

Last Days 193

Chapter 193 Battle Together

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Several magic beasts came forward and Riya raised her hand, the magic spells rushed towards them, killing them instantly. After they fell to the ground, they disappeared because Riya had put them into her world.

'So many magic beasts.'

Seeing more magic beasts coming out and they chased after them, Riya could guess that these magic beasts were somehow attracted to human beings.

When they sensed that there were humans nearby, these magic beasts would rush towards them.

It seemed that the magic beasts here was the same.

'Arrow tracking formation magic.'

Swish! Swish!

Countless magic beasts fell down with Riya's move.

Not far from her, Samuel was also working hard. His moves were simple and unpretentious because he kept on hacking these magic beasts one by one with his sword. Sometimes, some magic was added, but it was not much.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

More and more magic beasts fell down as the two of them continued to run away.

Some beasts were coming but they could handle it.

Soon, the two of them killed countless magic beasts before there were no longer many magic beasts appearing.

Looking at the pile of magic beasts' corpses in front of them, the two of them were panting.

Samuel had been using some moves to kill these magic beasts faster while Riya had used up more than half of her mana.

"They're tough," Riya said with a frown.

"These magic beasts are more powerful than before." Samuel took out the previous corpses from the space storage scrolls and put these magic beasts inside. Rank 3 magic beasts were more valuable than unranked or rank 1 magic beast.

Riya nodded and after Samuel was done, Riya took the rest into her space. She had noticed that these magic beasts' corpses should be very valuable.

Seeing how Riya was able to put these magic beasts into the space storage scroll so quickly, Samuel would be lying if he said that he was not envious. Without any space storage, it would be a hassle to carry so many magic beasts around.

This was not the first time regretting not learning any life skills.

There were many practical magic spells for daily activities, but Samuel barely knew any of them.

Now he could only look at others with envy.

"Yeah." Riya rubbed her legs. Running at full speed for an extended period of time was still difficult for her. She felt that her leg was no longer hers right now. It was really tiring.

Increasing her own physical strength without enough practice on her own was definitely not a good idea.

'Well, it's good enough.'

Despite the pain, Riya was able to run away from those magic beasts, which was definitely a good thing. As for her own lack of physical strength... she will just try to use the special magic core to make up for it.

Hopefully, it would be enough.

"Shall we go back?" Samuel asked when he saw Riya's action. It seemed that her physical strength was really weak. At the very least, it couldn't be compared to him.

But her magic spells were really strong and it could even injure rank 3 magic beasts.

Samuel could guess that Riya should be a magician and her physical strength was not the best. But that rank was more than enough most of the time.

"Yes." Riya nodded.

She had no intention to stay here any longer.

There were too many magic beasts and Riya felt that if the formation were to attract more magic beasts, they might be implicated once more.

The best method to deal with it was to stay away and go out as soon as possible.

"Let's go."

The two of them returned to the previous crack that was now close to them and climbed up one by one. Upon coming out, Samuel looked at the hole on the ground and his eyes narrowed slightly.

He nearly stumble when he came out because the position of the rocks were a bit different when it was inside.

Just like what Riya said.

The crack was closing.

Whether this was a good thing or a bad thing, Samuel didn't know.

Swish!

Riya looked around and after finding out that there was no one around, she took out the white tiger from her world again.

roar?

"Let's go back. "

It was still dark but it would soon be dawn and there might be some scavengers coming out to gather resources.

roar

"Wait, can I come along?" Samuel stopped Riya before she goes. His motorcycle was not here and Samuel was not sure which way to go if he wanted to get it back. The crack they came out from was not the same as the crack they came in from.

Riya looked at Samuel and then at the white tiger. Even though the white tiger was now a rank 1 magic beast, but the size was only slightly bigger than an ordinary white tiger.

Moreover, Riya knew that Samuel's swords was by no means light.

If he were to ride on the white tiger while carrying those...

"No."

Samuel: "..."

"I'm not heavy," Samuel said tentatively.

"You're heavier than me," Riya said resolutely.

Samuel: "... " do you expect me to be lighter than you when you're more than 20 cm shorter than me?

He looked at Riya speechlessly.

"My white tiger can't carry you. You can try to find some other motorcycle around. There are more than enough vehicles lying around after the earthquake," Riya added.

There were many abandoned vehicles on the street that Samuel could use as long as he knew how to manipulate the cables. It was unlikely that their owner would take them again.

That is if they were still alive.

Of course, if Samuel felt that it was not good, he could just walk back.

Riya would not stop him either way.

Samuel looked at the ruins nearby and then said, "Wait for a moment. I have other things to ask."
