

Cultivator in the Last Days

Chapter 46: Intruder

"Meow~." <Okay, I'll also pay attention.>

Xiao Mao raised her cute paw in excitement, ready to show to the others that she was prepared to fight!

But her movements only made Yu Shi Lan wanted to laugh.

Because Xiao Mao is indeed very cute!

She patted the little cat's head and her heart calmed down considerably.

Ever since she came back to this period of time and seeing so many people whom she hated and wanted to kill, Yu Shi Lan has been struggling.

Because she wanted to kill them directly!

If it was not for her rationality holding her back, she would have long killed those three girls last night and forget to set up the scene. But in the end, she didn't stay and let them catch her.

She didn't want to spend the first few months in prison.

It would be no different from staying in that hospital with her life and death in the hands of someone else.

Yu Shi Lan didn't want that.

So having Xiao Mao around her could help her to control her emotion to a certain degree. Because she knew that if she lost control of herself, she will not only drag herself down but also Xiao Mao.

"We're here."

Yu Shi Lan was glad that she still remembered the location of the pharmacy and after saying sorry, she walked in and then looked at the rows of medicine.

But these were not what she wanted.

She quickly headed to the back and looked for various dried raw medicines.

"Meow." <Master, what do you want to make? You can make a lot of useful medicine with these medicines.>

Xiao Mao was astonished when she saw the large amount of medicine in the pharmacy. These raw medicines might be useless to non practitioner, but Yu Shi Lan had learned many things in the cultivation world, especially when she had to survive.

For so many years, medicine was one of the things that Yu Shi Lan learned.

She was taught how to concoct medicine and dispense them.

Even if these were only the basic medicine and would not be useful for cultivators, but for Yu Shi Lan at that time, it was enough. She used medicine to heal herself and also to poison her enemies who wanted to take advantage of her.

These all happened in the early stage of her cultivation where even ordinary person could still pose a threat to her.

It was actually embarrassing.

As a cultivator, she couldn't even defeat people who hadn't started training yet.

That was just how weak her body used to be.

It took Yu Shi Lan a long time to practice her body and ingrained the muscle memory to allow her to be able to react in time when fighting against others. Otherwise, she would have died when she was still a weakling.

Later on, she found a chance to advance to foundation establishment and truly become a full fledged cultivator.

"Just some physical enhancement type of medicine," Yu Shi Lan replied.

She collected the necessary medicine and planned to find a suitable place to stay temporarily later. Her own apartment had long been demolished because of the earthquake before and she hadn't gone there again.

The army didn't lead the people through that road because there were too many broken buildings in that area.

Yu Shi Lan also didn't know the fate of the other people who used to stay there.

If there was a chance, she would try to find out, otherwise, it would be good for them to live their own lives without affecting each other.

After all, Yu Shi Lan couldn't possibly care about everyone in the world.

She had no such time either.

"Meow~." <Ok.>

Yu Shi Lan worked fast and basically stuffed all the raw materials into her space and then she took the medicine from the counter outside, especially those that she might need. Her body was still weak, so some medicine would be necessary if she fell sick.

She really didn't look like a cultivator in the slightest bit.

Thinking about this, Yu Shi Lan sighed deeply.

It was so expensive to raise her body.

The only good thing is that the medicine here were relatively complete and Yu Shi Lan took most of them into her space without hesitation.

Well, she didn't have any money.

But if she met with the owner of the pharmacy in the future, she could give him some things as repayment for this.

*drap* *drap*

Hearing footsteps from outside, Yu Shi Lan stopped her movements and narrowed her eyes.

She looked around and felt annoyed when she didn't see any suitable escape route. It seemed that she could only face these people who will come to see her.

"Meow" <Miss, are there enemies?>

'I don't know, Xiao Mao.'

Bang!

Chapter 47: Killing

The door opened and two men wearing unkempt clothes walked in.

Their expression showed surprise when they saw Yu Shi Lan inside, but then it turned fierce.

"Are you the owner of this pharmacy, little girl? Give us medicine if you don't want to get hurt!" The first guy said in particularly stern tone.

Yu Shi Lan heard his words and immediately understood that the two of them were not the owner of the pharmacy. They should be here to take some medicine for 0 yuan purchase, just like she did.

*cough*

Well, this was not something to be proud of.

"Um." Yu Shi Lan nodded and planned to leave.

Anyway, there were still around 20% of the medicine left in this place that she didn't take. These would be useful for other people who come here because they needed medicine.

"Hey, put down the medicine that you take with you!" The second man narrowed his eyes. "Brother, let's just bring her back. Anyway, you know..."

The first man looked at Yu Shi Lan up and down as if appraising her.

His gaze made Yu Shi Lan extremely uncomfortable and her gaze turned sharp. How could she not know what they were thinking when she saw that gaze?

It was the same gaze that some people had given to her when she was in her first life and also some people in the cultivation world.

Even though Yu Shi Lan is skinny, her adoptive parents still didn't dare to starve her that badly. After all, they would be the talk of the neighbors if they dared to do that and possibly be invited to the police station for a cup of tea.

None of them wanted such a thing.

So they could only give more food to Yu Shi Lan, allowing her to grow up relatively healthy and could work for them. The household matters were often thrown to Yu Shi Lan so that they could do other things.

The former Yu Shi Lan never thought about fighting back or anything like that.

As for the people in the cultivation world... that happened after Yu Shi Lan had become a cultivator and her features more or less recovered. She was definitely not the most beautiful women there because so many other women were so beautiful that even women would drool when looking at them, but she was still considered to be pretty good looking.

Thanks to that, there were some people with unkind intention to her.

And Yu Shi Lan was very familiar to their gazes.

"Meow." <Master.>

"What if I don't want to?" Yu Shi Lan asked in her soft voice, soft and tender just like a weak woman, yet it carried a hint of imperceptible coldness that almost couldn't be hidden. Just like a secret blade about to be unsheathed, ready to chop down anyone who dared to offend her.

"Ah, don't make trouble, you..."

Swish!

A knife was thrown straight to the first man's neck, slashing open a large wound over there as blood burst out. At the same time, Yu Shi Lan had already come closer with another knife and stabbed the second man straight towards his heart.

Her eyes flickered and she pulled the knife back, distancing herself from these two people who have been fatally wounded.

"You...*gurgle*..." The first man tried to open his mouth, but blood had gushed out of his neck and with the large wound there, his vocal cord was also hurt. Blood seeped into his mouth too, preventing him from being able to speak.

His eyes were filled with disbelief and confusion.

He couldn't understand how a soft and petite girl in front of him could suddenly step forward and kill him.

At that moment, he couldn't even see how the other party's move.

Beside him, the second man looked over at the blood pool below him in disbelief and he pressed his hand against his chest, trying to stop the bleeding. But with his heart stabbed, how could he possibly be able to survive.

"You devil!" He cursed with his last strength before he fell down with a thud.

Yu Shi Lan looked at the two people who fell down with a cold and indifferent expression.

She didn't look like someone who had killed other people for the first time.

Even though this was indeed her first kill after her rebirth, but she had killed countless people in the cultivation world, especially those who wanted to take advantage of her.

None of them were able to escape.

"You should remember... women are the most vengeful creature. In the next life, you should treat women better," Yu Shi Lan whispered and walked through the path that was not covered with their blood.

Her expression was extremely cold and faint killing intent floated around her.

Xiao Mao looked at this scene and silently retracted her small head.

Chapter 48: Killing (2)

Yu Shi Lan followed two extreme paths in the grey area.

The path of swords and the path of killing.

There were so many people whom Yu Shi Lan had killed in her previous life that it was hard to count them.

Even though Yu Shi Lan was basically brought back here by Xiao Mao, it could not completely cover up the resentment formed by thousands or even millions of people who have been killed by Yu Shi Lan in her previous life.

Thus, the killing intent also remained.

"Meow!" <Miss, restrain yourself! Your body can't handle it.>

After coming out of the pharmacy and walked to the street, Yu Shi Lan coughed and then looked at her hand. Seeing the black blood there, she wiped her mouth with the back of her hand expressionlessly.

Her cultivation path meant that she will offend a lot of people.

Even though Yu Shi Lan will not purposely kill other cultivators wantonly, but killing would be inevitable in the battle for resources. During her period of growth, she offended many people to get stronger and suffered quite a lot.

But without those treasures, it would be impossible for Yu Shi Lan to grow up.

So she risked her life.

'This body is really weak.'

Yu Shi Lan took a deep breath and continued to walk on the street. There were some people who were also walking around to gather resources. The military had basically sweep through most resources, leaving only very little for most people around.

At least, in terms of food, most places have been swept by them.

When she followed the military, Yu Shi Lan also saw the large trucks they used and guessed that the military should have already guessed that the world's condition would not allow them to waste any resources.

While they still could, they moved these resources to the designated location.

'Speaking of which, I wonder if the military ever gets a heads up about this matter before. Otherwise, how did they could be so fast in building the shelters...?'

Yu Shi Lan never had a chance to get close with the higher ups in her previous life. She was just some bottom cannon fodder that was not worth much in the eyes of other people. Only the official bases basically still willing to keep useless people like her around.

She could barely work and what she did could never compare with other people, especially those who were specially trained.

Ah...

Forget it.

Thinking about it would only make her feel headache.

After all, everything would be nothing more than speculation in her head that she couldn't even try to verify.

"Meow!" <Miss, find some place to rest and circulate your Qi. If this continues, your body will break down.>

Xiao Mao really panicked when she saw Yu Shi Lan coughed blood.

It was really a bad move for Yu Shi Lan to be so emotional to the point of leaking killing intent like that.

At this moment, Xiao Mao had already cursed those two guys countless times in her heart.

Yu Shi Lan's body was not suitable for her to force herself to train or fight. Because if she overdid it, there will be a backlash that will hurt her instead.

This is precisely what happened now.

Her body was not strong enough to withstand the thick killing intent that Yu Shi Lan had accumulated for so many years through killing countless people. There were not only people but also the demons, magic beasts, and so on.

Killing millions of creatures in order to hone the killing intent to perfection.

And she used her sword because it was the simplest method to kill her enemies all at once and also the method that will allow her to train her sword intent at the same time. Because of this, her own sword intent was often carried a hint of killing.

It was her unique intent.

"I know, Xiao Mao."

Yu Shi Lan walked to the relatively intact building and after counting the floor, she decisively walked inside.

"Meow?" <What is this place, Miss?>

"Office building, 12 floors," Yu Shi Lan replied calmly and continued to walk up the stairs.

In the early stage of the last days, many people didn't even realize that it was already the last days. Because they thought that it was nothing more than a normal disaster.

As long as they persisted for some time, everything will pass.

That was what they thought at first.

But later on, they will realize that this disaster happen in the entire world and there was no true safe haven.

Haha...

Their ignorance wouldn't last long until they realized that the entire world had completely changed.

And if they were not prepared, they would be swept away and possibly die in this heavy current.

Chapter 49: Medicinal Bath

Tep.

Climbing to the twelfth floor, Yu Shi Lan pushed the door inside and saw that it was a relatively neat and tidy office floor. This building was rented to several companies and each floor will hold different company.

Yu Shi Lan didn't even know what company this is.

But she didn't care either.

She made her way to one of the meeting rooms and after entering, she pushed the bookcase to block the door.

"Meow?" <Master?>

Xiao Mao didn't understand Yu Shi Lan's operation.

"There wouldn't be many people coming here to look for resources during this period of time, so it's relatively safer. I have enough food and medicine... until I can strengthen my body to a proper Qi Refining Rank 1 cultivator, I should not get out and provoke trouble," Yu Shi Lan whispered in a low voice.

In the temporary shelter, there were were former classmates and possibly her family members will come.

Her foster parents will definitely make trouble when they saw her.

And Yu Shi Lan couldn't guarantee that she would be able to stop her killing intent from killing these people when she saw them.

Because she had long wanted to torture them to death for what they had done to her in her first life.

At that time, she might end up receiving another backlash.

For the sake of her own life, Yu Shi Lan decided to stay away from them for the time being.

"Meow." <If you can regulate your emotions better, none of these things will happen in the first place, Master>

Xiao Mao looked at Yu Shi Lan with some disgust on her face, yet there was a hint of worry in her green eyes.

Yu Shi Lan smiled faintly and poked the cat's forehead.

To be honest, her temper was what made her Master said that it was not suitable for her to become a cultivator. She was too hot tempered and might even hurt herself because she was too emotional.

But Yu Shi Lan didn't want to give up.

Having entered the cultivation world, how could she give up without trying to become one?

So she persisted.

Years of training and so on still didn't wear down her temper and her violent emotions were simply buried. Until that moment of tribulation where she had to face it again and the uncontrollable emotion made her fail to pass through the tribulations.

Heh.

"I'm fine, Xiao Mao." Yu Shi Lan patted Xiao Mao and simply took out a bathtub from the space and pushed it under the long table. Even though she had destroyed the cameras and there were no electricity, she was not used to take a bath in front of others.

Yu Shi Lan then take out the medicine and simply tossed them into the bathtub before she started to use the fire spell and heat up the bathtub in front of her.

"Meow." <It's not efficient, Master. Is there no other way?>

Xiao Mao felt that Yu Shi Lan's Qi would run out before she could finish cooking the medicine in the bathtub.

"It's enough," Yu Shi Lan whispered in a low voice and took out a heater and a generator. She turned the generator on and then connected it to the heater, letting the room temperature rise further and further.

It was like sauna.

The little cat almost fainted and Yu Shi Lan handed over a few ice cube to her.

"Stay near the window. The temperature will get colder and colder as time passed. You will feel better if you stay there."

"Meow?" <My left is cold and the right is hot, how is that going to feel better???:>

But no matter what Xiao Mao complained, Yu Shi Lan ignored her and focused on auditing the medicinal materials until the color of the water changed. She was sweating like crazy right now too, but she drank a few bottles of water in the process.

Once she was done, Yu Shi Lan took off her clothes and laid inside the bathtub.

It was hot.

"Meow..." <It's really uncomfortable.>

Xiao Mao was barely alive right now, lying beside the window.

Half of his body was hot because of the room temperature but the other half was cold because it was raining outside.

She glanced out and felt that the temperature was getting colder and colder.

Xiao Mao scanned the outside world for a moment and felt that it must be because they were located up high that she felt much colder. The temperature on the ground should be much warmer and so on.

"Meow?" <Master, how long do you need to take a bath? You usually only stay inside for an hour in the past.>

She glanced over and saw Yu Shi Lan was sleeping in the bathtub.

Xiao Mao: "..."

Xiao Mao: !!!

"MEOW!" <WAKE UP!>

Chapter 50: MEOW! MEOW! MEOW!

"MEOW! MEOW! MEOW!" <@#m$ n $! %p^ e &* r %^&!>

Because of her panic, her language become incomprehensible and Yu Shi Lan looked at the angry cat in front of her guiltily. The bathtub was really hot and Yu Shi Lan was really tired after fighting and experiencing backlash from her own killing intent.

Remembering her past life was also making things worse for her.

So when she was counting time, she couldn't help but fall asleep in the middle because of it.

"Meow!" <You're unbelievable, Master!>

Xiao Mao was really terrified that something would happen to Yu Shi Lan. If she had continued sleeping, she would be cooked to death!

That would be the most humiliating death in history!

#break news! A cultivator is cooked naked in a bathtub in an office...#

That was really absurd!

Yu Shi Lan also felt embarrassed and quickly patted Xiao Mao after she turned off the heater. Otherwise, the two of them would truly be cooked to death in this room with extreme heat.

It seemed that she was still stupid.

*ahem*

"Xiao Mao, calm down, okay? I'll be more careful next time," Yu Shi Lan said gently, trying to coax this difficult cat.

"Meow! Meow! Meow!" <You still want a second time? Isn't it enough that you have almost cooked yourself alive once?>

Xiao Mao looked at Yu Shi Lan with an unbelievable expression. She couldn't believe that Yu Shi Lan wanted to repeat such a thing again.

Ahhhh...

Her master is hopeless!

Yu Shi Lan's face darkened. She poked Xiao Mao's forehead. "Of course not! Even I don't want my death to be so embarrassing!"

Even if the world is ending, such a death is really unacceptable for Yu Shi Lan.

Who would be so stupid to cook themselves to death?

Oh, it's her.

Damn it!

Even if she had no one whom she cared for, she still has a face that she wanted to protect alright!

Yu Shi Lan sighed as she rubbed her face helplessly.

Her imagination was getting awry.

Anyway, she wouldn't die so easily.

"Meow!"

The cat made a fuss and scolded Yu Shi Lan severely so that this careless master would not make repeated mistake like before. She really felt that having Yu Shi Lan as a master is actually a very difficult thing.

Yu Shi Lan can be so careless!

"Meow." <I know you're in a hurry to get stronger, but you have to make sure that your body can withstand your training!>

It would be ridiculous if Yu Shi Lan ended up dying without anyone knowing why. Especially if it happened in a supposed safe location when she was training and so on.

Xiao Mao didn't want to have such an unreliable master either.

Unfortunately, she couldn't exactly choose this matter.

"I know, I know." Being trained by the cat, Yu Shi Lan could only bow her head with embarrassed look.

To be honest, if people outside were to see this scene, they would think that Yu Shi Lan was crazy. She was bowing to a cat who was meowing angrily as if she had made a mistake.

Could the cat understand?

Yu Shi Lan really wanted to tell them that the cat could really understand, but not everyone could hear her voice.

"Meow!" <Hmph! You better be. Now do something with this room, it's so freaking hot!>

"Ah, right."

Yu Shi Lan quickly cleaned up and opened the door after pushing the bookcase to the side. She took a deep breath and then looked at her body. Her eyes lit up when she sensed the difference in her body.

"Xiao Mao, it seems that the effect of the medicinal bath is really good. I really want to have another one if it's possible." Yu Shi Lan sighed deeply.

She could sense that her body was getting closer and closer to the average standard of human beings. If things continued like this, she would be able to fully exert her strength as a Qi Cultivator Rank 1 in less than 2 weeks!

Cutting down the time by half is already a very pleasant matter for Yu Shi Lan.

Unfortunately, she wouldn't be able to take another medicinal bath without waiting for three days to let her body adapt to the newfound change and to digest the rest of the medicinal effect in her body.

This was the rule in the cultivation world and Yu Shi Lan didn't dare to break it so easily.

After all, she wanted to get better and not to destroy her body.

"Meow." <That's good, but you will have to train harder if you want to get stronger faster.>

Xiao Mao patted Yu Shi Lan's legs as she sensed their connection with each other.

Hmm, Yu Shi Lan had truly become stronger.

Xiao Mao is happy.
