

Last Days 1001

Chapter 1001: The Grand Magic Beast Tide (3)

Boom!

The faint explosion from the passage made the soldiers nervous but when they saw that the formation remained intact, they breathed a sigh of relief.

On the other hand, Riya looked at the formation in front of her with a frown.

The first layer had been breached.

The one that made a move just now was definitely a rank 10 magic beast.

'Rank 10 magic beast... can we defeat it?'

Hope is slim and even Riya didn't have the confidence to deal with such a powerful magic beasts.

But she didn't want to give up.

This is the first time she experienced the grand magic beast tide and she had already started to feel why so many people despaired over it.

Those who had never been there had only heard about it and might feel complacent.

They have the desire to protect because they didn't want to lose their home.

But how terrifying it is, they never fully understood.

Until they faced it themselves.

Riya looked at the formation in front of her and after setting a formation for herself, she could see through the other side. Countless magic beasts were rushing in through the passage and then died.

Their bodies and blood were absorbed by the formation, which was used to kill the next one.

Again and again.

But the amount of mana recovered each time would be less than what was used, making the formation weaker.

She saw that there were also powerful magic beasts that attacked the formation more, depleting the mana further.

These magic beasts were all 'cannon fodder.'

It was obvious that their intelligence were the lowest and it might not be possible to come back alive.

But they still moved forward.

"So persistent?" Riya murmured to herself.

She could never understand why these magic beasts wanted to rush over to the Green Planet so much.

Is there something on the Green Planet that attracted the magic beasts?

Or it was simply because of their existence?

Riya's eyes were cold.

No matter which one it is, she could not let these magic beasts descent on the Green Planet and possibly destroy this place.

Swish!

Boom!

Time passed quietly and occasionally, there were some explosion near the passage. Riya had already replenished her mana again. But this time, she was using the mana stone that she formed from her world instead of the potion.

Anyway, there's no hurry.

Only when one needed to instantly recover their mana should the potion be used.

But looking at the formation in front of her and then the base that was still only partially done, Riya's face darkened.

"When will the base finish?" Riya asked.

"It's halfway done and can already be used." Samuel looked at Riya and frowned. "The formation can't last any longer?"

"They have destroyed three formations so far," Riya replied. "My mana recovery speed is not that fast and I don't want to exhaust myself just to buy unnecessary time."

At this moment, Riya looked at the few officials who mingled in coldly.

It seemed that some people were too ambitious.

Samuel frowned and then said, "I'll let the Magic Association come forward and fight."

"Good."

The general who listened to their conversation: "..."

He wanted to tell them that it was not these people's fault, but it was also true that the people from the Magic Association was the few people who were most annoying. They have too many requirements for the base just to protect the magicians.

Even if they wanted to protect the magicians, they had to make sure that the place could accommodate as many magicians as possible in order to be able to fight to the fullest.

So many of their requirement has been rejected.

Bang!

"It's broken." Riya glanced at the formation. "Five minutes!"

"Let's go."

Samuel held Riya's hand and then brought her to the platform where Dina was located. Peter was standing in front of the magic beasts and seemed to be eager to make a move.

As for whether he would die...

With Peter's extremely strong body and defense, he would be fine unless he met with a rank 10 magic beast.

And from what Riya had sensed, rank 10 magic beast might not be able to come here so easily.

'Then, I'll have to advance to rank 10 as soon as possible or figure out a way to kill rank 10 magic beast while I'm still in rank 9.'

Riya thought to herself while looking at the formation in front of them.

Beside her, Samuel was looking at the magicians and warriors that came from the Magic Association and the Martial Arts Association respectively. They looked nervous yet also excited to play their due role to fight against the magic beasts.

The base around the passage was not perfect.

But it would provide some protection for them.

"Get ready for battle," Samuel said.

"Yes!"

Bang!

The formation was broken and countless magicians started to bombard these magic beasts with their magic.

Peter, who was planning on blocking these magic beasts' path, was silent after seeing the man and swiftly took a few steps back. He didn't want to be hit by their magic just because their aims are bad.

'But there are even rank 3 magic spell... who are they looking down on?' Peter was speechless.

Even Riya also frowned when she looked at the magicians who came here and then turned to look at the general. "Is there no qualified magicians from the Magic Association?"

What does it mean to send only rank 3 to rank 4 magicians?

Are they looking down on the grand magic beasts' tide?

For a moment, nameless anger surged in Riya's heart.

These two association had been taking a lot of resources and claimed to do this for the sake of human rights, but they were actually grabbing resources for their selfish desire, aren't they?

It would have been better to give those valuable resources to the soldiers who selflessly defend the Green Planet!

Chapter 1002: Battle

It would have been better to give those valuable resources to the soldiers who selflessly defend the Green Planet!

Not only Riya, even Samuel's expression was not very good.

Because they all didn't know where the passage would be opened, every city base would be equipped with soldiers and people from those two associations.

Once the passage' location has been determined, they would send half of their soldiers to help out.

The rest would be stationed in their respective city bases in case of emergency.

Since they knew that the grand magic beasts' tide would be powerful, any profession below rank 4 would be stationed in their respective city base as emergency. Only those rank 4 and above would be sent to help.

But now...

Riya found that many rank 3 magicians were mixed in.

The warriors were fine and Samuel could sense their power.

"General, I think I need to pay a visit to the Capital City for a while," Samuel said without hesitation and turned around.

"Ah?" The general was stunned.

He looked at Samuel's departing back and then at the passage in front of them. Before he knew it, Riya had also disappeared.

The General: "... Sir, it's not like I don't want to protect you, but it seems to be impossible to protect you.

Thankfully, there were still two returnees here.

Otherwise, Continent Z wouldn't be able to handle it.

Continent X

To be honest, the people in this continent was actually ready to face the brutal battle and knew that things might not end too well.

But no matter what they were thinking of, they all stood still and readied themselves.

It was just...

"The passage was opened not far from where Pena is located..." one of the Generals said with a strange expression.

Who would have thought that the passage would specifically chose the island where Pena is located among other island?

Moreover, they could see from the satellite images that Pena was doing well.

He had prepared a large army confronting these magic beasts and forcefully stoped them from entering from the passage.

Even if there were some rank 7 magic beasts and occasional rank 8 magic beast, they were not Pena's opponent. He even turned some powerful magic beasts' corpses into his own army and looked extremely pleased with it.

"Do you want to help?"

"Can we help?"

The soldiers looked at each other.

In the past year, it was not like they hadn't made any preparation whatsoever. In fact, everyone was working hard in order to make sure that they could possibly face these magic beasts' invasion.

But even the highest among them was only rank 7 and it was only one person.

Oh wait, two people.

After all, Leon still managed to advance to rank 7 after a year of bitter training.

He might spend most of his time working on the weapons and various tools, but he also set himself a goal to advance to rank 7. While this is still not comparable to other returnees, he had to have enough abilities to protect himself.

Otherwise, he wouldn't be able to survive.

"No need." Leon was also present.

As a returnee who had more experience in a completely different world and the fact that he had been training hard too in the past year, the officials allowed him to join in their discussion.

Because they all understood that Leon was not the kind of person who focused on battle.

He's more of a support profession.

So even if his own ranks were high, he wouldn't be able to do much in battle.

It would be better to keep him to help producing various weapons that they could use in battle and so on.

"But..."

"Pena will kill most of the powerful magic beasts. Even if some might escape towards the sea... that's when we have to start moving." Leon pursed his lips.

There were countless magi beasts under the sea and they were the main threat for Continent X. So far, he had already created various weapons and tools to help them hunt the magic beasts hiding in the water.

Because if these magic beasts grew up, they might end up threatening the Green Planet.

So not only had they been strengthening themselves, they were also busy dealing with various magic beasts.

"Will he be so kind to do it?" An official with real power frowned. "What if he chose to abandon the island?"

"He won't." Leon shook his head.

In fact, Leon suspected that Pena chose this one island on purpose because he could sense that the passage would open on that island. How he managed to know this kind of thing, Leon didn't know and didn't have any plan to find out about it.

But he could guess the reason why Pena did this.

It was for the corpses of these high ranked magic beasts.

A necromancer needed a lot of resources to cultivate their army and the magic beasts on the Green Planet were limited in strength and variety. Even though it was still large enough for other people on the Green Planet, these returnees all looked down on it.

They knew that it was still far from comparable to the large number of magic beasts on Afirer Kingdom.

So if Pena has any reason to stay and confronted these magic beasts...

It was simply to take over their corpses after their death!

"Pena will be fine. We just need to play the supporting role," Leon said with a smile on his face.

As for what would happen afterwards...

He didn't care too much.

Leon believed that there will be other returnees who could possibly deal with Pena and there was no need for him to worry so much.

The others looked at each other and after some discussion, everyone agreed.

Continent W.

Unlike Continent X with Pena who was acting arbitrarily yet still fought most of the magic beasts for his own desire and goal, the people on Continent W was nervous because they saw the passage was opening deep in their region.

Chapter 1003: Anger

If the passage was closer to Continent Z, they might be able to ask for help from Continent Z.

After all, Continent Z had five returnees...

While one of them was still missing because he was staying in the other world through that passage, the other four were definitely very powerful.

If they could borrow even one of these returnees, their situation will definitely improve and stabilize.

Unfortunately, the passage was deep in their region.

The good thing is that it was still in the wilderness and they didn't need to worry too much about affecting the bases in Continent W.

Everyone was busy.

They had to solve this problem as soon as possible.

Swish! Swish!

Standing at the forefront, Ruth was holding her bow and pierced through the head of the rank 7 and rank 8 magic beasts easily. Even though these magic beasts were not weak, they were definitely not her opponent.

Ruth has already reached rank 8 and in the past few months, her rank basically stabilized and there was even a trend to get stronger.

But she's an archer.

So she will only deal with the strongest magic beasts and the rest had to be dealt with by the soldiers.

roar

Countless magic beasts poured out of the passage.

Unlike Continent Z, they didn't have the ability to seal the passage for a period of time and then built a base around it to prevent the magic beasts from escaping. They could only deal with it as it is.

But it was not that bad.

Jonas Nolan has been working hard and created a lot of potions to help humans advance through ranks faster. Even if there was only one rank 7 that they managed to cultivate, there were still a few rank 6 professional.

They were all part of the military and worked together to deal with the rank 6 and below magic beasts.

There was a sharp pig cry and the ground began to tremble as several pig shaped magic beast that looked like a tank suddenly came out.

'Oh, this one.'

Ruth moved nimbly and used her bow and arrows to kill these few magic beasts quickly.

Swish! Swish! Jleb! Jleb!

"Miss Ruth! Please stay at the back and not be here!" The soldiers were shocked when they saw Ruth was not far from them.

They were at the frontline and naturally didn't want Ruth to be affected by them.

"The closer the distance, the higher the power of my arrows," Ruth said lightly and then jumped back to the top of a tree.

The soldiers knew that.

But if Ruth was too close to the magic beasts, they would not be able to protect her and she would have to face the fierce attack of many magic beasts.

These people couldn't bear it.

But Ruth was calm.

She had no intention of staying so far away and it was basically impossible for her to accept being protected by others.

She's also a magic warrior!

Not a magician who only knew how to shoot their magic spells from a distance.

roar

A few magic beasts naturally saw Ruth and by the time they rushed over, countless arrows were piercing in their direction, breaking through the wind and killed each of them with one blow.

Swish! Swish!

It was pretty easy.

Ruth's strength is higher than these magic beasts and with her bow, she could easily kill these magic beasts.

She will play her due role, but she refused to back down.

Even if this will end up as a difficult battle, she will stand on the frontline!

Stab! Jleb! Jleb!

Countless magic beasts died in Ruth's hand.

Unlike Ruth who was so fierce and stood on the frontline without fear, Jonas Nolan was standing on the back and looked helpless. He had created a lot of potions to help with this battle, but he also knew that it would still depend on these soldiers and their weapons.

He couldn't help much.

"What did she actually experience in that world?" Jonas Nolan was curious but he wouldn't dare to go even if he was given the chance.

After all, he didn't like fighting and would rather stay on the back as the support.

And this time, he will make sure that his support was all in place.

Ruth's fighting skills had become more ruthless and at the same time, more all rounded. After all, she went alone and separated from the others who also headed to Afirer Kingdom.

When facing the magic beasts, which battle is not a life and death battle?

When she was still at rank 7, she had to run away several times when facing a rank 8 magic beast.

It was to the point that she had almost died many times.

So even if she was fighting on the frontline, Ruth's nimble movements and moves made these magic beasts unable to get close to her.

It was a spectacular sight.

The problem is just how long she would be able to last.

Because this battle against the magic beasts will definitely last for a long time.

Continent Z, the Capital City.

Swish!

Through the teleportation formation, Samuel and Riya arrived at the capital city.

They didn't have much time to waste and went directly towards the main office where the high ranked officials were located.

"Who are you?"

"Make way." Samuel's face was dark.

"Don't you..."

Bang!

With a wave of his hand, the wall was broken and these soldiers were pushed back.

The officials were stunned and they wanted to scold but one of them recognized Samuel as they have seen his picture.

"S... Samuel!"

"Where are the people from the Magic Association?" Samuel went straight to the point and asked without hesitation.

This time, he came here to ask for explanation from the Magic Association.

After taking so much resources from the Green Planet, they didn't even want to send their people to fight the magic beasts?

This couldn't do.

Chapter 1004: Anger (2)

They couldn't control the returnees.

After all, the returnees have their own opportunities and methods that would allow them to get stronger faster.

Even without the Green Planet's help, they could head over to the crack or even to the other world to get stronger.

Samuel couldn't say anything to them.

But the Magic Association was different.

This is an association that was approved by the officials in the first place with each and every single one of them being member of Continent Z. If it was not because these people were training people to become magicians, how could the Magic Association's existence be tolerated?

The military would be the first to disagree.

"They're in their place." The official pointed in one direction. "But many of them are not here and they have already sent people to help."

"Send people to help?" Samuel sneered. "Do you call those weaklings to be backup people to help?"

"This..."

There was a member of the Magic Association there and he stood up with dissatisfaction. "How could it be? Magicians can't advance as fast as you, warriors and they're already the best in the Magic Association."

"The best?" Samuel was too lazy to argue and could see that this person was already at rank 5.

It was obvious that he had also consumed a lot of resources.

Turning his head to look at Riya, he made a gesture and Riya nodded.

"Who else is a member of the Magic Association?" Samuel asked as he swept his gaze across the people in the office. Many high level officials were only rank 4 to rank 5 in strength.

Even though they didn't focus on training, they still get a lot of resources to make up for their lack of strength.

In this way, the average of rank 4 to rank 5 was actually pretty good.

But these people couldn't leave easily and their main role was to manage the city bases when the others were fighting against those magic beasts.

Samuel has nothing to say about the military.

Because he had already seen that those people were really there to protect the Green Planet.

But the others...

It was hard to say.

"What do you want to do? Mind you, killing is prohibited..."

"We don't plan to kill you." Samuel pointed at the four people who were members of the Magic Association. With his keen senses, he could easily detect these people's strength. "These all, Riya."

"Yes."

Swish!

The runes were finished and the four people disappeared in an instant.

"Samuel! Riya! What do you want to do?" The high ranked official was terrified when he saw this. They all knew from the very beginning that these returnees were all extremely hard to deal with as they have their own ideas and thoughts.

However, some returnees were quite good and will not do anything against other people without reason.

Samuel and Riya were originally among them.

But who would have thought that they would make a move against them?

"Sending these magicians to the place where they belong. Since they had the strength, they had to fight against the magic beasts until the very end," Samuel said lightly and then glanced at Riya.

"I have restricted their mana signature from using the teleportation formation set in the city bases." Riya had a smile on her face.

Even though these teleportation formations were located in various city bases, Riya had the absolute control over them. Her strength and her understanding of space allowed her to make modification in the basis of the laws.

In this way, even if these people wanted to escape, they wouldn't be able to do it through the teleportation formation that Riya had set up.

Her smile looked sweet and beautiful, but these officials felt chills from the bottom of their heart.

"You... you can't do this, they're..."

"They're just magicians who have used up a lot of resources on the Green Planet. If they didn't want to protect the Green Planet, I'll send them into the crack and let them live there," Samuel said lightly.

Seeing these two people's tough stance, the officials were silent.

They didn't understand why Samuel and Riya were provoked all of the sudden, but they all understood that no one would be able to change their decision. And these two people were also very powerful.

After asking for direction, Samuel and Riya left once again.

The officials breathed a sigh of relief.

"It's really terrifying to think that there's such a powerful person who can directly give us order like that," one of them murmured.

"Be glad that we're all administrator officials and not fighters or we'll be send to the battlefield too." The second official could see clearly the reason for Samuel's anger.

It was nothing more than the fact that these magicians from the Magic Association has always acted like a righteous b*stards. But when it truly mattered, these people didn't dare to step forward.

How could Samuel accept it?

His dissatisfaction towards them had long reached the peak.

"Ah... it's really troublesome."

"Thankfully, we didn't do anything like this."

The officials were still relatively honest and directly send the powerful fighters they had cultivated to help defending the passage.

They might play some tricks to get more resources.

But they also knew that without the Green Planet, the power in their hands would be nothing.

So they would still send enough people forward.

Right now, they still had to rely on Samuel and other returnees as the main fighters. But they also send enough people to help guarding the passage.

Only in this way would it be possible for them to survive.

"Will those magicians survive?" One of them suddenly asked.

The others were silent.

Maybe?

The magicians from the Magic Association were not weak and many of them had already reached rank 5 or even rank 6. The leader of the Magic Association himself even went in person to fight.

The two vice leaders were left behind, though.

Chapter 1005: Anger (3)

The officials were not entirely sure what Riya's arrangement for these magicians from the Magic Association whom she sent to the frontline.

But they could guess that these magicians from the Magic Association would not have an easy time.

If they were not strong enough...

Perhaps death would be possible?

While these officials were struggling, Riya and Samuel had already reached the place where the magicians from the Magic Association were located. Seeing that there were still many higher ranked magicians from the Magic Association left, Samuel's eyes flashed with mockery.

As he had expected.

The magicians from the Magic Association was really not honest.

Even though the leader was good and went to fight personally, many magicians from the Magic Association were rotten to the core.

"Riya."

"Ah." Riya nodded and stretched her hand. Mana surged once more and teleportation formation was made to directly send these magicians from the Magic Association to the frontline.

To be exact, she sent them to the passage.

There were many magic beasts there, so these magicians from the Magic Association would have to fight with their all if they wanted to survive.

This could be considered as a small punishment.

Anyway, with Peter and Dina there, Riya believed that these magicians from the Magic Association would not die so easily.

Swish! Swish!

Hundreds of magicians from the Magic Association directly vanished.

Riya glanced over at the building and nodded at Samuel before turning her head in one direction. Because she sensed familiar mana fluctuation and also the face that she used to hate very much.

After becoming a rune master, Riya never paid much attention to these people.

She was too busy and didn't want to care about them.

But seeing their current life, for a moment, Riya felt somewhat unwilling.

"If you want to drag them to the battle, you can do it," Samuel said when he saw the people whom Riya looked at. He remembered their faces as he had ordered his men and even asked his father to check.

Knowing the Tarun Family used to be a powerful family in the past and often made things difficult for Riya...

Samuel really wanted to destroy them.

Unfortunately, the Tarun Family latched themselves on the Magic Association.

Some of them even become magicians from the Magic Association.

In this way, it was not easy to move unless he wanted to be the direct enemies of the Magic Association.

Now that he saw what these magicians from the Magic Association were doing and had already offended them... adding a few more people wouldn't be a problem.

"Ok." Riya smiled.

The two of them came to the Tarun Family and Mireya's face changed when he saw the two of them. He was the person with the highest rank in the Tarun Family and also the person with the real power. At rank 6, he could be said to be one of the best magicians from the Magic Association.

"Why are you here? Shouldn't you be fighting against the magic beasts?"

"We're here to send you to the frontline," Samuel said lightly.

"What are you talking about? We don't have to fight..."

Swish!

Samuel waved his hand and blocked the few people who wanted to attack. He looked at the Tarun Family with coldness in his eyes. "It seems that they want a special treatment, Riya."

"Ah." Riya nodded and chose to directly sent them to the passage.

There were more magic beasts inside the passage and whether they could live or die was not her business.

Swish! Swish!

The highest ranked among them was only rank 6 and his expression distorted before he disappeared.

Marin saw this and screamed, "You can't do this! I'm your mother! You have to respect me and never harm me!"

Riya looked at Marin and her expression turned cold. "Mother? My blood related mother has died in the hands of your good daughter Ciera."

This was not a secret and Riya had known about it from a long time.

But she didn't feel anything.

Neither her father or mother were present thorough her life. Her father's children did make some troubles but those were children's affairs. Her mother disappeared directly and never disturbed her.

Only the money was sent to her account to fulfill their obligation as parents to raise their children.

But heh.

It was nothing more than sending money.

There was no emotional feeling, so Riya didn't feel much and didn't deal with them because she felt that it was unnecessary.

Sometimes... living can be worse than death.

With them living in a hardship, it could be said that living was already difficult enough. Coupled with many other conflicts they had with each other, Riya could say that she felt it's better to leave them be.

The dramas they created themselves were already entertaining enough.

If there was anything that she did, it would be something secretive and would not have much effect on herself.

"No! I'm your mother and..."

Hearing Marin started babbling, Riya was getting impatient, but Samuel suddenly raised his hand to stop her from sending Marin away. "With her IQ, if she kept on insisting about this matter, perhaps the Tarun Family had known something?"

"Oh?" Riya was stunned.

At this moment, she thought about her encounter with Mireya and Marin in front of the crack a long time ago.

She did feel that there was something strange with them, but she couldn't guess what it is.

Now that Samuel said this...

"And it's strange enough that a powerful family like their snatch over a married man." Samuel looked at Marin, who had stopped talking and was trembling. "I can't see how much she loves her husband and he himself should have been together with her mostly because of the resources of the Tarun Family."

Love?

Given by how Marin decisively left him in City A Base, Samuel didn't believe they have any feeling with each other.

"You can't do anything to me, I'm..."

Bang!

Chapter 1006: Tarun Family

Riya simply used runes and directly let Marin told the truth.

In fact, Marin herself didn't know much and only knew how to follow the Tarun Family's instruction. It was her brother who knew more about this matter.

But even through her intermittent information, the two of them still managed to get something.

"Someone instructed your family... saying that my father had a brilliant future?" Riya had a strange expression on her face.

Her father had a brilliant future?

That greedy man?

She really couldn't see what made them think that her father would be able to achieve something great when his own achievement was broken like that.

"He did build his business, so he have some capabilities," Samuel said slowly. "But compared to many other businessmen, he had the convenience of the Tarun Family to be able to grow so much."

"And just because of a fortune teller, the Tarun Family make a lot of bet on various people's future..." Riya's lips twitched.

No wonder that the Tarun Family sided with the Magic Association and many of them even become magicians from the Magic Association. It was obvious that they should have followed this fortune teller's words and approached someone close to the current head of the Magic Association.

Or perhaps someone of the closer lineage.

Thinking about the personality of the leader of the Magic Association, Samuel was more inclined to think that it should be other magicians from the Magic Association.

As for who it is... He didn't know.

"What a good calculation." Riya sneered.

The only reason why her father could have a bright future would be if he were to support Riya. Because if his marriage was not destroyed and he still lived with his wife, perhaps their relationship could be repaired and then Riya would live in a normal family.

Even if there were some grievances with each other, it would not reach to the point of being irreparable with each other like this.

After all, no matter how much she disliked her father, she wouldn't really do anything to him.

Even now...

Riya didn't really do much to her father.

He was still living at the bottom of the people in City A Base and Riya basically didn't bother with his life. Whether he was living a good life or living at the bottom as a worker, Riya didn't care.

It was good that he didn't bother with her again.

"You can't kill me! He said that the laws will prevent you from killing your parents...." Marin was screaming.

After they all found out that the one with the real chance and the powerful one was actually the little girl at that time... it was already too late. When the world changed, they all thought that Mr. Taylor would have some great talent or something.

But things didn't go in the direction they wanted.

Mr. Taylor was weak.

So weak that he could be killed in one blow.

This made them question the fortune teller.

It was only recently did they found out that Riya is actually the rune master, a returnee who came back and had extremely strong power.

The fortune teller was not wrong.

But it was not accurate.

Because the person whom they should have curry favor in the beginning was actually the little girl whom they looked down a lot.

And their Tarun Family had long offended Riya to death.

Now, it was good.

Their entire family was sent straight to the passage and had to kill the magic beasts. It was unknown how many of them will die in this battle.

"I'm going to see the fortune teller." With a wave of her hand, Riya sent Marin to go to the passage too.

"I'll come with you." Samuel nodded.

"...Are you sure that the frontline will be fine without you?" Riya looked at Samuel suspiciously.

Compared to her, Samuel seemed to care more about the people on the frontline. It would be impossible for him to leave if he had no other reasons.

Though, the construction of the base and the existence of Peter and Dina meant that the frontline should be fine.

Samuel chuckled. "Yes. I believe in their strength. Besides, I still have to send a few more magicians from the Magic Association."

These magicians from the Magic Association were scattered all over Continent Z.

He had asked that the other vice leader was not here but in their other base. So after they were done with this, he wanted Riya to bring him to see the other magicians from the Magic Association.

But before that, it would not matter if they met with the fortune teller first.

"He's there."

The fortune teller was living in Tarun Family's residence.

It could be said that this old man had a high status in the Tarun Family because he was extremely valued by them. The advice that he gave from time to time allowed the family to grow up and obtained a lot of fortune.

So he had high status.

But when the world changed, the old man didn't have any talent whatsoever and could only rely on the connections that he had built over the years.

"...You're here." The old man didn't seem to be surprised when he saw Riya and Samuel coming.

The two people were staring straight at the old man's eyes.

They could sense the mana surging in the man's eyes and he should have an opportunity when he was young, allowing his eyes to mutate and see some lines of fortune. This is what allowed him to get connection with the Tarun Family and gave them various instruction.

"Why?" Riya only had one question.

When she saw his eyes, she understood that this old man might have been lucky or unlucky to have mana transformed his eyes.

But what she knew is that he didn't use this gift well.

Had he used it for other things...

He might not be reduced to be an ordinary man like this.

Chapter 1007: Tarun Family (2)

"I want to change my fate, but I failed. It's as simple as that," the old man replied.

His eyes could no longer see much.

But the brilliance from these two people were extremely clear in his eyes, to the point of hurting his own eyes.

He knew very well that their fates are extremely strong.

So strong that it would be hard to get close.

"That's all? Just because you want to change your fate, you destroyed other people's families?" Riya asked coldly.

The old man was silent for a moment. "I never asked them to do it."

Yes, he didn't ask them, but didn't he allowed their behavior?

From the moment he cooperated with the Tarun Family, it was obvious that he was the one who had benefited a lot.

Riya sneered and raised her hand.

'Karma runes.'

If this old man were to do anything bad, he would be backlashed and everything would fall to himself. But even if he were to do any good deed, it would not help him get any benefit as it would be used to repay the people whom he had wronged all these years.

The old man's eyes changed and he frowned.

He couldn't see things anymore and his eyes felt pain.

"What did you do? Give me back my ability! You're such a... Ahh!"

Riya looked at the man who had fallen down when he wanted to curse and her expression turned strange. It was obvious that the runes' effect was a bit too strong on this old man, which meant that he had done a lot of bad deeds.

She didn't like to use this runes that affect one's luck that much.

Because the end effect was usually a bit uncontrollable and it was not very convenient if she wanted to do something.

But now...

This seemed to be the most appropriate punishment for shameless people.

"Let's go."

"Yes."

Samuel shook his head and then pulled Riya away.

For a moment, he had some pity for those magicians from the Magic Association who had been manipulated by this old man. Some of them should have been influenced and used by the old man to benefit himself and the Tarun Family.

And this kind of punishment for the old man would be more painful than sending him to die in the mouth of those magic beasts.

Frontline

Because of the sealing that Riya did, the people there would still have enough time before the magic beasts came in.

But not long after Samuel and Riya disappeared, the formation was broken.

roar

Countless magic beasts poured out and tried to rush over.

Of course, they would never allow such a thing to happen and quickly attacked with various methods.

Even if there were some rank 7 to rank 8 magic beast coming out, it would be either Dina or Peter who handled them. There were also a few other powerful people who had reached rank 7 who came here and helped to share the burden.

But without Samuel or Riya, it didn't seem to be that easy.

"Where are those two?" Dina was confused that Samuel and Riya simply disappeared. These two people were basically the few people who had the heart to protect the people the most among them.

At least, Dina knew that she herself couldn't do it.

But even if she didn't really have that heart, she didn't want to see the Green Planet be destroyed either.

So she still chose to fight hard here.

"They should be back soon," the soldier who was guarding Dina replied with a wry smile.

He also didn't know why Samuel and Riya left.

There should be some reasons that they didn't know.

"Oh." Dina nodded, not very interested.

She looked at the magic beasts pouring out of the passage and snorted.

"I am the lord of the dark. May the darkness come and envelop the entire world. Block every ray of light, descend onto the world and cover every surface in the darkness. Darkness is the greatest power in the entire world. Let the darkness come, Dark World!"

Swoosh!

The magic caused countless magic beasts to die instantly and Dina nodded in satisfaction. But when she saw some rank 8 magic beasts were still alive, she frowned.

These rank 8 magic beasts were a bit too strong for her.

Bang!

Peter had already charged forward while yelling, "Can't you remind us before using that magic, Dina?"

"It's unnecessary." Dina ignored Peter and simply used other magic spells to deal with some separate rank 7 magic beast. The other weaker magic beasts could be handed over to the other soldiers.

She would not be like Samuel who could kill countless magic beasts indiscriminately.

Her strength was far from that.

Swish!

"Ahhh!"

Screams of panic could be heard as several magicians from the Magic Association suddenly appeared on top of these magic beasts.

The appearance of these magicians from the Magic Association made the people surprised.

Originally, they didn't know that these people were magicians.

But...

"Oh mighty earth, please block the enemies in front of me and kill them with your power. I want to see the magnificent ability of the earth spike!"

"O the light of the world, shine upon you the power to destroy the entire world. For I wish that these magic beasts in front of me could perish and disappear! May the blessing of the world fulfill this request of mine, light of judgement!"

"Wood, wood, I need more wood, appear in front of me and twist the enemies in my sight oh wood. I want more wood and I need them to appear and destroy the enemies who want to kill me, the twisting woods!"

"Wood, wood, I need more wood, appear in front of me and control the enemies in my sight oh wood. I want more wood and I need them to appear and control the enemies, the control woods!"

Ah...

The familiar song and dance.

But, did you suddenly evolve into air dance?

Chapter 1008: Magicians

Many people who saw this scene was speechless. These magicians from the Magic Association directly fell down on top of the magic beasts and many of them couldn't react in time.

And the second batch of magicians from the Magic Association also arrived soon afterwards. These magicians from the Magic Association immediately used various magic spells to kill the magic beasts before they fell down.

Moreover, some of them couldn't react in time or their magic spells were not over yet.

So they ended up falling in pain.

These strange magic spells were quickly mixed with the screams of horror and pain from these magicians from the Magic Association.

"...Samuel and Riya should have been visiting these magicians from the Magic Association." Dina looked at their unsightly appearance and shook her head disdainfully. These magicians from the Magic Association were really the worst.

Many of them had the qualification fight against these magic beasts, but they didn't dare to step forward to fight. They only dared to hide and ordered the weaker magicians from the Magic Association to fight.

Tsk, tsk, tsk.

It was obvious that these magicians from the Magic Association had already offended many people.

Now they directly offended Samuel and Riya.

"How did the Magic Association select people before?" Dina turned to look at the magicians from the Magic Association who was helping her not far from her.

"This..." the magicians from the Magic Association was hesitant.

"Even if you don't tell me, it's easy to find out with so many magicians from the Magic Association being thrown here."

In fact, Dina suspected that Samuel and Riya will throw out more magicians from the Magic Association to fight against these magic beasts.

The originally solemn and serious battle turned to be like a joke because of the appearance of these magicians from the Magic Association.

It was really...

sigh

"They gave missions to the magicians from the Magic Association to come here and we can choose whether to take it or not," the magicians from the Magic Association beside Dina could only said helplessly.

Dina nodded and understood the operation of these high ranked people of the Magic Association.

They wanted to use the weaker members to deal with this matter.

As for themselves?

They might have long run away.

'But with Riya and Samuel chasing after them, how is it possible for them to run away?' Dina sneered.

Even though she didn't want to admit it, she had to say that among them, Samuel and Riya were definitely ranked the highest temporarily.

The reason why she added the word 'temporarily' was because she believed that she could catch up with them or possibly surpass them.

No matter what, Dina wouldn't lose so easily.

Boom!

These magicians from the Magic Association continued their actions.

Many of them casted their magic spells, trying to protect themselves. But it was obvious that these magic beasts didn't care about their existences and continued to attack regardless.

For many of them, their magic spells were useless.

"Fire, fire, come down and help me to eliminate my opponent. I need your help and I offer you my dance to show my sincerity. There will be more dance later but this is an emergency, so please come forth.... Fire ball!"

"Lightning, you're the most powerful element that I have ever seen. With the power of night and the power of the clouds gathering, you are basically invincible. Come and strike down the enemies in front of me, lightning strike!"

"O the great lord of the flood, I wish you could come and help me to eliminate disaster. There are enemies in front of me and I need the dirty water you can produce to help me eliminate them. Don't worry, I only need a bit as even a bit of flood would be more than enough, flood water!"

The magic spells continued to be unleashed by these magicians from the Magic Association as they retreated

Some of them died and some of them have broken bones.

But there were still magicians from the Magic Association who survived and retreated to the back. Right now, they were cursing the two people who sent them here at how ruthless they were.

Swish! Swish!

As more magicians from the Magic Association appeared, they had realized that this is only the beginning.

Samuel and Riya seemed to be determined to send everyone from the magicians from the Magic Association here.

"Huh? They're the Tarun Family..." the soldier who recognized the few people who were sent here looked suspicious.

While some members of the Tarun Family were members of the magicians from the Magic Association, many of them were not.

Most importantly...

They all could see that this time these people were sent directly into the passage.

Screams and yells could be heard from the passage but none of them could help.

What a joke, they were not strong enough.

"...So rune master can kill people this way." A magicians from the Magic Association looked terrified.

Dina snorted.

Whoever said that Riya the rune master was soft hearted and too kind was definitely blind. All returnees have gotten used to the life of killing and so on.

Each and every single one of them carried blood in their hands.

Even if they had restrained their actions after their return to the Green Planet, it could not erase the fact that if they were provoked, they would never hesitate to resort to killing.

Dina herself had never really restrained herself.

But Samuel and the others looked more like 'good people' in the eyes of the other people on the Green Planet.

Only fellow returnees knew that it was not true.

When they needed to be decisive, no one would be able to stop them.

In this way, all members of the Tarun Family were killed by the magic beasts and their bodies were torn apart. They have no chance to protect themselves and even the strongest one, Mireya, failed to run away.

Chapter 1009: Magicians (2)

Before his death, he was still yelling and cursing at Riya's ruthlessness.

But no one cared.

They could clearly tell that Samuel and Riya had long disliked these magicians from the Magic Association. Even if there were some relatively good magicians, the rest were nothing more than rotten apples.

So watching these people were being sent to their own death, no one said anything.

Even if they saw that Riya was purposeful... they could only report it as an accident on the frontline.

In this battle against the magic beasts, many magicians from the Magic Association ended up sacrificing their lives and it could be considered a contribution. Anyway, it was also true that the Tarun Family killed a few magic beasts before their death.

So this report is not a lie.

As for their sacrifice...

They could only apologize.

It was estimated that no one would come forward to claim the 'bodies' of these people from the Tarun Family either.

With their bodies being rip apart by the magic beasts, it was estimated that there would not even be any corpse left.

Bang!

Mana surged and many magicians from the Magic Association continued to fight.

Dina and Peter saw that there were a few more batches of magicians from the Magic Association before they saw that it stopped for a long time.

Presumably, Samuel and Riya should have thought that it's enough.

But really...

It's quite cruel for these magicians from the Magic Association.

Riya and Samuel were targeting the magicians from the Magic Association that blocked the crack before and sent them away without hesitation.

These magicians from the Magic Association used to block her from sealing this crack and now that they have to face the magic beasts from the passage from the other world, Riya chose to directly seal this crack.

"Did you check the things inside?" Samuel asked as he killed a few magic beasts that came out.

He guessed that the Green World's consciousness didn't have time to care about these cracks anymore. This caused some magic beasts to escape and run amok on their own.

"The magicians from the Magic Association have killed a lot of magic beasts and there are a lot of valuable herbs taken away," Riya replied.

She was quite amazed.

These magicians from the Magic Association really knew the value of the things inside without any returnee guiding them.

After all, Murin had a fallout with the Magic Association.

He had never truly explained everything to them and many resources remained largely unknown. They had to do testing on their own to determine the usage of various things.

"I see." Samuel nodded, not surprised.

The magicians from the Magic Association seemed to have obtained some ancient record or something like that. At least, the leader of the Magic Association was quite good and was still willing to fight in person.

But the rest of the magicians from the Magic Association...

Well, the lower ranked members were good and the higher ranked were mixed batch.

"It should be all. Do you want to drag the other magicians from the Magic Association who were stationed in various bases?" Riya asked.

The rest of the magicians from the Magic Association were located in various city bases and it would take a long time for Riya to drag them all to the frontline. Besides, she was not entirely sure whether these people were part of the high ranks or the low ranks from the Magic Association.

"No need. We should go back."

Even though these magicians from the Magic Association should be able to help them deal with the magic beasts, their power was not that strong. It would be better for them to return directly to the frontline.

The rest of the magicians from the Magic Association could only be set aside.

Anyway, Samuel had seen the two vice leaders.

"Good."

Riya held Samuel's hand and then started to perform the teleportation back to the base.

Before leaving, she had left behind several teleportation formation on this area, allowing her to come back quickly.

Swish!

The moment their return, they could hear the chants from these magicians from the Magic Association.

Since there was a time gap with the last time Riya threw these magicians from the Magic Association over, they had already retreated to the backline.

Besides, she was not that ruthless except when facing the Tarun Family.

These magicians from the Magic Association might be a bit shameless and annoying, but they were still willing to fight in the end, so she showed mercy.

The place where they were teleported were near the edge.

In this way, they just need to be arranged to the side of the base that had higher elevation so that they could use their magic spells to the fullest.

"O the water of world, I want water that could help me to trap my enemies and block their movements. I don't need to hold them back for long but as long as I can hold them back, they would not be able to move. Restraining water puddles."

"The earth is mighty and great, turn into a container that could hold onto my enemies and held them back, restrain their movements, control their limbs, and hold them back for they're destroying the earth. Earth bowl of container."

"The metal is strong and durable. It can also twist and turns, allowing us to create a new and beautiful shape. Turn into metal ropes and chain, capture the enemies and prevent them from escaping for us is the strongest. Metal chains."

"Oh mighty earth, please block the enemies in front of me and stop their attack. I want to see the magnificent ability of the earth wall!"

The song was still as hard to hear as always.

Though, neither of the two paid attention to it.

Their gazes were focused on the front where other people were fighting against the magic beasts.

They saw that Peter and Dina were struggling to fight along with many other magicians and other profession who were trying their best to hold on.

Riya looked at the scene in front of her and her heart tightened.

Chapter 1010: Emotions

The atmosphere on the scene was oppressive and the sound of gunfire was mixed with the screams of monsters. They had just been killed and more came out endlessly. They trampled on the bodies of their former comrades without care and continued to attack.

It looked extremely desperate.

On the human's side, bullets and various spells or attacks poured down like torrent, raining down fiercely against the magic beasts' tide. And facing the rank 8 magic beast was Peter who stood bravely, blocking the path and trying to kill it. There were also some other rank 7 magic beasts that were handled by either the rank 7 warrior from the Martial Arts Association, the one from the military, and even the rank 7 magician was helping from the back.

The weaker ones were also fighting hard, including the magicians from the Magic Association that Riya threw over. They cast spells, used guns, or even other weapons, to kill the lower ranked magic beasts.

It was obvious that everyone was fighting desperately.

Dina was not quiet either as she launched various magic from the back, killing the rank 7 magic beast almost instantly from time to time to help them all.

Standing on top of the base, Riya had a panoramic view of everything.

She could see various magic beasts were crawling out of the passage. There were fierce reptile like magic beasts, weird elemental magic beasts, flying magic beasts, and even water type magic beasts.

On the front left, a huge one horned dragon turtle magic beast was rampaging and approaching the newly built base walls.

On the right side, several story high octopus like magic beast was stretching its tentacle, trying to sweep through the soldiers.

And directly in front of her, a large rank 8 snake like magic beast had just came out with its body twisting.

Riya saw other various magic beasts that crawled out.

Some were smart enough to sneak behind their so called comrades to wait for a chance but some others were stupid and simply recklessly charging forward.

When Samuel was the one who fought, there was simply no chance for her to take a look closely. Because at that time, Samuel would be able to handle the magic beasts cleanly and not letting even a single one of them get close to her.

He will protect her and he always kept his words.

But now, Riya saw clearly how it would be without her and Samuel protecting the frontline.

Humans will struggle.

She had never seen it before.

As City A Base would always deploy the formation that she left behind, effectively protecting everyone behind the formation. There was not much risk for them to kill the magic beasts as long as they were not stupid enough.

Now that she watched this scene, her heart trembled like never before.

It turns out...

This is how war actually is.

They all stood up not just to fight against the magic beasts but also to protect the people behind them.

Stand tall on this frontline that could never be allowed to fall, guarding the peace of the city bases behind them, protecting your family members and also the future of future generations.

No one knew how many magic beasts will come out.

No one knew whether these magic beasts will ever stop.

No one knew if they could kill all of these magic beasts.

But no matter what, everyone had the strong conviction that they have to step forward and fight.

Not just for themselves but for those whom they wanted to protect.

At this moment, mana surged around Riya as she focused her attention on the passage that was opened up in the distance. She has no other distracting thoughts and her hands moved, forming the formation that she had learned but never used before.

Because this is a powerful rank 9 formation.

Her mana was barely enough to use it.

She had to use the mana in the air to aid her in forming this formation.

Even though Riya was basically the person with the highest amount of mana in the entire Green Planet, it would not be easy for her to use this formation.

While she never tried it before, but Riya was not afraid and possibly also didn't care at this very moment.

Because she just wanted to be able to do something.

Both for herself and for those whom she wanted to protect.

Samuel, who was standing beside Riya, was the first person to feel clearly the explosion of mana from Riya. At their ranks, they would usually control their mana strictly.

After all, fighting against these magic beasts might last for a long time.

None of them were willing to waste their mana.

They had to calculate their mana carefully and kill as many magic beasts as possible in the shortest period of time.

He turned his head and saw Riya's expression.

Even though Samuel didn't know what she was thinking, but for a moment, he was reminded on the time when he first encountered the grand magic beasts' tide.

There was anger, frustration, and pressure.

Some other people also couldn't hold back when they saw the scene that they made a move in a fit of anger.

The high ranked professions never stopped them.

Samuel was once confused about the reason because these people were basically wasting their mana in a supposedly prolonged war.

But his father only look at him and said one sentence, "We're all human being."

Human beings with emotions and rational side.

Even though their rational side has to be much stronger than their emotional side because of their profession and their path forward, they still have their emotional side.

And stopping these people would not do them any good.

Let them vent.

When they were done venting their emotions, they will feel much better and might even make improvement in their path.

So Samuel simply took a few steps back, preventing himself to disturb Riya's formation.

Even if he knew it was unlikely that a person's presence could disturb Riya's current concentration, but what if?

He didn't want to make trouble.

And these magic beasts...

He also wanted to make a move.

Swish!

Mana surged and the color of the sky and the earth changed, the wind and cloud stirred, and strong pressure heavily swept across all direction.
