to contain some indescribable rhythm, which is a superb expression of combat art.

When the Konoha genin saw this, their expressions changed greatly. They had never seen such a swift and powerful opponent.

For a moment, the originally orderly formation became chaotic. Everyone was trying to find Virgil's flaws, but found that they could not catch him at all.

The Yan Demon Sword turned into a black lightning, drawing gorgeous arcs in the air. Every time he swung the knife, there was a sound of tearing in the air, as if even the space was split open with a crack.

The ninjutsu and taijutsu of the Konoha genin were so pale in front of Vergil. Their attacks were either easily defused, or they couldn't even touch the hem of Vergil's clothes.

"It seems that your so-called Hidden Leaf Village is nothing more than this."

There was a bit of contempt in Virgil's voice, but more of it was curiosity and desire to explore the unknown world.

He had no intention of actually harming these ninjas, he just wanted to learn more about the world and his place in it through fighting.

The chunin captain's face turned pale when he heard this, but he did not give up. He knew that as the guardian of Konoha, he must protect the peace of this land. No matter how powerful his opponent was, he could not retreat.

So, he took a deep breath, chakra surged in his body, and prepared to use more powerful ninjutsu to fight Vergil.

"Wind Escape·Big Breakthrough!"

Following the chuunin captain's low shout, a strong whirlwind suddenly erupted with him as the center, stirring the surrounding air to boiling point.

This whirlwind is not only extremely fast, but also incredibly powerful.

However, facing such a powerful ninjutsu, Virgil just smiled slightly, waved the Yama sword in his hand, and a black sword energy was like a meteor that cut through the night sky, instantly colliding with the whirlwind.

"Boom!" There was a loud noise, air waves overflowed, and dust flew up.

When the dust settled, everyone was surprised to find that the originally unstoppable whirlwind was cut off by Virgil's sword, while Virgil himself was still standing, not even the corners of his clothes were disheveled.

"This...how is this possible?"

The chuunin captain looked at the scene in front of him in disbelief, his heart filled with shock and awe. He understood that the gap between him and Virgil was far beyond what could be measured by simple level or strength.

"It seems that your Hidden Leaf Village is indeed an interesting place."

Virgil spoke again, this time, his tone was more serious and expectant.

"Perhaps I can find the answer I want here."

Virgil didn't feel the familiar power at all from the Wind Escape and Great Breakthrough just now.

Instead, it felt strange. Of course, such an attack was nothing to Vergil, and he could easily break it apart.

"Hongya goes back and tells the village that we will stop him here!"

The chuunin captain made the decision without saying a word.

"Captain Qingfeng!"

A thin genin trembled.

"Go quickly!"

The other genin had no objection, because they knew that Red Fang was the fastest among them. Although the chuunin captain was definitely faster than him, someone needed to intercept Vergil.

"Don't be nervous, I'm just asking for directions."

With that said, Vergil slowly put away the Yama Sword and glanced at everyone present.

The genin Red Fang turned around and ran away, but Vergil did not pursue him.

"I want to know where this place is, and who are you here?"

Virgil asked.

"Didn't I already tell you, this is the Hidden Leaf Village!"

The chuunin captain said in confusion.

"Not enough, I need more information."

Virgil shook his head.

Then Virgil knew the general information about this world, and he had left before the other party came back with reinforcements.

Hearing that the patrol outside Konoha Hidden Village had encountered a powerful intruder, Konoha responded quickly. The Uchiha Security Department had already sent people, and at the same time, people from the patrol team and ANBU also arrived.

A chuunin and several genin can be called a powerful enemy. Even if they are not jounin, they are probably special jounin. Such intruders cannot be careless.

On the other side, Vergil tried to use the Yama Sword to cut space in another world to see if he could maintain his power.

As a result, the Yan Demon Sword easily cut through the space, forming a cross-shaped space crack. Then the space crack tore and expanded into a huge passage, and Vergil walked in.

Poros and the others were already waiting where they were.

When Vergil appeared, they all looked over at the same time.

Vergil also determined from this point that Wesker was not simple either.

"How's it going? What information did you get?"

Wesker asked.

"I just met the ninjas of Konoha Hidden Village and learned general information about this world from them."

Virgil said calmly.

"Konoha Hidden Village is the most powerful among the five hidden villages in this world, but the power of ninjas is only that."

Boros said dismissively.

"Yes, although the ninjas in this world are very strong, our BOSS team doesn't take them seriously yet."

Wesker said with a smile.

"What's next?"

Virgil didn't know how to complete the task yet, otherwise he wouldn't mind leaving them alone and doing it alone.

"Since it is an exploration mission, we cannot act rashly, lest we change the plot and increase the difficulty."

Wesker thought for a while and said, this is to prevent Vergil from starting to kill every time he goes to a world in the future, and to plant a setting in his mind in advance.

"Change the plot?"

Virgil got the point.

"Yes, most worlds actually have plots, which are information that can be seen in the main god's space. I have not seen this world, but it should be this type of world."

Wesker nodded.

"I ate a ninja and learned information about this world."

Alex suddenly said.

Chapter 894 Wesker: Too difficult to lead!

Alex said very little, but Virgil had read Alex's messages, so he knew his situation.

If his ability is used to collect intelligence, it will really be invincible.

"What information did you gather?"

Virgil then asked, concerned about this.

"This world is called the ninja world. There is a powerful profession called ninja. The ninja I met is a jounin. He is very powerful, but he should not be your opponent."

Alex nodded. The jounin he absorbed and devoured had a lot of information, so he said it directly now.

Virgil frowned when he heard this. He knew that in this world full of unknowns and dangers, the importance of intelligence was as important as the water of life.

He quickly adjusted his thoughts and looked at Alex sharply, as if waiting for more details to be revealed.

"What are the specific aspects of the power of ninjas? How are their levels divided?"

Alex pondered for a moment, seeming to organize words, organizing the information extracted from the devoured jounin's memories into an easy-to-understand form.

"The power of the ninja comes from the mastery of chakra, which is a special power derived from the combination of physical and mental energy. Through different training methods and techniques, the ninja can transform it into a variety of ninjutsu, physical Techniques and illusions. As for levels, the most common divisions in the ninja world are genin, chunin and jounin. Jounin is a symbol of strength. They are not only proficient in a variety of ninjutsu, but also have rich combat experience and excellent leadership skills. "

"The Jonin I met, he was good at the Wind Release Ninjutsu. He could control the power of the wind to attack and defend. He was so fast that he could almost leave an afterimage on the battlefield. But his strength is beyond me. It seems that although we are powerful, we are not invincible. If we use our abilities properly, we are fully capable of establishing a foothold in this world."

Alex's words reveal a kind of confidence, which stems from a deep understanding and absolute trust in his own abilities.

After hearing this, Virgil thought to himself.

He knew that Alex's ability - the ability to absorb and analyze all information about living organisms, including memories, skills and even some powers - was extremely rare and powerful.

If this ability could be used in the ninja world, it would undoubtedly bring them a huge advantage.

"So, how much do you know about the political structure and distribution of forces in this world?"

Wesker then asked.

"The ninja world is not monolithic, but is composed of the five major countries and their affiliated villages. Each village has its own unique ninjutsu system and cultural traditions. There is both cooperation and competition among the five major nations, and villages often compete for resources. Conflicts broke out over conflicts over territory or belief. The jounin I absorbed was from the Sand Hidden Village in the Land of Wind. They are world-famous for their powerful wind release ninjutsu."

Alex said.

At this time, the prompt of the Lord God System sounded again, and the exploration rate on the screen slowly climbed upwards, but still stayed at an anxious low point.

Wesker frowned, seeming to be thinking about countermeasures.

"Is this the only level of exploration? It seems that more information needs to be obtained."

Wesker thought for a moment and said.

Virgil sat aside, folding his hands on his chest, a trace of impatience flashing in his eyes.

As a strong man who is accustomed to solving problems directly and straightforwardly, he feels extremely uncomfortable with this method that requires patience and detailed exploration.

"Exploration... such an abstract concept is really troublesome."

He complained in a low voice, but then realized that his words might be too negative, so he reluctantly suppressed his inner irritation and turned to Wesker for a more specific explanation.

“Simply put, exploration is a measure of how well we understand the world.”

Wesker explained patiently.

"It is not only about the roads we have walked and the people we have met, but also about the secrets and stories hidden in the dark that have not been revealed. Only when we collect enough fragments can we piece together the world. Complete puzzle.”

Alex interjected at the right time. He is a wise man who is good at intelligence analysis and strategic planning and plays an indispensable role in the team.

"As Wesker said, the complexity of this world is beyond our imagination. Every village, every family, and even every ninja may hide key information. We need to formulate a comprehensive plan, both in-depth and Explore and stay safe.”

They, the reincarnations, have to explore every time they go to a world. This is why even Boros, who has the ability to clean the earth's surface, did not attack the entire world from the beginning, because they are just exploring, not annihilating the mission. .

Wesker nodded and took over: "Yes, next, our first priority is to increase the level of exploration. This includes but is not limited to visiting more villages, communicating with different ninjas, and even sneaking into those seemingly peaceful places. Looking for forgotten clues in the dark. At the same time, we need to establish an intelligence network to ensure the timely delivery and sharing of information.”

"Acquire more detailed intelligence about this world. Secondly, based on intelligence analysis, find suitable allies or targets, and gradually establish our sphere of influence. Finally, when the time is right, we can consider challenging other forces to compete for more resources and territory.”

"At the same time, we can also use Alex's ability to try to contact more ninjas from different villages and fill our knowledge gaps through their memories.”

Virgil listened to Wesker's words and felt that it was too troublesome. It would be better to attack the five major ninja villages directly. As the five major ninja villages that have mastered power, they must know a lot of things.

In his opinion, power is the most direct way to solve problems.

"After all, don't you just want us to run more errands and inquire more? Be direct, find the strongest opponent, defeat them, and everything will be solved?"

"With me here, we can completely attack the Hidden Leaf Village and get what we want to know from the Hokage.”

Boros smiled in agreement when he heard this. He was inclined to solve problems in a direct and violent way.

"Indeed, if the power is strong enough, then any obstacles will no longer exist.”

There was a hint of provocation in his words, as if he was showing Wesker his philosophy of power.

Faced with such a proposal, Wesker shook his head, with both helplessness and persistence in his eyes.

"In this unknown world, it is not wise to rashly make enemies. We should not only consider the immediate goals, but also plan for the long-term future. Once we become the target of public criticism, we will face endless troubles and consumption."

Chapter 895: Hokage Rock is gone!

"so what?"

Virgil asked coldly, he still felt that his idea was more appropriate.

Seeing that there was no hope of persuasion, Wesker made a compromise decision.

"Since everyone has different opinions, let's act separately. You are willing to explore in your own way, and I respect your choice. But please remember, once you encounter unsolvable difficulties or discover important information, you must notify us in time us."

He had long expected that these strong men from different worlds each had their own pride and persistence, and forcing them to cooperate would only be counterproductive.

The members of the BOSS team are all BOSSs from other worlds. They all have their own pride and confidence in their own power. It is impossible to expect them to cooperate.

That's why Wesker didn't insist, otherwise he felt his own method was more suitable.

"Humph, just what I want."

Virgil snorted and turned around to leave.

His back looked aloof and determined, as if he couldn't wait to conquer the world in his own way, and no one planned to go with him.

Boros grinned, his eyes flashing with fighting light.

"Then I will go meet those so-called strong men and see what their strength is."

After saying that, he turned into a stream of light and flew in a completely different direction from Vergil.

Wesker and Alex looked at each other.

As bosses who are also viruses, the two of them have a lot in common, and after Alex knew that he was a virus, he became even more hysterical, strengthening the original and more perfect black light virus of the pariah.

Of course, these were all set by Luther.

Not even Wesker had any doubts, he just wanted more.

He injected himself with all the viruses in the Resident Evil series and relied on the great power of the Lord God to complete the fusion and unification.

There is even mold among the targets, but now is not the time. This world allows Wesker to see his hope of going further and surpassing everything.

Wesker would also like to eat Alex if he could.

But Alex is too dangerous, and Wesker doesn't know if he can do it.

Virgil came to Konoha Hidden Village.

The sun shines through the sparse clouds and dapples at the entrance to Konoha Village. The golden light and shadow interweave into a warm picture, but the calmness of it all seems particularly fragile in Virgil's eyes.

He gently raised his hand, and his fingertips seemed to be able to feel the power of the barrier flowing in the air. It was an ancient and complex ninjutsu designed to isolate the dangers from the outside world from outside the village. But to him, this is nothing but a veil that blocks the footsteps of mortals.

"Space is just another form of power."

A faint smile appeared on the corner of Virgil's mouth, which was a manifestation of absolute confidence in his power.

Virgil pulled out the Yama Sword, and with a wave of his arm, the Yama Sword drew a bright trajectory in the air, as if tearing apart the barrier of space. Silently, a tiny crack in space slowly appeared in front of Virgil. Slowly unfolding, like a crack in the night, swallowing up the surrounding light.

Without any hesitation, he disappeared into the cracks in a flash, leaving only the slight ripples in the air, proving his past existence.

After entering Konoha Hidden Village, Virgil did not rush into action. Instead, he slowly shuttled between the intricate streets and scattered houses as a bystander.

His eyes were sharp and deep, scanning every detail, trying to understand the rules and order of the world. However, to him, everything here seemed so small and fragile, unable to stir up waves in his heart.

The villagers were either busy with their daily lives, or talking in groups, casting curious yet wary glances at this foreigner who suddenly appeared.

However, for Virgil, their perception was no different than a blind man touching an elephant. His presence was like a ghost, shuttling among the crowd without causing any substantial alertness.

Virgil's goal is clear and direct - to find the leader of this village, the Hokage.

In his opinion, the most direct and effective way is to create a sensation, so that the Hokage hiding in the dark has to show up to deal with it.

Just as Virgil was about to take the next step, his eyes were attracted by the towering Hokage Rock in the distance.

That huge rock sculpture carved with the faces of past Hokages not only witnessed the rise and fall of Konoha, but also carried the beliefs and dreams of countless ninjas.

Virgil's heart moved, and an idea came to him: "If we can use this as a challenge, we will definitely attract the strong men of this village."

Standing under the Hokage Rock, Virgil looked up. The majestic rock was carved with the faces of past Hokages. They were either majestic or kind, as if they were silently telling the glory and vicissitudes of Konoha.

Virgil's eyes flashed with amusement, as if he saw a perfect stage, waiting for his performance.

"Let me see if your so-called Hokage can withstand this blow!"

The Yan Demon Sword trembled gently in his hand, making a low hum, which was the desire for the power that was about to be released.

In the astonished eyes of everyone, he swung the decisive sword.

The silver slash cut through the air like lightning, heading straight for the Hokage Rock with the terrifying power of tearing apart space. At that moment, time seemed to freeze and the whole world trembled.

When the slash came into contact with the Hokage Rock, there was no roar or explosion as expected, only a thin and long crack quietly emerged, and then quickly spread to the entire mountain.

The appearance of the crack seemed to be the silent wail of nature. The Hokage Rock seemed so fragile under this blow.

As the crack deepened and expanded, the huge mountain began to tilt slowly, and finally collapsed with a loud bang. In the dust, the fragments of the Hokage Rock fell and turned into a ruin.

This scene shocked the entire Konohagakure Village.

The villagers rushed out of their homes one after another, looking at the Hokage Rock that once symbolized glory and tranquility but now became a mess, all with horror and anger on their faces.

In this chaos, several figures quickly approached Virgil's position. They were the elite ninjas of the Konohagakure Village. They felt this sudden threat and decided to join forces to fight this uninvited guest.

"Who is it!"

"Damn it, the Hokage Rock has been destroyed!"

The forces in other parts of Konoha also began to move. The Hokage Rock was destroyed and hit in front of them. This was undoubtedly the most infuriating thing.

Virgil had no intention of leaving at all. He turned his back to everyone and stood in front of the collapsed Hokage Rock.

Chapter 896 Virgil Solo Village Brush

Virgil turned his back to the crowd.

"Who is the Hokage?"

Virgil's words startled the others. Who is this guy? He came here without even knowing who the Hokage is?

"I am, who are you?"

Sarutobi Hiruzen appeared. Virgil turned around and looked at the old man with a sharp gaze.

He thought the Hokage would be a heroic and powerful warrior, but he didn't expect it to be just an ordinary old man.

This gap made him feel a little disappointed, but soon, this emotion was replaced by the pursuit of power and curiosity about the unknown.

"Are you the Hokage?"

Virgil felt that he was wasting his time, and the others were at the same level.

"Not bad."

Sarutobi Hiruzen didn't understand why Virgil said such a well-known thing. Could it be that this guy came from a place where he didn't know the Hokage?

"You should know a lot about the secrets of the whole world, right?"

Virgil asked coldly.

Shimura Danzo could not sit still. He regarded Virgil as a challenge to the authority of the Hokage and shouted angrily: "Arrogant! Hiruzen, stop talking nonsense with him, just arrest him!"

His words were full of majesty that could not be disobeyed, and the surrounding ninjas responded one after another, and the atmosphere was tense to the extreme.

Others thought so too. Uchiha Fugaku, as the patriarch of the Uchiha clan, stood up without hesitation and stood in front of Sarutobi Hiruzen.

"Hokage, please allow me to deal with this arrogant guy!"

His words were full of determination, and then he formed seals with his hands and spit out a huge fireball.

"Fire Style: Great Fireball Technique!"

Although the destruction of the Hokage Rock was shocking, it made them feel more angry.

With his low shout, the Fire Style: Great Fireball Technique was released with a bang, turning into a dazzling flame, and went straight to Virgil.

As the patriarch of the Uchiha clan, the Fire Style: Great Fireball Technique he used was naturally unmatched by others, and the huge burning fireball flew towards Virgil.

Facing the surging flames, Virgil just smiled slightly, and a trace of disdain flashed in his eyes.

He raised his hand lightly, and three dark blue phantom swords instantly condensed and formed, like three lightning bolts that cut through the air and accurately hit the burning flame.

Virgil didn't like to use firearms, so the phantom sword was used as the main means of long-range attack.

It can be used as a projectile or as a protective shield to rotate around the owner, and it can also restrain the enemy and attack the opponent in different formations.

The phantom sword is made of magic power, the color is blue, and the shape is similar to the blade of power, and it looks like a replica of the blade of power.

The moment the phantom sword came into contact with the flame, a dazzling light burst out, and then the originally powerful great fireball collapsed and dissipated in an instant, as if it had never existed.

What was even more shocking was that after defeating the fireball, the three phantom swords not only did not suffer any loss, but instead shot towards Uchiha Fugaku even more fiercely.

Uchiha Fugaku was horrified. He had never seen such a strange and powerful attack method.

He quickly performed the instant body technique, and his body turned into a residual shadow, changing positions continuously in the air, trying to get rid of the pursuit of the phantom swords.

However, those phantom swords seemed to have the ability to predict, and always appeared on his way at the most critical moment, forcing him to run for his life.

However, Uchiha Fugaku was just caught off guard by insufficient intelligence, and he soon found an opportunity.

"Fire escape·Dragon Fire Technique!"

Uchiha Fugaku spurted out a straight line of flames.

The blazing flames engulfed the phantom swords.

In the atmosphere of tense confrontation, Virgil's figure was like a reef standing in the center of the storm, surrounded by surging undercurrents and attackers ready to go.

His eyes were cold and deep, as if he could see through all attempts and challenges. Even when facing a group of ninjas with different characteristics and tacit cooperation, he never wavered.

Nara Shikaku's shadow imitation technique, as the beginning of the Pig-Deer-Cho combination tactics, was undoubtedly exquisite.

His shadow suddenly twisted and extended, quietly covering Virgil's shadow like a living thing, trying to restrain the actions of this outsider.

However, Virgil's body was flowing with demonic power beyond the understanding of mortals. This power's restraint on conventional ninjutsu was far beyond the imagination of everyone present.

When Nara Shikaku's shadow overlapped with Virgil's shadow, an invisible force surged out of Virgil's body. It was the magic power of the devil. It was violent and pure, and instantly tore apart the restraint of Nara Shikaku's shadow, just like ice and snow melting under the scorching sun, leaving no trace.

At the same time, the aftermath of this power also impacted Nara Shikaku himself, making his face pale and his body staggering. Obviously, he suffered a lot of backlash.

"What!?" Nara Shikaku was shocked. He had never seen such a domineering power that could break his shadow imitation technique so easily. What made him even more uneasy was the threat contained in this power, which forced him to re-examine the enemy in front of him.

At the same time, Yamanaka Inoichi did not give up. He knew that this was the critical moment to control Virgil. If he missed it, the consequences would be disastrous.

So he quickly formed a seal, closed his eyes and concentrated, trying to invade Virgil's spiritual world through the "Ninjutsu: Heart Turning Technique".

However, Virgil's mental defense was equally strong. His mind was protected by an indestructible barrier. When the mental power released by Yamanaka Inoichi touched that barrier, it seemed to hit a copper wall and could not penetrate it at all.

"Damn, this guy's mental power is so strong!"

Yanaka Inoichi secretly complained in his heart. He knew that his attack had failed, and because of the collision of mental power, he himself was also hit hard, and fine beads of sweat oozed from his forehead.

At this critical moment, Akimichi Choji had completed his preparations. His muscles expanded rapidly like a balloon, and his body became extremely large, with explosive power in his muscles.

He roared, and his huge fist, wrapped in the sound of breaking through the air, bombarded Virgil. That might was enough to shake the mountains.

However, Virgil just smiled lightly, and that smile was full of disdain and contempt.

He slowly raised his right hand and waved his fingertips lightly. The six phantom swords instantly gathered into a dazzling sword light, like a meteor streaking through the night sky, and met Akimichi Choji's fist.

"Bang!" With a loud bang, the sword light and the fist collided violently in the air, bursting out dazzling light and a strong shock wave.

Chapter 897: Dimensional Slash Demonstrates Power

However, shockingly, Akimichi Choji's fist, which was powerful enough to destroy rocks, was so fragile in front of this sword light that it was cut in an instant. Under the huge backlash of the force, he was blown away and fell heavily to the ground, unable to get up for a while.

At this moment, all the attackers were stunned, and they looked at the scene in disbelief. Virgil's strength far exceeded their expectations. They even began to doubt whether they could really fight against such an existence?

"Humph, is this all your strength?"

Virgil snorted coldly, his tone full of disdain.

"If that's the case, then there is no need to continue this battle."

"Do you have any stronger moves?"

His tone was both confident in his strength and eager for battle.

He knew that only a truly strong person could make him feel the joy of fighting.

Hyuga Hiashi, as the patriarch of the Hyuga clan, had a look in his eyes that showed both a desire for victory and fear of Virgil's calmness.

He knew that if he could not show the glory of the Hyuga clan at this moment, he would be ridiculed by others.

So, he resolutely stepped forward and tried to observe every subtle movement of Virgil with his close-up Byakugan to find flaws.

"Wait, this guy, no chakra?"

Hyuga Hiashi saw something wrong before he could use his soft fist.

"What!?"

Hyuga Hiashi was shocked, but saw a bright sword light approaching. It was Virgil's phantom sword, which pierced his chest in an instant at a speed that was difficult to capture with the naked eye.

Hyuga Hiashi's body was stiff in place, his eyes full of disbelief and deep regret. He didn't expect that he would be defeated so easily by an enemy without chakra.

"Retreat, everyone!"

Sarutobi Hiruzen knew that the ninjas present alone could not shake Virgil at all.

As his words fell, the surrounding ninjas retreated one after another to make room for the upcoming duel.

He quickly made hand seals to summon spirits.

"Summoning·Monkey King·Monkey Demon!"

Then a Monkey Demon was summoned by Sarutobi Hiruzen.

Sarutobi Hiruzen's summoned beast is a monkey with an indestructible body, "Monkey King·Monkey Demon".

With an indestructible body, it can transform into a Vajra Ruyi Stick, and can also cooperate with the user to switch forms at any time in battle as needed, and can also make hand seals to use ninjutsu.

"Sarutobi, it's been a long time since we last met."

The voice of the Monkey Demon was deep and powerful. It first greeted Sarutobi Hiruzen, and then noticed the tense atmosphere around it and the lying Hinata Hiashi.

"It seems that we will fight side by side again this time."

There was some joy in the voice of the Monkey Demon, and it was obviously excited to fight side by side with Sarutobi Hiruzen again.

The Monkey Demon had not met Sarutobi Hiruzen for a long time, after all, there were too few times when he was needed to fight.

The Monkey Demon complained that he and Sarutobi Hiruzen had lived a retirement life in advance.

Unexpectedly, it could feel Sarutobi Hiruzen's call again, and it came over impatiently.

However, when it noticed the bloody scene on the battlefield and Virgil's palpitating breath, the smile on its face instantly withdrew, replaced by solemnity and vigilance.

"Sarutobi, let's talk about the past later. This time I encountered a powerful enemy and I need your help!"

Sarutobi Hiruzen said solemnly.

Sarutobi nodded, and it understood what Sarutobi Hiruzen meant. It quickly changed its form and turned into a huge Vajra Ruyi Stick, which was tightly held in Sarutobi Hiruzen's hand.

This Ruyi Stick is not only extremely hard and can withstand any attack, but also can deal a fatal blow to the enemy under Sarutobi Hiruzen's control.

Virgil thought about it after seeing this scene, but he didn't care.

The Yan Mo Dao is the strongest!

"Come on!"

Sarutobi Hiruzen roared, his body suddenly rose, and rushed towards Virgil with an unstoppable momentum.

Virgil stood there, his face grim and his eyes like torches.

He did not rush to draw out the Yama Sword, but raised it with one hand in an almost contemptuous manner, with the Yama Sword across his chest, as if waiting for Sarutobi Hiruzen's attack.

"Bang!" A loud noise, as shocking as thunder.

Sarutobi Hiruzen swung the Vajra Ruyi Stick with all his strength and collided heavily with Virgil's Yama Sword, bursting out dazzling light and strong shock waves.

The entire battlefield seemed to tremble under this force, and the surrounding trees were uprooted and dust flew.

However, what shocked everyone was that even in such a fierce collision, the Yama Sword was still as solid as a rock, without the slightest shake. Instead, the Sarutobi and Sarutobi Hiruzen endured the huge recoil force.

The Sarutobi cried out in pain, and its indestructible body actually felt unprecedented pressure, and it bared its teeth and showed pain.

Sarutobi Hiruzen's hands were directly blasted with blood, and his skin was twisted into a bloody mess by the power of the Vajra Ruyi Stick, which shows the terrifying power of this attack.

"So hard!"

The voice of the Gomo was a little unbelievable, it had never thought that there would be such an opponent. Sarutobi Hiruzen also frowned, secretly shocked by Virgil's strength.

Virgil stood there calmly, with the Yama Sword still across his chest, as if the earth-shattering blow just now was just a trivial matter to him.

"You are worthy of being the Hokage, but this alone is far from enough."

Virgil's voice was low and magnetic. He slowly raised his right hand, and the Yama Sword instantly emitted a faint blue light, and the air around him seemed to be distorted by this power.

Seeing this, Sarutobi Hiruzen was alarmed. Virgil's next attack was definitely not something that an ordinary person could withstand.

He quickly adjusted his breathing, and the chakra in his body surged, preparing to meet the coming storm.

And Virgil didn't let him wait for long.

He went straight to the Dimension Slash!

He suddenly drew his sword, and an almost invisible thin line passed through the air. That was the trajectory of the Dimension Slash. At this moment, the space seemed to be torn apart by an invisible hand, and a heart-pounding force suddenly erupted, compressing the surrounding air to almost solidify.

"Boom!" With a deafening roar, the Vajra Ruyi Stick was easily split into two by the impact of the Dimension Slash. The broken end was as smooth as a mirror, revealing a sense of despairing power.

Sarutobi Hiruzen's pupils shrank suddenly. He had never seen such a terrifying attack method. It was a power beyond his cognition.

Chapter 898 Sarutobi Hiruzen's Compromise

"Sarumo!" He couldn't help but screamed in surprise, feeling grief for Sarumo's damage and anger and resentment at Virgil's powerful strength.

Sarumo was his partner and one of his sources of power, but now he was severely injured by this sudden attack, which was undoubtedly a heavy blow to him.

"Sorry, Sarutobi... I can only help you here."

Sarumo's words echoed in the air, with a hint of helplessness and reluctance, and then turned into a wisp of light smoke and dissipated into nothingness. This was not only a physical disappearance, but also a heavy blow to Sarutobi Hiruzen's heart.

He clenched his fists, his knuckles turned white due to the force, but the light in his eyes became more determined.

"As the Hokage, I must defeat him!"

This determination burned in his chest like a raging fire, and no doubt was allowed.

Sarutobi Hiruzen knew that as the Hokage, every decision he made was related to the safety of the entire village. At this critical moment, retreat was not an option.

He tightened the forehead protector on his forehead, which was a symbol of identity and also a legacy of responsibility.

"The will of fire that has been passed down from the first, second, and fourth generations of Hokage to this day, how could it be extinguished here!"

His words were full of power, which was a respect for the ancestors and a persistence in self-belief.

Therefore, as a Hokage, you must be strong!

"At this point, are you still saying such stupid things?"

Virgil said indifferently.

Sarutobi Hiruzen did not respond, but acted quickly.

He knew that facing such a strong enemy, any hesitation could be fatal.

His hands quickly formed seals, and complex ninjutsu spells flowed in his heart. In an instant, the earth seemed to respond to his call and began to tremble violently.

"Compound Ninja Law·Earth Dragon Flame Flow!"

With his low shout, the originally solid land instantly turned into a swamp, and a huge mud dragon suddenly jumped out of it, rushing towards Virgil with the momentum of destroying the world.

At the same time, Sarutobi Hiruzen spit out flames, the temperature of which was enough to melt steel. It hovered above the mud dragon, and the two complemented each other, forming an unimaginable terrifying force.

However, Virgil just shook his head slightly, and gently waved the Yama Sword in his hand. The sword light was like lightning, and nine brilliant tracks were instantly drawn in the air.

Each blade light seemed to be able to cut through space, tearing the earth dragon flame flow together with the space around it.

The huge mud dragon was like paper under the Yama Sword, and was easily cut into countless pieces, and then sucked into those space cracks and disappeared without a trace.

Seeing this, Sarutobi Hiruzen was shocked but not confused. He knew that when fighting against such an opponent, he must go all out and not hold back at all.

So, he flashed and used the instant body technique to appear behind Virgil, and at the same time, he blew out a sharp gust of wind from his mouth - "Wind Style Cyclone!"

This wind style technique is not only incredibly fast, but also contains enough wind pressure to blow rocks into powder.

However, Virgil seemed to have eyes on his back, and the Yama Sword was unsheathed again. This time, he did not directly cut the wind style, but swung the sword at an incredible angle, and once again cut a space crack in the air.

The wind style cyclone that was originally unstoppable was swallowed up by it and disappeared without a trace the moment it touched the space crack.

If Sarutobi Hiruzen had not reacted in time, he would have been almost involved.

Sarutobi Hiruzen fell to the ground, his breathing became heavier, a drop of cold sweat flowed from his forehead, and looking at Virgil who was unharmed, his brows slightly frowned,

"Completely useless."

Continuous use of powerful ninjutsu caused him great consumption.

Sarutobi Hiruzen fell to the ground, his breathing became heavier, and the cold sweat on his forehead slid down like drizzle. He stared at Virgil who was unharmed, and a feeling of powerlessness surged in his heart.

He knew that he had to show stronger strength to compete with such an opponent.

"Although it's a bit reluctant, there's no other way, I can only use that trick!"

Sarutobi Hiruzen decided secretly in his heart. He took a deep breath, quickly formed seals with both hands, and the chakra in his body rushed like a river, splitting into four shadow clones.

These four clones are exactly the same as him, with the same strength and wisdom. They jumped up and landed in four directions of Virgil, surrounding Virgil.

"Ninjutsu·Five Styles Great Link!"

Sarutobi Hiruzen and the four shadow clones shouted at the same time, and they each formed seals and performed five A-level ninjutsu of fire style, earth style, water style, wind style, and lightning style.

These five attributes of ninjutsu intertwined with each other, forming a colorful attack net, attacking Virgil from five directions at the same time.

The flames of the fire escape roared like a fire dragon, the rocks of the earth escape fell like a landslide, the torrents of the water escape surged like a tsunami, the wind escape cut like a sharp blade, and the lightning of the lightning escape roared like thunder.

The five attributes of ninjutsu gathered around Virgil into a force that destroyed the world, as if to devour him completely.

However, Virgil's expression revealed a kind of detached calmness.

The Yama Sword gently rotated in his hand.

Just when the five attributes of ninjutsu were about to touch him, he swung the knife violently, and a dazzling light burst out from the tip of the knife, instantly devouring all the five attributes of ninjutsu.

Boom boom——!

A violent explosion sounded, the earth was torn apart, and smoke and dust rose.

When the smoke gradually dissipated, Virgil was still standing there, his clothes intact and his expression calm.

Sarutobi Hiruzen had exhausted all his strength and fell heavily to the ground, looking at the area covered by black smoke with blurred vision.

"Hokage-sama!"

The others could not sit still and hurried forward.

"Hmph, now, do you want to continue fighting?"

Virgil put away his Yama sword.

Having already demonstrated his strength, he was not interested in continuing to fight because these people were too weak.

Virgil would not kill people indiscriminately, but would only kill those who blocked his way. The fourth generation of the pope did not die when he met Virgil, but was spared by Virgil.

"I don't know, what do you want to know?"

Sarutobi Hiruzen heard that he didn't need to continue fighting, so he certainly didn't want to provoke enemies for Konoha.

Shimura Danzo wanted to say something, but was glared at by Sarutobi Hiruzen.

If you say anything else, I will let you deal with Virgil.

Shimura Danzo understood the meaning of Sarutobi Hiruzen's expression, and he stopped. At the same time, it was a pity that Vergil was not strong enough and did not kill Sarutobi Hiruzen.

Otherwise, it would be time for him to become Hokage now, right?

Since the Hokage said so, others naturally could not disobey.

Chapter 899 Uchiha Obito feels that he is doing well again

Luther felt very interesting watching Virgil defeat Sarutobi Hiruzen.

It was a pity that Virgil did not kill Sarutobi Hiruzen, and Hyuga Hiashi did not die either. It seemed that Virgil was quite measured in his actions.

Of course, it could also be that Virgil did not want to affect his acquisition of intelligence.

Virgil did not know what intelligence the Lord God wanted, so he asked Sarutobi Hiruzen to tell him about the history of the ninja world and other aspects.

Then he found that his exploration progress bar moved, although it was moving very slowly, but it was indeed moving, which meant that his direction was not wrong.

However, what he did not know was that in addition to the investigation of secrets and history, the exploration progress bar also related to characters and lives, and he had to touch them to trigger the progress bar to move forward.

In other words, Virgil had to find Uchiha Obito, Uchiha Madara, Black Zetsu, Otsutsuki Kaguya, etc. to make his progress bar move forward.

Now it was just the beginning of the exploration of history, secrets and other common sense.

Sarutobi Hiruzen found that Virgil was a weirdo.

He seemed to not understand the history of the ninja world. After listening to the history of the ninja world, he also asked them to explain all the information to him.

This made Sarutobi Hiruzen and the others curious about Virgil's identity.

Virgil was very annoyed when he saw the progress bar stopped at 20%.

"What's the matter? Is there anything you haven't told me?"

Virgil asked Sarutobi Hiruzen and the others.

"No, we have told you everything we know."

They even told the history of the major families, but they didn't know why Virgil suddenly changed his face again.

Virgil was already thinking about why.

Could it be that because of the five hidden villages, they needed to explore five times separately?

Virgil thought about it and felt that it was very likely that it was necessary to go to all five villages!

So, after the Hidden Village of Konoha had no value, Virgil left directly.

This surprised a group of Konoha high-level officials who were still on guard against him and prepared a sealing class to see if they could seal him up. For a moment, they didn't know what he wanted to do.

However, Sarutobi Hiruzen and the others still kept Virgil's information well, maybe they would still need to use it in the future, and they are now considering how to target Virgil's information.

That kind of space-time ninjutsu-like slash is undoubtedly Virgil's most powerful attack method, and Konohagakure doesn't know how to deal with it.

Fortunately, they have taken over the legacy of the Whirlpool Country after all, and have a large number of sealing techniques. Sealing techniques can be said to be the best representative of the weak defeating the strong.

Whether it is the Shiki Fuujin or the Inner Four Symbols Seal, it is possible to deal with Virgil.

The fact that Konohagakure was attacked by a mysterious strongman was quickly spread by spies in the village.

The mysterious strongman aroused the interest of Uchiha Obito, and of course, Nagato and Konan of the Akatsuki organization also knew about it.

Black Zetsu appeared silently beside Obito, holding a copied intelligence scroll in his hand and gently placed it on the table.

"Obito, this news is very important. This Vergil not only defeated the Third Hokage Sarutobi Hiruzen, who was known as the 'Professor of Ninjutsu', but also severely injured the head of the Hyuga clan, Hyuga Hiashi, and the best of the three major families of Pig, Deer, and Chou under the joint siege of Konoha's high-level and elite ninjas. Such a record is extremely rare even in the history of the entire ninja world."

"Strange man, he doesn't look like a ninja."

Uchiha Obito looked at the image of Vergil, which was the image of Vergil drawn by Konohagakure based on memory.

Black Zetsu copied a copy and brought it back to Uchiha Obito.

While talking, Black Zetsu began to think about the origin of this person.

He has been in the ninja world for so many years, and he knows all the secrets, but he doesn't know the origin of Vergil.

The other party looks completely out of tune with the ninja world.

This made Black Zetsu start to mutter in his heart, especially after he learned that Virgil was asking about the ninja world and showed that he didn't know many things about the ninja world, Black Zetsu almost suspected that his mother's clansmen came to kill him.

However, Virgil seemed to have nothing to do with the Otsutsuki clan.

But to be on the safe side, Black Zetsu wanted Uchiha Obito or Nagato to test Virgil.

"So powerful?"

Uchiha Obito heard that Virgil was so strong, so he became interested and wanted to test Virgil's strength.

Seeing this, Black Zetsu nodded secretly in his heart.

He knew that Obito had been aroused, and the next plan would be easier to implement.

"However, Obito, I must remind you that this Virgil seems to have some special ability against time and space ninjutsu. Although your Kamui is powerful, it may lose its effect against him."

Black Zetsu persuaded.

Uchiha Obito snorted coldly.

"So what if I have space-time ninjutsu? My Kamui is invincible. How can he break it easily?"

Although Uchiha Obito had suffered from the space-time ninjutsu of Flying Thunder God Technique before, it does not mean that he will be afraid of space-time ninjutsu.

Space-time ninjutsu also depends on the person!

"Okay."

Black Zetsu just said that on purpose. After all, he knew Uchiha Obito's character very well. If he wanted to make him do anything, he could use words to induce him.

Uchiha Obito quickly found Virgil based on the information from White Zetsu.

"The power of space."

Virgil looked at Uchiha Obito who suddenly appeared, and then found that the progress bar actually moved, and it increased by 5%.

This also made Virgil realize something.

"Are you the one who caused a big disturbance in Konohagakure?"

Uchiha Obito asked knowingly.

"Who are you?"

Virgil was very interested in Uchiha Obito, and planned to capture him and slowly ask for the information he wanted.

"I am Uchiha Madara!"

Uchiha Obito said confidently.

It was just a wink to a blind man, and Virgil was completely unmoved.

"Uchiha Madara, tell me everything you know about this world, and then I can spare you."

Virgil said.

"It seems that you are very confident."

Uchiha Obito was a little annoyed with Virgil's attitude and decided to teach him a lesson.

He quickly used the instant body technique, approached Virgil, and reached out to touch Virgil.

The pupil power bursting out of his single eye distorted time and space, and a strange vortex appeared faintly in the palm of his hand.

As long as he enters his own space, even if Obito does nothing, he will starve to death.

Virgil does not intend to let Uchiha Obito touch him.

"Interesting, is this what you rely on?"

Chapter 900: Cutting off

Virgil slowly drew out the Yama Blade.

The flash of the blade seemed to freeze even time, and an indescribable majesty and solemnity filled the air.

The Yama Blade, a divine weapon that can cut through space and separate everything, seemed to be given life in Virgil's hands, and every swing was accompanied by the distortion and reorganization of space.

Uchiha Obito, who saw Virgil draw his sword, naturally let himself enter the Kamui space.

Now his body is just a projection of space, and it is impossible to hurt him.

In theory, this is true, but Virgil is a professional who often plays space shuttle, so he keenly noticed this. He curled up a sneer at the corner of his mouth, which was a mockery of the enemy's ignorance and an absolute confidence in his own strength.

The Yama Blade in his hand was accompanied by a slight tremor of space, as if the entire universe was making way for this knife.

The moment the blade of the Yama Sword touched the air, the space began to twist and tear, forming a long and thin space crack that led directly to the mysterious Godly Space, cutting through all the visible and invisible boundaries in the world.

This time, its target was no longer a simple space crack, but was directly pointed at Uchiha Obito's seemingly ethereal body.

Under Virgil's control, the Yama Sword seemed to have turned into a beam of light that could penetrate all obstacles. It ignored the rules of the Godly Space and directly cut into the area belonging to Uchiha Obito.

With a crisp sound, as if the space itself was groaning, Uchiha Obito's originally indestructible Godly Space was easily cracked by the Yama Sword.

Then, the crack expanded rapidly, like a huge mouth, swallowing Uchiha Obito's body.

But what was even more shocking was that the Yama Blade did not stop there. It continued to go deeper until it split Uchiha Obito's body into two, with the upper and lower bodies separated in the air, and the blood and fragments of space intertwined, forming a shocking picture.

"This, how is this possible!"

Uchiha Obito's voice was full of disbelief and despair. He widened his eyes and looked at his broken body, with shock and unwillingness in his eyes.

He had never thought that his divine space would be broken so easily by an outsider today, and he had never expected that his fate would end here so dramatically.

Virgil slowly sheathed the sword, with no expression on his face, as if everything just now was just an ordinary experience in his countless battles.

Playing with space in front of him, the fast Iai magic swordsman of the Dimension Slash, was simply courting death.

If it weren't for getting the exploration progress from him, Uchiha Obito would have been chopped into countless pieces by Virgil, and then shattered into slag by the space cracks and turned into powder.

Uchiha Obito fell to the ground, with his lower body still in the Kamui space.

The Kamui space was broken by Virgil in a rough way, which also damaged Uchiha Obito's Kamui Sharingan and caused blood to flow out.

Uchiha Obito even felt that his eyes had gone blind.

"This... How is this possible!"

Obito exclaimed in his heart, his pupils shrank sharply, trying to find a trace of reason from the shock.

But the reality is cruel. His Kamui, the killer that once allowed him to dominate the ninja world, has now become his biggest weakness.

The Hashirama cells in his body began to surge wildly. That was the power from the first generation Hokage, Hashirama Senju. They were like the source of life, constantly repairing Obito's body damaged by excessive use of Kamui.

However, although this power is powerful, it cannot immediately restore the ability to use Kamui, and it cannot explain everything that happened before his eyes.

His eyes were fixed on a figure not far away, the enemy named Virgil. Virgil held a long sword that looked ordinary but emitted a faint cold light. It was this sword that easily penetrated Obito's body, which was trying to use Kamui to transfer space, and split it in two.

"Damn... This is impossible..."

Obito muttered to himself, and the shock and unwillingness in his heart surged like a tide.

He knew that his time-space ninjutsu had reached the pinnacle of the ninja world, and even if Uchiha Madara was alive, it would be difficult to reach his current attainments.

However, the reality in front of him was like a heavy hammer, smashing his pride and confidence.

He clearly remembered that in countless battles in the past, no matter how powerful the enemy was, as long as the Kamui was opened, he could easily shuttle through space, whether it was to avoid attacks or launch surprise attacks, no one could match it.

But today, all this seemed to have turned into a bubble. The time-space ninjutsu he was proud of was actually cracked by the enemy named Virgil in front of him in some unknown way.

An unprecedented sense of crisis surged in Obito's heart. He realized that he might have really met the greatest enemy in his life.

"Who... who are you? Why can you break my Kamui?"

Obito roared, his voice a little hoarse.

He tried to activate Kamui again, trying to suck Virgil into the endless darkness, but no matter how hard he tried, that eye seemed to have lost its power and could no longer open the door to the other dimension.

Black Zetsu and White Zetsu in the distance naturally noticed the abnormality here. Black Zetsu's face became extremely solemn. He knew very well how strong Obito's space-time ninjutsu was, and he knew even more clearly what this meant.

"What's going on? Why didn't Obito suck him away, but was cut in half?"

White Zetsu couldn't understand what was happening before his eyes. In his cognition, Obito's Kamui was invincible and impossible to break.

"Could it be that... is there really a power in this world that can restrain space-time ninjutsu?"

Black Zetsu frowned, thinking in his heart: Who is this Virgil?

He was able to break the feat that even his mother Kaguya Otsutsuki had never done, and curbed the activation of space-time ninjutsu.

At the same time, he also became extremely curious about Virgil's identity.

Black Zetsu was silent for a moment.

"The secret of space-time ninjutsu lies in the control and distortion of the laws of space. Obito's Kamui has used this law to the extreme, allowing himself or objects to enter a different space to avoid all attacks. However, everything in the world is interdependent, and perhaps there really is some kind of power that can see through and interfere with this spatial distortion."

"But even my mother has never mentioned such a power..."

Black Zetsu's words revealed an indescribable complex emotion, both fear of the unknown and desire for power.