

Leveling Up 101

Chapter 101 – Girl, This Brother Is Coming Now

Luo Tian was experiencing humongous emotional waves with the appearance of the ancient scroll.

As long as he was able to unlock the secret of the ancient scroll, he will be able to uncover the veil and see its first layer of information.

If he could really obtain it, then...

Then it would really be too awesome! Luo Tian was extremely excited. He had arrived in this world for several months already but neither in books or from powerhouses has he heard of magic being mentioned. And this was even ancient magic we're talking about!

Luo Tian was completely clueless looking at the runes on the scroll.

It was fine if he didn't understand it, but he was almost lost his mind in the process.

It's fortunate that Wild Blade appeared!

When Luo Tian heard the Blood Devouring Wild Blade say it had a solution, his heart felt like flowers were blooming. He then quickly said: "What are we waiting for? Hurry up and crack the Universal something Array."

"Cough, cough~..."

"Hey brat, this morning we just had a huge battle and this daddy's true energy is almost used up."

"Do you even know how powerful this Universal Array is? Based on the usual grading level, this array is most likely at the 9th grade or higher. The person who inscribed this array is extremely amazing since they were able to put this powerful array onto a small piece of sheepskin. Even I can't help but admire this person."

“Looks like the person that inscribed this array is some sort of godly expert in ancient times.” Wild Blade’s voice seemed to be softer at this time.

Those words made Luo Tian surprised.

What type of existence was the Blood Devouring Wild Blade?

He was the world’s greatest domineering blade yet he actually admired a person?

A person he admired most certainly would be an awesome existence. If this scroll was really left behind by some ancient godly expert, then whatever was hidden in the scroll would definitely be a treasure that shook the heavens.

The excitement inside Luo Tian was increasing as he asked: “Then how long do we have to wait for before we can unlock it?”

Wild Blade replied: “It’s impossible to unlock the Universal Array just relying on me alone. You need to first find demon cores with gold, wood, water, fire, and earth elements. With those five elements and my Shura Death God skill, only then can we hack the array apart.”

“Demon cores of the five elements?”

“Those are all considered elemental demon cores!” Luo Tian’s mind couldn’t help but feel pressure as those demon cores can be chanced upon and not deliberately sought out. A majority of the demon cores found were normal ones without attributes, so wanting to find ones with elemental properties was extremely difficult.

Wild Blade then said: “That’s your business then since it’s out of my control. If you can find them, then I can crack the Universal Array on the scroll so that you can gain the secrets within it. If you cannot find them, then there’s nothing else I can do.”

The Wild Blade seemed to be putting on an expression that it had nothing to do with him.

Luo Tian then said unhappily: “You don’t have any damn ways to deal with this? I can still be considered a host for your existence so if I have bad encounters in my travels, you will also lose face right?”

The Wild Blade replied: “What the hell do your bad encounters have to do with me? If it weren’t for you agreeing to enter my path of slaughter, I would’ve taken over your physical body already by now.”

Luo Tian started yelling: “You damn old undying fogley, come at me if you have the guts! You think I’m afraid of you?!”

After absorbing the killing intent demon core, Luo Tian was no longer afraid of the Wild Blade in his world of slaughter. He could easily clear his mind now so it’s pretty much impossible for the blade to take over the host.

But...

It appears that the Blood Devouring Wild Blade was suppressed by some kind of force. Otherwise, Luo Tian’s words and its bad temper would have certainly made its flames of rage bursting out already.

“You are driving me mad.”

“You damn brat... your granny... pissing me off. Cough, cough...” The Wild Blade was coughing while sounding like a breathless old man about to die.

Luo Tian felt his tone was a bit too thorny so he said: “Fine, my words were a bit too harsh so don’t take it to heart. I will gather the demon cores of the five elements. I’m sure you’re curious about what’s hidden inside the ancient scroll too, right?”

The Wild Blade didn’t respond.

Luo Tian continued saying: “Damn, don’t be like this. I was only joking with you.”

Still no response.

Luo Tian then said in a cheeky manner: “Brother Wild Blade, elder brother Wild Blade, it’s my fault okay? I shouldn’t have lost my temper at you, it’s my bad.”

No response.

This made Luo Tian lose face, so he angrily said: “Wild Blade, you’re not giving me any face? This daddy lowered his voice in apology already so you should at least make a squeak or something right?”

Before Luo Tian had finished his words, a sound came from inside him. The sound was precisely: Squeak.

“Huh?”

“Your damn sister Wild Blade! I asked you for a squeak and your sister, you actually made a single squeak noise?” Luo Tian was speechless right now.

Suddenly...

The Wild Blade violently shouted: “You damn brat, did the heavens send you here to kill me? Every single sentence this daddy says will consume true energy. If I keep talking, this daddy will basically lose his life! Do you know this daddy is using his life to talk to you right now? Do not even say a word to me unless you have managed to gather all five elemental demon cores!”

Luo Tian’s eyes showed surprise after surprise. He waited until Wild Blade was finished before he softly said: “You’ve wasted 5 points of true energy.”

“SCRAM!!!”

Wild Blade had the urge to kill Luo Tian right now.

Luo Tian grinned before laughing: "It's good that you're not angry at me. Seeing how bad your temper is, I'm sure you must have vigorous life energy. Don't worry; this brother won't bother you until you have recovered."

Afterwards, Luo Tian couldn't feel the Wild Blade's aura in his body.

Most likely it had withdrawn to its world of slaughter in order to recover faster.

A while later...

Luo Tian determined the Wild Blade wasn't around anymore before saying with disdain: "Shit man, and you claim to be the world's greatest domineering blade? You couldn't even handle your shit after killing Zhu Changfeng at the Profound Master 9th rank? What a disappointment, how can you follow this big brother in his travels in the future?"

Luo Tian despised the Blood Devouring Wild Blade and was happy at the same time.

The Wild Blade's personality was very similar to his.

The same overbearing manner, the same craziness, and the same hot blooded nature.

It was also this reason that Wild Blade had settled with Luo Tian.

And Luo Tian had given up the idea of subduing the Wild Blade.

The two of them could be described as birds of a feather flock together.

Luo Tian looked up at the sky and noticed it was dusk already. It would only be another hour before the sky darkens and his heart started becoming itchy.

Mysterious reward?

I can only receive it at night? Is Li Xue'er sending me some type of signal?

Luo Tian started laughing in an evil manner.

Thinking of Li Xue'er's beautiful face and curvaceous figure, Luo Tian couldn't help having an evil flame start burning in his heart.

He would soon be engaging in an awesome relationship with her, and he would soon be able to say goodbye to his virginity.

Luo Tian was getting extremely excited.

There was a trace of hesitation in his excitement that made him overwhelmed and his mood unable to be described with words.

Luo Tian took several deep breaths before saying to himself: "Luo Tian, you are completely useless. Isn't it just some pak pak pak time? Do you really need to be that excited?"

Soon after...

Luo Tian got on the ground and did over a hundred push-ups in a single breath. His mind would think of a different position in bed with each push-up he did. His little brother in his pants gradually rose up and became erected. Add that he was in an X shape doing push-ups on the ground; his actions looked just like he was practicing his wretched thoughts.

Seconds and minutes slowly went by.

Luo Tian felt like he was sitting on pins and needles as he counted the passing time.

He was having trouble holding in the excitement in his heart.

He was looking forward to night time arriving so he could do some bowchickawowow thing...

After a long time, this was the longest waiting period Luo Tian had ever felt in his entire life.

The sky finally darkened.

Luo Tian suppressed the excitement in his heart and lightly grinned: "Girl, this brother is coming now!"

Chapter 102 – Ice Cold Beauty

Nightfall had arrived.

Lanterns were lit on the streets, and the entertainment venues were brilliantly illuminated.

The girls of the Joyful Spring Courtyard were waving silk handkerchiefs to attract customers walking by. Many young men stopped with an uncertain attitude, yet were pulled into the business by girls in skimpy outfits.

Humans were more mischievous during nighttime.

Using the words from a television host in his past life: Spring time (night time) has arrived, so it's time to copulate (pak pak).

Luo Tian took a bath, changed into clean clothes, and combed his hair. His whole person now looked very lively and quite handsome.

He looked in the mirror at himself and exclaimed: "Who the f*ck is this? How can he be this handsome? How can other guys keep living with you around?"

With smooth white skin, a face with defined edges exuding a cool handsomeness, a pair of refined eyes that had a trace of irresoluteness, and a gentle curve to his lips that showed a mysterious and promiscuous smile that could make any girls intoxicated.

Luo Tian's appearance was truly not bad; at least it was much better than what he looked like in his past life.

After carefully dressing up, it was able to reveal his elegant and charming bearing even more. This made Luo Tian even more attractive to others.

This was all prepared for tonight.

A virgin's special night was too motherf*cking exciting!

Luo Tian made all of this preparation to hide the excitement in his heart. It would also allow him to leave a good memory for the first time of his life, which was also the only time of his life.

After finishing up everything, Luo Tian left his courtyard and walked towards Li Xue'er's courtyard.

The two courtyards weren't far from each other and would only take a few minutes to walk. Luo Tian was in a hurry and had actually activated Shadewind Steps to get there in less than a single breath.

His little brother couldn't wait any longer.

Upon arriving at the entrance of Li Xue'er's courtyard, Luo Tian cleared his throat and formed a smile before entering.

An Chunchun was squatting in a corner playing with a frog that appeared from some unknown place, occasionally speaking in a strange language to it.

One person and one frog were conversing in a mysterious manner.

An Chunchun turned around and saw Luo Tian enter the courtyard. She immediately leapt up and ran over, creating an image of an adorable cute girl. When she was still three steps from Luo Tian, she jumped up and directly landed in Luo Tian's embrace. She then rubbed her face on his chest before saying in a clever manner: "Big brother, you look very handsome tonight."

Luo Tian was hugging onto An Chunchun and looked at her eyes that contained a trace of pure and charming aura. He then said to himself in startlement: "She's so young yet can already charm people with a look, it will be even more troublesome given a few more years..."

The Fox Demon race were born with charming eyes, a single look by them were capable of shooting off electricity to seduce people.

An Chunchun's charm coupled with her even more powerful seductive eyes... It's fortunate that she was still young and the electricity voltage wasn't powerful enough, or else Luo Tian will truly be unable to hold back.

Luo Tian smiled and said: "Where is you big sister Xue'er?"

An Chunchun replied: "Big sister Xue'er is inside talking to someone in black clothing. I don't know what they're talking about but it looks like it's a serious matter. Big brother, you're here to look for big sister Xue'er right? Do you want me to go call big sister out?"

"She's talking to that mysterious expert?"

"Could it be that she's talking about doing the bowchickawowow with me tonight with the expert?"

"That can't be a good thing..." Yet Luo Tian inside showed an I like it expression.

That expert in the black cloak was an existence that made Luo Tian uncomfortable. In case he was just about to climax tonight, that guy might suddenly show up creating an everlasting psychological shadow to appear in his heart whenever it was pak pak time.

"That girl is very thoughtful in her matters, hahaha..." Luo Tian started lecherously praising in his heart.

After half a minute...

Li Xue'er started coming out of the house.

An Chunchun quickly jumped off Luo Tian and whispered: "Big sister Xue'er doesn't let me hug you because she says you're a big scoundrel. But Chunchun thinks big brother is a good person and doesn't look like a bad egg at all." She then stuck her tongue out and said: "Please don't tell big sister I hugged you."

She then started skipping away.

Luo Tian chuckled in his heart before looking at Li Xue'er's direction. He then realized her eyes were a bit red like she had just cried recently. His mind was startled as he walked up to ask: "Hey girl, who bullied you?"

Li Xue'er made a shallow smile that exposed her two small dimples, "Who would dare to bully me? With big brother Luo Tian around, I don't think anyone would dare to, heehee..."

Her smile was rather forced.

Luo Tian could naturally see it, but since Li Xue'er was not saying it, it wasn't good to keep asking.

But...

This matter should be related to the expert in the black cloak.

Luo Tian started saying to himself: "Motherf*cker, don't let this daddy's cultivation surpass yours or else one day, I will definitely teach you a good lesson."

Last time, he almost had a chance to push Li Xue'er down if it weren't for him. This injustice has been deeply etched into Luo Tian's heart.

“Big brother Luo Tian, why are you looking for me?” Asked Li Xue’er.

Luo Tian’s eyes changed as he thought to himself: “Could she be deliberately asking me this so I would take the initiative? Right, that should be the case. Girls are more shy so I should be the one to take the lead.”

As a man, he had to take the initiative.

Although Luo Tian wanted to play a passive role in this matter, when dealing the little sisters of those onesan type girls, he had to take the initiative when dealing with those pure innocent girls like Li Xue’er.

Luo Tian showed a very calm, collected, and casual look before saying: “Weren’t you going to give me a mysterious reward tonight?”

“Ahhh?!”

Li Xue’er was surprised and suddenly laughed out and said: “I almost forgot about this matter.”

“1...”

“How could something like this be forgotten that easily?” Luo Tian said to himself.

Li Xue’er’s sudden laughter caused the black shadow inside the house to suddenly shuffle a bit.

Li Xue’er turned her head towards the house and said: “Big sister Shuang, shouldn’t you honor your agreement?”

“One must honor their bet when they lose.”

“You’re not planning on escaping right?” Li Xue’er deliberately said.

If someone at the Profound Spirit 6th rank wanted to disappear without a trace, it would simply be too easy.

The moment Li Xue’er laughed out was the moment Leng Hanshuang remembered the gambling stakes. She wanted to escape right that instant, and it happens to be the first time she had wanted to run away in her entire life.

Just thinking of those words she had to say made a flood of nausea rise in her heart.

But...

She still walked out of the house in an unhurried manner.

Luo Tian had no clue what was going on. Could Li Xue’er’s mysterious reward be to assign this expert to him?

What on earth was going on?

Leng Hanshuang walked towards Luo Tian and stopped when she was about three steps away from him. Her eyes showed a complicated look as she slowly took off the cloak and the black robe.

Afterwards...

Luo Tian stared in a dumbfounded manner.

Even in his dreams would he never imagine beneath the cloak was a peerless beauty!

Very beautiful, exactly like those ice cold beauties he had watched in movies.

Moreover...

Leng Hanshuang was completely dressed in tight clothing that fully outlined her curves; she was as hot as they could get. Her large protruding twin peaks looked like they wanted to break out of her shirt, and her hips and the curve of her ass was filled with mind numbing seductive charm. This scene was simply trying to steal one's life away!

Luo Tian was extremely shocked. Looking at Leng Hanshuang, his mind couldn't help think of League of Legend's Frost Archer – Ashe.

Leng Hanshuang's expression was even colder than Ashe's, just like an iceberg that hadn't melted in over a millennium.

Especially cold were her eyes; just a glance from them and one would feel a chill attacking their whole body.

The mysterious expert turned out to be a peerless ice cold beauty; what was Li Xue'er planning on?

Could the mysterious reward at night be...

A threesome?!

Oh my f*cking god!!!

Chapter 103 – I Will Slap That One Day

A threesome?

Luo Tian started shuddering in excitement.

This was something he had always dreamt of.

But...

Little did Luo Tian know that he was thinking too much, waaaaaay too much that could fill warehouses of dirty thoughts.

Luo Tian's face was filled with excitement while Leng Hanshuang's cold eyes showed contempt. A feeling of disgust burst forth in her heart as she said to herself: "Why are the men of the world always like this? Only Murong Wanjian would look calm when seeing me. I'm afraid only a modest gentleman like him would never act in such disgusting way."

In her heart, Murong Wanjian was the world's most perfect man!

Leng Hanshuang didn't hide the contempt in her eyes so Luo Tian could clearly see it. He then calmed down his excitement before revealing a look of indifference.

Motherf*cker, you're giving this daddy an ugly look? Then this daddy will also give you an ugly look.

No matter whom it was...

Luo Tian was never a person who would act warmly to people that snubbed him.

You don't like me? Then this daddy will show he doesn't like you either.

Leng Hanshuang was indeed very beautiful. Her type of ice cold beauty was something Li Xue'er didn't have, but she also didn't have the beauty that Li Xue'er exuded.

It is undeniable that Luo Tian's heart was moved upon seeing Leng Hanshuang's appearance.

As an otaku that had just transmigrated not too long ago, seeing any beauty would make his heart moved. Luo Tian was still human.

But...

He had his own principles. Since Leng Hanshuang was looking at him with eyes of contempt, then the stirred up feelings he felt would be completely sealed up.

Li Xue'er noticed the expression of those two didn't seem right, so she smiled and said: "Big brother Luo Tian, this is my big sister Shuang. Her full name is Leng Hanshuang."

"Leng Hanshuang?"

Luo Tian laughed out once and said: "Her name really suits her well."

Leng Hanshuang's expression was ice cold without any fluctuations.

Li Xue'er gently touched Leng Hanshuang's arm and whispered: "Big sister Shuang, you're not thinking of breaking the agreement right?"

There was a slight change in Leng Hanshuang's expression as she started frowning. She looked at Luo Tian and even more disgust arose in her heart. "How can I be so polite to such a person like this? How can I even bear to say such words to him?"

Luo Tian noticed her look and seemed to have guessed what's going on. "There's no need to force yourself."

"I don't need your pity." Leng Hanshuang coldly replied.

"F*ck!"

Luo Tian was pissed and suddenly cussed out loud.

Leng Hanshuang's eyes turned even colder and a trace of killing intent flashed by – this killing intent was extremely ice cold.

This killing intent pissed Luo Tian off even more.

If it weren't for her scary high cultivation, Luo Tian would've directly crushed her with his oppressive pressure. Let's see you continue pretending to be cold in front of me!

Li Xue'er's expression changed as she faintly whispered: "Big sister Shuang!"

She was trying to give Leng Hanshuang some pressure.

When Leng Hanshuang refused to help out this morning, Li Xue'er was already unhappy about it. But since this was already agreed upon, there was nothing she could do.

Since there was an agreement, then one must comply with it!

Now it was time for Leng Hanshuang to fulfill her own promise.

That's why Li Xue'er's tone of voice had a trace of force to it.

Leng Hanshuang naturally detected it and bit her lips. She then lightly bowed down and coldly said: "Noble, this little lady admits her mistake."

Her voice was so cold that it gave one chills in the heart.

Luo Tian was shocked, but then said in enjoyment: "What? I didn't hear what you said."

“Are you courting death?” Leng Hanshuang coldly said as her eyes changed. Killing intent exploded forth from her body creating an oppressive pressure.

Luo Tian’s body lightly trembled.

There was no way he could resist the pressure from someone at the Profound Spirit 6th rank.

In a mere moment, his mind and his sea of consciousness were extremely uncomfortable.

The difference in strength was too much.

Luo Tian’s rage had burst into the sky. His jaws were clenched so hard that cracking sounds were heard, but he maintained his glare at Leng Hanshuang while clenching his fists.

“Leng Hanshuang!”

Li Xue’er directly shouted at her full name.

Leng Hanshuang retrieved her pressure and said with disdain: “Just this little bit of pressure and you can’t even handle it, yet you still dream of being with our family’s young miss? A pile of mud like you are not worthy of her.”

“You have absolutely no qualifications.”

“Even if you work hard your entire life, it will still be completely useless. Our family’s young miss and you belong to two different worlds. Her world is a place that you will never be able to step into.”

“Luo Tian, you need to face reality and stop deluding yourself with unrealistic dreams.”

Each and every word...

Were ice cold and contained a thick amount of disdain.

Li Xue'er's expression changed to an extremely ugly look. She was glaring at Leng Hanshuang without moving, her eyes were even colder than Leng Hanshuang's now.

She was extremely unhappy.

Luo Tian's mind shook as he stood there without saying a thing.

This made Leng Hanshuang feel that Luo Tian was a coward. The words she said were hard for people to listen to yet Luo Tian didn't say a thing. This was absolutely the behavior from a true coward.

She despised Luo Tian even more now.

She had regarded Luo Tian in a new light when he managed to pull two miraculous reversals. She even thought that as long as Luo Tian was placed in a good environment to cultivate, he would one day accomplish some achievements.

But she didn't think like this anymore after tonight.

Motherf*cking cu*t!

Luo Tian roared in his mind. If he had the strength, he would've directly slapped her silly already.

But he didn't!

He was extremely pissed inside but couldn't say a word, because what Leng Hanshuang had said were all facts.

One could see how huge Li Xue'er's background was when she could have an expert at the Profound Spirit realm as her bodyguard.

He was no different than a villager from some random mountain village, so what qualifications did he have to compete for her? Snatch her away? What status did he have?

Luo Tian was never a person to force things and always preferred to let nature take its course.

But...

It was different now.

Luo Tian wanted to compete with all his strength and snatch her away!

As for status?

What's wrong with being a villager? So what if he was a villager? One's status was something you restrict yourself with. As a transmigrator, he understood all these psychological restrictions people unnecessarily put on themselves.

Seeing Leng Hanshuang's face filled with disdain, Luo Tian suddenly grabbed Li Xue'er in an embrace and forcefully gave her a kiss on the lips.

Everything happened too quickly that no one had time to react.

At first Li Xue'er was resisting a bit but eventually she let go of herself to embrace it.

Their tongues were intertwined together while the sweet saliva mingled in their mouths. This was an extraordinary feeling for those that have experienced it.

Leng Hanshuang's expression underwent a dramatic change.

It was green, then pale, then an extremely ugly look.

Luo Tian was forcefully kissing Li Xue'er right in front of her!

This was undoubtedly him giving her a fiery hot slap to the face!

This illusory slap was so hard that she didn't know which direction was what now!

Those two were so affectionate with their kiss that they had forgotten about everything around them. An Chunchun was staring up at them in a serious manner before giggling: "Big brother, I also want some kisses."

Li Xue'er's face was so red now that juice could've been squeezed out of it. She was short of breath as if her brains were lacking oxygen.

Luo Tian was able to sense this and finally loosen his embrace. He didn't even bother looking at Leng Hanshuang while he pushed some of Li Xue'er's hair to behind her ears. Luo Tian then softly said: "No matter what background you have; no matter how many people try to stop me; no matter how powerful they may be; I, Luo Tian vow to the heavens that I will definitely marry you!"

Li Xue'er felt an extremely sweet sensation swell in her heart. She was now drunk on sweetness and happiness.

Leng Hanshuang coldly said: "Let's not talk about the future because I don't think you can even live past tonight!"

At this moment...

A Luo family disciple rushed into the courtyard with a forehead covered in sweat and said: "Patriarch, not good. There's a large crowd of Azure Cloud Sect people outside the city."

Leng Hanshuang coldly smiled and said: “Very close to my expected time. Luo Tian, let me see how you will deal with the Azure Cloud Sect!”

Luo Tian frowned. He never imagined the Azure Cloud Sect would really send people here, and they came so quickly!

The Luo family had once again landed at the brink of destruction!

Luo Tian strode out of the courtyard before turning around. Without trying to hide anything, he ogled at Leng Hanshuang’s huge chest and her tight curvaceous ass. He then smiled evilly: “One day I will slap that ass until it blooms flowers, and I’ll be doing that on the bed!”

Chapter 104 – The Army Arrives

Outside Jade Mountain City.

The army of Azure Cloud Sect members had arrived.

Not only were the elders of the outer court, there were even inner court elders who had extremely high statuses in the Azure Cloud Sect.

The reason why they came here was because of Zhu Changfeng and Chen Zhong.

Those two disciples were people the Azure Cloud Sect were going to groom in the future. If anything happened to those two, it would be considered a small blow to the sect.

Another reason was to strengthen their image!

They were showing to the world how powerful the Azure Cloud Sect was, and they were the absolute overlord in the radius of a hundred thousand kilometers. No one is allowed to cause a disturbance because there’s only one outcome when offending the Azure Cloud Sect – death!

Three elders and more than two hundred elite outer and inner court disciples had surrounded the eastern gate. The huge aura exuding from them made it so no one dared to approach.

There were hundreds of similar looking rank 3 demonic beast mounts that were snorting out white mist in arrogance. They looked no different to a demonic beast army that intimidated anyone who laid eyes on them.

“Boom~...”

Lightning streaked across the sky and dark clouds started accumulating. The humidity in the air started increasing and the environment becoming ominous as if a storm was about to arrive.

“I cannot sense the aura of those three.”

“Could they be dead already?”

A white-bearded man was sitting on top of a giant crane with his eyebrows frowning, and a slightly irritated look on his face.

Next to him was another old man who shouted: “Impossible! How can anyone in this little Jade Mountain City be capable of hurting our Azure Cloud Sect’s disciples? Who would have the guts?”

The two of them were both inner court elders. The one riding the crane was called Liu Chengfeng who had chosen Chen Zhong as his legacy disciple. The other old man was called He Changkong, and he was the one planning on accepting Zhu Changfeng as a personal disciple. This was the reason why they would both rush here today.

Behind those two was the outer court elder Chen Tianyao.

Chen Tianyao had an imposing expression on his face. His powerful senses swept out and covered the entire Jade Mountain City, continuously searching and searching...

Jade Mountain City had a few hundred thousand in population. With such a large population density, his senses was still able to sweep pass every single one of them, demonstrating how terrifying his cultivation level had reached.

A while later...

Chen Tianyao's brows slanted a bit to a frown as he said: "My two elders, the auras of them three are indeed not inside the city. Could it be that my son has..."

His voice was shaking a bit.

Chen Tianyao's eyes tightened as the flames of rage in his heart started rising.

Liu Chengfeng's complexion darkened as he coldly eyed Jade Mountain City. A powerful aura then exploded forth from him as he coldly said: "A rural town like this dares to challenge our Azure Cloud Sect's mighty presence? They are simply courting death!"

"They dare to kill disciples of our Azure Cloud Sect? I really want to see who these people are." He Changkong angrily harrumphed.

Chen Tianyao shook his head with a confused expression as he mumbled: "The strongest person in Jade Mountain City is only at the Profound Master 9th rank and there's no way he can be Changfeng's opponent. Could the person who killed them have already fled?"

"It doesn't matter if the killer had escaped or not, disciples of our Azure Cloud Sect aren't people that anyone can kill. I don't think this city needs to exist anymore." Liu Chengfeng softly said.

As he was saying this, killing intent started spreading out – it was thick and filled with brutality.

Slaughtering an entire city was like nothing to him.

"Enter the city!"

“We’ll first go to the Zhu family to check on the situation.”

“Azure Cloud Sect disciples listen up! Take over all north, south, east and west entrances. People may enter but none may leave!”

“It doesn’t matter if my disciple’s killer is in the city or not, everyone inside will be buried along with them!”

The overlord within the radius of a hundred thousand kilometers!

Their dominance was absolute so who dares to go against it?

The mounts were exuding a fierce aura while the Azure Cloud Sect disciples showed expression of disdain and contempt, as if they were all superior to the common people.

They quickly rushed towards the Zhu family with a powerful momentum.

Anyone on the main streets that dared to bump into this group would only have one outcome – instantly killed!

Dozens of people died beneath their swords along the way. They were absolutely inhumane because these people weren’t humans in their eyes; they were just ants blocking their path.

They were being stomped to death beneath their feet.

The Azure Cloud Sect went through the city in a brutal manner, causing turmoil on every street they passed. The whole city had suddenly turned quiet at this moment.

“Boom~...”

A huge lightning streaked across the sky, and the sudden brightness revealed the faces of the Azure Cloud Sect disciples they were filled with contempt and cold-bloodedness.

Main hall of the Luo family.

Everyone was sitting up straight with an extremely nervous look on their faces.

They didn't expect the Azure Cloud Sect would really send people here. They had arrived too sudden and quickly.

And they even sent out three elders! This type of circumstances was something rarely seen!

Luo Tian's brows were locked in a frown and his thoughts running fast forward. He was trying to come up with a solution so that the Luo family could escape this incoming disaster.

But...

He couldn't come up with anything.

It all came down to one thing: He lacked the motherf*cking strength!

"Reporting!"

"Reporting to the Patriarch: Most of the Azure Cloud Sect members have arrived at the Zhu family. The four main city gates have been taken over by their disciples – people may enter but cannot leave."

Luo Tian's brows scrunched up, "Even our escape route has been blocked off..."

Song Yannan's brows sank as he looked around at the people of the Luo family. He made up his mind and said: "Patriarch, let me shoulder this matter!"

Everyone looked at Song Yannan.

Song Yannan faintly smiled and said: "My cultivation level is currently the strongest in Jade Mountain City, so I'm the most suitable candidate to assume all responsibilities."

"Moreover, only I have a good enough reason to convince them that I killed their disciples. Since their Azure Cloud Sect disciples destroyed my clan, I killed the three of them for vengeance. I believe even the elders of the Azure Cloud Sect should be reasonable people."

Being reasonable?

This world was a place where one's fist determined what was reasonable.

You're going to try being reasonable with the Azure Cloud Sect elders? Are you seriously joking?

Of course, Song Yannan knew the truth of things. He was only saying these words in hope that Luo Tian would agree to let him assume all responsibilities.

Just when Song Yannan finished speaking, Luo Tian already stood up and said: "No way!"

"I am the Luo family's Patriarch, so if someone had to shoulder this, than I should be the one."

"Moreover, they were all killed by me which was witnessed by the entire city. Elder brother Song, I cannot allow you to risk your life over this."

One should always bear the consequences of what they have done, and Luo Tian was never a timid person afraid of trouble.

He did not feel any fear even if he had to face the Azure Cloud Sect.

Luo Tian had to shoulder everything and not back away because he was the pillar of the Luo family.

Song Yannan wanted to continue arguing when suddenly a loud noise was heard from the Luo family's main entrance.

"BOOM~!"

The Luo family's main entrance was smashed into pieces. The four disciples guarding it were now being stepped on by four Azure Cloud Sect disciples. There were dozens of wounds on their bodies; blood was pouring out and their faces extremely pale.

They've come so quickly!

"This is the so called Luo family?"

"They are nothing more than a bunch of trash."

"I bet their patriarch is definitely a piece of trash as well."

Those four Azure Cloud Sect disciples started speaking with disdain.

One of the Luo family disciples being stepped on roared out like an enraged lion: "Our Patriarch isn't trash, you're the trash! You're entire Azure Cloud Sect are trash!"

In their hearts, Luo Tian had become a supreme existence and wasn't someone people were allowed to insult.

Once he finished saying that, the Azure Cloud Sect disciple sneered in disdain before using strength in his foot and directly burst his head with a stomp. "You damn dog thing, are you even qualified to mention those three words – Azure Cloud Sect?"

Chen Tianyao had an extremely angry look on his face as he coldly looked at Zhu Mei. “Are you sure Luo Tian is inside?”

Zhu Mei nodded her head that was wearing a white flower wreath. With her eyes filled with tears and her face filled with heartache, she replied: “I’m sure. I’ve sent someone to keep an eye on the Luo family just to wait for you to avenge my elder brother, Chen Zhong, and big brother Chen Wu.”

Chen Tianyao eyes changed as his Profound Grandmaster peak aura exploded out. His profound energy roiled as the killing intent from his body immediately enveloped the entire Luo manor. He then shouted in rage: “Luo Tian, give me back my son’s life!”

Chapter 105 – Angry To The Max

This loud roar caused the entire Luo manor to shake violently.

Inside the main hall.

Luo Tian walked to the entrance of the main hall and his eyes tightened. He then said: “Dispatch my orders: Everyone of the Luo family needs to try their best to escape. You all in here also need to find a way to get away while I go out and delay them as long as I can.”

“Enough of the nonsense and quickly go!”

After ordering them, Luo Tian then shouted: “Shadewind Steps!”

Like a shadow blending with the wind, his speed was raised to the maximum as he rushed towards the Luo family’s main entrance.

“Boss!”

Feng Lei followed without hesitation.

Song Yannan faintly smiled and said: "My life was given back to me by the Luo family. If I were to escape at a time like this, would I still be considered a human being?"

Song Yanqun started laughing out loud and shouted: "So what if I die? It's not like I haven't died before! The day our Song family was annihilated was the day I've already died once. This half a month I've lived is already considered extra! Today this daddy will experience an enjoyable battle to the death, hahaha..."

At this moment...

Everyone in the main hall followed in Luo Tian's step and rushed towards the Luo family's main entrance.

It wasn't only them.

The entire Luo family including the outer sect disciples, the core disciples, the women and the elderly all came.

This was their home, their Luo family.

Even if the enemy was stronger and their forces larger, they still wouldn't bend a knee to them. And they would never escape with the tails between their legs because this place was their home.

This was the cohesive strength of a united family!

Everyone had witnessed the actions of Luo Tian for the past month. They were thoroughly convinced by Luo Tian and had sincerely viewed him as the patriarch of the Luo family.

Now that the Luo family was experiencing a crisis and Luo Tian wanted to shoulder everything alone, how can they agree to it?

Luo Tian was their pillar so there's no way they would allow him to shoulder this alone. If they were to die, they would rather die together!

Elderly people, women, children, and even the disabled were coming from everywhere armed with various weapons. Some had hoes on them, some with wooden sticks, and some even took the ladle from the latrine that was usually used to scoop out the shit. They were similar to the ocean tide converging towards the main entrance.

Their momentum shook the heavens!

Luo Tian turned around to look at his clansmen and his body tensed up. He then said with heartache: "Why did you all follow me to your death?"

"Patriarch, the Luo family is encountering a crisis so we shall meet it together."

"Boss, aren't they just the Azure Cloud Sect? What's so great about them? A sect that grooms an asshole murderer like Zhu Changfeng can't be a good sect."

"Let's fight it out with them!"

Luo Tian was moved by them but he clearly understood the Luo family's situation. There's a high chance that the entire family will be annihilated!

The main entrance of the Luo family was in ruins as both sides of the walls were pretty much torn down. Outside stood all the Azure Cloud Sect disciples with cold and proud expressions like they were superior to everyone.

Seeing how the entire Luo family had come out like an ocean tide, the Azure Cloud Sect disciples were briefly surprised before revealing a cold sneer of disdain.

"Senior brother, do you see that one holding a spatula? Hahaha..."

“Look over there, there’s one that has a crippled leg!”

“Damn man, they’re all crackpots! Could this place be where all the trash hangs out?”

“This is too funny, hahaha...”

Voices of ridicule and scorn were continuously heard.

These people were looking down at everyone in Jade Mountain City from the bottom of their hearts. Even if some of those Azure Cloud Sect disciples had come from small cities like this, their hearts had completely been changed by living in the sect.

This kind of mentality was similar to city dwellers looking down on those that come from the rural villages.

The disdain they felt came from deep inside their heart!

Zhu Mei noticed Luo Tian come out and immediately spoke up: “Elder Chen, he’s Luo Tian, the murderer that killed big brother Chen Wu and Chen Zhong.”

Chen Tianyao’s eyes tightened as his clenched jaws gave off cracking sounds. He then stepped out with a stomp.

“Ommm~...”

Below his foot was a mass of white energy that was visible to the naked eye. The powerful white energy rippled out and made a “bzzzt” sound before his body disappeared into thin air.

Suddenly...

A roar sounded out from the void: “Luo Tian, give me back my son’s life!”

Before the voice even faded, Chen Tianyao's extremely powerful punch struck forth.

The air was immediately compressed followed by an explosive power slamming forth. The power of this force was too fierce since the strength of a peak Profound Grandmaster was at a terrifying level. Luo Tian was unable to even react at all.

His pupils shrunk and he unconsciously protected his mind.

“Bang~!”

The punch slammed onto Luo Tian's chest.

The internal organs behind his chest immediately suffered pain as if the world was ending, and both his mind and his sea of consciousness were shaking from the impact. Luo Tian was similar to a bullet leaving the barrel as he flew off dozens of meters before smashing against a wall. The wall had caved in and spider web cracks quickly spread to the surrounding.

In just a breath of time...

The section of the wall collapsed and Luo Tian was buried in rubble.

Pain!

Very painful; extremely painful!

This punch to Luo Tian was simply too powerful!

The huge difference in strength had pissed him off. The flames of rage inside him instantly lit up while cracking sounds were heard from him clenching his jaws so hard. He was now angry to the max! It was also at this time an ice cold voice was heard in his mind...

“Boss!”

“Patriarch!”

“Big brother Luo Tian...”

Chen Tianyao’s strength at the peak of the Profound Grandmaster realm was simply too strong. No one present was able to react at all until the wall had collapsed. Only then did everyone feel like their hearts had risen to their throats before numerous people rushed towards Luo Tian.

“Humph!”

“Killing you with a punch will be considered letting you off lightly.” Chen Tianyao was confident in himself so he only used 80% of his strength on the punch. This was more than enough in killing Luo Tian who was at the Profound Master 6th rank.

Immediately after...

Chen Tianyao’s anger didn’t diminish at all as he angrily shouted: “All Azure Cloud Sect disciples listen up! Kill every single Luo family member for me! Kill them all and burn them all! I want the entire Luo family and everyone in Jade Mountain City to be buried along with my son! Not even a blade of grass will be allowed to re-grow!”

Killing aura; an unparalleled amount of powerful killing aura!

The pain of experience his son’s death and made him completely crazy! Who was he?

He was an elder of the Azure Cloud Sect!

He had absolute power over everyone in this small Jade Mountain City. Destroying a small city like this was considered nothing to him but a wave of his hands.

He wanted to kill; he wanted to make Jade Mountain City become a city of the dead!

For a brief moment, the entire city had entered a crisis!

“Hold on!”

A voice was suddenly heard.

Within the rubble, Luo Tian patted off the dust on his body and slowly stood up. One step at a time, he walked away from the collapsed wall. His face was a bit pale but he maintained a calm expression on his face.

“He didn’t die?!”

“He actually managed to survive?!”

“This kid was able to directly resist Elder Chen’s attack head on? What the hell is going on?”

Everyone’s expression was distorted and ugly looking like they had just swallowed a fly. Even they, as proud disciples of Azure Cloud Sect wouldn’t be able to resist Chen Tianyao’s punch head on.

Chen Tianyao’s expression was the ugliest of them all. The flames of rage inside him was similar to someone pouring gasoline onto it as it directly burst from his heart to his mind. “This is absurd!”

Luo Tian walked forward with eyes flashing killing intent as he shouted: “Your son was killed by me, your nephew was killed by me, and your dogshit Azure Cloud Sect’s number one disciple of the outer court Zhu Changfeng was also killed by me. Because they all deserved death!”

“Indiscriminate killing of the innocent – that’s the reason why they deserved to die!”

“I laugh in the face of your Azure Cloud Sect, the so called overlord within the radius of a hundred thousand kilometers. You are all nothing but dogshit! You think you’re hot shit walking around with an expression that everyone is beneath you? Did your mothers get f*cked and not get paid? Hahaha... what a complete joke!”

Rage; complete and utter rage that rose to the heavens.

Every single person from the Azure Cloud Sect were enraged to the max. They all coldly glared at Luo Tian with thick killing intent rippling out of their bodies.

What was Luo Tian planning on doing?

No one knew, except for an inconspicuous person in the corner. A brief light flashed in the eyes of that person dressed in a black cloak with an icy cold expression.

Chapter 106 – It Should Be This Daddy’s Turn Now

Did he lose his mind?

He was spouting these presumptuous words at such a time... had Luo Tian become nuts?

He lost his mind right?

He really went crazy!

Everyone was thinking that he had become a nut job.

The Luo family had been surrounded to the point where not a drop of water could get through, yet Luo Tian would act so rampantly? If he hadn’t gone crazy, what else could it be?

When Luo Tian finished speaking, his facial expression and his mannerism was arrogant to the extreme. He was simply not putting Azure Cloud Sect in his eyes!

This made everyone from Azure Cloud Sect pissed off!

Every one of them had an ugly look on their face as they locked their eyes on Luo Tian. They were all showing expressions that they wanted to swallow him alive.

He had scorn Azure Cloud Sect to the point that it wasn't even worth a penny, and the disciples of the sect were good for nothing useless things.

This was an insult, a gigantic insult.

Suddenly...

A disciple at the Profound Master 8th rank rushed out and leapt towards Luo Tian before cursing: "You're the dogshit! Azure Cloud Sect isn't a place you can curse..."

Before he could finish...

Luo Tian sneered ferociously as he roared in his mind: "Level 2 Berserk!"

Four times the attributes exploded forth.

He stomped down and burst forward. His pair of fists were like cannons as he bombarded out with a cold humph: "Die for me!"

"Bang~!"

That Azure Cloud Sect disciple had no clue Luo Tian would suddenly strike. This move was similar to how Chen Tianyao had suddenly struck Luo Tian flying.

Except...

Luo Tian survived but that Azure Cloud Sect disciple was directly instakilled by him!

Not an ounce of strength was withheld as that disciple was killed by a pair of fists!

“Ding!”

The system’s alert tone sounded off in Luo Tian’s mind.

That disciple fell down onto his own pool of blood. His chest was smashed opened and splatters of flesh flew everywhere. His eyes were still wide open with an expression of not knowing how he died.

This punch that instant killed the Azure Cloud Sect disciple was a huge slap to their faces. The slap had caused everyone’s faces to feel a burning hot sensation.

This caused their raged to rise to the heavens!

Luo Tian stood his ground with an arrogant expression while cursing: “F*cking hell, who else isn’t satisfied? Come at this daddy if you have the guts!”

His imposing aura had reached the heavens!

The killing intent coming from Luo Tian’s body had stormed into the skies while causing some of the surrounding people to be filled with fear.

For a brief moment, maybe only a short one second, everyone from the Azure Cloud Sect was overawed by Luo Tian. Even those two inner court elders who looked at Luo Tian in disdain felt a slight startelement in their minds.

Madness!

His madness had no restraints!

Everyone from the Luo family was dumbfounded; their hearts were surging and their blood was boiling.

They were excited from seeing an Azure Cloud Sect disciple being instant killed by a punch, so their momentum instantly skyrocketed.

“Completely crazy and unrestrained!”

“Let’s see if you can continue acting wildly in a bit.” Someone walked out from the crowd of Azure Cloud Sect members.

The crowd started becoming rowdy.

“Senior brother Wang Yuanqiao!”

“Wang Yuanqiao, the person who’s the closest to reaching the Profound Grandmaster realm. No matter how strong this kid Luo Tian is, his only outcome would be death with senior brother coming forth.”

“Senior brother Wang, kill him!”

Wang Yuanqiao – he was only eighteen years old and was Azure Cloud Sect’s inner court disciple. The second day he entered Azure Cloud Sect, he had already become an inner court disciple.

His strength was powerful; especially when it came to martial skills because of his high talent in comprehending them.

He was an invincible existence when comparing to those on the same level.

Even those in the early stages of the Profound Grandmaster realm would have a hard time dealing with him.

He was an absolute genius whom Azure Cloud Sect focused their grooming on.

The moment he stepped out, many people started shouting and becoming rowdy.

Wang Yuanqiao's breathing was very calm as he approached with a cold smile: "You should have never, ever, ever offended our Azure Cloud Sect. Just based on your age and your talent, you could definitely have become an inner court disciple of our sect. But unfortunately... you have to die now."

"But..."

"You should consider yourself lucky because you will die by my, Wang Yuanqiao's hands. This is your honor."

His voice wasn't very loud but it was brimming full of wildness. This was a kind of disdain that wasn't shown on his expression, but a contempt for Luo Tian that came seeping out from his bones.

Profound Master 9th rank, yet his strength was above Zhu Changfeng's!

Luo Tian clenched his fists tightly as his lips formed a cold sneer: "Quit bla bla bla'ing and come forward and play me to death if you have the guts. Stop acting wildly in front of this daddy when you can't even kill me. You lack the qualifications to act wildly in front of this daddy, so scram!"

Acting wild?

This daddy will act even more arrogant than you!

Wang Yuanqiao's expression dramatically changed before he shouted coldly: "You're courting death!"

Immediately after...

His palms started moving and an aura exploded out from his body. His powers burst forth as his figure pounced forth at the speed of lightning.

“Eight Desolate Palms!”

“Die for me!”

As if his voice reverberated from the void, Wang Yuanqiao’s oppressive pressure accompanied the explosive aura energy.

Luo Tian became extremely uncomfortable as if a mountain was now crushing down on his mind.

Luo Tian was standing there motionless and his sneer actually didn’t decrease but turned into a huge smile before laughing into the air.

He was laughing in a wild and unrestrained manner!

The crowd present couldn’t understand what was going on.

No one knew what Luo Tian was trying to do by just standing there.

No one could figure out what he was thinking.

Was he scared silly?

Waiting for his own death?

Or did he really go crazy?

Wang Yuanqiao also didn't know what Luo Tian was doing but he was getting pissed by Luo Tian's laughter. The strength of his Eight Desolate Palms was raised by a single level and the energy became even more vigorous. No matter what, Luo Tian won't be able to dodge this palm strike and the only outcome by not dodging was death!

The Azure Cloud Sect disciples were all smiling; an extremely smug smile.

The Eight Desolate Palms is a martial skill that senior brother Wang has been cultivating for many years. His research on this set of martial skill was so advanced that even Elders couldn't compare with him."

"This kid is still laughing so he's definitely been scared silly."

"A rural villager like him? At the most, he could probably walk sideways in a small city like this. But no matter how strong he is, it's impossible for him to be senior brother Wang's opponent!"

The twin palm strike was similar to simultaneous strikes from eight different directions containing peerless might. Even someone at the Profound Master 9th rank would most likely turn into meat paste by this strike.

But...

Luo Tian finally ceased his wild laughter as he excitedly said: "This set of palm skills isn't too bad, this big brother wants it!"

"Level 2 Berserk!"

3000 profound energy instantly disappeared and four times the attributes exploded forth.

However...

Luo Tian still stood there unmoving while he suppressed the surge of force within his body. He circulated the energy towards his arms yet his arms didn't swell up, but his veins did start popping out. The green veins started turning red and exuding white mist as if the force was combusting.

Unmoving like a mountain.

Even though Wang Yuanqiao's oppressive pressure was crushing down causing him uncomfortable pain, Luo Tian's heart was becoming perversely excited. He was absolutely no different from a madman right now.

There were some Luo family members who didn't dare to continue watching.

Everyone's heart felt like it was suspended in midair by anxiety. Since none of them could do anything about the incoming strike, their hearts were feeling extremely uncomfortable.

"F*cking hell, it would be great if my cultivation level was at the Profound King realm. I would definitely kill all these people right now."

"Those people from the Azure Cloud Sect are so detestable."

"Their damn grannies..."

Everyone in the Luo family was firmly clenching their fists filled with self-blame for being unable to share the burden with Luo Tian. At the same time, they were reminding themselves that if given the chance of surviving this crisis, they would definitely cultivate like crazy so that something like this will never happen again.

"BOOM~..."

Wang Yuanqiao's Eight Desolate Palms landed.

It accurately slammed into Luo Tian's chest.

Luo Tian's face instantly paled but he stood his ground without moving. Since the Evil Blood Armor was filled up with killing intent, the defense on a Spirit grade treasure was extremely powerful. That's why Luo Tian could take this palm strike head on, and why he managed to survive Chen Tianyao's previous attack.

At the same time when Wang Yuanqiao's twin palms landed, Luo Tian grinned ferociously and then said with disdain: "Is that all the strength you've got? Too f*cking weak and no different from scratching an itch."

"Grandson, it should be my turn now!"

"This daddy will let you experience what is called power!"

Both of Luo Tian's arms sank down...

Before it shot out like a nuclear missile!

Chapter 107 – If You Have The Guts, Fight This Daddy One on One

Luo Tian resisted it head on!

He didn't even think of defending himself and just allowed Wang Yuanqiao's palms to slam down.

When comparing strength and speed, Luo Tian was definitely not Wang Yuanqiao's opponent. But when comparing defense though, heh heh...

The Evil Blood Armor had been fully filled with killing intent and reached the Spirit grade. So no matter how strong Wang Yuanqiao was, there's still no way he could deal any physical damage to Luo Tian.

A Spirit grade armor's defense was peerlessly tough. Even though Wang Yuanqiao's Profound Master 9th rank strength was powerful, so what?

At that moment...

When Wang Yuanqiao's twin palms landed and had instantly become shocked...

Luo Tian sneered ferociously baring his teeth and said: "Now it's this daddy's turn."

Suddenly...

The pent up force that had been previously suppressed inside Luo Tian's arms suddenly blasted out like a nuclear bomb with his fists as a conduit.

Its speed was like lightning!

No matter how high Wang Yuanqiao's cultivation level was or how fast his reaction speed was, there's no way he could dodge this.

The distance between those two were too close, to the point where it was impossible to react in time.

Fists as large as ceramic pans heavily punched out!

Slamming onto Wang Yuanqiao's chest!

"BOOM~!"

A loud sound was heard and thick ripples of energy started spreading out. No one would've imagined that Luo Tian could take on Wang Yuanqiao's palm strike without suffering any injuries. He even exploded forth a powerful attack in retaliation! This was too motherf*cking shocking!

Wang Yuanqiao's pupils shrunk while his face instantly paled. His fiery hot chest felt like they were about to split apart, and he felt extreme discomfort in his internal organs like they were tossing around during a storm out at sea.

The most uncomfortable feeling was actually in his heart!

How was this possible?

How could this daddy lose?

How was it possible that he was struck by a piece of trash Profound Master 6th rank? Impossible, absolutely impossible.

His extremely proud heart couldn't handle this fact.

In his eyes, Luo Tian was no different than a pile of dog shit. If it weren't for him trying to demonstrate his strength in front of the two inner court elders, he would've never stood out. To him, Luo Tian didn't even have the qualifications for him to make a move.

His status indicated everything!

But the outcome made his heart sink to the abyss. The moment his body flew off, he was roaring into the air: "Luo Tian, you damn dog thing dares to sneak attack..."

"Sneak attack?"

"Hahaha... You damn trash, this daddy stood here without moving so you could hit me. Now that you cannot beat me, you're saying this daddy sneak attacked you?"

"Good!"

“You want to try this daddy’s specialty? This daddy will fulfill your wish!”

His words were very quick.

Wang Yuanqiao still had not landed on the ground yet while Luo Tian roared out in his mind: “Level 2 Berserk!”

“Shadewind Steps!”

“Level 2...”

“Whoosh~!”

His body was like lightning as he predicted the location where Wang Yuanqiao would land at. Without waiting for him to land, his right leg was lifted up and kicked in that direction.

After being seriously wounded, Wang Yuanqiao was unable to control his body that was flying off in the air.

He never imagined Luo Tian would dare to chase after him in front of so many Azure Cloud Sect disciples. He didn’t want to live anymore?

In reality, the people of Azure Cloud Sect never imagined Luo Tian would make another move!

This was an unexpected event for them.

Because of this, Wang Yuanqiao’s body was kicked into the air again. Luo Tian’s voice was chilled as he ferociously grinned: “This daddy will let you experience what’s called a combo!”

This was a move that only happened inside video games.

It was when a player would release several skills at the speed of light to perform a series of consecutive strikes. This type of move was extremely gorgeous to behold but required the player to have a very fast hand speed. He had to release a series of skills in an uninterrupted manner while also having a superior ability to predict his opponent's location.

When Luo Tian punched Wang Yuanqiao flying, he had already predicted his landing point.

Shadewind Steps was activated, and the kick made Wang Yuanqiao's body fly up again. Luo Tian then leapt up towards Wang Yuanqiao's body and pulled back his fists. He then shouted: "Thunder Tiger Fists, 10,000 points of damage!"

Fists like torrential rain punched out non-stop!

The speed was so fast that people could only see a blur and not Luo Tian's fist. All they could see were a series of phantom fist images.

Wang Yuanqiao's cold, proud, and contemptuous expression was directly beaten to mush.

Luo Tian was specifically aiming punches at his face as he cursed internally: "Motherf*cker, this daddy will beat your contempt and your ridicules to a pulp! Let's see if you can continue showing off now!"

The flurry of punches was raining down and Wang Yuanqiao didn't have the strength to retaliate.

After several dozens of punches, Wang Yuanqiao's body had slammed onto the ground. Luo Tian actually didn't stop attacking as he sat on top of his body and continued punching non-stop.

Each punch was also heavily landing on the minds of every Azure Cloud Sect member.

Everyone was dumbfounded by this.

The three elders of the Azure Cloud Sect had extremely ugly looks on their faces but none of them made a move to help. The reason was very simple – Wang Yuanqiao had already been crippled!

Moreover...

Even though they were of the same sect, Wang Yuanqiao wasn't a personal disciple of theirs. Due to their own selfishness, the hesitation they had already caused them to miss the opportunity to rescue him from becoming a cripple.

Since they had missed their opportunity, there was no need to rescue him anymore.

As each punch slammed down, everyone was staring at Luo Tian who was no different than a lunatic right now.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing Wang Yuanqiao. You have gained 5000 experience points, 800 profound energy...”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining Eight Desolate Palms. Will you be cultivating it?”

“Undefeated value +1.”

Hearing those system alerts, Luo Tian smiled excitedly. He retrieved his fists, stood up, and then spat out a thick glob of phlegm onto Wang Yuanqiao's corpse. He then said with disdain: “Shit man, you can't even withstand a single blow from me!”

Immediately after...

He mentally said in his mind: “Cultivate!”

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for learning Eight Desolate Palms.”

Luo Tian then said happily in his mind: “You’re really coordinating well with me system. You actually exploded forth loot that I asked for, you’re too awesome!”

After killing Wang Yuanqiao, Luo Tian’s expression was even more rampant as he coldly smiled: “So this is your Azure Cloud Sect’s so called genius?”

“Simply weak to the max!”

Everyone from the Azure Cloud Sect had a really ugly look on their face, which included those Elders.

Everyone’s eyes looked like they wanted to swallow Luo Tian alive!

“He’s acting too wildly!”

“Hey brat, you really think our Azure Cloud Sect has no one left?”

“Play him to death!”

At this time, many Azure Cloud Sect disciples stepped out with ferocious looks on their faces.

Luo Tian faintly smiled and said without fear: “What? You guys want to take turns fighting me to wear me out? People of the Azure Cloud Sect really don’t care about their face huh? Hahaha...”

He was laughing out loud in an unrestrained manner.

This was another slap to the face of everyone from the Azure Cloud Sect.

It was fiery hot, painful, and extremely uncomfortable.

Liu Chengfeng stared at Luo Tian's chest where Wang Yuanqiao's twin palms had landed. He then turned to the side to look at He Changkong beside him.

He Changkong's brows formed a frown. The two of them were looking at each other before He Changkong nodded.

The two of them seem to be talking about something.

Liu Chengfeng faintly smiled and waved his arm: "All of you step back first."

Immediately after...

He directly descended in front of Luo Tian while riding his giant crane. He then coldly smiled while pressuring him with his momentum: "What do you want then?"

Luo Tian was unhappy but didn't dare to cause any trouble. Liu Chengfeng's cultivation level had exceeded the range of what he could handle. His eyes then looked towards Chen Tianyao and said: "It was his son and his nephew who first killed my clansmen, that's why I took my revenge against them."

Liu Chengfeng nodded and said: "You should be more direct with the conditions."

Luo Tian didn't bother to be long-winded and directly said: "If he has the guts, he should fight this daddy one on one."

He was calling out Chen Tianyao by name for a duel!

Chen Tianyao, an expert at the peak Profound Grandmaster realm!

Everyone thought they had heard wrong. Even Liu Chengfeng who was closest to Luo Tian was startled by it and asked: "What did you just say?"

Luo Tian coldly laughed in an extremely wild and unrestrained manner. He then shouted in a voice that shook the heavens: "If he has the guts, he should fight this daddy one on one!"

Arrogance!

Too motherf*cking wild and arrogant!

Chapter 108 – Danger Everywhere

This was wild arrogance that knew no bounds!

It was so wildly arrogant that no one could understand anymore.

If Luo Tian was a madman in the beginning, he was now considered a complete and utterly raving mad lunatic that was an existence who didn't give a shit about his own life.

After being called out by name for a duel, Chen Tianyao coldly sneered while stepping out. He then leapt up into the air and landed heavily onto the ground. The momentum he exuded was similar to flames as he angrily said: "I really didn't expect you to choose me for a one on one fight. Are you just really dumb or do you simply not have any brains to begin with?"

"But this is good too."

"The enmity of my son should be avenged by me personally."

As he was saying these words, Chen Tianyao's rage increased little by little filled with pure hatred.

Luo Tian stood motionless in place as he was crushed by the aura Chen Tianyao was releasing. He then said with an uncomfortable feeling: "Your son killed others so I killed your son. All the Azure Cloud Sect disciples were personally killed by me so it has nothing to do with others; I shall shoulder all the responsibilities."

"I'm sure everyone here is aware that your cultivation exceeds mine by a huge amount."

"The reason I called your name out for a duel is very simple: No matter what the outcome of this battle is, I'm hoping that you can let the Luo family and the common people of Jade Mountain City off. They are all innocent and have nothing to do with this."

Chen Tianyao coldly harrumphed as he said: "Luo Tian, you want to sacrifice yourself to protect the others? This old man will directly tell you that everyone from your Luo family and Jade Mountain City will accompany my son in burial."

If the entire Jade Mountain City doesn't perish, the rage in his heart will never be extinguished!

However...

Luo Tian wasn't even looking at Chen Tianyao as he said those words, and was actually looking at Liu Chengfeng. He then coldly glanced at Chen Tianyao and sneered: "Don't inflate your own importance because your words cannot represent the Azure Cloud Sect!"

Chen Tianyao's expression become rather ugly looking at this time.

Liu Chengfeng faintly smiled and said: "You've killed so many Azure Cloud Sect disciples so the reputation of our sect has been damaged by you. Do you think your death alone can restore our Azure Cloud Sect's reputation?"

Luo Tian started talking to himself in disdain: "What sort of reputation does a crappy sect like yours have?"

There was a smile on Luo Tian's face as he asked: "Then what are your intentions?"

Liu Chengfeng replied: "My intentions are very simple: If you lose, everyone in Jade Mountain City will have to die with you. If you win, then everything gets a clean slate."

Luo Tian immediately said: "Good, we'll do it according to your words!"

Liu Chengfeng was startled by this as he never imagined Luo Tian would agree so candidly.

One needs to understand that his opponent was Chen Tianyao, an expert at the peak of the Profound Grandmaster realm. The difference in strength between the two was like a distance of 108,000 miles apart, so how could Luo Tian be Chen Tianyao's opponent?

Could the item on his person be powerful enough to kill Chen Tianyao?

He Changkong was also shocked by this.

The moment Luo Tian directly resisted Wang Yuanqiao's strike; those two guessed that Luo Tian must have some time of magical protective treasure. And the grade of this magical treasure shouldn't be low at all.

At this moment of time, greed arose in their hearts!

A magical protective treasure; this type of item was something that was rare in the Azure Cloud Sect as well.

If the magical treasure was of high grade... Liu Chengfeng started revealing an evil smile.

After clearing his throat, Liu Chengfeng looked at Chen Tianyao and asked: "Elder Chen, what do you think about this?"

Chen Tianyao respectfully replied: "Elder Liu, rest assured that I will kill him and certainly massacre the entire city!"

Liu Chengfeng lightly smiled, "That's good then, I hope that you don't let me down."

Liu Chengfeng had alternative plans in his mind: "If the protective magical treasure can't even resist Chen Tianyao's Profound Grandmaster strength, then it would be useless to me and the kid's death will serve our purpose. If the kid manages to win, then the magical treasure on his person must be something incredible..."

Of course, He Changkong off to the side was also thinking the same thing!

The crowd started spreading out to make room for those two.

Luo Tian looked over at Chen Tianyao who was about a dozen meters away from him.

Chen Tianyao's voice that was filled with rage, arrogance, and disdain said: "This time, I will not give you a chance to continue living!"

"I will shatter your soul so that you can't even become a ghost!"

Luo Tian smiled and scoffed in disdain: "Psh, I'm a person that loves doing good deeds. Your son is waiting in hell for you so I'll let you two reunite there."

At this moment...

Luo Tian made a thought as he said: "Wild Blade, I'm going to borrow you for a bit."

The Blood Devouring Wild Blade was awestruck by Luo Tian's wild arrogance. He started laughing like mad as he loudly said: "You brat, you are truly wild and unrestrained! Too f*cking spirited! This daddy is starting to like you more and more, hahaha..."

Although Wild Blade was at the critical time of his recovery, he didn't want to be left out of such a huge scene. "Hey brat, you are crazy enough. Even when facing such a powerful enemy, you're still so wildly arrogant. Not bad, not bad at all. This daddy likes it! The heavens haven't sent the wrong person to me, hahaha..."

Luo Tian said in his mind: "Enough of the bullshit, are you lending yourself to me or not?"

Wild Blade replied: "Of course I'll lend it, how can I be missing in such a huge scene? But little brat, you are facing an elder from the Azure Cloud Sect, someone at the peak of the Profound Grandmaster realm. His strength is much much higher than Zhu Changfeng so you need to think this through carefully! This old life of mine can still handle it, so if you require it..."

Luo Tian was secretly grateful and said: "There's no need for you to make a move, I have my own plans."

Wild Blade had over exhausted his true energy already so forcing him to use it again; most likely he would really disappear. The Blood Devouring Wild Blade would then become a dead blade without a spirit and be completely useless.

Luo Tian would never endanger Wild Blade's life like that.

"You brat, don't over think things. I'm just afraid that if you died, I will follow your footsteps and disappear as well. I'm solely doing this for myself." Said Wild Blade who was resorting to sophistry. It then recalled not long ago when Luo Tian was buried in rubble, an ice cold voice was transmitted into his mind so he asked: "What was that ice cold voice talking to you about?"

Luo Tian replied: "You will know later."

Wild Blade was starting to look forward to it!

Immediately after...

There was movement inside Luo Tian and the Blood Devouring Wild Blade disappeared.

Right after that, a huge blade covered in blood was now floating inside Luo Tian's mind. The Blood Devouring Wild Blade then started moving according to his will.

With just a thought...

The Blood Devouring Wild Blade appeared in Luo Tian's right hand. The long blade was touching the ground while emitting a ghastly killing intent as if it was dripping blood.

It was a very strong and very thick killing intent.

The resonance between the killing intent from the blade and the demon core inside Luo Tian's sea of consciousness was just enough to resist the oppressive pressure from Chen Tianyao.

Once the Blood Devouring Wild Blade appeared, nearly everyone from the Azure Cloud Sect had an expression of horror on their faces!

"What a violent blade!"

"The killing intent is very strong; it's almost like this blade was born from the depths of hell."

"The grade is also extremely high; the blade is just too handsome!"

The pupils of Liu Chengfeng and He Changkong slightly shrunk as their eyes narrowed. They were both staring at Luo Tian and saying to themselves: "I didn't expect this kid to possess such a good blade on him, heh heh..."

The greed in their hearts started getting stronger!

Inadvertently, those two glanced at each other and both revealed a cold smile filled with a trace of greed.

Regardless of the outcome of this battle, they were still going to devour Luo Tian whole!

Chen Tianyao was indeed a dangerous person.

But...

The danger he represented was not even 0.001 of Liu Chengfeng or He Changkong!

Danger was everywhere and killing intent hidden all around!

Chapter 109 – Being Played With

In the center of the grounds...

Chen Tianyao was also surprised by this, but it was only slightly. He then coldly sneered: “Even if you have a Divine grade weapon in your hands, you still won’t be able to escape your death!”

No matter how strong the magical treasure was, it was difficult to display its power when someone with a weak cultivation was wielding it.

The Blood Devouring Wild Blade was the world’s most domineering blade.

Its power was extremely strong, but Luo Tian’s Profound Master 6th rank cultivation would make it difficult for him to display its true power.

This was something the Blood Devouring Wild Blade knew as well.

His strength was being suppressed by Luo Tian’s low cultivation level. The higher Luo Tian’s cultivation becomes, the stronger the power he could explode forth!

Luo Tian calmly smiled and said: “Oh? Really? Then what are you waiting for? Come here and bite me!”

Chen Tianyao’s gaze changed. The aura on his body also abruptly changed as the profound energy gushed out of his dantian like a geyser while he firmly clenched his fists.

“Boom~!”

The space around his body gave out a dull sound of air exploding.

In an instant...

Chen Tianyao was adjusting the profound energy within his body to the most enhanced state. This next attack of his will definitely not allow Luo Tian to stand back up again.

He had to die!

“Die for me!”

As his voice faded, Chen Tianyao’s figure shot out in a straight line. His pair of fists seem to be dragging behind an illusory line as it blinded the eyes of onlookers.

Combustion of profound energy?

“This is a unique attack that only Profound Grandmasters have!”

“Why is Elder Chen making a mountain out of a molehill? Does he really have to use such an attack on a trashy Profound Master 6th rank?”

“He probably doesn’t want to lose face anymore and wants to quickly kill Luo Tian off. He could then start massacring the entire city afterwards.”

“Let’s see how unbridled this kid can continue acting; he’s finished this time.”

The Azure Cloud Sect disciples were all beaming with a proud sneer.

Chen Tianyao’s attack was able to demolish a person to the point of nothing remaining, so Luo Tian was definitely going to die!

Luo Tian hiddenly tightened his muscles as he glanced over towards an inconspicuous corner. He then said internally: “I really hope you will do what you have said.”

At the same time...

Luo Tian shouted in his mind: “Level 2 Berserk!”

“Ommm~!”

Four times the attributes exploded out and his strength started surging. Luo Tian then circulated all his power to protect his mind and his sea of consciousness. At the same time, he moved a portion of his energy to activate the Evil Blood Armor’s ability.

Since the beginning, Luo Tian had no intentions of fighting head on.

The difference in strength between them two was like a bottomless abyss. It’s not like he would win even if he fought with his life on the line.

Luo Tian was fully planning on defending!

As long as he could block Chen Tianyao’s attack, it will be considered his win.

Of course...

Activating the Evil Blood Armor's main ability will naturally be able to block the attack, but Luo Tian didn't fully trust that woman.

If he had a choice, he would definitely not choose to trust her.

Therefore...

Luo Tian will only get ready to activate the Evil Blood Armor's main ability, and not actually use it. This was his last piece of insurance and he didn't want to use it unless absolutely necessary.

Moreover...

Once the Evil Blood Armor's main ability was activated, the armor's defensive property will restart and become a Grade 5 magical item.

There's no way such a grade is capable of blocking a single attack from a Profound Grandmaster!

"Why is this kid not moving?"

"Is he planning another sneak attack?"

"He overestimates himself. Does he even realize who he is facing? Our Elder Chen is an expert at the peak Profound Grandmaster realm, yet this kid thinks he's dealing with another Wang Yuanqiao?"

"I think he gave up and is just waiting for his death."

The Azure Cloud Sect disciples were all discussing this.

The hearts of the Luo family members felt like it was scrunched up as their looked at Luo Tian without blinking. They had even forgotten to breathe at this moment.

Off in a corner...

A beautiful but cold smile was seen beneath a black cloak.

Beside her was Li Xue'er with a very anxious look on her face. She then repeated herself: "Big sister Shuang, big sister Shuang, hurry up and make a move. I'll do what I promised you, I'll do what I promised."

Leng Hanshuang didn't move and faintly replied: "My agreement with you was that Luo Tian had to block one move, and this one move hasn't finished yet."

Li Xue'er had an unhappy look on her face.

A brief flash of light passed through An Chunchun's charming eyes as she giggled. She then pulled on the corner of Li Xue'er's clothes and softly said: "Don't worry big sister Xue'er, big brother will definitely be able to block this move."

Li Xue'er looked down and caressed An Chunchun's head, "En, big brother Luo Tian will definitely be okay."

In the middle of the grounds...

Chen Tianyao's attack came smashing over like a tsunami, and his profound energy swept over which was similar to a raging wind crushing down.

Luo Tian's gaze tightened as he condensed all his energy while standing still. He then laughed into the air and shouted: "Come at me!"

It was just like when he was dealing with Wang Yuanqiao.

Was he looking down on Chen Tianyao?

As if Chen Tianyao suffered the greatest insult in his life, he roared out: "You damn dog thing, this daddy shall shatter your soul!"

As his voice faded...

Chen Tianyao's attack landed.

Luo Tian's heart was rather calm right now, to the point as if no sound was heard. The moment Chen Tianyao's heavy fist slammed forth, he still didn't activate the Evil Blood Armor's main ability.

The reason being none other than him not trusting Leng Hanshuang!

Also...

Luo Tian felt he could handle this punch.

"BOOM~..."

"BOOM~..."

The sound shook the heavens similar to a bomb exploding. Numerous gravel and debris was sent flying everywhere as a powerful force fluctuated outwards. Many Luo family members directly fainted from the aftershock.

Luo Tian's chest was almost torn into two. His internal organs were shuddering non-stop while his clothes were blown to shreds. Countless wounds appeared on his chest and within half a second, blood started squirting out.

In that instant...

The Evil Blood Armor Luo Tian was wearing started flickering as if it almost couldn't resist anymore!

Severe pain started spreading from Luo Tian's chest to the rest of his body. It was as if every single one of his bones were currently being fractured. The pain was so extreme that he had no words that could describe how he was feeling.

But...

Luo Tian had clenched his teeth and forcefully endured everything!

His pale face was the color of ash.

His eyes were bloodshot and the pain had distorted his face.

"Hahaha..."

"Hahaha..."

Luo Tian then started laughing in a sadistic manner and said: "You old fogey, looks like your attack is merely so so as well and cannot kill me, hahaha..."

Immediately after...

Luo Tian looked towards a corner and shouted: "Leng Hanshuang, this daddy blocked the move so isn't it time for you to make an appearance?"

Leng Hanshuang didn't move.

“F*ck!” Luo Tian immediately cursed out.

Li Xue’er also urged her on but Leng Hanshuang still didn’t move.

The moment Chen Tianyao’s attack landed, her face showed a slight surprise while there was a trace of delight in her eyes. She then stood there motionless and turned a deaf ear to Li Xue’er’s urging.

Seeing that Leng Hanshuang was not responding, Li Xue’er pulled out a purple and gold jade token before running out like her life depended on it...

Did Leng Hanshuang deliberately do this?

What on earth just happened?

Luo Tian had no clue!

All he knew was that he had been played with, completely played by a woman. If he manages to survive this, he will definitely pay her back ten thousand times!

Chen Tianyao had a really ugly look on his face right now. That punch was thrown using all his strength yet Luo Tian didn’t die!

He was pissed, extremely pissed!

A look of anticipation appeared in both Liu Chengfeng and He Changkong’s eyes as a cold greedy smile appeared on their faces.

“This daddy will see how many moves you can block!”

Chen Tianyao’s body flew forward in a crazy manner.

Luo Tian's face darkened as dead silence filled his mind.

Wild Blade knew Luo Tian had been played with, and the dead silence in his mind made it anxious. It then quickly asked: "Hey brat, can you block his next attack?"

Luo Tian bitterly smiled, "So what if I'm able to block it? There'll be a third strike, and a fourth..."

Wild Blade angrily shouted: "You only need to reply whether you can block his next attack or not?!"

"I can!"

"Good, then listen to me carefully. I will impart upon you the strongest esoteric of the wild blade..."

Chapter 110 – Void Piercing Dragon Technique

The Wild Blade's strongest esoteric?!

In an instant...

It was similar to Luo Tian grabbing onto a life-saving straw in the middle of an ocean. He was extremely excited and said: "Wild Blade, this brother will be placing his life in your hands now."

"Good!"

"Just do whatever I say!" Shouted Wild Blade.

Luo Tian immediately replied: "Fine!"

Wild Blade paused for a bit before saying: "This set of blade skill is called the Void Piercing Dragon Technique. It has the power to pierce through the nine heavens and beheading those proud dragons with millions of years of life."

"This set of blade skill is a method for one to survive against all adversities; to struggle against the heavens the moment before you die, and to have a heart to destroy everything on your last breath."

"The stronger your heart is bent on killing on your last breath, the stronger the powers this blade skill will become."

"Your body is almost at the brink of collapse, so this blade skill's power will increase under these conditions."

"But..."

"Once you activate the Void Piercing Dragon Technique, the pain you are experiencing will temporarily disappear. But the moment you are able to kill your opponent, all the pain you were supposed to feel will appear again at multiple times the severity. This pain is worse than death and it may even kill you in the process, so you need to think it through before utilizing it!"

Wild Blade said this in a very serious tone!

Because he didn't want to lie to Luo Tian.

The Void Piercing Dragon Technique was extremely powerful but was also extremely dangerous. If one hadn't reached the point of life and death, one should definitely not carelessly utilize it!

Pain that was worse than death?

Luo Tian had no hesitation as he directly said: "Wild Blade, do you think I have any other choices?"

Indeed!

Luo Tian had no more choices left.

Chen Tianyao's attack would arrive soon. Even if he could resist this one as well, but what about the next? What the hell was he going to use to resist it?

Once he dies, everyone in the Luo family will die as well. There were also over a hundred thousand common citizens of Jade Mountain City; there was Fatty Lei; and also An Chunchun who he had promised to look for her mother...

All of these reasons had forced Luo Tian to a dead end without any choices left.

When facing this huge behemoth known as Azure Cloud Sect, he had no path of retreat.

Since this was the case...

Then he can only use his life to fight, to struggle, and to kill. He will dig a hole to find his own exit!

If it's yours, then it's yours. If it's not yours, it will still never be yours even if you force it!

Shit!

Luo Tian's heart for killing on his last breath had reached an unprecedented level. Even the Blood Devouring Wild Blade was secretly happy about this.

With a super firm heart that possessed this type of determination, the Void Piercing Dragon Technique will be able to display even more of its power!

Immediately after...

Wild Blade's voice started reciting something inside Luo Tian's mind.

It wasn't fast and it wasn't slow.

Luo Tian has holding onto the handle of the blade while forcing his mind to calm down. His body arched forward, his head bowed down and his breathing restrained. The power fluctuation from his body disappeared and he looked like a dead person that hadn't quite completely slumped over yet.

"What is he doing?"

"What kind of weird posture is that? It looks like a dead person."

"I think this kid has really given up on defending this time."

"Even if he gets stronger, there's no way he can be stronger than Elder Chen."

The hearts of everyone in the Luo family was filled with dead silence as they felt they had sunk into a deep abyss.

Li Xue'er was still in the process of rushing out like her life depended on it. A heart-wrenching scream was heard from her: "No, no, no! Big brother Luo Tian, quickly run! Run...!"

Unfortunately...

No one was paying attention to her right now and she wasn't able to prevent things from continuing its course.

Chen Tianyao's attack instantly arrived!

Leng Hanshuang was still standing in a corner without moving. Her eyes were very calm and still very cold, like everything happening before her eyes had nothing to do with her.

In the center of the grounds...

Chen Tianyao's super attack kicked up a burst of wind. The wind was raging and twisting around until an image of a wind dragon appeared.

The dragon's head had a ferocious look as it roared into the surrounding as if it wanted to trample everything in its path.

Chen Tianyao noticed Luo Tian's head hanging down like he was asleep, and the huge blade in his hand becoming quiet. Even the bloody aura it had exuded in the beginning was now gone, as if it was just a large piece of scrap iron right now.

Was he treating me in contempt again?!

The old flames in Chen Tianyao's heart were about to gush out as he clenched his teeth and roared:
"This daddy will like to see how many more times you can block this!"

"Die for me!"

His pair of fists landed, once again targeting Luo Tian's chest wound.

At the same time...

The wind dragon roared out once before its huge body descended.

The sky darkened and the entire Jade Mountain City seemed to be enshrouded in death. This punch was clearly a level stronger than the previous punch!

Luo Tian's body still hadn't moved.

Wild Blade's voice was still saying something inside Luo Tian's mind.

"Activate the main ability!"

Luo Tian made a thought before continuing to emerge himself in Wild Blade's world of slaughter.

"BOOM~..."

"BOOM~..."

A huge noise shook the heavens and extremely powerful ripples of energy surged outwards. The temporary battle ground was now in ruins but Luo Tian still hadn't moved. There was no change with his expression as if nothing had happened.

On the other hand, Chen Tianyao's heart was extremely shocked.

That punch of his clearly slammed into Luo Tian's chest, but why did it feel like he had punched a shield made of light?

The main thing he couldn't understand was that Luo Tian was completely unaffected by it. This was an outcome he couldn't accept at all.

Liu Chengfeng and He Changkong's eyes were both frozen.

A Spirit grade treasure!

It definitely is a magical treasure of the Spirit grade!

Their hearts started laughing maniacally with greed. Never would they have imagined that a remote city like this would have a Spirit grade magical treasure! This was truly unexpected!

“Hahaha...”

“Boss didn’t die, boss is the mightiest!”

“What did this kid do?”

“This is too unbelievable.”

“What did I just witness? A Profound Master 6th rank took on two attacks by a peak Profound Grandmaster? I must be hallucinating!”

A clamor of discussions erupted.

Chen Tianyao had an extremely ugly look on his face. After attacking twice with all his power, the profound energy in his dantian had already been depleted by half. Yet somehow he still couldn’t kill Luo Tian, which was something he couldn’t accept.

His eyes changed as he started pushing out a large amount of profound energy from his dantian. Chen Tianyao once again rushed forth and this time he wasn’t aiming for Luo Tian’s chest anymore, he was aiming for his Gate of Life meridian! (dantian area)

Luo Tian had just escaped a dangerous event yet another wave had arrived.

Li Xue’er’s heart almost couldn’t handle it anymore. Her tears were like rain as she bawled her eyes out. But there was nothing she could do, and that feeling caused her to have difficulty breathing.

“BOOM~...”

Chen Tianyao’s attack swept over again...

The speed was extremely fast!

Luo Tian's figure was still motionless and the crowd felt like their hearts had risen to their throats.

Suddenly...

Luo Tian's eyebrows slightly twitched while the Blood Devouring Wild Blade in his hands started giving off a ringing sound. This type of blade ringing sound seemed to be transmitting from the nine heavens...

Feng Lei started grinning, "Boss is about to make his move!"

Before fatty was able to say more, Luo Tian's eyes suddenly opened and the corner of his mouth curved. He started smiling in a cold manner while the huge blade starting giving off a red bloody glow.

In merely an instant, the bloody light burst into the sky.

All the pain inside Luo Tian had completely disappeared.

His right foot moved slightly and a white gas emerged from his body with a "psshhh" sound. Luo Tian raised he huge blade up into the air and the red bloody light started spreading out and covering the entire sky.

The sky had been dyed entirely in red!

The earth was being crushed!

At this moment, Luo Tian felt like he was similar to a God that ruled over everything – a God of Killing that rose up out from the depths of hell. He was able to slash through the nine heavens, and even cut up those mythical dragons that roamed the nine heavens into 18,000 little pieces!

"Void Piercing Dragon Technique, first form!"

“Exterminate The Heavens!”

“Slice him up for me...”
