Chapter 131 – Yin Shang, Scram Out Here For This Daddy...

“Someone from the Heavenly Sword City?!”

The dark figure landed and a man that looked like a scholar appeared. He was frowning while looking at Blood Dove: “I never imagined the Evil Blood Sect has stooped so low to be doing business with someone that’s neither a man nor an insect.”

Yin Shang’s expression drastically changed as he angrily shouted: “Who are you calling neither a man nor an insect?!”

“Huh?”

“A disciple of the Sea Cloud Sect?”

“And you’re also...”

Blood Dove looked at the emblem on the scholar’s chest and became shocked. “You’re someone from the imperial clan?”

The scholar’s expression slightly changed.

Seeing that the scholar wasn’t saying anything, Blood Dove breathed in deeply and smiled ferociously. “It really is the bloodline of the imperial family. The smell of their blood is simply too fragrant.”

“Hey, hey!”

“Elder Blood Dove, this is still my Dark King’s territory.”

“For such a good corpse coupled with its Heavenly Sword City’s imperial lineage; it’s definitely going to be mine.” Yin Shang rushed to stake his claim.

The strength of Heavenly Sword City’s imperial clan was legendary.

Being able to control someone from it will definitely be beneficial.

Blood Dove coldly smiled and said: “Lord Dark King, I only want to drink his blood. As for his corpse, that will naturally be reserved for you.”

Yin Shang smiled in satisfaction and said: “Good!”

Blood Dove’s movement skill caused his figure to flicker in an unpredictable manner. A cold grin hung on his face as he looked at the scholar: “Now be a good little obedient child and display any moves you have. I really want to see what abilities the Sea Cloud Sect has passed on to you.”

The scholar’s eyes became grim. His right hand made a movement and a sword suddenly appeared.

The blade part was blue and the light waves exuding from it looked like running water. Its energy hadn’t even been stimulated yet and it was already giving off a sharp sword qi. One look and anyone could tell the grade of the sword wasn’t ordinary.

The scholar waved his sword and the blade became illusory with trails of afterimages behind it. He then shouted: “This alone will be enough to deal with you!”

“Humph!”

“Such boastful words!”

Just as Blood Dove’s voice faded, he had already shot off towards the scholar.

His black robe turned into a blood mist diffusing through the area while his figure had suddenly disappeared. A thick smell of blood started spreading through the air and the entire main hall was similar to a sea of blood. The smell was simply too pungent!

“Blood Sea!”

A cold shout was suddenly heard from the void.

The scholar’s figure moved like a phantom mirage as his sword was positioned in front of his chest. His body then started emitting a faint amount of imperial qi. Since they’ve found out he was someone of the imperial clan, then there was no longer any need to conceal his identity. Once the imperial qi was released, it directly shoved the blood mist away. The sword in front of the scholar’s chest suddenly moved as it stabbed into the void: “Thunder Shock Sword Skill!”

“Bang~!”

A flash of light was seen in the main hall.

The sound of metallic items colliding was heard, and two figures bounced away.

Blood Dove started coldly laughing from the void. “Thunder Shock Sword Skill huh? It doesn’t even have half the power of that old geezer Chen. Looks like you’re nothing more than an embroidered pillow¹ so just go ahead and die for me!”

The scholar didn’t say anything in response.

The imperial qi around him became thicker by a bit.

The scholar’s eyes gleamed as he locked onto something. The profound energy in his dantian suddenly surged out. A brief sword light was seen before the sword qi shot out, enveloping the entire main hall.

At this moment in time...

Countless swords appeared to be ringing as they continuously slashed forth.

The profound energy in Blood Dove's dantian also surged out as his thick sea of blood exploded outwards.

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

Yin Shang was quite unhappy about this as he softly said: "How can I allow you guys to fight all over this daddy's main hall?"

Furthermore...

He was afraid Blood Dove would destroy the scholar's perfect body.

In order to create a perfect undying guard, the living was the best and it also had to preserve its existing cultivation level. There was a slight grin on Yin Shang's lips before the insect growing out of his head started releasing death aura like flames.

Blood Dove and the scholar were fighting so intensely that they couldn't be differentiated for the time being.

Blood Dove's cultivation seemed to be a level higher, but the imperial qi released from the scholar's body was able to restrain his Blood Sea skill. This was why those two were in a deadlock now.

But...

The scholar didn't have as much profound energy to deplete like Blood Dove.

Blood Dove was stronger than him so it was natural when comparing profound energy, the scholar was on the losing end.

This was what the scholar was worried about.

For this reason...

The Flowing Cloud Sword in the scholar's hand made a slight movement, and a huge aura started billowing out from it. The moment Blood Dove rushed forth, the sword stabbed out at the speed of lightning. The sword's blade instantly became larger, heavier, and its power doubled.

Shock appeared on Blood Dove's face as he immediately retreated to dodge the attack.

"Let's see how you'll escape!"

The scholar shouted.

Also at this moment, a thick mass of death aura fiercely pounced towards the back of the scholar.

"Ommm~..."

Before the sword was able to fully stab out, the death aura like flames had already surrounded the scholar. It was continuously surging and penetrating into his body. The poisonous death toxin then started devouring all the bodily functions within the scholar. Apart from the heart, sea of consciousness, and mind, everything else was currently being devoured.

This scene was similar to a spider quickly catching its prey that had fallen in its web.

The imperial qi of the scholar couldn't resist it.

Within an instant...

A burst of light shot out of his body and flew out of the main hall.

The scholar roared out: "Don't bother with me, everyone quickly leave!"

Yin Shang's expression became fierce as he coldly shouted: "There's still more? Relay my commands: Close the city gates and do a thorough search. Capture them all and bring them to me. Remember that I want them alive. I want to refine them to become my strongest undying guards, hahaha..."

Blood Dove revealed his figure as he watched the death aura like flames constantly invading inside the scholar. He licked his lips, showing a trace of reluctance and coldness in his eyes.

"Boom~!"

A Cloud Piercing Arrow shot into the air above the Dark Mountain Corpse City.

The scholar's voice was amplified by his profound energy, allowing everyone in the city to hear it. This of course included the teammates that had come here with him.

"Tang Ming..."

"Ninth Prince..."

"Junior brother..."

Voices cried out in a certain corner of the Dark Mountain Corpse City.

Three people then shot forth in unison directly towards the Dark King's Palace.

However...

Like a tidal wave, countless undying guards were rushing towards them along the main streets.

It was a sea of dark mass from every direction, and each and every one of them exuded a strong aura of death. These guys weren't the normal undying guards that patrolled outside but was Yin Shang's elite troops. Before they died, each of them was in the Profound Grandmaster realm!

"Run!"

"Quickly run! There's too many undying guards!"

"But the Ninth Prince is still inside. Could it..."

"There's no other choices, he might already be..."

Facing a tidal wave of undying guards, it was near impossible to even rush towards the Dark King's Palace, let alone saving someone.

In an instant...

The three of them no longer hesitated and started running towards the exit of the city.

Inside the Dark King's Palace.

Blood Worm and Blood Chill were faintly smiling as one of them said: "Lord Dark King, how about we go help out as well?"

Without waiting for the Dark King's reply, the two of them transformed into a blood mist and flew out.

Those three continued killing on their path of escape...

All three of them were covered in blood and seriously wounded by now. It wasn't easy for them to finally make it to the city's gate but when they arrived, they found that the city gate was already closed. And stationed in front of the city gate was a large amount of undying guards.

The three of them had lost all hope.

"Senior sister, you leave first! We'll cover for you!"

One of them was in the front to open up a path while the other stayed in the rear to cover.

"You want to escape?"

"Heh heh... senior brother, that pretty woman will belong to me while the other two will belong to you." Blood Worm started smiling pervertedly.

Blood Chill nodded and replied: "We'll do it that way then."

It was at this moment...

Before the city gate, a figure was standing there with a murderous aura billowing out from him. His fists were clenched tightly before they suddenly bombarded out onto the gate while angrily yelling: "Yin Shang, scram out here for this daddy!"

"BOOM~!"

Chapter 132 – I'm Going To Use My Special Move

"BOOM~!"

The sound was like a thunder that resounded through earth and the nine heavens!

His strength was like the sea that crushed everything in its path!

The two thick stone doors of the gate couldn't handle that power. It was smashed apart and was sent flying out, causing dust and debris to shower the area.

At this moment...

The killing intent exuding from Luo Tian was like a dragon made of a grim reaper's aura that rushed into the city. It started crazily absorbing the death aura flames coming from all the undying guards in the area.

The undying guards were instantly frozen in shock.

They had even forgotten to counterattack.

Amidst the shower of dust, Luo Tian started walking over the collapsed rubble. He once again roared into the air: "Yin Shang you damn mixed-breed dog, scam out here for this daddy!"

His voice shook the sky and his arrogance beyond extreme!

That shout had actually contained a trace of power from his Lion Tiger Gold Shattering Roar sonic attack. That's why Luo Tian's voice was able to spread to every nook and cranny of the Dark Mountain Corpse City. This naturally included the Dark King's Palace where Yin Shang was currently situated at.

Complete silence!

The entire city was so quiet that even a pin drop could be heard now.

Was this guy a crazy lunatic?

He actually dared to be this unbridled in the Dark Mountain Corpse City?

Only a madman would dare to do something like this right?

The Heavenly Sword City's prince and the elite disciples of the Sea Cloud Sect didn't dare to openly enter the Dark Mountain Corpse City. So where did this retard come out from?

And it was a retard that hadn't even reached the Profound Grandmaster realm yet!

If this guy hadn't lost his mind, then what else could it be?

At this point in time, everyone, including the three Sea Cloud Sect disciples on the ground was staring at Luo Tian in a dumbfounded manner. Amongst the disciples was actually a beautiful, big breasted, and hot bodied mature sister.

"This person is a nut case right?"

"He's gone batshit crazy right?"

"He actually dares to act wild in Dark Mountain Corpse City? He'll lose his life in a second."

This was the internal monologue of countless people.

Their brains couldn't even comprehend Luo Tian's audacity.

"A Profound Master 9th rank like you is trying to deliver your life into others hand? Hurry up and escape!" That hot mature sister cried out.

It was also at this moment...

The two blood swords of Blood Worm and Blood Chill slashed down.

“Swish~! Swish~!”

The two male disciples next to the mature sister had their throats slashed. As fresh blood was squirting out, Blood Worm and Blood Chill crazily rushed forward and started sucking on their necks. There would be an occasionally ferocious cackling coming from their mouths in the process.

It was also at this moment that the present undying guards finally reacted.

Someone shouted: “Kill him!”

Luo Tian looked up towards a towering palace in the background. His lips formed a cold smile before glancing at the mature sister not too far from him. He leapt up and heavily landed before supporting her back to her feet. Luo Tian then faintly said: “You can hide behind me!”

His voice sounded kind of hoarse.

It’s possible that it was due to him roaring out so much.

But this wasn’t important.

The most important thing was that Qin Yue’er’s mind shook from that voice, as if she was naturally attracted to its charm. She shook her head and said to herself: “What kind of man have I not seen before? How could I be charmed by him?”

“His cultivation level is only at the Profound Master 9th rank so how can he protect me?”

“This kid wants to chase skirts and not want his life anymore?”

“You really think I’m some naive 18 year old girl huh? This old lady is already 26 years old! This is too outrageous!”

It’s unknown when...

Qin Yue’er became a bit angry as she glared at Luo Tian and said: “Little brother, how old are you even? At such a young age and you’re trying to pick up girls already? Do you even know what place this is? This is the Dark Mountain Corpse City and these guys all have immortal bodies. No matter how much you attack them, they won’t die. Your little tiny cultivation level isn’t quite adequate here so you should just obediently hide behind this big sister.”

“Since I still have a breath left, I will send you out of the city. You should then go to the Heavenly Sword City and look for the Sea Cloud Sect, then have them bring back reinforcement...”

“Huh?”

“Did you hear me?”

“Hey, hey, hey, what are you trying to do?”

Qin Yue’er almost lost her mind.

Because Luo Tian wasn’t paying attention to her and was already walking forward. There were rows upon rows of undying guards who all had bodies that were unkillable...

At this moment...

Luo Tian’s figure moved and his right hand formed a claw. One of the undying guard’s head was clawed by him and exploded from the grip. The body then naturally crumpled to the ground into a useless heap.

The guard was dead – instant kill!

Qin Yue'er became dumbfounded.

Her eyes were wide and mouth agape as she stared at Luo Tian without blinking. It was over half a day before she could even react. Her heart didn't want to admit it but she helplessly said to herself: "What the f*ck?! This kid is too cool! Your granny you damn Qin Yue'er! What kind of time and place is this? Your companions have just died and you're the only one left, and you start to have the hots for a guy? Not to mention he's just a little boy. You... a little boy, a freaking little boy! He is quite good looking but this sister has never hit on guys so much younger than myself before."

Infatuation!

Women were truly mysterious creatures.

At such a time, Qin Yue'er was actually thinking on how to hit on Luo Tian.

Did she not realize what kind of situation she was currently in? She was practically at a dead end!

This was too over the top!

Of course, one can't deny that the current cold Luo Tian with his murderous eyes looked like those ruthless killers of novels – he was really too cool looking right now!

There was a commotion amongst the crowd of undying guards.

When seeing their companion dying just like that, doubt started appearing in their eyes.

"How could this happen?"

"What's going on? We cannot die right? The Dark King bestowed us immortal bodies so we definitely will not die..."

“Could he really be the person of the prophecy?”

“Only he is capable of killing us!”

“No way, no way, we definitely won’t...”

Before the word “die” was even said out loud, his head had exploded already. An undying Gu insect started wriggling out before Luo Tian stepped on it. A system alert then sounded off in his mind.

Dark King’s Palace.

Yin Shang had a really ugly looking expression. He was standing at the entrance of the main hall while his big Gu insect sticking out of his head was shaking with fear.

This made Yin Shang even more pissed off!

Off to the side, Blood Dove had grim looking eyes while his lips formed a cold smile. He then said to himself: “So that’s the secret to the undying Gu insect!”

Immediately after...

Blood Dove faintly said: “A mere trash at the Profound Master 9th rank... Lord Dark King, do you need me to take care of him for you?”

His voice carried a trace of contemplation.

Blood Dove originally had some fear towards this Dark King, but now...

That fear had lessened quite a bit.

Yin Shang only glanced at Blood Dove with the corner of his eyes as he said: "Elder Blood Dove, you should just stick to properly managing your people. If they dare to put their hands on my prey, I will send you all to your deaths right here!"

Under the black robes, Blood Dove shivered before moving off to the side and not saying another word.

Yin Shang coldly harrumphed. He then went out of the main halls a bit and transmitted his voice throughout the entire city: "Kill him for me and I will bestow to you eternal life!"

A voice filled with chill and a death aura started spreading throughout every nook and cranny of the city.

Those undying guards looked like they had just taken a vitamin supplement and became excited.

"Eternal life!"

"Eternal life!"

"Eternal life!"

The undying guards of Dark Mountain Corpse City all started shouting in unison that shook the sky.

With just a single sentence, it caused their battle intent to surge up like crazy.

Was there even a difference to being undying and eternal life?

Most of the undying Gu insects were at rank 1 while an eternal life Gu insect was at rank 4, possessing much greater power. The most important thing was that a rank 4 Gu insect wasn't something that could be killed instantly. And the insect growing out of Yin Shang's head happened to be at rank 8!

Luo Tian's lips formed a sneer. He then said to Qin Yue'er behind him: "If you don't want to die, you better stay behind me because I'm going to use my special move!"

Chapter 133 – Can You Not Be Like This

“You still have a special move?!”

Qin Yue'er was completely charmed by Luo Tian.

Especially when she heard the words these undying guards were talking about – the man spoken in the prophecy.

This was simply too domineering and cool!

She has seen countless men in her life and every one of them cannot control themselves when they see her. Yet Luo Tian was extremely calm all the time, giving her the impression that he was a god-like man!

Afterwards...

Qin Yue'er immediately made a decision that she has never made before: “This sister will definitely make this kid mine!”

She perked up her chest and those two voluptuous breasts pushed against Luo Tian's back. She then softly said: “En, I will definitely follow behind you for the rest of my life...”

That voice!

And the soft and bouncy feeling against his back...

This can really take one's life away!

Luo Tian's crotch obviously had a response from this stimulus. He swallowed down his saliva and said:
"Hey sister, can you not be like this?"

"Huh?"

"You don't like what this big sister is doing?"

"Then what do you want me to do?" Upon saying this, Qin Yue'er squeezed her arms together and pushed her two meat mounds into forming a bottomless gully. A gully that can devour the beholder straight into its depths.

Very deep!

Very big!

Couple that with Qin Yue'er's mature and sultry looks; the complete sex appeal package was just too tempting!

Luo Tian couldn't wait to just pounce on top of that!

His little brother became even longer and thicker. The evil flames within him burned even brighter but his heart was completely bitter. He started mumbling: "Hey sister, if you keep doing this, we'll most likely die right here."

"Oh!"

It was as if Qin Yue'er suddenly woke up. Her right hand reached over to Luo Tian's crotch area and gently patted it. She then tenderly said with a smile: "I'll wait until you're finished with your task first, we'll have plenty of time later."

"Shit man!"

The evil flames that Qin Yue'er had incited almost made him unable to hold back anymore.

If they weren't in such a situation right now, he would've already ravaged her thoroughly! What normal man can endure such provocation by her?

Qin Yue'er could feel Luo Tian's temperature rise. Her face started blushing because she has never treated a man like this before; Luo Tian was the first one. Her heart was feeling a bit nervous but also some excitement like it was an especially fun game.

Luo Tian was suffering to no ends.

His evil flames were raging like crazy!

It was fortunate that during this time, a large group of undying guards were rushing towards him.

Qin Yue'er then said: "Handsome little brother, they've arrived. Big sister is very scared so you need to protect this big sister."

After saying that...

Her two meat mounds suddenly mashed themselves against Luo Tian's back. She then giggled: "This will be considered a bonus. Once you're able to bring me out of this place, there will be even better rewards for you."

"Good!"

"Back up a few steps!"

Since she was so close, Luo Tian couldn't activate his move.

Qin Yue'er complied with his request.

After recovering from her sudden daze, she was a person that knew what things she could do or not do during certain times. She rather enjoyed flirting with Luo Tian because not only was he good looking; there was also a mysterious aura that attracted her towards him.

This attraction was similar to love at first sight.

Inside the Sea Cloud Sect, there were many talented disciples chasing after her but she didn't even give them a single glance.

But the moment Luo Tian killed that undying guard, her heart trembled and her mind felt like she had fallen into a daze.

“Kill!”

“All for eternal life!”

“Kill him!”

All those undying guards rushed towards Luo Tian like a tidal wave. When Luo Tian saw those undying guards come from all directions, his heart was in ecstasy as he said to himself: “Experience, experience, they're all experience points!”

Immediately after...

Luo Tian stomped down and leapt into the air. He then roared out: “Myriad Thunder Roar!”

“BOOM~!”

“BOOM~!”

Storm clouds started gathering in the air. Luo Tian then landed next to Qin Yue'er and shouted:
"Descend for me!"

A rain of lightning attack!

This was the nemesis of undead creatures!

It was the same for video games, and it was the same when dealing with that Thousand Year Zombie King back then.

So what's going to happen when dealing with these undying guards?

Luo Tian wasn't too sure but this was the only crowd control attack skill he had!

Countless lightning strikes started raining down from the storm clouds. Within a ten plus meter radius around Luo Tian, it had become something similar to a lightning field. All the undying guards in the area were more or less struck by the volley of lightnings.

"Ding!"

"Ding!"

"Ding!"

A series of system alert tones exploded in Luo Tian's mind!

It was similar to hearing those ear deafening firecrackers being lit, except the melody of sounds was simply too wonderful.

Luo Tian was excited!

His experience bar could be visibly seen increasing.

The experience points these undying guards gave were too awesome.

Qin Yue'er was once again dumbfounded as she stared at Luo Tian in disbelief. The excitement she was currently feeling could not be described with words. She was fearful for her life not too long ago yet now she was no longer afraid. The only thing she felt right now was that Luo Tian was able to hold up the entire world!

"This big sister is making you mine!"

Says the internal monologue of Qin Yue'er.

The Myriad Thunder Roar skill had finished.

There was still over half of the undying guards alive at the lightning field area without the slightest injury. The reason was very simple – lightning did not directly strike their heads. The undying guards who had their heads directly struck were all instantly killed.

But...

Since it wasn't struck the first time, there's still a second round.

Since the Myriad Thunder Roar was actually useful, then Luo Tian will just bombard them all with it!

"Myriad Thunder Roar!"

"Blow up these motherf*ckers!"

Luo Tian once again activated the Furious Thunder Bull's special skill.

A lightning field once again descended.

A chorus of wails and cries were heard in the midst of the lightning field. For those undying guards who thought they were immortal were now in despair. Many of them started shouting: "Yin Shang, you lied to us! You damn fraud, you lied to us..."

They continued screaming up until the moment of their death.

But many undying guards continued rushing forth.

So Luo Tian continued bombarding the area around him.

He was also constantly on the move towards the direction of the Dark King's Palace.

Off into the distance on top of a flight of stairs, Luo Tian stared firmly at Yin Shang standing there with an expression that he was supreme and above everyone. This annoyed the crap out of him so he shouted: "Just you wait you damn dog thing! I will slaughter everyone in your Dark Mountain Corpse City!"

Yin Shang's expression turned ugly.

It was an extremely ugly look on his face right now!

Seeing his undying army that he built up personally being beaten up to such a pathetic state by a Profound Master 9th rank human, it was something he absolutely couldn't accept!

At this moment...

Blood Dove stepped forward again but this time with a more respectful expression. “Dark King, you should let my two disciples deal with this trash. Their cultivation level is in the Profound Grandmaster realm so it will be extremely easy for them to deal with this human.”

There was a slight change to Yin Shang’s eyes as he nodded slightly. “If he can be captured alive, I will gift you ten thousand more rank 3 Gu insects.”

Blood Dove smiled.

He then condensed a blood thought and instantly transmitted his message to Blood Worm and Blood Chill amongst the crowd.

The two of them grinned before starting to chuckle in a cold manner.

Immediately after...

The two of them hid their auras and silently crept towards Luo Tian.

Luo Tian was currently in bliss as he watched his experience soar into the sky. He had focused all his attention on Myriad Thunder Roar and his ears were ringing from all the destruction. There was no way he would notice some humans creeping up behind him right now.

Within an instant...

Two blood figures dodged past the lightning and their Profound Grandmaster energy exploded forth! Two blood red palms were now slamming straight for Luo Tian!

Luo Tian’s heart sank, “I’m screwed!”

Chapter 134 – Qin Yue’er Is Pissed

Luo Tian had been quite excited.

The system alert tones had made him very excited.

He was continuously activating Myriad Thunder Roar and the system alert kept ringing his ears off. His heart was blooming flowers of happiness, so that's why he became careless.

Luo Tian never imagined that there would be other humans here apart from Qin Yue'er.

He also never imagined someone would sneak attack him!

That's why when Blood Worm and Blood Chill both attacked, Luo Tian's mind sank as he shouted internally: "Not good!"

Blood Worm and Blood Chill were both personal disciples of Blood Dove. Their cultivation levels had already reached the Profound Grandmaster realm and even reached the 3rd rank. When both of them made a sneak attack together, the power behind it had risen to another level!

The blood red palms slammed forth.

Luo Tian basically had no reaction to it because it simply came too sudden and quickly.

"Bang~!"

"Bang~!"

Two loud thud sounds were heard.

Extreme pain wracked Luo Tian's chest area as his entire body was sent flying. He then heavily landed against a house to the side before causing it to collapse into rubble. Luo Tian was buried within the rubble and it was unknown if he was dead or alive!

It was too quick!

So quick that he had no time to react!

Moreover...

Luo Tian's cultivation level was only at the Profound Master 9th rank while those two were at the Profound Grandmaster 3rd rank. And they both attacked at the same time!

There was a big difference in cultivation levels!

There was also a difference in cultivation realms!

Blood Worm started coldly smiling and said in disdain: "What utter trash!"

Blood Chill was also coldly smiling, "He couldn't even take a single blow!"

Those two succeed in their sneak attack and had a proud and arrogant expression on their faces.

There was someone quite unhappy about this.

Qin Yue'er was extremely unhappy. She glared at those two with flames of rage and said in a pissed off tone: "You two squirts dare to attack the man I've got my eyes on? Watch how I play you to death!"

"Yoh!"

"It's only been a few minutes and he's already become your man?"

“It looks like the Sea Cloud Sect only groom cheap sluts. Junior brother, are you sure this woman is someone you want?” Blood Chill laughed in contempt.

Blood Worm licked his lips. His eyes ogled Qin Yue'er's large breasts before pervertedly laughing: “Senior brother, I've never tasted women from the Sea Cloud Sect before. Just look at that woman's protruding breasts; those are definitely high grade boobies. Then look at her round ass that's so tight and firm. Her small waist doesn't have any excess fat and those long slender legs, kek kek... those are definitely top grade! I dare to guarantee this woman's goods are all still in their original package; she's definitely still a virgin!”

In the Evil Blood Sect, Blood Worm has a nickname of the little perverted bastard.

He has enjoyed countless women before so the power of his eyes was quite accurate.

Blood Chill seemed to have been stimulated by Blood Worm's words. He looked at Qin Yue'er again and found that she was rather interesting now, and his eyes started showing a trace of evil fire.

Blood Worm's eyes narrowed as he swallowed down his saliva. He then pervertedly laughed: “Senior brother, do you want to do this woman together? I've prepared several new drugs and I guarantee we'll rise blissfully to the heavens, heh heh...”

A perverted smile hung on Blood Chill's mouth. “Really?”

Blood Worm replied: “Of course!”

Blood Chill then said: “What are we waiting for then? Let's grab her!”

These two were chatting with each other completely not putting Qin Yue'er in their eyes.

Qin Yue'er had a rather ugly look on her face. She glanced over at the rubble and said to herself: “That handsome little brother shouldn't be dead right?”

“Their damn granny!”

“They dare to sneak attack a guy this big sister fancies? They’ve truly pissed me off this time!”

Immediately after...

Qin Yue’er’s right hand moved and a sword appeared. She had a cold expression on her face similar to those girls labeled as ice cold goddesses. She then shouted: “You two little Evil Blood Sect bastards, watch how I take care of you both!”

With her eye-catching outfit, Qin Yue’er’s exquisite S curves were prominently revealed.

Add an icy cold sword in her hand; this was basically the charm of a hot and cold combo!

Her figure moved and her full breasts quivered slightly. Within an instant, sword qi filled the air as it streaked towards Blood Chill and Blood Worm.

Those two didn’t dare to be careless.

They both released the Blood Sea skill, causing the surrounding area to fill with a pungent smell of blood. Those two then threw out palm strikes to meet the oncoming sword attack.

“Celestial Maiden Sword Skill!”

“Scattered Flowers of the Celestial Maiden!”

Sword qi violently pelted down like rain. Qin Yue’er made another shout as she floated into the air, and her cold blade started manifesting sword like flowers. She was now like a hot goddess scattering flowers onto the mortal world except the beautiful scene was filled with incomparable sharpness!

“Blood Sea Rising Sky Palm!”

The two of them both shouted in unison.

“Humph!”

“You two little brats dare to act presumptuous in front of this old lady?”

“Cut them up for me!”

Qin Yue'er's sword qi's started becoming even sharper, where each of them gave off its own suppression. She then angrily said: “Who told you to sneak attack my hubby? It's already hard for this old lady to find a guy she fancies yet you dare to sneak attack him? Courting death; simply courting death!”

Every time her sword stabbed out, she would roar out in rage.

She was really pissed!

Because of the difference in cultivation levels, Qin Yue'er's aura was able to suppress Blood Worm and Blood Chill.

The both of them started scurrying away like mice as they retreated from her attack.

In the Dark King's Palace.

Yin Shang faintly chuckled: “Elder Blood Dove, your two disciples don't seem very adequate...”

His laughter contained a trace of disdain.

Blood Dove's expression changed as he suddenly shouted: "You two can't even handle an injured woman? A half-ass Celestial Maiden Sword Skill that has form but no power yet you two pieces of trash can't even break past it?"

"Huh?"

Blood Dove was actually giving them two advice.

Blood Worm and Blood Chill came to a realization and glanced at each other with a cold smile.

Their figures turned around and immediately rushed back.

Blood Dove's words had revealed her flaws. Qin Yue'er's face darkened since she had only cultivated the Celestial Maiden Sword Skill for less than three months. She hadn't grasped the essence of this grade 6 martial skill yet so she was only able to display the forms but not the explosive power behind it.

It was useless for sword skills to have the form yet lack attack power!

In addition, she was seriously injured and the profound energy inside her dantian was almost used up. Displaying this Celestial Maiden Sword Skill had consumed a lot of profound energy, and she was hoping to force them away with it and then go for the kill amidst the chaos. Unfortunately, her flaws were easily seen through by Blood Dove.

Her heart had started to panic.

It was at this moment that Blood Worm's blood palm came striking over.

Qin Yue'er's eyes sank. She then flicked her sword in front of her chest hoping to block the palm strike with it, but never imagined behind her would be Blood Chill ferociously laughing: "Little beauty, here comes this little granddaddy!"

Another palm strike slammed out!

“Bang~!”

Qin Yue'er's back caved in and she was sent flying forward. Dark colored blood splattered out of her mouth.

Right after that...

Blood Worm's palm strike landed and directly forced Qin Yue'er flying into another direction before landing where Luo Tian was covered in rubble. Her face was pale and the pain on her body made her involuntarily spasm.

“Heh heh...”

“Little beauty, you should stop resisting.”

“We two brothers will take good care of you.”

“Hahaha...”

The two of them came closer one step at a time. Their expressions were quite perverted as they started heavily swallowing down their saliva. Their whole image was as lecherous as lecherous could be.

A little part of Qin Yue'er's heart died at this moment.

Seeing the expression on Blood Worm and Blood Chill, she was afraid!

This fear was similar to a young girl encountering a child molester. This was the first time in her life that she has experienced such fear!

Women are really mysterious creatures...

Qin Yue'er was currently thinking to herself: "I will definitely marry whoever that can save me right now! Come out now my hero!"

Within this instant...

A bloody colored blade stabbed into the sky, emitting a domineering aura of pure killing intent.

Chapter 135 – So Handsome And So Cool

Many girls have dreamt of being saved by a hero.

When Qin Yue'er was very young, she had always dreamt of a hero and waited for one to appear in her life.

Because of her talent and her hard work, the martial path she traversed all these years was quite smooth. She encountered almost no strong obstacles in her life and never experienced any situations that were too dangerous. She happened to group up with the Ninth Prince at the Heavenly Sword City so they could explore the Dark Mountain Corpse City. She originally thought that with her identity as someone from the Sea Cloud Sect, no one would dare to take things too far with them. That's why she thought this trip of theirs wouldn't be too dangerous either.

But...

Qin Yue'er never imagined the Dark Mountain Corpse City was basically another world.

The Ninth Prince's life and death was uncertain.

The other two team members had died.

And now she...

Qin Yue'er was smiling bitterly in her heart and a tear had formed in the corner of her eye. She then suddenly remembered a childhood dream and started praying by using herself as a bargaining chip: "I will definitely marry whoever can save me right now. Where are you my hero?"

Just when she was done praying, a loud "boom" was heard in the rubble.

A huge blade covered in blood was thrust out of the rubble. The blade's body was exuding an endless amount of domineering aura along with a thick killing intent.

Right after that...

A figure emerged shooting right into the air while shouting: "Motherf*ckers, you dare to sneak attack this daddy?!"

A human with a huge blade descended!

His body was covered in an aura of arrogance like he had just finished rampaging through a city.

Killing intent and unbridled arrogance was billowing out from him.

At this moment...

Luo Tian's domineering aura was in a complete mess!

Qin Yue'er became dumbfounded as he couldn't help say in her heart: "So handsome, so cool looking, and so domineering!"

A hero had appeared!

It was a bit different from how she envisioned his debut would be like, but Luo Tian happened to be even more domineering and arrogant. Her heart started fluttering but she then immediately realized a problem: She wasn't an opponent against Blood Worm and Blood Chill so how can someone with the strength of a Profound Master 9th rank deal with them?

At this moment...

Qin Yue'er's emotions sank down once again.

"Eh?"

"He hasn't died yet?"

"That damn trash is truly lucky to be alive. Although he has survived after receiving our two palm strikes..." Blood Chill started coldly laughing and then said to Luo Tian in disdain: "That expression on your face looks like you want to be a hero and save the damsel in distress."

"Hahaha..."

"He thinks he's qualified for it?"

Blood Worm started laughing out loud. If it were Qin Yue'er's companions, those two might feel some nervousness. But a trashy Profound Master 9th rank? Luo Tian's cultivation level wasn't even close enough for them to pay attention to.

They could directly ignore him!

Did a Profound Grandmaster 3rd rank have to even care about a trashy Profound Master 9th rank?

There was absolutely no need!

The eyes of them two were filled with utter disdain. Blood Chill then coldly laughed: "If it weren't for the Dark King wanting to capture you alive, you would've died already. You really think our combined palm strikes aren't capable of killing you? You damn piece of trash, you actually dare to act arrogant in front of us? Ptui!"

Blood Worm was too lazy to even talk to Luo Tian. He couldn't wait anymore and walked up to Qin Yue'er and crouched down near her. Looking at Qin Yue'er's breasts that looked like they were about to burst out of her shirt, Blood Worm raised his hands and made a grasping motion in midair. He then pervertedly laughed: "So big! I have never seen such big and perky breasts in my whole life!"

Qin Yue'er directly spat onto Blood Worm's face and shouted: "Scram!"

Blood Worm created a nauseating scene by sticking out his tongue and licking off the saliva. His eyes seem to give off a strange glow as he pervertedly laughed: "Don't be so impatient little beauty; this little granddaddy will soon let you experience some heavenly joy, haha..."

Just as his right hand reached forward about to rip Qin Yue'er's shirt apart...

Luo Tian raised his eyes and shouted in an icy tone: "It's best that you scam as far away as possible or else I'll chop off your dog's paw!"

A slight frown formed on Blood Worm's brows. He then glanced over at Luo Tian and said in disdain: "Damn brat, this daddy will strip her right in front of you. This daddy will then bend her over so you can have a good look."

After saying that...

His right hand reached out.

Qin Yue'er was seriously injured and had no strength left to resist. She could only stare blankly at Blood Worm's hand reaching towards her. A tear formed in her eye as she unconsciously looked towards Luo Tian with a begging expression.

“I, told, you, to, scram, as, far, away, as, possible!”

Each word was pronounced one at a time!

Rage that had reached the heavens! Once the last word was pronounced, Luo Tian disappeared from his spot. With killing intent that reached the heavens and domineering aura from the Wild Blade, the oppressive pressure all came crushing down like Mount Tai collapsing. The Wild Blade slashed down and the sky seemed to have darkened.

“Watch out junior brother!”

“Boom~!”

The blade chopped down. It was overbearing and beyond sharp; without a bit of hindrance to it.

Right next to the body of the blade was a single bloody hand!

Blood squirted all over the place and Blood Worm’s face became pale. He started retreating backwards quickly while screaming out in pain. He then started cursing: “You damn dog thing, you dare to cut this daddy’s hand off? This daddy wants you to die right now! Senior brother, kill him for me, kill him!”

Blood Worm kept screaming vehemently while suffering from pain.

Luo Tian didn’t even bother giving him a glance and went to support Qin Yue’er up. He then helped her adjust her clothing before asking out of concern: “Are you okay?”

At this moment...

Qin Yue’er’s heart felt like they were melting. Her eyes were staring at Luo Tian without blinking before saying in a cute and tender manner: “I’m fine.”

While inside her heart, the excitement she was feeling was in a complete mess. "He's so handsome!"

He said he'd chop off that guy's hand and did just that. This man is simply way too cool!

When Blood Chill saw how much pain his junior brother was in, the flames of rage ignited in his heart. He didn't care about what the Dark King had said prior and directly rushed forth. His hands formed into palm strikes as his blood aura surged out. "Hand your life over to me!"

As he shouted this, his attack arrived in a blink of an eye!

Luo Tian's huge blade was then stabbed into the ground. He fists sank down to his side while he activated the Evil Blood Armor's defense. Right after that, a thick amount of profound energy was then circulated to his mind, sea of conscious, and chest area to reinforce his physical defenses.

Luo Tian felt like he could directly take a hit from an expert at the early Profound Grandmaster realm.

The strength behind someone at the Profound Grandmaster 3rd rank was quite powerful. Luo Tian understood that just relying on his physical body would not be enough to resist an attack, that's why he used his profound energy to reinforce himself.

Luo Tian's feet seem like they had taken root to the ground as he stood their firmly. His eyes stared at Blood Chill and a gloomy manner as he madly laughed: "Come at me! If you can't kill this daddy with one strike, this daddy will take your life afterwards!"

Luo Tian was still acting so wildly when he's about to be beaten?!

Qin Yue'er couldn't help but start worrying for Luo Tian's safety. At the same time, she felt like he was even more handsome than before! "My little heart is pounding like crazy; are you trying to kill me with your hunkiness or something?"

"Die!"

Blood Chill's pair of palms seem like they contained the endless power of a blood sea, and those blood red palms of his came slamming over like the force of heaven!

An extremely powerful attack!

Luo Tian frowned while cracking sounds was heard from clenching his jaws too hard.

"Come at me!"

"If you can't play this daddy to death, this daddy will in turn play YOU to death!"

"BOOM~!"

"Boom~..."

Resisting head on!

Two large blood red palms slammed into Luo Tian's chest, almost making him feel like his soul was being smashed right out of his body! The pain Luo Tian was feeling right now couldn't be described with words!

But...

Luo Tian was clenching his jaws so hard that they were bleeding. Ignoring the pain, he started coldly grinning with blood seeping out at the corner of his mouth. His expression actually showed an extreme excitement while his right hand raised the 1800 jin Blood Devouring Wild Blade right above his head. Luo Tian smiled ferociously: "This daddy already said it: If you can't play me to death, then it'll be my turn to play you to death!"

The Wild Blade slashed across the sky before chopping down forcefully!

Chapter 136 – Killing One After Another

“No!”

“Senior brother!”

These two cries were heard.

The blade chopped down with an arrogant and overbearing aura.

The blade directly chopped into Blood Chill’s head, cutting his body into two. Blood flowed down the blade’s body and it started giving off a ringing sound. It was as if there was a ferocious beast hidden inside the blade drinking up the fresh blood. The whole scene was extremely domineering to the max!

Instant kill!

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing Blood Chill. You have gained 5000 experience points, 600 profound energy...”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining Blood Sea. Will you be cultivating it?”

“Cultivate!”

“The more martial skills, the better.” Luo Tian didn’t hesitate at all. Not to mention, once Blood Sea was activated, it was similar to the Wild Blade’s world of slaughter. The only difference was Blood Sea caused the immediate area to look like it was covered in blood while the world of slaughter made the whole world look blood red.

There was another reason.

Combining Blood Sea with Wild Blade would make it even more domineering. Blood was a substance that invoked a sense of fear in people, and this was considered another layer of psychological oppression to his opponents.

Blood Chill had died.

Blood Worm was currently sitting on the ground and seemed to have forgotten to wail in pain. His eyes were staring at the two halves of his senior brother's corpse, and a sense of deep fear rose from the bottom of his heart. At this moment, Blood Worm looked in the direction of the Dark King's Palace and screamed out: "Save me master!"

Immediately after...

Blood Worm stumbled to his feet without the slightest aura of arrogance anymore. The only thing in his mind was to escape immediately! As long as he could flee to his master's side, he'll be able to survive this crisis!

Who wasn't afraid of death?

The higher one's cultivation was, the more they feared death!

Seeing how Blood Worm was trying to escape, Luo Tian's lips curved into a grin. He then coldly laughed: "You want to run?!"

"Weren't you very arrogant just now?"

"Weren't you looking down on this daddy?"

"Didn't you say this daddy was trash?"

“Bang~, bang~, bang~...”

Luo Tian was dragging the Blood Devouring Wild Blade behind him as he ran to catch up. He was exuding unbridled arrogance while shouting those words out each step he took!

As Wild Blade was being dragged on the ground, sparks of flame scattered everywhere.

At this moment, Luo Tian was similar to a murderous butcher that was coldly staring at his prey. This type of expression filled with gloom and slaughter would make anyone terrified on sight.

Inside the Dark King’s Palace.

Blood Dove’s expression underwent a drastic change. He clenched his fists and his body turned into a blood colored shadow flying into the air.

No one expected this!

Blood Dove and Yin Shang never imagined that Luo Tian’s single slash would kill Blood Chill at the Profound Grandmaster 3rd rank. The difference in strength between them two were like 108,000 miles apart, so how could it be an instant kill?

Killing their opponent by jumping levels was extremely difficult.

If it was a difference of a whole realm, that was even harder!

A Profound Master 9th rank and a Profound Grandmaster realm was like the difference between heaven and earth, so there’s no way someone can jump levels to kill the other. How did Luo Tian accomplish this?

Blood Dove couldn’t figure it out, and neither could Yin Shang.

Even Qin Yue'er close by to Luo Tian was at a loss. Her heart suddenly realized Luo Tian was very strong and his back looked very dependable like a giant colossus. She then said to herself in a joyful manner: "Hero, I'm definitely marrying you!"

The main reason Luo Tian was able to kill Blood Chill was because Blood Chill's palm strike wasn't able to kill him.

Once the powerful palm strike landed, the profound energy in Blood Chill's body was focused on the attack so his defense was momentarily weaker. Luo Tian directly resisted the attack head on, his blood circulation increased from the adrenaline, and he chopped down full of rage.

Coupled with the overbearing power of the Blood Devouring Wild Blade, it was natural that Blood Chill was killed under these conditions.

But...

Luo Tian also suffered a somewhat serious injury. He then said to himself: "The strength behind someone at the Profound Grandmaster 3rd rank is quite remarkable. Next time I better not take a hit head on because I almost lost my life."

"Go ahead and run!"

"Keep trying to run! Even if the heavenly kings arrive, they still won't be able to save you!"

"You dare to touch my woman?!" Luo Tian coldly shouted as he dragged the Wild Blade behind him, and had pretty much caught up to Blood Worm who was staggering about.

Blood Worm's face was pale and fear showed in his eyes, but he still managed to say in disdain: "You damn dog thing, do you know who I am? My master will be here soon so there's no way you can kill me. A piece of trash like you can just await your death, hahaha..."

"Quickly kneel down and kowtow to admit your crimes. If this daddy is happy with your performance, I might even ask my master to let you go."

“You damn trash, why aren’t you kneeling in front of this daddy yet?”

Blood Worm was still mouthing off!

Just like a crazy dog randomly barking at everything.

Luo Tian suddenly felt this guy was rather pitiful. He then faintly said: “You’re speaking so much just to stall for time right?”

“You plan on delaying long enough so that your master can save you?”

Blood Worm had been seen through!

A rather ugly look appeared on his face.

At the same time...

Luo Tian raised the Wild Blade above his head. His lips started curving before he chuckled ferociously.

Blood Worm was scared silly.

His crotch area became wet as he pissed himself from fright. Blood Worm was trembling as he loudly shouted: “Ma... master! Save me!”

“Save your sister!”

Luo Tian’s eyes sank as he hands chopped down. “Go to hell for me!”

“Son of a b*tch, you dare?!”

A sea of blood appeared from the void and crushed down.

Blood Dove appeared from the sea of blood and his monstrous oppressive pressure went straight for Luo Tian’s sea of consciousness. He was planning on directly pressuring it to the point of self explosion.

Luo Tian’s body sank down as if something a million jins was weighing him down. His gaze looked up and watched Blood Dove rushing down from the air. Luo Tian’s mind tightened as he cursed out: “It’s oppressive pressure again! This damn thing is irritating the hell out of this daddy!”

Also at the same time...

Blood Worm started laughing smugly, “You damn dog thing, this daddy already said you won’t be able to kill me, hahaha. My master is here so just wait patiently for your death, mwahaha.”

Smug; extremely smug!

At this moment, Blood Worm was so smug that he looked like a retard!

In Blood Worm’s point of view, as long as his master arrived, Luo Tian wouldn’t be able to make a move no matter how strong he was.

However...

There was something he didn’t understand about Luo Tian.

Luo Tian was someone that can be persuaded by reason and not cowed by force. The more you oppressed him, the more he would want to kill you. The stronger you were, the more he would want to kill you. The more arrogant you were, the more he would want to kill you. The more you messed with his women, he would go to the ends of the earth to f*ck you and your entire lineage!

There was movement inside Luo Tian's sea of consciousness!

Killing intent of a grim reaper started surging out.

His sea of consciousness loosened up, and Luo Tian's arms that were stopped in mid-air once again continued its trajectory downwards. The Blood Devouring Wild Blade's ice cold blood glow was amplified by the grim reaper's intent, illuminating the entire Dark Mountain Corpse City. The blade then hacked down!

"Boom~..."

"Boom~..."

"Boom~..."

The domineering blade's qi stormed out in an uncontrollable manner, causing Blood Dove's blood sea ability to retreat backwards like a surging wave. The entire Dark Mountain Corpse City was shaking beneath the blade's qi, and the faces of those guards with so called immortal bodies underwent a drastic change as their minds went into shock.

A brief flash appeared in Yin Shang's eyes as he started laughing.

He was laughing out loud because he was extremely happy.

Also at this time...

Yin Shang's body transformed into a black light before immediately flying out.

Blood Worm had died.

The powerful blade qi directly caused his body to explode into powder where even his bones weren't left. His unbridled and smug laughter was still echoing in the air of the city, yet now he himself was the butt of the joke.

“Ding!”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing Blood Worm. You have gained 5000 experience points, 600 profound energy...”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining 1 Lustful Passion pill.”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining 1 Heaven Supporting Pillar pill.”

“Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining 1 Yin Yang Joyful pill.”

F*ck man, they're all aphrodisiacs! This guy...

Luo Tian looked at the pills and wanted to throw them away at first. But upon thinking about it further, he decided to put them away in case it would come in handy one day.

“Damn brat!”

“Hand over your life!”

Blood Dove was floating in the air with a flushed red face. His hands formed a claw shape before grasping straight for Luo Tian's head!

Chapter 137 – Couldn't Withstand It

Blood Dove's cultivation level had already reached Profound Spirit 7th rank.

His Blood Sea skill had been practiced to the point of perfection. He was strong; extremely strong. Or else he wouldn't have the status of being an outer sect elder of the Evil Blood Sect.

Blood Worm and Blood Chill were two of his favorite disciples.

Apart from this relationship, they were also actually his own biological sons!

That's why Blood Dove was enraged.

How unbearable was it to personally witness the death of your own sons?

At this moment, all of Blood Dove's Profound Spirit 7th rank power exploded out of him. The tumultuous sea of blood in the area instantly became calm, and with him as the center, the blood sea started to spin around him. Then in just a short few seconds, the blood sea started drilling back into his body.

"Pshhh~..."

Blood Dove's entire body had turned red and his eyes extremely gloomy looking. His right hand formed a claw before grasping the air in front of him. Space ripped apart with the image of five fingers. His eyes were glaring at Luo Tian before he angrily shouted: "Give me back my son's life!"

As his voice faded...

Blood Dove's whole person crushed down like a round ball of devil's blood.

"Watch out! Don't let it touch you!" Qin Yue'er cried out in shock.

Luo Tian was able to sense that ball of devilish blood contained a huge amount of power. He placed the Blood Devouring Wild Blade in front of his chest as his first line of defense before quickly retreating backwards. He was looking left and right hoping to find...

“Die!”

Blood Dove’s power came crushing down!

The previous sea of blood that had receded into Blood Dove had now exploded out with force, completely wrapping up Luo Tian within its confine. It was also at this time that Blood Dove’s figure turned illusory as his speed became too fast for the eyes to catch up with. It created an illusion where countless blood colored figures were now all converging towards Luo Tian at the same time!

Luo Tian’s sea of consciousness was in turmoil!

His physical body was experiencing intense pain!

Luo Tian was in such severe discomfort that words just couldn’t describe it. Seeing how over a hundred residual shadows of Blood Dove were all rushing towards him, his heart sank before shouting: “Level 2 Berserk!”

“Ommm~...”

Four times the attributes exploded forth!

Immediately after...

Profound energy started surging out of him!

1000 points, 2000 points, 3000 points... 5000 points... 10,000 points, 20,000 points!

A total of 20,000 points of profound energy were raging about inside his body. Luo Tian’s physical body almost couldn’t handle this large amount of energy, causing the surface of his skin to flush red as if it was being burned by fire.

“Boom~!”

There were thunderous roars inside Luo Tian’s body as he desperately tried to keep things under control.

He forced the profound energy into his four limbs, his mind, and sea of consciousness so that it would condense into a thick energy shield.

Also at the same time...

The Evil Blood Armor was activated and draped over his body. The ferocious looking blood colored armor then started pulsating with a bloody glow. Luo Tian was basically out of options right now because when facing an expert at the Profound Spirit realm, the only thing he could do was defend with all he had! He had no ability to fight back at all!

Using 20,000 points of profound energy for defense? Most likely Luo Tian was the only madman in this world capable of doing something like this.

There was also the addition of the Evil Blood Armor.

This was the strongest defense Luo Tian was able to bring forth right now. It’s unfortunate that the Evil Blood Armor’s killing intent wasn’t full yet or else he wouldn’t have to use up so much profound energy points.

“Come at me!”

“Let’s see if you can play this daddy to death! Hahaha...”

Luo Tian roared out in unbridled arrogance; his face incomparably fierce and excited at the same time.

A lunatic!

A complete and utter raving lunatic!

When facing Blood Dove at the Profound Spirit 7th rank, Luo Tian chose to defend?

And he was acting so wild and arrogantly, as if not putting Blood Dove in his eyes at all!

Wild and unrestrained!

Completely unbridled! This type of fearless attitude caused the blood of the spectators to boil in excitement. This also made Yin Shang, who was rushing over quickly to be quite happy. He then shouted: "Blood Dove, leave his life for me to handle!"

The appearance of Luo Tian was rather unexpected, but also made Yin Shang surprisingly happy.

The power Luo Tian possessed was just too fearsome.

This was exactly what Yin Shang wanted.

As long as an undying Gu insect was placed inside Luo Tian's still living body, he would retain his ability to continue growing stronger. With Luo Tian's talent and strong will, he'll definitely be able to continuously refine the Gu insect within him to a new level. Once that Gu insect is refined to the legendary status of a true undying Gu insect, Yin Shang would then have the power to dominate the entire world!

Excitement!

Extreme excitement!

It looked like Yin Shang could already see the day he ruled over the world.

Yin Shang increased his speed further. He then shouted once again in warning: "Blood Dove, you must leave his life for me or else you will never take a step out of this city!"

He was directly threatening Blood Dove!

Because he really needed Luo Tian.

Blood Dove frowned. With the rage burning inside him, he didn't care about those words anymore. How could he not avenge the death of his sons?

Blood Dove didn't decrease his power but actually increased them!

"You will accompany my sons in burial!"

Large blood colored palm prints charged in from all directions. This was the highest esoteric of the Sky Palms Of The Blood Sea skill!

Qin Yue'er had an ashen expression. There was dead silence in her heart as she stared at Luo Tian's ferocious expression. Her body was somewhat frozen in place and a tear unknowingly slid down her face. Her lips then started forming a brilliant looking smile as she mumbled: "I will accompany you."

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

Countless bloody palm prints slammed into every inch of Luo Tian's body!

His whole body was wracked with heart tearing pain.

Luo Tian stood there unmoving while cracking sounds were heard from clenching his jaws so hard. His eyes were staring off into the distance where a death aura was flying straight towards him. He then said to himself: "Good! This daddy will gamble it all! Old granny, I hope you didn't lie to me!"

Within an instant...

A condensed spiritual intention was formed inside Luo Tian's mind before it settled in a corner of his body. That intention gradually became quiet before completely hiding its presence.

Gamble!

He was going to use his life as the stakes!

If he lost the bet, most likely he would forever be someone else's puppet!

But...

Luo Tian currently had no other choices.

This type of feeling where he had no choice left was really painful to experience!

At this moment... Luo Tian was enduring severe pain. He also turned to the side and looked at Qin Yue'er who had a brilliant smile on her face. Luo Tian also responded with a faint smile that was filled with confidence!

Right after, he raised his head and roared into the air, activating Myriad Thunder Roar at a certain location!

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

Two loud thunderous roars were heard.

The profound energy inside Luo Tian couldn't handle it anymore because Blood Dove, a Profound Spirit 7th ranker was simply too strong. Even using 20,000 points of profound energy as defense couldn't withstand his attack. The pain Luo Tian was experiencing had already exceeded the tolerance his physical body could withstand.

Pain...

Pain that had already surpassed his limits.

But he continued clenching his jaws to hold on because he was waiting...

"Stay your hands for me!"

Yin Shang had a face full of anger. His right hand made a movement and a swarm of death aura rose up through the ground heading straight towards Blood Dove. Yin Shang then shouted in a hoarse voice: "If you don't stay your hands, don't blame this daddy for not being polite anymore!"

"Bang~!"

Blood Dove's bloody palm strike nullified Yin Shang's attack before he rebounded into the air and stood off to the side. Blood Dove looked on with gloomy eyes as his mouth faintly laughed: "Lord Dark King, he's already dead. Hahaha..."

"YOU!"

Yin Shang was extremely pissed off.

Luo Tian's whole body was covered in blood and there weren't any places that didn't have a wound. There were also dozens of wounds so deep that his bones could be seen. Even an expert at the Profound

Grandmaster realm would be smashed into pulp by this attack, but Luo Tian was able to survive head on by relying on his strong physical body and his profound energy as reinforcement.

The only issue was...

The Evil Blood Armor was smashed into pieces.

A magical treasure was gone just like that.

Luo Tian felt extreme heart ache but he really didn't have any other choices.

Qin Yue'er stared at Luo Tian with a goofy smile: "I will accompany you."

Within this instant...

Luo Tian's eyes that were covered in blood had suddenly opened wide!

Chapter 138 – Corpse Sea, Here I Come!

"He's not dead?!"

"He hasn't died yet?!"

"Oh heavens! He still hasn't died? Is he even human? Or is he the same as us with immortal bodies?"

The spectating guards started discussing amongst themselves.

This was craziness!

This whole scene was too crazy to behold!

Luo Tian's eyes opened wide, and his lips curved into a cold smile.

Not only did he not die...

The wounds on his body were visibly healing by itself to the naked eye! Not even a tiny scar was left behind! What the hell was going on?

Everyone was completely dumbfounded.

Their brains felt like it short circuited because they couldn't understand what was happening. This guy's body seems to be even stronger than their immortal bodies!

Their immortal bodies couldn't heal themselves but Luo Tian's could!

Qin Yue'er broke out into a smile through her tears, somehow making it even more brilliant than before. "You bastard, you almost scared me to death!"

"Hahaha..."

"Hahaha..."

"Good, good, too good! This is perfect!"

Yin Shang laughed out.

His laughter was filled with incomparable excitement. Yin Shang started looking up and down Luo Tian like a specimen, feeling that he had the most perfect body and was the most ideal container ever. With such a strong will that Luo Tian was demonstrating, he would definitely be able to refine the undying Gu insect to the highest realm!

Exceeding rank 8 or even exceeding rank 9, and attaining the true immortality realm!

As Yin Shang was examining Luo Tian, Luo Tian was too looking at Yin Shang.

Yin Shang's whole body was shimmering a gold color, to the point that Luo Tian almost couldn't open his eyes fully. His heart was ecstatic and drool almost spilled out of his mouth. He then said to himself: "A boss, a boss, a super strong boss! This guy is definitely the second boss that the system would reward me with something great!"

"Play him to death; I definitely have to play him to death!"

Before having laid eyes on Yin Shang, Luo Tian was still a bit doubtful.

But when he saw the golden glow around Yin Shang, Luo Tian was pretty sure this guy was the next boss to give him the system's reward!

Last time was the Blood Devouring Wild Blade, so what would this time give him?

Luo Tian was so looking forward to it. He was so excited that he didn't even try to cover it up. He then stared at Yin Shang and asked in a stern manner: "Were you the one that killed all those earth's core people?"

"That's right!"

Yin Shang didn't conceal it because he had no need to. He then smiled and asked: "You're the so called person mentioned in the prophecy?"

Luo Tian's eyes narrowed as he recalled the scene where the blood of the earth's core race flowed like a river. The rage in his heart exploded out all at once as he coldly said: "Nope, I just happen to be someone that has come for your life."

“Oh?”

“Just relying on yourself?”

Yin Shang had an interested expression on his face as he smiled: “Those who have dared say such words to me have all died, but you will be an exception because I admire you. You will soon become a part of my undying army and become the strongest person here, apart from me of course.”

“What do you think?”

“Should I personally make a move or will you submit to me willingly on your own?”

As he was saying this, Yin Shang continued maintaining his smile. He also had a complacent expression that Luo Tian was already his property.

This was his world.

He was the overlord of this place.

That’s why Yin Shang’s tone of voice was filled with extreme arrogance as if he didn’t place anyone in his eyes. This also holds true when speaking to Luo Tian as if he was implying: It doesn’t matter if you agree or disagree with my words, you can’t escape from the palm of my hands anyway.

With the insect attached to his head, his whole body swollen, a hideous looking face, and a disgusting smile plastered on his face, Yin Shang truly looked like some monster that crawled out of the sewers.

Luo Tian stored the Blood Devouring Wild Blade and took out the Spirit Snake Spear. He then faintly smiled and said: “I promised the old granny that I would definitely kill you.”

As he was saying this, Luo Tian waved the Spirit Snake Spear around before continuing: “This is your subordinate You Hun’s weapon. Your outcome will be the same as his – the soul shattered into nothingness, hahaha...”

Yin Shang faintly frowned while his face underwent a slight change. The death aura on his body flared up along with the anger in his heart. He then said: "You are unbridled but you should know that one must have capital to act so arrogantly. It's unfortunate that you lack that capital."

"Now..."

Without allowing Yin Shang to finish his sentence, the enraged Blood Dove stepped up and said: "Lord Dark King, just hand this dog thing to me. I will definitely make him surrender himself beneath your feet."

Without even waiting for a response...

Blood Dove's figure made a move, and the sea of blood that covered the sky once again burst forth from him.

Yin Shang's eyes sank as he was getting pissed. A turbulent death aura appeared in the sky and started crushing towards Blood Dove. It was also at this moment that Yin Shang rushed out.

Fast!

Extremely fast!

Luo Tian was staring at Yin Shang but he had instantly disappeared. Even his aura had dissipated and couldn't be detected. Luo Tian was internally shocked as he said to himself: "This guy is really strong; his strength has probably already reached the peak of the Profound Spirit realm."

"Shit man!"

"A Profound Spirit 9th rank? How is this daddy supposed to kill such a boss?"

"Our difference is about twenty levels, so how the hell am I supposed to kill him?"

At this moment...

Luo Tian realized killing Yin Shang was a quest that he couldn't complete because the difference in strength between them was too great. Unless someone helped out... But let alone humans, this shit hole didn't even have a ghost...

Eh?

What about that big breasted woman?

Bahh, a Profound Grandmaster is as useful as a fart.

There was dead silence in Luo Tian's mind. He was now started to pray that a savior would really appear here like the old granny mentioned.

At this moment...

"Boom~!"

A loud sound was heard above the Dark Mountain Corpse City. Blood Dove fell from the sky before smashing into the ground and creating a deep hole. Blood was coming out from the side of his mouth and his face became extremely pale. Seeing how Yin Shang slowly descended, Blood Dove's heart was filled with fear as he said internally: "I never imagined that he had already reached the Profound Spirit 9th rank!"

Yin Shang coldly harrumphed as he arrogantly said: "You dare to act recklessly in front of this King? Courting death!"

"If this happens again, you should know what the consequences are!"

Yin Shang coldly glared at Blood Dove while his oppressive pressure crushed against him. Blood Dove immediately kneeled down because of this. Even though he was unwilling, he didn't dare to show any resistance.

But Blood Dove still looked at Luo Tian at the corner of his eyes in an icy manner.

This was all he could do right now because he knew he had no more chances to strike.

Luo Tian would soon become an undying guard of Yin Shang's. Thinking up to this point, Blood Dove's lips started showing a cold smile as he said to Luo Tian: "Even though you haven't died by my hands, you will continue living on and suffer agony that is worse than death, hahaha..."

Yin Shang started walking forward one step at a time before arriving next to Luo Tian.

"Level 2 Berserk!"

"Magma Fire..."

Luo Tian's hands and feet turned into magma, causing the surrounding air to turn into mist. Luo Tian's fist pulled back as he concentrated all the power of his body into it. He then heavily smashed out!

Yin Shang didn't seem to care as he coldly smiled: "Your attack is too weak."

He didn't dodge at all and allowed Luo Tian's attack to directly land on him.

Luo Tian's glowing red fist heavily smashed into the Gu insect growing out of Yin Shang's head. Technically, the Gu insect should have been Yin Shang's greatest weakness but Luo Tian's fist felt like he was punching a thick steel plate. It was completely useless!

Using the terminology known in video games, that punch was practically considered a huge Miss!

He knew he wasn't Yin Shang's opponent but he still wanted to know how strong Yin Shang was. At least knowing the special skills of a boss would allow him to plan a strategy for his future attack. But...

Luo Tian's attack only managed to tickle him!

This boss was too strong!

Yin Shang grasped onto Luo Tian and started grinning ferociously. In his left hand was a Gu insect that was glowing green. He then started laughing excitedly: "Become one of my undying guards and I will bestow to you eternal life, hahaha..."

Luo Tian made a thought and that hidden intention started moving. He then said to himself: "Corpse sea, this daddy is coming!"

"Motherf*cker, wait for this daddy's return!"

Chapter 139 – The Nineteenth Level Of Hell

About ten thousand meters under the ground of Dark Mountain Corpse City.

This place was practically a huge plaza where one could not see where it began or ended.

This square was filled with various types of bodies that were innumerable. If one was to sweep the glance around, this place resembled a dark colored sea where one could not see the border. The amount of bodies here were simply too much to be counted!

These bodies had no consciousness and no soul, so they were just moving around aimlessly. The Gu insect inside their brain was still in the process of growing, so these bodies looked just like zombies ambling around!

A dark yin air permeated the air, and the aura of death reached every nook and cranny.

There were constantly ghostly wails here because these walking dead were suffering from painful torment. This pain and suffering was worse than death!

There were rumors floating about that below this plaza was actually hell!

However, this plaza was even more brutal than hell. One could not live or die if they wanted to! This was basically a purgatory for the living, and people have given this place another name – the Nineteenth Level Of Hell!

This was the corpse sea.

This was Yin Shang's munitions factory, a place that constantly supplied him with his undying guards!

Inside a house at a corner of the plaza.

"Old man, there's a lot of commotion going on up there. Do you think that child has really come?"

"Impossible. Even if he did come, he's basically courting his own death."

"Sigh... I shouldn't have told him those things; it would have been best for him if he didn't know anything. Old man, that child is definitely not ordinary because his body exudes a perseverance not seen in regular people. He is also very decisive in his actions and the most important thing of all – his heart is very kind. I'm afraid... once he sees the earth's core race being wiped out; he would rush towards the Dark Mountain Corpse City. If that really happened, then I've truly harmed him. Sigh... I really hope he doesn't come back to see what happened to the earth's core race, and not see the scenes of carnage, and never to step into the Dark Mountain Corpse City."

"A strong perseverance, decisive, and kind at the same time. Perhaps... perhaps he is the person mentioned in the prophecy."

"You damn old man, why did you suddenly become so superstitious? Prophecies are only there to comfort the living and to give them a bit of hope."

“This prophecy is different because it might be real!”

The old granny’s expression looked stunned.

After a short while, she merely faintly smiled that show her satisfaction.

The only wish in her life was to see this old man one more time. After this, she could finally die in peace.

Now that she has seen him, she was just like a girl that had fallen in love the first time. She was extremely happy and cherished every second with the old man. She didn’t bother thinking of other thoughts. The earth’s core race was close to being wiped out, so what other matters was there to look forward to?

After a while...

The old granny asked: “Old man, are you really going to teach that bastard Yin Shang the way to dispel Gu poison?”

The old man gently tucked the old granny’s white hair behind her ear as he faintly smiled: “How would I have gotten to see you if I didn’t say such a thing? All these years, I have been helping him refining Gu insects and harmed a lot of our clansmen. I have sinned greatly. All these years, the only wish I had was to see you one more time. Now that I have seen you, I can now die in peace. As for the ability to dispel the Gu poison, he can forget about it for the rest of his life! Humph!”

“Yoh...”

“Are you two whispering sweet words to each other?”

“Master, Mistress, the feelings between you two have still remained unchanged for several centuries, hahaha.”

Suddenly...

Yin Shang started laughing after taunting them. A dark cloud filled with thick aura of death then started descending to the ground. Once the cloud dispersed, Yin Shang's freakish looking mouth curved into an extremely smug smile.

"Yin Shang, you damn mixed-breed dog! You're even lower than a damn beast!"

"Yin Shang, you will get what's coming to you one day!"

The elderly couple was filled with agitation, rage, and incomparable hatred in their eyes. This type of hatred was similar to wanting to rip Yin Shang into pieces on the spot.

"Hahaha..."

"You two damn undying old fogeys! If it weren't for I, Yin Shang, how could the earth's core race possess such powerful strength like now? If you two old stubborn mules had passed to me the rest of the Gu refining skill early on, I would've brought the earth's core race to conquer a territory already. The earth's core race would have returned to our most prosperous era by then. Why else should we hide in a deep hole like this where one cannot tell day from night?" Yin Shang appeared quite agitated while saying this and the big Gu insect on his head started moving about because of it. This image of him was disgusting beyond words could describe.

Afterwards, Yin Shang started coldly laughing once again before saying: "But it's not a big deal because it won't be long before my wish will be fulfilled, hahaha..."

Yin Shang waved his right hand.

Three bodies fell from high up in the air before landing stably on the ground.

It was the Ninth Prince, Qin Yue'er, and Luo Tian whose forehead had a green glow!

The white browed elder noticed the green glow on Luo Tian's forehead and became shocked. He then shouted: "Yin Shang, you managed to refine a rank 6 Gu insect? You even placed it inside a living person's body? What exactly are you planning on doing? You damn bastard, you damn lunatic..."

His last two curses almost turned into a roar.

The old granny's heart sank when she saw Luo Tian. When she saw how painful Luo Tian's expression was, her heart started aching as she blamed herself: "Child, this old granny has harmed you. I'm sorry, I'm so sorry..."

Yin Shang started madly laughing in a ferocious manner. "Master, your old esteemed self never expected this right? You never expected that I could actually refine a rank 6 green divine Gu insect huh? In order to refine this rank 6 Gu insect, I had exhausted all of my efforts. I remembered back then you said that refining a rank 6 Gu insect required the world's most yin attribute. I finally found out that a virgin girl's blood was considered something of extreme yin. Those women of the earth's core race were rather pitiful; if it weren't for their virgin blood, I really wouldn't have succeeded in refining it."

"But I have to thank your old esteemed self for all of this, hahaha..."

Laughter.

He was laughing in a smug manner!

Yin Shang looked at his master's painful expression and couldn't help laughing complacently. His right hand moved and a mass of black aura shot out to bind the old granny. Yin Shang's face turned grim as he shouted: "Old undying, I want you to help me stimulate the strongest hidden potential out of these three; I want to see their most perfect form. If you don't do as I say, I think you should know what the consequences are."

The black aura flames looked like they had turned into a devil as it curled around the old granny's neck and started tightening itself.

The old granny seemed out of breath as she desperately pleaded: "Old man, don't do it, don't do it!"

“Pak~!”

Yin Shang had swung his hand out and slapped the old granny to the point of seeing stars. He then coldly shouted: “You damn old crappy woman, you better persuade master to do what I’ve said or else I’ll make you experience so much pain that you can neither live or die!”

The white browed elder started frowning as his rage rose to the heavens. But there was nothing he could do. Seeing how blood was seeping out of the mouth of his wife and her face filled with bruises, it felt like his heart was being cut into pieces. Looking at his wife’s eyes again, he wanted to make a tough decision but then his expression turned painful. He then said: “Fine, I will agree to it. But you have to guarantee her safety!”

“Hahaha...”

“I knew you would eventually compromise! It seems that not killing Mistress all these years was the right choice, hahaha...” Yin Shang complacently laughed, and continued: “As long as you can stimulate and bring out their strongest hidden potential, I will guarantee Mistress’s safety.”

After saying that...

Yin Shang brought the old granny away with him while laughing the entire time. The entire corpse sea returned to its original atmosphere – filled with corpse aura, cold, damp, and a prevalent stench in the air.

The white browed elder walked over to Luo Tian and whispered: “You can open your eyes now.”

Chapter 140 – Dispelling Gu

At the end of the white browed elder’s words, Luo Tian’s eyes quivered before it gradually opened.

“Fuuu~...”

Luo Tian immediately sucked in a cold breath of air. His palms and his back were basically covered in cold sweat because the insect inside his brain was constantly eating away at his will. It was extremely uncomfortable, to the point that he almost couldn't endure anymore.

During his journey here, his will felt like it was on the brink of death. The loss of will that disappeared bit by bit made him panic. If it weren't for the spiritual intent he had hidden away early on activating, that green divine Gu insect may have already turned him into one of Yin Shang's undying puppets.

Luo Tian was desperately resisting and restraining himself so that his true expression wouldn't be revealed on his face.

When being brought to this Nineteenth Level of Hell, Luo Tian's heart felt like it had risen to his throat the whole way. If Yin Shang was to discover his ploy, then everything would be game over.

When he heard the old man's voice, Luo Tian knew that he had finally made it. His eyes gradually opened and his sight landed on the white browed elder. His lips twitched and he said in a shaky voice: "F*cking hell, I've finally resisted this to the end."

His eyes then rolled into the back of his head before fainting.

The white browed elder supported Luo Tian. He looked at Luo Tian's forehead where an insect was constantly giving off a green glow before saying in shock: "This kid actually directly resisted it for this long! How many people in this world can endure this amount of pain like him?"

"Not bad, he truly is someone with great perseverance."

"Old woman, looks like we really have a glimmer of hope."

The sky was murky and the ground was dark.

There was no sun, no moon, and no traces of light.

It was very dark and very cold.

This type of environment was similar to a dead place. It wasn't unbearable but it gave one a sense of nothingness.

"What is this place?"

"Have I died?"

"Shit man, didn't this daddy resist it to the end? Could the old granny really have lied to me? No way, she couldn't have lied to me at this point right?" Luo Tian was thinking to himself as his heart felt like it sank to the abyss. If he had really died, then...

Who was going to rescue An Chunchun's mother?

For that girl's wedding three years later, who was going to go kidnap the bride?

Who was going to slap the ass of that ice cold beauty Leng Hanshuang?

Also who was going to protect fatty and the rest of the Luo family?

"F*ck man!"

"Oh heavens, you're not letting this daddy die just like that right? I'm still a virgin so at least let me lose it first!" Luo Tian bitterly said.

"Cough~, cough~..."

A voice that seem to come from the void was suddenly heard.

The voice was somewhat old and hoarse: "Hey kid, what on earth are you thinking about at a time like this? You haven't died yet. You just aren't able to sense your own body for the time being because your will and intent have temporarily entered my void space. You have to listen carefully to the words I'm about to say because whether you can continue living or not is all depended on it."

Luo Tian immediately became happy as he replied: "Hey old man, you're the husband of that old granny right?"

"That's right!"

Luo Tian then said to himself: "So I was spot on."

Luo Tian continued: "Go ahead and tell me, I'm listening. I need to quickly control my body and then clean up this corpse sea. Then I'll go back up there to beat that dog Yin Shang until he explodes."

"Good!"

"Listen up carefully."

"Since my wife has chosen you, then I will put all my stakes on you. If you follow my directions, I will make your willpower increase by over ten thousand times. By that time, no matter how strong the Gu insect is, it will never be able to invade your brain." The old man said with extreme vigor.

His words contained a trace of wild arrogance.

He truly had the qualifications to say something like this because he was the King of the earth's core race. Just based on his Gu skill, he was able to lead the earth's core race to escape the lowest point of their history.

"Increase my willpower by ten thousand times?"

“Shit man, that’ll mean it won’t be as painful as back then when I refined the Gu insects. It also means that I’ll be able to control my puppet soldiers without too much trouble anymore, hahaha... Old man, it’s no wonder the old granny still loves you so much. Who knew you would be so awesome?” Luo Tian laughed excitedly.

The white browed elder chuckled a bit before turning serious. He then shouted: “One’s will is the origin source of your spiritual intent. The stronger your perseverance, the stronger your overall will would become. The green divine Gu insect is really hard to kill, but it shouldn’t be too difficult if you follow my directions. During the whole process, the pain you will experience will be a hundred times stronger than what you’ve felt before. We cannot take a break or stop the process. We must rush forward without hesitation and cannot take even a single step back.”

This was an extremely difficult process!

The green divine Gu insect was extremely powerful and killing it was difficult to the max.

But...

There was no other way; they could only use the spiritual intent that Luo Tian had secretly left behind to kill it. In the process of killing that green divine Gu insect, Luo Tian will experience pain even worse than passing through the real eighteen levels of hell.

Luo Tian frowned before faintly smiling. “Don’t worry, I will definitely endure it. Old man, go ahead and start it.”

“Good!”

The old man didn’t bother speaking anymore useless words and said: “Let go of your spiritual intent so that I can control it!”

Luo Tian immediately followed his words.

The moment he let go of his intent, Luo Tian felt like his body had sunk down into an abyss and his heart was about to explode. Severe pain wracked his body as if millions of ants were chewing on him simultaneously.

Pain; extreme pain!

“Kid, you have to endure it, I’m going to start now.”

As the old man’s voice faded in his mind, Luo Tian didn’t respond. He tensed up his whole body making it as hard as steel before roaring into the air: “F*ck it, let’s do this! This daddy doesn’t believe that I can’t handle it!”

The more pain he felt, the more crazier he became.

When it came to a time like this, Luo Tian would become a raving lunatic.

Clenching his teeth and putting his life on the line; this was walking the fine line between life and death. It was similar to carrying a coffin on one’s back and dancing to its tune.

The same words Luo Tian has always used:

If it’s yours, then it will become yours no matter what. If it’s not yours, then it will never be yours!

There was also one very important point.

The more pain he endures, the stronger his physical body would become. This was very similar to him training his physical body and letting it be struck.

The old man’s spiritual intent started moving and brought Luo Tian’s own intent straight into the brain. When facing that huge green divine Gu insect, both intents rushed up without hesitation!

The green divine Gu insect wasn't able to control Luo Tian's will all this time and had become extremely annoyed. Now that it has seen Luo Tian's hidden spiritual intent, it immediately crushed down with rage.

It looked like a little insect but within the brain, it looked like a huge monster when comparing to the two tiny intents.

"Kill!"

"Kill!"

"Kill!"

Luo Tian's intent acted on its own and started releasing the concept of death killing intent. This made the old man hiddenly excited because the power of Luo Tian's spiritual intent had greatly exceeded his expectations. Seeing the powerful killing intent appearing, the old man felt his chances of success had improved.

At this moment...

The inside of Luo Tian's mind was a huge battlefield.

An army of thousands upon thousands were continuously killing in there.

The feeling as if the brain was being torn apart was at least a hundred times more painful than what he had felt in the past.

The pain was like dying and forced back to life!

But Luo Tian was laughing madly in an arrogant and unbridled manner.

If one does not act wild, how could it be considered living?!

If he doesn't act unbridled in this different world, how could he live up to his identity as a transmigrator?

Wild...

This daddy will go wild until the earth and heavens shake!

An unknown amount of time passed by...

Finally...

Inside Luo Tian's mind, a voice that sounded over exhausted said: "Hey kid, it's completed!"
