

Last Days 77

Chapter 77 Encounter with Other Humans

Gun?

Riya's expression condensed when she heard the clicking sound. While guns were not really illegal in their nation, but it was strictly controlled. Only some people were allowed to have the possession of guns and many other people would never be able to touch it in their entire life.

The three of them looked at the few people who were inside the convenience store. From the way it looked, this group of people were controlling the resources in the convenience store.

Right, resources.

Riya was too preoccupied with killing these magic beasts before that she forgot about these resources. While she had some resources in her world, but the amount was limited.

It seemed that she should pay a visit to some places and gather the resources there.

As long as they were brought into her world, she could freeze the time, allowing them to last much longer.

But for now, she had to deal with these three people.

Riya looked at them and silently moved her hand. In her eyes, these three people were nothing and even if guns were powerful, they were not more powerful than a rank 1 magic spell.

Of course, the better guns such as bazooka could still break a rank 1 magic spell but this gun in this man's hand was only a handgun.

"Huh? Amelia?" The man recognized Amelia and then laughed out loud. "Ahahaha! I didn't expect that Valeria's cousin will be here."

Valeria's cousin?

Ruby and Riya both looked at Amelia with some worries. They could guess that this man should be one of Valeria's followers. It seemed that they shouldn't have come here in the first place.

"Tsk." Amelia clicked her tongue. She looked at the faint shield in front of her and thought about the experiments that was done at home.

When Samuel first taught her and her brother this spell, they tried using guns to hit it. The result was that the shield was shaken but not broken. Of course, Amelia was not sure how it would be if it was hit several times.

After all, Samuel said that to maintain this shield required her own mana.

It was not that easy for Amelia.

"Come here if you don't want me to shoot you," the man said arrogantly, his hand was holding the gun that was pointed in their direction.

The three girls' expressions were not very good.

"Mel..."

"You piece of shit. Do you really think that I'll follow your words?" Amelia cursed and then pushed her two friends back. They were only getting closer to the convenience store but there were still more than 10 meters distance between them and the entrance of the convenience store.

As long as they got further away, Amelia didn't believe this man could hit them with his gun.

The man's expression turned ugly. "You b*tch! Do you not know me? Even Valeria is very respectful to me!"

"Who are you?"

Silence.

The man's two friends looked at the man who was on the verge of exploding and silently shook their heads internally. They could guess that the sentence 'who are you' hit this man deeply.

Both Ruby and Riya also didn't know this man. The two of them were from relatively ordinary families and their relationship with the rich second young generation was very pitiful. If it was not because they were all staying in the same university and stayed in the same floor of dormitory, they might not know each other at all.

It was expected that this man also didn't know Ruby and Riya.

"B*tch! I'm Hansel! The second son of Mile Family!" The man, Hansel, shouted furiously and the gun shook.

Mile Family?

Both Ruby and Riya didn't know this surname. There were too many rich families in their city alone and then in the entire nation, there were more rich people. It would be too much for them to remember everyone.

But Amelia knew. "Oh, so it's the snobbish second son of the Mile Family who was nearly kicked out of the family in the beginning."

"I'm not!" Hansel's face was black.

Kicked out of the family?

At this moment, Riya finally remembered that there were indeed the few gossip report about some second young generation who behaved so poorly that his own family wanted to kick him out. At that time, Riya only read the report with the mentality of watching the fun.

But now...

Who would have thought that it would be this man.

"What did he do?" Ruby mumbled in a low voice. She was usually not paying attention to these kind of things, but at this moment, she couldn't help but be a bit curious.

"He try to get engaged with his brother's girlfriend," Amelia said when she heard Ruby's words. And then she looked at Hansel. "I never know that you have become Valeria's lackey."

"She's my girlfriend!"

"Girlfriend?" Amelia sneered. "For a woman like her, I think that it would not be a surprise to have several boyfriends. Do you really regard yourself too highly?"

Amelia was already used to hearing various complaints from Victoria about Valeria. It could be said that the two girls' relationship were really bad and they kept on fighting even if they were sisters.

Moreover, Valeria liked to 'steal' boys from Victoria.

So when Hansel said that he's Valeria's boyfriend, Amelia was half believing.

Would that woman change her face and become loyal all of the sudden?

"You..."

*Roar*

Before the man could continue speaking, they saw a magic beast suddenly came and dashed from the side of the convenience store. There were ruins there, so they didn't immediately notice this magic beast.

"Run!"

Amelia didn't hesitate and quickly pulled Ruby away while Riya had already started running while looking back.

Hansel and the two men were stunned when they saw the magic beast coming at them. They have been staying in this convenience store for quite some time and hadn't encountered any magic beast.

It could be said that their luck today was really bad.

"Watch out!"

"Ahhh!"

Bang! Bang! Bang!
