Chapter 48: A Woman's Weakness

"Brother Xie!" the woman sitting next to Long Yi screamed when they saw Xie Jun faint just before the five minute mark.

Long Yi on the other hand had an extremely dark look on his face. He stared at the group of physicians running towards Xie Jun who was now lying on the floor, unmoving. Soon, his gaze traveled towards Lyca who was calmly talking to her guard. She didn't even look at Xie Jun nor showed any concern that the latter would die.

This woman

Seeing the current situation, the verdict was quite obvious. Lyca had won this round. Long Yi finished his tea before he walked out of the VIP room, ignoring the words of the female that accompanied him earlier. Lyca was an extremely dangerous individual. After leaving the arena, Long Yi walked towards his car and let his servant open the door for him. The moment he sat inside of his car, he immediately called his father, telling him to try and talk to the old man again about an engagement.

If Lyca's skills were this strong, he was afraid that Lyca would be able to incorporate this talent in their security company. If she created some poisonous bullet, there would be a problem! He needed her by his side! "Prepare a gift and flowers." He ordered his driver. "Deliver it to Miss Lyca Huang's room." He said as he thought about the information that he had learned about Lyca from her aunt Huang Ying.

Lyca did not involve herself in the affairs of their company and hid her talents from their prying eyes. Even Huang Ying was unsure if the latter knew martial arts. But she was sure Lyca must have learned how to shoot a gun as her father was an expert in guns. With this in mind, a sinister glint can be seen in Long Yi's eyes. "Find someone good in martial arts. Issue a challenge to Lyca." He said. Now that Lyca showed talent in Chemistry, he wanted to see if this woman was also talented in some other areas. If she was, then he wouldn't hesitate and get close to her, even wooing her just to make that woman his.

After all, a woman's weakness was still her emotions. As long as Lyca would fall for his charms, then he would be able to control her!

Meanwhile, Lyca had already lost interest in a loser like Xie Jun. She was currently asking Shen Qui about the schedule. Classes would start the next day and Lyca still hadn't gotten her schedule. Good thing, Shen Qui was quite reliable. He immediately told her about the classes and schedule. Apparently, in the first month, this school would teach them the basic foundations of humanity and ethics. Then they would let everyone do whatever they want for the rest of the six months.

"Can we go home after one month?"

"No. We have to stay here." Shen Qui said. By now, the winner was already announced and a group of people were helping Xie Jun out of the stage. "Until the six month mark."

Lyca lazily yawned. So she wouldn't be able to see her mother and father for almost six months? This was indeed a big problem for her. "Carry me." She said. "Tired."

"" Lyca sat down while looking at Xie Jun earlier. What was so tiring about that? However, Shen Qui still complied and signaled her to ride on his back. Seeing this, Lyca was extremely elated. She beamed and motioned him to lower himself so she could mount herself on his back. However before Shen Qui could act, a shrill voice already echoed in the arena.

"Lyca! Have you gone insane?" Of course it was her cousin Huang Xiaoxuan. She marched towards Lyca, a few people following behind her. Just like before Li Xian was not with her. "Did you really have to offend the Xie Family? Are you planning to drag the whole Huang Family down with you?"

"Miss Huang, you are really gutsy. To offend a powerful family like that." Someone behind Huang Xiaoxuan clicked his tongue. "I thought this young miss was smart. Apparently, she is only so-so."

"Who are you?" Lyca immediately asked. When the man heard this, he immediately smirked.

"Funny how someone would not recognize me. I am Meng Fan from the Meng Family! My father works with eh? What are you doing?"

"Issued a challenge. I will see you in the arena." Lyca said before she motioned Shen Qui to lower himself again. This bunch of people were extremely troublesome to deal with.

"You Lyca! How dare you issue a challenge to one of my subordinates?"

Lyca didn't even look at her stupid cousin. It seems that this Huang Xiaoxuan didn't learn from last time. Since it's like this then Lyca immediately issued another challenge. "Don't worry. Your next." She said.

Huang Xiaoxuan, widened her beautiful eyes. Unable to believe Lyca's words, she along with everyone else opened their phone and looked at the school app.

"You"

Lyca only smirked in response.

"I will tell grandfather about this!"

When Shen Qui heard that, he immediately smiled and called out the staff just a few meters away from them. "This lady said she would divulge the information of the point system outside of the university. Her name is Huang Xiaoxuan from the Huang Family, room number 207."

Huang Xiaoxuan's face instantly paled. Shen Qui's voice was loud enough for a few people to hear them! He even included her name and room number. This man "Officer Shen it seems you have forgotten that you are working under the Huang Family."

"Stupid. I am working for Lyca." Shen Qui said. This group of people did not really suit him. Too much stupidity! Even the soldiers of humble backgrounds from the Huang Security were not this stupid! He immediately wondered if these people experienced too much pampering while they were young that their brains had become muddled.

The rules clearly stated that you cannot allow your family to know this point system. As a soldier, Shen Qui was very particular about the rules! "Letting someone outside of the university know about the point system will incur punishment." He looked at Huang Xiaoxuan and immediately pitied his brother Li Xian. At least, Lyca was extremely smart! Dealing with Lyca would be better than dealing with someone stupid!
