Chapter 121 – Luo Tian Is Truly Enraged

There are things that are beyond one's imagination.

In this foreign realm, there will definitely be many unimaginable things happening.

Luo Tian looked at the seven people in the house and wondered if they were also dead.

Also...

These six women without any clothes on encountered a stranger but wasn't scared or embarrassed. If they were normal human beings, most likely they would've already started screaming like crazy already.

This situation was very abnormal.

Moreover, what's this prophecy thing about?

They were usually all bullshit and Luo Tian had never believed in them before.

It was usually those idle people suffering some type of injustice that made up a story to comfort themselves and their own clan members.

But...

As time passes by, the prophecy would be passed down from one generation to the next. Some people would slowly forget about it yet some people will remember it like a sacred text. For the pious looking old sorceress woman with layers of wrinkly skin that were about to die off, she is that kind who had firmly remembered those made up stories.

Luo Tian only used a few moves to kill those patrolling guards, making the old granny extremely excited. This had really reaffirmed her belief that the prophecy would be fulfilled.

She believed in it.

Those six women were also convinced.

Because the prophecy clearly described that only the ones sent by the heavens were capable of killing the undying guards of the Dark Mountain Corpse City.

At this moment...

These women saw hope, and started kneeling down with tears in their eyes. They kowtowed loudly while saying: "Immortal, please save us, please save us..."

It was as if these women found a life-saving straw in the midst of the vast ocean – they were going to grasp onto desperately!

Luo Tian looked at them. Each of them looked extremely pitiful and anyone seeing them would feel some sympathy.

But...

Luo Tian honestly said: "I'm really not the person in your so called prophecy; I'm just a regular human being. The weakness of those undying guards is actually their heads. As long as you shatter their head, they will definitely die. And it was merely a coincidence that I've stumbled upon it."

Their so called prophecy was just a bunch of dog fart.

Luo Tian didn't want to deceive them.

Upon hearing Luo Tian's words, the old granny then justified her stance by saying: "Immortal, you are definitely the person mentioned in the prophecy. You possess a powerful ability and can lead our clan away from the Dark Mountain Corpse City's control. We beg of you, please help us!"

"We beg of you, please help us!"

The six women all shouted in unison.

"We beg of you, please help us!"

"We beg of you, please help us!"

Suddenly...

Outside the house was a crowd of people all kneeling down as well. Most of them were women and the vast majority of them were naked without a piece of clothing on them.

They all had extremely sincere expressions on their face. And the women were all covered in wounds and scars – injuries from being beaten.

Luo Tian was shocked by this.

It was as if his thoughts couldn't process what he was seeing.

Seeing everything before him, his heart felt like it had sunk down to the abyss. He once again asked himself: "What kind of world is this?!"

This place was simply too inhumane.

Luo Tian unconsciously clenched his fists while his eyebrows formed a frown.

The old granny lead everyone to ask in unison again: “Immortal, we beg of you. Please save us!”

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to Luo Tian for triggering the quest – Save the Earth’s Core race.”

Quest: Save the Earth’s Core race

Quest Rank: A

Quest Goal: Kill the Dark Mountain Corpse City’s Lord, Yin Shang.

Quest Rewards: 12,000 experience points, 10,000 profound energy, and a random supportive martial skill.

“Goddamn f*cking hell!”

“I’ve triggered another quest and it’s even an A-rank!” Luo Tian was alarmed by this and wasn’t happy because it gave him another block of pressure.

These people had put him on a pedestal as the person in their prophecy. If by chance he couldn’t kill that Yin Shang guy, these people will definitely become disappointed and might even lose themselves in despair.

This was something Luo Tian didn’t want to see.

The rewards for the quest was quite attractive though, especially that random supportive martial skill. If it was like last time’s A-rank quest, the random Puppet Technique he received was already an awesome peerless skill.

“Ding!”

“Are you willing to accept it? If the player could please make a choice within 10 seconds!”

Luo Tian was in a difficult situation.

If this quest only pertained to himself, he would easily be able to choose an option without hesitation. But this quest was related to the fate of the entire earth's core race...

If he happened to fail the quest, these people will lose their hope in life.

If even a prophecy fails, then what else is there left to save them?

It's possible that these women will be enslaved by the Dark Mountain Corpse City for the rest of their lives until their entire race dies out!

Moreover...

What cultivation level has Yin Shang reached?

Did Luo Tian even have the ability to kill him?

This was a very serious question that Luo Tian had to consider.

It wasn't that he was afraid, but it's something he had to consider carefully.

“Pak~ ... pak~ ...”

A long black whip descended from the sky and heavily whipped down two consecutive times. At the same time, two mournful screams could be heard. The backs of two women kneeling outside the house were ripped up exposing the muscles below the skin. The wound was so deep that even the bones were partially seen.

“You bunch of cheap things, why aren’t you working for this daddy? Are you all courting death?”

A loud shout was heard.

A huge burly guy about two meters tall was holding onto a whip with a vicious look on his face.

The whip in his hands flickered like a living snake before landing heavily again.

“Pak~!”

The whip directly coiled around a woman’s neck before he fiercely pulled on it.

The woman flew up from the tug and landed by the feet of the huge burly guy. He then coldly glanced at the woman’s slightly large stomach before heavily stepping down on it. The woman’s body caved in and some blood flowed out from her lower private part. Her eyes were about to pop out and she was in so much pain that she couldn’t even make a sound. The huge burly guy started laughing before saying: “You damn cheap b*tch, who told you to be so lazy?”

“F*ck!”

Luo Tian shouted as his mind tightened.

At the same time...

He made a thought: “Accept!”

The quest flickered before landing on his quest list.

And then...

Luo Tian burst forth like an enraged lion because this huge burly guy's actions had touched his bottom line.

That's why he didn't hesitate anymore and accepted the quest.

There's a saying: If it's yours, then it will become yours no matter what. If it's not yours, then it will never be yours!

This daddy refuses to believe it!

In a mere instant, Luo Tian's rage rose to the heavens as his fists were pulled back. Red fiery magma was wrapped around his hands releasing a thick hot aura.

The fire was robust, powerful, and seem to contain the angry flames of hell.

With great power infused in them, Luo Tian's pair of fists bombarded out like a cannon.

The punch heavily landed on the huge burly guy's chest. His chest was penetrated before the he directly flew off from the impact.

Of course...

The huge burly guy hadn't died yet and wasn't injured by it.

The huge burly guy got up in anger and shouted: "Who the f*ck doesn't want to keep living? You dare to sneak attack this daddy? With just this meager ability, you want to kill this daddy? This daddy was bestowed an immortal body by the Dark King..."

Arrogant and unrestrained, as if everything was below him.

This was the aura the huge burly guy was currently releasing.

However...

Without waiting for him to finish his words, Luo Tian's figure flew through the air like a phantom. His knees were raised up before a heavy stomp downwards.

Ripples of power were seen exuding from Luo Tian's legs.

"Bang~!"

The impact on the huge burly guy's chest directly tore his upper body away from his lower body!

The huge burly guy's expression was still filled with unrestrained arrogance as he smiled in disdain: "You damn dog thing, you aren't capable of killing this daddy, hahaha..."

A light sneer formed on Luo Tian's lips as a grim reaper like smile appeared. He then coldly said: "Really?"

Immediately after...

His fists were like torrential rain as it pummeled down.

Each punch contained his full strength and the huge burly guy had already died by Luo Tian's first punch. But Luo Tian didn't stop and angrily shouted like a lunatic: "Have you f*cking died yet?"

Another punch, and another punch, and another...

The huge burly guy's head had become meat paste and now a deep hole started forming on the ground beneath the guy's head.

Luo Tian was truly enraged!

The people behind him were all in shock.

It's unknown when...

Someone in the crowd screamed out: "Not good, the undying soldiers of the Dark Mountain Corpse City have arrived!"

Luo Tian's bloodshot eyes looked up, revealing his incredibly icy gaze. His entire body was currently exuding an endless stream of killing intent.

Chapter 122 – Upgrading Magma Fire

The crowd was in an uproar and everyone started running away.

The women's eyes were filled with fear and distress as their bodies unconsciously started trembling.

Fear; incomparable fear.

The vicious treatment by the undying guards made them tremble in primal fear.

Luo Tian supported the pregnant woman that was stepped on by the huge burly guy. Seeing her extremely pale face, he couldn't help feel pain in his heart.

Was he even f*cking human?

He didn't even let a pregnant woman off, and still maintained that arrogant expression.

Everyone had parents; everyone came from a mother. This kind of treatment to a pregnant woman was done by someone that was lower than a beast!

Luo Tian glanced at the lower half of the huge burly guy's body. His eyes still revealed an endless amount of rage as he wanted to kill that guy another ten thousand times.

The old granny came forward and supported the pregnant woman that was about to faint from pain. "Immortal, they have come."

Luo Tian calmly smiled and said: "They've come at the perfect time."

Since he was enraged, then he had to fully release it!

In an instant...

Luo Tian didn't bother waiting for the guards to arrive and directly rushed out towards them.

Luo Tian shot forth like a bullet, and his clenched fists left behind a fiery light trail that appeared to be dragging behind his figure.

"Who is it?!"

"This daddy is your ancestor!"

Luo Tian leapt up with force. His right fist pulled back filled with condensed power before a heavy punch slammed down.

He had accurately aimed for the front most person's head before his attack landed.

A meat explosion by a single punch!

A system alert sounded off in Luo Tian's mind.

"Ding!"

A single punch... instant kill!

Once the first punch slammed down, it was followed by a second punch. Luo Tian angrily shouted:
"Motherf*ckers, you bastards all deserve death so just go straight to hell for this daddy!"

He was like an out of control crazy demon.

The image of the pregnant woman being stepped on replayed itself in Luo Tian's mind, causing the fiery anger inside him to rise up further.

The more enraged he was, the more he wanted to vent.

Each punch he threw would destroy an undying guard. At the same time, Luo Tian wanted to show those women that those so called undying guards were just a bunch of trash, and there was no need to be afraid of them.

Killing like crazy!

In less than thirty seconds, there was only one guard left out of the small sixteen man patrol group.

The surviving guard happened to be the patrol team's leader.

Riding a mount that looked like a hellhound, the patrol leader originally had a ferocious looking expression. Now he was pointing his spear at Luo Tian that was shaking a bit. He looked at all the dead guards around him with an extremely ugly look on his face mixed with puzzlement.

How was this possible?

What's going on? The Dark King bestowed to us immortal bodies so how could they have died?

In addition...

Who was this man in front of me?

How was he able to kill my undying guards?

With his panic expression and a voice that was trembling, the patrol leader asked: "Who on earth are you?"

Luo Tian faintly smiled and replied: "I just said it before, I'm your ancestor."

The eyes of the patrol leader darkened. The ferocious looking hound below him started growling as he coldly harrumphed: "You're courting death!"

"Come at me!"

Luo Tian angrily shouted. He then crooked his finger and smiled: "You bunch of dumbasses; you really think that you're unkillable?"

"The Dark King will never lie to us."

"Our physical bodies are eternal..."

Luo Tian didn't bother waiting for the patrol leader to finish and started picking his ears to express that he was sick of hearing those words. His figure blurred and a punch had already slammed out.

The patrol leader stopped talking as he jumped backwards off the back of the hellhound.

At the same time, the hellhound pounced forth like crazy.

"F*ck!"

"A damn beast like you dares to act arrogant in front of this daddy?" Luo Tian's punch shifted in midair before slamming down onto the ferocious hound's back.

The fiery punch directly smashed the hound's body into two pieces!

The hound didn't die. It was similar to the guard and had a so called immortal physical body. The dog's eyes were glaring at Luo Tian while it continued barking at him from the ground.

It was acting like it had no fear of Luo Tian!

Luo Tian was super irritated by this and immediately stomped on the head of the ferocious hound. Its brain matter splattered all over the ground while Luo Tian shouted: "Motherf*cker, let's see you keep barking now!"

The patrol leader had an extremely ugly look on his face, "How is it that you..."

Luo Tian sneered in reply: "How am I able to kill everyone? This daddy will explain it: You guys are all a bunch of dumbasses who thinks you have immortal bodies, when in fact you are all just a bunch of trash."

They were truly all quite useless.

If we were to use a cultivation level to define them, they were at the most in the early Profound Master realm.

But...

If Luo Tian hadn't found their weakness, it's possible their undying bodies would have increased their combat power to the equivalent of someone at the Profound Grandmaster realm.

Ask yourself this...

If a person you're fighting doesn't feel pain, and wouldn't die no matter how much damage you've dealt them; how are you supposed to fight with them?

It's fortunate that Luo Tian had discovered their weakness or else let's not talk about fighting; these guys could probably tire him to death.

It was also due to this reason that their experience was so high, making this place a good place to grind. If there were tens of thousands more of these types of guys around...

"Gulp~"

Luo Tian couldn't help swallow down his saliva. Then wouldn't breaking through to the Profound Grandmaster realm be as quick as a blink of an eye?

The patrol leader's eyes looked like they could spray flames at this point. He then cursed out: "The Dark King will not lie to us! You cannot kill us, hahaha... An outsider like you will die a miserable death; the Dark King will bestow us immortality once again, hahaha..."

"Bestow your sister!"

Luo Tian's feet made a move and Shadewind Steps was activated.

An illusory line of his figure was seen as he instantly arrived next to the patrol leader. Luo Tian's lips curved into a grim reaper like smile as he coldly said: "Try laughing again..."

The patrol leader was just about to open his mouth to laugh when a fist covered in fiery hot magma smashed into his mouth.

Instant combustion; his head started burning like crazy!

Thick black smoke started coming out of his nose, eyes, and ears.

Inside the patrol leader's head was an insect the length of half a finger, struggling to squirm out of his head.

Also at this time...

A sudden alert tone sounded off in Luo Tian's mind.

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for leveling Magma Fire. Do you wish to upgrade it?"

"Huh?"

"It leveled up?" Luo Tian felt joy and immediately said in his mind: "Upgrade!"

"Ding!"

"Please make a selection for upgrading: Feet, chest, or head."

“What does that mean? Could it be that this martial skill is capable of transforming one’s physical body and eventually turning them into a magma person? Just like a human torch?”

In an instant...

Luo Tian became ecstatic and said to himself: “Could the upgrades eventually lead me to become just like Akainu, one of the three strongest admirals of the Marines in One Piece? Or perhaps Portgas D. Ace? Or would I possess the powers of both of them? Holy shit man, does it really need to be this awesome? My little heart can’t handle this type of excitement!”

Immediately after...

Luo Tian considered for a brief moment before making his decision: “Upgrade the feet!”

“Ding!”

“In the process of upgrading the feet...”

Why would Luo Tian choose his feet to be upgraded first?

The chest and the head would only increase his defense a little while the feet were capable of attacking. When one’s foot kicks out like a fiery whip, how cool what that look?

Of course...

There was actually another main reason why Luo Tian had chosen to upgrade his feet. He was thinking of another character inside One Piece, the curled eyebrow chef Vinsmoke Sanji. How powerful was his pair of deadly legs?

Several seconds went by.

White steam started appearing around Luo Tian's feet before it eventually turned red. Small amounts of magma then started bubbling around them.

His hands and feet now looked like they were made of magma, creating a look that was simply too f*cking awesome!

Also at this time...

The patrol leader was on his last breath before Luo Tian coldly smiled: "Go to hell."

"Stay your hands!"

Suddenly...

A loud and robust voice was heard, and then a black cloud floated down from the sky.

There was a golden light shining in the midst of the black cloud and at the same time, an endless amount of deathly aura could be felt.

"F*ck!"

"If you tell this daddy to stay his hands and he stops, then wouldn't this daddy lose a lot of face?" Luo Tian said in contempt before moving his right fist.

Without a care of the consequences, Luo Tian immediately slaughtered the patrol leader.

"Boom~..."

The black cloud exploded and the endless amount of death aura crashed into Luo Tian like a tsunami.

Chapter 123 – Luo Tian’s Path Of Slaughter

No one was able to block him, even if Gods descended couldn’t!

Because this daddy’s rage has not disappeared yet!

It was as if an entire sky of death aura was crushing against Luo Tian’s mind and sea of consciousness, making it quite difficult for normal people endure.

But Luo Tian felt not an ounce of fear because these beasts didn’t even let a pregnant woman off, so they weren’t even qualified to enter hell.

The magma fire on his fist continued burning like crazy until the head of the patrol leader turned to ashes. With the flakes of ashes drifting down to the ground, a sudden light wind dispersed it into the surrounding area. It looked like the patrol leader’s soul was also burned into nothingness.

Right after that...

Luo Tian looked up at the black cloud that had exploded. His eyes widened and immediately became excited as he mumbled to himself: “It’s a boss!”

The whole body was giving off a golden glow. Although it wasn’t a strong glow, it was definitely considered a mini boss.

As the cloud blew apart, an extremely ferocious looking beast-like head appeared. This was followed by a spear that seem to be piercing through the void. The spear’s body was like a lively snake completely black in color, emitting a thick black flame made up of death energy.

Next was a person at three meters tall with a bare upper body exposing his black iron like muscles. His entire body gave one the feeling of being capable of exploding with power at any given moment.

A powerful aura was pulsating from this person’s body.

This kind of aura was completely different from those previous undying guards.

This type of difference was the huge gap in cultivation levels!

The Commander of the undying guards – You Hun!

The early stages of the Profound Grandmaster realm.

His powers were extremely strong and he was one of the four great protectors below the Dark King!

His appearance caused the faces of the earth's core race to drastically change. Everyone lowered their heads and didn't dare to make eye contact with him.

Fear.

This kind of fear couldn't be described with words.

At this moment, they even forgot to tremble in fear. Their heads looked like they were buried in their chests as their legs unconsciously kneeled on the ground.

Luo Tian noticed this sudden change and started frowning. He then shouted: "Everyone stand up for me! No one is allowed to kneel!"

His voice shook the sky!

It was similar to lightning streaking across a pitch black sky.

Many people looked up at Luo Tian, their eyes showing hesitation and the internal struggle going on in their minds.

Humans must possess pride in themselves.

They can be beaten, they can be killed, they can be ridiculed and made fun of, but humans cannot lack self-respect. They must have dignity and a bottom line. One's knee can kneel to the heavens, they can kneel to the earth, they can kneel to their parents, but they cannot kneel to their enemies!

The old granny was the first to stand up as she loudly said: "Everyone stand up! With the Immortal here, we don't have to be afraid!"

"Hahaha..."

"Immortal?"

"A little puny human being like him is qualified to be an Immortal?" While floating in the air, You Hun lightly glanced at Luo Tian. His face was filled with disdain as he coldly sneered: "Old woman, I think you've become even more confused with your old age. Do you really think your prophecy is real?"

"His cultivation level in the human world is merely at the Profound Master 8th rank. With this kind of cultivation, let's not even talk about killing the Dark King; he's not even qualified to carry my shoes! Hahaha..."

Laughter!

This wild laughter was similar to having heard a particular funny joke.

The old sorceress looked at Luo Tian with a steady gaze. She then faintly said: "You Hun, you've committed a lot of evil deeds. No matter how strong you are, you won't be able to escape your death. Immortal will definitely help us kill you."

"Everyone all stand up."

“Don’t be afraid of him. With the Immortal present, he will definitely protect us.”

Not long after...

Some people were looking at the old granny before looking at Luo Tian not too far away. Their legs then started moving.

Many people wanted to stand back up.

Suddenly...

It was at this time that You Hun glared and coldly shouted: “Keep on kneeling for me! Whoever dares to get up, this daddy will let them feel pain worse than death!”

Luo Tian looked at You Hun, then at the earth’s core race without saying anything.

He was waiting!

Waiting for the earth’s core race to make a decision.

If these people continued to kneel, he would abandon the triggered quest.

There was no point in saving these people.

What use is there on saving people who have lost their dignity?

Many people went back to kneeling, causing Luo Tian’s heart to ache.

The old granny looked at Luo Tian and then looked at her kneeling clan members. Her expression became emotional as she shouted with all her strength: “Do you all really want to kneel for the rest of your lives? Do you all not want to become true and upright humans once again? Do you all want to keep seeing the enemy before you continue living a happy and merry life?"

"Have you not suffered enough?"

Her voice was like an arrow that pierced into everyone's soul.

Especially those words have you not suffered enough. This made their hearts involuntarily shudder.

Immediately after...

Their eyes looked up and were slowly filled with resolution. Their hands supported their body as they slowly rose up onto their feet while shaking.

You Hun's expression became fierce looking. He waved the spear in his hands and a long strand of black fire shot out, straight towards a woman closest to him. The black fire struck out and curled around the woman's neck.

"You want to rebel?"

"You bunch of cheap trash, are you even qualified?"

You Hun moved his spear and the strand of black fire tightened. Just when he was about to rip that woman's head off, he realized no matter how much strength he used, he couldn't move his arm. Upon looking up, he noticed that Luo Tian had appeared at an unknown time and was holding onto the black fire with a cold sneer on his lips.

You Hun smiled.

And then raised his head and started laughing like crazy.

"I originally was going to let you live for a few extra minutes, but I didn't expect you were in such a hurry to die."

"That's fine too."

"This daddy will smash you into the depths of hell."

As his voice faded...

All the black fire on You Hun exploded out and formed into a huge snake figure in the air.

In a blink of an eye...

The huge black fiery snake opened its jaws and was about to swallow Luo Tian whole.

Luo Tian's mind tightened.

The black fire was basically death aura and once one touches it, they would be invaded by it like crazy. There was only way to get rid of the death aura, and that was to destroy them all.

Immediately after...

Luo Tian started frowning while he shouted internally: "Killing intent demon core, today you will destroy to your heart's content!"

"Flood the heavens with killing intent!"

"Come out for me..."

Killing intent rushed out of Luo Tian's sea of consciousness and into the sky. A giant body was materialized holding onto a large scythe.

A grim reaper?!

A grim reaper formed by killing intent?

Luo Tian was shocked because he never imagined the killing intent he released would form a grim reaper from hell. How could he not be excited about this?

Death aura huh?

This daddy is the ancestor of death! You want to compare the power of death with me? Did your f*cking brains get chewed up by a dog?!

In a split second...

The killing intent grim reaper waved its scythe, directly cutting that incoming snake made of death aura into two. It wasn't over yet because the next instant, the killing intent grim reaper started sucking in all the death aura into its mouth.

Also at this moment...

A loud "hong" sound was heard in Luo Tian's sea of consciousness.

A huge powerful surge of energy rushed into his sea of consciousness.

After several seconds...

The killing intent grim reaper's strength had increased by an extra level all of a sudden! Luo Tian was ecstatic because he realized that by absorbing the death aura, his killing intent had enhanced its own powers. This was simply way too awesome!

Being killed meant one would reach their death.

When the Blood Devouring Wild Blade demonstrated its path of slaughter, Luo Tian's mind was unconsciously affected by it.

At that point, the killing intent inside of Luo Tian started quietly undergoing changes.

The path of slaughter was also split into many types.

The path of slaughter Luo Tian was walking on was more violent than the Wild Blade's Shura path. His path of slaughter was to walk the lines of death itself!

At this moment...

Luo Tian's personality underwent a slight change as an overbearing aura exploded from deep inside him. He started laughing arrogantly: "With this little bit of power, you dare to show off in front of this daddy? Come again, you insignificant bastard!"

Chapter 124 – Death Combo

Suddenly...

It looked like Luo Tian went wild.

This type of unrestrained wildness came from his bones, making him seem extremely domineering and overbearing.

This was his path of slaughter – death!

One had to become wild, overbearing, and look down at all existences! Even if he encountered an opponent more stronger and powerful than him, Luo Tian had to become even more crazier!

“The prophecy is going to be fulfilled.”

“He is really the person mentioned in the prophecy.”

“He is really handsome.”

The earth’s core race became so excited that tears had formed in their eyes. There was also a sign of hope within them. At this time, they all started standing up with straightened backs. This was also the instant that they started feeling that things were going to get better in the future.

With tears in her eyes, the old granny look at Luo Tian while mumbling to herself: “Immortal is really too handsome looking, it would be great if I could have his child.”

If Luo Tian had heard this...

Most likely he would immediately turn around and run off, never bothering to come back ever again.

You Hun had a really ugly look on his face. His death aura was actually destroyed and then swallowed, so how could he accept such a thing?

Especially when he noticed the earth’s core race started cheering for Luo Tian, the rage in his heart started gushing out like crazy.

You Hun angrily sneered before shouting: “Humph! You bunch of cheap trash seem to be enjoying yourselves in front of this daddy. Let me immediately let you experience a pain worse than death!”

The ferocious beast below him also started howling.

The expression of those earth's core race drastically changed and the cheering sound suddenly lessened a lot.

Luo Tian then shouted in an overbearing manner: "You little bastard, still acting arrogant huh? Do you believe that this daddy can beat the shit out of you any second now?"

"So handsome!"

"He can still be so handsome while talking."

"I love you Immortal!"

Aren't these earth's core race a bit too friendly?

They were all naked with full breasts and extremely hot figures. Their breasts would have no problem giving oil massages... If he were to stay at this place, then his life will really be filled with sexual happiness!

With this many women... it was going to be awesome!

Luo Tian shook his head to clear his mind before cursing himself: "Luo Tian, Luo Tian, can you f*cking be a little bit more serious? Chunchun's mother is still waiting to be rescued by your; Murong Wanjian is still waiting for you to be stepped on; that sister Xue'er is still waiting for you to comfort her; and that ice cold Leng Hanshuang's tight ass is waiting for you to slap it until it blooms flowers. Dreaming of staying here? Can you please have a little bit of integrity?"

"At least..."

"I should at least take care of all the important matters first, THEN I can sneak back here and enjoy a round or two."

Integrity...

It was all thrown to the ground in pieces.

The earth's core race lived their lives below ground.

They never wore clothes and were a very open race. Especially when it came to love and courtship, they would be very direct and not try to play games.

When they saw an ideal candidate, they would immediately express their love to them. If it weren't for Luo Tian being an outsider making them feel slightly reserved, most likely they would have swarmed him already each trying to get a piece of him. By then, Luo Tian would probably be completely drained down there and live a life of utter exhaustion.

They more these women cheered, the more rage You Hun felt.

"Ahhhh...!"

You Hun angrily roared into the sky. His legs clamped down and the ferocious beast below him shot forward like a streak of lightning. "You damn human trash, go and die for me!"

"Die?"

"With just a little bastard like you?"

Luo Tian remained wildly unrestrained as the concept of death's path of slaughter was constantly spreading around his body. His eyes turned grim as he shouted: "You want to directly clash with me head on? This daddy will play with you!"

"Level 2 Berserk!"

“Ommm~...”

The power of four times the attributes exploded out.

Right after...

Luo Tian shouted: “Magma Fire, upgraded version!”

His feet and legs were covered in magma and started glowing red. Steam started coming out of them while Luo Tian had an extremely cold expression that exuded endless killing intent.

Watching You Hun rush towards him, Luo Tian stood his ground without moving. The muscles in his body were all tensed up as he said to himself: “This daddy wants to see if I’m able to forcefully resist someone at the Profound Grandmaster realm.”

Directly resisting an attack from an expert at the Profound Grandmaster realm?

Luo Tian had completely gone nuts, becoming a super looney lunatic.

Training his physical resistance for only a month and a bit... could he really directly resist the attack?!

Luo Tian honestly had no idea.

But...

He wanted to give it a try. Only then will he understand the strength of someone at the Profound Grandmaster realm.

Back then when Chen Tianyao attacked him, he was completely relying on the defensive abilities of the Evil Blood Armor. Now that the Evil Blood Armor's defense was back to its early stages, there's no way it could resist. Luo Tian could only rely on his own physical body now.

He wanted to directly resist it head on!

Seeing how Luo Tian wasn't moving, You Hun became even more enraged. His spear shot out as he angrily roared: "Storm Blossom Spear!"

The spear's point was like torrential rain stabbing forth like crazy.

In a short several seconds, over a hundred spear strikes had been performed!

And each spear strike contained a death aura about it so once it penetrated into the body; it would start invading like crazy.

"Splutter~... splutter~..."

Luo Tian's whole body was filled with holes where blood squirted out of them. As the blood flowed out, the wound looked black showing symptoms similar to being poisoned.

Very painful!

But...

Luo Tian currently looked like an excited lunatic when he started laughing out loudly. "Hahaha, is this the strength of someone at the Profound Grandmaster realm? It's really not considered much!"

He didn't put up any type of defense.

Luo Tian was strictly relying on his physical body. Although You Hun's attack had penetrated into his fleshly body, the wounds weren't deep at all!

The toughness of his physical body had reached a very powerful realm.

This month of self torture had finally shown a bit of success!

The current image of Luo Tian was exactly like a madman. Even the ferocious You Hun's expression darkened as he cursed out: "You damn lunatic!"

"Heh heh..."

"Your attacks have ended so now it's my turn now."

Luo Tian ferociously grinned, showing his teeth that were stained with blood. This was a smile with a death intent.

In an instant...

The power that had already been circulating within him immediately burst forth as Luo Tian shouted: "Shadewind Steps!"

"Whoosh~!"

Luo Tian's figure blurred and had already disappeared from his spot. The next time he appeared was when he was already in front of You Hun. The power in his right arm was aroused before a punch slammed out.

"Bang~!"

The speed was too fast so You Hun didn't have time to react.

His body flew out several meters back and before he was able to land on the ground, Luo Tian had already arrived at the landing place waiting. Luo Tian faintly smiled and said: "Uppercut!"

You Hun's body once again flew up.

Luo Tian continued following as he leapt into the air. His two magma covered feet started kicking continuously: "The third strike, fourth strike, fifth strike, sixth..."

A fiery light scattered around and magma splattered all over the place.

At this moment in time, Luo Tian looked like he was dancing. The dance moves weren't that pretty to look out but it was filled with incomparable dominance! It contained the essence of death as if they were waltzing in the depths of hell. This dance was a blossoming death combo and was simply too awesome!

This level of awesomeness was a complete mess!

"The one hundredth combo!"

"Bang~!"

As Luo Tian's voice faded, You Hun's body finally landed heavily on the ground. His abdomen was missing since it was trampled into powder by Luo Tian.

You Hun had the so called immortal body so he didn't die and didn't feel the slightest bit of pain. He looked at Luo Tian before laughing out in disdain: "Hahaha, so what if you're powerful? You still aren't able to kill this daddy, hahaha..."

Extremely arrogant and wild.

"Shit man!"

“You’re still acting arrogant at this time? Who gave you such retarded courage?”

Luo Tian smiled while shaking his head.

You Hun started laughing crazily again and was just about to say something...

Luo Tian’s fingers curled into a claw shape and instantly clutched onto You Hun’s skull. He then coldly smiled and said: “Explode for me!”

Chapter 125 – The Awesome Old Granny

“Explode for me!”

As Luo Tian’s voice faded, his five fingers stabbed into You Hun’s skull.

His fingers clamped down and immediately caught hold of an insect the size of half a finger.

The insect’s body was completely black and emitted a black energy.

You Hun’s face was frightened to a pale color and no longer showing any looks of arrogance. He was so scared that his voice started shaking as he said: “What are you doing? What are you doing? Hurry up and let it go!”

His skull had been penetrated and he still hadn’t died yet?

Luo Tian looked at the struggling black insect in his fingers and said to himself: “It looks like if the insect doesn’t die, the person doesn’t die either. What an awesome martial skill... could it be those legendary skills of Gu poison?” (similar to voodoo)

“Undying Gu?”

“So awesome! If I could cultivate this Gu skill, and then train a bunch of undead to kill monsters for me... then surpassing Murong Wanjian will be extremely quick! I wonder if this place has something that will allow me to cultivate this Gu skill?”

This Gu skill was considered something evil.

But...

If an evil skill was used in a good way, then it will no longer be considered evil.

Luo Tian really wanted to gain this Gu skill.

“Quickly let go, let it go! You damn mix-breed dog, hurry up and let go for this daddy!” You Hun was so scared that he even managed to piss himself. His eyes showed incomparable fear as he stared at the struggling Gu insect being held by Luo Tian.

Luo Tian coldly laughed: “Didn’t you have an immortal body? Weren’t you just ridiculing this daddy saying I couldn’t kill you? What’s going on, are you afraid now? How about you start begging this grandpa, hahaha...”

Luo Tian had a contempt expression on his face as he tried to show off.

Seeing how scared You Hun was, Luo Tian couldn’t help being a show off. He had an extremely cheap expression on his face as if reveling in his own glory. “Beg me. If this daddy is happy enough, I might even let this insect go.”

“Quit dreaming!”

“If you dare to kill me, the Dark King will not let you off!”

You Hun was still acting stubborn except he wasn't able to pull it off confidently.

Luo Tian revealed an extremely scared expression while saying: "Wow, the Dark King isn't going to let me off! I'm really really scared, but..."

Suddenly...

Luo Tian's voice turned sharp as he shouted: "If he dares to come here, this daddy will play you AND him to death!"

Immediately after...

He squeezed his fingers and the black insect exploded with black goop oozing everywhere.

You Hun's eyes were extremely large while staring at Luo Tian – he had died!

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing You Hun. You have gained 10,000 experience points, 1000 profound energy..."

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining the Spirit Snake Spear."

"Eh?"

"A weapon loot exploded out?"

Luo Tian was startled by this because he didn't expect a mini boss would have a weapon loot. He then immediately looked up the item.

Item: Spirit Snake Spear

Grade: 7

Description: Contains a secondary oppressive attack when killing intent is applied, and can materialize a long whip.

“Oh shit!”

“This spear isn’t too bad! It actually has a secondary attack that pertains to oppressive pressure. It’s no wonder You Hun was able to release a whip completely made up with death aura. Not bad, not bad at all.” Luo Tian praised to himself.

Weapons were something he needed.

Even though the Blood Devouring Wild Blade was powerful, that thing was a bit too scary to others when it showed itself.

Moreover...

The Blood Devouring Wild Blade was considered an ace he relied on; once it comes out, it must drink blood before it returns!

“He died, You Hun has died, hahaha...”

“Fellow sisters, You Hun has died! That devil has died!”

“Wuuu~... wuuu~...”

The women of the earth's core race felt like their souls had been released upon You Hun's death. They all jumped to their feet with tears in their eyes, and many of them started sobbing quietly. It has been so many years and the guy has finally died.

Each of these women has suffered from his oppression.

Being constantly beaten by his whip, every one of these women hated You Hun deep to the bone!

But they were simply too weak and didn't have the strength to fight back. Now that Luo Tian had killed him, the oppressed sensation in their hearts had finally been released causing them all to start bawling their eyes out.

The old granny turned towards Luo Tian and kneeled down before heavily slamming her head down.

When the others saw this, they too followed her.

The atmosphere of them kneeling was quite solemn but Luo Tian didn't stop them. If he did stop them, it would most likely hurt their dignity.

"Thank you!" The old granny was very serious but didn't say the word Immortal this time.

The others followed in chorus: "Thank you!"

Luo Tian was embarrassed by this but didn't go up to support them back up to their feet. These women were all completely bare naked so he was afraid he wouldn't be able to hold himself back when touching them. These women were all open wolves and tigresses so what if...

No matter what, Luo Tian was still a little virgin.

There are times when you shouldn't be too open. If it were back then with the original six women, he may be able to handle it. But if dozens of these women all came at once... f*ck, isn't that equivalent to taking his life?

The most important thing...

The old granny was now revealing an extremely thirsty look!

What if she...

Luo Tian unconsciously shivered and his little brother shrunk a few inches. Luo Tian maintained his calm look and said: "Everyone quickly get up, these undying guards from the Dark Mountain Corpse City aren't a big deal for me."

The old granny waved her hand and said: "Everyone get up and go home, and don't come out for the time being."

Immediately after...

The old granny walked up to Luo Tian and grabbed his hand, pulling him back to the previous house that was destroyed.

This...

Luo Tian's heart sank into the abyss as he said to himself: "No way... Oh heavens, please save me! I really don't want to..."

His first time and it will be with someone older than him by seventy years, eighty years, or even higher? What kind of scene was this by having a relationship with someone so much older than himself?

Luo Tian started shivering from fear and his legs started resisting. He then asked with a pale face: "Old granny, where are you bringing me to?"

The old granny's pace was hurried and she was pulling on Luo Tian while replying: "Of course it's to my house."

Luo Tian pretended to laugh in a carefree manner but it turned out to be quite an ugly looking one. "If you have something to say, you can just say it here."

The old granny replied: "It's inconvenient to say those things here, so you should just come with me into the house."

After saying that...

The old granny glanced at Luo Tian and her eyelids twitched as if she was shooting out flirtatious electricity. She then tenderly said: "Don't worry; I'm not going to eat you."

"I..."

At this moment...

Luo Tian had thoughts of committing suicide.

If the other person was a guy or even a she-male, Luo Tian would have already attacked without hesitation and quickly run away. But this was an elderly person we're talking about, so how could Luo Tian make a move?

With just a 50 meter distance, the two of them were pulling and resisting for about ten minutes.

Eventually...

Luo Tian was helplessly pulled into the house by the old granny.

The moment Luo Tian was inside the house, the old granny stuck her head outside to look left and right. Once she ascertained no one was around, she quickly closed the door. With an impatient look, the old granny then pushed Luo Tian onto a bed.

Luo Tian immediately became nervous to the max.

“Old granny, what are you trying to do?”

The old granny looked surprised before lightly pointing at Luo Tian and laughing. “Looking at your nervous look, it looks like you’re afraid this old woman would eat you up. Don’t worry, even though you’re handsome looking, the only person I love is my husband.”

A big weight seemed to have been lifted off Luo Tian’s mind upon hearing this.

At the same time...

The old granny went under the bed and pulled out a box. Inside the box was a book that seemed quite old, and on the cover were the three words: Refining Gu Skill.

Luo Tian’s eyes froze...

Chapter 126 – You’re Not Planning On Running Away Right?

Refining Gu Skill?!

Luo Tian’s heart skipped a beat.

If he was able to successfully cultivate this, wouldn’t that mean he would possess a powerful army of Gu insects?!

By that time, he could probably clear out the entire Ghostly Mountain Range!

Clearing out an entire mountain range... how much experience points was that?

His leveling speed would be similar to sitting on a rocket!

His heart was moved!

His heart was super motherf*cking moved!

The prowess of these immortal bodies made Luo Tian extremely interested in refining a bunch of these undead things. And was the Gu skill limited to using it on people? What if he placed those insects into the bodies of demonic beasts?

A rank 5 or a rank 6 demonic beast... If these peerlessly tough demonic beasts with undying bodies were under his control, what kind of existence would they represent?

“Gulp~!”

Luo Tian swallowed hard before asking: “Old granny, is this really for cultivating the Gu skill?”

The old granny sighed heavily before replying: “En, it’s something that has harmed our earth’s core race. It is the source of all evil and I’ve hated it for a few hundred years now. There were many times that I’ve wanted to burn it, but I eventually held back. I somehow had a slight feeling that fate would make arrangements for it in the future.”

After that...

The old granny’s expression became excited as she looked at Luo Tian. “You are what the heavens have planned out for us.”

Luo Tian was startled and asked: “Old granny, you don’t really believe I’m the person in the prophecy right?”

“Prophecy?”

“That was all made up by me.” The old woman directly admitted that the whole prophecy thing was entirely made up by her. From the very beginning, she was a fraudster, a complete swindler. Every day she would go about muttering a language no one could understand to promote her status as a sorceress. She was actually giving the earth’s core race a glimmer of hope so that they wouldn’t give up on themselves.

Luo Tian was shocked by this admission and said to himself: “Goddamnit, so you’re the true swindler! You’re way too f*cking awesome! This daddy fell into your trap of calling myself the person in the prophecy. Calling me Immortal this and Immortal that, I never expected everything would be a lie. I was planning on using my Immortal identity to get one of the hottest girls to warm my bed for me tonight, but it looks like I won’t be able to achieve that anymore.”

The old granny smiled bitterly and said: “Don’t be so shocked, I only did this as a last resort.”

“Sigh...”

“I have sinned; I shouldn’t have allowed my husband to pass the refining Gu knowledge to others.”

“It was entirely my fault that has led to today’s scenario.”

As the old granny was saying this, tears started streaming down her face. She then said with distress: “If it weren’t for me allowing my husband to pass the Gu skill to Yin Shang, it would be impossible for him to establish the present Dark Mountain Corpse City. It would also be impossible for him to take all the men of the earth’s core race and make them into undying guards. It’s all the fault of my selfish desires – I had wanted our earth’s core race to return to the surface world and restore the magnificent era of our race. This old woman has overestimated herself, sigh...”

There was another long sigh.

The old granny had a really depressed look on her face. She then asked Luo Tian: “Are you willing to help us?”

“F*ck!”

“This daddy has already accepted the quest so can I not help?” Luo Tian said to himself. He then faintly smiled and said: “Old granny, I already agreed to help you kill the lord of Dark Mountain Corpse City. Did you happen to forget about that?”

“Sigh...”

“Look at my bad memory.” The old granny slapped her own head and then said: “I also have another small request.”

Luo Tian replied: “Just tell me.”

The old granny said: “Can you help me rescue my husband? He is being locked up at the lowest level of the Dark Mountain Corpse City. Rumor has it that the lowest level is like a sea of corpses, a place where Yin Shang manufactures his undying guards. That place is filled to the brim with corpses, just like a territory of the Undead race. They all only have their physical bodies without a soul, and are just waiting for Yin Shang to plant Gu insects inside them.”

A sea of corpses?”

Then there should be a lot, a lot, a lot...

Then...

Another gulp sound came from Luo Tian. In his eyes, those weren't considered a sea of corpses but a sea of experience points. How much experience could he get from a single Myriad Thunder Roar?

Immediately after...

Luo Tian promptly replied: “Old granny, where is that place? I will immediately go there to rescue your husband, but... I need to honestly ask you: Do you think your husband is able to survive in such a place for all this time?”

A corpse sea!

How can normal people survive in such a place?

Moreover, would Yin Shang let him continue living peacefully just like that?

The old granny had a calm look as she replied: "Yin Shang won't kill him because he hasn't gotten the skill to dispel the Gu poison yet. And he has already refined himself into a large poisonous Gu insect and no longer resembles a human being. Only my husband can save him because my husband is the only person in this world that can dispel the Gu poison. That's a secret ability that our earth's core race will never pass on to anyone."

"Oh."

"That's easier to handle then. Just tell me how to get there and I'll be able to rescue him rather quickly." Luo Tian couldn't wait any longer because the experience points from those undying guards were simply too enticing. If what the old granny said was true, then there should be undying guards everywhere in the corpse sea. Then leveling up would definitely be as fast as riding on a rocket!

The old granny shook her head and replied: "I don't know where that place is and most likely Yin Shang is the only one that knows."

"F*ck!"

Luo Tian directly cursed out loud. "Then how am I supposed to rescue him?"

The old granny continued by saying: "Your strength actually exceeds your cultivation level, and Yin Shang needs people like you to strengthen his undying guards. As long as you're captured and brought to the Dark Mountain Corpse City, you'll be sent to the corpse sea area. At that time, you will definitely be able to meet up with my husband."

"Motherf..."

“Old granny, you’re basically sending me to my death.”

“Since You Hun was already at the Profound Grandmaster realm, Yin Shang has most likely reached the Profound Spirit realm?” Luo Tian started panting as he continued: “My strength is powerful but it’s impossible for me to face an expert at the Profound Spirit realm. What if by chance he doesn’t capture me and instead, directly beats me to death?”

The brows of the old granny sank down.

She was about to say something but stopped herself.

The two of them were both silent in thought.

A while later...

Luo Tian looked at the miserable face on the old granny and sighed. “So there’s no other way?”

The old granny shook her head and said: “If you accept my request, I will immediately give you this Refining Gu skill book. This is an Earth grade skill, something that many godly experts on the surface world would fight over. It could even lead to another major conflict.”

“F*ck, stop trying to tempt me.”

“Even if it was a Divine grade skill, it would be completely useless to me if I’m dead.” Luo Tian said unhappily.

No matter what it was, even if it was a Divine item, it was all just dog’s fart if one didn’t have their life!

The old granny became quiet again as tears blurred in her eyes. Her eyes showed an endless longing that showed a trace of incomparable sadness.

“Sigh...”

“Give me the Refining Gu skill book.” Luo Tian finally gave in while sighing.

He really didn’t have the heart to see the old granny continue being so sad.

To be honest...

Luo Tian was rather sympathetic to the old granny’s plight but he wasn’t stupid or agreeing to her on impulse. In his mind, there were many thoughts and ways he was playing around with to deal with Yin Shang.

The old granny’s expression changed and started smiling. “You’re agreeing to my request?”

“F*ck!”

“I was cheated by you again!” Cursed Luo Tian, but he then continued saying: “I’ll do my best.”

The old granny was so happy that she looked like a little kid full of smiles. She handed the Refining Gu skill book to Luo Tian and said: “As long as you do your best, I’m sure you’ll be able to rescue my husband and save our earth’s core race as well. Ho ho ho...”

Luo Tian took the book and flipped through some pages. He was immediately shocked and said to himself: “It’s so powerful, it’s indeed an Earth grade skill. It even has an Ecstasy Gu, which is something I’ll definitely have to learn. Hahaha...”

Immediately after...

Luo Tian asked: “Old granny, does this area have a path for me to get back up to the surface?”

The old granny's expression became startled and responded: "Why do you need to go back up? You're not planning on running away right?"

Luo Tian gave a mysterious grin: "I'll let you guess!"

Chapter 127 – Creating The Strongest Undead Demonic Beast

"Remember, you only have ten days time. Ten days later, Yin Shang will discover You Hun's death. You have to come back by then because it's the only chance you'll get!"

Ten days of time!

It was truly too short, to the point that one almost couldn't do anything in preparation.

Luo Tian was currently standing on top of a mountain surveying the area. His eyes looked like an eagle searching for its prey.

He was finally out.

He had left the earth's core race.

But he never thought of running away.

If he wanted to run away, it would be very easy for him to accomplish it.

But he couldn't do it.

He didn't want to disappoint the earth's core race and he didn't want to let the old granny down. The most important part – Luo Tian couldn't give up such a good leveling opportunity. In the depths of the Dark Mountain Corpse City was an underground factory known as the corpse sea.

That place was definitely a heaven for gaining experience points.

There was another reason.

When he killed the newbie village's boss Luo Jianshan, he was given the Blood Devouring Wild Blade.

Then what would the boss Yin Shang give?

Luo Tian had a feeling that as long as he killed Yin Shang, it would definitely trigger the system's second big reward. The system rewards were simply too awesome! Such a powerful item like the Blood Devouring Wild Blade was given when the newbie village's boss was defeated, so what kind of awesome item will be given for the boss of this area?

With all these combined factors, Luo Tian definitely couldn't run away.

It's not easy to find bosses so how can one ignore it?

Was a normal human being even capable of ignoring it?

There's a possibility of dying but even if you aren't strong enough, the urge was still there to give it a try.

No matter what, this Dark Mountain Corpse City was a place that Luo Tian was definitely going to barge into!

"Boom~..."

"Boom~..."

Suddenly...

Loud rumbling could be heard within a dozen of kilometers. A Pangolin that looked like a moving mountain filled with sharp spikes was passing through kicking up a cloud of dust.

Luo Tian's lips formed a grin as he said: "I'll start with you!"

Immediately after...

He instantly shot off at extreme speeds where a dozen kilometers were covered in less than half a minute. Watching the Pangolin demonic beast playing about, Luo Tian coldly smiled: "You will be the first rank 5 demonic beast of my undead army!"

The Pangolin turned around to get up, showing its back that was covered in stone-like spikes. It then tucked in its body and started rolling looking similar to a spiked fidget spinner.

Luo Tian's Spirit Snake Spear swept out. His killing intent rose up as he welcomed the incoming attack.

The spear was stabbed out!

Killing intent was injected into the spear, causing it to create an oppressive pressure.

The moment the huge Pangolin screamed out, Luo Tian's feet that were covered in magma started stomping down continuously. He wasn't going to give this beast any breathing room because once this demonic beast was given a chance; it would definitely burrow into the earth to escape. And by that time, it would be impossible to capture it anymore.

"Die for me!"

With power coursing through, Luo Tian heavily slammed his knee into the Pangolin's head.

"Boom~!"

The Pangolin demonic beast then toppled over without any life left in its body.

It was quite easy for the current Luo Tian to deal with a rank 5 demonic beast, so there was no need for him to use all his strength.

Luo Tian climbed onto the Pangolin's corpse and his eyebrows tightened. He then opened the Pangolin's mouth before exhaling in a serious manner. There was a slight change in Luo Tian's eyes and his brows tightened a bit more before he activated the refining Gu skill.

His sea of consciousness shuddered.

A huge amount of killing intent started roiling.

It was constantly surging about and condensing at the same time.

It was extremely uncomfortable because it felt like the killing intent was trying to tear his sea of consciousness apart.

After several minutes...

Luo Tian had been following the method on how to refine the Gu poison. A small insect made of killing intent appeared in Luo Tian's sea of consciousness and started wriggling slightly. Cold sweat appeared on Luo Tian's body because in just a short amount of time, he had used up 5000 profound energy.

Not only that, this martial skill consumed a lot of one's spiritual energy as well.

If it weren't for Luo Tian's spirit having increased after controlling his puppet soldiers, most likely he wouldn't be able to handle this skill.

Luo Tian made a thought, and the small Gu insect made of killing intent appeared in his palm. It was so small that it looked like a newborn silkworm, where one would not see it unless that paid extra careful attention to it.

Luo Tian carefully placed the Gu insect made of killing intent into the Pangolin's mouth, allowing it to slowly crawl inside.

A short time later...

An alert tone sounded off in Luo Tian's mind.

"Ding!"

"Refining failed!"

Luo Tian's whole body deflated as he cursed out: "F*ck your uncle!"

His level was too low so failure was normal, but this failure was simply too painful. It was 10,000 times more painful than suffering from an oppressive pressure from an expert. This pain was on the same level as the backlash of using the Void Piercing Dragon Technique.

Having no choice left...

Luo Tian took a rest before starting the process again.

Another round of pain!

And what he gained was another failure.

"Ding!"

“Refining failed.”

“Ding!”

“Refining failed.”

Luo Tian had lost count of how many times he heard that same message. His whole person looked like he had aged dozens of years because this process was just too tiring. He barely had any strength left right now from the exhaustion. If he had any other choices, he would definitely not cultivate this dog’s fart Gu skill.

His profound energy was completely depleted.

So Luo Tian started shoving pills in his mouth.

He also started consuming those normal demon cores.

His profound energy then started increasing like crazy.

Luo Tian then continued focusing on cultivating his Gu skill.

Half an hour went by...

When Luo Tian was at the brink of despair, the system sounded an alert.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for successfully refining.”

“F*ck yeah!”

Luo Tian was ecstatic. He made a thought and the Pangolin demonic beast immediately stood up. Its whole body was exuding killing intent from Luo Tian’s own path of slaughter – death. “Hahaha... I’ve finally succeeded in refining it! I almost died from doing this over and over again, but f*ck your granny I succeeded!”

He was too excited.

Excited to the max!

The killing intent from this Pangolin was quite strong as well.

Those undying guards from the Dark Mountain Corpse City were a bit different from this Pangolin. They also exuded a strong killing intent but it could be described as containing a cold aura of death.

There was a direct relationship with the person who refined the Gu insect.

Yin Shang had gone crazy and his sea of consciousness underwent a mutation creating an aura of death unique to himself, so all the Gu insects he refined would all possess a trace of Yin Shang’s death aura in them. Luo Tian used his pure killing intent in cultivating the Gu skill, so all the refined Gu insects contained death from his path of slaughter which was death itself, the grim reaper.

Luo Tian was so happy that his spirit was instantly uplifted. Seeing the first member of his undead demonic beast army, he started laughing savagely while mumbling to himself: “Yin Shang right? Just wait for this daddy! We’ll see if your undying guards are stronger or if this daddy’s undead demonic beasts are stronger. Heh heh heh...”

These types of thoughts would only appear in crazy individuals like Luo Tian.

He never thought of using dead people and only wanted to use the demonic beasts from the Ghostly Mountain Range. What kind of scene would he create if he brought a bunch of undead demonic beasts to the Dark Mountain Corpse City?

It would surely be an awesome sight to behold!

Just thinking about it would make one's blood boil.

“Onto the next one!”

Luo Tian stored the Pangolin demonic beast into his spatial plaque before storming towards another rank 5 demonic beast.

Earth's core race.

Inside the old granny's house.

“Granny, that man will come back right?”

The old granny appeared to be in low spirits. She raised her head to look at the hole that Luo Tian fell down from and said blankly: “He should be coming back...”

“The Immortal will definitely not forget about us; he will definitely rush back soon.”

One of the women said in firm belief.

There were others with a hidden frown as they mumbled: “Tomorrow will be the tenth day and Yin Shang will definitely arrive by then. There's no way he would let the murderer of You Hun off. If the Immortal doesn't come back, most likely we will all have to die.”

“Immortal, you definitely have to come back!”

Chapter 129 – A Huge Crisis

In the Ghostly Mountain Range where Luo Tian was at.

“BOOM~!”

“Motherf*cker, let’s see if you’re going to die now!”

Luo Tian’s fist heavily smashed down, killing a rank 5 Rock Scorpion. He coldly laughed and said: “You are now a member of my undead army, hahaha...”

A full nine days.

Luo Tian didn’t sleep or rest as he searched all over for high ranking demonic beasts. He continuously refined those undying Gu insects.

These nine days was similar to living hell.

It was too f*cking agonizing for him.

But when he thought about the boss Yin Shang in the Dark Mountain Corpse City, and the corpse sea below it, everything seems to be worth it.

These nine days of continuous killing had allowed Luo Tian to break through into the Profound Master 9th rank. Now he was only a single level away from the Profound Grandmaster realm!

Luo Tian sat down with his legs crossed and calmed himself down. Inside his sea of consciousness, the grim reaper’s death energy from his path of slaughter began to surge about and crashing around. His entire body felt uncomfortable and his sweat drops were like rain. His expression had started to pale slightly as well.

“Fuuu~...”

Luo Tian lightly breathed out a mouthful of turbid air.

Immediately after...

He started frowning and his sea of consciousness started shaking violently. Killing intent started converging together into a physical object – a Gu insect made from killing intent!

The moment the killing intent Gu insect was formed, Luo Tian’s body finally relaxed. It was as if he had just finished running a marathon and his whole body had become exhausted. Cultivating this Gu skill was simply too tiring.

An Earth grade martial skill.

Not only did it consume a lot of profound energy, it also depleted a lot of his spiritual energy.

If Luo Tian’s cultivation level was a bit higher, then the pain he suffers will lessen by a bit.

A small Gu insect appeared on Luo Tian’s hand. He then carefully placed it inside the Rock Scorpion’s mouth. The little insect slowly started chewing the flesh inside the mouth before drilling into the corpse.

“Teacher Sola Aoi and big sister Maria Ozawa, please bless me.”

“I was so in love with you all back then so now you have to bless me, I really want to succeed in one shot.” Luo Tian was praying in a very pious manner because he really didn’t want to experience his spiritual energy being completely drained again.

Not long after...

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for successfully refining!”

“Shit!”

“I succeeded in one shot!”

Luo Tian looked into the sky and softly said: “Even though we are in different worlds, I still love you girls with all my heart. Thank you for your blessings, wahahaha...”

In these past nine days, this was the first time he had succeeded on the first try.

One must say that cultivating this Gu skill was not your run of the mill difficulty. When you failed, your proficiency value didn't go up; only when it was successful did it go up. And the worst thing about it? It required 5000 proficiency in order to reach level 2... it was simply too perverse!

But...

Inside the skill description, once the Gu skill reaches the last great perfection level, the Gu insect is capable of devouring all Demons and Gods! Isn't this a bit too terrifying?!

There were only three words Luo Tian wanted to say: “I like it!”

The Gu insect took over the Rock Scorpion's body and it started standing up like it had been resurrected. It then looked over at Luo Tian with an emotionless stare.

Luo Tian smiled in satisfaction and tossed it into his spatial plaque. “And another one. Since I still have one more day to go, I should try to get a few more. I wonder what the scene will look like when I bring a bunch of rank 5 demonic beasts to the Dark Mountain Corpse City. Heh heh...”

“What’s so awesome about creating some undying guards?”

“This daddy has created undead demonic beasts that are all the size of small mountains! They are all capable of one against a thousand so wouldn’t my beasts just slaughter everything in their paths?”

Upon imagining this, Luo Tian’s heart started boiling in excitement.

Night time, the earth’s core race.

Because they lived underground all year round, the earth’s core race didn’t really have a concept of night and day.

But...

The current earth’s core race was enshrouded in darkness. It was even darker when comparing it to the above ground world!

Yin Shang had arrived!

He had arrived one day early.

This was something no one had expected.

The sky and earth were blotted out by huge amounts of undying guards. Their entire body was covered in black armor and their stare were as hard as steel. They were all in neat rows standing behind Yin Shang.

Yin Shang, the Lord of Dark Mountain Corpse City!

A human body with an insect growing out of his head!

His height had reached two meters and above his shoulders was a head no longer considered human. There was now a ferocious and incomparably poisonous Gu insect attached to his head! It was dark as night and continuously released a terrifying amount of death aura.

He could no longer be considered human anymore!

Yin Shang underwent cultivation deviation when training in the Gu skill, causing a big Gu insect to grow out of his skull.

At this time...

Dozens of women of the earth's core race was crowded together and shivering in place. They were currently experiencing intense fear in their hearts!

"Who was it?!"

"Who was it that killed You Hun?! Who was it that killed my undying guards?!" Yin Shang's voice was similar to a ghost weeping that made one's blood run cold. There were some children in the crowd that started crying from being overly scared.

The children's crying made Yin Shang's eyes become even more fierce.

His big insect head immediately released a flame made of death aura.

The death aura flame instantly projected out and lifted one of those children up into the air.

"Don't!"

“Don’t hurt my child!”

The child’s mother frantically pulled her child’s arm. The child started crying even louder and their face paling from fear.

Yin Shang coldly shouted: “This King has arrived yet you cheap things that don’t know what’s good for you started wailing and crying. You have made this King extremely unhappy so... heh heh...”

Yin Shang started laughing coldly.

The eyes of the child in the air suddenly protruded out. Numerous streams of death aura were drilling into the child’s mouth, eyes, and ears like crazy. The child’s eyes turned completely black and the body started convulsing. In just a few seconds, the child’s body had become stiff.

But...

It still wasn’t over yet.

Yin Shang started laughing out loud madly, sounding similar to an evil spirit from the depths of hell. The big Gu insect on his head suddenly sucked in a breath of air...

“Boom~!”

The death aura in Yin Shang’s body exploded out.

That child suddenly had their limbs all chopped off, causing them to fall down next to their mother.

That mother started wailing and began gathering her child’s limbs in a frantic craze. She then started rushing towards Yin Shang.

“Muhahaha...”

“Hahaha...”

“A cheap slut who’s seeking death!”

Yin Shang sneered ferociously before his right finger made a slight movement. The death aura flame became something akin to a sharp arrow before piercing into that woman’s head. Her head exploded and her body instantly fell over. Fresh blood splattered onto Yin Shang’s face before he slowly licked it off. His expression became even more excited as he asked: “Is anyone going to talk? Who was it that killed my undying guard?”

No one moved.

The women of the earth’s core race all glared at Yin Shang.

Yin Shang started getting angry as he glared at the old granny. He then coldly smiled: “Mistress1, you’ll tell me right?”

The old granny glared with wide eyes. “Quit dreaming! I should’ve had the old man kill you back then!”

“Hahaha...”

“Mistress, you should stop kidding around. If it weren’t for me, how could our earth’s core race become so strong? It won’t be long before we can slaughter our way out and establish our earth’s core race’s undying kingdom! Hahaha...” Yin Shang started laughing out like crazy again.

Immediately after...

Yin Shang’s expression slightly changed, and some sort of power surged out of his body. That power directly smashed into the old granny forcing her into a kneeling position on the ground. He then angrily said: “You damn old woman, if it weren’t for you still being a bit useful to me, I would’ve sent you to meet the king of hell Yama already!”

“Apart from the six virgins I want, don’t let any others off – kill them all!”

The undying guards behind Yin Shang started rushing forward.

No one resisted.

Their eyes all contained a deep hatred.

Many people started loudly shouting: “Yin Shang you damn mix-breed dog, Immortal will definitely not let you off!”

Chapter 130 – Someone From Heavenly Sword City

The tenth day!

Luo Tian timely returned to the earth’s core race.

The dozens of spatial plaques he had were all filled with demonic beasts.

In addition to rank 5 demonic beasts, there were also many rank 4 ones. All of them combined became his powerful and peerless undead demonic beast army.

But...

The moment he landed down, he was completely shocked at the scene before his eyes.

There were corpses, mutilated limbs, blood, and decapitated heads everywhere. Men, women, children, the elderly, none of them were spared. This was no different than complete genocide!

Moreover, the way they had died was extremely cruel. Everyone died a miserable death. Heads were shattered and chests were pierced multiple times by spears. Even babies that had been born for only a few months were not spared. Elderly people on their deathbeds were not spared! Luo Tian's expression underwent a dramatic change.

In a mere moment...

The rage in his heart rose to the heavens as he roared out: "Yin Shang! This daddy will not let you off!"

Inferno of rage!

Endless amount of rage!

Luo Tian was currently burning up in a fiery rage. He has seen cruel things before in his life but not to this degree of cruelty. Was that guy still even f*cking human?

Previously...

Before Luo Tian had left, the old granny said that if Yin Shang and his people arrived earlier than expected, her clan will definitely be annihilated. If it does happen, Luo Tian was not to go to Dark Mountain Corpse City alone because he was definitely not an opponent of Ying Shang by himself.

He should quickly leave this place and not bother with anything.

Yin Shang had tens of thousands of undying guards, and the Dark Mountain Corpse City had an impregnable defense. He definitely shouldn't go there; absolutely shouldn't go.

The old granny's voice seemed to be speaking right into his ear at this moment.

Luo Tian was standing in place while clenching his fists on and off.

Suddenly...

“Who are you?”

A small six person patrol group rushed forth and surrounded Luo Tian.

“There’s still someone alive from the earth’s core race? Didn’t they all die yesterday?”

“This kid looks like an outsider.”

“He can’t be the person in the prophecy that the sorceress mentioned right?”

“Hahaha... a piece of trash like this is a person of a prophecy? Only someone like you will believe in prophecies. Prophecies are just stuff to cheat three year olds.”

The six of them started casually chatting with each other.

They weren’t placing Luo Tian in their eyes at all.

They also had no clue how angry Luo Tian was currently.

Luo Tian stood there and coldly asked: “Where is the Dark Mountain Corpse City?”

The guard leader sneered and coldly harrumphed: “Kid, you still haven’t told us who you are!”

His voice hadn’t faded yet...

When Luo Tian’s figure suddenly disappeared. His five fingers clamped down into that undying guard’s head. He then directly pulled out that undying Gu insect and crushed it. Luo Tian’s body was exuding a boundless amount of killing intent when he said: "I'm going to ask again: Where is Dark Mountain Corpse City?"

The expression of the remaining five guards changed.

They all pointed their spears at Luo Tian and one of them shouted: "Kill him!"

The five guards attacked together and their spear heads displayed a black flowery blur filled with the aura of death.

Luo Tian coldly glared at them and shouted: "You're overestimating your own abilities!"

Immediately after...

Luo Tian's body moved, and smashed out four punches in under a second!

"Bang~, bang~, bang~, bang~!"

Each punch would cause a guard's head to explode like a watermelon before their dead bodies toppled to the ground. The remaining guard was to the left of Luo Tian's fist. With a yank, that guard was pulled towards Luo Tian's face while his cold eyes were only a few centimeters away from his. "Where is Dark Mountain Corpse City?"

That undying guard was pale with fright and his body trembling uncontrollably. Luo Tian's eyes were similar to a grim reaper's which was too uncomfortable to bear. The guard unconsciously pointed towards a dark abyss and said with a shaky voice: "Over, over, over there at the bottom."

Luo Tian's left hand moved and threw the guard down.

He then took a few steps forward before frowning.

A thick killing intent made from his grim reaper's path of slaughter suddenly erupted from Luo Tian. He leapt into the air and heavily dropped down, directly crushing the head of the remaining guard.

Killing intent; extremely strong amount of killing intent!

Luo Tian glanced at the dark abyss before shouting with all his strength: "Yin Shang, this daddy will be taking your life!"

Dark Mountain Corpse City, the Dark King's Palace.

Yin Shang was sitting on his Dark King's throne with a joyous and interested expression. "Have you brought the things I want?"

At the main palace halls.

There were three people in black robes, and on the robe were embroidered with a blood colored skull.

The leader of those in black robes pulled out three spatial rings and said: "Six thousand corpses in the Profound Master realm, one thousand corpses in the Profound Grandmaster early stages, two hundred Profound Grandmasters at the peak stage, and fifty corpses in the Profound Spirit realm. The things that Lord Dark King wants our Evil Blood Sect to do will naturally be accomplished."

That person then continued: "Lord Dark King, what about the things we wanted?"

Yin Shang smiled in a satisfied manner and then waved his hand. Two undying guards carried out two jugs that were about half the height of a person before placing it in front of those three in black robes.

Yin Shang coldly said: "Inside are ten thousand rank 3 undying Gu insects, and possesses a high success rate in refining Gu corpses. The controller only has to inject it into the target and it can be easily controlled."

The originally calm eyes of those three people in black robes were not so calm anymore.

With ten thousand undying Gu insects, the efficient use of it would mean controlling ten thousand experts.

In their hearts, this Yin Shang was a complete retard. Such precious material should only be placed into super experts for one to control. Putting them inside trash like Profound Masters was simply a huge waste.

If they were able to find the ancient holy graves...

Inside the holy graves would lie the corpse of an ancient godly expert. If they were to place a Gu insect inside them and control an ancient godly expert, who on this entire continent can resist them anymore?

Moreover...

The Evil Blood Sect had already discovered a possible ancient holy grave site. There was a high possibility that an ancient godly expert's corpse was buried there!

They were doing this business transaction with Yin Shang because they wanted the ability to control this ancient godly expert!

Luo Tian was already quite crazy by coming up with the idea of controlling demonic beasts. Who knew that the Evil Blood Sect were even crazier than him, where they wanted to directly control an ancient expert. This was simply over the top!

The elderly leader in black robes then asked out of curiosity: "Is there a way to dispel the undying Gu insect?"

Yin Shang faintly frowned before coldly smiling: "What happened? Do you have a friend infected with the Gu skill?"

Seeing Yin Shang's cold smile, the elder in black robes felt some unease and replied: "Nothing, I was just casually asking."

Yin Shang then said: "Once one has been infected by the Gu insect, they will be controlled by you for the rest of their life. For such a good thing, why would anyone want to dispel it? Isn't that right, Elder Blood Dove?"

The elder in the black robe showed a ruthless and cold smile, "Well said!"

Suddenly...

That large Gu insect on Yin Shang's head lightly shook, and his expression immediately changed. His eyes turned fierce as he shouted: "Blood Dove, did you bring other people here with you?!"

There was a hard to detect cold death aura dispersing throughout the Dark King's Palace.

This was all controlled by the Gu insect on Yin Shang's head, and any abnormal fluctuations would be detected by it.

The eyes of the elder in black robes turned serious as his pupils shrank. He then coldly laughed: "My people are here already so why would I need to conceal them?"

Yin Shang then asked: "It's really not your people?"

Blood Dove replied: "Definitely not my people."

"Blood Worm, Blood Chill, find this person."

The two people behind the elder in black robes disappeared.

Yin Shang lightly laughed and said: "Since this is my territory, there's no need for Elder Blood Dove to make a move."

As his voice faded...

A powerful burst of death aura flames exploded from Yin Shang's body and rushed towards a corner of the Dark King's Palace.

In that instant...

A figure slightly moved and landed on the ground on the corner.

Blood Dove was startled by this but then started coldly laughing: "Someone from the Heavenly Sword City!"
