

Last Days 173

Chapter 173 Is This Really Beast Tide?

"Well...that's true." Amelia frowned and then nodded. While she was a bit worried for Joan since she was still so young yet have to fight on the frontline... Amelia decided not to think too much.

Anyway, her annoying brother will surely stay on the frontline to accompany Joan too. He should be able to protect her to a certain degree.

Considering her brother's strength, Amelia could only try to trust him.

But she had to suggest to Samuel that her younger brother needed more training.

Thinking about this, Amelia grinned.

Sean felt chills on his back and looked around warily. He felt that someone was definitely plotting against him and this made him extremely wary.

If he knew that his sister was going to use this matter to make him suffer more training from his older brother, he will definitely fight her!

Swish!

flap flap

Riya heard the familiar flapping sound and raised her head. Seeing a few flying magic beasts coming over, she pursed her lips.

She had completely forgotten that even rank 1 magic beasts consist of land magic beast, water magic beast, and even flying magic beasts. Because of this, any battle against these magic beasts would never be easy.

Bang!

Before Riya made a move, one of the flying beast was shot down.

They all came to the top of the wall and Amelia frowned. "How to deal with those flying beast?"

"Either shot it with guns or to use magic spells," Riya replied.

"...I only know defensive counterattack."

Riya: "..."

Bang!

Before they could do anything else, a magic beast had climbed up and Amelia quickly stepped forward to help. The wall hasn't been completely built and these magic beasts were basically trampling on top of each other to reach the wall.

It was a tragic sight.

Riya pursed her lips when she saw this and her fingers moved slightly.

Swish! Bang!

A lightning strike these flying beasts around them from above as if it was a natural phenomenon.

Samuel paused for a moment and looked at the sky before focusing his attention on the few special magic beasts. That magic spells just now reminding him of the days when he was in that world, having to fight with these magic beasts and there were many people with various abilities around him.

But this thought only came for a fleeting moment.

There shouldn't be any other people who experienced the same thing as him nearby.

So few people went back from that world, how could they be arranged to stay around him and helped him?

It sounded unrealistic.

Swish! Slash!

As Samuel dealt with the few special magic beasts, he looked to the front and narrowed his eyes. "So the highest is still only rank 2 magic beasts. Heh, your ability has been reduced, Murin."

Swish!

With that, Samuel rushed to the front and landed on top of the magic beasts' corpses. He swung his sword and with each slash, countless magic beasts fell down.

The magic beasts that they found hard to deal with were killed and eliminated easily by Samuel.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Riya looked at the magic beasts around her and then glanced at Sean and Joan. The two of them worked together and busy killing the magic beasts that managed to get on to the wall. There was still some people who shot the other magic beasts around them with guns.

Is this really a magic beast tide?

Looking at the number of magic beasts that decreased in less than half an hour...

Riya was full of doubts.

This didn't seem serious...

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Amidst the gunshots, Riya could see that the number of magic beasts didn't seem to be a lot. But thinking about the fact that Riya entered the crack that was not far from here... Riya could guess that most of these magic beasts have been eliminated by her in advance.

Thus, there were not many that left.

If Murin had done this in other areas, there would be more magic beasts coming.

And without someone like Samuel to protect them, it was estimated that they would not be able to last long under the onslaught of these magic beasts.

Riya's eyes turned cold.

She looked in the direction where Murin left thoughtfully.

Killing Murin would be difficult.

That man had Flute of Beast and as long as he stayed in the air at certain distance, Riya would't be able to reach him. These flying magic beasts had to be within certain range for her to attack them.

Otherwise, her magic was not good enough.

Moreover, Riya was not sure whether Murin had a third magic beast or not. In that world, Murin was known as the greatest genius as beast master and there were many people who couldn't compare with him in the slightest bit.

So even at lower rank, Murin could contract with more magic beasts.

Besides, after they came back from that world, their 'soul' power was stronger than before, which would make their ability higher.

Otherwise, it would have been difficult even for Riya and Samuel to train so quickly and returned to their previous rank. Aside from their memory, this world's mana was really so thin that it was hard for them to train.

But if their talent was even better than before...

It would not be an exaggeration to say that they would be able to advance much faster as if they were still in the most favorable environment.

Bang!

"Riya!"

Riya raised her hand when she saw the magic beast that came to her and the magic beast stopped moving as if there was something that restricted it. The next moment, a blow came and the magic beast fell down.

Amelia, who was worried for Riya, was stunned.

In their spar before, Riya rarely made a move and even if she did, it was very simple.

But just now...

It was so fast?

Riya saw Amelia's face and smiled kindly. Real battles between magic warriors have always been very fast. It would be good for Amelia to know about this in advance.
