Chapter 39

Chapter 39

Just then, the young man who served the coffee quickly said, "Grandpa, my friend just told me that Labelle Group had been trying to get the two projects of Lofbury before but couldn't get it. However, both the projects were signed just now!"

The young man glanced at Robert and hurriedly said, "Grandpa, the Labelle family will benefit the most in this matter!"

After hearing what the three of them said, Stephen became more and more suspicious. When he looked at Robert again, his eyes were full of hostility.

Stephen put down the coffee cup in his hand, took a deep breath, and shook his head.

"Grandpa, this person looks a little familiar to me. Just now, I suddenly remembered that he seemed to be an insignificant Internet celebrity who acted in a short play. He is very good at acting," the young man who served the coffee whispered into Stephen's ear.

Stephen dispelled the last trace of doubt in his heart when he heard that. He turned around and closed his eyes. Obviously, he didn't want to care anymore.

Seeing Stephen's actions, the three of them from the Hoffman family were overjoyed.

Marlondo stared at Robert and shouted, "Tell us! What's the relationship between you and the Labelle family? What's the purpose of you doing these things?"

The three members of the Hoffman family had just investigated the relationship between the Labelle family and the Zabinski family. Indeed, the two families did not have contact with each other. As for the two projects that Labelle Group suddenly signed, it was indeed related to what happened that noon. However, the fact that Robert was an Internet celebrity was completely a made-up story, but it managed to deceive Stephen.

Now, the three of them were going to kick Robert out.

Robert shrugged and said, "I'm a friend of Naomi. I'm here today just to celebrate Mr. Hoffman's birthday."

The young man holding the coffee shouted at Robert, "Brat, tell the truth!"

Robert ignored Marlondo and the young man who served the coffee. He looked at Stephen and said, "Mr. Hoffman, whether you believe it or not, I'm here today to celebrate your birthday. As for the Internet celebrity—"

"That's enough! Now, get out of here!" Another young man waved his hand and interrupted Robert, "We don't have time to listen to your nonsense here, brat. Don't let me see you in Lofbury in the future!"

They didn't want Robert to stay there. As long as Robert was kicked out today, Stephen wouldn't want to see Robert again, and the Hoffman family's property would not be affected by others in the future.

Looking at Stephen's indifferent look, Robert shook his head in disappointment. "I heard about you and thought you were still powerful even though you're old. It's a pity..." he sighed.

Robert turned around and left with regret. Just as he was leaving, the door of the study was pushed open again without knocking.

Stephen was already in a bad mood and about to scold the person. However, he suddenly sat up from the stool when he saw the person coming. At that moment, he looked completely different from what everyone had seen earlier when he could only move with a crutch.

"Mr. Camidge!" Stephen looked at the man with excitement. He never thought that Carlos, the butler of the Zabinski family, would come today. Although the birthday party was over, it was an honor for someone from the Zabinski family to come. Furthermore, Carlos was the butler of the Zabinski family!
