Chapter 442 Proper Way To Do It (R18)

"Damn..." I released an elated moan of pleasure the second Mia's lips came into contact with my member.

And yet, as if to prove that she was no longer the same, shy and retracted girl she was when I first met her... Mia charged right in, pushing my dick deeper into her mouth than ever before.

Her saliva coated my shaft, her tongue brushed against it while my shroom scrapped the back of her throat.

In that single moment, I fully understood what a sensory overdose meant.

The only upside of that single moment was how the intense pleasure made me close my eyes, saving me the insanely enticing sight of Mia passionately stuffing her face with my cock while trying to catch my eyes with her own.

"That's..." I groaned, already struggling to keep my sanity in check.

Before I knew it, one of my hands found its way to the back of Mia's head. Only thanks to sacrificing all of my willpower for this single task I managed to simply make my hand rest on her head rather than applying even more pressure.

Mia held my dick deep for a long while before she finally started to move her head back. Yet, as if not make things too easy for me, as soon as her lips started to move up my shaft, she sucked at my penis with all her might to the point it actually made it harder for her to pull my dick out of her mouth!

"Aaahaaa..." Mia took a deep breath once she finally freed her mouth only to release it right back while she glued her eyes to my tip.

She moved her hand up and caught my dick at its base before pushing her lips back to work.

As if to alternate my sensations, this time her mouth focuses solely on my shroom. Mia rested her lips on the base of my lower head before pulling her lips up as if trying to pull my junior apart. Her lungs pulled the air it, making me feel as if my shroom was about to balloon up and then pop out in her mouth... all the while her tongue danced in circles around it, covering every last square millimeter of it with her saliva.

Mia's left hand moved onto my balls, giving them a gentle massage as she continued to suck the life out of my lower head.

And then, once again, Mia pulled herself out, leaving her face just an inch above the top of my dick.

For a moment, she simply stared at it. Then... she pushed her hips to the back and lowered her head while raising her chin.

Unable to stop myself from looking, I could see her face making a small arc in the air as she moved from a position above my dick to where it would run parallel to the line from the bottom of her chin to the middle of her forehead.

"I really missed it," Mia muttered, cupping my balls with both of her hands while using only two front fingers from each hand to catch my erection right at its base. She then pushed it up, as if she wanted to move it out of the way...

Before bringing her lips right to my sack.

Ever since I advanced past one of the lower levels of cultivation, I could boast perfectly fine skin down there. It was as if all the hair on my body, save for my head, ended up marked as an impurity and removed as my body reached its higher status of existence.

'I guess the same happened to her,' I thought, recalling the sight of Mia's perfectly shaved and clean crotch, only to tighten my fists and close my eyes when she suddenly used her lips to fish out one of my balls!

The feeling... was weird.

It obviously wasn't as directly pleasurable as caressing my erection would be. And yet... It gave me a weird sense of extreme vulnerability mixed with attentiveness and... something that I couldn't even describe myself.

'Wait, fuck, no!' I suddenly came to my senses, just as Mia switched the target of her lips and tongue to my other ball. 'I can't get myself distracted like that! I screamed out in my mind, killing all the pleasure while focusing all my attention on Mia's internal state.

Thankfully, my mishap turned out to be just a false alarm. Her cultivation grew for sure... but it was a change I could barely notice, something that Mia herself would pay attention to only before breaking through.

Or, in other words, the rate at which her blowjob affected her cultivation wasn't anywhere as fast as I was worried it would be.

'Thinking about this, maybe I shouldn't hold back so much?' I thought. 'If I keep it in, wouldn't that only make my shoot bigger and the energy in my sperm even more excited?'

All at once, all the flaws of my former logic struck me. And so, armed with those new realizations, I quickly hatched a revised plan of action.

"Dearest," I spoke up, pushing my upper body up so that I could take a proper look at Mia's face.

"Hmm?" Mia raised her eyes. She didn't let go of my balls... and must've misunderstood my intentions as she now took both of my balls into her mouth while moving her hand on my dick to start enthusiastically jerking it off.

"That's not it!" I moaned in protest, finally getting Mia to take a short pause as she raised her head with a puzzled expression all over it.

"I think I approached this in the wrong way," I admitted without any wait. "We should make it quick instead. And I will end on your face but you need to keep your mouth closed, is that okay?" I asked, wary of doing something that would displease her.

"Sure," Mia smiled while allowing a single strand of my precum to hang down the corner of her smiling lips.

"If I recall," I muttered while standing up and helping Mia up to her knees. "You wanted me to fuck you, right?" I asked, bringing both of my hands to her face and rubbing my thumbs against her cheeks.

"Yea," Mia replied as her smile turned even brighter.

"That might not be what you expected," I said, pushing my hips a little closed and causing my dick to first strike Mia in her cheek before angling up and rubbing its bottom across her lovely, adorable face. "But I think that will work best," I added, using the same thumbs that I caressed her cheeks with to now push her bottom jaw open.

Mia followed even the smallest hint that I gave her, obediently opening her mouth wide while locking her eyes on the top of my dick.

And so, I pulled my hips to the back, allowing my dick to leave Mia's face and stand at attention. Then, I pushed them back again, this time with my dick aimed straight at Mia's throat.

"Are you ready?" I asked as I finally used some strength to lock Mia's head in place.

With her mouth now occupied, Mia simply raised her hands before giving me a peaceful sigh with both of them.

"Close your mouth, then," I instructed. And as soon as Mia's bottom lip pressed against the bottom of my dick, I started to hump.

This time, I didn't give Mia any time to rest. I fucked her face as I would her ass in the most intense encounters we had in the past. And soon, the intense experience brought me near the edge of what I could hold on to.

Mia's eyes turned teary as she struggled to regain her breath. Thankfully, at her current cultivation level, it was nothing but a slightly uncomfortable convenience, allowing me to go even faster with relative peace of mind.

Mia moved her hands up, grabbing me by my ass and adding her own strength to the force I was using to screw her mouth.

And just like that, my mind blanked while my hips trembled before tensing up.

A warm feeling spread through my abdomen, forcing me to forcefully pull my dick out of Mia's sweet lips, and hold the release in for the split second she needed to close both her eyes and her mouth...

Before spraying all of the cum that I held back for so long all over the delicate, innocent features of her face.
