

Last Days 191

Chapter 191 What Do You Want to Know?

'Whoever made these pillars, why do they not put any surveillance type of formation?'

Some formations would put surveillance type of formation so that the one who made it would know if their formation was broken or had any problems. After all, some formations were special and this kind of formation that Riya saw was also the same.

But Riya didn't see any.

This might also be because the person who made the formation was confident in their skills that even if some people were to take advantage of these special magic cores, it would not affect them too much.

But either way, Riya was glad that there was no surveillance or detection type of formations set up here.

Otherwise, she might have been hunted down.

And Riya chose not to take the special magic cores in City B yet.

First, she could let it be for a while to see whether it could grow and secondly, she could also avoid destroying two pillars at almost the same time, which might cause some suspicions here.

Even if there was no detection formations or anything like that, she had to be careful...

There was no magic tools, right?

Riya thought for a moment before tossing it away. She was not skilled in terms of magic tools but most of the magic tools would use formation and runes, which would be obvious to her.

And if she kept on worrying about things, she wouldn't be able to move forward.

With that in mind, Riya completely calmed down.

"What is this?" Samuel looked at the room densely packed with runes in shock. He knew very well that these delicate runes had to be made by someone and the rank of the person who made this was definitely not low.

Riya?

If she could make those densely packed runes, she would not be a rank 1 magician but rather a rank 7 magicians.

Samuel still knew how difficult it is and the scale for those ranking between these rune masters.

"I don't know," Riya replied. "I found this place before and guessed that there had to be something here."

Before?

Through Riya's words, Samuel knew that Riya should have come here in the past and found this place.

Thinking about the fact that Riya disappeared for around a week to two after she helped Amelia and Ruby to reach City A Base, Samuel guessed that she should have come here at that time.

A rank 1 magician enter the crack?

Unless one wanted to die, they would never do anything like that.

"You're not rank 1 magician?" Samuel looked at Riya.

"I never said I'm rank 1." Riya shrugged and looked at the pillar once more. She could guess that since she took this newly made special magic core, the auto correction formation would start again and probably kill many magic beasts around.

But Riya had to say that she didn't care.

If these magic beasts were released outside, they would only kill humans, so the best way for them was to let these magic beasts die here.

Samuel frowned and looked at Riya.

"Yes, I'm suspicious." Riya smiled when she saw Samuel's gaze but she simply looked back at him. "But do you really want to do something to me, Senior Samuel?"

Do something?

Samuel shook his head. "No unless you want to cause harm."

"Harm against who?" Riya shook his head and then said, "Don't be such a self righteous person, Senior Samuel."

Splash! Splash!

Riya continued to walk out of the place since she knew that she couldn't crack the formation yet. With her current strength, she was basically too weak to handle the formation.

And they only have one day to run away from here.

Riya guessed that the auto correction would operate after a day's time, attracting countless magic beasts around and then killed them all through the formation here.

As for the rank of the formation?

Riya didn't know.

But it was definitely not low.

If it was higher than her own rank, Riya would only kill herself if she stayed here any longer.

Rather than doing such a foolish thing, Riya would rather go out and make sure that she would not be involved in this matter.

As for the other pillar?

She would check in a few days' time.

Samuel looked at Riya's leaving back and then looked at the pillar in front of him thoughtfully. He didn't think that Riya could make this formation, but he believed that she knew something.

Was it because of the 'inheritance' that Riya mentioned before.

But after thinking for a while, Samuel stopped thinking altogether.

He felt that it was useless for him to think about it.

What he wanted to do right now was nothing more than going back.

Splash! Slash!

Walking on the pool of blood, both Samuel and Riya leave the place. It was estimated that the two of them would not return to this place anytime soon if they had nothing to do.

What they didn't know was that the runes glimmered once more when the two of them left.

It seemed that something was activated there.

"Do you know something?" Samuel asked slowly.

Riya didn't answer right away.

She was thinking whether the information she had would be fine to be told to Samuel. After all, Riya knew very well that it was not easy for her to explain the source of her knowledge.

Besides, Riya was a bit too lazy to pretend.

Sooner or later, she would have to showcase her ability to the world and pretending in front of Samuel whose strength was not much different from her was really difficult. Whether she could successfully fool him was also another question that Riya didn't know the answer.

Those who could come back safely from that world were not stupid.

They have lived a few more years in that dangerous world and possibly encounter many things.

Riya herself had to adapt herself a lot in that world.

And now...

"What do you want to know?" In the end, Riya chose to ask this to Samuel. She turned her head and looked in his direction directly.
