

Lazily 351

Chapter 351: Fainted

Lyca said nothing. She just shrugged. They couldn't really turn on the lights of this room, so they used flashlights to examine the corpses. Just as Lyca expected, they were trying to open the luggage. In fact, they already opened some luggage. However, what surprised her was the packs of tablets. Judging from the weight of each pack, she could determine it to be about a hundred grams. She picked up one of the packs and held it closer to her nose.

Dugs?

Stimulants?

"What is it?"

"Should be drugs," Lyca uttered. "So they are planning to plant drugs?" she glanced at the half-open window of the room. These people actually came here. Did they think she wasn't here?

"I already called Ronan. He is coming over. He didn't join the opening too. He should be able to explain this."

Lyca nodded and grab the drugs before going back to her room. Then she finally decided to put on her clothes. After all, she already smelled of blood and death.

Right now, she could only curse these people, ah.

Lyca checked the tablet again. This time, she held it against the light before smelling it again. She could identify what type of drug is this without using her microscope. So she took one tablet. The reason why she easily took it is that she was confident that she could expel it anytime she wanted to. After a few minutes, the drug showed its effects.

It was actually something that could make people faster? Or at least that's what Lyca thought. It's some sort of hormone that could influence people's muscles. Making them faster and stronger. Of course, drugs like these are banned in the assembly. Lyca shook her head and expelled the effects of the tablet from her body.

"Turns out Cleo had a white wig." Shen Qui's said as he walked inside her room. "Maybe they thought she was you?"

"Why was she wearing a wig?"

Shen Qui shrugged in response. Perhaps the woman was trying to irritate Chu Nan to death? "What kind of drug is that?"

"Call the security. Tell them someone attempted to steal our suits. These are some hormonal drugs. It's one of the banned drugs in the world of sports. I bet, they will announce a surprise check later after the opening. Tell that damn Long Yi that I fainted because I was too nervous." She said.

Shen Qui stared at his wife. "I got it." With his, he immediately opened his phone and called someone. Seeing his back against her, Lyca sighed. Ah, she missed him and yet some people really wanted to ruin her fun. She grumbled and made sure to secure the drug, then she murmured a few curses before lying on her bed.

She was too angry just now; she needed to sleep.

...

The news of someone trying to steal their suit surprised a lot of people. Of course, Shen Qui complained beautifully that many people couldn't help but pity him.

"Mr. He, I understand your concern. The people who wanted to steal my armors were really brilliant. After all, they hacked the CCTV and even managed to cut off the power in that room. They also managed to get in without making any sound. Of course, I am not saying that they are very familiar with the place. No that's not my point." Shen Qui's words weren't loud, but everyone in the room heard them. "It was good that I was still changing my clothes so I could attend the opening ceremony. My wife, who was also changing clothes with me, fainted from shock when she heard the voice."

"Mr. Shen you are saying that the four people were able to go inside the room easily?" One man who is a senior executive of Sheng Gu Security asked. Questions apparent in this already wrinkled face.

"Yes, sir. As I was saying, there were no signs of forced entry. Moreover, we requested to have an alarm in that room. But it wasn't triggered. Of course, I am not saying that they must be someone who works in this institution."

Soon, the other people asked him various questions and Long Yi who was sitting a few meters away from him could only grit his teeth in anger. He had seen the bodies. All of them died without any other wounds aside from the cut behind their necks. The death was swift and sudden.

At least, he knows that those people died immediately, and that they didn't have the time to confess about Xie Jun who contacted them. He lowered his gaze as he tried to hide the anger in his eyes. Shen Qui had been answering questions and shamelessly, repeating the words that those people are familiar with the place.

He keeps on repeating those words, it was pretty obvious that he thinks that the scheme was made by an insider. Long Yi turned to his left and notice a gaze from another executive. He smiled and acted like he couldn't understand the man's meaning.

It was very clear!

Everyone is now thinking that the Long Security is coveting those armor!

Fuck you, Shen Qui!

He wanted to scream at the fake sadness in the man's face. How could someone be this shameless? He even claimed that his wife fainted because she was too scared! That woman was a killer! How could she faint just like that?

Long Yi looked at Xie Jun, who was sitting next to him. "Stupid," he hissed. Long Yi joined the opening ceremony to create an alibi. It was Xie Jun who instructed his people to get into Lyca's room. Earlier, Xie Jun said that he already saw a man, and a woman walked out of Lyca's room. The woman clearly had white hair! The CCTV wasn't able to capture the woman's face, but she was also wearing a black jacket and black clothes!

He actually thought it was Lyca!

Because of this, Xie Jun immediately instructed his people to go inside the room. Who would have thought that they would lose contact a few minutes after they got inside?