Chapter 498 I'm Ready (R18)

My mind went blank.

Kept on the edge for quite a while, when the promise of the moment finally came true, it still managed to catch me with my guard and pants down.

Mia's soft tightness wrapped around every tiniest part of my dick, squeezing it as she dropped her hips down.

Her insides coiled around my junior, threatening to suck all its juices out.

"Haaa..." Mia breathed out a lungful of air, right in my face from a mere inch away.

The taste and warmth of her breath basked my head, filled my nostrils, and warmed up my cheeks.

All the while her soft folds desperately tightened around me down there, showcasing just how much Mia desired me herself.

"This is..." I muttered, struggling to get a single word out of me. My hands frantically grasped at the girl's slim waist, and my fingers dug deep into her soft and delicate flesh.

"I can't hold..." I squeezed out the warning between my tightened lips.

After all the teasing we did beforehand, I could barely last a single move right now!

Mia suddenly grasped my head between her head. She then leaned in, stopping only a hair width away from my face.

"It's okay," she whispered in an extremely profound voice.

It was as if an entirely new world opened up in the depth of her eyes that were looking right into my soul.

Mia's pussy tightened beyond any reason, her entire body working in tandem to push all my buttons. Her insides twisted and coiled, massaging every inch of my dick and rubbing Mia's hot and slimy liquids in it.

"This is the benefit of settling down," she breathed out, raising her right hand from my cheek to push away a strand of hair that dropped on my face. She then slid the inner side of her fingers across my forehead, wiping it clean from all the sweat. "Now that we are going to stay here," Mia kept on whispering right into my face while gently holding it in place with just the tips of her fingers.

For some reason, however, I felt as if I was locked by unbreakable chains.

"I believe I'm ready," Mia whispered, her voice starting to break.

Then, she moved her head to the side, no longer able to bare the shame while looking down at my face.

Her head moved past my ear, resting in the corner between my neck and my shoulder. Her hands moved down and snuck underneath my arms, only to lock behind my back.

With my dick locking her in place from the front, Mia moved her legs around my hips and locked them too.

She then squeezed my entire body with all her might. And as her insides twisted my dick in her boiling-hot insides, her breath struck my ear, bringing me all the way to the edge.

"I want to bear your child," Mia whispered right into my ear. Then, she pulled her tongue out and ran its tip across my earlobe. "So cum in me lots, m'kay?"

I was long since balancing on the edge.

Every tiniest of Mia's actions, twists, or moves only pushed my mind deeper into the pleasure-filled abyss.

And with her clear demand to get impregnated, my senses went haywire.

"Fuck!" I breathed out, my hands shooting down and digging deep into Mia's soft ass.

Her entire body wrapped tightly around my flesh.

And with one, swift move, I rocked the two of us up, standing up on the bed.

"Mia..." I spoke out, suddenly freezing right when I stood up and held my love up by her ass while the very gravity continued to impale her deeper on my dick.

I removed one of my hands from the girl's ass, raising it up and driving my fingers across the sea of Mia's long hair. Then, after tracing it all the way to her head, I snuck my fingers across her scalp, gathering her hair at its very base in my hand.

"Can I look at your face?" I asked, moving my other hand up to hold her by her waist instead. The lock of her hands and legs was more than enough to keep her tightly impaled on my dick.

Then, I gently pulled at her hair, more to help her pull her head to the back than to force her.

It took a moment, but Mia reluctantly pulled her head back and allowed me to gaze upon her beauty.

"I'm sorry, but I really wanted to look you in the eyes while saying it," I whispered, this time putting my face right across hers.

My dick throbbed, the cum boiling in it held back only by the utmost effort of my will.

Mia's face was covered in furious red.

Even after all we've done, boldly asking to be impregnated was still a bit too much for Mia to shamelessly say.

"You know," before I could speak, Mia gently parted her lips and started to speak, only to lean in and plant a gentle kiss on my face between every third and fourth word. "Back when I was first assigned to you, I've never expected things to end this way," she spoke.

The expression in her eyes made it clear.

Right now, Mia was baring herself open before me.

She looked down into my eyes with pure fascination and shock, something I've only ever seen in my previous life in a short movie of a girl being drugged before the operation and acting all shocked when the boyfriend she forgot about teased her a bit.

The pure, unadulterated joy and fulfillment flashed in her eyes as she licked her lips while looking down at mine.

"Mia..." I whispered, shocked by the intimate beauty blinding my eyes from such a dangerously close distance. And with her body wrapped all around mine and her pussy greedily gulping down every drop of precum that I failed to hold back...?

"I want you to bear my children," I whispered while staring right into Mia's deep eyes.

The look of pure, unadulterated joy on the girl's face exploded and twisted her lips into a near feral smile.

"Yes!" Mia called out before closing her eyes and reaching out with her lips for my mouth.

She planted a fet, moist kiss on my lips before pulling out for a second and leaving a strand of saliva hanging between our mouths.

"And I want to fill you up while looking at your face," I added another bold request.

The happiness on Mia's face was slowly reaching the limits of sanity.

And this time, rather than replying, she leaned in again before pushing her greedy tongue into my mouth.

'I guess I can only oblige now,' I thought, lifting the restraints of my lust.

The second it started to act, I bent my knees and lost balance on purpose, dropping down with Mia on the bed and pinning her down below me.

Then, right as my mind started to fry and the cum in my balls started to boil, I used the momentum of the drop to push myself even deeper inside.

Mia's thighs desperately clamped down on my hips, holding me in place while her pussy coiled and twisted.

Unable to bear it any longer, I unleashed all of my desire into the girl while pressing myself down on her with all my might.

Pinned down, Mia hid her face into the corner of my neck and shoulder, gasping for breath while her pussy wrought every last drop of the cum from my balls while her womb greedily gulped it all down.
