Chapter 1171: Follow Me From Now On

Holy Soul Village?!

Tang San?!

The protagonist Tang San from Douluo Dalu?

Luo Tian was incredibly shocked, thinking he had misheard. He asked again, "What's your name?"

The youth still calmly replied, "Tang San."

Luo Tian asked further, "Which Tang, and which San?"

The youth felt Luo Tian was a bit strange, but still answered, "The Tang of the Tang Dynasty, the San of one, two, three!"

This time, Luo Tian heard it very clearly.

Extremely clear.

Moreover, judging by Tang San's appearance, he had just transmigrated over. Otherwise, he wouldn't be in Holy Soul Village. Luo Tian was so excited that it couldn't be described with words. He took a step forward, grabbed Tang San's hand, and wouldn't let go, acting like he had found a treasure.

He had indeed found a treasure.

The appearance of Lin Dong, the protagonist of the first novel, Wu Dong Qian Kun, meant that other protagonists from other novels would also appear. These protagonists were all incredibly powerful! What genius are you? A super genius? In front of them, you are simply incomparable!

Tang San! The protagonist of Douluo Dalu!

At this moment, Luo Tian didn't have the slightest doubt. He had always wanted to create a transcendent force. If this force was composed of all sorts of novel protagonists, then how awesome would his force be?

Just thinking about it made Luo Tian's blood boil. His little heart almost couldn't handle it!

The level one system inside him had martial skills from the protagonists of novels.

The level two system gave him transformation cards and urban novel abilities. Could it be that this was a hidden perk from the system, to give him actual novel protagonists?

Luo Tian couldn't help thinking about these things because if Lin Dong's appearance was a coincidence, then Tang San's appearance was definitely not a coincidence. Besides, there was no such thing as a coincidence in this world.

When Tang San's hands were grabbed by Luo Tian, he could only see a wretched smile on Luo Tian's face. He couldn't help thinking to himself, "Oh crap, is this guy gay?"

Tang San immediately felt a chill in his heart, with goosebumps growing all over his body. He forcefully pulled his hands away, stepped back, and asked, "Who are you? I don't seem to know you, do I?"

He increasingly felt that Luo Tian didn't seem like a normal person.

Who would grab another man's hand and not let go if they were normal?

Luo Tian's smile looked very perverted as he said, "Who I am isn't important. What's important is that I know who you are."

Tang San was stunned momentarily before saying, "Didn't I just tell you who I was? How would you know who I am if I didn't tell you? If you're not here to have any tools made, please leave. I need to work."

The drunken old man also said, "If you're not buying anything, then get out of here. Don't interfere with my business."

Luo Tian didn't leave, but smiled mysteriously and said, "Your name is Tang San, and you don't belong to this world. You're a disciple of the Tang Sect from Sichuan... Is that enough? If not, I can keep going."

This time it was Tang San's turn to be dumbfounded.

His eyes were fixed on Luo Tian while he shook his head, "Impossible... impossible... Absolutely impossible. How do you know? You couldn't possibly know. You weren't there at the time, and even if you were, you couldn't have come to this world with me."

He was very shocked.

On the surface, Luo Tian was excited, but in his heart, he was also feeling shocked. Unlike Lin Dong, Tang San clearly remembered his past. And according to what was written in Douluo Dalu, he shouldn't have transmigrated to the Ancient World but to another world.

Luo Tian couldn't figure out the reason.

But some things simply didn't have answers, just like the system in his body. How and why did it appear?

Luo Tian couldn't figure out this problem even if he racked his brains.

With so many problems, Luo Tian wouldn't be bothered to think too much about it. As long as the Tang San in front of him was the Tang San from Douluo Dalu, knowing that was enough. Immediately after, Luo Tian said with a smile, "I just know. Are you going to follow me or not?"

Before Tang San could speak, the old man beside him said, "Who are you? You're just a kid, and you want him to follow you? Follow you to do what? If you dare to fool my San'er again, I'll break your dog legs!"

Tang San didn't speak but looked at Luo Tian.

Luo Tian was also looking at him before releasing his aura of the Martial Void realm. Divine Explosion, along with the Nine Yang Divine Magic was activated, instantly stirring up gusts of powerful wind.

Luo Tian said seriously, "I know what you're thinking in your heart, and I also know that you're not willing to stay in this small village for your whole life. Follow me, and I'll lead you to the peak of martial arts, standing at the very top of this world."

Tang San was silent in thought.

He didn't know who Luo Tian was, and he didn't know how he knew that he was a transmigrator.

But he had an intuition that Luo Tian wouldn't harm him.

Also, he had a strong premonition in his heart that he should follow Luo Tian. Follow him out of this small village to see the powerhouses of this world, and also to make himself stronger.

After a moment of silence, Tang San glanced at the old man beside him.

Luo Tian took out a large bag of xuan coins and said, "These xuan coins are enough for your father to live a lifetime, and you can come back to see him in the future."

The old man took the xuan coins, and his expression changed a hundred and eighty degrees. He was smiling and said, "San'er, he is definitely a good person. You won't go wrong following him. You'll definitely be eating and drinking well in the future."

As he spoke, he was counting the money as if he had just sold off his son for a good deal.

In fact, he knew better than anyone that this small village couldn't keep Tang San. Rather than letting him leave reluctantly, it was better to let him leave more openly, without any worries. Tang Sang could then be more focused and dedicated to cultivation.

Tang San breathed out a sigh of relief before nodding, "Okay, I'll go with you."

"Awesome!" Luo Tian exclaimed in his heart.

He never imagined that he would encounter Tang San from Douluo Dalu, and even more so that he would follow him. Lin Dong followed him, Tang San followed him, and in the future, all the awesome protagonists in those novels would follow him. How cool would he be at that time?

“Hahaha...”

“Hahaha...”

Luo Tian couldn't help laughing internally, his expression exposing his excitement.

Right after that, Luo Tian said, “I have one condition if you come with me.”

Tang San asked, “What condition?”

Luo Tian wore a very serious expression before saying, “The condition is that from today onwards, you have to call me boss. And from today onwards, you, Tang San, are my, Luo Tian's, brother in life and death. I will do everything I can to help you quickly break through and become a peak powerhouse in this world.”

Tang San frowned slightly before saying, “You are older than me, so you should be considered my older brother. Calling you boss is okay, but it's a bit...”

It had a bit of a gangster vibe.

Like the triads of the underworld.

It also seemed a bit low-class.

Luo Tian couldn't care less. To have a protagonist of a novel call him "boss" was a cool thing. So what if he was low-class? When Tang San and Lin Dong grow up, they will be enough to shake the entire Ancient World!

Chapter 1172: You're Supposed To Give Me a Quest

Luo Tian smiled and said, "Let me hear you call me Boss!"

Since he had agreed, Tang San didn't hesitate much and respectfully said, "Boss."

"Hahaha..."

"Awesome!"

Being called "Boss" by Tang San made Luo Tian as happy as a child celebrating the New Year.

He looked like a country bumpkin who had just turned nouveau riche.

Of course, he never cared about how others saw him. It was enough for him as long as it felt good. Being called “Boss” by Tang San was something he had never dreamed of, and now that it had come true, shouldn’t he laugh with joy?

At this time...

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for recruiting Tang San. You have received 50,000 experience points, 5000 yuan energy...”

The system suddenly gave off an alert.

Luo Tian was now 100% certain that the Tang San in front of him was the Tang San from Douluo Dalu. He felt more and more happy inside and said out loud, “Good! From today onwards, you are my, Luo Tian’s, brother in life and death!”

Tang San smiled and didn’t say anything.

Luo Tian looked at the sky and said, “It’s still early. Whatever you can’t let go, just tell me and I will definitely help you do it. That way, you can go to Misty Cloud City with me without worries.”

Logically speaking, there should be some sort of quest at this time.

Just like when he met Lin Dong, there would definitely be a quest. Even though the system had already given an alert and given him experience points, that didn't prevent a quest from triggering. It was just that he hadn't touched upon the key yet.

Tang San's brow furrowed as he looked at the mountains in the distance.

The old man sighed softly and said, "San'er, don't worry about the village's affairs. We won't die. You should just follow this good sir."

When Luo Tian heard this, he felt a tightening in his heart. He became more and more certain that there was definitely a quest in this village. And judging by the looks of it, the quest rank wasn't low. He immediately said, "Old man, tell me what difficulties you have, and I will do everything I can to help you. That way, Tang San can leave without worry."

The old man lowered his head and didn't say anything.

Tang San looked at the mountains in the distance with a hint of hatred in his eyes. Under his sleeves, his fists were clenched so tight that cracking sounds could be heard.

Luo Tian looked at Tang San and said, "Do you take me as your boss? If you really take me as your boss, then tell me what's going on. If you just think that following me will get you out of these mountains, then pretend that I didn't say any of those things earlier."

After saying that, Luo Tian turned around to leave without the slightest hesitation.

The moment Luo Tian took his first step, Tang San suddenly said, "Can you really help us?"

Luo Tian's mouth curved into a faint smile. He turned around with a serious expression and said, "How would I know if I can help if you don't tell me? Even if I can't help, I will do everything I can to try. Just because you are my, Luo Tian's, brother. If my brother is in trouble, and I, as the boss, can't help you solve it, then what kind of boss am I?"

A trace of emotion appeared in Tang San's eyes.

Just as he was about to speak, the old man shook his head and said, "Don't say it. Don't say it..."

Tang San's brow furrowed as if he was trying to make an important decision.

Before he came to a decision, a series of loud noises were heard at the village entrance. A thick aura of bandits permeated the air, along with a strong surge of killing intent.

"Everyone who isn't dead, scram out here!"

"If you don't scram out here this instant, I'll send you to the Western Paradise one by one!"

“Hurry up! Hurry up!”

“Today is the day for you to pay tribute! If there’s too little, I’ll have to kill someone!”

Eight large and strong men gathered at the village entrance.

Each large man carried a machete on his shoulder and rode a black horse. Each horse flickered with strange auras similar to demonic beasts. But they weren’t quite demonic beasts, more like they carried a demonic nature.

As soon as the words fell, the village became chaotic with chickens flying and dogs jumping.

Right after that, the old man’s drunken demeanor quickly sobered up. He grabbed the large bag of xuan coins that Luo Tian had just given him and hurried out.

Tang San tried to stop him, but couldn’t.

“They’re here again!”

“They’re here again!”

Extremely hateful individuals.

Luo Tian asked again, "Who are they?"

In this remote wilderness, could there really be bandits? What could there be of value in this godforsaken place? What bandit leader would gain wealth in this kind of place?

Luo Tian couldn't figure it out.

He was waiting for Tang San's answer and was hiding his anxiety. If Tang San hadn't spoken and didn't ask him, then the quest he wanted wouldn't appear. He couldn't help but urge, "You can tell me anything."

However, Tang San still didn't say anything. He walked out and looked back at Luo Tian before saying, "You want to know what kind of difficulties we have, right? Come with me and see, and you'll know."

At the village entrance, more than a hundred people from the entire village were kneeling on the ground with heads bowed and bodies shivering. They didn't even dare to breathe loudly, afraid of disturbing the eight fierce, demon-like large men in front of them.

"Is that all?"

“It seems like it’s a big difference from the amount I was told.” The leader said with an unhappy expression.

He moved his horse knife and placed it directly on the old village chief’s neck. He smiled coldly and said, “I think you’re tired of living!”

“N...no, no, I wouldn’t dare!”

“Sir, we really can’t come up with that much!”

“Sir, please be kind and put in a good word with Earth Dragon King. Could you possibly...”

Before the old village chief could finish speaking, the large man withdrew his knife in one fell swoop and decapitated the old village chief’s head.

Only then did he say with a smile, “No!”

Right after that, the large man pointed the bloody knife at the person in the front and said, “From today on, you are the new village chief. If it’s like this again next month, your head will be relocated as well. Hahaha...”

The strong men around him all laughed loudly in unison.

The large man stopped laughing and asked, "Where is the other girl? Why haven't I seen her?"

Everyone kneeling on the ground trembled even more.

At this time, a girl of seven or eight years old burst into tears in her mother's arms in fear. "Mommy, I'm scared! Qin'er is so scared! Mommy, Mommy, don't hand me over! Don't hand Qin'er over..."

The large man's mouth curved into a hideous-looking smile. He stomped heavily with both feet and directly flew into the air, instantly landing beside the woman. He then grabbed her and lifted her into the air. He stared at the little girl holding her hand and smiled gently, "Don't be afraid, little girl. Uncle will give you something good to eat."

As he spoke, he took out a piece of candy from his pocket.

The little girl shook her head crying, not daring to take it. Seeing her mother being lifted into the air, she was even more frightened and turned pale. She shook the large man's leg and said, "Let go of my mommy, let go of my mommy!"

"Qin'er, quickly run!" The woman shouted anxiously.

The little girl saw that the large man wouldn't let go, so she bit him on the thigh.

“Agghhh~!”

“You damn dog thing dare to bite me?! The large man shouted. He then kicked the girl and sent her flying.

At the same time, Tang San leaped up and caught the little girl.

The large man was briefly stunned before glaring, “It’s you again, you damn brat!”

Chapter 1173: Being Arrogant Will Be The Death Of You

“You like to meddle in other people’s business, right?”

“I want to see how much ability you have!”

As soon as his words faded, the large man threw the woman he was holding into the air. He then looked at Tang San in the distance and sneered, “Let’s see how you’re going to catch her!”

The large man stomped his right foot, rose up from the ground, and flew into the air. The warhorse knife in his hand flashed a cold, icy light. He heavily slashed down towards the woman’s waist, where it would definitely split her body in two.

The woman looked like she was destined to die!

The little girl cried out with all her might, "Mommy!"

Tang San's face turned anxious.

The distance was too far, so he couldn't possibly reach them.

Even if he could reach them, how could he be a match for the large man when his cultivation base was still in the Spirit Martial realm?

At this moment, Luo Tian walked over to his side and asked, "Do you need my help?"

Tang San looked at Luo Tian and immediately replied, "Boss!"

Just the word 'Boss' was enough. Luo Tian smiled slightly, not needing to ask for anything more. Moreover, what the large man in front of him was doing had already touched his bottom line. Even if Tang San didn't ask, he would still save the woman.

What he hated the most was the strong bullying the weak.

What's more, bullying women and children was even more disgusting.

Just as the large man's warhorse knife was half a centimeter away from the woman's body, Luo Tian's figure suddenly disappeared.

"Aghhhh~!"

A hoarse scream rang out in the sky, and the crowd of villagers didn't dare to look.

Right after that, a figure flew out a hundred meters or so, stopping only when it crashed into a large tree at the village entrance.

At that moment, the woman landed safely on the ground.

The little girl quickly rushed over and threw herself into the woman's arms.

The large man slid down the tree with a swollen and red face. He hadn't even seen clearly before he was slapped in the face, which knocked out his front teeth. Anger soared in his heart. He got up from the ground and shouted, "Which bastard dared to ambush this great lord?! Do you not want to live anymore?!"

"You still dare to act arrogant in front of me?!"

As the voice faded, the large man's pupils contracted before a dark shadow appeared in front of him. Then, a strong pain assaulted his chest. He looked down and saw a palm pressed against it. At this time, he finally saw Luo Tian clearly and spat out a mouthful of black blood. He stuttered, "You... you... Do you know who I am? You dare to hurt me... My... my... My master won't let you... let you go."

Luo Tian's brow furrowed, and a strand of extreme yang energy from the Nine Yang Divine Magic surged into his palm.

"Boom~!"

The large man's body spontaneously combusted.

In just a brief moment, his body burned into a pile of ashes.

Luo Tian turned to look at the other seven large men riding the black horses. He smiled gently, and asked, "What did he say just now? Your master won't let me go? I would like to ask who your master is?"

The seven men's expressions darkened.

They didn't seem afraid while staring at Luo Tian.

Even though Luo Tian had released a powerful force to kill their leader, they still didn't have a trace of fear.

Luo Tian knew this from their eyes.

They weren't afraid because they must have a powerful backer!

One of the large men sneered and said, "You dare to interfere in our affairs when you don't even know who Earth Dragon King is? No matter who you are, no matter what kind of background you have, you are already a dead man!"

Arrogant!

Extremely arrogant!

Luo Tian chuckled before saying, "I'm a dead man? I'm going to be killed by your so-called Earth Dragon King?"

"Kid, you think you're so great just because you can kill him?"

"We are just the weakest martial artists under his command. Of course, even if we are weak, it's not up to outsiders to bully us. You just wait. In less than three days, you will disappear from this world."

After saying that, the large man said, "Let's go!"

At this moment, Luo Tian smiled coldly and said, "Go? Go where? Did I allow you to leave?"

The large man was stunned while his brow furrowed. He then shouted angrily, "Kid, do you know who you're talking to?! If you dare to say half a word more..."

Before he could finish speaking, Luo Tian's body transformed into a blur. His five fingers formed a claw, directly tearing off the head of the large man who was speaking. Blood spurted out, and he said coldly, "What I hate the most are people showing off in front of me!"

"You..."

"You're courting death!"

"You're dead!"

The remaining six large men were all shocked.

But there was no fear in their eyes. Instead, they stared at Luo Tian as if he should be the one afraid.

Luo Tian didn't give them any chance, and said, "None of you are leaving!"

As his voice faded, Luo Tian erupted with the cultivation of the Martial Void realm. His figure flickered continuously, and he directly separated the heads of the six people from their bodies. Just like the large man who had decapitated the old village chief at the beginning, Luo Tian killed them in the same manner.

The bodies of the six men fell from their horses.

They were no match for Luo Tian at all.

These people's cultivation bases were at most in the Condensation Element realm. With just that little bit of strength, they dared to come out and be bandits? They were truly disgracing the occupation of bandits!

Luo Tian threw down the heads and walked in front of the villagers, saying to himself, "There should be applause at this time, right?"

At this moment, those six somewhat strange black horses neighed in unison and then galloped into the distance like black lightning.

Luo Tian was a bit surprised as he commented, "They run pretty fast!"

“Get out of here!”

“Scram as far as you can! Never appear in our Holy Soul Village again!” Shouted the new village chief who had been appointed by the large man.

He was staring at Luo Tian as if he were looking at an enemy, or like Luo Tian had dug up his family’s ancestral grave.

Luo Tian was stunned, and a little confused. He then looked at Tang San.

Tang San walked out from the crowd, stood beside Luo Tian, and said, “Fellow villagers, you have all seen my boss’s cultivation base. If he can easily kill these bandits, then he definitely has the strength to deal with Earth Dragon King. We...”

Before Tang San could finish speaking, the new village chief said, “Tang San, you know how powerful Earth Dragon King is. Your boss might be strong, but even if an even stronger expert came, they wouldn’t be able to deal with Earth Dragon King. Moreover, the Black Demonic Horses have already run back. If he’s still in our Holy Soul Village, our entire village will be harmed by him. Sir, I don’t care how strong you are. The affairs of Holy Soul Village don’t need you to worry about, so get out of our village.”

His tone was full of anger.

Luo Tian couldn’t understand what was going on.

But after thinking for a bit, the answer immediately came to him. He couldn't help but smile in his heart and said, "A cliché plot from the movies."

Immediately after, he looked at Tang San and asked, "Do you want to stand up for your fellow villagers?"

Tang San was momentarily stunned before looking at his angry fellow villagers, including his father. Because of Luo Tian's appearance, Holy Soul Village had plunged into an extremely dangerous situation. If it couldn't be resolved at this time, then the consequences...

After a few seconds of silence, Tang San nodded and said, "I do! Boss, please help me!"

"Ding!"

Luo Tian smiled before saying to himself, "Fucking hell, the quest has finally been triggered!"

Chapter 1174: Blank

It's impossible for there to be no quests!

From the beginning, Luo Tian knew there would definitely be a quest involved. It was just that the conditions hadn't been met yet.

An alert tone sounded off in his mind.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for triggering the quest: Save Holy Soul Village!”

“Quest Grade: S”

“Quest Objective: Kill Earth Dragon King”

“Quest Time Limit: Three days”

“Quest Reward: One million experience points, 100,000 yuan energy, and a random permanent transformation card!”

“Huh?”

The moment the system alerts stopped, Luo Tian was slightly surprised. He couldn't help but say to himself, “That's all for the rewards? Isn't there some kind of artifact? Last time it was the Heaven Sword. This time, you should at least give me a Dragon Slaying Saber or something, right?”

Apart from a permanent transformation card, there were no other item rewards. There were a few fewer rewards than when he subdued Lin Dong last time.

However, Luo Tian didn't take it to heart. After all, it was useless to complain. The system wouldn't make changes for you. A system was a programmed system, and it would not change for a user complaining.

The most pressing matter now was to kill that Earth Dragon King and go to Misty Cloud City to reunite with Bai Xiong, Lin Dong, and the others as soon as possible. Then, they could make it to the assessment. Most importantly, if he could pass the internal assessment directly through Chen Dongfeng, it would save him a lot of trouble.

After all, it was easier to do things when you had someone on the inside.

Seeing that Luo Tian was spacing out, Tang San asked, "Are you confident?"

The Earth Dragon King was very strong.

He could destroy this small village in an instant if he wanted to. Tang San couldn't imagine that kind of power. This was also the real reason why the villagers were so afraid. If Luo Tian offended the Earth Dragon King, they would inevitably be implicated and suffer as a result.

But now, it was like an arrow shot from a bow that couldn't fly back.

Luo Tian could kill those bandits, but was he a match for the Earth Dragon King?

Tang San didn't know. This was also what he was worried about.

Seeing that Luo Tian didn't speak, his heart tightened. He then asked again, "Boss, are you confident?"

"Uhhh..."

Luo Tian regained his senses, and looked at Tang San before saying, "Confident? Are you talking about being confident in killing that Earth Dragon King?"

Tang San nodded.

Luo Tian then said, "I won't know until I see him. But I will do everything I can to do what you ask. Even if I can't complete it, I will still give you a satisfactory outcome."

Tang San was secretly grateful in his heart.

Luo Tian smiled and said, "Don't rush to feel grateful. I don't even know if I can succeed yet."

Right around this time, before Luo Tian could go looking for that Earth Dragon King, the villagers came over one by one. They were carrying all sorts of farm tools, kitchen knives, and firewood sticks. Each of them acted like they had a deep-seated hatred for Luo Tian. With anger in their eyes, one of them said fiercely, "Get out of Holy Soul Village! We don't need you to take care of the affairs of our village! Get out of here! The farther you go, the better!"

Someone else shouted, "We can't let him go!"

"If we anger Earth Dragon King, we won't have a good ending! We can't let him leave here! We should capture him and hand him over to Earth Dragon King! Killing his subordinates has nothing to do with us! If he leaves, then we won't be able to escape responsibility, and we will inevitably be implicated!"

"That's right!"

"We can't let him go! Surround him!"

The numerous villagers were abnormally fierce. They were completely different from the cowering expressions they had on the ground previously as if they had changed into different people.

Luo Tian's eyes darkened but he still said with a smile, "If it weren't for Tang San's sake, I wouldn't care about your lives at all. You want to keep me here? Then you should also see if you have the strength to do so."

As soon as his voice faded, the pressure of a Martial Void ranker burst out from his body. It instantly covered those rushing villagers in a visible form. With just a thought, all the villagers were suppressed.

A look of pain appeared on their faces. They had no strength to resist when facing Luo Tian's oppressive pressure.

Tang San said anxiously, "Boss, they are only acting like this because they are too afraid of the Earth Dragon King. Please don't hurt them."

Before Tang San could finish speaking, one of the villagers shouted, "Tang San, we don't need your kindness! You damn ingrate! Holy Soul Village will be destroyed by you sooner or later! From the first day you lost your mind, I felt that you would ruin the village sooner or later! Today, you actually dared to go against the eight subordinates of the Earth Dragon King!"

"Shut your mouth!"

Luo Tian couldn't listen anymore, and with a thought, he directly crushed that person who had just spoken, to the ground.

He couldn't stand those kinds of people the most.

Tang San said anxiously, "Please don't hurt him."

Right after that, Tang San glanced at the villagers before his gaze finally landed on his father. His father was giving him eye signals, telling him to leave this place, to leave here with Luo Tian, as far away as possible.

Tang San's heart tightened before he looked at Luo Tian to ask, "What should we do?"

He didn't know how to handle this situation.

Luo Tian replied, "Since they don't appreciate our help, then why should we meddle in their business? Let's go. If we leave, that Earth Dragon King can come and kill them all. Then we'll see if they can still act so arrogantly."

After saying that, Luo Tian turned around and started walking towards the outside of the village.

Seeing that Tang San didn't follow, he stopped and shouted, "Tang San, let's go!"

His words had a commanding tone to them.

Tang San looked at Luo Tian with hesitation. In the end, he still chose to follow.

During Tang San's hesitation, Luo Tian's heart was feeling tense. If Tang San didn't follow him, then he would really leave and be done with it. Fortunately, Tang San followed, so he secretly sighed in relief.

The two gradually disappeared from sight.

The villagers also returned to their respective homes. Their expressions changed from anger at the beginning to fear. They felt like there was a sharp sword hanging over them, ready to fall down and take their lives at any time.

Two people walked one after the other.

They walked for a whole day until the evening when the sun was setting.

Tang San couldn't hold back any longer and blocked Luo Tian's path. He then asked, "Didn't you promise me?"

Luo Tian replied with a smile, "They didn't appreciate my gesture. Since that's the case, why should I meddle in other people's business?"

Tang San's expression darkened and said, "They're all going to die."

Luo Tian replied, "So what? They brought it on themselves."

"You..."

Tang San's eyes had a trace of anger in them as if he had just been played for a fool. He turned around and hurried towards the village, saying, "Since you can't save the village, then I will no longer follow you. Even if I follow you, I will feel uneasy in my heart for the rest of my life. Just go!"

Tang San started running back to the village after saying those words.

Luo Tian watched his back and merely smiled before muttering to himself, "I knew it. There's no such thing as an easy way to subdue such an awesome protagonist from a novel."

He experienced no difficulties in recruiting Tang San.

There wasn't even a little bit of hardship. He was wondering if there would be such a good thing in life.

From the beginning, Luo Tian had doubts. Now, it seemed that was really the case.

Watching Tang San's figure gradually fade away, Luo Tian didn't chase after him. He actually hurried in another direction.

Chapter 1175: Extremely Dangerous

Who was this Earth Dragon King?

Was he human?

Or was he a demon?

Luo Tian didn't know this, but he was clear on one thing though. If he couldn't kill that Earth Dragon King, then he could forget about Tang San following him wholeheartedly. He saw this very clearly. The reason he didn't chase after Tang San was that he wanted to kill the Earth Dragon King first.

That way, Tang San would definitely be grateful and would want to hug his thigh.

Moreover, Luo Tian also wanted to teach those villagers a lesson.

They were so arrogant and rampant. If they were so fierce, why didn't they unite to deal with the Earth Dragon King?

They were going against someone who was trying to help them, which made Luo Tian feel a little unhappy in his heart.

Night fell, and the barren mountains were shrouded in darkness. Only the stars in the sky twinkled.

A figure flashed through quickly.

Rising and falling, making "whoosh~ whoosh~" sounds.

A while later, the figure landed, and his brow furrowed. He then said to himself, "It should be here."

The figure was naturally Luo Tian.

After running for more than two hours, he arrived at the foot of a rocky mountain where even grass didn't grow. This area was deathly silent, and an ominous premonition rose in Luo Tian's heart. Looking around, everything could be seen in plain sight with no place to hide.

There was no bandit stronghold to talk about.

There were only a few dark holes that were so dark, you couldn't see the bottom.

Luo Tian was momentarily stunned as he said to himself, "Could it be that Earth Dragon King isn't a bandit at all? But a demonic beast?!"

"If he's a demonic beast..."

"Then was he controlling those bandits? A humanoid demonic beast?"

"Impossible!"

"A humanoid demonic beast is already a Great Perfection Realm demonic beast, with strength comparable to a powerhouse in the Honorable Emperor realm. How could it possibly be in this godforsaken place, still robbing a poor village like Holy Soul Village?" Luo Tian analyzed the matter to himself.

“Whoosh~!”

The sound of air tearing suddenly swept past Luo Tian’s ear.

Luo Tian’s pupils contracted, his figure was like lightning as he moved to the other side. His spiritual sense was like water, slowly rippling out. It covered everything within a hundred kilometers around him, allowing him to carefully observe.

“Neigh~, neigh~...”

“Neigh~, neigh~...”

In his mind, he could hear the neighing of horses. Even though it was very soft and somewhat far away, Luo Tian could still sense it clearly.

“Black Demonic Horses!”

“It looks like this is the correct area.”

“It should be in a certain mountain cave, but it’s a bit strange. I can sense the Black Demonic Horses, but why can’t I sense that Earth Dragon King? Moreover, there’s not a trace of human aura in this area. It’s really strange...” Luo Tian thought to himself.

He locked onto a mountain cave and quickly entered to explore it.

Not long after Luo Tian entered the cave in the mountain, another thin figure appeared holding a torch in one hand and a sharp longsword in his other hand. This was a sword that he had personally forged.

“Earth Dragon King, you get out here!”

“Scram out here for me!”

The person was Tang San.

After returning to the village, everyone except his father was blaming him.

They drove him out of the village.

He felt extremely bitter in his heart. The world was so big, but he didn’t know where to go. In a fit of anger, he took out the longsword he had forged and rushed to this Earth Dragon Mountain.

He called out a few times, but there wasn't a single response.

Only a few unknown birds flew by, calling out as if to give him a bit of face.

Seeing that the Earth Dragon King didn't show himself, Tang San went into a cave in the mountain. But the cave he entered was different from Luo Tian's.

Luo Tian slowly groped his way forward, following the sounds of the demonic steeds neighing. The cave became larger and larger, wider and wider, just like an underground palace. Moreover, some glowing gems were embedded in the cave walls.

The further in he went, the more gems there were.

"I never thought that this place would be like this." Luo Tian was secretly amazed in his heart.

He continued going forward, unknown how long he had been walking.

Only when Luo Tian saw those Black Demonic Horses did he finally stop. The demonic steeds hadn't discovered him. Each of them was like a horse in a stable. Luo Tian still knew a thing or two about horses because when he transmigrated to the Tianxuan Continent, he was a useless young master who took care of horses.

These horses didn't look aggressive, so he didn't want to disturb them.

Looking at the powerful horses, he said to himself, "After I solve that Earth Dragon King, I'll get one to use as a mount. That way, I'll be able to travel faster and go to Misty Cloud City to reunite with them earlier."

Luo Tian went around the large group of demonic steeds before walking into a corridor. The corridor walls were very smooth as if they had been polished like this. What was strange was that there weren't any glowing gems on this corridor. It was completely dark, and he couldn't see what was further down.

Even though he was in the Martial Void realm, his vision seemed to be restricted in some way, making him unable to see up ahead.

But Luo Tian could clearly sense a very dangerous aura from the depths of the corridor. His heart tightened. He held his breath, concealed the aura on his body, and walked forward cautiously.

Just as Luo Tian proceeded with extra caution, an angry shout came from not far behind him.

"Earth Dragon King! Scram out here for me!"

Luo Tian's heart sank as he said to himself, "Not good!"

The sound in the cave gradually magnified because of the echo effect. Those Black Demonic Horses woke up and neighed wildly like they had been frightened. The sound traveled from the corridor straight into the darkness.

At this moment, a dim light flashed from the depths of the corridor.

This light was like a ray of energy, directly piercing into Luo Tian's mind. It was trying to control Luo Tian! But at this moment, the tender branches of the Ancient Tree planted in his mind gently swayed.

That ray of energy was quickly rejected back out.

Illusion Fairy suddenly shouted urgently, "Danger!"

"Quickly retreat!"

Luo Tian retreated rapidly from the corridor without a word. In the instant he retreated from the corridor, he stared at the brief flash of light, which made him horrified. He then said to himself, "Oh shit! It's a damn dragon!!!"

He had naturally seen dragons before.

He even had a brother who was an Eight-Clawed Golden Dragon.

He had been to the Sky Palace Divine Race and seen those dragons, but this was the Ancient World.

The laws of this plane were far higher than the Tianxuan Continent. The dragons that appear here, whether they were Chinese dragons or lizard-like Western dragons, were definitely super terrifying existences. Otherwise, Illusion Fairy wouldn't have yelled at him to leave this place with such anxiety.

“You want to leave?!”

“Leave your life behind!”

There was no sound because the sound transmission went directly into Luo Tian's mind.

After that, a super strong pressure swept over, causing the entire underground palace to start shaking. Those demonic steeds crawled on the ground, not even daring to breathe.

Besides those horses, there was one more person!

Tang San!

He was directly crushed, spitting out a mouthful of black blood! His body froze in place, unable to move even a tiny bit!

This was absolute suppression!

Grab Tang San?

Or save his own life?

Luo Tian was suddenly presented with only two choices!

Danger! Extreme danger!

Chapter 1176: The Boss Goes Berserk

If he saved Tang San, he might be trapped here!

If he doesn't save Tang San, he could escape but Tang San would definitely die!

Faced with these kinds of choices, the thought of escaping flashed through Luo Tian's mind, but he didn't do it!

“Fuck!”

Luo Tian appeared at Tang San’s side, slapped him on the back of the head, and directly knocked him unconscious. He was about to transform and didn’t want Tang San to see it!

Right after that, Luo Tian shouted internally, “Hulk, transform!”

“Boom~!”

The clothes on Luo Tian’s upper body were torn apart, leaving only a pair of underpants. His muscles bulged out exaggeratedly while his body was filled with an excited but furious aura. His brow was furrowed, and his eyes were filled with anger.

Luo Tian made a thought, “Hand over your body for me to control.”

He was worried that this green giant would mess things up again, and waste his transformation time.

However, the Hulk didn’t care about Luo Tian.

If the Hulk didn’t agree, no matter how hard Luo Tian tried, he wouldn’t be able to control him. That was the characteristic of the Hulk. He was very strong, extremely strong. His body’s defense was also extremely abnormal, but he was not someone anyone could control!

Luo Tian had thoughts of dying.

The Hulk was acting perfectly fine last time, so why was he like this now?

Luo Tian was filled with bitterness.

It took ten days for the transformation time to cool down, and when he finally let the green guy out, he was uncontrollable! Wasn't the Hulk just trying to embarrass him?

"Your sister!"

"Next time, you definitely won't be coming out!" Luo Tian was furious, really worried that this guy would mess things up. He was in an underground cave, and the Hulk could bury them both alive here. The Hulk was a walking time bomb and he couldn't be used again so easily.

"Bang~!"

"Bang~!"

"Bang~!"

The Hulk was going berserk, violently smashing the surrounding walls and causing the entire mountain to shake. Rubble was tumbling down as if the mountain was about to collapse. Luo Tian really wanted to die; why hadn't he used the Thor transformation card from the start?

It might also have been the Hulk's violent smashing that angered the Earth Dragon King.

The Earth Dragon King ran out like crazy from that long corridor, its wings spreading wide, and its body occupying half of the main hall.

"Holy crap!"

"It really is one of those lizard-type dragons!"

Luo Tian was shocked as he looked up because the creature before him was truly terrifying!

Moreover, the whole dragon's body was flashing with golden light, and the health bar above its head was several meters long. Luo Tian didn't know how much health it had, but it looked extremely terrifying! A super boss!

A question suddenly arose in Luo Tian's mind, "What rank demonic beast is this guy?"

"Rank seven?"

“Or is it rank eight?!”

“If it’s at rank eight, then it will have high-grade Blood Spirit. If that’s the case, then my Four Divine Beasts bloodline...”

“Gulp~!”

Luo Tian swallowed excitedly before shouting, “Musclehead! Whether I can unlock the bloodline seal or not depends on you! Give it your all and crush that guy! Tear it apart for me! Quick, quick, make it kneel down, kowtow, and sing Conquered!”

He was growing more and more excited.

If he could have the power of an eighth grade Blood Spirit, then the bloodline seal in his body would definitely be unlocked. Once he reaches Misty Cloud City, he will be able to help Yi Yunmeng. This was the promise he had made to her. He had secretly promised back then that he would unlock the power of his bloodline seal when they met in Misty Cloud City!

And once the bloodline seal is unlocked, his cultivation base will receive an unprecedented increase!

He didn’t need any innate talent rating. He only needed to kill monsters to get experience points.

However, a bloodline talent could open the door to many things for him, the most crucial being his strength. Moreover, once this bloodline was unsealed, it meant that the Four Divine Beasts Bloodline in his body would evolve. Among the five continents of the Ancient World, there was a Divine Beast Continent that was controlled by the Four Divine Beasts. Among the five continents, the Four Divine Beast Continent was the most powerful, precisely because of the strength of their bloodline.

After receiving Luo Tian's order, the Hulk became even crazier.

He leaped up, clasped his hands together, and then chopped down fiercely at the Earth Dragon King.

A heavy artillery strike!

Earth Dragon King's eyes flickered, his pupils contracting slightly. He was beginning to realize that the human he tried controlling wasn't this green behemoth who was smashing down toward him. Even though he was a bit shocked in his heart, he didn't think too much about it. His eyes were imprinted with the Hulk's figure crashing down from up high. He grinned, revealing his fangs and a fierce aura erupted. He grunted heavily and said, "Little green brat, you still dare to be presumptuous in front of me? You're courting death!"

His giant wings fluttered once.

Immediately, two huge wind blades were stirred up under his wings.

After a slight rotation, the two wind blades combined into one, forming a single super wind blade. At the moment the Hulk was about to collide with him, Earth Dragon King sent the wind blade to meet him head-on.

“Whoosh~, whoosh~, whoosh~!”

“Whoosh~, whoosh~, whoosh~!”

“Whoosh~, whoosh~, whoosh~!”

The edges of the super wind blade were like sharp knives, crazily slicing up the Hulk’s body, leaving streaks of blood behind. In less than a moment, he was covered in blood.

After being turned into this, the Hulk pounded his chest with both hands like a green gorilla. He started grinding his teeth, spread his arms, and pounced on the windblade as if embracing a substantial object.

“Agggghhh~!”

“Boom~!”

The muscles on his arms almost burst out from the skin!

Streaks of power were visible to the eye!

Strands of power erupted from his body! With an ultra-strong raw strength, he forcibly embraced the extremely sharp wind blade. His arms suddenly contracted.

“Ommm~!”

“Puff~!”

The wind blade went out like a huge fart!

The Earth Dragon King was shocked!

He never expected that his move would be neutralized by pure strength.

Moreover, the guy in front of him only had some blood streak cuts, without any serious injury at all. Just what was this guy's background?

Before he could think more about it, the Hulk looked over and stared heavily at Earth Dragon King. The muscles at the corners of his eyes were twitching, smoke was coming from his nostrils, and his gaze suddenly sharpened. He then said fiercely, “It's my turn now, right?”

Before Earth Dragon King could react, the Hulk's body leaned forward before stomping back and shooting out like a heavy artillery shell.

"Whoosh~!"

"Boom~!"

Behind him, a long trail of flames burned with power.

Hulk had directly crashed into Earth Dragon King's body, causing the dragon's body to sink in with a dent appearing.

"Bang~, bang~, bang~!"

Earth Dragon King retreated step by step because he actually couldn't withstand the huge impact. In less than an instant, he was slammed into the wall. The cave shook violently, large rocks fell, and cracks appeared everywhere. The Hulk didn't let go, braced his feet on the ground, and still kept pushing with unparalleled rage.

"Aggghhh~!"

“Bang~, bang~, bang~!”

Earth Dragon King was being pushed back like crazy!

The cave was being smashed through! Earth Dragon King was directly smashed out of the mountain and ended up outside!

A mountain that was several thousand meters deep, was directly smashed through!

This kind of power was terrifying to a complete mess!

But the Earth Dragon King didn't die. His whole body turned red! It was flashing a ghastly red colored light!

The boss was entering berserk mode!

Chapter 1177: Blank

He went berserk!

From the aura the Earth Dragon King's body was exerting, one could easily tell that he had been forced into berserk mode by the Hulk!

He was smashed all the way out from a deep cave!

How could a dragon tolerate this?

A soft but cold light pulsated from within the Earth Dragon King's body. This sinister light was like a lamp in the dark depths of hell.

Luo Tian's mind sank as he said internally, "Musclehead, you have to be careful."

At this moment, Thor couldn't wait any longer and said, "I say, big guy, can you really do it? If you can't, let me take over. Did all those muscles grow for nothing since you can't even handle a lizard?"

Superman also spoke up, "I haven't even spoken yet. When did it become your turn to take over?"

Kayle fluttered his wings and sneered, "Let me go out and judge him."

"Huh?"

"Who do you think you are? Scram to the side and cool off there or something!" Thor didn't give Superman any face at all.

Luo Tian was confused and a little annoyed by the two guys arguing, so he shouted, "Can you two just shut up for a moment?!"

The two of them instantly shut their mouths and didn't continue to argue.

The opponents he encountered in the past, whether demonic beasts or humans, had never been as powerful as the Earth Dragon King. The Hulk could easily deal with rank seven demonic beasts, but facing the Earth Dragon King, he didn't look relaxed at all. There was even a hint of fatigue. At the same time, Luo Tian could tell from the Hulk's eyes that there was a trace of seriousness he had never seen before.

In the past, the use of a transformation card meant being near-invincible.

Luo Tian knew that these superheroes were not exactly invincible. They just hadn't encountered an opponent stronger than them. The appearance of the Earth Dragon King precisely confirmed this point.

However, Luo Tian still believed in the Hulk.

"Rumble~ ... rumble~ ..."

Rumbling sounds came from within the Earth Dragon King's body, and the sinister looking light became brighter. His eyes also turned into a scarlet red color as he stared at the Hulk. He then spoke in an icy cold tone, "After angering me, I will turn you into a substance that forever flows in the depths of the earth."

"Fwoosh~!"

The Earth Dragon King's throat moved as quickly as a passing train before he spewed out a stream of dark fire.

This was yin fire!

The Hulk quickly jumped, managing to barely dodger this extremely dangerous attack. Looking back, he saw that a huge boulder nearby had turned into wisps of nothingness under the devouring properties of the yin fire. His heart sank, and the look in his eyes became more serious.

Thor, Kayle, and Superman were all silent inside his body.

This yin fire attack was a bit too terrifying.

Even they were shocked by what they saw.

Luo Tian's mind also sank since the power behind the yin fire was too scary. Once anything is touched by it, even a tiny bit, that thing would be turned into ashes of nothingness that flowed into the void like slow-moving water. However, Luo Tian couldn't help feeling there was something familiar about the yin fire attack.

It was extremely similar to the Nine Yang Divine Magic he cultivated.

His was a hot, blazing sun, possessing the power of extreme yang energy. Once hit, the target would be turned into ashes.

The yin fire seemed to have the same attributes.

Luo Tian then said to himself, "Could it be that this guy has cultivated the Nine Yin Divine Magic?"

Nine Yin, Nine Yang, invincible under the heavens!

The two types of martial skills were so similar that Luo Tian started thinking about them as one.

"Who cares what it is!"

"Let's explode him first before we talk!" Luo Tian roared in his heart.

He then said internally, "There's still a little over a minute left. Hand over your body to me now, and I'll let him know what the consequences are for acting arrogant in front of us!"

"Bang~!"

“Bang~!”

The yin fire attacks were like a cannonball, getting faster and faster, and more and more numerous.

The Hulk was so busy dodging that he couldn't get close at all.

And after several near-death experiences in a row, the suppressed anger in the Hulk's heart had no place to vent. Hearing Luo Tian's words, he wanted to persevere a little longer just to give the Earth Dragon King another hard punch. But he knew that his own strength alone was not enough to deal with the Earth Dragon King.

Right after that, the Hulk said while panting, “Kneel down, kowtow, and sing Conquered!”

Luo Tian smiled and replied, “Definitely!”

The Hulk focused his mind, and Luo Tian's mind followed closely, directly taking control of the Hulk's body. Then, the Hulk's gaze changed slightly before a sinister smile appeared on the corner of his mouth. He stood motionless in place, staring at the Earth Dragon King who was not far away. “A devil art that uses extreme yin? It seems that you should have been driven out by the powerhouses from Four Divine Beasts Continent for practicing this devil art. You should have been driven out by the Azure Dragon leader, right?”

There were no dragons on the Central Continent.

Not even among the demonic beasts!

Obviously, the Earth Dragon King did not belong to the Central Continent.

Furthermore, he must be hiding in this desolate mountain range in order to escape the pursuit of the Four Divine Beasts' families. Otherwise, given his personality, no one would want to hide in this godforsaken place. Moreover, the devil art he practiced used the extreme yin power of young girls to cultivate, which was a huge taboo.

The Earth Dragon King acted as if his tail had been stepped on and became even more furious. He shouted, "Who exactly are you?!"

Luo Tian smiled and said to himself, "Looks like I guessed it right!"

Immediately after, Luo Tian replied, "Who I am is not important. What's important is that you will die by my hands!"

The Earth Dragon King raised his head and laughed like he had heard an extremely funny joke. He then stared at Luo Tian and said, "Judging by your tone, you should be that little trash in the Martial Void realm now, right? You think that just because there's a power inside your body protecting you, I can't do anything to you?"

He was referring to the Ancient Tree.

Earlier in the corridor, if the Ancient Tree hadn't suddenly burst out with its power, Luo Tian's heart meridian would have already been severed.

He would be the victim of an instant kill!

He wouldn't have the chance to fight back!

Luo Tian furrowed his brow and said, "Stop blabbering and fight!"

"Humph~!" The Earth Dragon King snorted.

He then said, "Since you know my secrets, then I can't let you live. You must die!"

As soon as his voice faded, the Earth Dragon King's body started shimmering before releasing a cold aura. The rocks around where he was standing were directly frozen before cracking into pieces. The wild grass nearby was frozen and started showing signs of withering. This extreme yin power was truly terrifying. If it really was the Nine Yin Divine Magic, then the realm he cultivated had reached an extremely terrifying level.

The energy inside the Earth Dragon King's body was churning before the aura of a peak rank eight demonic beast surged out. The rippling of power formed a huge extreme yin space around him. Within this space, all living things could not escape the attack of his yin fire, including Luo Tian. The Earth Dragon King laughed wildly, "Hahaha! Trashy kid, accept the baptism of death!"

“Yin Fire Cage!”

“Sky Burial!”

“Crack~, crack~, crack~...”

The space rapidly shrunk, and the sky that seemed to be covered with yin fire pressed down in an overwhelming manner.

This attack was extremely abnormal.

Luo Tian raised his head to look up. The Hulk, Thor, Superman, Kayle, and even Illusion Fairy were all holding their breaths. They didn't make the slightest sound for fear of affecting Luo Tian's thoughts. At the same time, they were also worried for him...

Chapter 1178: The Moment Of Excitement Has Arrived

A peak rank eight demonic beast!

A member of the dragon clan from the Four Divine Beasts!

In terms of overall strength, it was comparable to a rank nine demonic beast!

Moreover, he had cultivated some type of extreme yin devil art.

Such an existence was not comparable to the bosses Luo Tian had encountered before. He was strong, extremely strong!

At the line between life and death, Luo Tian did not panic at all. He was calm and composed. Looking at the sky filled with extreme yin energy above his head, he made a simple thought, "Divine Explosion!"

"Ommm~!"

His attributes instantly doubled.

Once he took control of the transformed body, he could use the martial skills in his arsenal.

The moment Divine Explosion was used, the power all over the Hulk's body instantly soared like flames with gasoline poured on them. An intensely pure power crazily surged out like waves, colliding with the extreme yin power.

The Earth Dragon King was slightly surprised, "What a strong and pure force, but..."

"With just this kind of power, you can't repel my extreme yin energy at all!"

He was very confident!

Indeed, relying solely on the doubled attributes of Divine Explosion would not repel the extreme yin power, but Luo Tian wasn't planning on repelling it. What he wanted was the Earth Dragon King's life!

In an instant, Luo Tian's body lowered to the ground and his body tensed up like a giant bow. His eyes narrowed into slits.

A system alert sounded off in his mind.

"Ding!"

"Target locked!"

Luo Tian's lips curved in a faint smile before he mouthed the word, "Boom!"

"Whoosh~!"

A ball of fire shot out from the palm of his hand. It looked very ordinary, as ordinary as a flame used for cooking. It didn't seem to have any offensive power at all.

The Earth Dragon King sneered, "What a piece of trash. He's so scared that he's using all sorts of garbage techniques. With this little bit of energy, he dares to interfere with my affairs? He's really overestimating himself!"

"Whoosh~!"

"Whoosh~!"

The moment when God Flame shot out, Luo Tian's body turned into an afterimage and followed the God Flame's trajectory. His figure trailed behind at a very fast speed!

Earth Dragon King's face showed disdain before he spread his wings and shouted, "Power of yin fire, bury him!"

The power within the yin fire space suddenly shrank rapidly.

The energy surging from all directions constantly crushed Luo Tian's body, making him feel very heavy. His internal organs felt like they were being squeezed, emitting extreme pain signals to the brain. The Ancient Tree in his mind did not release any power to protect Luo Tian's mind as it did at the beginning, as if it had run out of power.

It was still just a small bud, and it had already released a super-strong protective force. At this time, it could no longer be used.

Luo Tian actually didn't want the Ancient Tree to protect him.

He wanted to rely on his own power to make this overly arrogant Earth Dragon King kneel down, kowtow, and sing Conquered!

Luo Tian's body felt very heavy, but his speed did not decrease at all. Blood seeped out from the corner of his mouth as he closely followed behind God Flame.

The Earth Dragon King was also extremely furious. He didn't dodge, but directly charged forward while saying arrogantly, "I will use my power to make you completely give up!"

His entire body once again emitted a soft yin force, as if he was wearing a thick layer of armor.

"Break!" yelled Luo Tian.

God Flame was about to make an impact.

The Earth Dragon King swept his wings, wanting to blow God Flame away.

But the moment he touched God Flame, the fireball suddenly erupted with a powerful force he could not have imagined. This force directly enveloped his entire body. In that instant, his entire body felt as if it had been electrocuted, instantly paralyzing him and interrupting his thoughts. The power he was using also seemed to have been sealed.

The system didn't give off any alerts!

That means instant kill didn't trigger!

Luo Tian was disappointed but he was prepared.

"Nine Yang Divine Magic!"

"Extreme yang, smash him!"

"Boom~, boom~..."

Luo Tian's body turned into a scorching flame similar to the blazing sun. He stretched out his arms, moved his fists, and struck out the scorching power of the Nine Yang Divine Magic.

"Boom~!"

"Mountain River Fist!"

Two punches smashed into the Earth Dragon King's head.

"Wolf King's Claw!"

"Swish~, swish~..."

The slightly trembling Earth Dragon King was pulled back before another shout, "Mountain River Fist!"

"Shoulder Dash!"

Luo Tian's figure charged forward and stuck close. His Heaven Sword appeared in his hand before he shouted, "Buddha's Fury!"

"Swish~, swish~..."

Two sword strikes in succession!

The sword was stored away, and Luo Tian leaped high into the air. His fists exploded with power as he shouted internally, "Big guy, unleash your strongest power!"

“Okay!”

The Hulk roared with incomparable excitement. A stabbing pain rang out deep within Luo Tian’s heart as if he had been injected with a strong stimulant that ignited his potential. An incomparably arrogant force erupted from his whole body. Within this force, Luo Tian also poured in all the power of the Nine Yang Divine Magic.

His hands were clasped together, forming a battle axe stance!

With the force of thunder, he smashed down with all his might!

“Battle Axe Heavy Strike, smash him!”

A beam of light descended from the sky and fell toward the top of the Earth Dragon King’s head. He was instantly dazed by Luo Tian’s incoming attack.

The Earth Dragon King’s pupils suddenly constricted. His face showed a horrified expression and fear filled his heart. He looked up and stared at Luo Tian before roaring, “No! No! You can’t kill me! You can’t...”

“Agggghh~!”

“Boom~!”

The Earth Dragon King’s head was smashed down!

His dragon body sank, and his two front feet directly knelt on the ground.

His head heavily slammed onto the rock surface, shattering the pieces all over the ground.

“Kneel down!”

“Kowtow!”

The power of the Nine Yang Divine Magic on Luo Tian’s fists instantly spread throughout the Earth Dragon King’s body. Gradually, strands of magma-like flames emerged from within the Earth Dragon King’s body.

The Earth Dragon King’s eyes were filled with anger, killing intent, and hatred as he stared at Luo Tian. “Nine Yang Divine Magic? Who exactly are you?! Did he send you here? It must be him, it must be him, hahaha... Pursuing me for tens of thousands of miles for cultivating the Dragon God Forbidden Technique. Such a pity...”

“It’s such a pity that I couldn’t fully comprehend the Dragon God Forbidden Technique, otherwise I would definitely reduce the dragon race to ashes and destroy the Four Divine Beast families!”

“Agghhh~!” Earth Dragon King roared into the sky.

His body cracked bit by bit, and a scorching energy came out from the cracks like crazy.

Eventually, his body turned to ashes.

He disappeared bit by bit into nothingness.

At this moment, Luo Tian reverted back to his original body. He was completely soaked, dripping with sweat, and his face was very pale. His heart tightened as he said to himself, “The timing was just right. If I had been a second slower, the one who died would have been me.”

Immediately after, Luo Tian’s pale face turned to one of excitement. He then said to himself, “What will he drop?”

A system alert sounded off.

Luo Tian held his breath, and his heart tensed up before he said, “The moment of excitement has arrived!!!”

Chapter 1179: Exhilarating Explosion

Fighting a boss was very nerve-wracking.

It was also very exciting.

Whether it was in the game or in the real world, the most exciting moment for Luo Tian was the loot drop.

“Ding!”

An extremely pleasant sound alert rang out. Luo Tian put his hands together and prayed, “Please bless me, Teacher Sola Aoi. Don’t be too stingy!”

The guy was from the dragon clan!

Even though it was a lizard-type dragon clan, this was the Ancient World after all, so there must be good stuff!

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing the Earth Dragon King. You have gained 680,000 experience points, 60,000 yuan energy...”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for obtaining the Earth Dragon King’s Blood Spirit. Do you want to fuse with it?”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for obtaining a Dragon Crystal. Do you want to fuse with it?”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for obtaining the Dragon God Forbidden Technique, ? ? ?”

Explosion!

A big loot explosion!

Luo Tian was a little stunned.

This was the most awesome and biggest drop he had received since entering the Ancient World!

Suddenly, the system gave off another alert.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for completing the quest: Rescue Holy Soul Village. You have gained 1,000,000 experience points, 100,000 yuan energy, and one random permanent transformation card. Do you want to start the transformation card draw?”

“Yes!”

“Click~, click~, click~...”

The moment Luo Tian agreed, a huge roulette appeared in his mind and started spinning.

“Click~, click~, click~...”

On the roulette were transformation cards that made people drool, and any one of them would make Luo Tian ecstatic.

Finally, the roulette stopped at one place.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for obtaining one Ancient Beast Tyrannosaurus Rex transformation card!”

“Huh?”

“What the fuck?!”

“Tyrannosaurus Rex?”

“Shit...”

Luo Tian was a bit shocked and frightened by the transformation card he had drawn. Moreover, it was some kind of ancient beast. It wasn't the Tyrannosaurus Rex from the Jurassic Park movie in his previous life. The Tyrannosaurus Rex in the movies alone was enough to make people tremble. This was an ancient beast version, so how awesome would it be?

He didn't dare to imagine!

Luo Tian couldn't wait to use it and see its power.

But thinking about its cooldown time, he finally gave up.

After all, a ten day cooldown was a pretty long time.

Moreover, he had already used the Hulk transformation card. The more transformation cards he had available, the better. Because in Misty Cloud City, he had to face the strongest king level force of the continent, the Hai family. He had to have a sufficiently powerful reliance in order to be undefeatable.

Moreover, Luo Tian was not in the mood to worry about any transformation cards right now.

Anyway, they wouldn't disappear.

What he was concerned about now was the items dropped by the Earth Dragon King.

Luo Tian opened up his system interface to look.

The items dropped by the Earth Dragon King floated in his mind.

Item: Earth Dragon King's Essence Blood, Blood Spirit

Grade: Peak rank eight

Description: The person who merges with it can obtain the power of the Earth Dragon King and possess the dragon clan's bloodline.

“Rank eight!”

“Rank eight!”

When Luo Tian saw the two words rank eight, a surge of excitement appeared in his heart. He started jumping in joy inside, “A rank eight Blood Spirit is enough to unlock the seal on the Four Divine Beasts bloodlines in my body, right? Hehe... Once the seal on the Four Divine Beasts bloodlines is unlocked, the power I will obtain will definitely be awesome!”

Luo Tian wasn't in a hurry to merge with the Blood Spirit.

The stronger the power, the longer it would take to unlock the seal.

He had just had a great battle with the Earth Dragon King, and this place was not completely safe.

He had to find a good and safe place before merging with the Blood Spirit.

Item: Earth Dragon King's Bone, Dragon Bone

Grade: Semi-divine

Description: The hardest bone in the Earth Dragon King's body, a superb forging material.

Seeing how the dragon bone looked like a giant knife filled with a domineering and reckless power, Luo Tian swallowed a few times before saying to himself, "Once my forging skill is leveled up, I must forge a dragon blade!"

Item: Dragon Crystal

Grade: Semi-divine

Description: The essence of the Earth Dragon King

Luo Tian looked at the crystal clear diamond-like thing that was half the size of a fist. This Dragon Crystal was the most essential part of the Earth Dragon King, and it could be said that the source of all the power in his body came from this. A person appeared in Luo Tian's mind before he smiled to himself and placed the Dragon Crystal into his spatial ring.

Next was the last item.

Item: Dragon God Forbidden Technique

Grade: ?????

Description: ?????

An ancient book was floating in Luo Tian's mind. He made a thought, "Learn it!"

"Ding!"

"Cannot be learned!"

Luo Tian was slightly stunned before saying to himself, "As long as a martial skill drops from a loot explosion, I should be able to learn it. Why can't I learn this one then?"

Just seeing the four words 'Dragon God Forbidden Technique' made Luo Tian excited beyond comparison. But he couldn't cultivate it, making him feel like someone had poured a bucket of cold water over his head. It was an extremely unpleasant feeling. He tried commanding the system again, "Learn it!"

"Cannot be learned."

The system gave out another alert, ruthlessly rejecting his request.

Luo Tian started carefully analyzing to himself, "This Dragon God Forbidden Technique should be something that the Earth Dragon King stole from the Dragon Clan's forbidden area. He himself probably couldn't cultivate it; otherwise, I wouldn't have been his opponent, even if I had used up all my transformation cards. But this Dragon God Forbidden Technique is definitely a martial skill, yet I can't cultivate it. Could it be because my cultivation base isn't high enough?"

In the video games of his previous life, most skills required reaching a certain level to learn.

Luo Tian hadn't encountered this situation on the Tianxuan Continent before.

Would this situation occur only after his system became level two?

Luo Tian didn't know. But one thing he could be sure of was that this Dragon God Forbidden Technique must be an existence beyond divine magic. It was called a forbidden technique because its power was too strong. Moreover, it was the Dragon God Forbidden Technique. If it wasn't due to level requirements, then it must be some material requirement.

Luo Tian was a professional gamer.

Even though this world wasn't a game, he would consider problems from a gamer's perspective.

Even the Earth Dragon King, with his peak rank eight realm, couldn't cultivate it...

Luo Tian's brow tightened before saying to himself, "That means it shouldn't be a level problem. It must require triggering something to cultivate it! That must be it. Dragon God Forbidden Technique... If Eggy were here, that would be great. He's a descendant of the Dragon God and would definitely know the secret to cultivating it."

Dragon God Forbidden Technique might be a power above the three most powerful forces of the Ancient World!

Upon thinking of Eggy, Luo Tian looked up at the night sky and said to himself, "Brothers, are you guys all doing well?"

He didn't know how they were faring on the Tianxuan Continent.

Also, the matter of Li Xue'er being poisoned by the Soul Poison had been pressing on Luo Tian's heart, making him very uncomfortable!

On the Tianxuan Continent, that girl had risked her life for him. If he couldn't even save his own woman, then what qualifications did he have to be a man?

He had to speed things up!

Luo Tian suddenly thought of something! His eyes widened in shock before his figure explosively shot out, "Tang San!"

Chapter 1180: The Dragon Clan Has Come

Tang San was still inside the cave.

Luo Tian almost forgot about this guy. He didn't know if he was buried under the rocks, or whether he was dead or alive.

Half an hour later, Luo Tian carried Tang San out of the cave. The guy looked like he was on his last breath.

It wasn't because he was crushed under the rocks, but because of the oppressive pressure from the Earth Dragon King. His body couldn't withstand it, causing damage to his internal organs.

It was fortunate that Luo Tian was here. Otherwise, in his current situation, he really might not have been able to live.

A few Super Regeneration spells were cast.

Tang San's face gradually improved, and his eyes slowly fluttered open.

He suddenly sat up and looked at Luo Tian, immediately asking, "Where is the Earth Dragon King?"

Luo Tian pointed to the pile of ashes not far away and said, "There; there's only a pile of ashes left."

Tang San's face showed he was extremely shocked as he said, "You, you, you really killed him? Didn't you say..."

He thought that Luo Tian wouldn't help Holy Soul Village, and that agreeing to help him was only to trick him out of the village. If he hadn't seen Luo Tian before he fainted in the cave, he definitely wouldn't have believed that Luo Tian had really killed the Earth Dragon King. He had experienced the Earth Dragon King's power, and thought even some super strong people were no match for him.

Luo Tian's position in his mind instantly rose to a very high level.

Not waiting for him to finish, Luo Tian said with a smile, "You are my brother. My brother's affairs are naturally my affairs. Moreover, I promised you that even if I lacked the ability, I would still do my best to do it. I didn't say anything at first; I was just hoping to let you leave for a while so that I could go alone and kill the Earth Dragon King. Who would have thought that you would also come? Fortunately, nothing bad happened."

Tang San's eyes flickered, his heart was filled with gratitude before saying, "Boss, thank you!"

All the emotions he was feeling were contained within those three words.

Luo Tian patted him on the shoulder before taking out the Dragon Crystal that had dropped earlier, "This is the Earth Dragon King's Dragon Crystal. The yuan energy and the power of the Earth Dragon King inside should be able to help you break through quickly."

When this Dragon Crystal dropped, Luo Tian immediately thought about leaving it for Tang San.

Tang San's current cultivation was still too weak.

He had to improve it as soon as possible. Otherwise, Tang San wouldn't be able to keep up with his pace. Moreover, he was about to go to Misty Cloud City and face the Hai family, a king level force. The brothers around him had to have a certain degree of self-protection. Otherwise, he would have to take care of everyone, and he wouldn't be able to do that and fight opponents at the same time.

Tang San's hands were trembling a bit.

Even if he didn't know much, he knew the value of this Dragon Crystal.

Why was the Four Divine Beasts Continent the strongest of the five continents? It was because they possessed beast bodies, and the source of the power of their beast bodies was stored within a crystal. Dragon Crystals of lower grades would fetch a high price of millions of xuan coins if auctioned off, let alone this Dragon Crystal of the Earth Dragon King. The price would be even more terrifyingly high.

Tang San didn't dare accept it because the value of this Dragon Crystal was beyond his imagination.

Seeing him like this, Luo Tian directly stuffed the Dragon Crystal into his hand and said, "What are you being so wishy-washy about? Are you even a man? If I give it to you, just take it. Of course, it's not for free. I want you to reach the Martial Void realm within a month. If you don't reach it, then just go back to your Holy Soul Village."

This was a little pressure.

Tang San's brow tightened, and his hand tightly gripped the Dragon Crystal. He looked at Luo Tian and said in all seriousness, "I will definitely not let you down."

Luo Tian smiled and replied, "That's good then!"

In his heart, he was jumping for joy. "Let me down? Your name, Tang San, alone won't let me down. With Lin Dong and now Tang San, the transcendent force army I want to build is not far away. The two core figures are already in place. Just wait... It won't be long before you two will make this world tremble before you."

Luo Tian and Tang San did not return to Holy Soul Village.

They led out two uninjured Black Demon Horses from the cave, and the two headed towards Misty Cloud City.

Two days later, at the destroyed, barren mountain.

Two figures with somewhat frighteningly large figures landed from the sky.

The two figures were wearing huge black robes, and something seemed to be wrapped underneath the black robes.

“The Earth Dragon King is dead.”

“After searching for him for so many years, I never thought he would be hiding in the Central Continent.”

“It seems that he still hadn’t comprehended the abilities within the Dragon God Forbidden Technique. Otherwise, he definitely wouldn’t have died.”

“Who killed him? Even if he encountered a Holy Spirit realm expert with his current cultivation, he could easily deal with them. Moreover, no one on the Central Continent knows that he has hidden in this barren mountain. And judging from the traces of the battle, the other party wasn’t a powerhouse of the Honorable Emperor realm. Could it be that he was really killed by a Holy Spirit realm expert?”

Two black-robed men whispered their doubts to each other.

One of them then said, “Not far from here is Holy Soul Village. A few days ago, a strange young man came here, and a young boy named Tang San disappeared from the village. I wonder if the Earth Dragon King’s death has anything to do with them.”

“His death is not our concern. What we are worried about now is, where is the Dragon God Forbidden Technique?”

“No matter what, we only have this single clue. First, find Tang San, and by finding Tang San, we can find that strange young man.”

“We will know with a glance whether the Dragon God Forbidden Technique is on him or not.”

The two men’s powers fluctuated briefly, and they flew towards the direction of Misty Cloud City.

They turned into two streams of light before disappearing in the blink of an eye.

Black Demonic Horses were considered demonic existences, and the Misty Cloud City was a holy city of the orthodox sects. So naturally, no demonic steeds would appear in such a place.

Early in the morning, Luo Tian and Tang San stood on a mountain top looking at the towering and incomparably majestic Misty Cloud City. They felt amazement in their hearts, “This city is unimaginably large. You can’t see the boundary, and the buildings inside are extremely luxurious. As expected, it’s the orthodox sect’s holy city!”

Luo Tian patted the demonic steed’s head and said, “You are free.”

Tang San was momentarily stunned before asking, “Boss, are we really going to the Misty Cloud Academy?”

Along the way, he knew the purpose of Luo Tian’s trip.

Luo Tian replied, “En~, not only am I going, but you are going too.”

Tang San was stunned again and said, “Me? My cultivation is still in the Condensation Element realm, still far from the Martial Void Realm...”

Condensation Element realm?

Two days ago, he was still in the early stages of the Spirit Martial realm. In just two days, this abnormal guy broke through ten times, making Luo Tian stunned.

Of course, a large part of this credit went to that Dragon Crystal.

It was the most essential part of the dragon race. Once used, and the power inside was extracted, breaking through was like flying to the sky. However, this power did not convert into experience points; otherwise, Luo Tian could have flown as well.

The two walked in the direction of Misty Cloud City.

Half an hour later, Luo Tian whispered, “Let’s split up here and meet at the entrance of the Misty Cloud Academy. If I’m not there within three days, you go in by yourself. Find an examination manager named Chen Dongfeng, or go directly to the talent test. With your talent, I believe you can directly become a specially recruited student.”
