

Last Days 101

Chapter 101 Exploration (2)

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Pile of magic beasts corpses appeared in front of Riya, higher than a 10 story buildings and still increased as there were sounds from above.

'Does someone fought against these magic beasts?'

Riya frowned and then raised her hand and put these corpses into her space. Those that were still alive were left behind and Riya looked up.

'Eye of Sight,' Riya silently moved her finger and formed a small formation spell and used it on herself. This will help her to see further above because the distance from this crack to the top was a bit far.

After a moment, Riya was silent.

There was no one above the crack.

It was her formation.

This pile of magic beasts' corpses were the result of the formation that she had made two days ago.

"So the crack is connected to each other..." Riya muttered to herself and looked above. She had no plan to remove that formation yet because there were still many magic beasts here.

But since most of them had been eliminated by the killing formation she made, her work had become easier.

Riya looked at the rest of the magic beasts around her and smiled faintly. "You're all really kind and stupid."

The magic beasts shuddered when they saw Riya's look.

For some reasons, they felt danger.

And what left afterwards was nothing more than wailing of these magic beasts and the sound of their bodies falling to the ground. At this point, Riya didn't know how many magic beasts she had killed.

Be it unranked magic beasts or the rank 1 magic beasts, both are equally weak in front of rank 3 mage Riya.

Since Riya only needed to meditate to recover her mana, her progress was extremely fast.

In a few hours (at least, based on her perception of time), Riya had found the other cracks and cleaned up the magic beasts below it. After that, she found the second crack that she had sealed and took the harvest happily.

After eliminating many magic beasts and walking further, Riya felt that she was already outside of City A and...

"These magic beasts are getting stronger." Riya looked at the slope in front of her with a frown. The crack was heading deeper and Riya was not sure what was waiting for her at the front.

And the few magic beasts she found around this area were high rank 1 magic beasts.

They were more than a bit stronger than the ordinary magic beast and it took Riya some time to deal with several of them.

Just a few seconds longer, though.

'Should I continue?'

Riya looked at the world and in the end sighed. Her world had become much richer because of these corpses but it was still far from comparable to the world where she spent four years in. Moreover, Riya also needed a lot of mana in the future.

So she had to start accumulating them from now.

'Let's just try it.'

Tep! Tep!

Riya was not afraid and continued walking down the slope. The roads were uneven and there were many misplaced rocks, making her journey even more difficult. If not because Riya made some enhancement for her body, it was estimated that she wouldn't be able to pass through this road.

Physical strength has never been her forte...

Bang!

The shield was triggered and a shadow flew to the back.

Riya narrowed her eyes and looked at the magic beast in front of her. 'Shadow legion? No, it's just shadow creature.'

Shadow creature were magic beasts who mastered the power of darkness. They could blend into the shadow and used the dark element. Their movements were leaning towards assassins, but there were also those who were leaning more towards mages. As for the warrior type... they were usually very weak.

And the main reason why they were called as shadow legion was because these shadow creatures were usually controlled by a lich.

The Lich was usually a human who had chosen to become an immortal through the power of the undead... well, Riya didn't know the specific details about how to become one because she definitely didn't want to be a Lich.

He's too ugly.

cough

Of course, Riya would not dare to say this outright in front of a Lich. Because to become a Lich, one had to be at least rank 4. Prior to this rank, they were usually ordinary mages who learned ordinary spell but they had to have dark element.

Otherwise, it would have been impossible for them to become a lich.

"There's no Lich here, right?" Riya swallowed her saliva when she thought about it. Because if there was truly a Lich here, then she would not hesitate and leave directly through using her formation.

Swish!

The shadow creature rushed towards Riya and she raised her hand. Bright light appeared from the runes and pierced through the shadow.

Bang!

The shadow creature exploded and fell to the ground.

The weakness of these shadow creatures were also very clear, it was the light element. But there were not many people who could use light element magic spells.

Everyone had their own affinity in percentage. The higher the percentage, the easier it would be for them to learn magic spell of that element. And the lower the percentage meant that they had to work harder to learn that specific element.

The lower percentage was below 1%, which meant that there was no possibility of them learning that element ever in their entire life.

As for Riya...

She was the rare one whose elements were evenly divided. This made it difficult for her to learn ordinary magic spells no matter what element they were.

But it was also because the percentage of all elements were the same that Riya's runes could basically use all elements.

This could be considered her advantage.

'Let's see, are you shadow legion or just a wandering shadow creature.' Riya crouched in front of the shadow creature corpse and raised her hand to make another formation.
