Chapter 441 Mia's Answers (R18)

"Well..." I muttered while averting my eyes.

The sight of the hope and excitement that flashed in Mia's eyes was just too much for me to handle. And when I thought about how it made me feel for my girl to be so eager to please me like that...

I could feel my heart struggling to deal with all the sugar that exploded in my blood.

'But the question stands,' I thought, turning my eyes back and looking Mia straight in the face. 'Can she suck me off?'

As one's mouth was one of the bodily orifices it was naturally connected to one's cultivation. And while it wasn't as great of a connecting point as genitals when it came to dual cultivating... It still had to be considered as one.

That, in itself, presented a case of blowjob with a massive challenge.

First, for every second that Mia would orally pleasure me, my yang energy would excite her yin energy, leading to the build-up of the mana momentum within her system. This momentum alone was just one of the types of strength of one's cultivation, a source of energy that upon reaching a certain threshold, would transform itself into more mana at the cost of its inertia.

Or, in simpler terms, the longer she would suck me off, the more her mana would build up, both in terms of quantity and momentum.

On its own, that was the easy part of the problem. But what came next, once I would reach the pinnacle, was the tough part.

'Knowing her, she would refuse to pull out when I reach the limit,' I thought, looking down at Mia's excited face. 'At most, I should be able to manage to convince her to take it on her skin rather than into her mouth...' I thought, gritting my teeth.

Because stopping Mia from swallowing my cum would only serve as a stop-gap measure that could prove to be insufficient.

After all, while Mia's yin energy would get excited by the mere fact of blowing me off... The same would happen to my yang energy. And once I would release, Mia would end up infused with an insane amount of extremely condensed mana due to my cultivation that would be in an extremely excited state due to the act of blowing me off!

"Dear... Is that a no?" Mia asked as the silence prolonged while I battled with my own thoughts.

'Can I manage?' I asked myself, gritting my teeth while looking down at Mia's disappointed face. 'Can I keep my body in check to release before the injection would grow too much for her to handle?'

I closed my eyes.

"It's a yes, but under a single term," I replied. My lips then twitched as a short bout of amusement filled my soul.

'To think a day would come when I would be setting terms to let such a beauty eagerly suck me off...' I thought, shaking my head.

"What is it?" Mia asked with a smile now returning to her face.

The look of eagerness in her eyes... It was too much for me to handle. A single element that effectively gave the girl a victory while I had no other choice but to announce my defeat.

"If I try to stop you, then under no circumstances you can try to swallow," I said in a stern voice.

For a moment, a look of dejection appeared on Mia's face.

"I know this is a lot to swallow," my lips twitched again due to this unplanned wordplay, "but if I fail to perfectly control myself, I could end up killing you."

'And here we have another sentence I never expected to utter in my entire life,' I thought, no longer having any mental strength to let my amusement blossom. 'To potentially kill a girl by shooting her with sperm...'

I only had enough strength to shake my head.

"Mkay," Mia happily agreed to my term. And then, without any further ado, she slid down my lap and onto the bed, pushing herself down my legs all the way to the point where her head ended up above my crotch.

"It's been a while since I last played with it," she said with a faint smile as she grabbed my dick and locked her eyes on its tip.

I was still hard after everything that we did so far... but Mia wasn't in any hurry at all.

Rather than going forth with her mouth right away, she made sure she had a proper grip on my shaft before starting to slowly jerk her hand up and down.

I leaned back on my hands and pushed my chin up, directing my eyes to the ceiling.

If I allowed myself to watch Mia blowing me up, then the entire plan would go to hell as I would ejaculate right away. That's why keeping my eyes locked on the ceiling and intentionally depriving myself of the visual stimuli was a sacrifice I made for the sake of the future where Mia's power level would no longer limit our intimacy.

"You know..." Mia continued to caress my erection with her fingers when she spoke up. "I can still feel this strange... aura of my enlightenment," she said, taking a pause only to push her tongue against the base of my dick before driving her mouth up and dragging her tongue along the bulge at the bottom of my shaft.

Her tongue then reached the part where my shaft turned into shroom only to dance around the topmost bulge.

"It's pretty embarrassing to say what my enlightenment was..." Mia gave my tip a quick, gentle kiss, "but I feel that if I can, I shouldn't stop growing right now."

'Now at least I know why she's taking it slow,' I realized. 'She took all this time... just so she could answer all my questions at once.'

"What's more, whenever I talked, I could sense this feeling... thinning out," Mia added only to part her lips, leaning her head to the side before catching my dick with her mouth right in the middle and sucking hard on its side.

She let go a moment later with an adorable, popping sound only to return right back to just jerking me off.

"Even if I didn't tell you, I think you know what my enlightenment was about. Maybe not the details, but the general idea is an easy guess," she continued.

Then, Mia's hand stopped, resting at the bottom of my shaft.

"So, before I lose this feeling completely," Mia whispered, causing me to instinctively lower my head and look down, just to see her react by giving me a mischievous smile. "I want you to pump me full," she said, letting go of my penis before raising on her arms, moving her lips right on top of my lips...

And then dropping her head down, effectively shoving the entirety of my erection down her throat.
