She'd expected pain, but found little. Their tongues had left her so stretched and drenched, Adron's cock managed to open her up, and the slightly malleable, erotic texture of his flesh bent just enough under her gripping entrance as it pushed into her. His glans slipped in, her pussy lips squeezed around past the base edge of his cock's tip, and Mia moaned as its thickness immediately buried her g-spot in pressure.

She pressed her hands against Adron's steel chest, but that only earned another hungry rumble from him, and an enticed smile from Zel. He pushed her down further, and the bumps and grooves on his cock massaged and rubbed against her muscles as they pushed past her vise grip. Deeper, until the fat head of his cock touched her deepest place, and he still had so much more to go. The bulge was much bigger than the one his tongue had created, and even as her legs quaked and her arms shivered, Mia put one hand against her belly, and gawked.

"P-Please... that's... it's too much. I..."

Deeper, and deeper. She panted, mewled, whimpered, and somehow managed to get out a few begging words between the sounds she'd never made before. They sounded more carnal than anything she'd ever heard in porn, or imagined in her monster domination stories. Zel was right, and Mia had known it, too.

She gave up. Her head went limp again, dangled forward, and she sucked in a few weak breaths, enough to instantly lose them as whimpers, as Adron continued. He was going to sink every inch into her, and take his time doing it. He lifted her an inch, enough to let her breath, before he sank her down a couple more, hot cock filling her with heat as it spread her wide, and pushed the bulge on her stomach past her navel.

"Still alive," Zel said, and let go of Adron's cock. "Whatever this little soul is, sex does not seem to be an issue. But, it is probably for the best her first time is a touch gentler than how you treat Hannah."

"Agreed."

"Of course, that is only for now. In the future, I do expect my new pet to be fucked into utter oblivion."

"Of course." Adron grinned down at Mia, and licked his fangs as he pushed her down another inch, and another.

She set her hands on his arms, and held on as best she could as the beast gently, tenderly, buried over a foot of thick, hot flesh into her depths. The soft-but-firm texture of his glans stretching her deeper, and forever putting pressure against that deep spot, sent more vibrations through her, igniting more of her aura to pour out of her and onto the three demons. And when Adron finally managed to sink every last inch of his huge cock into her tiny body, Mia shivered in perfect resonance, like she'd become a tuning fork and he'd hit her just right.

"Look at this," Adron said, and he gently bent her backward with his hands. Her body arched, chest jutted out, and she stared down at the bulge nudging against the base of her sternum as Adron admired his work. "She feels... different." Ww.Novelworm.©RM

"Different?" Zel asked.

"Different. She's ridiculously tight, but... it's... different. It's almost like... there's something sending a buzzing sensation through me." He pulled her forward again until her limp body sat up straight. "I could sit here doing nothing, and I'd cum eventually."

Zel licked her lips. "Interesting. Kas, penetrate her and fuck her. Adron, relax. Kas has yet to cum while you've cum at least twice in that pet of yours. He deserves to cum in my new pet first."

Oh god, Kas. Slowly, like she was in a horror movie and afraid to look behind her, Mia peeked over her shoulder toward the goliath of a beast. He crept in closer to her, his short legs and long arms allowing him to squat easily behind her. Squat wasn't the right word, more like crouch, ready to pounce, like a predator.

He lifted his cock with one of his massive hands, bigger than Adron's, ran the warm, wet tip of his cock up along the crack of her ass, slid in closer, and let the huge slab of meat rest along her back. He moved in closer again until his pelvis pressed to her ass, his legs around Adron's, and he took a moment to align his cock along her spine. He was measuring, to see if it'd fit. And from what she could see over her shoulder, she wasn't sure it would. He looked a little bigger than Adron.

"I... I don't... It's... my first time, and..." Oh god oh god oh god. She looked up. Kas, with his pelvis against her ass, loomed over her. Suddenly it was a scene from Jurassic Park, and she was the tiny human in the shadow of a dinosaur, with the chest and arms of a god, and a cock well over a foot long dripping precum onto her spine.

He pulled back, set one of his titanic hands on her shoulder, took his cock with the other, and pressed the tip against her ass. The length had bumps along the top and underside, and the slightly pointed glans was wide at its base edge. She had a dildo a lot like it, one of her dragon ones, but colored purple instead of blood red. And unlike her toys, Kas's cock had that skin-tingling texture of wet flesh, heat, and with just slightly enough malleability that it pushed in a little where the tight ring of her sphincter squeezed around it.

The beast rumbled in his throat. Unlike Adron's rumbles, it sounded almost like a purr from - predictably - a giant beast, or some inhuman monster. It sent more tingles through her body, and she squeezed her ass in response. Kas liked it. Another rumbling purr vibrated through her, and she managed a tiny mewl as the creature holding her from behind pushed his glans against her. Her ass spread further and further, hole opening and ass cheeks parting around his thickness. Another demon with a cock bigger than any toy she had, and she was about to take two of them.

His glans slipped in, her ring of muscle squeezed the flesh past the bulbous tip's edge, and all she could manage was another mewl. She was going to burst. She was going to break. Ww.Novelworm.©RM

The beast leaned in closer. After a hungry groan, Zel slid her claw down Mia's body to her belly, above her pubic bone, and gently pressed against it. Her g-spot squashed against Adron's girth, and the bulge grew as Kas's cock pushed toward her belly, toward Adron's cock, and Zel's stroking hand. Ww.Novelworm.©RM

"You could seduce this entire tower," Zel said, "with this aura of yours. I must admit envy. There is no succubus or incubus that can spread such a nuanced aura over so wide an area."

"I-nng!"

Kas didn't feel like letting her answer. He'd been told to fuck her before Adron, and he decided to do just that. He eased his hips back and forth in a pleasant slow-but-not-too-slow rhythm, and with each casual thrust, he sank in half of his enormous length into her ass. That was a lot, and she stared down at her belly as the pressure of Kas's cock against Adron's again increased the size of the distension. She was too small for this! Way way too small. Every time she squirmed, wriggled, squeezed, anything, her aching muscles and swollen insides barely moved at all, stretched and full. She could barely breathe.
