

Last Days 85

Chapter 85 Reunion

"Forget it, let's just go!"

"Ok, ok."

The broken car was able to start and then dashed through the road that was opened by the military and also Samuel's people.

Riya watched this scene and pursed her lips.

If they continued to stay like this, they would run out of the ammunition sooner or later. But at the same time, Riya also couldn't really deal with so many magic beast at the same time.

There were too many!

Even if she could fight a dozen of magic beasts, it was on the premise that these magic beasts were not crowding her and attacking at the same time. Sooner or later, her mana will run out and at that time, Riya could only escape into her world.

She could stay there for a long time.

But it would not be that comfortable.

"We're here." Ruby stopped the car in front of Amelia's house and took a deep breath. She looked at the front of the car that was already unrecognizable and felt that it would not last long.

"Let's take out the supplies and put it outside before disposing this car," Amelia suggested. She knew very well that expecting her car to be repaired would be nothing more than a pipe dream. Even though she felt some heartache since she liked this car, it would be better than letting this car exploded here.

"What do you want to do with it?"

"Drive it to the group of magic beasts," Amelia replied simply.

Riya and Ruby raised their thumbs up before started moving the things inside out. There were not much supplies and compared to what Samuel had, it was nothing more than a drop in a bucket. But a little bit was better than nothing since this could be used as Amelia's personal stash.

After the three of them were done, Ruby drove the car to the entrance once more and then picked a brick to put it on the pedal.

As for where the brick came from...

There were many bricks lying around from the wall construction.

"Ready?"

"Yes!"

Riya kicked the stone they used to hold the car in place and it rushed forward. Looking at the car that speed up towards the group of magic beasts at the front, the corner of Riya's mouth curled up slightly.

There were basically no one at the front at this time and the few people also moved away.

Before long..

BOOM!

The car crashed onto the group of magic beasts and a loud explosion sounded. Fire spread and countless magic beasts around were caught in fire, whimpering and roaring in pain and agony.

"It worked!" Amelia laughed out loud.

"Hey, Sis, can you really fight?" A young man's voice sounded from the side and Amelia turned her head. Upon seeing this young man, her eyes lit up.

"Sean, you're also going to fight?" Amelia asked with some worry. Sean is her younger brother. He's only 20 years old and could be said to still resemble a child at times. Compared to her older brother who was crazily strong, Sean was clearly not comparable.

"I'm a backup." Sean raised the gun in his hand proudly.

"Use a sword if you dare!"

"I'm not older brother!"

The two siblings quarreled while Ruby and Riya pretended that they saw nothing. Ruby was looking at the group of magic beasts in front of her with some pity. Now that they were already being protected, she no longer felt panicked or worry about these magic beasts' attack.

Instead, she felt that it was a pity she couldn't study these magic beasts.

Riya looked at the car and nodded thoughtfully. She had set up a detonating formation on the car so that it would explode upon hard impact. This would ensure that the car exploded when it hit these magic beasts and caused some casualties.

But this was far from enough.

Turning her head to the side where these soldiers were working hard and Samuel was also harvesting the lives of these magic beasts, Riya could see that the number of magic beasts had slowly decreased.

'It seems that there are not many magic beasts coming out.'

But if they wanted to truly settle this problem, they had to go down that crack.

Riya's expression turned a bit cold.

She knew very well that inside that crack was a large number of magic beasts, so she had to make thorough preparation before entering. Her current rank was only rank 3 mage, which was far from being able to destroy a large area with her formation magic.

At the very least, she had to reach rank 4.

Because starting from rank 4, mages had power that could destroy cities.

Rank 1 to rank 3 mages and magic warriors plus warriors were all called as beginners or junior. This was because while they were powerful, their mana or aura were still very limited and the damage they could do was also limited to a few buildings at most.

Rank 4 to rank 6 mages and magic warriors plus warriors were all called as intermediate or middle. They were far more powerful and their moves could even destroy cities.

Riya also had some powerful formation magic that she could only use after she reached rank 4.

For this reason, Riya really wanted to advance.

But she also knew that advancing to rank 4 was not that easy. Aside from the lack of resources, she also needed time.

Because all of these professions were all about accumulation. Accumulation of mana, aura, or combined in order to get stronger. Either through tempering their body or tempering their mind and mana.

Everything was combined together.

And it hasn't been a year since Riya came back. Even with her formation, she knew that it would still take some time for her to reach rank 4.

Unless she could get a lot of resources to accumulate more mana.

When Riya thought about this, her eyes landed on the magic beasts' bodies.
