

Leveling Up And Becoming Undefeatable

#Chapter 1: Transmigration - Read Leveling Up And Becoming Undefeatable Chapter 1: Transmigration

Chapter 1 – Transmigration

Chapter 1 – Transmigration

Tianxuan Continent, warriors were respected and martial skills reigned supreme.

In this world, strength and martial skills were just as important.

The exact same leveled cultivators with different martial skills could determine the outcome of a battle.

It was because of this that a good martial skill may make a family, or even determine the fate of a large Sect.

Jade Mountain City, the Luo family's horse stable.

"Pah, pooh, what sort of smell is this and why does it stink so much?"

A pale faced boy woke up trembling on top of some hay of the stable as he muttered complaints.

Luo Tian opened his eyes and what greeted him were several horses ass. On top of his thigh was horse manure that stunk like no tomorrow. His eyes wide in surprise while his body froze in astonishment, "horse shit?!"

"What the hell?! What's going on here?"

Luo Tian's mind blanked. His mouth was agape; his eyes wide, and didn't recover his senses for a long time.

"What's going on?"

"Transmigration?!"

"I was just merely downloading a batch of several hundreds of pirated online novels, so do I really need to be punished like this?"

The surrounding was really too unfamiliar to Luo Tian.

He looked at the clothes he was wearing, then at his pair of hands, and then at the long hair that reached his waist. All of this was not part of his original body, so this clearly proved that he had transmigrated!

On planet Earth, Luo Tian was a very ordinary otaku.

He was as ordinary as ordinary could get. Each day he would just do what otaku's did – video games, anime, novels, and friendly humping interactions with inflatable dolls...

Previously.

Luo Tian was playing a video game while downloading novels at the same time.

Hearing the “ding dong” sound, a smile broke out on Luo Tian's face. He then muttered to himself: “I've finally finished downloading; now I can read for a good several days.”

He then opened up his personal e-book file and looked around.

Inside were all the hottest online novels: something Stellar Transformation, something Ethereal Trip, something Zhu Xian, something Battle Through The Heavens, something The Plum in the Golden Vase...

There were several hundreds of novels and each of them was a classic.

Luo Tian had a particular soft spot for them. Even after finished reading them, he would not delete it. In his own words, on certain boring and lonely nights, he could re-read them again for fun.

After the new novels had been downloaded, Luo Tian went ahead and unplugged the data cable.

The moment his hands touched the data cable...

The computer screen would constantly switch back and forth between a page of a novel and a video game interface; the computer screen almost flashed itself to death.

The computer screen was flashing while the CPU was also making noises like crazy.

Immediately afterwards...

Like a vegetable knife cutting into an electrical cord, sparks of flame and electricity flew everywhere.

Smoke was coming out of the CPU and the monitor. Even worse was that smoke was coming out of Luo Tian's head as well. The moment the CPU and the monitor completely fried, Luo Tian's eyes rolled into the back of his head and he collapsed onto the computer desk unconscious.

He had no clue on whatever happened afterwards.

By the time he woke up, he was in an unfamiliar world.

Luo Tian was now completely depressed.

He was so depressed that it was similar to a person on a deserted island that didn't know how to survive to the next day. "Although it's painful for this brother I, to be an otaku; and my pair of hands are a bit tired at the end of the night; but bringing me to this ghostly place is similar to taking my life, right?"

"What sort of f*cking predicament is this?" Luo Tian angrily cursed.

Even in his dream, he never thought he would transmigrate.

He enjoyed reading online novels, especially stories where the main character was so overpowered and could step on others and beat the crap out of everyone. He also enjoyed it when the main characters shared their ups and downs, and 'til death did they part with their fellow brothers. He also liked it when the main characters went on countless adventures and would always meet matchless beauties... but those were merely what he enjoyed.

These were all imaginary and would never happen in real life.

Transmigration is just a genre of some particular novels, and it was impossible for it to happen.

If one could volunteer for transmigration, he would be the first because that's the only way he could change his current life.

Now that he really transmigrated, he couldn't bring himself to be happy about it.

There's no other reason except for...

The owner of this body's life experience, background, family, and the fact that his dantian had been crippled so he couldn't cultivate.

On the surface, his life looked pretty awesome: The only son of the previous Patriarch of the family, but the key point was "previous!"

His father died in a battle while his mother was so disheartened that she got sick and died after.

Once his parents died, his life fell from heaven to hell. Originally the Luo family's young master had become the Luo family's stable hand; his status was even lower than a servant.

The worse part of it all was that his dantian had been crippled and he couldn't cultivate.

He originally was filled with talent and had endless potential, and was considered the number one in the younger generation of the Jade Mountain City. But three years ago he was wounded by a mysterious person, and somehow mistakenly taken the Dispersing Spirit Pill. This caused his dantian to be crippled which led him to become the trash that couldn't cultivate.

In a world where the strong are respected, not being able to cultivate was equivalent to a death sentence. He could never turn over a new leaf in his entire lifetime.

The moment he became trash was the moment he was bullied every single day. Those in the same clan would beat and ridicule him constantly while the disciples from other clans would insult and laugh behind his back on the main streets.

Back then, those disciples would not even dare to look at him directly would now step on top of him in public, perhaps to show off in front of a girl they liked.

The Luo family never bothered to care how he was treated. They even repeatedly warned him not to go outside and disgrace himself since he was making the Luo family lose their face.

Why would the upper-level Luo members even care about him? They were anxiously hoping that Luo Tian would die as soon as possible. One should know that Luo Tian was still technically the young master of the Luo family; therefore once he is of age, he's supposed to inherit the identity as the Patriarch of the Luo family.

When Luo Zhen (his father) was alive, this was something he established in front of the ancestral hall. It's something that cannot be changed no matter who wants to. Whoever wishes to change it will be considered as insulting the ancestors and would be committing a serious crime.

It was because of this reason that his tragic days had never stopped.

He would suffer beatings each day without reason at all. Luo Tian had tolerated it all, just like a cockroach struggling to survive.

Until yesterday...

Luo Yue brought a girl to select a horse.

This girl was called Zhu Mei. She was the daughter of the Zhu family's Third Elder, a family that was one of the Jade Mountain City's four major families. She was once Luo Tian's fiancée, but...

That day Luo Tian was crippled, the Zhu family brought people to the house to break off the engagement. It was as if everything was already planned out.

Strangely, breaking off the engagement went rather smoothly. The current Luo family's Patriarch Luo Jianshan didn't even think about it and agreed on the spot.

Luo Tian didn't know anything about this. He only found out about this one month later when the Luo family publicly announced the engagement between Luo Yue and Zhu Mei.

That day, he could only bitterly smile.

Luo Yue and Zhu Mei were selecting horses to enjoy themselves in the countryside.

Originally for this kind of thing, calling a servant over to saddle the horses would do it. But in order for Luo Yue to show off his superiority, he deliberately brought the Zhu Mei who was dressed especially beautifully that day to show off. And Zhu Mei surprisingly matched Luo Yue's intention. These two started showing a variety of intimate actions in front of Luo Tian, and even verbally insulted Luo Tian by various means.

Luo Tian turned a blind eye and pretended he didn't see a thing.

But it was because of this that Luo Yue flew into a rage. He was saying that Luo Tian didn't even know how to saddle horses.

Suddenly...

Luo Yue became physical, and knocked Luo Tian down with a single punch.

How could someone like Luo Tian whose cultivation had dispersed be the opponent of the Profound Pupil 5th Rank Luo Yue? Luo Tian was knocked unconscious with one punch but Luo Yue still hadn't vented enough.

He condensed all his Profound Pupil's 5th Rank power which viciously exploded by kicking Luo Tian's chest a few times. He made sure Luo Tian wouldn't be able to get up before he finally left. It was around this time that Zhu Mei was clapping her hands and yelling out "good kick!" She kept praising how good her brother Luo Yue was, how mighty looking brother Luo Yue looked, beat him to death, beat that trash to death etc. In-between saying these words, she would go up and kick Luo Tian a few times herself.

It was due to this tragic scene that the Luo family's young master passed away.

The otaku Luo Tian then arrived.

“His tragic life is over, and now it’s my turn to experience it.” Luo Tian looked at the stables with downcast eyes. His gaze was filled with powerlessness as he asked himself: “What to do? What should I do from now on? Oh heavens, can you give me a bit of benefit? How can an otaku like me survive in this dog eat dog world?”

Luo Tian was thinking for half the day, but still couldn’t find any get rich shortcuts. He was just an ordinary otaku; he was completely ignorant when it came to business ideas or money making opportunities.

He was only good at online video games.

In his past life, he leveled up quite quickly and would sell the online items for money. When it came to killing monsters, leveling up, doing quests, and farming, he was considered a genius. Even some professional players considered him a rival.

But...

This world didn’t even know what a computer was, not to mention online games.

“Oh, you’re awake?”

All of a sudden...

A surprised voice was heard from outside the stables.

His was the horse stable’s Steward, called Ma Tong. His face was so surprised when he saw Luo Tian wake up, and muttered: “He’s still alive after being beat that badly, the life of this trash is truly quite tough!”

He was present when Luo Tian was beaten. He watched as Luo Yue struck out killing blows yet he never expected Luo Tian to stubbornly survive.

After recovering from his shock, Ma Tong coldly smiled and went inside the stables and kicked Luo Tian’s thigh. He then suddenly yelled out: “If you’re awake, stop pretending to be dead in front of this daddy. You’re awake and still f*cking lying there and not working, do you believe this daddy here will beat you to death for real you damn trash.”

After being yelled at by these series of words, Luo Tian’s face was sprayed with spit.

Back then, a little horse stable Steward like Ma Tong didn’t even have the qualifications to meet him. Presently, Luo Tian was physically struck upon seeing Ma Tong, and now he was even threatened with being beaten to death. This made Luo Tian fully realize that his current status in the Luo family was really at the lowest of the lows.

Luo Tian's eyes narrowed as anger soared in his heart but in a flash, he calmed himself down. He then squeezed out a smile and laughed, "I'm up, and will start working immediately."

A wise man does not fight when the odds are against him.

Ma Tong's cultivation was at the Profound Pupil's 3rd Rank, it was more than enough to deal with someone like him.

Although he wouldn't dare to kill Luo Tian, he would not be merciful while punching and kicking a few times. He was already seriously injured right now so Luo Tian wasn't sure if he could handle being beaten anymore.

But he has clearly remembered this and one day, he will pay him back for it.

Luo Tian had difficulty standing up as he stumbled out of the stable.

Ma Tong once again kicked Luo Tian's butt and haughtily cried out: "You dog thing, why are you so slow? You wanna die or something?"

Luo Tian clenched his jaws and tightened his fists a few times, but still didn't dare to say a word.

Ma Tong coldly laughed and then said in contempt: "You damn trash, you are such a f*cking shame to humans. I really don't know why you bother staying alive."

"There really is no use in staying alive here." Luo Tian bitterly smiled and said to himself.

There was a "splat" sound.

Luo Tian had stepped on a fat dung beetle and killed it. Luo Tian was about to continue forward when a strange sound was heard in his mind.

"Ding!"

Chapter 2 – The Killer Of Dung Beetles

Chapter 2 – The Killer Of Dung Beetles

"Ding!"

A sudden sound was heard.

Luo Tian looked left and right and said to himself: "Where did that sound come from?"

Ma Tong's eyes widened as he kicked out again and cursed: "What noise you damn dog thing. If you don't hurry up, this daddy will stomp you to death!"

"Did I really imagine that sound?"

Luo Tian shook his head and was just about to continue walking when a large amount of data coursed through his brains.

"Ding!"

"Congratulations Player Luo Tian, you've killed a dung beetle. You've gained 1 experience point, 0 Profound Energy..."

"Congratulations Player Luo Tian for activating the Leveling System. Would you like to view the Character Profile?"

"Congratulations Player Luo Tian for activating the Novel's Cultivation Reward System. Would you like to view the rewards criteria?"

"What what, what's going on?"

A series of electronic tones sounded in his mind. Luo Tian was in a daze and numbly nodded and said: "View."

As he willed it, the system in his mind opened.

Player: Luo Tian

Level: 0

Experience: 1/100

Profound Energy: 0

Cultivation Skills: None

Unique Skills: None

Companions: None

"Hahaha..."

"The heavens haven't forsaken me and have actually given me a leveling system. I'm rich; I'm going to be rich! Hahaha..." Luo Tian was so excited that he started laughing out loud. That Ma Tong to the side got scared from the sudden laughter, and looked at Luo Tian while thinking he had finally gone crazy.

Indeed...

Luo Tian's excited face and his mad laughter really made him look like he had become crazy.

Luo Tian had read numerous online novels and clearly knew what those sounds represented.

He had no doubt about the use of this system!

This was a system similar to a video game!

To an otaku of earth, being able to cultivate was like a mythical tale. Whatever dantian or profound energy, they will be clueless about it except for reading in the novels. But when it came to video games, all otaku's of earth will be familiar with it.

Killing beasts, doing quests, and grinding were all too familiar subjects!

Luo Tian was originally depressed when he realized his dantian had been crippled. Someone in this world that cannot cultivate is lower than an ant, and would be ridiculed, insulted, and even beaten up. They didn't even have the most basic dignity of a human being.

There was only one way to change all of this, become stronger!

Wanting to change everything when you cannot cultivate was impossible. Luo Tian had wanted to run away from the Luo family, escape from Jade Mountain City and find a deserted place to live.

But everything has changed now!

He now possessed the Leveling System so wanting to cultivate and break through was no longer a problem!

Currently...

Luo Tian's heart had strengthened and said to himself: "I don't understand how to cultivate or make breakthroughs, but killing beasts and leveling up is something I can definitely do."

"Damn Ma Tong!"

“Luo Yue and Zhu Mei you two shit heads, damn Luo Jianshan, damn the whole Luo family! Each of you just wait for this daddy!”

Suddenly...

Luo Tian clenched his fists and a chilling light briefly flashed in his eyes. A strong sense of confidence burst forth from him as if he had completely changed into another person.

Ma Tong who was to the side seemed to have felt a different aura come from Luo Tian. With a slightly stunned gaze, he glanced at Luo Tian. So what if he seemed to have changed, what can he do when he's still a freaking trash?

Once your dantian has been crippled, there's no way you can stand back up in your entire lifetime!

Immediately...

Ma Tong kicked out and cursed: “Stop with your crazy shit, why aren't you cleaning the stables for me yet?”

Luo Tian staggered from the kick and almost fell to the ground. He turned around and angrily stared at Ma Tong about to say something when he heard a sound go off in his mind.

“Ding!”

“A quest has been received – Clean the stables. Completing the task will result in 30 experience points. Will you accept it?”

“Eh?”

Luo Tian was about to curse back at Ma Tong when he realized a few words by Ma Tong would actually give him a quest, causing his anger to immediately cool down. Seeing that you had given me a quest, this daddy will give you some face and tolerate you a little longer. Luo Tian then replied with his thought: “Accept!”

It's fortunate that Luo Tian didn't curse at Ma Tong or else he would've received another round of beating.

Endure!

He had to endure this!

Before he has achieved adequate strength, he can't show his temper that easily. Ma Tong was a Profound Pupil of the 3rd Rank, someone that he cannot take on.

Level up!

He had to quickly level up and not allow someone in charge of the stables to pick on him. He's losing too much face over this.

Luo Tian cried in his heart before grabbing a broom and cleaning up the place.

In the process of cleaning the place, he didn't let any of the dung beetles rolling the horse manure go. Even though it was only a bit of experience, Luo Tian was not going to let even half a point slide by.

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to Player Luo Tian for killing a dung beetle. You have received 1 experience point, 0 points in Profound Energy..."

"Ding!"

The System would occasionally make an announcement like this here and there.

His experience increased 1 point at a time. Luo Tian didn't let miss a single corner and an hour later, the stables was cleaned to the point of looking like new.

"Steward Ma, the stables have been cleaned. Are there anymore tasks for me?" Luo Tian ran over to Ma Tong in an obedient manner while thinking to himself: "This should be considered turning in the quest right?"

Ma Tong left his room and looked around before showing surprise in his eyes. He was hoping to find something wrong so he could curse Luo Tian out, but after seeing how clean the stables were, he couldn't find a single thing wrong. Ma Tong then coldly glanced at Luo Tian and said: "Don't even think you can rest after doing this. Go to the back mountains and cut 10 stones (140lbs) worth of fresh grass for the horses. If you can't complete this before the sky gets dark, I will break your legs."

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to Player Luo Tian for completing the Cleaning the stables quest. You have received 30 experience points as a reward."

"Ding!"

"You have received a new quest – Cut 10 stones of fresh grass for the horses. Completing the quest will reward you with 50 experience points. Will you accept?"

"I'm definitely accepting."

“50 experience points is a huge amount man, I’ll be counting on it to level up.”

Luo Tian was ecstatic as he picked up a straw basket from the stables and rushed out of the building. Just as he exited, he noticed a dung beetle working hard rolling horse manure. Luo Tian’s lips curved up and formed a smile, “Brother dung beetle, I’m sorry but this brother has to sacrifice you in order to level up.”

The dung beetle paused and looked up at Luo Tian, revealing a look that it was just passing through.

Luo Tian stomped down with his foot.

There was a “splat” sound.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to Player Luo Tian for killing a dung beetle. You have received 1 experience point, 0 points in Profound Energy.”

“Congratulations to Player Luo Tian for killing 70 dung beetles and gaining the title ‘Killer of Dung Beetles.’ You have been rewarded with 10 experience points.”

“Killer of Dung Beetles...”

Luo Tian almost laughed out loud, this title was too f*cking awesome!

The System suddenly made another alert sound.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to Player Luo Tian for leveling up. Your current level is the 1st rank of the Profound Pupil realm.

“I’ve leveled up?”

Luo Tian’s spirit started trembling and his original body covered in injuries was instantly healed up. Luo Tian no longer felt any pain. He couldn’t help happily speaking to himself: “This is exactly like a video game, leveling up will refill all the stats. Hahaha...”

He wasn’t even finished being happy when a series of alerts sounded off in his mind.

“Congratulations to Player Luo Tian for leveling up. You will receive martial skills from novels as a reward: Thunder Tiger Fists, Eight Desolate Fists, Vertical Cloud Aura. You may only select one, please make a selection.”

“Eh?”

Luo Tian was stunned.

Once he heard “martial skills from novels,” he even forgot that he was busily killing dung beetles.

“What’s this about martial skills from novels?” Luo Tian said to himself.

With a thought, he opened the System’s screen.

Description of martial skills from novels: Upon reaching appropriate levels, the player will be rewarded with martial skills. The martial skills are all used by main characters of certain novels.

“Oh crap!”

“No wonder I felt the names of those martial skills seemed familiar. So they are the skills that certain main characters have used in the novels.” Luo Tian was shocked, but then started searching the system for the names of the novels. It was no big deal when he didn’t know, but once Luo Tian found it, he was in complete awe.

These novels were all inside the folder of Luo Tian’s computer.

These novels were all the hottest during their times, and all the main characters had become overpowered existences. To be able to cultivate their martial skills...

Stellar Transformation’s Qin Yu...

Coiling Dragon’s Linley...

Shen Mu’s Chen Nan...

Everything was there, all those novels that blew up the internet.

All the martial skills those main characters had learned were very powerful, but Luo Tian couldn’t understand some of the martial skills for several unique novels.

The rare classic, The Plum in the Golden Vase...

That Ximen Qing in The Plum in the Golden Vase’s Ximen Qing, what is the name of the martial skill he cultivated?

“Can I call it Transform Into Bigger And Thicker Invincible Vigorous King Kong Divine Skill?” Luo Tian smiled evilly as he glanced at his crotch, “If that was the case, then in the future... thinking about this is getting me super excited!” Luo Tian’s heart was trembling in joy so much that he became dazed. “With this many awesome martial skills, let’s see who will dare to show off in front of me, I’ll play them to death!”

The next moment...

Luo Tian contemplated for a few seconds and chose the Thunder Tiger Fists.

The System immediately made an alert.

“Congratulations to Player Luo Tian for selecting the Thunder Tiger Fists. Would you like to cultivate that now?”

“Yes!”

“Congratulations to Player Luo Tian for successfully learning the skill.

Martial Skill: Thunder Tiger Fists

Level: Grade 1 Martial Skill

Proficiency: 0/100

“Ding!”

System Tip: The level 1 reward has been completed. The second reward will be at the Profound Pupil 5th rank, and the rewarded martial skill will be – Berserk!

“What?”

“Berserk? The novel Invincible Level Up’s Violent King Kong Ape’s divine skill?”

1 – The special skill of the main character of The Plum in the Golden Vase is being very good at sex.

Chapter 3 – The Sudden First Kiss

Chapter 3 – The Sudden First Kiss

Martial Skills in the Tianxuan Continent were rare.

A book containing a good martial skill could change the fate of a clan.

What about divine skills?

Divine skills were above martial skills. It required a high comprehension ability to learn it, or some could be born with it.

Any divine ability was a peerless existence.

Possessing a divine skill wasn't as simple as changing the fate of a clan, it can change the fate of a Sect or an entire Empire.

“What is ‘Berserk’ considered?”

This was a divine ability that was comprehended by the Violent King Kong Ape; its destructive power was enormous!

Level 1 Berserk – double the strength, double one's speed, double the Profound Energy... everything will be doubled.

Level 2 Berserk, 4 times.

Level 3 Berserk, 8 times.

Level 10 will be completion, giving 1000 times the power and was terrifying to the extreme!

A single punch could flatten a super expert into meat paste, which was the sole reason that made Luo Tian's blood boil with excitement.

“Berserk!”

“Berserk, this daddy must learn it as soon as possible.”

“With that divine skill, who else will this daddy fear? The Profound Pupil 5th rank Luo Yue? Just watch me pinch him to death!” Luo Tian's joy had made him a complete mess as he quickened his pace towards the back mountains.

The easiest way to gain experience was to kill demonic beasts.

About a hundred kilometers from the Jade Mountain City is a place called the Ghostly Mountain Range. There are countless demonic beasts there, making it a leveling paradise. But for the current Luo Tian to enter that place would only result in death.

It's due to the lack of strength!

The demonic beasts were tough beyond imagination. Their physical bodies and their strength were extremely great, and add the fact that there were numerous demonic beasts at the Ghostly Mountain Range; ordinary people simply didn't dare to approach it. Even top experts dare not to needlessly enter. There were even rumors that demonic beasts were able to transform to human forms while their strength was beyond terrifying.

Luo Tian's current strength was fine in dealing with dung beetles, but for him to deal with demonic beasts? Most likely a Level 0 demonic beast would make him run for his life. Having Luo Tian kill demonic beasts was equal to sending him to his own death!

Before gaining sufficient strength, Luo Tian would not even think of entering the Ghostly Mountain Range.

After all, staying alive was his number one priority.

Without one's life, everything becomes useless.

For the time being, Luo Tian can only rely on the quests given by Ma Tong, and maybe search for some dung beetles.

As the Killer of Dung Beetles, Luo Tian only needed horse manure. After thoroughly searching the area, he only had to seize the opportunity and stomp down.

With a "splat" sound, a single point of experience was gained.

He was forced to do this because there was no other way. Even a small mosquito would consider having some meat on it. With Luo Tian's current strength, he could only deal with these dung beetles that couldn't fight back.

Without realizing it, Luo Tian had arrived at the back mountains.

The back mountains were all uncultivated lands where only wild grass grew.

Luo Tian didn't want to waste anymore time. He raised his sickle and started cutting fiercely. He had to complete the quest before nightfall since there was 50 experience points on the line!

As he was cutting grass, Luo Tian was also thinking on how else to level in the future.

Purely relying on Ma Tong to give him quests would make leveling too slow.

The dung beetles gave 1 experience point, and to level up from a Profound Pupil 2nd rank to a 3rd rank required 200 points. It's only 200 dung beetles yet where was he supposed to find all of them? And there was another thing that Luo Tian was worried about...

Will Ma Tong be able to give me unlimited quests?

Let's say that he can only give out those two quests, then leveling would become even harder. Luo Tian had to make some precautionary plans the earlier the better.

Just as Luo Tian was thinking of these issues, there was a “whoosh” noise from the forest.

A white figure then floated out.

“Damn, a fairy descended to the mortal realm?”

Her white dress was fluttering in the air and her long black hair swaying in the wind. Her sword was pointed to the side and the whole image looked like a fairy had descended from the celestial realm.

Her elegant movements and her emotional face, add the chilling flash of light reflecting on her sword made the scene just too beautiful to behold.

She was so beautiful that one would suffocate. She was so beautiful that...

“Yeeeeee?”

“Why do I feel like she’s pointing her sword at me?”

“Ah f*ck!”

“It really is pointed at me!” Luo Tian was shocked and his body unconsciously trembled. He quickly jumped to the side and cursed: “Your sister!”

The grass in the uncultivated lands reached the height of a person’s waist. Luo Tian had been bending down to cut the grass all along and if one didn’t look clearly, they wouldn’t even see him.

With this sudden jump by Luo Tian, the rest of his body was revealed.

While floating in the air, the girl holding the sword had a look of panic on her face before yelling out: “Ah, why is there a person here? Go away, quickly leave, I cannot brake in time!” 1

Being startled like this, her profound energy was disrupted and she couldn’t maintain her balance.

The speed of her falling was also extremely quick.

Luo Tian kept fleeing and used his previous life’s experience of online games and ran an “S” curve in order to avoid that sister behind him pursuing to kill.

But...

The worst thing was Luo Tian's "S" running path was the same as that sister's "S" flying path, except hers looked more elegant than his.

"Stop running all over the place!" That sister yelled out.

Luo Tian then turned his head and cried out: "Can you stop flying all over the place?"

The moment Luo Tian turned his head around, the expression of the girl in white suddenly changed. "Crap, the profound energy in my dantian has been depleted."

"Plop!"

"Ahh..."

Her body was like a kite with its strings cut as she fell onto Luo Tian!

Luo Tian was planning on stopping to let that sister fly past him further but their heads smashed together as the weight of the white clothed sister pressed him down. The speed was too fast and he didn't have time to react.

"Damn it..."

Just as he finished saying this, the white clothed sister's whole body came crashing on top of him.

These two people had legs touching each other, hands touching each other, and lips touching each other...

It was as if they were trying to overlap one and another!

With a "smooch," the two lips kissed each other. The worst part was that unknown if it was the inertia or some other reason, the white clothed sister's tongue slipped into Luo Tian's mouth.

It was a bit slender, a bit slippery, a bit wet, and a bit sweet and fragrant.

In that instance...

Luo Tian's body started trembling as if he was being electrocuted. This feeling was too wonderful, too awesome.

As an otaku, let's not even mention kissing, Luo Tian hadn't even held a girl's hand before.

And on this sudden occasion, it was a french kiss. Luo Tian's heart almost couldn't handle it, it was too f*cking awesome!

One thing that is worth mentioning is that this white clothed sister was just too beautiful. She was fresher looking than those so called international supermodels in his previous life. Not only was she thousands of times prettier than those usual goddesses of the otaku's, this type of girl was someone Luo Tian wouldn't even dare to dream of. Yet somehow she was now on top of him, a matter that was too sudden for him to comprehend.

“Ah...”

The white clothed sister cried out as she opened her eyes. Her cheeks became red and she quickly got up to move all the way to the outside of the grassy field. Her eyes were staring at Luo Tian who was still relishing in his fortune with a silly smile on his face. She then pouted and said: “Why didn't you run away?”

Luo Tian swallowed his saliva and mumbled: “I wanted to run away but wherever I went, you would fly there. I stopped and you slammed into me, so where do you expect me to run to?”

“Ah...”

“Oh... then sorry.” The white clothed sister lowered her head in apology, but then her expression immediately changed again to one of anger and dominance: “Nothing happened just then, nothing happened, absolutely nothing happened.”

Right after saying that fiercely...

The white clothed sister's cheeks started turning red again, recalling what had just happened made it even redder. That feeling was very special, very unique, very...

A feeling that cannot be described.

Luo Tian unconsciously said out loud: “You mean the matter where you kissed me?”

The white clothed sister stomped her right foot and angrily said: “You scoundrel, I didn't kiss you, humph!”

She was still so cute looking with her angry face.

Luo Tian lightly smiled and was about to say something when his expression changed. He then yelled out: “Quickly go away, hurry!”

The white clothed sister angrily pouted and stared at Luo Tian. With her hands planted on her hips, she then yelled at Luo Tian: “You tell me to go away and I'll go away? This isn't your house so I'm not leaving, humph!”

Luo Tian shrugged his shoulders and said: “Up to you. It was you that stepped on the ant nest and not me.”

That previous stomp by the white clothed sister just happened to be on top of an ant nest. After being stepped on like that, fiery red ants started pouring out of the nest and went straight for the white clothed sister’s legs.

The white clothed sister looked down and her face paled. She then started jumping up and down while screaming “agghhh...”

The body of these fiery red ants was rather large and there was a red light shimmering on their bodies as if they were poisonous. Luo Tian was afraid the white clothed sister was going to be bitten so he carried her in his arms and jumped away a few times. Seeing that there were dozens of ants still crawling on her clothes, he immediately cried out: “Take off your clothes, quickly take them off!”

The anxious face of the white clothed sister turned red.

It was currently Summer so apart from her underwear, she only wore a dress over it. If she was to take it off...

The white clothed sister couldn’t make up her mind.

Luo Tian noticed an ant was trying to go under the white clothed sister’s dress so he started cursing in his heart: “You damn pervert, this daddy hasn’t gotten the chance to peek yet and you’re already going for it? Screw you!”

Luo Tian didn’t bother anymore and started forcefully pulling at the white clothed girl’s clothes while urgently saying: “Quickly take it off; the ant has crawled inside your clothes!”

Hearing Luo Tian’s words, the white clothed sister’s heart started racing and another round of jumping. At the same time, her clothes were being quickly taken off by Luo Tian.

Only the body-binder was left on the upper half of her body while her two white mounds that were growing quite healthily shook with her jumping.

Her flawless skin was like white jade that exuded endless temptation. Luo Tian had gone completely bonkers from staring at it.

“What are you looking at you stinky rogue?”

The white clothed sister used both hands to block her chest. Her face blushed red as she angrily pouted at Luo Tian.

Luo Tian was swallowing his own saliva like crazy and looked off to the side. At the same time, he was smacking her clothes in attempts to get rid of the ants.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to Player Luo Tian for killing the Fiery Ant. You have gained 1 experience point, 0 profound points...”

“Eh?”

“This ant is giving me experience?”

Luo Tian was inwardly shocked. He glanced at the dozen or so ants on the clothing and threw it on the ground before stomping all over it.

The alert tones of the System kept continuously going off.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to Player...”

“Congratulations...”

The white clothed sister stared in a daze. She was watching Luo Tian jumping like crazy while looking at her poor clothes on the ground. “That.... that... that’s my clothing. You... you... I... you bastard!”

The white clothed sister thought Luo Tian was deliberately ruining her clothing so that she couldn’t put it back on. That way this bastard could look at her all he wanted.

After a round of furious stomping, the ants on the clothing had all been killed and the clothing had become tatters. Luo Tian grinned and said: “To think I’d get experience from them, and there’s still a nest over there. It looks like I can look forward to leveling up soon, haha...”

While he was smiling, he suddenly felt a chill. A pair of eyes that looked like they were going to eat him was staring at him.

The white clothed sister...

That’s not right; she should now be called the body-binder sister.

The body-binder sister fiercely glared at Luo Tian and angrily said: “You need to give me a clothing... you have to pay me back a shirt... how do you expect me to leave like this?”

Luo Tian was too excited previously and didn't think of this matter. Looking at the half naked sister with just a body-binder on, he apologetically said: "I was too rash and forgot for a moment, I'm really sorry for that."

Immediately after...

Luo Tian quickly took off his shirt and smiled apologetically, "If you don't mind, you can wear my shirt and leave."

Luo Tian only had one piece of clothing on the top so once he took that off; he had a bare upper body.

His body was very thin and was filled with small and long scars.

These scars were mostly given to him by fellow clansmen. Luo Tian looked down at himself and was shocked himself. It was natural for a flame to ignite in his heart as he clenched his fists.

The girl's eyes were filled with shock. She was originally quite angry but upon seeing all the scars on Luo Tian's body, she unconsciously shuddered from the pain. "The scars on your body..."

Luo Tian lightly smiled and replied: "I'm fine; these are something of the past. From today onwards, no one will ever leave another scar on me ever again."

The girl looked at Luo Tian as he stopped talking.

She never imagined it was possible for a person to have so many scars. What sort of past did he have?

Out of the blue...

The girl started feeling very curious towards Luo Tian.

The girl hesitated briefly before covering herself with Luo Tian's clothing and wrapping it tightly around her body.

It was around this time...

A killing intent came crashing over.

Luo Tian's eyes tensed up.

He watched as a handsome young man flew over in rage. The sword in his hands turned illusory in his hands as he thundered out: "You damn trash, you dare to bully my little sister Xue Er?! You're courting death!"

1 – There's no TL error, the author is trying to be funny.

T/N: In Asian countries, people like to call strangers sister, brother, aunty, uncle as a greeting.

Chapter 4 – This Daddy Must Become Stronger

Chapter 4 – This Daddy Must Become Stronger

A sword came striking over!

The chill of killing intent went straight for Luo Tian's spirit.

Suddenly...

It was an almost instantaneous reaction by Luo Tian. Upon clenching his fists, the Thunder Tiger Fists surged out!

A pair of bare fists to block a sharp sword?

The eyebrows of the handsome young man quivered as he coldly shouted: "A trash like you wants to resist this young master's sword? You're simply courting death!"

The speed suddenly changed and a sword light flashed, directly stabbing towards the bare fists thrown out by Luo Tian.

"Watch me first cripple your hands!"

The expression of the girl changed as she raised her sword wanting to stop it, but everything had happened too fast and she couldn't stop it in time.

Her heart couldn't help but feel anxious for Luo Tian.

The handsome young man was called Luo Lin, and he was the Luo family's number 1 in their youngest generation.

But...

He used to be number 2 and Luo Tian of the past was number 1.

It was back then when Luo Tian hadn't been crippled yet, and that Luo Lin wasn't even qualified to fight with him.

But it was different now.

Luo Lin's cultivation level had reached the Profound Pupil's 8th rank. Not even mentioning his strength, his identity also underwent a transformation like in the movies. The acting Patriarch Luo Jianshan was his father, so he was now the Luo family's real young master.

Luo Lin cultivated swordsmanship and his sword skills were extremely high. This sword strike of his was something all the clan members of their younger generation weren't capable of blocking!

Luo Tian wanted to dodge.

But at this time, his body had been sealed by Luo Lin's cold sword. He couldn't hide or escape from the strike, so he could only clash against it.

Thunder Tiger Fists.

Left Thunder, right Tiger, both fists struck out together. As if his fists were fused with the power of thunder and a tiger, the imposing and ferocious momentum surged out!

"Whoosh!"

"Bang!"

A trace of lightning flashed out of Luo Tian's left fist as it resisted the sword.

However, in less than half a breath, that trace of lightning collapsed from the sword strike. A surge of aura then directly slammed into Luo Tian's chest.

"Bang!"

Luo Tian flew off after being struck by this energy.

A chilling light flashed by Luo Lin, who didn't expect that his sword strike couldn't destroy Luo Tian's hands. With anger seething in his heart, he then coldly sneered: "You damn trash, just you alone and you want to resist this young master's sword? You should go take a piss and look at yourself to see what qualifications you have."

His voice hadn't faded yet...

Luo Lin's figure turned illusory as he waved his sword and rushed at Luo Tian again. In a low voice: "You dog thing, let's see where you can escape to now!"

Luo Tian's eyes tightened as he clenched his fists.

There's too much difference in strength.

A Profound Pupil 1st rank and a Profound Pupil 8th rank was too much of a gap. Luo Tian's heart was seething in anger and his clenched jaws gave off "crack crack" sounds. He then promised himself: "Don't let this daddy have a chance to survive this or else this daddy will beat the shit right out of you one day!"

With this sword strike, Luo Tian had no more strength to resist it.

In such a situation where one was powerless to fight back, the pain of being trampled on wasn't something a person couldn't bear with.

Luo Tian sat on the grass and stared at the incoming Luo Lin. The muscle on his face twitched and his face looked extremely gloomy.

A laugh escaped out of Luo Lin's mouth, "You damn trash, go and die for me!"

The sword was stabbing towards Luo Tian's Gate of Vitality meridian (head area). Luo Tian kept his eyes opened as he clenched his fists while his heart was filled with unwillingness. He then roared out like an evil demon: "If you have the guts, you better kill this daddy or else this daddy will pay you back a thousand times!"

Feel like crap?

Feel like complete shit?

What can you do about it?

This world was where the strong dominate, and the weak would be bullied and lead the life of an ant!

If you want to change that, then you had to become strong!

The moment before his death, Luo Tian almost felt the arrival of the Reaper.

It was also at this moment...

"Stay your hand!"

The girl's sword flicked out, causing Luo Lin's sword to rise up by 3 centimeters.

The chilling aura of the sword whooshed pass Luo Tian's head, taking a few strands of hair with it. Luo Tian's heart and risen up to his throat, and while ignoring his own image, he started crawling away. He had almost lost his life, so who gives a shit about image right now!

The facial expression of Luo Lin slightly changed and his sword shifted direction. Looking at Luo Tian's embarrassing demeanor, Luo Lin couldn't help smirking before mocking him again. "Trash is truly trash. I really don't understand what reason you have for still living in this world. If it was me, I would have killed myself early on."

"Luo Lin!"

The girl glared at Luo Lin and said: "He too is a human being, so I hope you would show a little bit more respect with your words."

Luo Lin turned around to look at the girl and laughed in disdain, "He's still considered human? In my eyes, he's even lower than a damn dog."

"Little sister Xue Er, you don't know but..."

"He is the Luo family's... that's wrong; he is Jade Mountain City's biggest piece of trash. It is exactly this piece of trash that has lost all of our Luo family's face. In front of everyone in the entire Jade Mountain City, he was beaten by a beggar to the point he couldn't even get up."

"If it were me, I would have killed myself already!"

Luo Tian's forehead tightened.

A memory came gushing forth.

First he was seriously injured by a mysterious person, then someone deliberately switched his spiritual medicine to a Dispersing Spirit Pill. Finally, he was led to the streets where he was beaten by a disciple of the Luo family pretending to be a beggar.

That day, Luo Tian's energy was in disarray or else how would he let a beggar shame him like so?

On the dueling stage of Jade City Mountain, in front of all the citizens of the city, Luo Tian was beaten by a beggar to the point where he couldn't even retaliate. He couldn't even get up afterwards.

This was all a trap!

Even if Luo Tian thought with his toes, he knew that all of this was single handedly directed by Luo Jianshan. His dantian was shattered, and his cultivation was crippled. Even with that, Luo Jianshan didn't let him go and created a scene where he lost all face in front of the clan, and the entire city. Luo Jianshan wanted everyone to know the former genius Luo Tian had now become trash, a trash that was even lower than a beggar.

From that day on, Luo Tian would suffer beatings almost every day.

Anyone in a bad mood would use him as a punching bag.

He then became the Luo family's human punching bag. If they were in a bad mood, he will get beaten. If they were in a good mood, he would get beaten.

These scenes from his memory were playing back in Luo Tian's mind. Luo Tian's anger was like a volcano erupting as he said to himself: "What a dog shit family! This daddy has read countless novels but has never seen such a ruthless family. You guys just wait, as long as I can stay alive, this daddy will eventually take back everything!"

The girl glanced at Luo Tian and mumbled: "So he's Luo Tian?"

"Right!"

"He is that huge piece of trash Luo Tian." Luo Lin coldly smiled and said: "Little sister Xue Er..."

As Luo Lin was speaking, the girl started walking towards Luo Tian's side, lowered her body and picked out a piece of grass from Luo Tian's hair. Her eyes glistened with tears as she lightly asked: "Does it hurt?"

"Eh...?"

Luo Tian shuddered in surprise as he seemed to recall her expression. Her expression looked familiar but he couldn't remember where he had seen it before. Luo Tian stiffly shook his head, "It doesn't hurt."

To the side, Luo Lin's eyes looked like they were shooting out flames. The sword in his hands detected his killing intent and started giving off a buzzing sound.

The girl had never spoken to him so tenderly before.

What qualifications did the piece of trash Luo Tian have to receive this?

Luo Lin's face clearly showed his killing intent as the muscles at the corner of his eyes started twitching as he stared at Luo Tian.

In a sudden reversal...

The girl turned around and coldly looked at Luo Lin before saying: "Didn't you always want me to accompany you in practicing your sword skills? If you let him off today, I will agree to practice the sword with you."

"What?"

Luo Lin was surprised and immediately showed a smiling face before saying: "Are your words for real?"

The girl nodded, "As long as you promise that from this day on, you will never trouble him anymore."

Luo Lin didn't even glance at Luo Tian and said: "As long as you agree to accompany me with training my sword skills, why would I bother making the life of a piece of trash difficult? Haha..."

As he was saying this, Luo Lin coldly glanced at Luo Tian on the ground. He then coldly laughed in his heart, "I won't personally cause him any trouble but it doesn't mean I won't send others to cause him trouble. That piece of trash eventually needs to die!"

The girl turned around and seriously looked at Luo Tian as a tear dripped down her cheek. She wanted to say something but held it back and said to herself: "Big brother Luo Tian, do you really not remember Xue Er?"

She wanted to ask that out loud but held back in the end.

She was afraid that she'll attract more problems for Luo Tian.

Soon after, the girl walked away.

Luo Lin coldly sneered: "You dog thing, I will spare your life just for today."

He then rushed after the girl after saying that.

Luo Tian was the only one left in the uncultivated lands. He frowned as he watched the back of the girl walking off and mumbled: "Who was she? She seems familiar but I can't remember."

"Forget it!"

"It's no use thinking about it, my priority now is to level up!"

What had just happened had made Luo Tian once again realize the importance of being strong. One was lower than dog fart when one did not have strength.

Being pointed at by a sword, being overwhelmed with momentum, he couldn't even control his own life. In the end, he had to rely on a woman to rescue him. All of this had deeply stimulated Luo Tian.

Become stronger!

He absolutely had to become stronger!

Only when one becomes stronger can they change everything, including controlling their own destiny.

Luo Tian raised his head to look at the sky as he clenched his fists. He then climbed back onto his feet and ran over to the nest of fiery ants. After watching them scurrying around, he viciously stomped down.

“Splat, splat...”

“Congratulations to Player Luo Tian for killing a Fiery Ant, gaining 1 experience point, 0 profound energy...”

“Congratulations...”

Both his feet were stomping around like crazy and the fiery ants were continuously being stomped to death. The System’s alert in his mind kept sounding off, and Luo Tian was occasionally bitten by a fiery ant that crawled onto him. It was quite painful but he completely disregarded it. Compared to the shame he suffered, this pain was considered nothing.

“Die, die, die...”

After 10 minutes or so, over a hundred fiery ants had perished by his feet. Luo Tian’s body was filled with red lumps and unbearable pain.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to Player Luo Tian for leveling up. Your current level is Profound Pupil 2nd Rank!”

Leveled up!

Profound Pupil 2nd rank, this was two continuous breakthroughs in one day. No one could compare to this speed but Luo Tian wasn’t happy one bit. A Profound Pupil 2nd rank was still too weak, and won’t be able to even take on a single strike of Luo Lin’s sword!

After pausing a bit, Luo Tian once again went looking for the scattered fiery ants. He then shouted: “Again!”

Over 10 years ago in a small courtyard of the Luo family.

A little boy and a little girl were playing family together.

“Big brother Luo Tian, I will pretend to be a bride and you’ll marry me okay?” A little girl in pigtails wearing a white dress asked in a serious manner.

The other little boy was wearing open slit pants. He rubbed his runny nose and left behind a long smear of booger before laughing: “Sure.”

The little girl in pigtails started laughing and asked in a flighty tone: “Will you marry me in the future?”

The booger nosed little boy smiled and acted a bit shy before nodding, “En.”

The little girl jumped up in joy and quickly landed a kiss on the little boy’s cheek. She then ran away like crazy and happily said: “Big brother Luo Tian will make me his bride ‘giggle’, big brother Luo Tian will make me his bride ‘giggle’...”

Chapter 5 – Beating Up Ma Tong

Chapter 5 – Beating Up Ma Tong

The passage of time flowed on and in a blink of an eye, evening had arrived.

Luo Tian brought back the last stone of grass to the stables and before he even reached it, he already heard a voice of condemnation.

“Feng Lei you damn dog bastard, if you go out stirring up trouble again, just watch me beat you to death.”

“Is the young master really okay?”

“With your piece of trash status, you want to cause trouble with young master Luo Yue? Why don’t you take a piss and look at your own reflection and see what kind of shit you really are?”

“Is the young master really okay?”

“Pak, pak...”

In-between the conversation, two slaps were heard.

A youth with a large body like an ox, who was almost 2 meters in height stood next to Ma Tong. No matter how much he was smacked about, the large youth would keep a smile on his face as if he was a mentally disabled person.

His name was Feng Lei.

Luo Tian’s sole servant.

Instead of calling him a servant, might as well call him a brother.

The two of them grew up together. They didn't have the same family name but they were as close as biological brothers.

After Luo Tian was crippled, Feng Lei could have left him and became an official disciple of the Luo family, but he chose to continue following Luo Tian.

Because of his relationship with Luo Tian, Feng Lei was almost beaten up every day as well.

Most of the time, he would substitute himself to be beaten instead of Luo Tian. The scars on his body almost covered his entire body, but he never regretted his decision.

He has always been like this, acting like a fool.

When talking about Feng Lei's history, no one knows about it in the Luo family. He was brought back by Luo Tian's father from the Ghostly Mountain Range. At that time, he was only about 1 years old. His eyes looked like a beast's and he exhibited strange behaviors. Everyone in the Luo family was against him staying, but Luo Zhen used his status as the family's Patriarch to forcefully allow him to stay.

Luo Zhen gave him a name, slowly taught him to speak, walk, and read. He was treated like a real son.

One year later, Luo Tian was born, and Feng Lei looked at this little brother of his with intimacy. From that day on, Feng Lei promised himself that he will take good care of protecting Luo Tian.

But...

Later on, Luo Tian's talent was revealed and he cultivated very quickly. On the other hand, Feng Lei was clueless when it came to cultivation so most of the time; it was Luo Tian who protected him.

Until Luo Tian's cultivation was crippled.

Their two lives suddenly dropped into the depths of hell.

Every time he sees Luo Tian getting beaten up, Feng Lei didn't care who it was or how strong the opponent was; he would rush up and take most of the blows meant for Luo Tian.

In Luo Tian's memories, most of them were related to Feng Lei.

Luo Tian was personally moved by everything he saw in his memories.

He even envied the brotherly relationship those two had.

Therefore, when Luo Tian entered the stables and saw that Feng Lei was taking a beating by Ma Tong, he rushed up and shouted at Ma Tong: "I dare you to beat him one more time!"

"Young master!"

"Young master, you're really okay." Feng Lei grinned; his smile was just like an idiot's.

At this time, Feng Lei was full of bruises and his body was covered in mud. One look and anyone could tell he was beaten quite viciously by someone.

Once he found out that Luo Yue had beaten Luo Tian up, Feng Lei rushed out looking for Luo Yue to take revenge.

In the afternoon, Feng Lei found Luo Yue at the martial training field. He hadn't even gotten close to Luo Yue when a group of people had already surrounded him beating and kicking him half to death.

Feng Lei struggled like crazy trying to get close to Luo Yue.

But there were too many people surrounding him and his strength was too weak, he could only take the beating when dealing with the Luo family's disciples.

He hadn't even taken revenge yet and was already severely beaten.

He started panicking again when he returned to the stables and couldn't find Luo Tian, and nearly kicked up a ruckus with Ma Tong. When he finally heard from Ma Tong that Luo Tian had gone to the back mountains to cut wild grass, he reverted to his fool-like smile and allowed Ma Tong to curse and smack him around.

The look in Ma Tong's eyes changed as he coldly stared at Luo Tian before cursing out: "Oi oi, did you eat a bear's heart or a leopard's gallbladder? A damn piece of trash like you dares to speak to me like that?"

After saying that...

A slap once again landed on Feng Lei's face. Ma Tong's eyes stared at Luo Tian and in an aggressive tone: "I struck him so what are you going to do about it?"

"You useless shit, you dare to challenge me? This daddy will see if you're tired of living!"

After saying that...

Ma Tong slapped again and cursed out: "I struck him again, what do you dare to do about it? You two pieces of trash going out all over the place causing trouble for me. One goes off to provoke young master Luo Yue, while the other wants a taste of swan meat and provoke young master Luo Lin. You guys don't even take a look at what you are – pieces of trash, complete and pure trash! You both are Luo family's two biggest pile of trash!"

"Pak!"

Another slap landed.

"Pak!"

And another slap.

Feng Lei at the Profound Pupil 1st rank against Ma Tong at the Profound Pupil 3rd rank had no abilities to resist.

Feng Lei didn't dodge because he was afraid that if Ma Tong couldn't hit him, he might go after Luo Tian. So, he just stood there like a fool and allowed Ma Tong to smack him however he wanted.

After several slaps, Feng Lei's cheeks were now swollen and some blood started seeping out at the corner of his mouth.

Anger was seething in Luo Tian's heart as he menacingly stared at Ma Tong as if he wanted to eat him alive.

A kick landed on Feng Lei's body before Ma Tong coldly glanced at Luo Tian and pointed at him cursing: "You dog thing, you dare to look at me that way? This daddy thinks your skin is itching for a beating too."

After saying that...

Ma Tong pulled out the whip at his waist. Raising his right hand, he whipped towards Luo Tian's direction.

Luo Tian clenched his fist and didn't dodge out of the way.

The end of the whip lashed onto his chest, the muscles opened up and started burning. The pain was unbearable but Luo Tian still coldly smiled, "Steward Ma, I have finished cutting 10 stones of wild grass."

"Uh?"

For a moment, Ma Tong wasn't sure how to respond but nodded.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to Player Luo Tian for completing the quest ‘Cut 10 stones of fresh grass for the horses.’ You have gained 50 experience points for completing the quest.”

His experience bar was instantly filled up with 50 points.

Right after that, the System’s alert sounded off again.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to Player Luo Tian for leveling up. You are now at the Profound Pupil 3rd Rank!”

Right after the alert for leveling up, Luo Tian’s facial expression changed and he punched out and cursed at the same time: “F*ck your ancestors!”

Luo Lin was at the Profound Pupil 8th rank which was too much of a gap, so I couldn’t deal with him. Now that this daddy has leveled up and entered the realm of a Profound Pupil 3rd rank, how can I not deal with a little Steward of the stables?

Every bit of anger exploded out of Luo Tian.

A punch came smashing out!

All the power of a Profound Pupil 3rd rank exploded forth.

The flame of anger in his heart was also instantly released.

Memories of the insults, ridicule, and the beatings surfaced...

The shame he suffered in the back mountains by Luo Lin...

The unbearable pain of not being in control of one’s own fate... the unbearable pain of being trampled on...

All of this followed along that single punch and exploded forth!

Like a surging wave!

Luo Tian was similar to a crazy demon as his eyes became bloodshot.

Ma Tong didn’t have time to put his guard up since he never expected Luo Tian to make a move. He definitely didn’t expect Luo Tian’s strength to have reached the Profound Pupil 3rd rank.

This punch knocked him flying back several meters.

But...

Ma Tong had been stuck at the Profound Pupil 3rd rank for many years and his cultivation had already reached the peak of it. Enduring the pain in his chest, both of Ma Tong's eyes looked like they were going to spray out flames. He stepped forward and roared: "You mix-breed dog, you dare to sneak attack this daddy? You're courting death!"

As he was talking, he had already rushed up towards Luo Tian.

The corner of Luo Tian's lips curved up as he coldly said: "Let's see who's the one courting death."

Before he reached the Profound Pupil 3rd rank, Luo Tian didn't dare to make a move. It was after all, a difference of 1 rank. If he happened to fail, then the consequences would be unthinkable.

After completing the quest, it was just enough for him to level up.

Profound Pupil 3rd rank vs. Profound Pupil 3rd rank, even if Luo Tian was scared, he still had to fight.

A person on the cultivation path cannot be afraid!

He was helpless if the disparity was too big, but why not fight if they're on the same level?

Watching his brother being beaten and not raising a hand, would he still be considered human?

Luo Tian raised both his fists and then punched out. He yelled in his mind: "Thunder Tiger Fists!"

At the same time...

Ma Tong also threw out a heavy punch.

But the skill behind his punch was ordinary and didn't have any martial skills contained within it.

He had never learned any martial skills and within the Luo family, he wasn't qualified to learn a martial skill.

Their two fists met and Ma Tong's arm made a "crack" noise. It was the sound of bones fracturing!

Defeated by one punch!

This was the advantage of a martial skill.

When those on the same levels fought, one can only accept the abuse when their own martial skill was below their opponent's.

Ma Tong's face suddenly lost all color and looked at Luo Tian in shock. Fear rose in his heart as he staggered backwards. He then said with pain: "You... you... isn't your dantian crippled? How could you have such power? You... you... what do you plan on doing to me?"

"Come!"

Upon saying that, a slap landed on Ma Tong's face."

"Come again."

Another slap was thrown.

"You f*cking come at me again. Weren't you very fierce? Weren't you very arrogant? You f*cker, why don't you show this daddy how arrogant you were just then?!" Luo Tian roared out.

A series of slap came after that, causing Ma Tong to feel confused and disoriented. Not to mention fighting back, he didn't even dare look at Luo Tian.

His heart was filled with fear as he started begging for mercy.

With a kick, Luo Tian sent Ma Tong sprawling into a horse stall.

Ma Tong then fainted.

Upon seeing the unconscious Ma Tong, Luo Tian then said to himself: "F*cker, if I weren't sure if you would keep giving me quests in the future, this daddy would have absolutely killed you already!"

In order to level up, he had to rely on the small daily quests and couldn't miss out on them.

Or else Luo Tian would have definitely made a killing blow!

Feng Lei had been standing at the side the whole time with shock; he was just staring at Luo Tian like an idiot completely dumbstruck. It was quite a while before he issued a sentence: "Young master is so powerful!"