Chapter 44 Enemies Meet at Narrow Road (2)

"Then I would like to go to the police station and reported that the Taylor Family wanted to interfere in my study. I recorded the conversation just now. They would be interested to hear how the rich family are even trying to destroy the educated young children," Riya cut off Ciera's words before she could finish.

Riya didn't have much patience with Ciera anymore. Besides, she had already been prepared to record everything from the moment Ciera came towards her and try to make trouble.

Ciera was frozen.

She knew how much this would affect her family's image.

In the past, when she threatened with her study, Riya would back down. Even if she didn't apologize or lower herself down, Riya would not make things more difficult for her.

But this time, Riya was so harsh and obvious.

"You truly want to go against Taylor Family?" the man who defended Ciera looked at Riya with disdain.

Riya glanced at the man and ignored him.

She and Taylor Family had never been in good terms with each other. So far, the Taylor Family hadn't done anything, but who could say for sure that this would last forever?

She was sure that when she was proven to be a thorn in Taylor Family's side, they would make a move against her.

Riya didn't care too much about it now.

At this time, an employee come to deliver drinks. Ciera's eyes flashed as she stepped towards Riya while look like she wanted to give way and her hand pushed Riya in the corner where it couldn't be seen.

Riya saw Ciera's action and felt that this young woman was really funny. She kept on making trouble for her and now wanted to be physical?

If it was before, Riya might feel it was annoying and tried to get away.

Getting into trouble with the Taylor Family was the least thing Riya wanted to do when she was young and couldn't do anything. She had been patient for a long time when facing Ciera's antics.

But now that she had power that was beyond ordinary human, Riya simply moved to the side slightly, making Ciera missed.

Swish! Prang!

Falling to the direction of the employee, Ciera's hand bumped to the glass, shattering them all.

Riya watched the commotion and shook her head, turning around to leave.

"You push me!" Ciera yelled in anger.

Riya waved her hand. "Then show me evidence. If you fail to do so, I'll call the police and sue defamation."

Ciera stopped shouting, her face blue in anger.

Because of their repeated conflict in the past, Riya had visited the police station many times. Of course, there was always no evidence because the Taylor Family would pay money to erase the evidence.

And with Ciera did it so many times, Riya had long gotten used to make sure that she was always in the angle that could be seen.

She learned IT in order to learn how to recover video.

Should Ciera kept on pushing her bottom line, she would show the recovered video of the time when she bullied her continuously.

"Miss, you have to pay." The employee face was not good.

"What do you mean! You're the one who fell to me, why should I be the one to pay?!" Ciera said unreasonably.

She couldn't touch Riya, so she transferred her anger to the employee.

But the employee sneered. "There's a monitoring here and this place is owned by Miss Carson."

Miss Carson.

Ciera's face darkened. She was clear that Riya's friends were surnamed Carson and Jones, who were quite influential. What made her confused was why they wanted to befriend an orphan like Riya.

Even though Riya still has parents, but Riya always say that she is an orphan because neither of her parents care for her.

"Ciera, it's not much."

"Yeah, we can help you pay if you want."

Some of the boys had crush to Ciera and always felt that she was their goddess. So their treatment to her was also very good.

"Thank you everyone, but this amount is nothing for me." Ciera forced a smile. She looked at her clothes and felt very indignant. She looked at Riya and mouthed out, "You won't be able to get away with this, Riya."

Riya looked at Ciera and yawned. After experiencing the real life and death's threat, she felt that Ciera's action was truly childish.

Bang!

The door to Amelia's room opened. She wanted to ask where did Riya go but upon seeing Ciera and the others behind her, she sneered. "What brings you here, Miss Ciera?"

"Can't I play with my friend?" Ciera was annoyed. Her clothes were soaked with the drinks and she looked really bad. Not to mention, the employee was also hard to deal with.

She just wanted to go home and sue to her mother.
