It only got worse as she looked out to the rest of the demons. Every single one of them was having sex.

The other vrat was in a similar position with one of the human men, fucking his ass while the man lay on him, back to his chest. And on top of him, one of the tregeera fucked the man from on top, sandwiching him between their huge bodies. Mia stared. For some reason she hadn't even considered that the vrat might be into men. Silly her, apparently W(w).@vEfwOrM.cOm

Loria enjoyed a similar sandwich with the other human man, and the ridiculously gorgeous incubus. The other tregeera enjoyed her own sandwich between two brutes, one fucking her from behind with an arm wrapped around her huge tail, while the tiger woman somehow managed to open her mouth wide enough to take the other brute's length down her throat. Her neck bulged, and Mia didn't even want to think about deep she took him.

But most surprisingly, Diogo sat nearby. Really nearby. At some point in the night, he'd come and sat beside Mia, a whole eight feet away from her, half facing her. His legs were spread, ass to the ground, and he had a hand around the succubus's waist. The juggernaut's massive grip was big enough to completely circle the sex demon's slender waist with one hand.

He was masturbating with her body, holding her so she faced him, angled away so he could casually work her up and down his length with a lazy pace. With Diogo mostly facing Mia, she got to see a lot more than she bargained for. His massive testicles, dripping with juices and cum. The succubus, arms and legs limp, head hanging back limp as well, absolutely zero effort from her to fuck the brute back as he slowly sank... holy fuck that must have been a foot and a half of length into the sex demon. And he made sure to sink her balls deep with each stroke, until the bulge on her belly reached high enough it nestled between her spread, hanging, heavy breasts.

But no one touched Mia.

"I... I um..."

The succubus managed to open her eyes long enough to look at Mia, head dangling upside down, and the hunger in them struck her frozen. Even before, when the succubus looked at her with 'I want to fuck you' eyes, they didn't look like this. She looked almost psycho mesmerized. If it wasn't for the massive hulking brute holding her and masturbating with her body, no doubt the succubus would have jumped Mia right there.

"Be happy you are considered off limits," Diogo said, eyes set on her, even as he continued to slowly lift and sink the succubus on his cock. "Something in the air... demands our satisfaction."

"Satisfaction? I--"

Hannah let out a squeak as Adron rolled over, and nudged his hip into Mia's side as he got on top of Hannah. He knelt up, grabbed his slave by the shoulders, and pinned her on his length as he pulled her up to hold horizontal over the ground at waist height. His right hand slid down, grabbed her waist, and kept her pinned while his other hand held her shoulder and stopped her from collapsing. Her knees hung a few inches above the ground, and her arms dangled, fingers dragging over the stones, as Adron fucked her. Hard. Hard enough her small breasts rippled underneath her, and her arms swung back and forth. w.nOvE/WórM.©©m

Like the succubus, Hannah made no attempt to fuck him back. All she did, was groan, and cum. Mia stared at her, the single drop of drool that fell from her mouth, and then looked along under her to her legs, and the juices she soaked Adron's testicles with. They slapped against her empty pussy with each thrust, splashing the girl's juices, and Adron's cum, against her thighs.

Mia forced herself to look away, back to Diogo, and then back to the others. They all had a strange look in their eyes, like as if the only thing that mattered in all life anymore, was getting off. Adron looked down at his slave like he was going to eat her, but then he also gave Mia the same eyes. And, as he looked at Mia, eyes roaming her naked body, he fucked the dangling Hannah faster, and harder.

They all got faster. Many looked to Mia, licking their lips and devouring her with their eyes, while they fucked each other. And they kept doing it, consuming her with their red and black gaze. And sometimes, their green and blue and brown eyes, the humans seemingly as interested in her as the others.

Diogo stopped being so gentle with his succubus. He turned the girl over, and her arms and legs dangled underneath her same as Hannah, swaying with each hard pull as the juggernaut continued to masturbate with her body. Not fucking, he made no thrusts. He bounced the curvy creature on his cock hard, and where the woman had obviously been trying to keep quiet before, now she broke into loud moans and squeaks, her sultry voice breaking into girlish mewls. Her enormous breasts flowed back and forth, almost slapping her chest and chin with each bounce, and her mouth hung open, tip of her tongue just barely visible hanging out of it. Each harsh yank Diogo forced on her, sinking her balls deep onto his titanic cock, forced a squirt of her juices to gush over his testicles, soon joined by waves of his own cum.

The distension on the succubus's belly was absurd, her swaying breasts bumping up against the bulge reaching her sternum. It only grew, as Diogo pumped her full of cum. A giant demon, enjoying his toy, while looking at Mia.

Mia stared.

Then they finished. Mia sat there, skin tingling, body boiling, and watched as the demons ended yet another orgy. Demons with cocks stood up, and let the huge things dangle with their weight, dripping with cum. Of course she took another peek at the other vrat, fucking the man in the ass, and she gulped as she watched the demon's long length slip free of the man. But of course when Adron did the same with Hannah, Mia stared at that even harder. It was only three feet away, and Hannah's whimpers sounded all too similar to the kind Mia made when she'd cum too many times, and was having trouble recovering, but times a hundred. Adron's length came free of her ass, and the girl rolled onto her side, panting, exhausted. Smiling.

Diogo pulled the trembling succubus off his length, and set her down beside Mia, only a few feet away. The tall, busty creature lay on her back, legs slightly spread, and she quivered as the bulge on her belly disappeared as waves of thick cum poured out of her slit. How did someone, even a demon, take something that deep, and not get a punctured diaphragm? However it worked, the succubus had cum her brains out.

The group spent the next ten minutes recovering. Panting, some minor groaning and moaning, and a few attempts to wipe off some of the more ridiculous pools of cum dripping from their bodies. Hell sucked up the globs of white and the juices the girls had coated the many cocks with, like a desert sucks up water, especially as their bodies hardened, penises disappearing, vaginas closing, and breasts hardening. It wasn't long before only traces remained of the mess they'd made.

And then like nothing happened, they all got up, and put on their armor. They didn't care about any remaining stickiness on their thighs. Hell's warm breeze would probably suck that up soon, too.

"It lingers," the succubus said, back up on her feet and in her chest and waist wrap. "I can't scratch it. I'm going to go insane at this rate."

"Likewise," Adron said. "You're sure it's not the girl?"

"Humans don't have auras." The tall demon woman leaned in toward Mia, close enough to almost kiss her, and eyed her up and down a couple times.

The vrat walked up next to the succubus, and pulled her away gently, hand on her shoulder.

"They always have marks, though," Adron said. "This one's different."

"The ones in Heaven have no marks, no?" The succubus shrugged, eyed Mia up and down one more time, and walked away, skinny tail swaying left and right opposite of her exaggerated hip sway.
