

Leveling Up 201

Chapter 201 - Instakill

His rage reached the skies!

Luo Tian's rage was out of control!

The flames in his heart were like a blazing sea that roiled about uncontrollably!

He needed one day's time in order to setup the Ancient Dragon Execution Array.

He was desperately engraving and setting up the array like his life depended on it.

During that time, he hid his aura and cleared his state of mind. This allowed him to concentrate fully on what he was doing. Luo Tian had to be extra careful since this was his first time setting up the Ancient Dragon Execution Array. He didn't have any extra time to waste on mistakes.

Wasting a single second could mean more gnomes dying.

In order to get that water attributed demon core, Fan Zhangjian had summoned all his troops in the Iron Blood Corps and over a hundred highest ranked demonic beasts. This was all because of him.

It was in order to kill the Jiao Dragon...

It was in order to get the water attributed demon core...

That's why Luo Tian was very grateful, and also why he endured the disdain by the demonic beasts.

Once he saw that the demonic beast army had been wiped out, his heart started aching.

For any living creature that fought with him, no matter if they were demonic beasts or of the gnome race, Luo Tian will consider them as brothers! Brothers that have gone through life and death together!

Seeing so many of his brothers dead, Luo Tian's heart was filled with extreme rage.

But the strength of the Jiao Dragon was simply too strong. So strong that its position could not be shaken.

Back then...

Luo Tian felt like all hope was lost when he couldn't find a way to kill the Jiao Dragon. He wouldn't be able to attain the water attributed demon core and would have no way to unseal the ancient scroll's array when he was only missing one of the five elements. Not getting his hands on the ancient treasure meant he couldn't make himself stronger!

To Luo Tian, these several months of hard work would be considered all for nothing.

But...

The Ancient Dragon Execution Array gave him a glimpse of hope!

As long as he was able to setup the array, not to mention a little wannabe dragon, he could even kill a true dragon if it appeared!

But engraving the Ancient Dragon Execution Array required a full day's time.

Time was precious to practically everyone. And now it seems like there was a great price to be paid for that time. Luo Tian didn't think too much of the complexities when he asked Fan Zhangjian to hold on for one day's time.

Now...

His heart felt like it had sank into an abyss.

Seeing so many corpses of the gnome race lying about, his heart felt extremely heavy.

It was all due to his selfish request that made so many gnomes lose their lives. Luo Tian's heart very heavy, and at the same time the flames of rage burned ferociously. His eyes looked up as the grim reaper's killing intent covered his entire body. He was now exuding an incomparably cold and terrifying aura.

Even the Jiao Dragon's eyes underwent a change as a light tremble was felt in his heart.

A cold intent that was even colder than his icy intent smashed against his mind. This completely pissed him off. What was going on with himself? Why was he afraid of a weak and lowly human?

Luo Tian's reappearance made the Jiao Dragon a bit surprised.

Thinking of the words he said back then, his heart felt very unhappy with this situation. Once again looking at the extreme cold aura coming from Luo Tian and the lack of fear in his eyes, this pissed the Jiao Dragon off even more. It was like the Jiao Dragon suffered a great insult as he coldly said: "A trashy human like you actually..."

Luo Tian didn't wait for the Jiao Dragon to finish before he cursed out: "F*ck your mom you motherf*cker! This daddy is here to rip you into pieces! You self-righteous four legged lizard who keeps calling himself a dragon; you're just a d.a.m.n snake. An incomplete transvest.i.te four legged snake you piece of s.h.i.t!"

The pupils of the Jiao Dragon shrunk.

It was already considered a great insult to have his words interrupted by a human. Now that he was scolded to no ends, this made it even angrier.

Its tail slammed down as it roared into the air: "You d.a.m.n human, I will definitely seal your soul deep down in the abyss. I will then make your physical body an eternal slave of mine, and let you experience what a living h.e.l.l is!"

Luo Tian sneered and clenched his fists. He then shouted: "I'm just going to twist your head off! It's that simple!"

"Four legged lizard..."

"I'm going to show you the repercussions of messing with this daddy's brothers."

Luo Tian's brows furrowed!

His spiritual will then controlled all the demon cores arranged several kilometers out.

At this moment...

The Jiao Dragon's anger had exploded from Luo Tian's words. His expression was extremely ferocious while he roared out. The roar was filled with a dragon's power which caused all the creatures within a ten thousand kilometer radius to start trembling.

But...

Luo Tian remained motionless while his heart showed no signs of trembling. He coldly smiled while looking at the Jiao Dragon in an insufferably arrogant manner. Luo Tian then iterated one word at a time: "You, should, go, die, for, me, now!"

"Wind!"

"Rain!"

"Thunder!"

"Lightning!"

"Eight trigrams, ancient gate open for me!"

"BOOM~!"

Several thousand demon cores acted like they heard Luo Tian's summon and instantly gave off a bright crystal light. The lights shone into the sky forming a range of stars, and an illusory door filled with power appeared and started opening!

Powers of antiquity!

An ancient power started descending!

The expression of the Jiao Dragon underwent drastic changes as it shouted: "Ancient Dragon Execution Array?!"

His voice was clearly trembling.

At this moment in time, his body, his heart, his mind, and his sea of consciousness were all trembling!

His arrogance was no longer there.

His smug smile was no longer there.

His disdainful expression was no longer there either.

Everything was replaced by fear.

Utter fear!

Incomparable fear!

The appearance of the ancient power was a powerful threat towards the Jiao Dragon. This energy was crushing against his mind causing him unable to move at all. The Jiao Dragon's pupils widen as it shouted: "How did a human like you learn a secret skill from the gnomes that have never been passed to outsiders?! How did you learn this Ancient Dragon Execution Array?!"

Luo Tian laughed.

He was laughing smugly and arrogantly. "Hahaha... are you scared now? Weren't you very arrogant? Didn't you want to look down on all living creatures of this world? Weren't you threatening to kill me, yet now you're scared?"

"Keep acting arrogant again! Show this daddy how arrogant you can be!"

"d.a.m.n four legged lizard!"

"This daddy has said that I will f*ck all eighteen generations of your ancestors! Whatever this daddy says, I will definitely accomplish it!"

Every word from Luo Tian was heavy like thunder crashing down because he was truly in rage.

He was angered by the deaths of the demonic beast army.

He was angered by the deaths of the Iron Blood Corps.

The death of the little squirt made him even angrier.

And the Jiao Dragon's insufferably arrogant look made him exceptionally angry. All this anger had fused together into a sea of rage. Inside Luo Tian, this sea of rage was smashing against the metaphorical sh.o.r.e lines like crazy!

Fury.

Incomparable fury!

"Those who kill my brothers, die!"

Luo Tian roared into the air: "Ancient Dragon Execution Array, activate for me!"

"Humph!"

The Jiao Dragon coldly harrumphed before saying: "This dragon refuses to believe a broken array can kill me. I possess the bloodline for a dragon; I'm a member of the dragon race; this type of array cannot kill me. I'm going to prove to the world that the Ancient Dragon Execution Array is just hearsay. Being able to kill dragons is something impossible!"

At this moment...

The Jiao Dragon's aura shot up and spread out over ten thousand kilometer radius.

Also at the same time...

Luo Tian ran out of the array like crazy.

Everything inside the Ancient Dragon Execution Array will be destroyed.

And just as Luo Tian's foot stepped out of the boundaries, his whole body started sinking down deep into the depths of the earth.

At this moment...

The ancient powers inside the array instantly shot down like lightning.

An alert tone then sounded off in Luo Tian's mind.

"Ding!"

Luo Tian was extremely shocked as he muttered to himself: "F*ck, it's so powerful to a complete mess!
It was actually an instakill!"

At the same time, his heart tightened as he said: "Explode, explode, there has to be a big loot explosion!"

Chapter 202 - Explode, Explode, Explode Into A Complete...

The ancient powers descended...

Along with the power of several thousands of demonic cores.

Those two energies formed a resonance with each other and instantly killed the insufferably arrogant Jiao Dragon.

Instakill!

Complete instakill!

This power was unimaginable as a hundred million health bar monster was instakilled!

The power of the Ancient Dragon Execution Array was too fierce, to the point that it was beyond imagination! It killed a peak rank 8 Jiao Dragon! We're talking about killing a Jiao Dragon with a small portion of a true dragon's bloodline in less than a second! One can imagine that back then, this array was surely capable of killing a true dragon.

No one should doubt its powers anymore!

Luo Tian who had sunk down into the ground collapsing was overwhelmed with confusion.

Hearing the system's alert tone, he started muttering: "Awesome... awesome... too motherf*cking awesome! The level of awesomeness cannot be described with words! If I ever meet an insufferably arrogant true dragon in the future, I could use this array to directly play it to death!"

At this moment...

Luo Tian focused his mind as he intently listened and mumbled: "Lord G.o.d, Buddha, sister Guanyin, please bless me with a huge loot explosion. Amen, Amitabha."

He was really anxious.

Luo Tian's sphincter tightened; he was completely focused and even forgot to breathe.

This Jiao Dragon boss was the strongest monster he had ever killed. It had to give him some face please!

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing the Jiao Dragon. You have gained 350,000 experience points, 40,000 profound energy..."

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining the Jiao Dragon's blood essence. Will you be fusing with it?"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining the bones of the Jiao Dragon."

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining the tendons and skin of the Jiao Dragon."

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining Colossal Ice Seal. Will you be cultivating it?"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining an ice attributed demon core."

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining a water attributed demon core."

.....

"Holy f*ck!"

"It exploded out! It exploded out! It finally exploded out! My water attributed demon core..." Luo Tian was so emotional that he almost started crying. After several months of hard work, he had finally gathered all five elemental demon cores. F*ck, this wasn't easy at all!

Luo Tian was excited.

Extremely excited! Just thinking how he was about to crack the array on the ancient scroll, he didn't really pay attention to the rest of the system alerts.

Until...

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining a dragon egg."

"Huh?"

Luo Tian had a somewhat startled expression thinking he had heard wrong. He then asked himself:
"What did I just gain?"

He calmed his excited heart and opened up the system's interface. "Oh my f*cking G.o.d! This is too awesome! It's so awesome that this daddy almost cannot believe that it's true!"

"A dragon egg!"

"A dragon egg actually exploded out!"

"Do you even dare to believe this?!"

Luo Tian almost didn't dare to believe this but the system was never wrong. A dragon egg had actually exploded out! This was too cool! Too d.a.m.n cool!"

Immediately after...

Luo Tian immediately looked up the attributes of the dragon egg.

Item: Dragon egg

Attributes: ? ? ? ? ?

Grade: ? ? ? ? ?

Power: ? ? ? ? ?

All the attributes were question marks.

Description: The egg is in the incubation period. Incubation value: 9999/10000.

It was only a single point away from hatching.

Luo Tian was excited by this but when he saw how long the incubation period was left, his expression changed. He then said to himself: "s.h.i.t! A single point of incubation value requires a whole year? I'm not a dragon so how am I supposed to hatch this?"

Description 2: The dragon egg will absorb the incubator's blood essence. One drop of blood per month, and twelve months later will increase the incubation value by +1.

"Absorbing blood essence?"

Luo Tian made a thought and a drop of blood landed on the dragon egg.

There was a slight tremble on the surface of the white egg before the blood was completely absorbed. It then gave off a faint red glow before reverting to its original calmness. It was now similar to a regular jumbo sized chicken egg laying there without moving.

One entire year for it to increase the incubation value by one point... does that mean the egg has been incubated for over 9999 years?

Luo Tian was shocked by this.

Ten thousand years ago, the Jiao Dragon was probably still a snake and had no ability to give birth to an egg. But somehow an egg exploded from its corpse. It isn't his egg so that means he stole it?

Stole?!

Luo Tian frowned. When he thought of the word stole, his mind became agitated. "If it was really stolen, then the egg..."

"Gulp~!"

Luo Tian heavily swallowed down his saliva.

In a mere instant, his blood started boiling. "Then this egg is a true dragon's egg and not a Jiao Dragon's egg. This was a real huge legendary dragon's egg! s.h.i.t... f*ck...!"

The strongest existence in the world was none other than the dragon race!

Their bodies were extremely powerful and their strength was of armageddon proportions!

Any fully grown dragon was capable of matching the super experts at the Profound Sovereign realm.

Dragons - they were basically invincible existences in this world.

During the battle of myriad races, the dragon race slowly retreated out of this continent. After ten thousand years, the dragon race rarely made an appearance in this world that was dominated by humans. Many people thought the dragon race had disappeared from this world and would never appear again.

There were many people that searched for traces of the dragon race but came up empty handed after a lifetime.

But...

Luo Tian actually had a dragon egg in his possession!

Luo Tian laughed to the point he almost fainted. He then said arrogantly to himself: "Murong Wanjian, who gives a rat's a.s.s that you have the bloodline of a true dragon? No matter how great you think of yourself, can you be greater than this daddy? You merely have a bit of a true dragon's bloodline while this daddy possesses a real dragon. And what I have might be even more awesome than a true dragon, like an eight-clawed golden dragon! Hahaha..."

Luo Tian then started fantasizing...

Three years later, Luo Tian would ride on a flying dragon to Shattered Sky City with an expression like he looked down on the entire world. He would then slap Murong Wanjian's face before fiercely cursing: "You dare to steal this daddy's woman? You're f*cking courting death!"

How domineering would he look?!

Upon imagining this, Luo Tian's heart started boiling in excitement to the point that he almost couldn't control himself anymore.

At this time...

There was another alert tone from the system.

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for leveling up. Your current level is Profound Spirit 9th rank!"

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing the boss Jiao Dragon. You will gain the second system's reward item!"

"Huh?!"

At this moment, Luo Tian almost kneeled down in reverence to the system. This was too much happiness all at once that he almost couldn't believe in it. "I'm not dreaming right?"

Also at this moment...

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining the system reward item. Your reward will be the Wild Blade's spirit."

"Huh?"

"What is that?"

"Wild Blade's spirit?" Luo Tian was stunned as a soul like thing floated around like a wandering ghost. Only that its aura... was filled with extreme dominance!

"Wahaha..."

Suddenly...

The Wild Blade's crazy laughter sounded off in Luo Tian's mind!

Chapter 203 – Unsealing The Ancient Scroll

He was laughing crazily with complete dominance!

He was just like a lunatic right now.

Luo Tian was confused by this and couldn't help saying: "Wild Blade, did you get the mad cows disease? Your sudden wild laughter almost scared me to death!"

Luo Tian had jumped up in fright from the Wild Blade's laughter out of the blues.

The laughter of his was like a ghost's wail that penetrated deep into one's psyche.

"Hahaha..."

"Hey brat, what on earth is inside your body?"

"You actually... actually managed to bring out the Blood Devouring Wild Blade's spirit over here. Hahaha... This is simply too amazing!" The Wild Blade was beyond ecstatic.

The world's most domineering blade – the Blood Devouring Wild Blade.

There was no doubt that it was considered a divine grade weapon!

All divine weapons had their own spirit, their own will, and a consciousness.

The current Blood Devouring Wild Blade was already quite fierce. Its weight was 1800 jins and its indomitable appearance could easily make children cry. But the world's most domineering blade was lacking that extra oomph, which was the blade's original spirit.

Once Wild Blade heard those words Wild Blade's spirit, his whole persona lit up and immediately started laughing like crazy.

"Hey brat!"

"Fusion! Let the blade's spirit fuse together with me!" Urged the Wild Blade.

Luo Tian was secretly startled but shouted: "s.h.i.t man, can't you see my current predicament? I'm still trapped in the ground and won't last long if I don't go back up to the surface. Just wait a bit because I have some other matters to discuss with you."

Luo Tian had suddenly sunk into the ground.

It was very clear...

Luo Tian was brought down by some type of array.

Once the Ancient Dragon Execution Array was activated, everything on the surface turned to ashes. The small lake the Jiao Dragon was living in had become a pool of stagnant water. And everything around it was burnt to a crisp with nothing living left alive.

"Boss!"

"The King's boss!"

"Big boss!"

The gnomes were standing on the surface with their eyes ablaze. They were all staring at Luo Tian who had managed to climb out of the ground.

Luo Tian was surprised and filled with joy as he said: "Little squirt! You didn't die! Hahaha... I knew my little brother wouldn't die that easily, hahaha..."

Luo Tian was truly happy seeing Fan Zhangjian was still alive.

He almost cried from happiness.

Recalling that he was brought underground, he was somewhat relieved and disappointed at the same time. "It looks like the weakness of the Ancient Dragon Execution Array is underground. Sigh... a peerless array capable of killing true dragons would have such a weakness."

Of course...

The weakness of the array was found unintentionally.

Fan Zhangjian's eyes were filled with tears. He leapt into Luo Tian's embrace and started wailing like a child. Fan Zhangjian was still a kid so the pressure he felt was much stronger compared to an adult.

Luo Tian lowered himself and gently patted his forehead. He then smiled and said: "I'm perfectly fine and can continue living. It's only the fellow brothers of the demonic beast army and the brothers of the Iron Blood Corps that..."

"It's all my fault."

"I shouldn't have let you guys come with me and becoming cannon fodder in the end."

Luo Tian started blaming himself.

Fan Zhangjian used his sleeves to wipe his face. The smear of tears and snot went sideways making him look like he was a cat with whiskers. "Boss, I still need to thank you. It was you who regained our ancestor's glory and it was you who allowed our gnome race to once again walk with our heads raised."

Sometime in the past...

The gnomes were capable of killing true dragons.

Now they couldn't even kill a Jiao Dragon, and this fact made the gnome race live in humiliation every day.

Now that the Jiao Dragon was dead, this allowed the gnomes to walk with their heads raised once again.

Amongst the surviving Iron Blood Corps soldiers, some had an awkward expression on their faces while some lowered their heads not daring to look at Luo Tian.

"How could I doubt the King's boss?"

"The King's boss is different from other humans so how would he leave us behind?"

"I'm such a sc.u.mbag."

"There are good people amongst the humans too."

Luo Tian glanced at the gnomes and gave them a kind smile.

Because of his kind looking smile, it was able to resolve their awkwardness.

This also made them truly trust Luo Tian from the bottom of their hearts.

Fan Zhangjian broke out into a smile. He then turned towards his tribesman with a giggle and said: "I already said that boss will never leave us behind."

Immediately after...

Fan Zhangjian then softly asked: "Boss, was that array you used the Ancient Dragon Execution Array?"

He really wanted to know.

The Ancient Dragon Execution Array was a forbidden array not passed onto outsiders, and only those with genius comprehension levels will be able to engrave it. Luo Tian only saw Fan Da use it once and managed to engrave it himself. This was practically unimaginable and inconceivable.

The gnomes obviously didn't know that Luo Tian's comprehension of the esoterics was something that exploded out of Fan Da's corpse.

Otherwise, how could Luo Tian learn the Ancient Dragon Execution Array that fast?

Luo Tian nodded and smiled in a vague manner.

Fan Zhangjian showed an extremely shocked expression. After several seconds, he then started laughing in happiness and shouting: "Long live the boss! Boss is the most domineering! Hahaha..."

-----

Half a day later.

At the base of the gnome's mountain.

"Boss, this is our gnome race's medal of summoning. As long as you shatter it, no matter the place, we will rush there immediately." Fan Zhangjian gave Luo Tian a black medal with ancient writing on the surface.

Luo Tian didn't refuse it.

Seeing this medal of summoning, Luo Tian couldn't help think of the earth's core race because their medal looked quite similar and had the same function.

Luo Tian nodded and said: "You should all return, I will come back to see you guys later."

After saying that...

Luo Tian waved his hand and strode into the forest.

Only when the back of Luo Tian had disappeared did Fan Zhangjian started crying loudly. He then shouted: "Boss! I will miss you! Boss, next time we see each other I will definitely not cry anymore! Boss, next time we see each other I will definitely have comprehended the esoterics of the Ancient Dragon Execution Array!"

"Goodbye, king's boss!"

Immediately after...

All the gnomes made a 90 degree bow towards the location Luo Tian had disappeared off to.

This was their greatest etiquette to another person.

In their hearts, Luo Tian was a hero.

Because of Luo Tian's appearance, the gnome race underwent a transformation and was opening a new chapter in their life.

-----

In the depths of the forest.

"Hey brat, this place is fine right?"

"I can't wait any longer."

"Once I fuse with the Wild Blade's spirit, I'll be able to materialize a phantom image of myself. Hahaha... Hey brat, did you know this lord is actually quite good looking?" Wild Blade was urging Luo Tian to hurry up since he was anxious for the outcome.

Luo Tian sent out his spiritual senses over ten plus kilometers out. When he determined there was no one around, he finally stopped and said: "Wild Blade, it should be easy to fuse with the blade spirit right? I've already gathered all five elemental demon cores so how about we first crack the Universal Array on the ancient scroll?"

Luo Tian couldn't wait anymore either.

"d.a.m.n!"

"You brat, your speed is truly quite fast."

"It's only been a few months yet you were able to gather the demon cores of all five elements." Wild Blade was inwardly surprised by this. The thing that shocked him the most was Luo Tian's speed in cultivation breakthroughs. In just a short few months, he went from the Profound Master realm all the way to the Profound Spirit realm. This speed practically went against the heavens!

Luo Tian willed the five elemental demon cores into Wild Blade's hands, and the ancient scroll then started floating up into the air.

"Good!"

"The soul of these old bones of mine have recovered quite a bit, so it's time for me to crack the ancient scroll."

It's finally time to unseal it!

Chapter 204 – Target: Heavenly Sword City

They were going to unseal it!

It was finally being unsealed.

Luo Tian was extremely excited at this moment.

These several months in the Ghostly Mountain Range could be said that he experienced many life and death situations. It was all for gathering the five elemental demon cores. Now that he had successfully gathered all the cores, his heart was really looking forward to the outcome.

The ancient scroll!

What would it look like after unsealing it?

What kind of secret or ancient treasure is hidden within it?

Would it be some ancient divine weapon?!

There were many fantastical thoughts running through Luo Tian's mind. At this moment, he felt like all these days of hard work was worth it.

"Hey brat..."

"I need your assistance in order to crack the array."

"The power of my soul isn't strong enough so I need to borrow your spiritual will as well. We'll also need the formless power of the demon cores in order to break through the array. There cannot be the slightest negligence or break in the process either. If we happen to fail, other than all our efforts being for naught, the ancient scroll won't be able to endure the pressure and will instantly disintegrate into powder." Advised Wild Blade in a serious manner.

Luo Tian nodded and said: "Fine, I will cooperate with you. I will let go of my spiritual will and you can control it fully."

If it was back then...

Luo Tian will never let Wild Blade control his spiritual will.

This was something extremely dangerous.

Once one's will was controlled, their existence could be seized by another.

But after such a long time, especially when fighting Chen Tianyao in Jade Mountain City, the Void Piercing Dragon Technique made Luo Tian extremely grateful towards Wild Blade. At the most dangerous moment, Wild Blade saved him at the cost of possibly having his soul extinguished. This alone made Luo Tian unconditionally trust Wild Blade.

Luo Tian made a thought and his sea of consciousness became quiet.

Right after that, Luo Tian said in his mind: "Wild Blade, let's do this!"

Wild Blade then shouted: "Good brat! This is a very painful process so you must persist through it. It also consumes a lot of profound energy so you must bite down hard and hold on, and not slacken for one bit!"

"I understand!"

"Just go ahead and crack it, I can handle any pain thrown at me." Said Luo Tian. What kind of bitterness had Luo Tian not experienced ever since he transmigrated here? What kind of pain had he not experienced? Now that it was time to crack the ancient scroll, he would still endure it even if it was more pain than he's ever experienced.

Wild Blade started laughing happily and said: "Good brat! You have the graceful demeanor of my past, hahaha..."

Immediately after...

Wild Blade stopped the nonsense chatter and activated his soul energy.

A wisp of soul entered Luo Tian's sea of consciousness. The sea was extremely vast which shocked Wild Blade once again. He then said to himself: "This kid is too extraordinary! He managed to refine his sea of consciousness to such a huge size, even peak Profound King's would only have a sea of consciousness about this size. This is simply too extraordinary!"

"Huh?"

Suddenly...

Wild Blade's expression turned grim. "Concept of death's aura?"

The soul made a slight movement and woke up the grim reaper's path of slaughter. Almost instantaneously, an image of a grim reaper rose out of the sea. It was coldly watching the wisp of Wild Blade's soul before carefully guarding itself.

"What a good brat!"

"He even managed to gain the concept of death."

"He is definitely a genius!"

"I was originally intending for you to follow my Shura's path of slaughter, and didn't expect you to comprehend an even stronger path of slaughter. This... what on earth did I miss out on these few months? How did this brat turn into a different person?" Wild Blade was in a complete mess of shock right now.

Wild Blade was planning to wait for his soul to recover before bringing Luo Tian into his Shura's path of slaughter.

This was a condition Luo Tian agreed to in the past.

But now it looks like...

Someone didn't even want his whatever Shura path of slaughter and directly comprehended a higher realm of slaughter concept. Wild Blade couldn't help but shake his head with a bitter smile. "This brat is too awesome."

For the world's most domineering blade to praise someone, most likely Luo Tian was the only person in this world to get it.

Wild Blade's wisp of soul didn't provoke Luo Tian's grim reaper's path of slaughter and slowly took over the control of Luo Tian's will.

Immediately after...

Wild Blade started reciting a mantra and Luo Tian's will made his sea of consciousness become turbulent. Within an instant, Wild Blade was in complete control.

Luo Tian's powerful will then formed a connection with the five elemental demon cores.

Gold, wood, water, fire, earth; each of these attributes connected with each other forming an array of the five elements. The energy of the five elements then started merging together.

Suddenly...

Luo Tian's profound energy started depleting like crazy!

His whole body was stimulated by this.

Luo Tian was extremely uncomfortable with this high speed depletion of his profound energy. It was similar to having his spiritual energy being drained which made his body wracked with unbearable pain.

"Hey brat!"

"Endure it!"

"This pain is only the beginning!" Said Wild Blade. His soul then accompanied the profound energy and started crazily stimulating the energy of the five elemental demon cores.

Wanting to crack the array on the ancient scroll required them to maximize the power of the five elements.

Destroy with absolute force!

Wild Blade's soul, Luo Tian's will, profound energy; these three powers crazily coursed through the five elemental demon cores. The power within those demon cores were surging and raging about, almost like they were going to explode any second inside Luo Tian's body.

Whenever a demon core was about to explode, Wild Blade would expertly control it.

"We're going to start now!"

"Brat, keep clenching your teeth and hold on!"

Wild Blade then roared out, and his soul exploded forth with an endless amount of domineering aura. This aura directly made the energy of those five elemental demon cores crush down towards the ancient scroll. Wild Blade made another shout: "Five Elements Open; unseal for me!"

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

The inside of Luo Tian had become a battleground of sorts.

The five elemental powers and the array were constantly clashing with each other.

At this moment...

Luo Tian almost fainted from the pain and then jolted awake by it. His internals felt like a blade was slowly cutting it into 10,800 little pieces. The rebound effect of using the Void Piercing Dragon Technique was nothing when compared to the current pain.

Even though this was the case...

Luo Tian continued clenching his teeth and endured it with his life on the line!

It was all for none other than...

Going to the Shattered Sky City in three years time to beat the s.h.i.t out of Murong Wanjian. It was all for Li Xue'er!

"Whoosh~, whoosh~, whoosh~..."

"Boom~!"

Luo Tian didn't know how long he was in pain for and started hearing explosions inside his body. His mind was suddenly startled by the change because all the pain had disappeared. He then frowned and asked internally: "Did it succeed?!"

There was no response inside his mind.

"Fuuu~..."

Luo Tian lightly exhaled before chuckling and saying: "Wild Blade, it's fine if you've failed. It's merely an ancient scroll and not a big deal. Next time I'll find a primordial scroll for us, hahaha..."

"d.a.m.n!"

"It seems like a brat like you is looking down on me, Wild Blade's ability huh?" Wild Blade shouted. His voice contained some excitement that couldn't be hidden before he laughed crazily: "Look brat, it was successful! The array on the ancient scroll has been cracked by me! Hahaha!"

Luo Tian widened his eyes and started laughing excitedly. He then said: "F*ck, it's finally been cracked!"

Immediately after...

Wild Blade started muttering: "However I look at it, the ancient scroll is just a messy looking piece of map. What is it trying to depict?"

Luo Tian made a thought and immediately brought out the ancient scroll. After carefully looking through it, he started laughing: "Hahaha... who would've thought the ancient treasure is in the Heavenly Sword City!"

Chapter 205 – Try Touching Them

Eight months later.

The entrance to Jade Mountain City.

Luo Tian's clothes had become strips of rags and he looked no different to a common beggar. He looked up at the city's gate and faintly smiled: "I'm finally back."

After unsealing the ancient scroll's array, Luo Tian didn't return immediately and chose to stay in the Ghostly Mountain Range to continue training.

Firstly, because he wanted to level up some more.

Secondly, he wanted to also raise the levels of his skills.

The Ghostly Mountain Range was considered as a natural treasure trove containing countless medicinal plants.

Luo Tian's pill alchemy skill started at level 1, but had risen to level 5 after these eight months. The current him was considered a rank 5 Alchemist. With all the enhancements he received from his Pill Alchemy skill, the pills he concocted would be a level higher than other alchemists at the same level as him.

As for his Engraving Arrays skill, Healing Art, Refining Gu skill, Weapon Refining skill; they had all risen in levels as well.

The current Luo Tian was almost like a Grandmaster jack-of-all trades.

To him, leveling his skills didn't require any accumulation of skill points. All he had to do was keep training it over and over again and it will automatically level up.

His martial skills rose up quite fast, but...

Eight months. After a full eight months, Luo Tian still hadn't broken through to the Profound King realm yet.

He was stuck at the Profound Spirit 9th rank!

Luo Tian had killed countless demonic beasts but the experience he received was too pathetic and couldn't satisfy his leveling requirement. These past eight months was Luo Tian's slowest leveling time in his entire life. This was also considered one of the darkest periods of his life. Thinking how he couldn't even level once this past eight months, Luo Tian immediately became annoyed.

He originally planned on breaking through to the Profound King realm before returning home, but the expiration of the S-rank quest was arriving soon.

Luo Tian had no clue about the environment of the Heavenly Sword City.

He also didn't know where An Chunchun's mother was at, so he had to head there early to make some preparations.

Also...

Luo Tian missed his brothers in Jade Mountain City, especially Fatty Lei. Who knows what cultivation level this lump of fat had risen to by now?

There was also An Chunchun.

The little fox race girl has most likely grown taller. Her cute expressions and her charming eyes definitely must have enthralled a bunch of people.

Thinking of these things, Luo Tian's mood started becoming better.

"Gallop~ gallop~..."

"The beggar in front better scram aside for this daddy or else this daddy will smash you to death!"

Suddenly...

A series of horse hoof beats was heard behind Luo Tian. Dozens of fierce looking burly men with long machetes on their backs were riding horses. They all had ferocious expressions on their faces and the yell came from a burly guy glaring at Luo Tian in front most of the pack.

"Quickly run!"

"The Autumn Mountain bandits have come again!"

"They're all experts at the Profound Grandmaster realm and I heard their leader has already reached the Profound Spirit realm!"

"It seems like the Luo family is going to suffer this time."

Many pa.s.ser-bys underwent drastic changes with their expressions as they moved off to the side to give way. They didn't even dare to look at the bandits on horseback because to them, their little lives couldn't afford to offend these people.

Luo Tian's expression hiddenly changed as he said to himself: "Did the Luo family suffer some sort of crisis? Where did these bandits come from?"

-----

The Azure Cloud Sect was destroyed.

In a radius of 100,000 kilometers, this piece of land had become an ownerless territory so many small forces rose up and crowned themselves rulers.

Jade Mountain City wasn't that big, but it was the only city that one must pa.s.s by in order to get to the Ghostly Mountain Range. This was a place where all adventurers had to stop by for necessities, so the city was quite prosperous. There were huge opportunities to make money here so it was a territory that those small forces were fighting for.

"You d.a.m.n beggar, you're still not scrambling to the side for this daddy?!"

The lead burly bandit glared angrily before pulling out his horse whip. He then directly whipped it towards Luo Tian's head.

The crowd didn't dare to continue watching.

"Sigh, the beggar is going to die."

"What an idiot; he's still not running away upon seeing the Autumn Mountain bandits? Doesn't he know the bandits are the overlords of this land here?"

"Who knows where that kid from the Luo family went? If he were still here in Jade Mountain City, most likely the city wouldn't be in such a mess like it is right now."

"You're talking about Luo Tian? He went into the Ghostly Mountain Range for over half a year now without any news. I think most likely he's been eaten by a demonic beast already. A mere Profound Master like him daring to enter the depths of the Ghostly Mountain Range is simply courting death."

"So what if that kid was here? The cultivation levels of these bandits are at the Profound Grandmaster realm, and there's even one at the Profound Spirit realm! Even if that kid was here, he wouldn't be their opponent. The once domineering four major families are now only left with the Luo family. After today, I'm afraid Jade Mountain City will no longer have traces of the four major families anymore."

"Eh?"

"Where's that beggar? How come I don't see him anymore?"

The crowd was stunned because they all saw the beggar there just a second ago but now his figure had disappeared. What on earth was going on? Did that huge bandit smash him into powder already?

The crowd started looking all over but couldn't find any traces of Luo Tian.

Even the burly bandit leader had a stunned look. His whip was clearly about to lash the beggar but the guy suddenly disappeared. He only felt a faint breeze. After shaking his head, he said to himself: "Did I see a ghost?"

Immediately after...

His eyes turned grim and shouted: "The Autumn Sect as arrived; death to those that block our path!"

"The Autumn Sect as arrived; death to those that block our path!"

Wherever they rode by, dust would be kicked up. The common citizens would then lower their heads and not dare to make eye contact from being extremely afraid.

A little under a thousand bandits had come to Jade Mountain City and many merchants had been robbed by them. In just a few months, Jade Mountain City had become something similar to a desolate border town. Those living in the city felt that danger was abound and no one dared to resist the bandits.

Except for the Luo family.

They continuously resisted the Autumn Mountain bandits.

The disciples of the Luo family were truly strong, fierce, and ruthless.

They were able to repel dozens of attacks by the Autumn Mountain bandits and managed to kill over a hundred of them. But they too suffered heavy losses – half the Luo family disciples had lost their lives and many of the remaining ones were injured. There was only about thirty something people left that were still capable of fighting.

At the beginning of the street, one could see group after groups of bandits rushing towards the Luo family manor.

Many people shook their head and sighed: "The Luo family is finished, sigh..."

"Even Qiu Badao of the Autumn Mountain bandits have come this time. No matter how strong Song Yannan is, there's no way he can be an opponent of Qiu Badao."

"Once the Luo family is destroyed, then Jade Mountain City will truly be in the hands of the Autumn Mountain bandits."

"Sigh... such a good family is about to disappear just like that."

Everyone was sighing without exception.

The Luo family was once a huge deal. And the Luo family's youngest patriarch had shocked many in the radius of a thousand kilometers by becoming a hero in Jade Mountain City.

But now...

Once the Violet organization withdrew from Jade Mountain City, the Luo family started suffering heavy losses.

The current Luo family was at a dead end and was about to be destroyed.

----

Outside the main hall of the Luo family...

Stood many bandits from the Autumn Mountain. All of them looked as strong as a bear with malicious expressions on their faces. They were all glaring at the members of the Luo family standing outside the main hall.

The Luo manor.

Parts of the walls had collapsed and the main entrance was in a wreck. There were traces of blood all over the martial training ground and more than half the houses were in shambles. The Luo manor was practically in ruins.

"Humph!"

"Song Yannan, if you know what's best for you, hand over the xuan stones. Don't make this daddy have to work for it or else this daddy won't be polite to you!" Yelled the lead bandit with thick brows and big eyes while glaring at Song Yannan.

A voice was suddenly heard off to the side.

"What if we don't hand it over?"

"Not handing it over? Humph, if you're not handing it over, then just await your death!"

"Oh?"

"Really? Try touching them and see who dies first."

Before the voice even faded, a figure had already descended!

It was Luo Tian!

Chapter 206 – Everyone Will Die

Clothing made up of strips of rags with holes everywhere.

A beggar from the streets?

The moment Luo Tian descended, his back was against the Luo family while his front was facing all the bandits.

"Hahaha..."

"A beggar?"

"A beggar dares to act arrogant in front of this daddy? Do you believe this daddy can scare you to death right here right now?!"

"Hahaha..."

All the bandits started loudly laughing in ridicule.

They thought that some unknown expert would appear and never imagined that it would be a beggar, so they all started laughing filled with mockery.

There were slight changes to the expressions of the Luo family members.

Song Yannan frowned and said: "Little brother, this place isn't any business of yours. You should quickly leave."

He didn't wish for any irrelevant people to get involved and then die along with the Luo family.

Luo Tian didn't move away. His lips formed a sneer before pointing at the person who was rude towards Song Yannan and coldly said: "Didn't you want to touch the people of the Luo family? Go give it a try, touch them and see what happens."

His voice was ice cold...

Containing a playful banter filled with cold intent.

"Oh really?!"

"There's still a person in this world that doesn't fear death?"

"Daring to block the path of our Autumn Mountain Sect?"

"d.a.m.n beggar, this daddy thinks you've been living too long! Perfect timing; today I will use your blood to let those motherf*cking Luo family members see the actions of my Autumn Mountain!"

As his voice faded...

A large guy with a machete stood out and shouted: "Third Leader, how can I let you deal with such a piece of trash? It's enough for me to teach him a lesson!"

"Li Liu... good, I haven't misjudged you."

"Kill him for me! It's best if you twist his head right off and I'll bring you to play around tonight at the Joyful Spring Garden. Hahaha..." The burly guy in charge laughed out loudly. He then briefly glanced at Luo Tian before spitting a glob of phlegm near him. "Ptui, this daddy feels so unlucky to see a beggar like you here!"

Li Liu smiled excitedly and said: "Don't worry Third Leader; I will definitely make him disappear in front of you."

Immediately after...

Li Liu took a single forceful step.

The tiles beneath that foot cracked, demonstrating that his strength was quite powerful.

All the bandits started laughing out loudly.

"That beggar is going to die soon."

"Li Liu has the strength of a Profound Grandmaster 3rd rank. Just watch and see how a single blade strike of his can easily lop off the beggar's head."

"Sigh... How come I didn't think of such a good opportunity to show off in front of Third Leader? Now the chance has been s.n.a.t.c.hed by that kid Li Liu!"

The expressions of the Luo family members turned grim.

Song Yannan stepped forward intending to block the beggar. He then quickly said: "Little brother, this isn't a place for you to show off. This Song, thanks you on behalf of the entire Luo family. You should quickly withdraw and let me handle it."

The bandit's Third Leader pointed his machete and angrily lectured: "Song Yannan, you d.a.m.n old fogey! If you dare make a move, this daddy will immediately exterminate every single one of you pieces of trash!"

At this time, Li Liu had already slashed his blade towards Luo Tian.

Luo Tian's body slightly moved as he turned around. Looking at Song Yannan, he then said with a faint smile: "Elder brother Song, it's me."

Song Yannan didn't have any reaction since he only felt the guy looked familiar but couldn't think of who it was.

He couldn't be blamed.

Luo Tian had just come out of the Ghostly Mountain Range. His clothes were in tatters and his face caked with dirt, so there's no way anyone would recognize him.

"This d.a.m.n beggar actually turned around?"

"Is he deliberately courting death?"

"Hahaha... he's definitely courting his own death! Turning his back on Li Liu without any resistance, and there's no signs of energy fluctuations coming from his body. It's very clear to me that he's courting death!"

Song Yannan didn't bother trying to recall his face as he watched the large machete about to descend. He hurriedly called out: "Watch out little brother!"

Luo Tian's mouth curved into a smile as he looked at all the Luo family disciples and their eyes filled with determination. He understood that these Luo family disciples were no longer the ones from ten months ago; they had all matured now.

The moment the blade was only half a centimeter away from Luo Tian's head...

All the Luo family members had mouths agape and their brows in a frown. They didn't dare to continue looking.

The moment these Autumn Mountain bandits started laughing in ridicule...

Time seemed to have stopped this very instance.

Luo Tian's right leg faintly rose up and his body shifted to the side before kicking towards Li Liu's abdomen.

"Bang~!"

"Aaagghh..."

Li Liu painfully screamed out as his body flew up into the air. His figure gradually turned into a black dot as it flew out of the city and beyond.

Several seconds later...

The black dot disappeared but Li Liu's painful scream was still echoing in the air.

Luo Tian had a faint cold smile on his face as he looked at the Autumn Mountain bandits without moving.

"Huh?"

"Where's Li Liu?"

"What just happened?"

"Eh? Why is the beggar still alive? Where's Li Liu? Where did that kid Li Liu go? I thought I heard a painful scream... why did it kind of sound like Li Liu's voice?"

All the Autumn Mountain bandits couldn't understand what was going on.

The Luo family disciples were also unable to understand what just happened.

Song Yannan, who was the closest to Luo Tian, had a clueless expression because he couldn't see what Luo Tian had done.

But...

At this moment, his heart skipped a beat. Seeing Luo Tian's back, he suddenly started laughing in a loud and boisterous voice. "Patriarch! Patriarch is back! Hahaha... our patriarch is back!"

Excitement!

Extreme excitement! Song Yannan was acting like a crazy lunatic!

All the Luo family disciples looked at Song Yannan unable to comprehend what was going on.

The Autumn Mountain bandits also had a clueless expression on their faces.

They were all staring dumbfoundedly at Song Yannan before people started discussing: "Did this guy go nuts? Isn't he the Luo family's patriarch? Why would he say the patriarch was back? He really did go crazy and it doesn't seem like it's minor either."

"d.a.m.n old fogey, you think by pretending to be crazy and I'll let you off? Quit dreaming! The entire Luo family has to die."

"If you don't hand over the xuan stones, all of you will definitely die."

Song Yannan continued laughing like crazy before pointing at the Autumn Mountain bandits and saying: "Hahaha... you bunch of clueless bandits that don't know the immensity of the heavens and the earth; you dare to say such words in front of our patriarch? You guys will all die; you will all die very soon. Hahaha..."

Immediately after...

Song Yannan turned around and looked at all the clueless Luo family disciples. He then shouted: "Our patriarch is back! How come you guys aren't saluting him?"

He was very somber and serious!

The Luo family members were all confused. "Patriarch Song, where's our patriarch? What are you talking about?"

"He couldn't have really become insane right?"

"Could it be that there was too much pressure these past few days that caused this?"

Around this time...

Luo Tian turned around and raised his head. He then grinned and said: "You guys have suffered quite a bit these past few months so let me handle the rest from now on."

"Patriarch!"

"Patriarch!"

"Patriarch has really returned!"

Excitement. All the Luo family disciples were extremely excited right now.

Many of them had tears streaming down their faces as they started crying. There were also some that were like Song Yannan who started laughing with unbridled arrogance. One of them shouted: "You bunch of mongrels from Autumn Mountain will all die, hahaha... everyone will die!"

"s.h.i.t!"

"Did all the people from the Luo family become insane?"

"Third Leader, it seems like they are saying this beggar is their patriarch..."

"Oh? A beggar is their patriarch? Hahaha... this daddy is going to laugh himself to death!"

Luo Tian turned around with a sneer. With his grim reaper like smile, he then said: "Since you're going to laugh to death, then go ahead and die right now!"

Immediately after...

Luo Tian's right foot shifted and his figure disappeared from the spot. The entire Jade Mountain City was then enshrouded in a deathly aura!

Chapter 207 – Everyone Instakilled

Luo Tian was angry.

Seeing what kind of environment the Luo family had ended up in, his heart was truly unhappy.

The moment he turned around, Luo Tian's eyes turned gloomy. His eyes coldly glared at the Autumn Mountain's Third Leader who was still laughing in disdain. Luo Tian's figure lightly moved and instantaneously crossed several meters.

One of his hands had grabbed onto the Third Leader's neck as he began to hoist him up into the air.

The killing intent and deathly aura coming out of Luo Tian's body had practically enshrouded the entire Jade Mountain City.

"Weren't you just laughing?"

"Weren't you very arrogant?"

"Weren't you going to completely annihilate every single member of my Luo family?"

"Then... you should go... die for me!"

Putting a bit of strength into his fingers, Luo Tian directly crushed the Third Leader's neck who had p.i.s.sed his pants and couldn't even get a word out.

The Third Leader's head had actually been clamped off the body!

Fresh blood started spurting out and covered Luo Tian's entire face.

The system then gave off an alert tone.

Luo Tian was too lazy to pay attention to it since such a piece of trash wouldn't give him any good loots anyway.

The only important thing out of all of this was the undefeated value!

Every single person killed would be a +1 to the undefeated value. This place had dozens of Autumn Mountain bandits standing around so that meant a dozen plus undefeated values. He couldn't miss out on this!

The most important thing was...

These people all deserved to die.

Why did they deserve to die? Because they provoked someone they shouldn't have; because they killed people of the Luo family; that's why all of them deserved to die!

Luo Tian didn't wipe away the blood on his face. He coldly swept his eyes across all the bandits in front of him before shouting: "Every one of you here has to die!"

Their Third Leader was instantly killed out of nowhere.

This made the bandits erupt in a panic. The Third Leader was an expert at the Profound Grandmaster 8th rank, so how could he be so easily instakilled?

And this beggar in front of them didn't seem like much, except for the somewhat scary looking gaze.

Currently...

One of the bandits shouted out: "My fellow brothers, don't be scared! He is only a single person while we have a lot of people on our side. This daddy refuses to believe we can't kill him. Once we kill him, we can then kill off all these trash from the Luo family and get a reward from the Head Leader!"

"What you've said is correct."

"Everyone attack together! How powerful can a stinking beggar's cultivation be?"

"Kill!"

The cultivation level of these dozens of bandits weren't weak.

Every one of them was ferocious and fierce looking while the machetes in their hands were gleaming blood red.

Song Yannan's mind tightened before quickly shouting: "Listen up all Luo family disciples! Protect the patriarch and beat this group of beasts until they crawl back into their mother's wombs!"

Luo Tian raised his hand and faintly said: "No need, you guys just stand to the side and watch. You have all suffered greatly these days so I will personally settle this debt with them. I want them to understand the consequences of provoking my Luo family, and I want all the small and large forces within a radius of 100,000 kilometers to know my Luo Tian's Luo family isn't something they can afford to provoke!"

As his words reached the end, Luo Tian's rage was visibly seen.

All the Luo family disciples showed startled expressions.

A single person dealing against a bunch of fierce looking bandits? Can the patriarch handle it?

They haven't seen each other in ten months.

When Luo Tian left, he was only at the Profound Master realm. Breaking through into the Profound Grandmaster realm in ten months was already considered extraordinary. Being able to instakill the bandit's Third Leader was probably a coincidence. So now that he was facing so many Profound Grandmaster bandits, could the boss really handle it?

This question was raised within the hearts of every Luo family disciple.

They wanted to help him but the next scene would become an unforgettable moment in their entire lives.

Die!

Die!

Die!

Wherever Luo Tian went, apart from death would be more death. It was impossible for any other outcome.

A single slap for each one of them, making it very similar to chopping cabbage.

This wasn't even a fight; this was basically someone ten thousand times stronger steamrolling them over and killing them with a slap. Could these Profound Grandmaster bandits suddenly have turned into 3 year olds for some reason?

How could these experts at the Profound Grandmaster realm become like this?

This didn't make sense at all!

Yesterday they were still fierce and ferocious with an insufferably arrogant attitude. Today, they were like rotten cabbages that couldn't stand up to Luo Tian at all.

"What's going on?"

"Bro, what the hell am I watching?"

"Patriarch Song, my eyes haven't gone bad right?"

"When did experts at the Profound Grandmaster realm turn into embroidered pillows? Actually, I feel like they are even beneath those embroidered pillows... this can't be an illusion right? If this was really an illusion, I hope that this illusion will keep going on forever."

All the Luo family disciples were basically dumbfounded at this point.

These past several months, they had been suppressed by these bandits to the point of being unable to breathe and constantly at a nervous breakdown. But now...

They were shocked stiff at what they were seeing before their eyes. Many of them thought this was an illusion since it was basically an impossible scene to comprehend.

Eventually...

Someone screamed out: "Boss is the mightiest! Boss is the most domineering! Boss is the most powerful!"

Only then did they all wake up!

This was all real! Those experts at the Profound Grandmaster realm were similar to cabbage because their opponent was Luo Tian!

Luo Tian!

Just those two words were enough.

At this moment, the Luo family members became excited and started screaming: "Boss is the mightiest! Boss is the most domineering! Boss is the most powerful!"

They chanted that over and over again shaking the sky with their shouts.

The people pa.s.sing by the adjacent streets couldn't help discussing among themselves: "What sort of insanity has gone into those of the Luo family? Could it be that the Autumn Mountain bandits have beaten them until they've gone crazy?"

The Luo family.

"Mommy, I want to go home!"

"Father, mother, please quickly come save me!"

"I, I, I still have a wife and a mistress. You, you, can you not kill me please?"

"Don't come over, don't come over! If you come over, do you believe that I'll commit suicide in front of you?"

Their screams were like ghosts wailing!

All the bandits were wailing like pigs before their death.

A few minutes ago, they were all fierce and ferocious claiming they were going to annihilate the Luo family. Now they were scared stiff and unable to run away; every one of them had wet patches in their crotch area. s.h.i.t and p.i.s.s were combined together as it slid down their pant legs and onto the ground. Their eyes were completely red with fear as if they had seen the most terrifying thing in the world.

Luo Tian's gaze was still gloomy looking as he continued giving each person a slap. He continued killing, heads continued exploding, and Luo Tian just continued smiling coldly.

Each person received a slap.

The alert tones of the system sounded off and Luo Tian's undefeated value continued increasing.

They were all instakilled!

In less than 30 seconds, the original few dozens of bandits were now left with only five people.

The legs of those five bandits were shaking before they directly kneeled down.

"Grandpa, we admit our mistake!"

"Great grandpa, please spare our dog lives! We won't dare ever again!"

"Please spare us!"

The five of them were kneeling while pleading for mercy. Luo Tian's lips curved into a cold smile before saying: "I heard that your Sect Leader of the Autumn Mountain Sect has come, so where is he right now?"

"Sect Leader?"

"You're talking about our Head Leader?"

"I know! I know!"

Luo Tian lightly smiled and said: "If you know, then lead the way for me. I need to settle the debt you guys owe with your Sect Leader."

"Leading the way, leading the way, I will instantly lead the way."

The five of them were like people that had been granted their greatest amnesty, and scrambled to the front to lead the way.

The eyes of all five of them underwent a change as they glanced at each other excitedly. The fierceness that had been wiped out from them had once again appeared. One of them then said softly: "Humph, wait until you reach our Head Leader and that'll be the time you die!"

Chapter 208 – Surrounded By A Bunch Of Women

Who was the Head Leader of Autumn Mountain?

Qiu Badao! (Eight blades)

People called him big bro Badao!

His cultivation was at the Profound Spirit 4th rank, and was considered a top expert in the radius of a thousand kilometers.

In the struggle for Jade Mountain City, he was able to beat out all the other competitors and become the overlord of this area. Thus, he established the Autumn Mountain Sect.

In fact, those weren't the most important points.

The most important thing was that there was someone above Qiu Badao!

When the Azure Cloud Sect was destroyed, Qiu Badao was able to quickly rise up. In the radius of 100,000 kilometers, how could a mere Profound Spirit ranker establish his might? This was obviously impossible. The true reason was that Qiu Badao had some unknown government official from the imperial capital as his backer!

Rumors have it that he was some nephew of a high ranking official!

The Great Tang Dynasty was established on martial might.

No matter if they were civil officials or military officials, each and every one of them were top ranking experts.

The cultivation level of this unknown high ranking official uncle behind Qiu Badao was not low, and some say that he was already a super expert at the Profound King realm. This was what those surrounding small forces feared the most!

Jade Mountain City, Joyful Spring Garden.

A stocky and imposing build, eight faint scars on his face and a naturally fierce gaze. When his eyes widened to glare at you, not to mention children, even adults would feel a terror rise in their hearts.

There were eight scars on his face caused by cuts from a blade.

This was also how his name came about.

At this moment, Qiu Badao had a perverted smile on his face. His left hand was hugging a woman with bountiful b.r.e.a.s.t.s, and his right hand was hugging another s.e.xy woman with extremely enchanting looks. His expression looked like he was on cloud nine and he would occasionally chuckle in pleasure.

Those two playful women in his embrace were sending shivers down his spine, almost causing his little brother down there to break out of his pants.

Behind him...

Stood eight men with large builds and chest hair sprouting out. They were bodyguards holding onto large machetes and eyes filled with killing intent. Standing there like buddha warrior statues, they were constantly scanning the area for danger while not moving a single bit.

"Your granny! You two are making my heart all itching for a go!"

Qiu Badao then slapped one of the women's large b.u.t.t and perversely said: "This daddy is gonna unload eight to ten rounds. Eight Supreme Warriors, stand guard here and don't bother me even if the sky is falling!"

"We obey!"

The so called Eight Supreme Warriors nodded their heads seriously.

At this time, one of the madams of the Joyful Spring Garden ran over and respectfully said: "Sect Leader Qiu, so our Joyful Spring Garden's protection fee..."

"Exempt!"

"Everything's exempt!"

Qiu Badao grabbed the women's waists and said this like he couldn't wait any longer.

The madam smiled like flowers was blooming on her face before seriously chiding the women:
"Taohong, Xiaocui, you two better take good care of Sect Leader Qui or else I won't let either of you off."

"Don't worry."

"We will definitely make the great Sect Leader Qui satisfied, hee hee..."

Qiu Badao started chuckling while walking inside a room but then turned around and said to the elated madam: "This month's protection fee is exempted, but next month's would be doubled. Hahaha..."

The madam became dumbfounded.

However, she didn't dare to show any anger and only smiled at him while she was cursing all eighteen generations of Qiu Badao's ancestors. Once Qiu Badao walked through the doorway, she then cursed softly: "You one minute man, one day you will die a horrible death! Humph!" 1

-----

"Lord, our Head Leader is inside."

"I will immediately go notify him of your arrival."

"I'll go! I'll go!"

The five of them started quarrelling.

At this time, they all wanted to leave the sight of Luo Tian. Every time they saw Luo Tian's grim reaper like glare, their hearts would start shuddering. Now was also a good time for gaining merits and they might even accidently rise up to the place of a Third Leader.

Luo Tian raised his head to look at the building and coldly said with a smile: "Your Head Leader really knows how to enjoy himself. This daddy hasn't even enjoyed himself here before yet he is already having a blast. Motherf*cking h.e.l!!!"

Joyful Spring Garden!

This was part of the red light district!

A place extremely attractive to men.

Many times when Luo Tian was pa.s.sing through this area, his heart rate would start increasing. Should he go inside and take a look? Just one look is more than enough.

But he would back out each time because he didn't dare to.

Luo Tian truly didn't dare to because of the feelings from his past life. There were many times he would pa.s.s by a small alley with a single red lighted signboard. Luo Tian would pretend to be running errands while walking by it multiple times with sweaty palms. Each time when he finally gathered enough courage, he would look over at the place before instantly leaving from fear.

After recalling these thoughts, Luo Tian would feel a bit sad about it.

Wasn't it just a brothel? Were they going to eat this daddy or something?

Luo Tian became serious and shouted: "You guys don't have to quarrel, I will go look for him myself."

"Eh?"

"Lord, please go ahead. If there's nothing else, we'll first take our leave."

The five of them turned around about to leave...

Luo Tian coldly laughed and said: "You want to leave? Did this daddy agree to it yet?"

As his voice faded...

A powerful energy exploded out of Luo Tian before he punched out five times. Those five were sent flying a dozen meters in the air before crashing onto the ground to their deaths.

"Ding!"

"Ding!"

"..."

A series of five alert tones was heard.

The common civilians pa.s.sing by on the street started screaming and several women started shouting:
"Murder! Someone was murdered!"

"What's so strange about a murder? The current Jade Mountain City has several people dying every single day now."

"The people he murdered are the bandits from Autumn Mountain!"

"What?! Is that person tired of living?"

"Quickly hide! The Autumn Mountain bandits are all demons who kill without batting an eye! Now that one of theirs was killed, our Jade Mountain City will be suffering once again. Sigh..."

For a brief moment, those on the streets were panicking and had frozen in fear.

There were also some that were discussing this in whispers.

"Did you guys notice the person who murdered those Autumn Mountain bandits? I feel like he looks very familiar."

"He looks like the Luo family's young patriarch."

"Luo Tian? Didn't he go to the Ghostly Mountain Range? He made it back alive? That kid is quite incredible! Back then he didn't even put an Elder of the Azure Cloud Sect in his eyes, so now that he's back..."

"Hahaha... there's definitely going to be a good show to watch. Most likely the Autumn Mountain bandits will be experiencing some bad luck ahead."

"What bad luck? The Azure Cloud Sect elder was at the Profound Grandmaster realm while Qiu Badao is at the Profound Spirit realm. That kid Luo Tian is the one that's going to be experiencing some bad luck. That kid actually doesn't know the immensity of the heavens and earth, actually sending himself to his own death!"

The sounds of discussion came from the crowd.

Luo Tian was walking back and forth in front of Joyful Spring Garden for half an incense of time before mustering his courage to step in.

The moment he stepped in, his heart was still a bit anxious but gradually returned to its calm.

Because...

Because...

There wasn't a single pretty looking girl at the Joyful Spring Garden, not even those third grade lookers! They were all middle aged looking mothers on their way to being grandmas! And they all wore a thick layer of makeup on their faces which was honestly quite revolting for one to look at!

My first time!

My first time had disappeared just like that.

Luo Tian swore to himself to never love again. Back then, this place was considered a holy ground but now he was simply too disappointed. It was like his whole world was turned upside down.

"n.o.ble, is this your first time here?"

"Do you have an intimate friend here already?"

"Lord, do you want me to accompany you? I am accomplished in blowing, playing, and singing. I am also proficient in all 108 styles so I will guarantee that you won't want to get out of bed."

"n.o.ble, don't be shy because I know even more."

He was surrounded by a bunch of women.

Luo Tian couldn't even get excited about this as he bitterly said to himself: "What motherf*cking world is this?!"

Chapter 209 – A Little Bird With Eggs Even Smaller

Sometimes the saddest thing in life was reality – you treated it as a holy ground but upon entering, it was actually h.e.l.l.

The worst thing of all is when one couldn't leave!

All the women surrounded Luo Tian like they wanted to eat him alive.

Because of one thing...

Luo Tian was still a virgin!

To these women, this was a huge temptation for them.

"n.o.ble, this lowly one's mixed bath routine is the best; I guarantee you will feel like you are in the high heavens."

"n.o.ble, this lowly one is good at blowing the flute; my small mouth will definitely make you high."

"n.o.ble, n.o.ble, this lowly one will not take your money."

Imagine this: A bunch of forty something year old women with thick makeup started smiling coquettishly to you; started making sultry movements and eye winks to you; what would be your first reaction?

Luo Tian's reaction wasn't to throw up.

He actually wanted to smash these women flying! It was best if he could smash them out of this continent, or the best case was smashing them out of this world to disappear permanently.

Luo Tian's heart felt like it sank into any abyss while asking himself: "How could it be like this? How could it be like this? Something must've happened to this place or else why would it have women of this caliber here?"

Immediately after...

Luo Tian frowned and shouted: "Scram!"

"n.o.ble, don't be mad."

"n.o.ble, don't get angry. You can vent your anger onto this lowly one later since I'll be yours soon anyway."

"Lion Tiger Gold Shattering Roar!"

Luo Tian's power started circulating while his mouth roared out.

A ring of energy ripples exploded forth. Those old women surrounding Luo Tian were all blasted into a chaotic mess and started tumbling backwards like dead dogs.

Luo Tian hadn't even used his profound energy yet.

Otherwise, these women would most likely have died.

"Kid, could it be that you don't know our Autumn Sect Leader is here?"

"This place has been booked up by our Autumn Sect Leader, so scram!"

Said two burly guys who were drinking wine to the side while stepping forth. They played with the machete in their hands before glaring at Luo Tian and coldly saying: "Hurry up and scram for me. If you happen to disturb our Autumn Sect Leader's mood, this daddy will play you to death!"

"Autumn Sect Leader?"

"You mean Qiu Badao – Autumn Mountain's most notorious head bandit right?" Asked Luo Tian with no change in his tone.

One of the burly guys became angry as his blade chopped towards Luo Tian's head. He then shouted: "Is Qiu Badao a name you're qualified to say?! Courting death!"

"Whoosh~!"

As the blade chopped down, the blade's qi was raging out.

Those women sprawled on the ground didn't dare to continue looking while some had already started screaming.

Except...

Before the blade was able to make an impact, Luo Tian's fingers gently clamped together. The machete carrying several thousand jins of chopping force was directly stopped by his fingers. Luo Tian then faintly smiled: "Which room is your Head Leader in?"

The eyes of the other burly guy turned grim. His speed was clearly a few points faster and his might a bit stronger as his machete slashed out horizontally.

Luo Tian coldly glanced at the attack at the corner of his eyes while his right leg slightly rose up.

Glimmering red dots of lights could be seen on his foot before bubbling hot magma flowed out.

In an instant...

Luo Tian's right leg raised up had heavily kicked out.

All this was completed in less than a second.

"Agghhh...!"

That burly guy with an imposing body was kicked flying before smashing against a wall. The wall then collapsed and the entire Joyful Spring Garden shook as a result of that.

Luo Tian didn't even bother looking at the guy sent flying while his smile turned a bit gloomy. "I'm going to ask you again: Which room is that f*cking Qiu Badao in?"

The burly guy's eyes looked up towards the second floor.

At this moment...

The Eight Supreme Warriors on the second floor looked at Luo Tian filled with killing intent.

Luo Tian's left fist started moving and smashed that burly guy flying. He then started walking up to the second floor in a casual manner.

Those women previously sent tumbling by Luo Tian didn't dare to look at him. They all had pale white faces while shaking in fear in the corners of the room.

Luo Tian didn't bother with them either. With a few strides, he was already at the second floor being blocked by eight muscular men. Their exposed chests even had large tufts of chest hair on them, and they all look like those large fierce looking executioners he watched in movies during his past life.

"Is your Sect Leader in the room behind?" Asked Luo Tian.

"Scram!"

"Is Qiu Badao in the room behind you guys?"

"Scram!"

"I'm going to ask again: Is that f*cker Qiu Badao in the room behind you?" Luo Tian asked again as anger rose up inside him.

"Scram..."

Before the word was finished being p.r.o.nounced, Luo Tian's figure immediately moved as he cursed out: "Scram yourself you motherf*cker!"

His figure shot out while profound energy was being circulated.

In an instance...

Luo Tian's fists slammed out eight times, and each punch landed on the large chests of those burly guys.

In a blink of an eye, eight punches exploded out!

"Bang~, bang~, bang~..."

Eight large bodies were smashed flying before crashing against the room to the rear.

The door of the room was smashed apart and half the room's wall had collapsed. Those eight burly muscular men had all ceased breathing on the spot. Luo Tian then spat a glob of phlegm and said with disdain: "You don't even have the strength yet you want to scare people? How f*cking shameful! And you guys call yourselves the Eight Supreme Warriors? You should just call yourselves the eight piles of dog s.h.i.t instead!"

"Who is it?!"

"Your granny! You dare to disrupt this daddy while he's doing women? You must be tired of living!" Qiu Badao's eyes glared sharply and the eight scars on his face turned red. They looked like eight scorpions on his face which made him especially ferocious looking.

At this time...

Qiu Badao's pants were around his knees.

Poking out of his crotch area was an unimpressive looking little bird with two little sparrow eggs dangling behind it.

Luo Tian couldn't hold back and started laughing. "Someone like you who hasn't even gone through p.u.b.erty wants to screw women? You should go f*ck yourself!"

Anger!

Rage!

This was incomparable rage! What Qiu Badao hated the most was people saying his p.e.n.i.s was small. He knew it was small but absolutely did not allow anyone to mention it. His rage immediately shot into the sky as his right hand reached out and a large blade with golden rings on the spine appeared.

His trousers were pulled up and his eyes turned grim. Qiu Badao then shouted: "You d.a.m.n dog b.a.s.t.a.r.d, go to h.e.l.l for this daddy!"

"Wild Eight Blades!"

"Raging Warrior Slash!"

Luo Tian's mouth curved into a smile as he coldly said: "A Profound Spirit 4th ranker dares to act arrogant in front of this daddy?"

As his voice faded...

Luo Tian's right hand started moving as he clenched his fists.

The s.p.a.ce around his hand started producing slight energy fluctuations. The moment Qiu Badao rushed up, Luo Tian's attack had already arrived as a punch smashed into his face.

"Bang~!"

Crushed by their difference in strength!

Qiu Badao had no chance of resisting.

This was the benefit of having a higher cultivation!

This was Luo Tian's first time experiencing such an enjoyable feeling. When dealing with someone with a cultivation lower than his, he could practically do whatever he wanted.

The impact caused Qiu Badao's body to tilt to the side. Since he lost his center of gravity, he was forced to use his blade to support himself. Just when he wanted to retaliate, Luo Tian didn't give him that chance. Luo Tian's figure shot forward and appeared to the side of Qiu Badao. Another punch was fiercely thrown before Luo Tian angrily shouted: "Killing the clan members of my Luo family huh? Moving against the brothers of my Luo family huh? Causing chaos in Jade Mountain City huh? Killing people without restraint huh?"

"Motherf*cker, go die for this daddy!"

Punch after punch was smashed out.

Under dozens of punches, Qiu Badao's face was beaten to resembling a pig's head. But his eyes were still fiercely glaring at Luo Tian before saying in a threatening manner: "Kid, do you know who my uncle is?!"

Chapter 210 – An Old Dog Into A Dead Dog

"d.a.m.n dog b.a.s.t.a.r.d, do you know who my uncle is?!"

Even though his face was beaten to resembling a pig's head, Qiu Badao still maintained his arrogance.

Because he knew...

Once he mentions his uncle's name, and as long as they were in the Great Tang's territory, no one would dare to mess with him.

Luo Tian's punch stopped and pretended to be very serious while asking: "Who is your uncle?"

"Humph!"

"d.a.m.n dog b.a.s.t.a.r.d, listen up for this daddy! My uncle is the Great Tang Dynasty's internal affairs supervisor, the leader of all civil officials, Li Wenzong!" Qiu Badao said proudly. And when his reddened eyes saw how shocked Luo Tian looked, he then said in a contemptuous tone: "d.a.m.n dog b.a.s.t.a.r.d, are you scared now? If you're scared, you better kneel down and start kowtowing to this daddy or else..."

"Hey..."

"Hey..."

"Kid, what are you planning on doing?"

"My uncle is Li Wenzong, an expert at the Profound King realm. If you dare to continue hitting me, my uncle won't let you off. He will kill everyone from your Luo family and then make everyone in this city disappear forever." Said Qiu Badao with a look of horror on his face.

Because...

Luo Tian was smiling in a fierce manner. The killing intent exuding from him became stronger as he shouted while punching forth: "What kind of old dog is Li Wenzong? I don't even know who he is!"

"Bang~!"

"Threatening this daddy huh?"

"Bang~!"

"Profound King realm is so awesome huh?"

"Bang~!"

"Let this daddy advise you: The thing this daddy hates the most is being threatened. Someone like you dares to provoke my Luo family? You can f*cking go to h.e.l.l for this daddy!" Luo Tian clenched his fist before accurately smashing down onto Qiu Badao's forehead.

"Hahaha..."

Qiu Badao started laughing wildly before shouting: "Kid, my uncle will not let you off! You will accompany me in burial! Your clansmen and everyone in this city will accompany me in burial! Kill me and none of you can continue living!"

He was still acting arrogant!

And still trying to threaten Luo Tian!

Who was Li Wenzong?

Luo Tian had no clue, but when those women downstairs heard the name Li Wenzong, they immediately started trembling. The fear they were feeling right now was even stronger than facing Luo Tian. Their faces were pale white and their teeth were chattering loud enough to be heard.

Let's not mention the cultivation realm.

Just the leader of all civil officials was a position that was at the very top of the government.

It was basically an existence that could do anything they wanted inside the dynasty.

The most terrifying thing was that Li Wenzong's daughter was the current emperor's consort. This meant he was titled as an Elder Statesman, an in-law connected to imperial lineage. This was something everyone in the Great Tang Dynasty knew about.

Luo Tian was a transmigrator.

He didn't have any irrelevant information in his memories so he had no clue who that Li Wenzong was.

Even if he did know, he wouldn't care!

"The consequences of threatening this daddy is death!" Luo Tian then heavily smashed down.

Watching the fist about to descend, Qiu Badao's face was pale white in fear. There was no longer any arrogance in him as he started pleading: "Don't, don't, don't kill me! What do you want? I'll give it to you! I won't take a single step into Jade Mountain City ever again! Agghh..."

Luo Tian's fist did not stop.

"Bang~!"

It heavily smashed down.

Qiu Badao's head was smashed into mush. His body twitched a few times before it flopped over lifeless.

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing Qiu Badao. You have gained 1000 experience, 300 profound energy..."

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining 3 xuan stones."

"Congratulations to player..."

The loot explosion only gave several minor stuff.

These things no longer entered the eyes of Luo Tian. He barely glanced at those xuan stones that cost over 10,000 gold because on him were several spatial plaques that contained many attributed demon cores. Just randomly taking out a single one of them would be worth 10 – 100 of these low quality xuan stones.

"Ptui~"

A glob of phlegm was spat upon Qiu Badao's corpse.

His corpse was then kicked flying out and landing onto the main street outside. Luo Tian then coldly shouted: "Motherf*cker, touching those of my Luo family was simply courting death!"

An uproar was heard by the pedestrians on the street.

"Qiu, Qiu, Qiu Badao is dead!"

"The head of the Autumn Mountain bandits has died, hahaha..."

"The d.a.m.n b.a.s.t.a.r.d has finally died."

"Hero, hero, you're simply too powerful! You've removed a scourge from our Jade Mountain City, so all the people of the city sincerely thank you!"

"Screw thanking him!"

"Luo Tian, I know you're awesome; very powerful; and can kill without blinking an eye. But can you think of us normal civilians for a second? His is the nephew of Li Wenzong! Who is Li Wenzong? He is the current supervisor of internal affairs, an Elder Statesman. After killing his nephew, do you think any of us in Jade Mountain City can continue living?"

Suddenly...

Everyone shivered...

Without saying a single word.

The words from that person made their hearts fall into an abyss. They then quickly started running away.

"We can't stay in Jade Mountain City anymore."

"This city is going to be wiped out. No matter how high your cultivation is, offending the current internal affairs supervisor means your life is over. The Great Tang Dynasty has stood strong for over ten thousand years; even those super strong sects can't shake them. We little common civilians definitely cannot afford to offend them."

Luo Tian became depressed.

An originally happy occasion that the city could celebrate over had suddenly turned into this. His heart turned gloomy as he muttered: "Is an old dog like Li Wenzong really that terrifying? If he dares touch Jade Mountain City, I'm going to turn that old dog into a dead dog."

Also at this time...

All the Luo family disciples rushed over.

When they saw Qiu Badao's corpse on the ground, they all broke out into smiles and weren't like the civilians around the area.

"What a good kill boss!"

"So what if he's the nephew of Li Wenzong? This kind of beast deserved his death."

"Boss, we all support you!"

Luo Tian's figure moved and he lightly descended from the second floor. He faintly smiled in front of them before saying: "Your cultivation levels have been progressing quite rapidly these months; it's been tough on you guys."

"Hahaha..."

"Boss, your cultivation speed is practically going against the heavens! Since you were able to kill Qiu Badao at the Profound Spirit 4th rank, your cultivation level must have reached the Profound King realm right?"

Luo Tian smiled and replied: "I'm just off by a bit."

Everyone had shocked expressions on their faces.

Just off by a bit?!

In a short ten months of time, he went from the Profound Master realm to a place where he was a bit away from the Profound King realm? This kind of speed was even more terrifying than describing it as going against the heavens!

Suddenly...

The worries in their hearts were all swept away as they felt that Li Wenzong wasn't that impressive anymore. At least in their opinion, they didn't need to be afraid with Luo Tian around!

Everyone returned to the Luo manor.

Deep into the night.

Within a certain courtyard of the Luo family.

Luo Tian excitedly asked: "Fatty and An Chunchun already went to the Heavenly Sword City?"

Song Yannan nodded and replied: "En, that kid Feng Lei's cultivation speed is so fast that we can't even follow in his footsteps. Eight months ago, he had already broken through into the Profound Grandmaster realm. Even I couldn't imagine this was possible."

"Before he left, he told me to leave a message for you that he'll be heading to the Heavenly Sword City first to carve out his own territory. Then he will wait for you to save An Chunchun's mother together."

Luo Tian lightly smiled and mumbled: "That fatty; he thinks the imperial capital is that easy to handle?"

The imperial capital was a place where the true experts gathered and a Profound Grandmaster was considered nothing. Luo Tian couldn't help but start worrying about the fatty.

Not long after...

Song Yannan hiddenly frowned and said: "Patriarch, you've killed Qiu Badao and now you're heading to the imperial capital... I'm afraid your trip will be filled with danger. If the news that Qiu Badao has died arrives at the imperial capital, most likely..."

Luo Tian's mouth curved into a smile and said: "Elder brother Song, before I go to the imperial capital, I'm going to swing by the Autumn Mountain to clear out all obstacles for the Luo family!"
