Zel knew it. Licking her lips, the huge demon queen leaned in, planted a kiss with her enormous head on one of Mia's swollen nipples, and then the other. Chuckling, she brushed aside her long tendril hair, leaned in toward Mia again, and down. Soon the spire ruler set her lips on Adron's abs, before sliding down further. She grinned up at Mia, before turning her head to face Mia's pelvis, and ran her long demon tongue across Mia's clit. Zel's tongue must have been just as big as Adron's or Kas's, and she had no trouble pushing the huge thing under and along Mia's spread, squashed vulva, before again she rubbed its hot, wet flesh against Mia's clit.

Mia couldn't stop herself. She reached out, grabbed the queen's horns, and held on for dear life as the almost painful sparks of bliss shot up into her stretched pussy. The beast behind her increased his pace, and again Mia struggled to breathe as the monster sank more of his cock into her clenching ass, until she felt things move to accommodate him. She tried to beg for mercy, but Kas let go of his cock, and with his now free hand, he wrapped the monstrous grip around her throat, and squeezed.

Fingers, around her throat and shoulder, enormous, powerful, deadly, and squeezing just hard enough to give her trouble breathing. Oh god. Her muscles clenched hard, her hands reached up and grabbed fruitlessly onto Kas's fingers, and her body quivered from head to toe as another orgasm ripped through her. She didn't have to look down - she couldn't anyway - to know she was drenching Adron.wWW.nOVEloORm.côm

The beast choking her rumbled again, and sank more of his cock into her. She managed to look up at him, but all she could see was his chest looming over her, his head reaching out far over her and Adron. So massive. He pushed in closer, more of his length pushed into her, and Zel lifted her head to admire the growing bulge on her small belly. Mia put her hands on her own belly too, and whimpered through Kas's grip at the sensation of their cocks pressing against her once flat stomach.

His pelvis pressed to her ass, and pushed more, the beast rumbling as he forced the last inch of his length into her depths. Her cheeks molded to his body. He pinned her head to his sternum. She let her arms go limp, and simply sat there, trembling life a leaf, as the beast fucked her guts. Slow, deep strokes, each pushing the wind out of her as her insides moved to fit him, each sending pulses of tingling waves through her as his cock put pressure against her pussy, against Adron's cock, and again against Zel's hands as she explored Mia's bulging stomach.

Seconds before Mia could cum again, Kas stopped thrusting, and tightened his grip until Mia could no longer breathe at all. Warmth flooded her insides, reached deeper than his ridiculous cock could, and fought for room against all the flesh already stretching her. Cum poured out from her ass, drenched her ass cheeks, her thighs, and while she couldn't see, she knew it had to be enough to utterly drench Kas's testicles, and Adron's. But the vrat between her legs didn't mind. He only grinned as he held onto her hips, and watched.

"Oh my," Zel said, and she traced a few claws up and down Mia's growing belly, her small breasts, and up to her chin and lips. "Now, you may both fuck her. Gently, for today. In the future, yes you may fuck her hard, but I want this to last. I wish to see how her aura changes and grows."

Kas finally let go of Mia's neck, and she collapsed forward, gasping. Somehow she found enough strength to get her hands underneath her, pressed them against Adron's abs, and forced herself to sit up.

"I'm... oh god, I'm..." She stared down at her stomach, groaned at the absurd sight of how it stretched to fit the two giant cocks, and who knew how much cum inside her. "I... need a break. I'm..." The moment the words were out of her mouth, she knew she'd made a mistake. Zel had said she'd say exactly those things, even while she still wanted to get fucked. Mia blushed hard and looked away.

Zel's grin was positively evil, and she gestured to the two demons.

Kas took Mia's shoulders, Adron took her waist, and the two found a perfect rhythm. They'd done this before. They'd done this hundreds of times before. She melted in seconds, and the only thing that kept her from face-planting on Adron's chest was the two giant hands holding her shoulders. Adron lifted her up half a foot, leaving a trail of her juices on his cock, and Kas pulled out with him. Then the vrat lowered her down fast, sending a deep tingling wave into her as his cock pressed against her depths. Kas thrust in a moment later, and both men spent a moment balls deep inside, before Adron again lifted her by the waist and bounced her on his cock.

Her first time having sex, and it was with two demons, double penetration, her tiny body at the mercy of monsters. Her first time having sex, and she was cumming so hard her toes hurt, her muscles hurt, and she had to pant fast for every breath before a little mewl of pleasure pulled it out of her. The bastard between her legs had stretched her poor pussy ridiculously deep, the beast behind her was rearranging her guts, and no matter how hard she tried to bite back her noises, they kept coming out of her. Carnal little mewls, whimpers, and the occasional squeak when Kas buried himself to the hilt. She barely recognized the sounds of her own voice.

She spent most of her time staring down at Adron's gorgeous body and the way it flexed underneath her, but every so often, her eyes drifted down to her own body and the way it struggled to fit the two titans. Somewhere in the back of her mind, she remembered the conversation she had with Zel, about how durable a soul's body was in the afterlife. Right beside the memory was another, of the busty woman Saldavin had been fucking, working her up and down on his cock.wWw.Nóvelwo(r)m.cOM

Mia was more full than she'd been. A lot more. Zel loved it, and she massaged the bulge on Mia's stomach with one hand, while two others teased Mia's small breasts and swollen nipples. Every so often, Zel leaned in, planted a kiss on a nipple, and suckled, sending little jolts down through Mia's chest. Satisfied, Zel leaned back, moaned at the sight, and resumed fondling Mia's breasts and distended belly.www.nOvεlworm.côm

Mia went limp again, but that didn't stop the two demons inside her. They fucked her long, and deep. They fucked her until more warmth flooded her insides, stretched her belly, fought for room in her guts, and white poured out over Adron's abdomen. They didn't stop, until Mia managed to lift her head, jaw hanging, and a weak whine slipped out of her. It was enough to earn herself a break, and both demons instead gently ground themselves against her, balls deep. And then they did it again, until white fluid again poured out over Adron's pelvis, his abs, and down Mia's legs. How much of it was Adron's, or Kas's? She had no idea.
