

Leveling Up 111

Chapter 111 – Nine Slashes Fuse Into One, Explode!

The blade aura rushed into the clouds.

As if the blade aura became substantive, it slashed down towards Chen Tianyao.

A small slit appeared in the sky as if it had been cut apart. The huge blade aura started cutting down accompanied with an extremely brutal killing intent.

Before it fully descended...

The blade's movement in Luo Tian's hand changed as he roared out: "Void Piercing Dragon Technique, second form!"

"Exterminate The Earth!"

"Slash for me..."

The first blade move hadn't finished descending yet and the second blade move was already being activated. What the hell was going on?

What people really couldn't understand was the blade aura from Exterminate The Heavens and the brutal force it had was suspended in midair. It was like time had frozen for it and it seemed to be waiting there for something.

"BOOM~!"

A loud sound came from below the ground before the earth started shaking. A powerful aura then burst out of from the inner depths of the earth.

Luo Tian waved the huge blade in his hands and the earth split apart. A surge of blade qi rushed out of the ground but suddenly stopped before it was about to slash towards Chen Tianyao.

Also within this instant...

Luo Tian once again roared out: "Void Piercing Dragon Technique, third form!"

"Dragon Subduing Slash!"

This slash was similar to the previous moves, suspended in midair without moving like time had frozen around it.

Right after that...

"Void Piercing Dragon Technique, fourth form!"

"Thousand Transformation Slash!"

"Fifth form, Nether Slash!"

"Sixth form, Myriad Killing Slash!"

"Seventh form, Reincarnation Slash!"

"Eighth form, Dragon Slaughtering Slash!"

Eight forms, eight slashes, eight blade qi's; they were all suspended in midair. The powers contained in them were so powerful that each cut had caused space to split apart.

Everyone was stunned in shock by Luo Tian's eight slashes.

They were staring with their mouths agape at Luo Tian without moving. They would occasionally glance over at the suspended slashes in midair that were giving off buzzing noises from tearing space apart.

Below the eight slashes, Chen Tianyao was scared to the point of pissing his pants.

He had even forgotten about his own attack.

Upon raising his head to look at the eight blade qi's, Chen Tianyao started feeling fear in his heart. Those blade qi's felt like hell, like the nine heavens, like reincarnation, like countless people getting slaughtered, and like a huge dragon roaring out in pain. All of this crushed down onto his mind causing him to become extremely afraid.

Fear!

Every member of the Azure Cloud Sect was in fear!

Liu Chengfeng was in fear.

He Changkong was in fear.

Their hearts had sank as they asked themselves: If I was the one facing those eight blades that seem to go against heavens, would I be able to block it?

They had no answer!

Because they didn't want to, nor dare to imagine testing this out!

Because they would most likely lose their lives...

“The boss is too motherf*cking mighty!” Feng Lei was staring with wide eyes while his thoughts were in an excited mess. He clenched his fists and said to himself: “I have to cultivate like crazy or else I won’t be able to keep up with young master’s footsteps.”

All the people of the Luo family had the same look.

Excitement!

Apart from excitement was more excitement. Looking at Chen Tianyao’s scared expression, the excitement rose even higher as they were also filled with admiration.

Because Luo Tian was their Patriarch, the boss that was the core pillar to their family!

Leng Hanshuang’s cold eyes also showed signs of shock. Her face had a very ugly look on it as a variety of complex thoughts ran through her mind.

Li Xue’er stood there and started smiling. Tears were still gently sliding down her face yet it somehow enhanced her kingdom toppling smile. She was so beautiful at this moment that it could make one suffocate from it!

Chen Tianyao, who had been scared to the point of pissing his pants, seemed to have gone crazy right now. He then angrily looked into the air and scolded: “You damn dog thing, who do you plan on scaring by conjuring these crappy shit? If you have the guts, hack this daddy to death!”

“If you aren’t able to hack this daddy to death, this daddy will make the entire city die without a burial! Hahaha...”

He started laughing out loud in a savage manner.

At the same time...

Chen Tianyao's palms sank down, and all the profound energy within him started surging out. The thick and vigorous profound energy then directly formed a shield that looked like it was made of light.

This was a profound energy shield with an extremely high defense!

As long as he can block this attack, he will instantly rush towards Luo Tian and blow him into smithereens!

Suddenly...

Luo Tian's eyes changed and his smile became a cold chill. "No need to rush, this daddy will give you the ninth form!"

As his voice faded...

Luo Tian's figure suddenly flashed as he leapt into the air. The blade was pulled back behind him as he crazily roared out: "The ninth form, Origin Slash!"

"BOOM~..."

The ninth slash was activated and the other eight slashes started shaking as their powers suddenly doubled.

It was as if the key those eight slashes had been waiting for had finally appeared.

Within a hundred miles of this place, the sky and the earth was enshrouded by these nine slashes. The terrifying power had made everyone's blood run cold!

Those nine slashes had fused into one!

The power of each slash had become twice as strong than their previous state as they started superimposing over each other. If Luo Tian wasn't standing in a safe domain of the Void Piercing Dragon Technique, most likely he wouldn't be able to survive such a powerful pressure.

Moreover...

He was able to continue standing because he couldn't feel pain. But the pain had not disappeared and was only temporarily sealed away.

Piercing the heavens and beheading dragons – this was the mantra of the Void Piercing Dragon Technique!

“Slash!”

Power that went against the heavens crushed down like crazy!

The huge blade qi chopped down towards Chen Tianyao's profound energy shield, and the shield started cracking.

It wasn't able to resist for even a second.

A mixture of piss and shit started leaking down Chen Tianyao's pants leg, clearly showing he had shit his pants from fear.

Afterwards...

A bright light flashed, causing the colors of the world to pale. An unbearable and formidable energy was shot off into a certain direction.

“BOOM~!”

A loud sound was heard and it looked like the nine heavens were all shaking.

The surrounding rubble had turned into layers of powder from being completely shattered.

At the center of the grounds...

Luo Tian had the huge blade rested on his shoulder with a smug look on his face. "Motherf*cker, acting awesome in front of this daddy? Keep up the act and die along with it, hahaha..."

At the grounds where they were fighting, Chen Tianyao's body was nowhere to be found. Not even a single bone could be seen; he was most likely blown into powder.

At the same time...

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing Chen Tianyao. You have gained 30,000 experience points, 3000 profound energy..."

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining a fire attributed demon core."

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian..."

"A demon core with the fire attribute?"

"Isn't this one of the five elemental demon cores needed to undo the ancient scroll? I never expected such a loot to explode out of him, hahaha..." Luo Tian's heart was in ecstasy since he was another step closer to cracking the array.

Wild Blade's weak voice was heard saying: "Don't be so happy yet. The Void Piercing Dragon Technique's rebounding effect will start soon, and it's capable of killing people."

“Brat, you have endure thought it!”

Wild Blade started getting worried.

Since he was worried, that meant this matter was a huge issue.

Luo Tian’s mind tightened.

Within that instant...

“Bang~!”

An acupoint burst open!

“Bang~!”

More of them started bursting apart, “bang~, bang~, bang~...”

All the acupoints in his entire body started bursting apart. Luo Tian looked like the body doubles in movies wearing vests filled with blood, and having a machine gun blast into their bodies with blood exploding everywhere.

In just a mere instant, Luo Tian was enshrouded by a blood mist.

However...

This was not over yet. Apart from his acupoints bursting apart, the countless tendons in his body felt like they were being severed all at once. This kind of pain was worse than death!

The rebound effect was too difficult to endure!

At this moment...

It was as if a grim reaper had arrived!

Chapter 112 – They Are All Shameless!

The stronger the Void Piercing Dragon Technique's powers were displayed, the stronger the rebound effect would become.

Those two conditions were proportional.

Luo Tian's body was already seriously injured prior. Under those conditions, he activated Void Piercing Dragon Technique's most powerful force and smashed Chen Tianyao into fine powder. Now he had to endure the pain that had increased exponentially.

The strongest esoteric of the Wild Blade... was indeed awesome, but it was also very painful.

It was a pain that Luo Tian almost couldn't handle!

But...

He didn't regret it.

Even if he was given countless other chances to revisit his choices, he would still choose the same path.

Chen Tianyao's arrogant stature and the disdain plastered onto all the Azure Cloud Sect members' faces pissed Luo Tian off endlessly.

What he wanted to do was slap these people until the point that their own mother's wouldn't recognize them.

He was now able to accomplish that.

Even though he had to die now, killing Chen Tianyao was similar to giving Azure Cloud Sect a vicious slap to the face. This kind of feeling was simply too awesome to describe!

As the pain kept on multiplying, his life was fading away bit by bit. Luo Tian clenched his teeth and stubbornly held on. He continuously reminded himself: "I cannot die, I cannot die, this daddy absolutely cannot die!"

"I still haven't returned An Chunchun's mother to her, I still haven't beaten Leng Hanshuang's ass to the point of blooming flowers. The most important thing of all – this daddy is still a freaking virgin!"

"You vile heavens, how could you make a cool guy like me die a virgin twice? Your sister! Do you really have the heart to do this?!"

Pain!

An unbearable pain.

Luo Tian's eyes were partially closed while his body was shaking.

Afterwards...

His body started falling to the ground.

The moment he fell, countless Luo family members rushed forth.

At the corner of his eyes, he was able to notice Li Xue'er rushing over with tears. This caused a faint smile to appear on Luo Tian's lips.

This type of rebounding pain was something Wild Blade at his peak powers could barely endure, let alone Luo Tian who was only a Profound Master 6th rank.

"F*ck man, this daddy is about to die!" Luo Tian bitterly smiled in his mind as he gradually fainted. He was going to die soon.

It's unknown if the heavens were moved by Luo Tian, or the heavens really had a sister and that sister didn't have the heart to see Luo Tian die again.

The moment when Luo Tian had one foot into the gates of hell...

The system gave off an alert tone.

"Ding!"

Like the sound of heavenly music...

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing a Scarlet Flamed Wolf. You have gained 200 experience points, 20 profound energy..."

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for leveling up. You have currently at Profound Master 7th rank!"

This voice was simply too beautiful.

So beautiful that Luo Tian almost moaned in orgas...

What does leveling up mean?

Leveling up means all his attributes would instantly be refilled to the brim, just like being resurrected on the spot. Accurately speaking, leveling up was better than being resurrected because his strength would also have increased!

Even if he was on his last breath, as long as the system alert sounded off, Luo Tian will not die. This was the power behind the mysterious system!

Why would his experience suddenly increase?

Before Luo Tian left the Ghostly Mountain Range, he had left behind three puppet soldiers there. The purpose was to prepare a location in the mountain range for the Luo family to hide at.

He never imagined that it was not needed.

Since he was able to kill those two Azure Cloud Sect disciples, Zhu Changfeng, Zhu Yaozong, and over a hundred elite disciples of the Zhu family, his experience bar was close to being full.

Killing Chen Tianyao had instantly given him 30,000 experience points and he only needed a little bit more to level up.

It was at this moment...

A Scarlet Flamed Wolf was sending coal to him during a snowstorm, and was killed by one of his puppet soldiers. That's why Luo Tian was able to level up at such a time.

This was all a coincidence!

Of course...

Luo Tian didn't know that beside him was a fox demon lolita with a max luck stat.

An Chunchun was really powerful, extremely powerful!

Her strength was not about her cultivation level, but pointed towards her special attribute!

It was due to her strong attribute that caused her fox demon clan to experience a clan annihilation! (This is something for the future and will not be talked about yet!)

Having a fire attributed demon core explode from the loot was also her credit!

Luo Tian had revived and the pain in his body had disappeared. But he was still in a strange condition where the body fainted while his mind was awake, and was temporarily unable to wake up his physical body.

Wild Blade was surprised at first, and then started laughing crazily in excitement. His laughter gradually turned softer before disappearing.

Luo Tian didn't plan on bothering him further.

Wild Blade's true energy had been depleted to a scary level. The current him was extremely weak and most likely wouldn't be able to talk anymore.

Wild Blade needed a long amount of time to recover.

Luo Tian made a resolution to himself – until he found all five elemental demon cores, he wouldn't disturb Wild Blade anymore.

He couldn't keep relying on others all the time and needed to take care of things himself!

“Big brother Luo Tian...”

“Boss, boss...”

“Patriarch!”

Like a swarm of bees, the Luo family all rushed up and surrounded the bloody Luo Tian.

Also at this moment...

Liu Chengfeng coldly smiled and waved his right hand. He then lightly said: “Bring that kid’s corpse over to me and kill this crowd of trash!”

His words were like a bolt from a blue sky!

The faces of everyone from the Luo family changed dramatically.

Song Yannan stepped out and said in a tone that was neither humble nor pushy: “Elder, you previously promised our Patriarch that if he won, you would let our Luo family and the people of Jade Mountain City off.”

Liu Chengfeng smiled evilly and said: “Did I say such words? Did I promise that? How come I don’t know anything about it?”

Right after that, he turned around to look at his own people and asked: “Did you all hear me say anything like that?”

“No!”

“You did not promise them anything.”

This Azure Cloud Sect...

The entire Azure Cloud Sect were motherf*cking shameless bastards! They were all f*cking treacherous, despicable and filthy scumbags!

Luo Tian started cursing at them. He wanted to wake up but his physical body was over exhausted so he couldn't!

Song Yannan's face darkened as he said: "You have the status of an Elder in Azure Cloud Sect, so how can you go against your own words? If news of this spreads out, it would definitely affect your reputation negatively, right?"

Liu Chengfeng laughed coldly and said: "How can dead people talk? If they can't talk, how would this be spread out?"

He Changkong was becoming impatient as he stared at Luo Tian's corpse. He then greedily said: "Brother Liu, enough of the bullshit with them. Just directly kill them all so we don't waste anymore of our precious time."

"That sounds good."

"We'll do it according to brother He." Liu Chengfeng faintly smiled.

For people like them, annihilating a clan or a small city was as simple as eating a meal.

Luo Tian was victorious and the Luo family saw hope in that. But that hope only lasted for half a minute before they were plunged into despair. The Luo family had once again entered the depths of misery.

The Azure Cloud Sect disciples began moving forward.

Every one of them had an arrogant sneer on their face.

Song Yannan eyes tightened as he shouted: "All Luo family members listen up! Killing one is one less opponent. Even if we die, we still cannot let them have a good life!"

Feng Lei took a step forward to be at the front and shouted: "Motherf*ckers, come then!"

"Humph!"

He Changkong coldly humphed and said: "Just a mob of useless rabble."

"Attack for me!"

Luo Tian had a Spirit grade protective treasure and a super powerful blade on him, fueling the greed inside of those two. So what if they were going to massacre the entire city?

In just an instant...

A large amount of Azure Cloud Sect disciples started charging.

Feng Lei glared at them with wide eyes. His body started exuding a red bloody glow while he waved the huge tang blade, "Kill!"

The moment when all the Luo family members were about to rush out...

A white figure floated down amongst the crowd.

With a white flash like a Goddess descending from the heavens, Li Xue'er stared coldly while taking out a purple and gold colored jade token.

Everyone from the Azure Cloud Sect immediately stopped as if they had encountered their greatest enemy!

Chapter 113 – Sister-in-law Is So Mighty!

Every large clan or sect will have their own unique looking token.

That token was the symbol of their status.

Yet the Azure Cloud Sect, the overlord in the radius of 100,000 kilometers was not qualified to develop their own unique token.

Because they were not qualified!

Because their rank was not high enough!

But every one of the Azure Cloud Sect members knew about all the unique tokens out there.

The token of the Violet organization was one of them. They were strong, extremely strong, to the point that upon seeing it, the minds of those disciples immediately sank and they didn't dare to move another step forward.

The token in Li Xue'er's hand was too dazzling!

The token was similar to a purple butterfly that exuded a gold and purple light containing a terrifying power. Because of this, all the Azure Cloud Sect disciples immediately stopped their advancement and stared at Li Xue'er with an ugly look on their faces.

"The Violet organization..."

"The Violet organization's jade token!"

“Why would people of the Violet organization appear in such a crappy place?”

“Even if there’s a battle arena belonging to the Violet organization here, we’ve never offended them so why would they suddenly intervene in this?”

Everyone from the Azure Cloud Sect was carefully discussing this amongst them. Their voices stayed low since they didn’t dare to raise them. The reason being that Azure Cloud Sect was less than a fart when compared to the strength of the Violet organization!

People of the Luo family were dumbfounded.

Upon seeing Li Xue’er, she felt her back seemed very large and reliable.

Feng Lei grinned foolishly and shouted: “Sister-in-law is so mighty!”

Right after that, many younger generation of the Luo family also shouted: “Sister-in-law is so mighty!”

Li Xue’er tried to hold it back but couldn’t anymore. Her lips slightly curved into a smile as sweetness oozed from her heart.

Being greeted as sister-in-law by everyone, her heart had already silently acknowledged that position.

Back then whenever she heard those words, she would always pretend to be angry while being secretly happy. Now she didn’t pretend to be angry anymore and truly revealed her happy demeanor.

Li Xue’er recovered her usual look while her eyes carried a strong majestic aura. She glanced at Liu Chengfeng and He Changkong before coldly saying: “Now scam the hell out of Jade Mountain City for me.”

Her majestic and domineering tone brought out her unshakeable intent.

This was the aura of someone with a powerful status!

Liu Chengfeng's face underwent a big change. Looking at Li Xue'er's dazzling token from the Violet organization, his heart secretly felt fear. "What kind of status does this woman have with the Violet organization?"

"Why would people of the Violet organization appear in a place like this?"

He Changkong hiddenly clenched his fists. His eyes couldn't help but drift towards where Luo Tian was lying down and the greed within him became even stronger.

Just a sentence from Li Xue'er and the Azure Cloud Sect disciples started shaking silently. Their eyes all turned towards the two elders for directions.

Liu Chengfeng had a respectful face while saying: "Miss, the Luo family killed people of my Azure Cloud Sect..."

Li Xue'er didn't wait for him to finish as she shouted with a chilled expression: "Do you want your sect to be annihilated?!"

Without bothering with pleasantries!

She directly asked if they wanted their sect annihilated!

What level of awesomeness was this on?!

Not to mention the Azure Cloud Sect disciples being scared, even the Luo family was dumbfounded. They realized this beautiful sister-in-law capable of suffocating others with her beauty, who had always giggled in front of them, who always looked gentle in front of them, would unexpectedly be such an awesome existence. She dared to face the huge entity known as Azure Cloud Sect and ask if they wanted their sect to be annihilated?

Too awesome!

The awesome level of this was a complete mess!

Too powerful!

The blood of the Luo family members started boiling with excitement.

Everyone once again shouted: "Sister-in-law is so mighty!"

In front of the Violet organization, the Azure Cloud Sect was really considered nothing. Having the Azure Cloud Sect annihilated would probably be a very casual matter to them.

Li Xue'er's remark may seem casual on the surface, but she was extremely pissed inside.

She was mad that Leng Hanshuang broke her promise!

She was mad at Azure Cloud Sect's unbridled arrogance!

She was mad that the one she loved was beaten unconscious!

The flames of anger was originally smoldering in her heart about many things. But she felt that there were many beautiful things in this world so she shouldn't dwell on her anger and ruin the good things.

But now, she was really unhappy, to the point it turned into rage!

She didn't know if Luo Tian was going to survive this or not. If he does die, no matter what, no matter if even the Gods appear, it won't stop her from truly annihilating the Azure Cloud Sect!

With his words being interrupted and hearing such overbearing words from Li Xue'er, Liu Chengfeng was extremely unhappy.

As an inner court elder of the Azure Cloud Sect, his powers was enough to the cover the heavens. Who would ever dare to interrupt his words? Who would ever dare to say such tyrannical words to him?

At such a moment...

Liu Chengfeng narrowed his eyes and a trace of cold light briefly flashed in them. He then coldly said: "Aren't you being a bit too overbearing?"

He Changkong walked out and smiled fiercely: "You are alone and your cultivation is nothing but trash in front of us. If you were to die..."

"If everyone in the city dies..."

"Who would know our Azure Cloud Sect was the perpetrator?"

"If you know what's good for you, scam far away or else... heh heh..."

He Changkong started chuckling in an unsightly manner while Liu Chengfeng also started laughing coldly.

A magical treasure at the Spirit grade was something they weren't going to let go of that easily.

It was because of this that they decided to risk it all. As long as they massacred the entire city in a clean fashion, they believed that no one will ever suspect them.

There's a Spirit grade protective treasure involved!

There's also a super strong wild blade!

As long as they gained them, their strength will definitely increase by multiple levels. Anyone would have their hearts moved because their powers might even reach an entirely new realm!

Greed – something that's capable of causing people to lose their ability to make sound judgments.

It could make a person go crazy because of it.

It could definitely make a person's desire to kill skyrocket...

At this moment...

Li Xue'er was in an extremely dangerous position but her expression remained calm without any panic. She coldly smiled and asked: "You want to kill me as well?"

Liu Chengfeng took several steps forward.

These several steps were actually very important.

Because these steps were exactly the distance where he could instantly kill Li Xue'er. Liu Chengfeng was afraid Li Xue'er would try to escape, that's why he went closer several steps. His eyes were staring at Li Xue'er while his lips formed a faint evil smile. "We have no intentions on offending the Violet organization, but if you dare to stop us... heh heh..."

"You are very beautiful..."

"I believe that any man seeing you would be mesmerized by you. That includes me, and the Azure Cloud Sect disciples behind me. If we captured you... heh heh..."

Liu Chengfeng had an evil perverted smile on his face. The Azure Cloud Sect disciples behind him were stunned for a second before they also started revealing perverted smiles.

“Presumptuous!”

A chilled voice shouted.

Leng Hanshuang in a black cloak descended behind Li Xue'er. She then coldly glared: “Are you guys courting death?”

A Profound Spirit 6th rank exuding a chilled aura.

With the appearance of Leng Hanshuang, the surrounding felt like an iceberg had appeared causing the temperature of the immediate area to decrease.

Li Xue'er didn't even give her a glance.

Liu Chengfeng and He Changkong was briefly surprised, but then mockingly smiled: “The people of the Violet organization are too arrogant. A mere Profound Spirit 6th rank dares to act presumptuously in front of us?”

“We're courting death?”

“I think you are the ones courting death!”

As his voice faded...

The wind and clouds underwent an immediate change.

The figures of both He Changkong and Liu Chengfeng instantly disappeared. Power capable of overturning rivers and seas came surging from all directions.

Killing intent rose up and enshrouded both Li Xue'er and Leng Hanshuang!

Extreme danger!

But Li Xue'er still looked very calm without panicking.

Chapter 114 – Because You Guys Acted Against My...

Killing intent was brimming from both elders Liu and He.

Just for a Spirit grade magical treasure, they were willing to risk it all.

They believed that as long as they covered their tracks cleanly, even the Violet organization wouldn't be able to find any clues from their investigations.

That's why they made their move.

Using their lightning fast abilities, what they were planning to do was to make it a quick kill.

They could risk anyone surviving except for Li Xue'er and Leng Hanshuang!

In a blink of an eye...

Leng Hanshuang's gaze sank, and her cold chill lightly dispersed further. Her figure produced a sword from somewhere that blocked in front of Li Xue'er.

"Bang~!"

"Boom~!"

Sparks were seen flashing around in the air. No one could tell who was who while they could only see the blur of figures constantly clashing back and forth. They would repeatedly bounce off each other and collide once again, creating an extremely shocking scene for the viewers.

“Bang~...”

Suddenly...

A dark figure started falling down from the sky.

The figure went straight down before smashing into the ground next to Li Xue'er with a boom. A huge hole was formed and dust showered the area so people were unable to see who it was that fell.

The two other figures landed heavily on the ground with pale faces and some blood at the corner of their mouths.

As the dust began to settle...

Leng Hanshuang's face was very pale and her breathing unsteady. She glanced at Li Xue'er beside her but only saw Li Xue'er's cold look.

Li Xue'er did not even give Leng Hanshuang a single glance!

In regards to this...

Leng Hanshuang felt coldness in her heart, “I have always treated her like my own little sister. Now that I'm injured, she didn't even glance at me. Did I really make a mistake?”

“Did I make a mistake?”

“Can she not understand that everything I’ve done was all for her?”

“Luo Tian is not right for her and will only affect her negatively. He will only become a stumbling block for her in the future. Why... why can she not understand me?”

Leng Hanshuang was defeated!

She was defeated in a miserable manner mentally and seriously wounded physically. For her, an expert at the Profound Spirit 6th rank, being able to perform so well against two Profound Spirit 8th ranks was already a show of her superior battle ability.

Those two Liu and He only suffered light injuries.

The two Elders felt that if they were by themselves, most likely they would not be Leng Hanshuang’s opponent. This made their minds somewhat shocked as they realized the people of the Violet organization were definitely not normal.

Liu Chengfeng noticed the unmoving Li Xue’er and started smiling perversely. “Are you still going to stop us?”

Li Xue’er’s voice was like ice and even firmer than before: “Yes!”

Liu Chengfeng thought this was extremely funny. “A Profound Spirit 6th rank can’t stop us so you think you can take us on? I appreciate your beauty that’s why I haven’t killed you yet. Of course, I’m also doing this for my Azure Cloud Sect disciples and myself. For such a sweet beauty like you is something I have not enjoyed before, hahaha...”

Li Xue’er’s expression remained unchanged as she said: “You have wounded a person from my Violet organization. Since I kind of hate this person today, I won’t blame or ask for compensation from you guys for hurting her. We’ll consider it as a punishment that she deserved. I’m giving you guys one last chance – bring all your people and scram back to Azure Cloud Sect, and never take another step into this city again.”

Her tone was extremely aggressive.

The aura on her body was still like she was above them.

It was still dignified and domineering, completely not placing the Elders Liu and He, or Azure Cloud Sect in her eyes.

This made Liu Chengfeng and He Changkong pissed.

He Changkong frowned and directly said: "Brother Liu, enough of the bullshit with her. If you like her, just directly grab her and go. I will take care of everything else here."

Liu Chengfeng faintly smiled, "This beauty is definitely going to be mine. But the good stuff on this kid, it's best that we each take one."

The two of them looked at each other as if they formed an agreement, and then started laughing out loud.

The moment they were laughing...

Li Xue'er said unhappily: "It looks like you two have already made your choice."

"Very good then!"

"Then your Azure Cloud Sect disciples here, including those guarding the city gates will all have to die."

Her imposing manner could not be shaken!

Liu Chengfeng gave a scoff and shouted: "Little beauty, you think we're that easily scared? Wait until I get rid of this bunch of trash, then I can start giving you some love and tender care, hahaha..."

Before his laughter could fade...

There was a flash in the sky and a crack appeared.

Speaking more accurately, this was sword qi!

An extremely sharp sword qi filled with power beyond words! Just like a bolt of lightning, it contained an inexhaustible amount of power!

Like silence descending...

Right afterwards...

A small line appeared on Liu Chengfeng's neck and some blood started seeping out. He touched the wetness before looking at his fingers.

Suddenly, his eyes widened while he clamped onto his neck.

Blood started spraying out of his mouth and nose but Liu Chengfeng continued clamping onto his neck tightly.

Blood then started gushing out from between the gaps of his fingers. In just a few breaths of time, Liu Chengfeng's body was soaked in his own blood and his face extremely pale.

Finally...

His two hands weakly dropped to the side and his head fell off his body.

His headless body stayed upright for half a second before toppling over.

It was only a single sword strike!

Liu Chengfeng at the Profound Spirit 8th rank had died. This scene was simply like a dream because he didn't know how he died or who initiated the sword strike!

But this dream to him was a dream that showed his death!

Everyone raised their head to look up at the sky. The faces of the Azure Cloud Sect disciples paled, their bodies started shaking and their legs became soft.

Cold sweat started pouring down He Changkong's back. With a pale face, he started sweeping out with his spiritual senses but no matter what, he couldn't detect the other person's aura.

Liu Chengfeng's death was too bloody and terrifying!

But Li Xue'er looked like she was used to this as her expression remained unchanged. She then softly said: "Kill them all, leave no one behind."

Very casual...

A great amount of rage that was ice cold.

Li Xue'er looked like she had become a completely different person.

She was like a demoness that had killed countless people in the past, and was intimidating to the max. However, Feng Lei was grinning foolishly from ear to ear from this.

Out of everyone present, he was the only one that could laugh so happily. He then started shouting: "Sister-in-law is so domineering; sister-in-law is so mighty, hahaha..."

The rest of the Luo family members could only stare at Li Xue'er's back, their eyeballs unmoving and their mouths agape.

As Li Xue'er's voice faded...

He Changkong immediately knelt on the ground and kowtowed: "Please spare this dog life of mine, I don't dare anymore! I will immediately take my disciples to leave Jade Mountain City and will never take another step in here, never ever! A great person is magnanimous so I beg you to spare my life!"

"We beg you, please spare us!"

"It was all Liu Chengfeng's fault and has nothing to do with us."

In an instant...

All the Azure Cloud Sect disciples knelt down and started kowtowing. In Azure Cloud Sect's thousand year history, there has never been a case such as today.

Was this how an overlord in a radius of 100,000 kilometers acted?

We can only say that the Violet organization behind Li Xue'er was simply too powerful.

Greed had overcome their judgment and only now have they awoken from it?

Li Xue'er's expression was still calm and remained unchanged, but her voice became a notch colder as she said: "Did you not hear what I said?"

"Kill them all for me!"

As her voice faded...

He Changkong's complexion darkened. Li Xue'er was only a few meters away from him so as long as he grabbed her; no one would dare to touch him anymore.

He laughed coldly inside his heart. His eyes slightly glanced up before whoosh sound was heard and his body had already pounced forth.

The sword was on a few centimeters away from Li Xue'er's eyes when it abruptly stopped. A thin vertical line with blood seeping out suddenly appeared in-between He Changkong's brows.

He was split into two!

Instantly killed!

Li Xue'er's brows lightly twitched as she faintly said: "Do you know why you have died? Because you guys acted against my man, which has made me extremely unhappy!"

Leng Hanshuang was startled by these words.

The unconscious Luo Tian started smiling like a blooming flower...

Chapter 115 – Murong Wanjian

Li Xue'er was really unhappy!

To the point where she became pissed.

Ever since Luo Tian was bullied by the Azure Cloud Sect, she was unhappy. Then Leng Hanshuang broke her promise made her even more unhappy. Luo Tian being crushed by Chen Tianyao's power made her unhappier, and Liu Chengfeng's sinister and despicable means finally broke the straw.

To her, there were too many things today that made her unhappy.

That's why she became enraged.

But it wasn't obvious when she was enraged since her expression doesn't undergo that much of a change.

This was only the second time in her entire life to become enraged!

The first time was when some people in her family setup a marriage engagement against her will. This made her extremely unhappy so she drew a line between them and intended to ignore them for the rest of her life.

Today was the second time.

Her rage was because of Luo Tian.

Luo Tian was unconscious but his mind was still very clear. Upon hearing Li Xue'er say those words, he was smiling from ear to ear.

He, on the other hand was very happy!

Once He Changkong died, the Azure Cloud Sect disciples immediately ran with their tails behind their legs

Li Xue'er coldly looked at them with an unchanged expression: "Leave no survivors!"

Immediately after...

A burst of sword ringing sounds was heard in the sky.

Right after that...

Countless sword qi's started coming together and spinning like a tornado. It was as if a myriad of sword qi's had decided to fuse into one.

In the center of the countless sword qi's flying around was a rather ordinary looking black sword.

The blade of the sword was covered in rust without any crease lines. The iron sword looked like it had been sealed away for many millenniums and had no sharp edges to it.

However...

When the black sword heard Li Xue'er's command, it rose up higher into the sky and seemed to explode. All those countless sword qi's then shot out like homing missiles.

"Agggghh..."

"Agggghh..."

Mournful screams were continuously heard while blood blossomed into the air. Everyone watching this had fear striking deep into their souls.

After a few minutes...

Hundreds of Azure Cloud Sect disciples all died from those sword qi's. They were crushed in an absolute manner with no ability to retaliate.

After this...

The black sword slowly descended. The moment it landed, a man dressed in a black robe appeared.

He had no aura about him and seemed as cold as iron. It was like he wasn't even human but a sword that had been sealed away for over ten thousand years. There was absolutely no trace of breath coming from this person to show he was alive.

The man in the black robes kneeled down and respectfully said: "Greetings to Miss, Jiannu1 has come late and made you suffer from fright."

Li Xue'er gently supported the man up and faintly smiled. "Uncle Jiannu, you came just in time."

The black robed man stood up and stood next to Li Xue'er in a natural manner. His gaze landed on the pale looking Leng Hanshuang with a weak aura. His eyes didn't show any surprise and his face didn't show any particular expression.

Li Xue'er started walking towards where Luo Tian was before stopping. Her eyes lightly closed while she exhaled a breath of air. Her body loosened up before saying: "Uncle Jiannu, please help big sister Shuang recover."

She finally decided to let it go.

But...

A slight estrangement had already appeared in her heart.

It's possible that their relationship will never be able to become like before.

Leng Hanshuang understood this point as she smiled bitterly inside her heart. She could only sigh helplessly in her heart and say to herself: "Maybe I really shouldn't have done that."

After saying that, Li Xue'er still didn't give Leng Hanshuang a glance and continued walking towards Luo Tian.

Feng Lei was already holding Luo Tian up as he asked in a worried tone: "Sister-in-law, my boss should be okay right?"

All the Luo family members watched as Li Xue'er approached. Their eyes were filled with respect but there was also a trace of fear.

Back then, they knew nothing of the Violet organization, but today they've started understanding it.

Li Xue'er had a solemn look on her face as she carefully examined Luo Tian's body for injuries. She then realized she couldn't find any, and noticed his face was rosy and his heartbeat strong. The thing that made her speechless was... when Li Xue'er placed her right hand on Luo Tian's chest to examine him, his crotch area started rising up!

This...

Li Xue'er's face immediately became red as she softly cursed out: "You stinky rogue."

Her mind did relax though.

Li Xue'er had no idea that all the acupoints in Luo Tian had burst apart. Her current thoughts were that she had no clue why Luo Tian didn't show any heavy injuries which was contrary to what everyone witnessed. This was probably something no one would be able to understand, but she only knew Luo Tian was her big brother Luo Tian.

He was big and strong, and he once said he would marry her. He was the big brother Luo Tian that was going to protect her for the rest of her life.

It was as simple as that.

Li Xue'er's expression went back to normal as she said: "Don't worry; big brother Luo Tian is fine. Most likely he overexerted himself so after resting, he should wake up by himself."

“Oh right...”

“Fatty, carry big brother Luo Tian to my room.”

Feng Lei was surprised and asked: “Sister-in-law, young master has his own room so why am I carrying him to yours?”

“Motherf*cker!”

Luo Tian started cursing up a storm, wishing he could start kicking the fatty’s ass until it bloomed flowers. “Why the hell are you asking so many questions? Stop bothering with my affairs and manage your own shit! Just do as you were told! You damn fatty, wait until this daddy wakes up, I will definitely teach you a good lesson!”

Li Xue’er’s cheeks went red again as she replied: “So that I can take care of him.”

Feng Lei finally came to a realization before smiling in a foolish manner: “I understand.”

After saying that...

Feng Lei easily picked up Luo Tian and started walking towards Li Xue’er’s courtyard.

Luo Tian started imagining some awesome stuff in his mind...

While Li Xue’er was leaving the area, she glanced at the spot where Leng Hanshuang had crashed down. Seeing that Jiannu was no longer around, she mumbled: “I hope you will be okay.”

Late at night, the weather was somewhat cooler.

Lights were brightly lit in the Luo family as everyone was busy with the reconstruction.

There were constantly noble and large families of Jade Mountain City visiting with gifts to show their respects.

Luo Tian's actions were known to all. In order to protect Jade Mountain City, he fought with his life on the line. Even though some didn't appreciate what he did, they still understood that if it weren't for Luo Tian blocking Azure Cloud Sect, most likely Jade Mountain City would have become a city of the dead.

What surprised everyone was...

The Zhou family had quickly packed up and migrated to another place. They were seen rushing out of the city and most likely will never return to Jade Mountain City this lifetime.

When it came to the territories of the Zhou family, Song Yannan had sent out Luo family disciples at the first chance to take them all over, and no one dared to voice their objection!

As for the Zhu family, there was no one left there.

Zhu Mei was planning on running away, but was surrounded by a group of Zhu family disciples and beaten to death.

Her death was extremely tragic.

The Zhu family disciples had beaten her to death because they were clear that if it weren't for this woman, there wouldn't be so much trouble being stirred up. And they wouldn't have to be all exiled and drifting around as vagabonds now.

The current Luo family was undergoing full scale reconstruction.

Because...

Luo Tian was now the absolute overlord of Jade Mountain City, the boss position that no one could shake. As long as Luo Tian doesn't die and the Violet organization stands strong, he will become the overlord for all eternity.

As stars dotted the skies, the area around Li Xue'er's courtyard was very quiet.

Some disciples passing by would even start tiptoeing afraid that they would interfere with Luo Tian's recovery.

In the middle of the courtyard...

Li Xue'er was standing there silently with a serious look on her face.

Standing three meters away from her was someone in white. His face was slightly blurry like an immortal's where people couldn't see through clearly, and his temperament alone would tell people that he was definitely extraordinary.

Murong Wanjian!

The young master of Shattered Sky City, a peerless genius that has never appeared in the human race before, and a man that possessed the blood of the legendary dragons!

The two of them stared at each other.

They were staring at each other for a full hour.

Finally...

Murong Wanjian faintly laughed before taking a step forward.

The moment he took a step forward, Li Xue'er took a single step back maintaining the three meter distance between them.

Murong Wanjian laughed out once again. There was a trace of embarrassment in the laugh and also a trace of anger. He then coldly said: "I want to kill him!"

Chapter 116 – Departure

His voice was extremely cold and filled with killing intent.

Li Xue'er's eyes sank as she stared at Murong Wanjian, "You've already tried killing him once but you didn't succeed."

"It was you who ordered big sister Shuang to not make a move, right?"

Murong Wanjian expression showed hidden shock as he faintly smiled. He didn't deny the accusation and replied: "Xue'er, you are still so intelligent."

Upon hearing the words Xue'er, Li Xue'er's brows lightly frowned and her expression underwent a slight change. All of this was noticed by Murong Wanjian's eyes.

Another strand of fiery rage appeared inside his heart.

Li Xue'er then said: "After all, big sister Shuang is a person of your Shattered Sky City and her heart will always be pointed towards you. Even though I treated her like an elder sister all these years, she still obeyed your words in the end. Inside big sister Shuang's heart, she actually..."

Murong Wanjian didn't wait for Li Xue'er to finish and interrupted: "She is merely a servant of the Shattered Sky City, so she has no rights to do what she wants."

"The moment she was born, her life did not belong to her."

In Murong Wanjian's eyes, Leng Hanshuang was even lower than a servant.

He had already guessed what the rest of the words Li Xue'er was going to say. He felt that if those words were spoken out, it would be considered a great insult to him so that's why he interrupted them.

He possessed an extremely noble bloodline.

He had unmatched wealth, power, and status. Most importantly, he possessed what only existed in legends – a true dragon's bloodline.

He was born with it!

That's why he felt like he was a Monarch that looked down on the entire world.

Ignoring cultivation, the next most important thing in his heart was Li Xue'er in front of him.

Except...

He felt like Li Xue'er was drifting further away from him. Especially because of some kid with the surname Luo in Jade Mountain city; he felt like she was becoming beyond his reach.

This made him extremely unhappy from the bottom of his heart!

This kind of unhappiness was suppressed inside his heart so it didn't show on his face, all because Li Xue'er was present.

Li Xue'er bitterly smiled and shook her head. "I really pity you. Such a beautiful and perfect girl like big sister Shuang and you don't even cherish her properly."

Murong Wanjian was hiddenly annoyed. He thought that if he interrupted Li Xue'er's words, she would stop talking about it yet he didn't imagine she would persist with the topic.

He silently exhaled a breath of air before saying: "Xue'er, I only have eyes for you in my world."

Li Xue'er didn't bother with being tactful and said outright: "I'm sorry, there's no you in my world. My world only has my big brother Luo Tian."

Murong Wanjian's eyes widened.

And an invisible aura surged out of his body! Within the nine heavens, it sounded like a real dragon had suddenly started roaring in the sky!

He was enraged!

Truly enraged!

Just when it seemed like he was about to explode, Murong Wanjian suddenly retrieved his aura and coldly smiled. "Aren't you afraid that I'll kill him?"

Li Xue'er replied: "You won't dare."

"Oh?"

Murong Wanjian felt this was kind of funny and said: "Is there anything in this world that I, Murong Wanjian would not dare to do?"

Li Xue'er said: "This is something you wouldn't dare to."

Her face looked calm with a trace of emotion.

She was actually a bit nervous in her heart, but she was able to cover it up well. Even Murong Wanjian wasn't able to sense it.

Murong Wanjian looked at Li Xue'er without moving.

Li Xue'er also stared back at Murong Wanjian without moving.

A while later...

Li Xue'er's body gently shook, and a magical bird appeared behind her that seemed to be condensed by the stars from the sky – the legendary Phoenix!

The stars started dispersing and Li Xue'er's chest seem to show her breathing quickening.

Murong Wanjian calmly smiled and said: "Xue'er, it looks like your cultivation hasn't improved by much these days."

Li Xue'er didn't respond and only glared at Murong Wanjian.

Another period of time passed...

Murong Wanjian took a step back, turned around, and started walking out the courtyard. He then lightly said: "Follow me back."

Li Xue'er replied: "I will go back, but I will not follow you!"

Murong Wanjian's lips curved into a cold smile before he disappeared in a blink of an eye.

Half an hour later...

Inside Azure Cloud Sect, on top of Azure Cloud Mountain...

Murong Wanjian's eyes were filled with anger. His sword struck out and the entire Azure Cloud Sect was shrouded in a sword qi filled with killing intent.

In a single night, blood flowed like a river in the Azure Cloud Sect.

In a single night, out of a thousand plus Azure Cloud Sect members, not one person survived

In a single night, Murong Wanjian went crazy with rage and massacred everyone like a demon.

On this night, it was the first time he had ever lost all rational thoughts.

At the edge of dawn, Murong Wanjian was sitting on one of the many steps of Azure Cloud Sect. He was surrounded by corpses that had all died by a single sword strike. Murong Wanjian coldly stared at the mix of dark night with the sun's dawning light. He then said to himself: "No one is allowed to act against my woman."

"Luo Tian, I won't kill you this time."

"But the next time we meet will be the date of your death!"

Immediately after...

Azure Cloud Sect's Sovereign was kneeling down in front of him with a huge gaping hole on his chest. He couldn't die in peace and asked: "Why?"

Murong Wanjian coldly glanced at him and said: "Because one of your elders, who deserved his death, spoke rudely to my woman. Because in the radius of 100,000 kilometers, there's only your sect around. And most important of all, this daddy is in a bad mood!"

Jade Mountain City, the Luo family.

Li Xue'er's face was extremely pale. The moment Murong Wanjian disappeared, she almost flopped to the ground like she had been paralyzed.

It was fortunate that she was quickly supported by Jiannu.

The black robed Jiannu softly asked: "Is it worth it to do this for him?"

Li Xue'er had a cheeky grin on her face and replied: "It's worth it."

The black robed Jiannu was about to say something but stopped himself.

Li Xue'er continued smiling: "Uncle Jiannu, when we were four years old, big brother Luo Tian promised to marry me and said he would definitely protect me for the rest of my life. We even pinky swore on it."

"Big brother Luo Tian said he will give me happiness."

"Big brother Luo Tian said as long as he was around, he will never let anyone bully me."

"Big brother Luo Tian said..."

Li Xue'er said many words. The more she spoke, the brighter her smile became. Eventually tears started coming down her face but she bit her own hand in order to not cry out loud.

That soundless yet emotional heart wrenching face she was showing would make anyone feel heart ache upon seeing.

That night...

Luo Tian was lying on the bed while staring at the ceiling. Tears were continuously flowing down the side of his face.

His fists were clenched so hard that his nails stabbed into his palms. Blood started dripping out yet the pain in his heart made him unable to feel any pain from other parts of his body.

That night...

The desire to become strong was the most intense he had ever felt.

Become stronger!

This daddy must become much stronger!

This daddy will definitely beat the shit out of Murong Wanjian. This daddy swears in front of all the Gods and Buddhas in heaven – if I am unable to beat him to the point of looking like a dying dog, my little brother will never stand erect my entire life!

This oath was too poisonous!

Time quietly passed by.

Three days later...

Luo Tian continued pretending to be unconscious because he didn't know how to face Li Xue'er.

Li Xue'er also pretended she didn't notice anything and stayed by his side for three days and three nights. She just kept on talking about what happened back then when they were four years old in the Luo family manor.

She would smile every time she finished talking about a memory. The smile of hers looked like a young girl that was about to marry the man of her dreams.

The days later...

Li Xue'er had to leave.

The moment she left, Luo Tian got out of the bed and secretly ran all the way to the top of the city walls to watch her back fading away.

Unknown when...

Leng Hanshuang had appeared behind him.

This time she wasn't wearing her signature black cloak but wearing a light blue dress. She looked less icy cold and even prettier than usual. Her figure was of course hot beyond comparison!

Leng Hanshuang took out a small person made of mud and said: "This is something the young Miss told me to give you."

Luo Tian took it and smiled. This was something that Li Xue'er had told him it was a present he had given her when they were young – a small mud person.

Leng Hanshuang looked off into the direction of Heavenly Sword City. She started frowning and her expression sank as she said: "Three years later in Shattered Sky City will be young Miss's wedding day with Murong Wanjian."

Luo Tian put away the mud person in a pocket near his heart. He then said in a serious manner: "I will definitely be there to kidnap the bride!"

Leng Hanshuang smiled.

Very beautiful; just like a flower encased in ice.

She then leapt off and rushed to catch up with Li Xue'er's carriage.

Luo Tian loudly laughed: "Next time we meet, I will definitely slap your ass until it blooms flowers!"

Leng Hanshuang suddenly stopped, turned around and looked at Luo Tian on top of the city walls. Her hands were placed at her waist while she perked her two mounds up higher. Those two mounds of hers gently shook while she revealed a charming and sultry smile. "I remember, in bed right? I will be waiting for that day!"

Chapter 117 – Inner Depths Of The Ghostly Mountain Range

"Fatty, I'm giving you ten months to break into the Profound Grandmaster realm. Ten months later, we will meet up at the imperial Heavenly Sword City."

At the city gates.

Luo Tian said this with a serious look in his eyes.

To a martial cultivator, ten months of time was not very long and wanting to gain a few levels in that time was already quite hard. Feng Lei was only at the Profound Master 2nd rank and was considered 108,000 miles away from the Profound Grandmaster realm.

For some martial cultivators, they may not even break through into the Profound Grandmaster realm their entire lives.

The martial path was not something hard work alone was enough. One needed talent and also fortunate encounters to succeed.

Luo Tian wanted to meet up at the imperial Heavenly Sword City in ten months time because he wanted to rescue An Chunchun's mother.

This was an S-rank quest so he had to complete it no matter what.

There was 10,000 favorability points involved!

It's not that he was planning to do whatever he wanted with An Chunchun; Luo Tian was wondering if An Chunchun's mother would... She was nonetheless a matured woman of the fox demon clan, a woman that could take your life in bed.

The perverted evil fire in Luo Tian unconsciously flared up.

Moreover...

Ignoring the fact it was a quest, this was something Luo Tian had promised An Chunchun to her face so he had to accomplish it no matter the difficulty.

Because those two made a pinky promise!

And what did 10,000 favorability points entitled him to exactly?

Was it as simple as looking favorably towards a person?

Luo Tian felt it cannot be as simple as that. He had a feeling that the system's reward seem to be hiding some deeper secret, and it might even trigger some special circumstances.

Feng Lei nodded in a serious manner and replied: "Don't worry boss, I won't let you down. But where are you going boss? Can't I follow you there?"

He had protected Luo Tian since he was born and had never left his side in these dozen plus years.

Those two were even closer than biological brothers!

Luo Tian faintly smiled and said: "I need to find ways to break through and so do you."

Level up!

He urgently wanted to level up! Luo Tian's desire to become stronger had grown even larger!

Three years later, he had to surpass Murong Wanjian! He wanted Murong Wanjian stomped below his foot! This was his oath!

This was Luo Tian's plan even though he had no clue how high Murong Wanjian's cultivation level was.

Feng Lei wanted to argue some more but held himself back. He started grinning foolishly before nodding his head in a serious manner.

He wanted to follow Luo Tian.

But he felt his cultivation wasn't enough to follow in the footsteps of Luo Tian. He had to desperately catch up and maybe step into the Profound Grandmaster 5th rank in ten months time!

Luo Tian crouched down and pinched An Chunchun's exquisite cheeks, "Chunchun, you need to obediently wait here for my return. Once I come back, I will bring you to find your mother."

An Chunchun cutely nodded and said: "Big brother, I will be obedient and await your return."

Luo Tian smiled before turning towards Song Yannan. He brought out a spatial plaque and said: “Elder brother Song, I will place Chunchun and the Luo family in your care. Inside the spatial plaque are some things for the Luo family, so just do what you deem fit with it.”

Song Yannan took it and became shocked when he glanced inside – they were all xuan stones! “Don’t worry; I will take care of everything here.”

After giving out instructions, Luo Tian swept his eyes past the rest of the Luo family in a determined manner. He then turned around strode away without looking back.

He didn’t dare to look back.

He was afraid he would start crying.

Luo Tian was a rather sentimental person at times.

He had already experienced this type of parting before, and it was something very difficult for him to endure.

Of course...

After parting would mean a reunion later.

Time flowed on.

A month had passed by in a blink of an eye.

At the inner depths of the Ghostly Mountain Range, on top of a tree with dense foliage – a pair of eyes that looked similar to a wild beast was staring at a location without blinking.

Silently waiting.

It was similar to how a cheetah would stare quietly at its prey.

Following the line of sight of those eyes, there were two huge demonic beasts battling each other about fifty meters away.

The scene of their battle was extremely cruel.

Those two demonic beasts fighting looked like two wrestlers having a death match, except the strength of them two were probably over ten thousand times more powerful than a typical wrestler.

“BOOM~!”

“BOOM~!”

They had been fighting for over two hours and the sky was about to get dark.

The two demonic beasts were eventually covered in wounds and panting for air. All they could do was stand their ground while glaring at each other.

Demonic beasts and humans were similar on certain aspects.

They both wanted to increase their cultivation, except demonic beasts had to absorb blood essence. In front of Luo Tian were two rank 5 demonic beasts, the kind that relied on pure strength.

Those two demonic beasts were eager to absorb each other's blood essence in order to make a breakthrough.

It was only after battling it out for two hours did they realize that the other wasn't that simple.

Those two demonic beasts couldn't gain any advantages over each other so they didn't dare to continue fighting, because they knew their injuries would only worsen over time.

Even if they managed to kill their opponent, most likely they wouldn't live for long either.

There were simply too many powerful demonic beasts within the inner depths of the Ghostly Mountain Range. Once one become injured, it's highly possible another demonic beast could take advantage of the situation and devour you on the spot.

Seeing that those two had no intentions of continuing to fight, Luo Tian was quite unhappy as he grimaced: "Shit, this sucks! I was hoping to gain some benefits out of this!"

"Oh well."

"You two can die together then."

In a blink of an eye...

His figure blurred before landing heavily in-between the two rank 5 demonic beasts. Each of Luo Tian's hand was pointing at the demonic beasts before he hooked his fingers at them with a sneer: "You two can come at me together."

A human had appeared in the inner depths of the Ghostly Mountain Range?

Seeing Luo Tian's playful expression, those two demonic beasts seemed to have suffered the greatest insult in their entire life. They then both rushed towards Luo Tian like they had gone crazy!

Rank 5 demonic beasts, and there were even two of them!

Ordinary people encountering this would directly piss their pants.

When Luo Tian looked at them...

“Heh heh, this is quite a bit of experience points.”

Luo Tian didn't move.

He stood there without moving at all. His aura had been retrieved back into his body while he didn't make any attempts to guard the incoming attack.

Was he planning to resist them with his physical body alone?

Did he go crazy?

That's right!

Luo Tian was exactly planning on using his physical body alone to resist. Ever since he stepped into the Profound Master 8th rank, he felt that the defense of his body was just too weak.

The best way to cultivate one's physical body was to make their thin thick and their muscles robust.

Luo Tian was using his own body as a sandbag for the demonic beasts to smack around. This type of cultivation was the most direct method, but also the most perverted since it was no different than self abuse.

When talking about the way to cultivate, Luo Tian was completely clueless on it.

He was just a transmigrator that had no idea how people of the Tianxuan Continent cultivated. The only thing he could think of to enhance his physical resistance was to get used to being beaten.

“Bang~!”

“Bang~!”

Two heavy collision sounds landed on Luo Tian’s body.

Luo Tian clenched his teeth as he directly endured it.

Pain, extreme severe pain. But during this pain, he could feel that his body’s resistance to physical attacks seemed to grow a bit stronger. The power in his muscles had also become a little bit stronger.

“F*ck, is this all the strength you guys have?”

“Come again!”

Luo Tian shouted full of disdain.

The two demonic beasts became angrier and their power became more vigorous.

They attacked again, and Luo Tian directly resisted the impact. His legs were shaking and he almost keeled over, but he endured in the end.

“Bang~!”

“Bang~!”

The attacks landed on Luo Tian's body over and over again. He was completely covered in blood and his appearance could be described as beyond recognition. Yet Luo Tian became more and more excited with a ferocious look on his face.

The two demonic beasts started feeling fear.

They've seen perverted things in the past but they have never seen such extreme perverseness like today. Was this guy still considered f*cking human?

"You want to run?"

"If you two run away, what is this daddy going to eat for dinner?" Luo Tian's eyes changed as he shouted in his mind: "Level 2 Berserk!"

"Ommm~..."

His power was like the ocean as it exploded forth!

Chapter 118 – Fallen Into A Nest Of Beauties

Luo Tian's aura underwent a sudden and violent change. Wild Blade appeared in his hand and two consecutive slashes were made.

"Boom~, boom~!"

Two huge heads then fell to the ground – they've died!

Two relaxed sword strikes that resulted in an instant kill!

The one thousand eight hundred jin Blood Devouring Wild Blade was way too sharp! It started drinking the blood of those demonic beasts and began giving off a sword ringing sound.

“Ding! Ding!”

The two system alerts went off at the same time. Luo Tian immediately checked the attributes of the demon core before sighing. “Still no demon cores with special attributes came out. When the hell will I be able to fully gather all the demon cores of the five elements?”

Ever since killing Chen Tianyao who exploded forth a fire attributed demon core, Luo Tian had been killing dozens of rank 5 demonic beasts this past month and still hadn’t found any special attributed demon cores. Let’s not even mention demon cores with one of the five elements.

If he’s unable to gather all five elemental demon cores, that means he won’t be able to crack the ancient scroll’s Universal Array.

If he can’t even solve the Universal Array, how was it to get the ancient magic within it?

“Forget it...”

“I should fill my stomach first before dealing with other stuff.”

Luo Tian sliced off a piece of thigh meat from the demonic beast and started walking into a certain part of the forest.

Not long after...

A series of loud sounds and tremors was heard behind him. A bunch of demonic beasts whose strength wasn’t weak, were all fighting over the two corpses.

One had to always be careful while inside the Ghostly Mountain Range.

Because it was just too dangerous there with so many vicious demonic beasts roaming about. Luo Tian could still easily deal with rank 5 demonic beasts but when he encounters rank 6 ones, that's when he'll be in trouble.

That's why he had left this place in a hurry.

As night fell...

Luo Tian was sitting at the mouth of a cave while grilling meat. He was humming a kid's tune from his previous life: "You are my little barbecue meat..."

Not long after...

Bits of oil from the grilled meat popped while emitting an attractive charred smell. Sprinkling some salt at this time would make the meat fully absorb the flavor, making the taste even more appetizing.

Luo Tian swallowed down his saliva as he mumbled to himself: "Shit man, how come I never realized in my past life that I had such talent with barbecuing meat? This smell is simply irresistible."

After enjoying the smell for a while...

Luo Tian took the rack of meat from the fire and placed it on a large leaf to cool down.

Luo Tian walked out of the cave while undoing his pants. He then looked up into the dark night's sky and howled out: "Motherf*cker, this daddy will one day poke a hole in you!"

His piss was like a rain arrow that shot off quite a far distance.

Luo Tian looked down at his little brother and smiled: "Such a powerful thing."

He pulled up his pants and returned to the cave. Just when he was about to indulge in his grilled meat, he realized the meat was missing from the large leaf.

Luo Tian was startled, "Did I encounter a ghost? I swear I left the meat here."

He carefully searched all over and still didn't find anything. Luo Tian frowned and released his spiritual sense that covered a one kilometer radius. Still nothing.

Luo Tian looked inside the dark cave and mumbled: "This world can't really have ghosts right?"

The cave around him seemed to be artificially made and didn't look like it would go on too deep. Most likely it was a place people had previously made when they explored the Ghostly Mountain Range.

Luo Tian hadn't bothered going inside to check it out so whether it was deep or not was something he didn't know.

As he stared at the gloomy dark cave, he suddenly had a bad feeling in his mind.

Immediately after...

Luo Tian pretended nothing had happened and continued humming his tune and grilling another piece of meat.

Ten minutes later...

Another large piece of grilled meat was finished and this one was even more enticing than the last. Luo Tian didn't walk out this time and started taking a few bites before placing it down.

He then lay down on a large flat rock and closed his eyes pretending to sleep.

Half a minute later...

A slight noise came from the inner reaches of the cave. If it weren't for Luo Tian sending out his senses, his ears would definitely not have heard it.

"Heehee..."

"Another piece of grilled meat; this type of thing is just too delicious."

After saying that, a glance was thrown towards Luo Tian before carefully grabbing the grilled meat about to leave.

Luo Tian was shocked, extremely shocked! Because at the slit of his eyes was a very small person that was only about 30 centimeters tall. Could this be the Gnome race from legends?

The moment his grilled meat was being picked up, Luo Tian suddenly got up and shouted: "You dare to steal my things? You must be tired of living!"

The small person stuck its tongue out at Luo Tian with disdain while holding onto the grilled meat.

Immediately after...

That small person sprinted off into the cave like smoke.

Luo Tian was unhappy.

It's fine that you bastard dare to steal this daddy's food, but you still had to show f*cking disdain to this daddy? How could Luo Tian endure this?

He shot off like an arrow and quickly chased after the Gnome.

What made Luo Tian even more shocked was that this small person's speed was extremely fast. Even after activating Shadewind Steps, he still couldn't catch up with it. Fortunately, the distance between them had not been pulled away too far. Luo Tian could see the faint outline of the small person running like crazy who would occasionally turn its head back to look at him.

What pissed Luo Tian off more was this bastard would still show looks of disdain at him.

"F*ck!"

"Level 2 Berserk!"

"Shadewind Steps, level 2!"

Suddenly...

The aura of Luo Tian underwent an explosive change as he angrily shouted: "You little bastard, you think this daddy can't catch you?!"

Luo Tian's sudden change made the little person shocked. Its eyes were filled with nervousness as it increased its running speed. It was rushing ahead like crazy and not daring to turn back to look at Luo Tian anymore.

Because it realized this human behind it was truly a dangerous existence.

The distance between the two drew closer and Luo Tian started laughing playfully: "Motherf*cker, go ahead and disdain this daddy. Let me see that look of disdain from you again."

He was about to grab a hold of the little person.

Suddenly...

After taking a sharp turn, he encountered lights so brightly lit that it blinded his eyes.

Luo Tian was caught off guard and instinctively used his right arm to block the suddenly bright light. It was also at this moment that the little person suddenly jumped towards the light.

His speed was too quick.

Luo Tian couldn't stop in time. And add the fact his eyes were blinded from the light, his feet felt emptiness below them before his entire person went into a freefall.

"F*ck!"

"I'm screwed!"

At that moment, Luo Tian's mind sank and a thought appeared in his mind: "I've messed up big time."

He had let his guard down and never imagined something like this to appear inside a cave. He also never imagined that there would be such a big hole here.

Luo Tian's body lost its center of gravity as he plummeted down.

As he was falling, that little person started flapping its arm. It... it was flying?!

This...

When were Gnomes capable of flying?

The worst thing about this: The little thing had a cheap expression on its face and like a naughty child; it stuck its tongue out at him. The look it gave Luo Tian was incomparable contempt and like it was gloating at his misfortune.

“Damn you, just wait for this daddy!”

“Ahhhhhhhh...”

Luo Tian was trying to control his center of gravity but found that he couldn't. The speed of his fall was too quick and he couldn't find any places to counteract the speed.

If he had reached the Profound Spirit realm, perhaps he could tread on air to fly.

But he was still at the Profound Master 8th rank, which was over 108,000 miles from it.

“Ahhhhhhhh...”

“People below me watch out because I'm coming down fast!”

“I'm probably going to fall to my death...”

Luo Tian plummeted straight down onto a house. A huge hole exploded from the collision before he heavily smashed into the ground.

His entire body was wracked with pain. Luo Tian started touching some important parts of his body and was secretly relieved. “It's fortunate that I've been training my physical resistance this past month or I would really have fallen to my death.”

Luo Tian started patting off the dust on his body. He sat up and looked around before becoming dumbfounded.

Luo Tian started forcefully rubbing his eyes and said: “I'm must be dreaming. This has to be a dream, illusions, and hallucinations mixed in...”

In front of him were six completely naked women with not a single piece of clothing on them. They were as hot as hot can be, their breasts as plump as plump could be, and their looks was as seductive as seductive could be.

So awesome!

Did he just fall into a nest of beauties?

Chapter 119 – This Guy Is Quite Fierce

How did such happiness arrive so suddenly?

The two lives of being a virgin must have moved the heavens, so they immediately gave him six beautiful sisters?

So awesome! Has my little brother's spring time arrived?

Luo Tian was completely dumbfounded.

These women didn't have a single piece of clothing on them and their figures were in top shape without the slightest flaws. The most important fact was that they weren't of the small Gnome race and was surprisingly not much different than your average human. The only difference Luo Tian could see for now was their pupils were dark blue.

Luo Tian was dumbfounded by those six women and those six women were dumbfounded at the sight of him.

They looked at Luo Tian filled with shock before looking at Luo Tian's crotch area.

Luo Tian's sphincter tightened and his little brother lifted up in a domineering manner. He was thinking to himself: "The eyes of these women look like they want to gang rape me."

“Should I try to resist?”

“Should I do it or not? This is simply too exciting for me.”

Thinking of those thoughts, Luo Tian pretended to reveal a scared look on his face. He then started undoing his shirt and weakly said: “I’ll do it myself. This is my first time so I’m hoping you will all be gentle towards me...”

Finally, he decided to let them know: “I prefer to be on top but if you girls don’t like that, then I can still tolerate being on the bottom.”

To be honest...

When those six naked women stared at his crotch, Luo Tian felt it was truly time for him to take the first step.

He had imagined lots of possible scenes and lots of beginnings.

In other words, he failed to guess his beginnings and never guessed the ending. But he was still looking forward to this because it was f*cking 1 versus 6! Would any of you have dared to believe that?

Those six women were frowning as they stared at Luo Tian’s crotch without moving.

At this time, Luo Tian had already taken off his shirt revealing his strong muscles. Each muscle was defined by clear lines and there were even some scars around his upper body. This made him even more mysterious since it showed that he was someone that had gone through some unpleasant things in life. If his current body was placed in his previous life, most likely it would have already seduced many young girls. But seeing that these women were still staring at his crotch, Luo Tian wondered if he should take off his pants as well.

“Awesome!”

“Becoming naked to face others naked, this was of course the proper etiquette.”

Luo Tian did feel somewhat shy since this was nonetheless his first time.

Of course...

Apart from being a bit shy, he was feeling much more eagerness.

Just as he was about to take his pants off, Luo Tian realized in-between his legs were some white strands that looked like hair.

“What is that?”

Luo Tian grabbed onto the white hair and fiercely pulled.

The expression of the six women underwent a drastic change as if Luo Tian’s actions had affected their nerves. They all had a very nervous look on their faces.

“It didn’t move from my pull?”

Luo Tian shifted his butt and forcefully pulled again. A doll like figure was suddenly pulled out beneath him which startled him. He then mumbled: “The people of this world like to play with western dolls as well? But this doll looks a bit too ugly...”

He turned the body over and observed the nose, the eyes, and noticed the face was filled with wrinkles. Luo Tian felt this doll was quite realistic.

It was at this time...

“Cough... cough... young man, you almost took my life.”

“Oh shit!”

“This doll can speak?!”

Luo Tian’s sphincter tightened as he reflexively threw the doll away.

“Splat~”

The doll landed with its face stuck on the wall, before it slowly slid down.

“How can you do that to granny?!”

“Who are you?!”

“Granny, are you okay?”

The six women glared at Luo Tian angrily before they rushed towards the so called granny.

Luo Tian was dumbstruck as he said to himself: “So that doll was actually a person? F*ck man, I was almost scared half to death! Can a person really have such an ugly face?”

At this time...

The rather ugly looking granny stood up. Her face was filled with anger because no one has ever dared to treat her like this here.

She ran up to Luo Tian and was about to curse him out...

But...

At this moment, her expression changed to look of a devout and sacred follower as she stared at Luo Tian like he was a God.

Luo Tian was currently sitting down cross-legged. His upper body was bare with some scars showing, and there was a big hole right above his head. A light was shining down through that exact hole and right onto his head, making his whole person look extremely sacred. It was like Lord Buddha had appeared and was shrouded by a holy light.

“The prophecy has come true!”

“The prophecy has come true!”

“Hurry, hurry, pay respects to the Immortal!”

The old granny’s voice was trembling and her expression filled with excitement. She once again hurried the women: “Quickly pay respects to the Immortal! He can save you all and he is the only one able to do so...”

The six women were stunned.

Their gaze landed on Luo Tian filled with doubt. One of the women asked: “Granny, are you sure you haven’t made a mistake? How can he be the person mentioned in the prophecy?”

“That’s right.”

“Those frivolous eyes of his depicted the dirty thoughts in his mind, so he definitely cannot be the person mentioned in the prophecy.”

All the women expressed their thoughts that showed they didn’t believe the old granny.

Luo Tian was thinking to himself: “Shit man, what person in the prophecy? What the hell is going on?”

The old granny stared at Luo Tian in a serious manner. She then started reciting something in low whispers before her eyes suddenly widened. “He is definitely the person mentioned in the prophecy.”

“A human that descended from the heavens.”

“His upper body would be bare and he would be enshrouded by light – all of this was mentioned in the prophecy.”

“It is absolutely not wrong. All of you quickly pay respects to the Immortal and beg him to save you.”

The old granny had an extremely serious look on her face.

The six women looked at each other as if they were on the verge of a mental breakdown. They all kneeled down in front of Luo Tian with tears streaming down.

“Immortal, please save us.”

“Immortal, we don’t want to marry the Dark King.”

“Save us Immortal, we will worship you for the rest of our lives.”

Luo Tian was completely and utterly dumbfounded at this point.

His thoughts went on overdrive and wondered if he should act as a swindler?

His left and right arms would be holding women; he’ll then dominate all six of them in a single night and then disappear off into the sunset?

This thought was a bit too shameless but it was truly an awesome idea.

The most important fact was these six women were really beautiful. They were so beautiful that any man seeing them will have their hearts moved.

Luo Tian switched into his superior looking expression, cleared his throat and then said: "Slowly explain the situation to me first. This Immortal will definitely help you escape the misery you are in."

Once Luo Tian said that, the old granny started getting excited.

She immediately kneeled down and explained: "Immortal, the Dark King from the Corpse City has occupied our lands, seized our men, and now wants to capture the women of our race. We request that Immortal kill the Dark King and save these girls."

"Dark King?"

"His name sounds over exaggerated; is he very strong?" Luo Tian casually asked.

The old granny replied: "In front of Immortal, he is considered nothing. You only have to wiggle your finger and you'll be able to kill him."

Luo Tian became happy as he said to himself: "So he's that weak!"

Suddenly...

A robust voice was heard outside of the house.

Two burly guys with big ears and thick bushy eyebrows walked in holding long blades. Their eyes showed they wanted to cause trouble and their image was quite tough looking. One of them coldly harrumphed: "Who was it that dared to say bad things about the Dark King?"

Immediately after...

One of them glanced at the six naked women and started smiling perversely. He grabbed his crotch in front of the six women and started rubbing it in an obscene manner.

Luo Tian stared with wide eyes and mouth agape. He then mumbled: "This guy is going to masturbate out in the open? So fierce!"

As his faint voice faded, the eyes of the two burly guys dimmed and a thick murderous aura slowly rose out of their bodies.

Chapter 120 – Realm Of The Dead?

Murderous aura; thick and sinister murderous aura.

This type of killing intent was filled with a death like aura and was something only a corpse would exude.

The long blade pointed directly at Luo Tian's nose as the burly guy cursed: "Who is this damn dog thing?!"

"This is perfect!"

"Sorceress, you told our Lord Commander that you were undergoing some type of ritual. Never would I have imagined that a man would be a part of it. This daddy thinks that you must be tired of living!"

After saying that...

The other burly guy glared and angrily shouted: "Sorceress, what the Corpse City's Dark King wants are virgins. You think by having a guy break their hymen will allow them to escape their fate?"

“Bao San, we’ll first check these women to see if they’re still virgins, then we’ll take care of them all at once later.”

“Good idea.”

The two burly guys looked at each other and chuckled perversely.

One of them grabbed one of the woman’s hair and dragged her off to the side. He then started groping her breast and roughly kneaded them. His actions were very rough, his saliva dripping from his chin, and his expression extremely obscene. The image of the burly guy was as disgusting as one could imagine.

The woman’s face paled with tears coming down as she allowed the burly guy to roughly molest her however he wanted.

So pitiful.

This pitifulness was beyond words.

The burly guy didn’t stop after grabbing her all over. He swung his hand and slapped the woman’s butt with a “pak” sound. He then chuckled perversely: “Her little ass is quite bouncy.”

“F*cking hell, open up your legs up for this daddy. This daddy needs to examine it carefully.”

After saying that...

The burly guy grabbed the woman’s thigh and forcefully pulled it apart. His grip directly bruised the woman’s thigh before his eyes directly stared at her private area.

The woman struggled to close her legs while her whole body was shaking. She was biting her lips while shaking her head to break free. She then looked over at Luo Tian with a pleading look.

The other five women were shivering with pale faces. No one dared to step forward to help.

One can imagine that this type of scene was something they had encountered all the time.

What kind of motherf*cking place was this?!

Luo Tian had lost all perverted desires in his mind. He got up and walked towards the woman. Looking at the burly guy who was still chuckling perversely, the monstrous killing intent inside him started surging out!

The other burly guy angrily shouted: "Damn dog thing, what are you trying to do?"

Luo Tian revealed a grin like a grim reaper. He then coldly replied: "Nothing much, I just want you two to die!"

Once the word die was heard...

In an instant, all the power Luo Tian had exploded out. His clenched his fists and shouted: "Level 2 Berserk!"

"Ommm~..."

Luo Tian looked up showing his eyes filled with killing intent. His fists started glowing red as he shouted: "Magma Fire!"

His fists turned fiery red and magma started dripping off it with "plop plop" sounds

A punch then smashed out!

The burly guy's expression underwent drastic changes as his blade slashed out. He then cursed: "This daddy thinks you must be tired of living!"

Luo Tian didn't hesitate at all and his fist directly smashed against the long blade.

"Sizzle~..."

The long blade struck upon Luo Tian's fist. The long blade didn't manage to cut into his fist and in less than half a breath, white mist was seen rising up.

The blade was directly melted!

The burly guy became dumbfounded and his legs started shaking. He then shouted: "What kind of demonic skill did you use?!"

"This daddy will demonic your sister!"

"Die for me!"

A strike at full strength directly penetrated the burly guy's chest. A hole the size of a fist was then seen, creating a rather horrifying image.

But...

The system didn't give any alerts which meant the burly guy hadn't died yet!

A fist that has already penetrated his chest yet he didn't die?

Could he be not human?

Not only was he still alive, the guy was still alive and kicking and looked like he didn't feel any injuries at all. How was it possible that not a single bit of blood came out of his wound?

Not even Gods were capable of this, right?

He even f*cking said this daddy was using some demonic skills? You're the f*cking one using demonic skills!

In a split second, the burly guy started laughing before throwing a punch towards Luo Tian's chest. "The Dark King has bestowed to me an immortal body! A mere human like you wants to kill me? Hahaha..."

A punch that was supposed to kill the burly guy yet didn't kill him.

Luo Tian was caught off guard by this as he received a punch by the burly guy.

The power behind it wasn't strong, but the moment the fist made contact, Luo Tian could feel a brutal deathly aura along with it. It was very similar to the time when he encountered the Thousand Year Zombie King in the Ghostly Mountain Range.

Except...

The death aura from the burly guy's fist couldn't be compared to the Thousand Year Zombie King.

"Bang~!"

Luo Tian's chest withstood the blow but the black death aura started spreading about. Traces of black hair like substance started diving into the surface of his skin.

"Oh shit!"

Luo Tian's mind turn grim and the killing intent demon core in his sea of consciousness started working. It began to kill the invading death aura like crazy.

Within an instant...

A sheen of cold sweat covered Luo Tian's back. He originally thought the burly guy's cultivation level was no big deal so his guard was lowered. Luo Tian never imagined his attack would actually contain such a weird energy.

His killing intent completely wiped out the death aura.

Luo Tian's brows sank as he sneered: "This daddy wants to see if you are really immortal!"

"Level 2 Berserk!"

"Magma Fire!"

His fists lowered, and a thick steam started rising out from his magma covered fists. Luo Tian then shouted: "Shadewind Steps!"

"Whoosh~"

His figure was lightning fast and almost instantly arrived in front of the burly guy.

A flash of brilliance appeared in the burly guy's eyes as he started laughing out loud. "You cannot kill this daddy because I am immortal, hahaha..."

"Keep laughing motherf*cker!"

A punch directly smashed into the burly guy's mouth.

And came out the side!

One side of his head was sent flying off somewhere yet the burly guy was still standing upright. His eyes were still blinking and half his mouth was still moving as if he was still laughing.

Suddenly...

Fiery rage started burning inside Luo Tian's heart. He then performed a kick towards the other portion of the head as he coldly said: "Are you dead yet?"

The rest of the head exploded, and the body toppled over.

At this moment...

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing Bao San. You have gained 2000 experience points, 300 profound energy..."

"Ptui~!"

Luo Tian spat at Bao San's corpse as he said in disdain: "You damn piece of cheap trash, immortal huh? Let's see you not die for this daddy now."

Glancing at the system messages...

Luo Tian thought to himself: "Shit man, that's a lot of experience points. If these types of weak mobs have 2000 experience each, it would be great if more of them came..."

"Eh?"

"How come there weren't any undefeated values?"

Luo Tian was surprised by this. Based on the system's usual rule, every person he kills should increase the undefeated value by one point. Bao San was definitely killed by him yet there was no system message showing any undefeated value increasing. Could it be that guy really wasn't human?

While Luo Tian was trying to figure out this question...

The other burly guy angrily chopped down with his blade.

Luo Tian sneered and coldly harrumphed: "Courting death!"

His body lightly shifted to the side.

After dodging the blade, Luo Tian flipped his palm and quickly struck the guy at the center of his brows.

"Bang~!"

The guy flew off, and the sound of stone striking the ground was heard. Then... then there was nothing else.

Another "ding" sound was heard in Luo Tian's mind.

Luo Tian said to himself: "Sure enough, these people seem to have something inside their head. Most likely these guys are already dead, so if that's the case, then..."

"Shit, what kind of world is this?"

"Is this the realm of the dead?"
