

Last Days 177

Chapter 177 Fighting with the Magic Association's People

"I didn't expect you to be here, Riya," Samuel started slowly and looked at Riya up and down.

It took him quite a long time to reach this area and it seemed that he was still slower than Riya. She was also alone without anyone around her, so how did she manage to reach here?

With motorcycle like him?

It was not impossible but how did she manage to go faster than him? He was pretty sure that he left directly after the matter was over in City A Base. There shouldn't be anyone who could be faster than him.

Unless she used other methods.

Samuel's eyes narrowed slightly.

It seemed that this little girl was really extraordinary.

"Senior Samuel." Riya smiled back without any timidity. Facing Samuel, Riya was still relatively calm and had no intention to back down in the slightest bit. She knew very well that it would be impossible for her to hide her abilities forever.

It was just....

Isn't this too fast?

Riya was planning to hide her secret for a while longer but he seemed to appear at the most appropriate time.

She could only confront him.

"Do you want to deal with them?" Samuel raised his chin towards the people in the distance that were about to enter the building. From the way it looked like, these people were not very vigilant towards them and seemed not to care about anything either.

For people who claimed to be the experts from the magic association... they clearly didn't show it in their action.

"They're going to be a bigger trouble in the future," Riya replied. She thought for a moment and then added, "We have some conflicts with Hansel too, but dealing with the Mile Family didn't seem to be a good option."

"Hansel?" Samuel frowned when he thought about that useless young man. "What did he do?"

"Oh, he's..." Riya proceeded to tell Samuel what happened when they were still in the academy grounds. They encountered Hansel there and this young man wanted to kill Amelia the most.

To be honest, Riya and Ruby were more like additional people who were not important in that scene.

"Oh?" Samuel's eyes narrowed dangerously.

It seemed that this cousin of his really wanted to seek death. He had already given her a lot of chances in the past but she never treasured any of them and still wanted to harm them.

For such a person, Samuel felt that he was really too lenient.

He should have let Valeria suffer more.

As for this Hansel...

The Mile Family was indeed troublesome but it was not something that couldn't be touched. But it would be better to wait until next time to deal with them because they still have to deal with these people from the Magic Association.

If they accidentally got hit, it would be great.

Riya sensed the killing intent from Samuel and thought to herself that Samuel really cared for his sister. It seemed that whatever happened to his sister, Samuel would make sure that those who dared to offend her will not end well.

This meant that she didn't have to be the one to make a move.

It was pretty good too.

"Do you want to make a move?" Samuel asked. He wanted to see Riya's move but from her posture, she seemed to be waiting for him.

"Since you're here, do I need to make a move, Senior Samuel?" Riya asked slowly. Samuel is better than her in terms of attack power, so Riya chose not to make a move. If they were to compare their attack power...

Riya felt that she would only be humiliated.

Samuel arched his eyebrows. He actually wanted to see more of Riya's ability, but she didn't seem to be willing to make any move.

Well, it was fine.

There might be other chances.

Walking towards the group of mages from the Magic Association, Samuel calculated their number and the best move to deal with them.

It seemed that direct battle alone would be enough.

Swish! Slash! Slash!

The next moment, Samuel dashed and the few people who were still outside were startled. They couldn't react in time when they saw black shadow and the next moment, they were enveloped in darkness.

These few people died before they could make any sound.

'So fast.'

Riya's eyes widened when she saw this.

At this moment, she was thankful that there were not many magic beasts with power as strong as Samuel. Otherwise, life would have been very difficult for her and other magic warriors when they dealt with those magic beasts.

Swish!

"Intruder!" Someone who watched from the second floor suddenly yelled.

Samuel frowned and clicked his tongue. It was a bit too far for him to reach these people directly. He raised his sword and then muttered, "lightning sword slash!"

BOOM!

Lightning struck the building from Samuel's sword, directly destroying the entire building.

"Aaah!"

"Helpp!"

What followed was the scream of the people who were inside and failed to protect themselves in time. Even if they did, they couldn't prevent themselves from falling down.

It could be said that Samuel was really ruthless.

And that was when some people who were better off started chanting.

"Fire, fire, come down and help me to eliminate my opponent. I need your help and I offer you my dance to show my sincerity. There will be more dance later but this is an emergency, so please come forth.... Fire ball!"

"Lightning, you're the most powerful element that I have ever seen. With the power of night and the power of the clouds gathering, you are basically invincible. Come and strike down the enemies in front of me, lightning strike!"

"O the great lord of the flood, I wish you could come and help me to eliminate disaster. There are enemies in front of me and I need the dirty water you can produce to help me eliminate them. Don't worry, I only need a bit as even a bit of flood would be more than enough, flood water!"

Riya: "... what the hell?"
