Chapter 181 - Luo Tian Smiles

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing..."

"Ding!"

"Undefeated value +1."

An attack made of oppressive pressure!

Locking onto the target and releasing the oppressive pressure of his grim reaper's killing intent. This was similar to tens of thousands of water pressure smashing into one's head. It would be strange if the black clothed gnome's head didn't explode!

"Cool!"

Luo Tian shouted excitedly, and the rage in his heart had lessened by a bit.

Right after that...

Luo Tian's eyes moved and locked onto a Black Cloud Killer that was about to make a move. His oppressive pressure instantly smashed down like a mountain.

"Ommm~!"

That black clothed killer being locked down by Luo Tian's oppressive pressure couldn't move. His face paled and cold sweat started appearing on his body. In his hand was a dagger gleaming a chilling light, and it was only a few centimeters from the throat of a civilian.

Luo Tian loudly shouted: "Quickly look guys...!"

Around this time...

Another black clothed killer's expression sank as his blade struck out.

Luo Tian sneered and said: "You want to silence someone in front of this daddy? Such wishful thinking!"

After splitting his spiritual will, Luo Tian froze the other black clothed killer with his oppressive pressure. He then made another shout: "Quickly look; it's them that are secretly killing you guys and not me!"

Luo Tian's voice was very loud.

Therefore many gnomes heard it and all looked over.

"What's going on?"

"Who are these people in black clothing?"

"That was close, I was almost killed!"

"It was them killing us? They are clearly gnomes as well so why would they kill us?"

Suddenly...

A loud shout came from someone in the crowd: "Don't believe him! Look at how they've been frozen by evil sorcery and cannot move or talk. It has to be this d.a.m.n human up to no good again. Everyone shouldn't believe his words!"

"That's right!"

"We cannot believe his words!"

"s.h.i.t, this daddy was almost cheated by him."

"Humans are the most devious of all races so we mustn't believe his words. We can't even believe it to be real if he farts!"

Once again, many ordinary civilians pointed their fingers at Luo Tian as the culprit.

Indeed...

Who would believe an outsider? Especially when it was a human that they deeply hated.

Although Luo Tian had stopped two of those black clothed killers, the civilians didn't believe him.

This wasn't considered ignorance because in their hearts, they would never think their fellow tribesman would hurt them. This was an impossible situation!

Luo Tian's heart sank and didn't explain himself further. He coldly laughed out and said: "Fine! Since everyone thinks they were all killed by me, then I will start killing them in front of your eyes!"

The fire inside Luo Tian's heart had finally exploded!

He originally didn't have much patience.

I've already brought out the evidence yet you guys still refuse to realize your error. Then there's no need for me to explain any further.

Immediately after...

Luo Tian shouted internally: "Level 1 Berserk!"

"Ommm~!"

Two times the attributes exploded forth causing his oppressive pressure to become stronger.

After accurately targeting those two black clothed killers, he crazily smashed out with the pressure.

"Die!"

"Bang~, bang~!"

The bodies of the black clothed killers exploded like a watermelon.

The expressions of everyone in the surrounding turned pale.

Luo Tian ferociously smiled and said: "Did you see that? This daddy has no qualms in taking responsibility for those I kill, but you guys want to blame me for the deaths I'm not responsible for? Fine! Everyone was killed by me! A bunch of ignorant midgets that don't know they are being used by others. What a bunch dumbasses!"

Luo Tian was angrily cursing them out.

Because there was too much irritation in his heart.

At this moment...

Luo Tian locked into the aura of two more black clothed killers and shouted: "You two should go to h.e.l.l as well!"

"Boom~, boom~!"

It was another pressure attack!

And another two of them keeled over.

The crowd was in shock.

Luo Tian's figure moved and instantly arrived in another area. He locked onto three people and sent three streams of oppressive pressure out while shouting: "Go and die for me!"

"Boom~!"

"Bang~, bang~, bang~!"

Madness!

Luo Tian was going crazy locking down on the auras of those killers, and then sending one after another to h.e.l.l with his oppressive pressure. The surrounding gnomes were scared stiff by his actions. Wasn't this human a bit too powerful?

"Bang~!"

"Bang~!"

"Bang~!"

There were constantly people in the crowd keeling over before exploding into a splatters of meat and blood.

Finally...

Those black clothed killers hiding in the crowd were getting scared. Their bodies were shaking as they tried to hide themselves further.

They were scared just like that?!

This daddy hasn't played enough yet!

Luo Tian's oppression was released into the air, amplifying his voice which was like the raging sea: "Not all humans are like what you believe them to be. There are some humans that are good, just like there are some evil villains amongst your gnome race. I don't really care that you guys are being used by someone, but that someone wants to use it against me. I'm sorry to say but that mastermind has sorely miscalculated because when this daddy is angry, I will f*ck all eighteen generations of his ancestors up!"

As his voice faded...

Luo Tian's figure suddenly moved and his right hand stretched into a seemingly empty s.p.a.ce. He then directly grasped onto a trembling black clothed killer and raised him up into the air. Luo Tian's eyes glared at the killer while revealing a death like smile. "Can you tell me who told you to kill those children and the elderly?"

"You should know how Kua Tai died, right?"

"Do you wish to end up like him as well?"

"If you don't, then you better honestly reply to my question or else I'll make you suffer ten thousand times worst!"

Luo Tian's killing intent was fused into his voice.

The black clothed killer almost s.h.i.t his pants from fear. His teeth were chattering and his face extremely pale. He then stuttered: "It, it, it was..."

Within this instant...

"Whoosh~..."

There was a slight fluctuation in the air and an arrow seemed to appear from the sky.

"Another arrow sneak attack. It looks like you're the mastermind behind the scenes!"

Luo Tian's lips formed a cold sneer as he said: "I knew you'd try to silence him. This daddy was already prepared for it!"

"Level 2 Berserk!"

"Eternal Kingdom!"

"Ommm~..."

A powerful energy shot out from Luo Tian's body creating a five meter independent s.p.a.ce with him as the center. Inside this s.p.a.ce, Luo Tian was the overlord. With his spiritual intent, the arriving arrow entered the spatial domain and stopped before suspending in midair.

Luo Tian extended his right hand and easily plucked the arrow from the air.

Also at this time...

The Eternal Kingdom skill disappeared.

The crowd was looking around at each other. It was like they knew something had happened but didn't exactly understand it. It was a rather strange feeling for them.

Luo Tian played around with the arrow in his hand and ridiculed: "Black clothed midget, you want to silence him?"

Immediately after...

Luo Tian looked at the black clothed killer in his grasp as said: "See that? Your master wants to kill you. If you don't tell me everything now, I'm afraid you won't have any chances later."

The black clothed killer was shocked. He then thought for a bit before saying: "I'll talk! I'll tell you everything!"

Luo Tian smiled!

On top of a tower of the palace, Fan Da's rage had reached the skies. He then shouted: "Kill him! Kill him for me!"

At this moment, Fan Da's figure disappeared as he directly charged towards Luo Tian.

Chapter 182 - Play To Your Heart's Content

Everyone had their own reverse scale.

Everyone had a scar that cannot be touched.

Fan Da's method of seizing power was too treacherous and cannot be known to the outside world. Otherwise, he can forget about ruling the gnome race or becoming their king his entire life.

However...

The things he had planned on were perfect for the a.s.s.a.s.sination group he had groomed; therefore he was clear on the repercussions.

That's why this was his reverse scale.

When he heard the black clothed killer was about to reveal everything, Fan Da was similar to a cat having their tail stepped on. His rage exploded out instantly and his figure disappeared from his position as he shot into the air.

A monstrous amount of killing intent was shooting over.

Luo Tian smiled in a smug manner and said to himself: "The mastermind behind the scenes couldn't endure it anymore."

Right after that, Luo Tian said to the killer in his grasp: "You see? Your boss can't hold back anymore. He's really going to kill you now. That previous arrow was most likely a sneak attack on me but I stopped its trajectory. This time he's most likely aiming for you so you have no other choice."

The black clothed killer was played by Luo Tian to the point of almost dying.

He hated Luo Tian deep to the bones but didn't dare to reveal it. As Luo Tian has pointed out, he had no other choices left.

Thinking about everything, he replied: "As long as you can safeguard my life, I can tell you everything. I can even tell you how Fan Da managed to secretly kill our king as well."

Luo Tian's heart sank.

"Oh s.h.i.t!"

"I didn't expect the waters here were this muddy."

"This is exactly the opening of a coup d'état."

Luo Tian was shocked inside because he had unknowingly embroiled himself in a regime change. He then said to himself: "Since I've been shoved into this mess, I might as well make use of it. I can help the little guy s.n.a.t.c.h the king's position back or something."

Suddenly...

Luo Tian grunted out: "Fine, I will guarantee your life. But you need to remember what you've agreed to or else I will make you suffer a life worse than death."

As he was saying this...

Luo Tian had infused his voice with the grim reaper's killing intent. The black clothed killer's heart sank and his expression turned even paler. He rapidly shook his head to show he wouldn't lie because he was truly afraid of Luo Tian.

Luo Tian moved his right arm and threw the killer into his spatial plaque.

Also at this time...

Ten arrows were shot out towards Luo Tian. Each arrow had sealed a path of retreat and they all contained an incomparable amount of power within. Streaking through the air, those ten arrows were like huge swords piercing towards Luo Tian.

Each arrow contained an overwhelming amount of explosive power!

Just a mere touch of them would cause the arrows to explode, just like how it had happened at the base of the mountain earlier before.

Recalling that experience, the flames of anger burst forth inside Luo Tian's heart. He then shouted: "Motherf*cker! Kua Tai has died and there's still you, a black clothed midget left. Shooting out arrow sneak attacks in the rear huh? This daddy will let you shoot until your heart's content!"

Chapter 183 - Being Despicably Cheap

Luo Tian was never afraid of battles of attrition!

After activating Ghost Slash over ten times, a large portion of his profound energy was used up. His arms were shaking a bit but Luo Tian maintained a single thought: "Play him to death!"

Kua Tai had to die, so he was dead now!

This black clothed midget that forced him into the h.e.l.l Lotus Array was especially deserving of death!

After ten heavy attacks, it was all blocked ten times. Luo Tian's anger was practically bursting at the seams now.

"Block it!"

"Keep showing this daddy how you're going to block!"

With the eleventh slash, the blade's trajectory cut through the sky as its power didn't diminish a single ounce.

Fan Er was now breathless and his face flushed from the pressure. He glared at Luo Tian and cursed out: "A lowly human like you wants to kill me? Quit dreaming! How can this daddy be someone a trashy human like you can kill?!"

Luo Tian was astonished by this.

Fan Er was exhausted to death but his eyes was still filled with disdain.

Fan Er was still arrogant and unbridled, completely not putting Luo Tian in his eyes.

Luo Tian couldn't understand this. Had the gnomes become so narcissistic to this level?

Who gave them the courage to feel that way?!

Luo Tian really couldn't stand it anymore as his brains were about to be burnt by the flames of anger. He then shouted: "Die!"

His blade chopped down!

This time, Fan Er didn't utilize Xuanwu's Great Array to resist. There was a ferocious smile on his face as he shouted: "Profound Escape Array!"

He then slapped his palm on the ground.

With a bright flash, his figure started to disappear.

Escape?!

"This d.a.m.n gnome race really has all kinds of arrays." Luo Tian had a shocked expression on his face as he started hating the arrays of the gnomes more and more.

Seeing Luo Tian's shocked expression, Fan Er started smiling smugly. He then coldly said: "Lowly human, an inferior race like yours wants to kill me? Are you even qualified, you d.a.m.n trash like existence!"

Disdain!

Unbridled mockery!

"You d.a.m.n dog thing!"

"Stop running if you have the guts!" Luo Tian didn't reduce his strength as he continued with another chop.

The speed of the attack was extremely fast.

But...

The speed of Fan Er's disappearance was quite fast as well. He had calculated the time precisely so that the instant the blade reached him, he would have completely disappeared from his spot. He managed to ridicule Luo Tian at the last moment by saying: "Trashy human, try killing me if you have the guts."

"Come; come kill me."

"You inferior race, kill me! Kill me; go ahead and kill me! Can a trash like you kill me?"

Cheap!

An extremely cheap shot! Fan Er's illusory figure started dancing there with an extremely arrogant and smug look.

Even if your uncle could tolerate this, your grandpa couldn't!

Sneak attacking with arrows already p.i.s.sed people off.

Now his super cheap look made Luo Tian even more p.i.s.sed!

The flames of anger within him couldn't be suppressed anymore as it exploded with force. Luo Tian's expression turned ghastly as his lips smiled coldly. "I can't kill you huh? Being despicably cheap in front of this daddy huh?"

Suddenly...

Luo Tian pulled back his blade and shouted: "Chopping you to death is letting you off too easily. This daddy wants to play you to death!"

Within this instant...

Luo Tian frowned and shouted: "Eternal Kingdom!"

"Ommm~!"

The power of spatial laws shot out from his body.

The s.p.a.ce surrounding Fan Er was instantly enveloped. The blurry figured Fan Er's expression sank as he exclaimed in shock: "Spatial energy?!"

When it came to arrays...

Their greatest nemesis was spatial laws.

Fan Er originally thought Luo Tian's speed was fast and had a strong oppressive ability. He never expected that Luo Tian was knowledgeable in spatial laws as well! Fan Er was scared now; very scared. This fear came from the depths of his heart that gradually spread to every part of his body.

Why would the little guy Fan Zhangjian submit so obediently?

It was because Luo Tian had the Eternal Kingdom skill, or else he would've run away from all this conspiracy already.

Why would the gnomes who possessed these heavenly arrays be driven by humans to the extent of becoming residential companions of demon beasts in mountain ranges? It was precisely because humans grasped the skills of spatial laws. It was this reason the gnome race was being oppressed by the humans.

Otherwise, their ability of setting up arrays would truly change the order of this world.

Eternal Kingdom was a skill that was capable of creating one's own independent s.p.a.ce.

In actuality, the independent s.p.a.ce created wasn't a true independent dimension. It was still considered part of the original s.p.a.ce of the world except this piece of s.p.a.ce was fully controlled by Luo Tian. That is if the pract.i.tioner's cultivation level didn't exceed Luo Tian's, he was basically the overlord of the domain!

Fan Er's cultivation level was only at the Profound Spirit 8th rank.

It was the same as Luo Tian.

That's why Luo Tian's Eternal Kingdom skill could be perfectly demonstrated here, completely crushing Fan Er's expectations.

Level 1 Eternal Kingdom couldn't only be sustained for two seconds. This was already more than enough time for Luo Tian. He took one step forward, grabbed onto Fan Er's neck, and directly pulled his disappearing lower half body back to this location.

Time was up!

The surrounding s.p.a.ce turned normal again, and the surrounding people felt like they had just experienced a short dream.

Fan Er was scared stiff.

The crotch area of his pants became wet as a yellow substance flowed down his leg. He was so scared that he p.i.s.s.ed himself!

The previous arrogant and disdainful expression couldn't be found anymore. Replacing it was incomparable fear. Fan Er mustered his strength and shouted: "What do you want?! What does a lowly human like you plan on doing? You should know I'm a General of the gnome race!"

At this time...

Fan Er seemed to finally recall he was a General, and immediately shouted: "Are the Iron Blood Corps present? Quickly kill this d.a.m.n human for me! Quickly now!"

He was screaming in a crazy manner.

The Iron Blood Corps that had faded to the background now rushed forth.

And quickly surrounded Luo Tian.

Luo Tian showed no fear as he slapped Fan Er and cursed out: "You still dare to act f*cking arrogant?"

"You dare to hit me?"

"You d.a.m.n dog thing, I will make you pay the price for that!" Fan Er roared out. His heart was still greatly in fear but he wanted to bluff Luo Tian so he said with disdain: "My elder brother is the King of the gnome race. A lowly human like you better let me go and start apologizing to me with kowtows. Otherwise..."

Luo Tian asked with great interest: "Otherwise what?"

Around this time...

Luo Tian's heart palpitated as he said to himself: "Has an expert arrived?!"

An extremely powerful aura stormed towards him.

Fan Er thought Luo Tian was getting scared so he smugly said: "Otherwise your soul will be ripped from your body and you will be forever sealed in my array. You will never enter the reincarnation cycle ever again, hahaha..."

"Oh?"

"Really?"

"s.h.i.t, I'm so scared." Said Luo Tian.

Fan Er became even more smug and said: "If you're scared, kneel down and start admitting your mistakes to this daddy!"

Luo Tian faintly smiled and said: "I am very scared. I'm scared of having my soul ripped out and never entering the reincarnation cycle. That's why you must die. As long as you die, those things won't happen to me."

"Huh?"

"This logic sounds pretty correct to me." Luo Tian mumbled to himself.

Immediately after...

Luo Tian's left fist underwent a change.

It changed to hot magma that singed the air with its heat.

Fan Er's face had turned ash gray as he quickly said: "I misspoke. I'm the one that's going to kowtow and admit my mistakes..."

Luo Tian chuckled evilly and said: "It's too late!"

A punch slammed out.

"Stay your hand!"

A heavy oppressive pressure crushed down from the void.

Luo Tian's body sank down with an uncomfortable feeling. He looked up into the air and cursed out: "If you tell me to stay my hand and I stayed my hand, then how will this daddy have any face left?"

Luo Tian's speed didn't slow down as his fist turned into a palm. He then directly clawed onto Fan Er's head and crushed it into mush!

"Ding!"

Chapter 184 - The Boss Appears

An angry roar seemed to have come from the void!

The oppressive pressure crushed down like an avalanche! It was simply way too strong!

It all crushed into Luo Tian's heart and mind causing his body to sink down. It was similar to having ten thousand jins of weight suddenly added to his body, causing his legs to helplessly shake.

Even though this was the case, Luo Tian didn't stop his action!

Luo Tian's magma covered hand squeezed down directly causing Fan Er's head to explode. This time, blood didn't even splatter out because it had been immediately evaporated by the heat.

The headless corpse toppled over and convulsed a few times before coming to a stop.

"I already said I will have you die a gruesome death!" Luo Tian coldly harrumphed.

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing Fan Er. You have gained 5000 experience points, 600 profound energy..."

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining a wind attributed demon core."

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining an earth attributed demon core."

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining the Engraving Arrays skill. Would you like to cultivate it?"

"It exploded out!"

"Hahaha..."

"As expected, the skill to engrave arrays exploded out." Flowers were blooming in Luo Tian's heart. Seeing how Fan Er used arrays to block ten of his attacks, Luo Tian started desiring to cultivate arrays as well. The moment he killed Fan Er, Luo Tian was already silently praying: "Explode, explode, explode for me!"

He never imagined the skill would actually explode from the corpse!

"Xuanwu's Great Array!"

"h.e.l.l Lotus Array!"

"Profound Escape Array..."

All of these arrays were very powerful. There was an attack type, defensive type, and even an array that lets one escape a thousand miles away. These skills could be described as all encompassing; an indispensable remedy for one that enjoys traveling abroad! How could Luo Tian not cultivate this?

Without hesitation, Luo Tian made a thought: "Cultivate it!"

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for learning the Engraving Arrays skill."

Martial Skill: Engraving Arrays

Grade: 9

Proficiency: 0/5000

Consumption: 1000 profound energy (Consumption increases as level increases)

Skill Description: Engraving Arrays is a skill that gnomes do not teach others. There are ten levels in this skill. (After surpassing the last great perfection level, the user may comprehend earth, heaven, and divine arrays. These three types of arrays are considered epic arrays.) Each new level will result in different array. The strength of the array is directly correlated to the user's proficiency level.

A typical skill will be split into ten levels.

Engraving Arrays was also split into ten levels, but surpassing the last great perfection stage (level 10) will result in epic ranked arrays. This made Luo Tian internally shocked, "I can understand earth and heaven arrays, but what are divine arrays? Could it be the arrays will activate some sort of divine magical skill? Isn't this a bit too overbearing?"

"Second brother!"

"Agggghh..."

A figure shot over in the air with eyes ablaze and an extremely ugly look on his face. He coldly looked at Luo Tian and shouted: "You killed my little brother!"

Golden glow!

A blinding golden glow!

Luo Tian's eyes brightened and immediately became excited. "The boss has arrived!"

Fan Da's appearance caused all the gnomes to be surprised.

Many people knelt down in respect.

"General Fan Da!"

"General Fan Da has come."

"..."

There was a commotion amongst the gnomes; there were many that kneeled but some that didn't.

There were also some with serious expressions on their faces.

Some were whispering: "I heard General Fan Da has taken over the gnome tribe. Even the king was killed by him."

"Is that for real?"

"How can the news coming from the palace be false?"

"That's impossible. The king is his biological brother so how could he kill his own eldest brother?"

"If the king was alive, he would have appeared already. There's no way the king would allow a lowly human kill any member of our gnome race."

Fan Da's expression turned grim as he endured the rage in his heart.

Fan Er's death had enraged Fan Da, but his little brother's death must have some value to it. Fan Da wanted to cause a public outrage so that every gnome would treat Luo Tian as the number one enemy. When he killed Luo Tian, he would then become the tribe's hero.

Only then would he become the king!

This was the fastest shortcut.

Immediately after...

Fan Da shouted: "Say it; who sent you here?! Was it the Great Tang dynasty? Or was it the Mountain Sword Sect? Your human race is truly wicked! We've already been driven to the depths of the Ghostly Mountain Range yet you still won't let us off? Your human race has simply gone too far!"

Hatred had risen to another new level!

This was hatred between races!

As Fan Da's voice faded, it was similar to a tossed stone causing a thousand ripples.

And this wasn't a common ripple caused by the stone, as it had become thousands of huge waves! The anger within the gnomes all exploded at once as they inched closer to Luo Tian. It was as if flames were crazily burning in their eyes right now.

In an instant, no one was discussing the issue of Fan Da killing the king.

Instead, another topic of discussion appeared.

"General Fan Da, kill him. Kill this human that deserves a thousand deaths."

"Take revenge for our ancestors."

"The human race has gone too far. We cannot let this human off at all."

"Kill him!"

Their voices became louder than the next.

Just a few words from Fan Da and the public's anger was aroused.

A cold smile unconsciously appeared on Fan Da's face. This was exactly the scene he wanted as he happily said internally: "I really need to thank a human like you. It would be even better if you killed a few more people."

The hatred had risen to the racial level now, and Luo Tian couldn't help but admire such a move by this gnome. With a self deprecating smile, he could only say: "Brilliant; what a brilliant move."

But...

Luo Tian's right hand made a move and grabbed onto a black clothed killer. He then smiled and said: "It's unfortunate that you've forgotten I still have someone of yours here."

A flash of coldness exuded from Fan Da's smile as he faintly said: "Really?"

Fan Da's brows twitched...

The head of the killer in Luo Tian's grasp suddenly exploded! He directly died without saying a word!

Luo Tian's expression underwent a drastic change.

He was able send out oppressive pressure to kill, but so could Fan Da.

In front of a wily old fox like Fan Da, Luo Tian's considerations weren't thought out well enough.

At this moment, Fan Da angrily shouted: "You've killed another member of my tribe! How many more people of my race is a d.a.m.n human like you planning on killing? You killed my minister, killed my General, killed elderly, women and children. How many more of my people are you going to kill before stopping? Is it truly that you humans cannot let our gnome race off?"

Each sentence of Fan Da was said with pain; and each sentence was driving Luo Tian into a dead end.

Fan Da was creating a greater conflict between the gnomes and the humans.

He was completely demonizing Luo Tian.

This move of his was simply too brilliant.

He had played Luo Tian to the point of being tongue tied. Luo Tian had always thought his eloquence was quite sharp already but never expected this little midget was better than him. And this midget had such a painful expression on his face while deep down was exuding incomparably smugness. This kind of smugness was something Luo Tian was clearly able to sense.

Hatred!

Anger!

The civilians were thoroughly ignited at this moment in time...

Causing a thunder like boom to rumble out.

Everyone closed in onto Luo Tian. Their hatred and anger had now transformed into a thick killing intent.

These people didn't know that they were currently being used by someone.

"What should I do?!"

Luo Tian kept retreating backwards and was about to be forced into a dead end. He became anxious and said to himself: "Do I really have to make a move against these normal civilians? Can I even do it?"

Luo Tian had no other choices left!

Seeing how smug Fan Da looked, a strong killing intent appeared in Luo Tian's eyes. "This daddy will definitely explode your corpse!"

Around this time...

Off in a distance, a small figure suddenly appeared behind Luo Tian's tall stature.

Chapter 185 - Kneel For This Daddy

Who else could the small figure be other than Fan Zhangjian?

He was really anxious.

Extremely anxious. He was anxious on behalf of his boss but couldn't think of any way to help him.

At the same time, he was hiding all this time.

Waiting for Fan Da to appear.

He was pretty sure now that the man he once considered as the best uncle ever had killed his parents. His heart was hurting so much like it was bleeding from being stabbed.

But...

Fan Zhangjian was very clear that Fan Da killed his parents because he wanted to become the king.

Since Fan Da couldn't get his hands on the King's Seal, he had to use other means. For example, becoming the gnome race's hero!

"Father, mother, I won't let him succeed. I will make him pay the same price as well." Fan Zhangjian promised in his heart. At the same time, he shouted: "Boss, catch me!"

"Huh?"

Luo Tian was startled as he turned around.

He was very worried for Fan Zhangjian's safety but now seeing he was okay, it was as if a large rock had been lifted from his heart. Luo Tian faintly smiled and said: "No problem!"

Fan Zhangjian flapped his arms and quickly descended towards Luo Tian.

Luo Tian caught Fan Zhangjian and whispered: "What are you planning on doing?"

Fan Zhangjian then asked: "Boss, you will help me right?"

This question was the same as the last time!

At this moment, a system alert sounded off in Luo Tian's mind.

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for triggering the quest: Rescuing the gnome race."

Quest: Save the gnome race

Difficulty: rank

Rewards: 20,000 experience, 5000 profound energy, and a random supportive skill.

In an instant, his quest that was previously filled with question marks disappeared and became like this. Luo Tian was somewhat happy but somewhat depressed at the same time. He had received quite a few ranked quests already so he wasn't that excited when those mysterious question marks he had anticipated for so long only turned out like this. He then internally said: "An rank quest... well, let's see what supportive skills will pop out this time."

"Accept!"

There was no hesitation in Luo Tian's thoughts. Even if Fan Zhangjian didn't ask him, he would still try to help him out. Since he had called him boss, then Luo Tian had to be responsible for this little brother's well being. Luo Tian then said: "Of course I'll help. I will cooperate with you on whatever you plan on doing next."

Fan Zhangjian was moved by this, and a trace of tears appeared in his stubborn eyes. Luo Tian was most likely the only person who would still dare to help him right now.

"Don't cry!"

"A real man can bleed but cannot cry. Your crying will only make your enemies become even more smug. No matter how big your grievances are right now, you better shove it back inside. Right now is not the time to cry!" Luo Tian shouted in a m.u.f.fled tone. He always believed that men had to be responsible for their own fate.

Fan Zhangjian pulled back his tears and tried hard to suppress his grief. He then said: "En, I won't cry!"

Immediately after...

Fan Zhangjian's eyes became firm once again as he said: "Boss, send me to the front."

Luo Tian did just that.

The gnomes all swarming in were stunned and most of them stopped.

"Your Royal Highness the Prince!"

"It's the Royal Prince! Didn't someone say he was missing?"

"He has captured the Prince."

"This d.a.m.n human is too despicable!"

There was a slight change to Fan Da's expression. His right hand made a move and his powerful oppressive pressure could be activated at a moment's notice. He was glaring at Fan Zhangjian with gloomy eyes before saying to a guard nearby: "Go get all the Iron Blood Corps to come here."

After issuing the command, Fan Da showed a painful expression and said: "My nephew! This shameless and despicable human dares to hold our prince hostage? What a hateful b.a.s.t.a.r.d!"

While internally, Fan Da was saying coldly: "You think you can deal with me after working with a human? A seven year old child wants to overturn this scenario? You want to avenge your parents? Humph! Just wait a bit and I'll send you to h.e.l.l to have a reunion with your d.a.m.n parents!"

Fan Da's current expression was on cue.

His acting was probably ten thousand times better than those Oscar winners.

Fan Zhangjian's expression was ice cold without any trace of panic. He then angrily glared at Fan Da and shouted: "Kneel down for me!"

"Boom~!"

His voice was like a muffled thunder.

Everyone had shocked expressions on their faces.

The corner of Fan Da's eyes was twitching while his anger was secretly growing inside him. He then showed an expression like he had no clue what was going on and said: "Zhangjian, I'm your uncle. Don't be scared, uncle will save you in a bit."

Fan Zhangjian once again angrily shouted: "Fan Da, kneel down for me!"

His voice shook the sky.

This time, Fan Zhangjian directly called out his name.

Luo Tian was internally surprised by this. Looking at Fan Zhangjian's calm expression, Luo Tian internally praised him: "Not bad, he has the image of a monarch. He can still be so calm and collected at this moment, and still possess a trace of craziness. He is indeed my, Luo Tian's little brother. Hahaha..."

Fan Da now had an ugly look on his face.

His eyes turned fierce and his voice turned cold as he shouted: "You want me to kneel? I don't think a Prince of the gnome race has such an authority! According to status, I am your uncle so you should be the one kneeling before me!"

"No authority?"

"Fine!"

"Boss, take out the King's Seal. It's fine that you keep holding onto it and there's no need to give it to me." Said Fan Zhangjian. He was very careful because he was afraid he was incapable of protecting the King's Seal, that's why he wanted Luo Tian to keep holding onto it.

Luo Tian pulled out the strange looking coin and raised it into the air.

"The King's... King's Seal!"

"The highest authority of our gnome race."

"Heavens! Why would it be in the hands of a human?"

The moment the King's Seal appeared, a large amount of gnomes started kneeling without hesitation.

It represented the gnome race's highest authority!

No matter who was in possession of it, the gnome race had to kneel down before it.

At this moment, Fan Zhangjian also kneeled down with a very devout expression.

Fan Da had an even uglier look now as he said through clenched teeth: "Sure enough, you handed it over to the human. You d.a.m.n brat, I should've killed you in the beginning."

Luo Tian wiped his forehead of imaginary sweat and mumbled: "If I knew this thing was so useful, I would definitely have pulled it out early on."

Fan Zhangjian then said: "Boss, you are now the king of the gnome race. Even if the original king was here, he would still have to kneel before the King's Seal. Your words are absolute and whoever doesn't listen can be directly killed."

"Oh s.h.i.t!"

"It's that awesome?"

Luo Tian's lips formed a smug sneer. With an expression like he was the Heavenly Emperor, Luo Tian pointed at Fan Da and shouted: "You d.a.m.n old fogey, kneel for this daddy!"

Fan Da didn't move and coldly shouted: "My fellow tribesman, the prince that we once loved has colluded with the humans. This is too heartbreaking and unexpected, therefore..."

Speaking to this point...

Fan Da paused and smiled evilly. He then continued: "Therefore I've decided to enforce justice on behalf of the heavens and kill this vile traitor!"

"A little hairless brat wants to fight with me?"

"You wish to take out the King's Seal to suppress me?"

"The only thing this world recognizes is strength. You think that bringing out a piece of sc.r.a.p iron is enough to suppress me? You guys are all overestimating its worth." Fan Da started chuckling conceitedly in his heart.

Suddenly...

Fan Zhangjian stood up and clearly p.r.o.nounced each word: "Fan Da, you're not even letting a child like me off? Killing my parents was all for the position of king... aren't you being a bit too ruthless?"

Numerous gnomes were somewhat moved by this.

Fan Da had a cold smile on his face as he asked: "Since you say I killed you parents, do you have any proof?"

Fan Zhangjian pulled out a demon core and slapped his palm into the air. A Projection Array then started appearing...

Fan Da's expression underwent a drastic change as his rage reached the skies!

Chapter 186 - F, My Experience Is Flying Away

It wasn't strange that the little guy could engrave arrays.

A three year old child of the gnome race could form basic arrays.

So it was natural for Fan Zhangjian to know this.

Except...

The array he formed was a bit different from others. This was an array similar to a video projection and was developed by his father. Most likely in the entire world, no one but Fan Zhangjian was able to do this now.

He was only activating the Projection Array that his father had developed...

And Luo Tian was stunned by this.

Luo Tian showed a shocked expression and mumbled to himself: "Isn't this basically a f*cking movie projector? This is way too advanced for this world!"

"Fan Tai, you are unqualified to be the king anymore. My friendly advice is to pa.s.s the position to me; otherwise I'll have your whole family disappear from this world."

"Second brother, what are you planning on doing?"

"Planning on doing? My strength is much greater than yours but because you are one year older than me, father gave the king's position to you. Based on what? What qualifications do you have to become king? After all these years, what have you accomplished? Elder brother, this is the last time I'll be calling you this. A wise man submits to fate; everyone in and outside of the palace are my people. I have prepared for this day for ten years now..."

The projection was of two gnomes talking.

Apart from them two, the main palace halls were filled with other gnomes including: Kua Tai, Fan Er, the soldiers of the Iron Blood Corps with weapons in hand, and finally the killers in black clothing.

Those two started quarreling.

Soon after, they made their move.

The King and Queen were then eventually killed.

They were both personally killed by Fan Da.

His actions were extremely cruel and didn't have the slightest room for leeway. When Fan Tai had no more strength to fight back, Fan Da viciously ripped his head off causing blood to shower the area.

As for the Queen...

Her fate was even more horrible. Several leaders of the Iron Blood Corps ripped off all her clothes and defiled her for an hour before killing her.

This was inhumanly cruel and cold-blooded!

Rage...

Rage was crazily soaring.

The rage inside Luo Tian's heart was continuously soaring as he clenched his fists. The killing intent in his heart was rising at an unprecedented rate and his jaws were making cracking sounds from clenching so hard. Was this even actions of a civilized race?

Killing one's brother in order to seize the throne is fine.

But he was about to die anyway yet you still had to rip off his head? This type of action was worse than a beast's!

Worst of all, he didn't even spare his own sister-in-law.

He allowed his own subordinates to defile her. What justifications did a person like this have to remain on this world? At this moment, the rage in Luo Tian's heart was erupting like a volcano and his killing intent became incomparably intense.

Luo Tian looked over at Fan Zhangjian.

Fan Zhangjian didn't cry, but his face was a bit pale and there was some blood on his mouth from biting down so hard.

He was biting his lips and using all his strength to not start crying. There was no sound coming from him but the tears were gushing out like crazy. Fan Zhangjian's heart felt like it was bleeding as the pain of his parent's death was unbearable to him.

If your father's head was ripped off and your mother was defiled, would there be any greater hatred in the entire world?

Fan Zhangjian then shouted through clenched teeth: "Fan Da! You d.a.m.n beast, why aren't you kneeling to accept your punishment?!"

"Kneel down!"

"Kneel down!"

"Kneel down!"

The crowd started shouting in unison...

And their voices shook the sky.

Many of them started crying while cursing out at Fan Da.

"Is that still considered a person?"

"Murdering your brother and disgracing your sister-in-law; you are beneath a beast! A person like you should be fried in oil!" 1

"This is too cruel."

Even in his dreams, Fan Da never imagined the scene of the palace would be recorded by a Projection Array. He also never expected Fan Zhangjian would get his hands on this projection. Everything he had done so far had gone up in flames.

He was roaring inside his heart.

His heart was going crazy...

But suddenly...

Fan Da started laughing like mad. He then flew into the air and glared at Fan Zhangjian coldly. "You're right; your father was killed by me. Your mother is so beautiful and should be enjoyed by everyone, hahaha..."

"As for a little mongrel like you, I should've slapped you to death in the beginning."

Since everything had been exposed, then there was no need for him to continue pretending.

They've regrettably reached this step already so there was no need to avoid this taboo any longer. And not too far off, the majority of the Iron Blood Corps had arrived by now.

"Fan Da, are you still even a gnome?"

"How could our gnome race have such a beast like you?"

After tearing off the facade, Fan Da had now become even more reckless.

Many of them started cursing at him again.

But Fan Da merely coldly smiled before shouting: "You bunch of trash of the gnome race; I will give you all a chance to live. Capture those two for me or else I will send you all to h.e.l.l one at a time!"

"Never on our lives!"

"The soldiers from the Iron Blood Corps have arrived."

"This is bad!"

Fan Zhangjian then coldly shouted: "Fan Da, what do you plan on doing?!"

Fan Da fiercely laughed out once before saying: "The humans have a saying: Those with me will prosper while those against me will die! Your d.a.m.n father was unqualified to rule us gnomes; he was unqualified to control the mountain of demon cores; and unqualified to control our gnome race's supreme treasures. He should have stepped down long ago but that d.a.m.n dog thing was unwilling to abdicate no matter how much I persuaded him. Since that's the case, I could only s.n.a.t.c.h the position from him. He deserved his death and as for you guys..."

"Heh heh...!"

Fan Da started laughing in an evil manner before shouting: "Everyone present, I will say it again: Those with me will prosper while those against me will die! Whoever dares to not listen to my commands will be directly killed!"

He controlled everything.

He was also ready to wash the entire gnome race in blood!

As long as the Iron Blood Corps listened to him, nothing else would be a problem.

Without the King's Seal and unable to become the gnome race's hero, there was still one path left: An uprising filled with soldiers and blood! Removing all opponents and destroying all voices of dissent, the price of blood was normal for any regime change.

It will be the same this time as well.

In Fan Da's eyes, the process didn't matter as long as he attained his goals!

"We will never take part in such tyrannical methods!"

"Fan Da, you are the sc.u.m of our gnome race!"

Various voices were heard.

Fan Da's gaze turned vicious as his oppressive pressure struck down like a heavy sword. Those gnomes that made those comments were then directly crushed into meat paste. He then coldly laughed: "This is the outcome for going against me, hahaha! This world is a place where only the strong can speak. As for a bunch of ants like you guys, you aren't qualified to live in this world. It's only out of the generosity and goodness of my heart that I'm giving you guys a chance to live. If you dare continue going against me, then death is the only path left for you. Hahaha..."

Such savageness!

Extreme and unbridled savageness!

Fan Da's gaze was insufferably arrogant. It was as if he was the overlord of the entire world in control of everyone's life.

"Bang~, bang~, bang~..."

"Bang~, bang~, bang~..."

Over ten thousand soldiers of the Iron Blood Corps had arrived and surrounded the place!

As soon as the Iron Blood Corps army arrived, Fan Da became even more unrestrained and smug. He started laughing crazily: "A d.a.m.n human like you, and that d.a.m.n little mongrel; the day of your death has arrived! Hahaha..."

Luo Tian's brows twitched while his lips formed a sneer. He then excitedly said: "You want a big battle huh? This daddy's Blood Devouring Wild Blade has long been hungering and thirsting for blood!"

While in actuality, his internal monologue went like this:

This is awesome! With so many monsters for me to kill, how much experience am I going to get out of this?

Except...

Fan Zhangjian faintly smiled as his body started exuding an aura of one that held a position of power. He coldly smiled and said: "You should take a look at who they're actually coming for!"

Fan Da's expression turned grim as he realized all the steel spears of the Iron Blood Corps were pointed at him!

Luo Tian became stunned as he started to admire this little brother of his. Except his heart was bitterly complaining: "F*ck! My experience is flying away!"

Chapter 187 - Do You Dare To Fight One On One?

A whole bunch of experience was gone just like that.

It would be false to say Luo Tian wasn't depressed by this. There was huge glob of experience and undefeated values involved, so if he actually managed to kill them all...

To say the least, the Azure Dragon's bloodline would be within his grasp.

Except...

Luo Tian wasn't some crazy serial killer. He still had his own standpoint and a bottom line he wouldn't cross.

Moreover, the Iron Blood Corps had already sided with Fan Zhangjian so killing them wouldn't be logical right? Killing his little brother's little brothers? That's pretty messed up!

Another important point...

Fan Da had an extremely ugly look on his face; worse than the look when one had eaten s.h.i.t.

Seeing how p.i.s.sed off he was, Luo Tian was enjoying the scene to the max. He was sincerely admiring the move Fan Zhangjian was able to pull off. At such a young age, he was able to pull off a stunt like this so Luo Tian couldn't help but admire his awesomeness.

The Iron Blood Corps had completely surrounded Fan Da.

This made Luo Tian worried as he mumbled to himself: "I've already lost the little soldiers, don't tell me they aren't leaving the boss for me either?"

Luo Tian started worrying because no matter how high Fan Da's cultivation was, there's no way he was the opponent of an army filled with elites.

He was really afraid Fan Zhangjian would give the order and the entire Iron Blood Corps would rush in to spear Fan Da to death. Then Luo Tian would have nothing to do with his demise.

"Good!"

"Good!"

"Good move! I've underestimated this little mongrel. I never imagined my personal troops would betray me. Your father truly gave birth to a good and intelligent son!" Fan Da ferociously roared out.

Fan Zhangjian faintly smiled while a faint aura of a monarch exuded from him. "This was all forced by you. If it weren't for you, I wouldn't have become like this. Fan Da, you're already at a hopeless situation so just stop struggling and submit yourself. I will give you a decent death, not like the one you gave my parents."

"Humph!"

"Stop struggling and submit myself?"

"Little mongrel, that's just wishful thinking. Did you think a mere Iron Blood Corps is capable of capturing this daddy?" Fan Da continued speaking in a disdainful manner: "I am the gnome race's number one person when it comes to engraving arrays. Even your deceased father's talent isn't as good as mine, and you want to stop me with a bunch of trash?"

Indeed...

Fan Da's ability to engrave arrays was extremely powerful.

Wanting to capture him was an extremely difficult task.

But...

Fan Zhangjian wasn't worried as he said with a smile: "You forgot that beside me is my boss, a person capable of spatial laws. No matter how fast your Escape Array is, would it be faster than the spatial laws? Everything is within my calculations and there's nowhere for you to run. It's best that you just die with dignity so that it saves the trouble for everyone."

His words were calmly spoken that were neither quick or slow.

His expression showed that the outcome was under his control and it was futile whatever you did.

This little guy seemed to have completely changed into an adult.

In addition...

He had calculated this ploy with Luo Tian as a backup.

After saying that...

Fan Zhangjian looked over at Luo Tian and said apologetically: "I'm sorry boss."

Luo Tian was a bit unhappy to be meshed into the ploy, but what else could he say when it was devised by a seven year old? Luo Tian faintly smiled in response: "Don't worry about it!"

Luo Tian didn't put it to heart.

Because Fan Zhangjian was still calling him boss and wasn't throwing around his weight as the gnome race's prince. He was still showing an expression of a little brother which made Luo Tian quite happy internally. How cool was this when he could tell others that his little brother was a prince.

His relationship with Fan Zhangjian was a bit different from Tang Jiu.

Spatial laws were the nemesis to the gnome race's arrays.

Fan Da's eyes turned fierce as the corner of his eyes twitched a bit. He glared at Luo Tian and recalled the death of Fan Er. His heart turned grim as he said to himself: "Is this d.a.m.n human really the reinforcement the little mongrel planned in advance?"

Immediately after...

Fan Da laughed out in a gloomy manner before saying: "You want to use him to stop me? Little b.a.s.t.a.r.d mongrel, you want a trashy Profound Spirit 8th ranker to stop me? It looks like you are really just a child with your naive thoughts."

At this time...

Luo Tian faintly smiled and said with incomparable arrogance: "Whether I can stop you or not, we'll know once we give it a try. You d.a.m.n little midget, why don't you test it out by using your Escape Array? We'll see if I can chop your head off the moment you try disappearing off into that s.p.a.ce of yours."

Half of Fan Er's body had disappeared into that spatial crack before he was directly dragged out by Luo Tian.

Fan Da hesitated.

When one uses the Escape Array, they cannot use other arrays. This means that they can't retaliate with an attack. When one's body starts moving randomly, it's highly possible for the distorted spatial crack to crush one's body into nothing. This was one important point that all users were clear on.

The activation of the Escape Array cannot be interfered with any outside force!

This was very similar to League of Legends Recall ability. Any interruption during the 8 second channeling will stop the process.

Fan Da didn't dare to take the risk.

Luo Tian saw through this and mocked Fan Da: "d.a.m.n midget, why aren't you using the Escape Array to run away? Go on, escape! Why don't you give it a try? You don't dare? Scared? If you're scared, then you better kneel down and kowtow to this daddy and await your death!"

"Who the f*ck told you to be so smug? You never expected you'd see such a day huh? You d.a.m.n midget that's even lesser than a beast!"

Luo Tian let out a series of curses as he vented out everything that was suppressed within him.

Fan Da's expression underwent multiple changes. From red to green, from green to white, then from white to purple. His body was exuding a heat that was coming from his rage, and within the rage was an endless amount of killing intent.

Rage!

The boss was enraged!

The golden glow around his body was even more dazzling to behold.

Luo Tian's lips curved up as he smiled in excitement.

Fan Zhangjian's expression turned grim as he threw out a reminder: "Boss, don't p.i.s.s him off too much."

"Huh?"

"Why not?" Luo Tian was puzzled by this.

Fan Zhangjian lowered his voice and said: "The Iron Blood Corps is actually not going to make a move against him nor help him. If we can't find a way to kill Fan Da, we will die instead because the Iron Blood Corps will switch sides and align with him."

"F*ck!"

"Why didn't you mention this earlier?" Luo Tian tried hiding his surprised expression.

Fan Zhangjian continued saying: "This is the agreement I made with their commander. If Fan Da dies, they will support me. If he doesn't die, it is us that will die. I promised them that you'd definitely be able to get rid of Fan Da."

Why else would the Iron Blood Corps take such a risk if I didn't say this?

And why would they believe in Fan Zhangjian's words?!

In order to convince the Iron Blood Corps to remain neutral and appear to help him on the surface, Fan Zhangjian was going to appoint the commander, the position of General with other privileges. This position was something only those of the royal bloodline were qualified to have.

This was the status that the commander of the Iron Blood Corps had always wanted.

Greed.

This was something that appears everywhere and anywhere!

Luo Tian hiddenly clenched his fists. He originally thought the Iron Blood Corps would be the vanguard against Fan Da but didn't expect it to turn out like this. Luo Tian's heart shuddered a bit as he realized he was almost played to death by the little squirt.

But...

This also made sense.

Otherwise, the rank quest wouldn't have been triggered.

Since that's the case, then...

Luo Tian's lips curved up as he called out his Blood Devouring Wild Blade. The huge 1800 jin blade was then pointed at Fan Da's face as he coldly shouted with a domineering aura: "d.a.m.n little midget, do you dare to fight me one on one?!"

Chapter 188 - The Psychic Array That Went Against The Heavens

"You d.a.m.n little midget, do you dare to fight me one on one?"

As those words left his mouth, everyone looked at Luo Tian.

Luo Tian's expression was filled with domineering arrogance.

While many gnomes present were dumbfounded by this.

"Madness! This human has become a complete looney!"

"Challenging our gnome race's number one expert? Is this human okay in the head?"

"He is not normal right?"

"Definitely abnormal. As long as you're somewhat normal, no one would say such words like his."

"Fan Da started engraving arrays at the age of two. He was then proficient in all the gnome race's arrays by the age of five. He was able to break an ancient array of ours at the age of ten and even modify it to become our gnome race's number one array. He's an array grandmaster, and also a super expert of the martial path. With his cultivation at the peak of the Profound Spirit 9th rank, he's only a step away from the Profound King realm. A human that doesn't know arrays wants to challenge him? If this isn't courting one's own death, what else is?"

They hated Fan Da.

They hated his viciousness, hated how he was lower than a beast, and hated what he had done.

They all wished that Fan Da would die; the more miserable his death, the better.

But...

All the gnomes were clear that Fan Da was their tribe's number one warrior. Unless the entire Iron Blood Corps made their move, no one would be able to kill him. And even if the entire Iron Blood Corps attacked together, they would still have to pay a huge price for it. If Fan Da wanted to escape instead of fight, no one will be able to stop him.

A Profound Spirit 8th ranker wanted to challenge him?

This human definitely had something wrong with his brains!

At this moment, many gnomes were sighing on behalf of Luo Tian.

Fan Zhangjian's brows were locked together because he didn't expect Luo Tian would suddenly say such words either. His worry was only for Luo Tian, the boss of his. He advised without bias: "Boss, Fan Da is extremely strong. You..."

Without letting Fan Zhangjian finish...

Fan Da started laughing into the air. He was laughing like crazy and a trace of disdain could be heard. When he finished laughing, he shouted: "Good! I accept the challenge from a lowly human like you. But since this is a duel, there has to be some conditions involved."

This might be his chance!

As long as he kills Luo Tian, the spatial laws constraint over his head would be lifted. He could then do whatever he wanted, even...

Fan Da started laughing evilly inside his heart.

Luo Tian faintly smiled and replied: "You d.a.m.n midget, just spew out whatever conditions you have."

Fan Da glared angrily and said: "My conditions are simple. First: This is life and death battle and won't end until one of us is dead!"

Since they were going to fight, someone had to die.

In Fan Da's heart, Luo Tian had to die.

As long as Luo Tian dies, there would be no one left to stop him. Moreover, he had noticed the eyes of some of the Iron Blood Corps soldiers. It was very clear that they were afraid of him. Once he's able to quickly kill Luo Tian and the little mongrel, the soldiers won't dare to make any rash moves!

A chance!

This was a great opportunity!

At this moment in time, Fan Da seemed to have seen the dawn of a new day. It was as if he could see himself ascending the throne of the king's.

As for Luo Tian...

He had never placed him in his eyes!

Luo Tian replied without hesitation: "All you wanted was a fight to the death? This daddy was actually afraid that you would try to run away."

Luo Tian started laughing internally: "You d.a.m.n midget boss, fighting to the death is exactly what this daddy wanted. If you wanted to escape, my Eternal Kingdom might not be able to stop you. Having a boss run away would be too great a loss for me."

The s.p.a.ce that the Eternal Kingdom skill creates is best used against those at the same or lower level than Luo Tian. When using against Fan Da who's at the Profound Spirit 9th rank, it might not be that useful.

But...

Fan Da didn't know about this or else he would have used the Escape Array and ran away already.

Seeing how Luo Tian agreed, Fan Da smiled in a smug manner and said: "Kid, you're definitely going to die."

Right after, he continued: "Second condition: This little mongrel's life will be under my control. Whether he lives or dies will be up to my mood."

This would be his protection talisman.

He couldn't determine if the Iron Blood Corps was going to move against him or not. But if Fan Zhangjian was in the palm of his hands, then whatever the outcome was will no longer be an issue.

"No way!"

"You refused to stop after killing the King and Queen, now you even want to hold the Prince captive? You're the d.a.m.n devil incarnate! Don't agree to it!"

"Don't agree to it..."

The gnomes immediately opposed the condition.

Luo Tian didn't agree to it and looked at Fan Zhangjian. Such a condition would need to be personally agreed by the person himself.

Fan Zhangjian didn't hesitate and replied: "Fine, I agree to the condition!"

As those words faded, he looked towards Luo Tian and giggled: "Boss, I believe in you!"

With his life on the line, there was no hesitation at all!

Fan Zhangjian was really not ordinary.

This gave Luo Tian another surprise since this wasn't a decision a seven year old could make with such decisiveness. Luo Tian faintly smiled and said: "Little squirt, I won't let you fall into his hands again.

"Agghhh..."

The gnomes present started causing a commotion.

"You're not Fan Da's opponent so don't put our Royal Highness the Prince into it."

"Fan Da's abilities in array have reached the apex so how can you be his opponent? If a human like you wants to die, then just go die. Don't drag our Royal Prince into it as well."

"..."

Many gnomes started opposing like crazy.

They were all clear on how strong Fan Da was so they automatically presumed Luo Tian would lose. And he would lose very quickly and in a miserable fashion.

They were the most clear on how powerful an array was.

The gnomes used their arrays to resist against the devil race, dragon race, and the human race. And Fan Da happened to be an array grandmaster proficient in all types of arrays. Even if a Profound King expert arrived, they might not be his opponent, not to mention Luo Tian who was only at the Profound Spirit 8th rank!

Fan Zhangjian cleared his throat and said: "Everyone, there's no need to worry about me. He's my boss and I believe he will definitely win!"

"Win?"

"What's he going to use to win?"

"With his sharp tongue?" Fan Da started laughing coldly. He then glanced at Luo Tian as if looking at an insect that was about to die. As long as he made a random attack, Luo Tian would instantly die without a burial. Fan Da then smiled smugly and said: "Third condition!"

"F*ck!"

"Are you done yet you d.a.m.n midget?!"

Hearing those two words third condition, Luo Tian started scolding out: "Quit blabbing in front of this daddy. It's useless with all your bulls.h.i.t and conditions. Since you're going to die anyway, those conditions are absolutely useless to you!"

There was a slight change to Fan Da's expression. He coldly smiled and continued saying: "Third condition: When you've reached h.e.l.l, tell that little mongrel's parents that I, Fan Da has succeeded. Hahaha..."

Fan Zhangjian's expression underwent a drastic change. He started clenching his fists on and off, causing his fingernails to stab into his palms. Blood then started dripping from the palm of his little hands.

The rage inside Luo Tian's heart exploded! The Blood Devouring Wild Blade also started giving off an ear piercing ringing sound as it became angry as well.

Suddenly...

With a single step, Luo Tian's figure shot through the air and instantly arrived next to Fan Da with his blade raised up.

A thunderous roar could be heard in the air!

The huge blade started moving as if it wanted to cleave the sky into two. The blade then chopped down filled with a b.l.o.o.d.y aura.

Fan Da's lips curved into a cold smile as he said: "You want to kill this daddy with just this level of attack?!"

His right hand formed an array seal before slapping the air and shouting: "Psychic Array - Black Tortoise Xuanwu, come out for me!"

"Boom~!"

In front of the array, a huge black tortoise known as Xuanwu rushed out!

F*ck!

He was really finished this time!

Chapter 189 - Midget, The Day Of Your Death...

Black Tortoise Xuanwu was summoned?!

F*ck, isn't this a bit overpowered?!

This was completely unexpected that Fan Da was capable of using the Psychic Array, one that was able to summon out a huge beast.

Black Tortoise Xuanwu.

One of the four divine beasts.

Although the Psychic Array's summon of the Black Tortoise Xuanwu wasn't able to allow it to reach its true terrifying powers, its strength had already surpassed a normal rank 8 demonic beast and was almost reaching a rank 9.

How on earth was one supposed to go against such a fierce beast?!

Fan Er only knew how to use the Xuanwu's Great Formation.

But Fan Da was able to directly summon Xuanwu out!

This was too terrifying!

Terrifying to the point of a complete mess.

Sounds of wailing and crying could be heard everywhere. Black Tortoise Xuanwu stomped down and instantly crushed a bunch of gnomes into meat paste. The aura coming from its extremely hard armor then directly shattered the blade aura that Blood Devouring Wild Blade was exuding in Luo Tian's hands.

The blade didn't even get to fully descend yet and the tortoise's spreading aura had already caused Luo Tian's arms to tremble in numbness. It seems like there was no way he could continue chopping down anymore.

Powerful!

Way too powerful!

A light halo then surrounded Black Tortoise Xuanwu, which was its shield that it was naturally born with.

Between the four divine beasts, Xuanwu's defense was the strongest.

Even amongst all the possible heavenly beasts, the ranking of its defense was unshakeable. Especially when it came to its tortoise shell; divine weapons couldn't break it and the most powerful force of nature couldn't destroy it. It was basically impossible to fight against it.

"Hahaha..."

Fan Da started laughing conceitedly before saying in disdain: "Kiddo, you want a one on one fight with me? You're either going to die, or die. Hahaha..."

Smugness!

Fan Da was expressing extreme smugness!

No matter how strong Luo Tian was, it was all useless when facing the Black Tortoise Xuanwu. Since Luo Tian won't be able to break past its defense, he can only await his death.

Once Luo Tian dies...

Fan Da then shouted internally with excitement: "The King's position is mine! I will be the king of the gnome tribe; their overlord; their G.o.d! Hahaha... Black Tortoise Xuanwu, crush them for me! Stomp all these disobedient ants to death for me! Hahaha..."

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

The Black Tortoise Xuanwu continuously stomped its feet, tragically killing all the gnomes that were frozen in fear.

Fan Zhangjian's expression sank lower and lower as he shouted: "Fan Da! The ancestors of us gnomes have issued a rule in the past that we cannot bring demonic beasts into the tribal territories. You've now committed a huge taboo, so aren't you afraid of the ancestor's wrath?"

The gnome race was naturally short. Once a large demonic beast entered tribal territories, the only outcome would be a complete massacre to the ordinary citizens.

And all the structures made by the gnomes underground would be destroyed.

Therefore, no demonic beasts were allowed to enter into gnome territories.

Fan Da's expression was extremely evil with a trace of excited ferociousness. He then ridiculed: "A little mongrel like you wants to suppress me with the ancestors? Are you even qualified to mention our ancestors? You brought a human into our gnome race's territory which is also a serious offense in our rules. Could it be that you aren't afraid of the wrath of our ancestors?"

"Mentioning some dog fart ancestors with me?"

"Humph!"

"I am your ancestor! Even in front of our forefathers, I am now their G.o.d. Your lives are now in my hand. Whoever I want to die, will have to die. Hahaha..."

Madness!

Complete insanity!

The Black Tortoise Xuanwu was simply too strong.

While sitting atop the divine tortoise, Fan Da was acting extremely smug and arrogant!

The Black Tortoise was basically a huge monster sweeping through everything in an unrestrained manner.

"Save us!"

"Ancestors, save us!"

"Fan Da, you d.a.m.n murderer! You will definitely die a horrible death!"

Many gnomes were kneeling down begging the heavens.

They had fallen into desperate situation.

When facing against the powerful Black Tortoise, they were completely helpless since their strength difference was too great. This gap was so large that they couldn't even dream of matching.

Fan Zhangjian's heart felt like it was bleeding as he wiped the tears across his face. He then said in a serious manner: "Fan Da, in order to become king, do you really have to kill so many gnomes? These are all the common citizens of our gnome race so you're not even going to let them off?"

"Hahaha..."

"Little mongrel, I already told you I am the G.o.d of this place. Whoever I want to die, shall die. This bunch of disobedient ants only has your trashy father in their hearts, so I need to kill them all. Hahaha..."
Fan Da started laughing like mad.

The Black Tortoise was now at a state where it was unstoppable!

It was practically unbeatable!

A bunch of gnomes were being stomped to death each time and their blood dyed the ground red. Broken and scrunched up limbs were strewn everywhere.

At this time...

The once peaceful gnome territory had turned into a living h.e.l.l.

Fan Zhangjian couldn't endure this anymore. The pain he had been suppressing all this time exploded forth with him balling his eyes out at the current scene. He was crying with such heart wrenching pain that anyone seeing it would pity him.

After all, he was merely a child that was seven years old.

He was under the weight of too many things.

The pressure was too great.

He just couldn't hold on anymore and everything exploded out.

But...

At the same time when Fan Zhangjian was crying, he raised his head into the air and loudly screamed out: "Boss! Help me! Save my gnome race! Save us! Save..."

The words following that had become h.o.r.s.e.

Luo Tian's heart sank into an abyss as he was feeling tormented from hearing Fan Zhangjian's voice. He was clenching his fists continuously and his thoughts on overdrive: "How can I stop this Black Tortoise Xuanwu? What can I do?"

"Luo Tian, weren't you very arrogant just now?"

"Quickly think of something!"

"Can something so simple stump you just like that?"

"How are you going to rescue An Chunchun's mother later? How are you going to reach Shattered Sky City? How are you going to beat Murong Wanjian like the dog he is?"

Luo Tian was asking himself these series of questions.

Fan Zhangjian had triggered the deepest part of his heart where his weakest nerve laid.

Luo Tian's brain was on overdrive as he simulated different methods.

But...

He really couldn't think of a solution when facing against a matchless powerhouse like the Black Tortoise Xuanwu.

The Black Tortoise was too strong!

Strength!

"Once again, my strength isn't f*cking enough!"

Luo Tian started roaring madly inside his heart: "My f*cking cultivation level isn't strong enough again! When he wasn't strong enough, he couldn't protect his fellow brothers and couldn't protect his women!"

At this moment...

A strong sense of irritation poured out from Luo Tian's heart.

He was blaming himself for incompetence since he couldn't figure out a way to deal with Xuanwu. Luo Tian watched how the Black Tortoise kept slaughtering the common citizens, how Fan Zhangjian was crying for help, and how arrogantly smug Fan Da's lips curved into a smile. He wanted to calm down but couldn't.

"Is there really no solutions available?"

Luo Tian opened up his system interface.

He then opened up his skills page with a thought.

As the first page of his skills appeared...

Suddenly...

Luo Tian became excited as he stared at a certain skill on the page. He then said through gnashed teeth: "d.a.m.n midget, the day of your doom has arrived!"

Immediately after...

Luo Tian leapt into the air and flew towards the Black Tortoise Xuanwu.

Fan Da noticed Luo Tian was rushing towards him and started laughing in ridicule: "Trashy human, courting your own death huh? This daddy will send you along then!"

The Black Tortoise Xuanwu was like a speedy tank charging towards Luo Tian!

Luo Tian stopped in the air and stared fiercely at the incoming Black Tortoise. He then roared out: "It's all up to you! You have to succeed on the first try!"

"Magic Charm!"

"Whoosh~..."

A bright light with crackling noises of static electricity was heard coming from the Black Tortoise's body.

A few seconds later, a wondrous sounding alert tone was heard in Luo Tian's mind.

"Ding!"

Chapter 190 - Ancient Dragon Execution Array

Magic Charm!

This was a spell that Wizards in the game Legend of Mir learned.

This was a spell that could make monsters into your own pet and had become rather special in this world. It wasn't that strong in the game but had now become powerful enough to be a life saving straw for Luo Tian. It was no different from a life saving talisman!

The skill beamed out.

"Ding!"

The system gave off an alert tone and Luo Tian was extremely pious internally. Once again, he started naming off the women he could never forget in his previous life: "Teacher Sola Aoi, Sister Maria Ozawa,

Sister Yui Hatano, Yuhua... uhh, ptui ptui ptui, I meant Sister Haruno Saki, please come and bless me! It has to succeed in one try!"

Whether Magic Charm can succeed on the first try or not will be up to the heavens.

The percentage of success was irrelevant!

Humans shall fight for their own destiny!

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for your successful recruitment!"

"Holy motherf*cker, I succeeded with one try!"

Luo Tian's heart ignited into a fervor as he eyes blazed with excitement. He then started laughing madly into the air. It was so crazy that he was like a peerless show off artist. He was putting on such airs that the crowd actually paused their attempts in running away and wondered if the human had suddenly gone insane with fear.

"Hahaha..."

"Hahaha..."

"Hahaha..."

"Fan Da, you d.a.m.n little midget! The day of your death has arrived!"

Arrogance!

Incomparable and unbridled arrogance!

Luo Tian was so smug that he looked like an evil villain right now. All the anger suppressed inside him had instantly exploded forth. He made a thought and commanded out loud: "Xuanwu, stomp that trash to death for me!"

"Huh?"

Fan Da's expression showed his shock as he realized Black Tortoise Xuanwu had suddenly stopped. He couldn't help but be startled by this. Seeing how Luo Tian was crazily laughing, he unconsciously blurted out: "d.a.m.n trashy human, did your brains get fried? You dare to command Xuanwu who I've summoned..."

"Bang~!"

Suddenly...

Fan Da didn't manage to finish his sentence when Black Tortoise's body trembled and he was flung off.

Fan Da was scared stiff.

He was so scared that he didn't know what on earth was happening. His eyes were glued to the Black Tortoise's figure while unknowingly above its head were the words Black Tortoise Xuanwu (Luo Tian). All Fan Da could think of was "Why are there suddenly words there?! What the h.e.l.l is going on?!" 1

"Hahaha..."

Luo Tian leapt up and landed on the sh.e.l.l of the Black Tortoise. He made a mental command before bragging: "Fan Da, you never expected this huh?"

Luo Tian was standing high up there while he coldly glared at Fan Da.

At this time...

Luo Tian's expression was similar to someone staring at an ant, exactly how Fan Da had stared at him previously.

Fan Da then shouted in shock: "What did you do to it? How could it...?"

Luo Tian revealed a look of disdain and said: "How could it become my battle pet huh? Didn't you say you were a G.o.d? Well, this daddy is the ancestor of the G.o.ds! The Xuanwu that you summoned can be taken over by me on a whim!"

"How could this be possible?"

"Heavens, what am I seeing?"

"This human... this human... what kind of martial skill did he cultivate?"

"Hahaha, human brat, I'm beginning to like you more and more now. Hurry up and kill this sc.u.m of our gnome race."

"Right, kill him! Kill him!"

The surrounding crowd of gnomes started getting worked up.

The hatred they had for Fan Da had reached an unprecedented height.

And now Luo Tian had become their life saving straw, their savior, their hero!

Fan Zhangjian started crying emotionally and shouted in a ho.a.r.s.e voice: "Boss is the most domineering! Long live the boss!"

Right after he screamed that...

Almost all the gnomes screamed out in unison: "Boss is the most domineering! Long live the boss!"

Their voices shook the heavens!

This was an unprecedented event!

A human that had garnered the admiration and cheers from the entire gnome race. Never had this happened before! This never happened back then with the Profound Saint Li Qing or the Demon King Ba Tian either. This was the first time in the history of the gnome race!

Luo Tian was domineering to the extreme!

Fan Da had an extremely ugly look on his face while looking up at Luo Tian. The honor was supposed to belong to him, but now it was stolen by a human. The hatred inside him became much stronger and the killing intent soared to its highest peak.

"Die!"

Fan Da roared out. His hands started forming seals and his palms gave off flashing lights of an array activating.

Almost at the same time...

Two attack arrays shot out.

Luo Tian showed no fear and faintly smiled. "Black Tortoise Xuanwu, crush this d.a.m.n midget for me!"

With a single thought, both of them shot forward.

When the Black Tortoise received Luo Tian's command, it had surged forward like crazy without caring for anything. It didn't care that Fan Da's left and right hands contained attacking arrays. No matter how strong the arrays were, Xuanwu considered them as a drizzle of rain that wasn't even strong enough to scratch an itch with.

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

Those two arrays exploded onto Xuanwu's body.

The light shield around its body only trembled a bit before the attack disappeared.

The defense of the Black Tortoise was practically awesome to the point of defying the laws of this world!

The most important thing out of this exchange was Xuanwu's light shield had actually caused a backlash to Fan Da, causing him to cough out multiple mouthful of blood. He almost couldn't get back on his feet, and the current him was an extremely embarrassing sight to behold.

Luo Tian was shocked by Xuanwu's power and started ridiculing: "Fan Da you d.a.m.n little midget, is this the extent of your attacks? Are you a p*ssy or did you not eat a meal today? I'll have to trouble you to put in a bit more strength please."

"Hahaha..."

"Haha..."

All the gnomes started laughing out loud.

Contempt!

This was contempt at its purest form!

Luo Tian was extremely smug right now. Seeing Fan Da's expression, he was feeling especially refreshed and happy.

When it was time to be smug, then one had to be smug to the max. This was Luo Tian's way of doing things!

Fan Da couldn't say a single word while filled with regret. Why did he summon out the Black Tortoise Xuanwu?

This allowed Luo Tian to take control of it.

What kind of f*cked up situation was this?!

Fan Da's hatred for Luo Tian kept getting stronger.

Suddenly...

Fan Da's aura started rising while his hands started forming strange looking seals. Over a hundred demon cores surrounded him out of nowhere, each filled with a rich essence of profound energy and containing a terrifying aura of different attributes.

"Wind!"

"Rain!"

"Thunder!"

"Lightning!"

"Eight Trigrams, come out for me!"

"Boom~!"

The demon cores floating around Fan Da suddenly shot out to every corner of the gnome's territory.

Once the demon cores landed, they were brightly flashing a crystal light.

The flashing light shot into the air and formed an ancient looking pattern as if one was looking at the stars.

Fan Zhangjian's expression drastically changed. He then shouted: "Ancient Dragon Execution Array?! Fan Da! Did you go insane?! Are you planning on destroying the entire gnome race?!"

As the name implies, it was an array to kill those divine dragons!

How terrifying would the power behind that array be?

Since it was capable of killing those of the dragon race, how would mere gnomes and a Profound Spirit realm Luo Tian fair?

Fan Da had gone mad!

Completely and utterly insane!

Fan Da started laughing ferociously: "Hahaha... not letting me off? I will make all of you accompany me in burial, hahaha! Ancient Dragon Execution Array... you will all have to die! You will all be buried along with me! Hahaha..."

"d.a.m.n brat, weren't you just very arrogant?"

"You d.a.m.n human; it was you that ruined everything for me. Now it's time for you to go to h.e.l.l!"

"Rise for me!"

"Boom~!"

The Ancient Dragon Execution Array was activated causing endless amounts of killing intent to surge out!

At this moment...

A holy type of light started flashing from the King's Seal in Luo Tian's possession.
