

Last Days 171

Chapter 171 Conflicts

Samuel's eyes condensed as he looked at Murin.

"What makes you think you have the qualification to order me around?"

With that, another slash was made with Samuel's sword.

Bang!

Murin retreated a few steps and looked at his magic beast with a frown. This was the strongest magic beast that he managed to find, but this magic beast was only a rank 2 magic beasts after all. Facing the powerful strike from Samuel, it was directly injured.

And this was under the situation where Samuel didn't really attack seriously.

If Samuel was really serious, Murin knew that Samuel would directly use magic spells to aid his attack.

At that time, could he survive?

"How did you do that?" Murin frowned. The Magic Association had invested in him a lot and after these magic beasts appeared, their corpses were naturally given to his magic beasts to eat.

In this way, these magic beasts were able to reach rank 2 in a short period of time. But it would still take some time to reach rank 3 and even rank 4. The higher the rank, the more difficult it is for them to advance.

"I just did." Samuel looked back at Murin calmly. He smiled mockingly. "Don't you want to make me follow your order? You're still too young to do that."

"Heh." Murin sneered. "This is only the beginning, Samuel."

Swish!

A large bat like magic beast appeared behind Murin and clenched his robe to lift the man up. Murin's posture looked a bit strange for a moment before he fixed his appearance and then took out something.

Samuel was originally not interested in Murin's action.

For Murin to be able to control two magic beasts at the same time, Samuel was not surprised.

This Murin was known to be the famous annoying beast masters in that world. Not only annoying, he was also so talented that many beast masters felt like they were nothing in front of Murin.

The number of beasts around Murin was almost double the number of magic beasts that other people could have.

This made the magic beasts' association very proud.

And after Murin joined that organization and nearly destroyed the city, the entire beast master association was also turned upside down. Everyone who have good relationship with Murin was chased and killed.

Samuel looked at the flute in Murin's hand and his pupil dilated.

Flute of Beast.

It was the flute of beast that could control other magic beasts, including contracted magic beasts. The power of the flute of beast was so strong that those who owned it would be secluded by others.

In that battle, Samuel had already seen Murin used the Flute of Beast.

And that tragic battle killed so many people.

Who would have thought that this Flute of Beast would also follow Murin back to this world. Does this mean that every single one of the returnee would have powerful artifact in their hands that they could use to destroy the world?

"Lightning Strike!" Samuel didn't hesitate and directly used magic spells with his sword to stop Murin.

Bang!

The bat quickly avoided but being in close contact to that strike, it was also shrieking in fear.

Murin trembled a bit and felt that Samuel was really outrageous.

They have only returned for a few months, at most a year. How did Samuel managed to reach such a high rank without enough resources?

As expected, warriors were really the most annoying.

In the early stage, warriors would advance faster than magicians. Their abilities made many people feel a bit jealous.

But in the later stage...

The destructive power from the magicians were not so easy to block!

zii

The melodious sound from the flute spread.

Riya, who was not far from Amelia, had black face too. She naturally recognized that Flute of Beast. It was a powerful artifact that could control magic beasts. And if it was not used for control, they could use it to influence magic beasts around the area to come.

Once they come, what would they do?

Of course attacking them!

'Damn, he's going too far.'

Riya was not exactly a spell caster and the magic spells modified from runes couldn't reach so high. It seemed that Murin had long expected that Samuel would try to attack him, so he ordered his magic beast to fly far away.

He could escape, but how about these people from the Magic Association?

Riya's eyes condensed with coldness when she watched these people rushed towards their cars to leave. Her flingers moved slightly and runes condensed in front of her, shooting towards the car.

Bang!

The car slumped towards the round and couldn't move anymore.

Samuel also saw Murin left after flying high and then looked at these people from the Magic Association who wanted to run away. He sneered. "You want to throw the trouble to us?"

Slash! Slash!

With a few slashes, many people from the Magic Association died and the rest were a bit too far away. The Mile Family had also left with them and Samuel didn't care about it.

He looked at his father and said, "Prepare for battle. There will be a beast tide soon."

"Beast tide?" Mr. Jones was stunned. He thought about his son's angry reaction towards that Murin. At first, he thought that the two of them would only fight frontally because of their conflict in that world.

Knowing his son's experience, Mr. Jones guessed that they have some disputes and didn't plan to get involved in this matter.

But who could tell him how it turned into a beast tide?

"Yes. His artifact is capable of calling magic beasts nearby," Samuel replied with a sneer. "The next time I see him, I'll kill him before he could use that Flute of Beast."

"Ok. I'll prepare."

Soon, the alarm rang and everyone in the base was getting ready to prepare for the beast tide.

Riya saw this scene and pulled Amelia. "Let's go. We have to prepare too."

"Wait, wait, what happened?"
