Chapter 211 – Azure Dragon Bloodline

Since there was a Head Leader and a Third Leader, there would naturally be a Second Leader!

Within half a day, Luo Tian had killed off all the Autumn Mountain bandits inside Jade Mountain City. If everything went its course, this piece of news would quickly spread to the Autumn Mountain.

If Luo Tian wasn't present...

The inhabitants of Jade Mountain City would be slaughtered and blood would flow like a river. And the Luo family would naturally suffer a disastrous ending of being completely annihilated.

No matter what...

Luo Tian still had feelings for the Luo family because this was the first place he had arrived at after transmigrating. Now that those left in the Luo family were all brothers that had gone through life and death battles with him, there's no way he would let the family suffer such looming threats.

Luo Tian was chatting with Song Yannan until midnight.

Luo Tian then left behind a bunch of attributed demon cores.

After that, he left for the Autumn Mountain!

Autumn Mountain was about 500 kilometers away from Jade Mountain City.

It wasn't a tall mountain but it was still a dangerous place.

Below the mountain was a large roadway where merchants would definitely pass through.

Nighttime.

There were high winds and the moon was covered.

A person's figure a hundred feet away was running at high speeds and was a blur to the eyes.

"Hey, quickly look and see if that's a human figure rushing towards us. Could it be a ghost?"

"d.a.m.n! Brother, you're an expert at the Profound Grandmaster realm and you're afraid of ghosts?"

"I think we should head in and sleep early. Since it's so late already, I don't think there'll be any customers coming by. In such a pitch black night, we might even encounter some unclean things."

Two people were whispering to each other.

The other person was originally unafraid but after chatting for a bit, he too became a bit scared.

Immediately after...

The two decided to head back up to the mountains to sleep.

Just when they turned around to head back up the mountain, a dark hand had rested on top of each of their shoulders.

"Gulp~!"

"Zhu Yao, take your hand away. You can't be scared to this degree right?"

"Ma Long, you should be the one to take your hand away. I didn't expect you to be even more scared than me."

"..."

Suddenly...

The two glanced at each other before looking at the hand on their shoulders. Their face turned pale and their legs started shaking. Their voice then started stuttering: "Elder brother, just tell us what you need. Tomorrow we will burn more paper money for you."

"It's not a problem to burn a few pretty paper girls for you too."

"Please mercifully let us two go. We still have elders and youngins to take care of."

The two of them almost p.i.s.sed their pants.

"Cough~, cough~..."

Luo Tian gently coughed before stretching his neck in-between the two of them.

The two of them was so scared that their legs softened as they collapsed to the ground. One of them shouted: "Spare me! Spare me! I won't ever kill people ever again!"

Luo Tian kicked one of them and asked in a low voice: "Is this place the Autumn Mountain?"

"Huh?"

"Huh?"

The two were stunned by this and realized it was an actual person when they looked closely. Their expression immediately turned to anger as they got up with a fierce glare. They immediately cursed out: "d.a.m.n dog b.a.s.t.a.r.d, you dare to pretend to be a ghost to scare us?! You're courting death!"

Without saying anything else, one of them directly slashed out their blade towards Luo Tian.

Luo Tian frowned. Seeing the huge machete in the person's hand, he then said with a smile: "It shouldn't be wrong; this place is the Autumn Mountain."

Immediately after...

His right hand moved and smashed out at the speed of lightning.

"Bang~!"

A bandit was struck flying before smashing against some rocks. His body had been ripped apart into several pieces before instantly dying.

Luo Tian then grabbed the remaining person and said: "I'm going to ask you again: Is this place the Autumn Mountain?"

"Yes!"

"Yes, yes, yes! Hero, please spare me!"

This time he really p.i.s.sed himself from fear. His pants became wet and a continuous stream of liquid came out of the opening of his pants.

Luo Tian coldly smiled and said: "Have you heard of the news about the death of your Head Leader?"

"Head Leader?"

"He died?"

"Our Sect Leader has died?" That person's eyes turned grim.

Hearing this, Luo Tian faintly smiled and said to himself: "So the news hasn't reached here yet. That's good too. Then I might as well level this place to eliminate the threat to Jade Mountain City."

Immediately after...

His right hand moved and a fist smashed out. Luo Tian then took off rapidly towards the top of the mountain.

Luo Tian activated his spiritual will.

His sea of consciousness started surging about and the grim reaper's path of slaughter power covered the entire Autumn Mountain. At the same time, Luo Tian was standing in midair while shouting: "All bandits on Autumn Mountain must scam out here for this daddy!"

His voice was extremely loud and the accompanying profound energy allowed his message to spread through every corner of the bandit's lair.

Almost instantly...

Over a hundred burly figures rushed out while shouting: "Which d.a.m.n dog b.a.s.t.a.r.d has the audacity to act wildly in the Autumn Mountains?!"

"Fellow brothers, let's screw this guy over! We must play this d.a.m.n dog b.a.s.t.a.r.d to death!"

"Your ruined my beautiful dream! Just you wait until this daddy cuts your head off...!"

A bunch of bandits were rushing out of houses with incomparably fierce looks and exuding powerful auras.

Luo Tian was hiddenly surprised as he mumbled: "I didn't expect there would still be so many bandits on Autumn Mountain. Looks like it was correct for me to come by here."

The strength of these bandits weren't weak.

If they were to all rush into Jade Mountain City, then the consequences would be unthinkable!

It was very fortunate!

Luo Tian secretly rejoiced. It was fortunate that he thought of this issue or else the Luo family would forever disappear from Jade Mountain City.

Luo Tian's eyes looked down before saying with a cold smile: "It was you guys that fouled up the atmosphere of Jade Mountain City right? You guys also killed quite a bit of people huh?"

"Where did a b.a.s.t.a.r.d kid like you come from?"

"Who the f*ck are you?"

"Breaking into our Autumn Mountain in the middle of the night; this daddy thinks you must be tired of living!"

A series of arrogant comments was heard. When they looked at Luo Tian, they felt like they were looking at a fish on a cutting board. They could chop him into pieces anytime they wanted!

Luo Tian's mouth curved into a smile and said: "Whoever I am, you guys will know in a bit."

Immediately after...

Luo Tian roared out: "Level 2 Berserk!"

"BOOM~!"

The power of four times his base attributes exploded forth and his aura dramatically changed. The powerful aura directly forced these bandits to back away several steps. Also at this moment, Luo Tian shouted: "Myriad Thunder Roar!"

"Whoosh~... bzzzt~..."

Stormy clouds started gathering above the bandit's lair. Thunderous roars started echoing through the clouds and the bright flashes of lightning was seen streaking about.

All the bandits became shocked and some even started to panic.

They could clearly sense the terrifying aura coming from the thunderous clouds.

"It's this kid that caused it! Attack and kill him!"

"Everyone attack and kill together!"

"No matter who he is, we'll figure it out after we've killed him. Since he dares to intrude on our Autumn Mountain Sect, it still wouldn't be enough if he had ten extra lives!"

At this time...

Those bandits all rushed towards Luo Tian. The large machetes in their hands gave of a cold light as they reflected the lightning flashing through the clouds.

Luo Tian coldly sneered before shouting: "Bombard them for me!"

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

Lightning descended and covered a 50 meter radius.

With the strength of a Profound Spirit 9th ranker, plus Berserk's multiplication of base stats, this created a lightning field that was basically a living h.e.l.l. Wherever lightning streaked by, lives were instantly reaped!

"Myriad Thunder Roar..."

"Bombard them for me!"

"Boom~!"

Luo Tian continuously activated Myriad Thunder Roar and the mountain peak almost couldn't handle it anymore.

Those bandits were losing their lives at a crazy speed and the system alerts was crazily sounding off in Luo Tian's mind.

Suddenly...

An extraordinarily different alert tone was heard.

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for reaching 2000 undefeated points. Will you be exchanging it for a bloodline?"

"Hahaha..."

"Exchange! Exchange it for the Azure Dragon's bloodline!"

Chapter 212 – The Girl Riding A Qilin

Azure Dragon's bloodline?!

What reason was there to not exchange?

Luo Tian didn't even hesitate and immediately said: "Exchange! Exchange! Immediately exchange for me!"

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for successfully exchanging for the Azure Dragon's bloodline."

"Ding!"

"Player Luo Tian currently has 0 points in the Undefeated Value!"

"Hahaha..."

"The Azure Dragon's bloodline is in my hands!"

Luo Tian started laughing crazily into the air to express his joy. Every time he thought of Murong Wanjian possessing the bloodline of a whatever true dragon, his heart felt extremely irritated. And now that he possessed the Azure Dragon's bloodline that was no different to the true dragon's bloodline, how could he not be happy?!

Luo Tian made a thought and opened the system interface to take a look.

Item: Azure Dragon's Bloodline

Grade: ? ? ? (Unable to be determined)

"Ding!"

"Will you be fusing with it?"

When Luo Tian was checking out the information of the Azure Dragon's bloodline, the system gave him an alert tone.

Luo Tian started giving it some thought.

The Azure Dragon's bloodline could only be considered a single level higher than the true dragon's. His desire to use the Azure Dragon's bloodline to suppress the true dragon's bloodline was impossible. What this means is that fusing with the Azure Dragon's bloodline that's only a single level higher than Murong Wanjian's true dragon bloodline is unable to truly suppress him.

"No!"

"If I want to suppress him, it must be absolute suppression!"

Since there's still about two years of time before heading to the Shattered Sky City, then he'll gamble even bigger.

He had to force Murong Wanjian to the point of being unable to get up ever again!

The proudest thing Murong Wanjian had was his true dragon's bloodline. If Luo Tian was able to completely suppress his true dragon's bloodline, the feeling of giving him dozens of face slaps would be extremely awesome!

Therefore...

Luo Tian made up his mind and said internally: "No!"

The Four Divine Beast bloodline was way above a true dragon's bloodline.

This bloodline was the fusion of the Azure Dragon, Black Tortoise, Vermillion Bird, White Tiger bloodlines. No matter if it's the power contained within, or the innate talent it came along with, this would absolutely suppress the benefits of someone with a true dragon's bloodline.

Since Luo Tian wanted to suppress Murong Wanjian to the point of exploding, then he had to play it bigger!

Once he fuses all four divine beast bloodlines together, let's see how that Murong Wanjian will act arrogant in front of this daddy! Hatred started rising in Luo Tian's heart as he muttered: "Who told a f*cker like you to steal my woman? This daddy will show you the consequences of stealing this daddy's woman!"

After closing the system interface...

Luo Tian's blood was still boiling. His heart couldn't stop beating faster when he thought of the Azure Dragon's bloodline.

But...

He couldn't continue fantasizing about this right now. He had to kill all the bandits from the Autumn Mountain first. Once he has determined not a single one of them was alive can he leave this place!

Luo Tian had no sympathy for these bandits who killed people like cutting grass.

He attacked swiftly and fiercely without any mercy.

The law of the jungle was prevalent in this world. If one wasn't strong enough, their lives could be lost at any time. If Luo Tian didn't completely annihilate these bandits, everyone in Jade Mountain City could be slaughtered within three days. His Luo family will also disappear forever!

Luo Tian went down the mountain and looked in the direction of Jade Mountain City. He then mumbled: "I'll be heading to Heavenly Sword City now and I don't know when I'll be coming back. Elder brother Song, you guys need to take care of yourselves!"

Jade Mountain City, see you later!

Immediately after...

Luo Tian rushed towards the direction of the imperial capital.

The sky gradually grew lighter. At the peak of Autumn Mountain...

A half drunk old guy riding a donkey while holding a jug of wine was seen. There was a large mole on his chin and strands of white hair grew out of it.

He was the Autumn Mountain's Second Leader, and people called him Adviser Bai!

In fact...

He had another identity – Li Wenzong's housekeeper!

Adviser Bai looked at the corpses lying all over the place. The expression of his face drastically changed as he started searching all over the place like crazy. He was flipping over corpses to look for something but didn't find what he was looking for.

Eventually...

He rode his donkey and rushed towards Jade Mountain City.

After staying there for half a day, he had an extremely ugly look on his face. Standing at the gates of the city, flames of rage was burning deeply in his heart. The muscles on the corner of his eyes were twitching like crazy as he fiercely made a promise internally: "Jade Mountain City, Luo family, you guys just wait for it! You even dare to kill the imperial supervisor's nephew? Everyone in the city will accompany him in burial!"

His rage had practically reached the sky!

Adviser Bai had gotten a hold of Luo Tian's image. Looking at the image, Adviser Bai fiercely glared at it while saying in a gloomy tone: "Kid, prepare to go to h.e.l.l."

Right after that, he quickly rushed towards the direction of the Heavenly Sword City.

Half a month later.

Outside the Heavenly Sword City.

Luo Tian raised his head to look up while passionately saying to himself: "Holy crap! The city walls are over a hundred meters tall! This is too majestic! It's even more domineering than the Great Wall of my previous life!"

He was overcome with emotions.

Heavenly Sword City, the Great Tang Dynasty's imperial capital.

Just the entrances itself reached sixteen of them, and each day over a million people would pass through it. As for the interior of the city, it was capable of accommodating over ten million people.

It was also considered the number one city of the entire Tianxuan continent!

Why was it called Heavenly Sword City?

Ten thousand years ago during the myriad race wars, the Tang family back then had an expert who used swords – his name was Tang Tianjian (Heavenly Sword). His sword alone had killed over a million invaders and the Great Tang Dynasty was established solely based on his deeds.

That's why the imperial capital was named after him.

There was also a deeper meaning to it.

Deep within the imperial palace where the dragon veins were, was a supreme sword. This supreme sword was known by others as the Heavenly Sword.

Rumors say that over ten thousand years ago, the Heavenly Sword was forged by a guru using rocks that flew down from the sky. It was the only divine weapon of the human race that could be compared to other divine weapons of legends out there. Its powers were basically unstoppable!

There were also rumors that...

Even the imperial family members of the Great Tang didn't know where the sword was stored at. They only know that the sword was used to suppress the dragon veins. If it were to disappear, the dragon's vein would shatter and their kingdom most likely would come to an end.

Countless people were searching for it.

But after searching for over ten thousand years, no one was able to find it.

Of course...

These were just rumors.

But sometimes rumors are also based on real facts that have been obscured over time. Other than the goal of saving An Chunchun's mother, Luo Tian's other goal was to search for the ancient treasure mentioned in the scroll.

The ancient scroll depicts the treasure is within the tomb of the emperor of the previous dynasty!

That tomb of the previous dynasty's emperor might be the location of the dragon vein, so could the ancient treasure actually be the Heavenly Sword?

Not too far off from the city gates, Luo Tian was standing there gathering his thoughts and looked like some country bumpkin that had never seen such grandeur in his life. He had a goofy smiling expression because he was kind of excited upon thinking of Qin Yue'er. She was the woman that had once told Luo Tian that when he arrived at the Heavenly Sword City, she would be waiting for him naked on the bed.

"Gulp~!"

Thinking Qin Yue'er's hot figure and her bouncy huge twin peaks, Luo Tian couldn't help swallowing down his saliva a few times. He then started chuckling pervertedly and said to himself: "Little demoness, this big brother has come. Be obedient and wait for me on the bed. This big brother ain't battling with you for 3000 rounds; this big brother will be battling with you for a full three days and three nights instead! Hahaha..."

People passing by saw Luo Tian's idiotic expression and couldn't help show their disdain towards him.

Luo Tian rolled his eyes at them and also stared back at them with disdain in his eyes. He then gave them the middle finger while saying coldly: "Screw you!"

Suddenly...

There was a commotion at the entrance of the city gate.

It was like complete turmoil as dust was being kicked up while people scrambled away in a panic.

"Quickly move aside! Quickly move aside!"

One could see an animal covered in scales with a cloud of fire below its feet, making it look very similar to a Qilin. It was clearly out of control while rushing straight towards Luo Tian. And riding on top of this mount was a girl filled with panic on her face.

A very pretty girl!

Chapter 213 – I Really Was Bitten By A Dog When I Was Young

"Move aside! Move aside! Quickly move aside..."

The girl was screaming at everyone in a panic.

The crowd all started scrambling away.

Luo Tian stood still and was just about to stand tiptoed trying to see what was going on when everyone parted to the side. He was the only one left standing smack dab in the middle of the roadway.

They were almost about to collide!

Luo Tian's expression hiddenly changed as he mumbled to himself: "d.a.m.n! How come the speed of these people are so quick?!"

"Move aside!"

"We will really crash if you don't dodge to the side!" The girl's anxious face was red and her body was shivering while she clenched the reins tightly. Looking at Luo Tian's country b.u.mpkin look, it seemed like the mount's speed was deliberately increasing when the idiot didn't give way.

"Motherf*cker!"

"Are you bullying me because I'm too handsome or something?"

Luo Tian instantly became angry. Seeing how this mount that looked like Qilin charging towards him, his eyes turned grim and a strong pressure swept out from him!

"Ommm~!"

The energy instantly entered the mount's sea of consciousness.

"Are you crazy to the point of wanting to die?!"

"You still aren't running away and want to use your pressure to suppress it? Did you know that even experts at the Profound King realm aren't able to do it. You..." The girl hurriedly said that in disdain to Luo Tian. Her heart was then resentfully complaining: "Truly a total country b.u.mpkin!"

Hearing the words of the girl...

Luo Tian's eyes turned serious as he shouted in his mind: "Level 3 Berserk!"

His eyes were staring at the mount's fierce eyes while at the same time, Luo Tian's sea of consciousness was roiling about explosively. Like a flash flood, a monstrous oppressive pressure smashed into the mount's sea of consciousness. Luo Tian then smiled in a gloomy manner while saying: "This daddy refuses to believe that I can't control you."

The surrounding sky seemed to be pressing down and everyone in the area felt their minds being oppressed.

It was also the same for the girl.

As for the mount, it revealed a painful expression.

Luo Tian stood his ground without moving away, and that mount who was about to crash into him suddenly stopped. It stopped only about half a meter away from Luo Tian before it glared at him while its nostrils sprayed out white mist. The mount had an expression on its face like it remained unconvinced of its defeat.

Because the mount suddenly stopped, the girl didn't expect this so...

Being unprepared, inertia caused her body to continue flying forward at high speeds.

"Agghh..."

"Agghh..."

The girl was screaming in the air before shouting at Luo Tian: "You better hurry up and catch this Miss! If I get hurt, I will definitely not spare you!"

Originally...

Luo Tian was planning to catch her because it was an effortless act, and quite easy to catch a free falling person with his current strength. But when he heard her words, Luo Tian changed his mind. There was an indifferent expression on his face as he pretended he didn't see anything.

Luo Tian started striding towards the city gates.

Commanding this daddy?

"Sorry, this daddy is not used to being commanded by others." Luo Tian harrumphed coldly to himself.

"Bang~!"

A few seconds later, a heavy collision sound was heard behind Luo Tian.

The girl fell down looking like a dog eating s.h.i.t. Her pretty face was covered in mud and her peach like mouth was all crooked. Surprisingly, her face still looked kind of cute.

"Hahaha..."

"Haha..."

Since the girl's face was too funny looking, all the people in the area started laughing at her.

The girl quickly scrambled back onto her feet and raised the whip in her hand. She then fiercely whipped down with a "pak" sound before retorting: "What are you laughing at?! If you keep laughing, this Miss will rip those lips off your face!"

At such high speeds and at such great heights, the girl crashed onto the ground and got up without any injuries. This made Luo Tian's thought process turn serious.

But...

He couldn't really be bothered about this and continued on with his own business towards the city.

"d.a.m.n scoundrel, you scared this Miss's mount and you dare to leave before I settle this issue with you?!"

"Humph!"

"Let's see where you can run to!"

Immediately after...

The girl's whip flicked into the air creating multiple illusory whip shadows before whipping down straight towards Luo Tian's neck.

Luo Tian didn't bother looking back and could feel a cold breeze blowing towards him. His body shifted to the side and elegantly avoided the whip. He then said: "It was your stupid beast mount that was randomly crashing into people. You, as the owner can't even ride it properly and dared to ride it out in public? If it weren't for me, your fall would have been much more miserable!"

"Presumptuous!"

"How was this Miss unable to ride it properly?! If I couldn't ride it properly, how did I ride it all the way out here? I, I, I, everything was completely under my control!" The girl argued back with less than full confidence.

Suddenly...

The guards of the city quickly rushed over.

A person seemingly the leader shouted: "Who was it that rode this mount? Don't you know that one cannot ride a mount in front of the city gates?"

A person to the side then advised: "Leader, this is a Fire Cloud Unicorn so the girl might be from a big background. We can't afford to offend her so we might as well let it go."

Its whole body was covered in scales, the four hooves looked like it was stepping on clouds of fire but it was clearly not a Qilin.

This mount was called a Fire Cloud Unicorn, possessing a trace of the Qilin's bloodline making it look a bit similar to one. This beast had a fiery temper so that your average person couldn't control it. Since its strength was quite strong and its speed extremely fast, and the most fearsome thing was its huge sea of consciousness, normal oppressive pressure was useless against it. It was mainly due to this that this type of mount was very hard to tame.

Maybe the correct term is extremely hard to tame because of its trace of Qilin's bloodline.

Within this half a month, the latest craze amongst the upper class nobility in Heavenly Sword City was to tame these Fire Cloud Unicorns.

Those capable of buying them as demonic beast mounts were all families with power and authority.

The expression of the leader darkened. Once he recalled this, his heart was secretly thanking his subordinate. He then said with a smile: "Miss, I was just spouting nonsense. Did this kid happen to be blocking your path? As long as you order it, I will immediately capture him for you."

Suddenly...

All heads swiveled towards Luo Tian.

Luo Tian was startled before glancing at the guard leader and asked: "I must ask Mr. Soldier: Were you bitten by a dog when you were young?" 1

"Eh?"

"How did you know? I really was bitten by a dog when I was young. Are you some sort of fortune teller?"
Said the guard leader with a serious expression.

The girl immediately burst out laughing.

Also at this time...

The guard leader then pulled out a long blade and pointed it at Luo Tian before shouting: "Kid, this daddy things you're tired of living! You dare scold me?!"

"People come – detain him for me!"

Four to five guards immediately surrounded Luo Tian.

Luo Tian's expression slightly changed before he grinned: "Detaining me? Can you please tell me what law have I violated? You want to detain me huh? If it weren't for me stopping this animal just then, I'm afraid the girl's ending would be much worse. She might even end up crashing and killing many people. It could be considered that I've saved many people and have done a meritorious deed, yet instead of reward I get detained. You guys can try touching this daddy and see what happens then."

Also at this time...

That same subordinate guard once again whispered: "Leader, being capable of taming the Fire Cloud Unicorn is definitely someone not ordinary. Should we reconsider this issue?"

The expression of the guard leader changed once again.

At this time...

Inside the city, two columns of guards wearing gold plated armor were quickly rushing towards the direction of Luo Tian!

Luo Tian's brows scrunched up in shock as he said to himself: "F*ck! Are you guys really trying to steal my impressive rhythm away from me?!"

Chapter 214 – Good Big Brother, I Want it!

"Hahaha!"

"The Palace Guards have appeared."

"Kid, let's see if this daddy can detain you or not now." The city guard leader laughed excitedly. He then started pulling up his sleeves and put on an expression like he was going to go all out before shouting: "Fellow brothers, detain him for me! Let's not lose face in front of the Palace Guards and tonight, I will treat everyone to a drink!"

"Haha..."

All the guards immediately became energetic.

They were originally a bit guarded and in fear of Luo Tian since someone capable of suppressing a Fire Cloud Unicorn cannot be someone simple.

But now that even the Palace Guards had arrived, was there any need to fear a martial cultivator anymore?

Even if an expert of the Profound King realm was here, there was no need to be afraid!

Luo Tian's brows scrunched up as he became cautious.

At this time...

The girl became anxious as well. Her expression clearly showed her anxiety as she ran up to the Fire Cloud Unicorn and pulled on the reins: "Yun Yun is so nice; Yun Yun is so obedient; quickly take me away from here." 1

No matter what soothing words the girl said to the Fire Cloud Unicorn, it didn't even move or bother to glance at her.

The girl was extremely anxious.

She wanted to smack it but was afraid the Fire Cloud Unicorn would run off in anger.

At this moment...

Luo Tian was on high alert as he sent out his spiritual senses. When he found out these Palace Guards were all at the Profound Spirit 9th rank, his heart couldn't help sink down as he said internally: "d.a.m.n! People have said that experts are as plentiful as clouds in the imperial capital. A mere guard is already at the Profound Spirit 9th rank... isn't there a bit too much f*cking experts around?"

And dozens of them had come at once.

And every one of them had a thick aura coming from their bodies. It was a majestic like aura similar to the wrath of an Emperor!

If they were to really fight...

Luo Tian's eyebrows showed a deeper frown.

At this time, Luo Tian's hand was suddenly grabbed by a delicate hand. It was very soft and very comfortable to the touch.

Luo Tian turned to look and it was really that same girl. He then unconsciously blurted out: "What are you trying to do? Girl, I am someone that won't do those kinds of things. Even if you give me more money, you can forget about forcing me into selling my body."

The girl's face completely darkened as she glared at Luo Tian and said: "Quickly wake up Yun Yun for me."

Luo Tian was startled by this and pointed at the Fire Cloud Unicorn: "It's called Yun Yun? Hahaha... it's actually named Yun Yun! No wonder it didn't listen to you! No matter what kind of male mount it is, they'll definitely not answer to being called such a girly name."

It was as if the Fire Cloud Unicorn had found a bosom friend, because it looked over at Luo Tian emotionally as if it was about to start crying.

The girl then angrily said: "It's none of your business whatever I call it! I like calling it Yun Yun. The name Yun Yun sounds really nice! Humph! Hurry up and make it take me away from here, hurry! If you are even slow a little bit, watch out that I'll take your little life away! Humph!"

The girl said this with her hands on her waist. It's unfortunate that her b.r.e.a.s.t.s weren't that big or else your typical towering twin peaks would definitely shake a bit for a glorious scene. But her fierce expression was still kind of cute.

But...

Luo Tian didn't bother with her and went back to the encirclement of the city guards. He then said: "These guys want to detain me so I don't have time to deal with you. These big brothers, can you quickly detain me so I can get as far away as possible from her?"

The girl pulled out a small jade plate and shouted: "I want to see who dares to detain him!"

When the guards saw the jade plate, they immediately kneeled down in fear and stuttered: "Paying respects to..."

"You're not allowed to keep talking!" Shouted the girl.

She then pulled Luo Tian and shouted: "Quickly take me away from here or else it'll be too late!"

Luo Tian glanced at the girl's jade plate and was surprised by it. He then said internally: "How come it looks so similar to the jade plate that Ninth brother gave me? Could it be Ninth brother's little sister? Princess!?"

Holy c.r.a.p!

Never could Luo Tian imagine that the first day in Heavenly Sword City would he encounter the Princess.

Thinking up to this point, Luo Tian's heart calmed down a bit. He then said internally: "It looks like these Palace Guards aren't here to capture me and are here to take this girl home. Heh heh... I'll have to play with her a bit then."

"No way!"

"I still have to enter the city to find my wife!" Luo Tian said with a serious expression.

The girl was startled by those words and looked Luo Tian up and down a few times. She then said with a smile: "With the kind of looks you have, how could you have a wife?"

"s.h.i.t!"

Luo Tian immediately responded in an unhappy tone: "My wife is taller than you, her looks are prettier than you, and her body is better than yours. The most important part is that her b.r.e.a.s.t.s are bigger and her b.u.t.t is perkier than yours! Humpf!"

Hearing the word b.r.e.a.s.t.s, the girl's expression turned grim. Her anger unconsciously flared up as she shouted: "Are you going to make it bring me away or not?!"

"I don't even know you..."

"So why would I help you? Unless..." Luo Tian's eyes started glimmering as he smiled evilly.

The Palace Guards were about to reach the gates so any more delays would...

The girl was super anxious now and immediately asked: "Unless what?"

Luo Tian evilly responded: "Unless you scream out 'Good big brother, I want it!'" 2

The girl's expression drastically changed and immediately pulled out her whip. She then scolded: "You d.a.m.n scoundrel! You want to take advantage of this Miss? Watch me whip you to death right now!"

The moment the whip was raised into the air, Luo Tian patted the Fire Cloud Unicorn and muttered: "Hey brother, I feel it's unfair for you that your owner is so overbearing. In the future, don't ever listen to her. It's best for these kinds of fierce girls to continue falling off and look like dogs eating s.h.i.t."

The Fire Cloud Unicorn actually nodded in coordination.

The girl's whip stopped in midair as her face turned extremely ugly looking. She then said offhandedly to the side: "Good big brother, I want it!"

Luo Tian then said with disdain: "There's no sincerity at all!"

The girl glared angrily at Luo Tian and shouted: "Good big brother, I want it!"

Luo Tian rolled his eyes at her and said: "Can't you say it more tenderly? You're acting like a small minded person. I'm going to give you one last chance; if you don't say it properly, I'll immediately leave."

The girl was completely helpless now.

She was so angry her face became pale and her chests heaved up and down. Eventually, she endured this and said to herself: "You d.a.m.n scoundrel! Once this Miss escapes this place, I will definitely settle the score with you. You dare to bully this Princess? I will definitely not let you off!"

She calmed her emotion and revealed a faint smile. Her eyes lightly narrowed and turned extremely charming. She then said in a flirty tone: "Good big brother, I want it!"

d.a.m.n!

That voice almost made his bones go limp!

Luo Tian had goose b.u.mps on his body and that flirty tone almost took his life! It was too pleasing to the ears! If she was able to say that on the bed... let alone his life, probably his very life essence would be...

Her voice was really pleasant to the ears and exactly on point.

Except her seductive and charming eyes had a trace of killing intent.

Luo Tian didn't bother with this and leapt up onto the back of the Fire Cloud Unicorn and extended his hand. "Come on up!"

The girl's expression sank and asked: "Why are you getting on as well?"

Luo Tian replied: "If I don't get on, how are you going to stop it to get off? It's not going to listen to you no matter what."

The girl hesitated, but when she saw that the Palace Guards were about to arrive, she didn't have time to care about anything else. She grabbed Luo Tian's hand and leapt up to sit behind him.

Luo Tian directly pulled the girl's arms to wrap it around his own waist before he grasped the reins.

The girl's eyes were filled with gloomy killing intent as she said to herself: "You d.a.m.n scoundrel, this Princess will definitely shred your corpse into pieces!"

Luo Tian smiled excitedly. He then whispered to the Fire Cloud Unicorn: "If you want to change your name, then run as fast as you can for me."

The Fire Cloud Unicorn roared into the air before disappearing in a cloud of dust.

G.o.dd.a.m.n, its speed was quick!

The girl was so scared by this that she hugged Luo Tian's waist. This feeling to Luo Tian was kind of like riding a motorcycle – simply too awesome and exhilarating!

Chapter 215 – Should We Elope?

It's a waste of one's youth if they don't act frivolous.

Every teenager has had a rebellious stage and some unruly dreams.

Sometime in the past...

In Luo Tian's previous life, he had dreamed of riding a motorcycle with the most horsepower and a pretty girl behind him as they tore down the streets.

Being hugged by a girl while her two soft mounds glued themselves to your back would feel really good! Luo Tian would then relish himself in enjoyment.

Except...

In his previous life, he was only a sad otaku. Not to mention a girl, he couldn't even afford a motorcycle! That's why he could only fantasize back then and had no way to make it a reality.

He never imagined that in this foreign world...

He absolutely never imagined that his dream would become reality.

The girl was quite pretty.

The motorcycle had actually become a demonic beast that was cooler and faster by ten thousand times. This kind of lightning like speed was simply too fast and awesome! The best thing out of all this was the girl behind him was hugging him tighter and tighter, and would occasionally scream out.

This scream was the kind that would make a man excited.

Luo Tian was completely satisfied with this excitement. He then said to himself: "This Fire Cloud Unicorn's speed is so fast that it's practically beyond my imagination. It might even be faster than the high-speed rail in my previous life!"

"Slow down!"

"Slow down a bit!" The girl said with a wavering voice.

She was truly scared.

She never imagined the Fire Cloud Unicorn was capable of such fast speeds. And the people she knew with Fire Cloud Unicorns had never displayed such speeds before either. This was the reason why she wanted to tame one because there didn't seem to be any dangers associated with it.

Except...

Those so called high nobles and aristocrats used an expert to tame them. Those experts would use their oppressive pressure to forcefully make the Fire Cloud Unicorns submit.

It was a bit different for Luo Tian.

Those two chatted with each other and bonded a bit. The Fire Cloud Unicorn felt their tempers were very similar so that's why it demonstrated its true abilities.

The most important thing was the Fire Cloud Unicorn really hated the name Yun Yun. Once Luo Tian proposed the name change to it, it immediately became excited.

"Ahhhhhhhh...!"

Luo Tian roared out loudly from the exhilarated feeling. He then asked: "Don't you feel the speed is so awesome?"

"Awesome your big head!"

"Quickly make it slow down before stopping. I'm, I'm, I'm a bit scared." The girl finally revealed that she was scared.

Hearing that she was scared, Luo Tian teasingly smiled and asked: "You're afraid huh?"

The girl nodded: "En."

Luo Tian released the reins and clapped his hands. He then said with a smile: "Everything would be easier since you're scared. Now I'm going to ask you some questions and you'll answer them honestly. If not.... heh heh... I'm going to make it run even faster."

Once the reins were let go, the Fire Cloud Unicorn started running even faster.

"Wuuuuuush~... wuuuuush~..."

The sound being made was similar to those super fast rocket cars that were about to break the sound barrier.

The girl was so angry that she started stuttering: "d.a.m.n, d.a.m.n scoundrel! This imperial, this Miss will definitely not let you off. You just wait for me, humph!"

"Ohh!"

"This daddy is so scared!"

"Brother, run faster! This girl has bullied you for so long; it's time for you to take your revenge!" Luo Tian patted the Fire Cloud Unicorn with a smile on his face.

The Fire Cloud Unicorn cooperated fully.

The most important thing was it felt Luo Tian was treating it as a brother!

This made it feel happy, so it started running like it didn't care about its life.

The girl hugged Luo Tian even tighter and quickly said: "I was wrong! Good big brother, I was wrong! Please spare me!"

Tears almost burst out from her.

Luo Tian reached back and patted her b.u.t.t. It was very soft, bouncy, and the total feel was not bad at all. He then smiled perversely and asked: "First of all, what is your name?"

"Tang, Tang, Tang Tang!" The girl repeated the word Tang for quite a while. After saying that name, the girl was quite happy with herself before saying internally: "This Princess is simply too intelligent! I was able to give myself such a good name."

Luo Tian internally shocked as he said to himself: "It looks like she's really Ninth brother's little sister!"

When the girl spoke her surname as Tang, Luo Tian already figured his guess was correct.

Luo Tian then asked: "Then why did those Palace Guards want to capture you? And don't you dare lie to me because I know your name isn't Tang Tang. If you dare to lie again, I'm going to have my brother here run even faster."

"Wuuu~..."

The Fire Cloud Unicorn understood Luo Tian and started making some sounds as if it was warning Tang Tang: "If you dare to lie to my brother, I'm going to teach you a good lesson."

Tang Tang's expression secretly changed as she fell into thought. She then angrily said: "I'm trying to escape from my marriage and they are trying to force me back for the engagement. There's no way I want to be engaged to that something Nangong Hao. Every time I see him, I feel completely disgusted. Humph!"

"Escaping a marriage?"

"You ran away because you wanted to escape from your forced marriage arrangement?"

"A Princess was escaping her marriage?"

"Then did I just become an accomplice?!"

For a short moment, Luo Tian had frozen from shock. His expression changed as he thought deeper: "s.h.i.t! I'm afraid I can't go back to Heavenly Sword City now. Helping the Princess in escaping her marriage... this crime is too big to take on! s.h.i.t!"

He never imagined this.

This was beyond imagination.

This girl ran away to escape her marriage engagement.

Luo Tian thought that at most, she was running out to play and see the world for a bit. Never did he imagine she was escaping from her forced marriage engagement.

Escaping a marriage isn't a big deal.

The problem was her ident.i.ty. A Princess was running away from an arranged marriage and he had become an accomplice. The Palace Guards might even think that he was kidnapping the Princess! If we think along this line of thought, then that something Nangong Hao might even think Luo Tian was trying to steal his bride...

Oh my heavens!

Is this daddy going to become an enemy of the entire Great Tang Dynasty?

"Stop!"

"Quickly stop!"

Luo Tian immediately screamed out.

And the Fire Cloud Unicorn quickly slowed down to a stop.

Luo Tian then said: "Turn around; we're going back to the Heavenly Sword City. This daddy doesn't want to shoulder such a huge problem."

It wasn't that Luo Tian was afraid.

So what if he became an enemy of the entire world?

He didn't need to rely on anyone. He could kill monsters to level up and kill people to exchange for powerful bloodlines. But he came to Heavenly Sword City because of his quest. If he was to offend the imperial clan and that something Nangong family, how was he supposed to rescue An Chunchun's mother?

Most likely he wouldn't be able to step foot into the city at all.

Moreover...

He has known this girl for less than hour, so was he going to throw his life away for her?

Luo Tian wasn't that dumb and that overconfident in himself. Just those Palace Guards alone were already at the Profound Spirit 9th rank, so the strength of those experts in the imperial palace would probably be powerful to a complete mess!

Tang Tang became anxious.

Tears were swirling in her eyes as she said: "I don't want to go back; I don't want to marry that Nangong Hao. Big brother, my good big brother, you have to help me! How about we elope? We will oppose the strong and assist the weak, becoming heroes of our generation! How interesting would it be to make a name for ourselves like that?"

Eight black lines appeared on Luo Tian's forehead as he said: "What kind of c.r.a.ppy mess is filled inside that brain of yours?"

"Don't go back!"

"Can you not go back? I'm begging you!" Tang Tang said while crying.

Luo Tian gave a long sigh before saying: "Have you ever heard of a saying?"

Tang Tang asked: "What saying?"

Luo Tian then said: "The most dangerous place is actually the safest. Since the Great Tang Dynasty is so big and powerful, they'll still be able to capture you wherever you hide out there. But if you were to go back to the Heavenly Sword City, who would be able to think of that?"

Tang Tang was in thought for a while before shouting: "That's right! How come I didn't think of that?!"

Luo Tian rolled his eyes at her and asked: "Should we elope then?"

"Elope! We'll elope back to the city, hee hee..."

Chapter 216 – Motherf*cker, We're Wanted!

Sometimes, Luo Tian really couldn't help but want to praise himself as a f*cking genius!

A single sentence was capable of bringing Tang Tang back willingly.

How awesome was that huh?

Of course...

In theory, those words "the most dangerous place is actually the safest" was correct.

When the Palace Guards witnessed Luo Tian take Tang Tang away, the Heavenly Sword City should become a safe haven for them.

Now Luo Tian was bringing Tang Tang back to the Heavenly Sword City except their speed wasn't as fast as before.

When they were about to approach the city gates...

Luo Tian's expression underwent a slight change because the guards at the city gates had been changed. They were now guards dressed in all black armor.

Tang Tang then whispered: "Black Dragon Legion. Their status is similar to the imperial clan's Palace Guards. The strength of their members is usually at or higher than the Profound Spirit 5th rank. If you plan on forcing your way through, I advise you to scrap that idea because the eighteen of them are capable of assembling into a killing formation. There was once an expert at the peak of the Profound Spirit 9th rank who died under the killing formation in less than ten rounds."

Luo Tian swept his eyes past them.

Tang Tang whispered again: "There's no need to count; there will always be eighteen of them in a squad. They will always eat and sleep as one unit. Haven't you heard of the great deeds by the Black Dragon eighteen riders?"

Luo Tian shook his head and replied: "Nope. I've only heard of the story where eighteen pigs successively jumping into a stinking ditch."

"Eighteen pigs successively jumping into a stinking ditch?"

"Puff~..."

"Hahaha..."

"Those eighteen pigs are really stupid!" Tang Tang started laughing uncontrollably.

Luo Tian rolled his eyes at her and said: "They are stupid, but they still can't compare to you."

Luo Tian then looked at the throngs of passersby gathering at the city gates. They seemed to be looking and pointing at something while discussing amongst themselves.

Luo Tian then said: "It looks like something is posted at the city gates and a bunch of people are crowding around it."

Tang Tang was still smiling. Thinking of Luo Tian's sentence of eighteen pigs successively jumping into a stinking ditch, she would start laughing again. She then said: "It should be a posting of a new law or an arrest warrant."

"An arrest warrant?"

Luo Tian's expression hiddenly changed as he said in his mind: "d.a.m.n it, I've been majorly screwed by you."

Immediately after...

Luo Tian smudged his face with dirt and made his hair messy. He then said: "Stay here and don't move; I'm going to take a look."

Tang Tang was still giggling and nodded: "En."

Luo Tian made himself look like a beggar and carefully went forth. He stood at the rear of the crowd and said: "Did something good get posted here?"

"An arrest warrant."

"It was just posted. It says that someone kidnapped the princess and that person is wanted in the territory of the Great Tang Dynasty. That person must've eating a bear's heart or a leopard's gall... he even dares to kidnap our Princess!"

"Not only did the imperial clan issue an arrest warrant, even the Sea Cloud Sect's Nangong family issued a kill order. Just the Great Tang alone gave a reward of 1 million silver, while the Sea Cloud Sect was even more incredible – they are giving out a hundred xuan stones and a handwritten copy of a grade 5 martial skill."

"If I was able to capture that kid, then I'd be filthy rich! Hahaha..."

"There's also one more thing that you guys don't know about; apart from the imperial clan and the Sea Cloud Sect's Nangong family, there's also one other person ordering the capture of the kid – it's our current Internal Supervisor who is also the Elder Statesman Li Wenzong. The picture on the arrest warrant was provided by him. Only when the city guards confirmed the picture was accurate did they post it up. It's just that Supervisor Li's incident is not a.s.sociated with the matter of the princess being kidnapped."

"Holy c.r.a.p, who the h.e.l.l is this kid? His courage is so big that he's capable of offending so many powerful forces of our Heavenly Sword City in one go!"

Hearing their conversation, Luo Tian had thoughts of committing suicide.

Who the f*ck did I provoke? I only wanted to enter the city and it instantly turned into such a mess.

But...

After several seconds, Luo Tian started laughing internally in an excited manner. "I never imagined my life was worth so much. It's actually 1 million silver and one hundred xuan stones, hahaha..."

When he looked at the picture of him posted on the wall, Luo Tian became a bit unhappy. "You gave this daddy such a portrait? This daddy is much better looking than that!"

Luo Tian was planning on entering the city.

He was going to leave Tang Tang behind since no one would dare to do anything to the Princess anyway.

But he eventually decided not to.

Firstly, he was kind of unwilling to do that. Secondly, he wasn't sure if these unmoving Black Dragon Legion would be able to recognize him from the wanted poster or not.

Luo Tian went back into the forest.

Tang Tang immediately asked him: "What's going on? What's posted on the wall?"

Luo Tian rolled his eyes at her since he was too lazy to talk about it.

Tang Tang's eyes showed some shock as her expression became excited. "It can't be a wanted poster of you right?"

Luo Tian glared at her and shouted: "It's all because of you!"

Tang Tang started laughing in a happy manner. She then pointed at Luo Tian and said: "Hahaha, d.a.m.n scoundrel, your day has come! Don't worry though, with this Princess here, no one will dare to do anything to you. But it will all depend on your performance from now on. If you don't perform well, then..."

Luo Tian directly slapped her little b.u.t.t and shouted: "Do you believe that I'll tie you up right now and deliver you into the city?"

Tang Tang immediately acted like a shriveled up eggplant and muttered: "Big brother, I was wrong."

The Great Tang's Palace, in a certain imperial prince's place.

Tang Jiu angrily smashed his palm on the table and vented: "A bunch of useless fools! A bunch of useless fools! They actually dared to provoke my idol?! I really don't know what my imperial father is thinking... why would he post up those arrest warrants? For my 13th sister to marry my idol is like ten thousand times better than marrying that Nangong Hao!"

Anger.

Incomparable anger.

When he saw Luo Tian's portrait on the wanted poster, Tang Jiu became ecstatic because his idol had finally arrived at the imperial capital.

Then came anger.

The words heaven defying couldn't even be used to describe Luo Tian's talent. Once his talent was exposed, not to mention the Great Tang Dynasty wanting to curry favors with him, even those great immortal sects would fawn over him as well. Issuing an arrest warrant for him at this time was not a wise decision at all!

But he was just a prince and couldn't change anything.

He could only throw his temper around in his own dwelling.

Heavenly Sword City, in a certain small courtyard.

"Hahaha..."

"My little handsome brother, you've finally arrived at the Heavenly Sword City! This big sister has been waiting painfully for you for a long time."

"You d.a.m.n b.a.s.t.a.r.d, you kidnapped the princess right when you arrived... you're such a baddie! A big baddie! But also too cool. I really don't mind an additional pretty woman like the princess..." Qin Yue'er started laughing. As she was laughing, her enormous twin peaks were shaking and looked like they were about to burst out from her shirt.

Heavenly Sword City, in a courtyard located at the northern part of the city where it was the most chaotic.

"Hahaha..."

"Boss, you've finally come."

"Boss is truly the boss; causing such a huge matter when he's just arrived. Hahaha..."

A large fatty started laughing out like crazy.

Standing behind him were lots of his followers.

Feng Lei turned around and shouted: "Today we will fight with the Poison Dragon Gang! We'll demonstrate our prestige with a fight to welcome my boss!"

An Chunchun was smiling off to the side.

She was smiling happily while mumbling to herself: "Big brother Luo Tian, it looks like you've arrived. Chunchun really misses you!"

Chapter 217 – Is My Chest Big?

Luo Tian was regretting it!

He was truly regretting entangling himself with Tang Tang's huge mess. If he was truly being hunted by the Great Tang Dynasty alongside the kill order of the Sea Cloud Sect, how on earth was he to enter the city? How was he going to save An Chunchun's mother and search for the ancient treasure's location?

Everything required him to enter the city before it could be achieved!

Night descends.

Heavenly Sword City didn't implement any curfews.

Out of the sixteen gates of the city, eight of them were closed while the other eight remained opened and guarded by eighteen Black Dragon Legion members each.

Luo Tian had been secretly observing all this time and found that the Black Dragon Legion didn't question anyone. They just stood there like wooden statues. This made Luo Tian say to himself: "Could it be that they weren't expecting him to return to the Heavenly Sword City?"

"En!"

"That should be the case!"

This was what Luo Tian concluded and quickly went back into the forest.

When Tang Tang heard some noise, she opened her groggy eyes and asked: "Did you find a way into the city?"

Luo Tian looked at her groggy expression and said: "I found it, but we need to change our appearance. The guards already know of our original appearance and we'll be caught the second we show up, that's why we need to disguise ourselves."

"Huh?"

Tang Tang immediately woke up and asked: "A disguise? How do we do it? It sounds like something really fun! A smelly scoundrel like you really does have a lot of good stuff, this Princess hasn't misjudged you."

The Fire Cloud Unicorn lying down to the side snorted as if saying: "The boss of mine is naturally awesome."

Luo Tian widened his eyes and shouted: "Take off your clothes!"

"Huh?"

"How dare you?! You d.a.m.n scoundrel, what are you planning? I am a Princess!" Tang Tang responded while shaking angrily.

Luo Tian was too lazy to explain and raised his palm: "Are you taking it off or not?"

Tang Tang refused to be compromised and held onto her clothes: "Even if you beat my b.u.t.t until it blooms flowers, I'm still not taking my clothes off! I will rather die before I comply! You d.a.m.n scoundrel, wanting to take advantage of me? I, I, I am t.i.tled Princess Lasting Peace! If you dare become disrespectful, wait, I mean if your brain dares to have any dirty thoughts about me, this Princess will slaughter all nine generations of your clan! Humph!"

She showed an expression that she would rather die than comply.

She was glaring at Luo Tian with a stubborn and angry pout.

"Princess long and flat?"

"Hahaha..."

"No wonder you became unhappy when I said my wife's chest was bigger than yours. So you are actually Princess... long and flat... hahaha!" Luo Tian laughed for a bit before looking at Tang Tang's chest and saying: "I think your father must've been an enemy of yours in your previous life. He actually gave you the t.i.tle of Princess Long and Flat. Hmm... long and flat is fine, at least it's not forever peace (flat) or else you chest will always be as flat as an airport runway. Hahaha..." 1

"Humph!"

"Princess Forever Peace is my elder sister!"

"Who told you to bully me?!" Tang Tang directly cracked her whip at him.

Luo Tian deftly dodged to the side and burst out laughing again. "Your father is simply too awesome! Long and flat wasn't enough, he wanted a forever flat as well. One can easily imagine that the chest of you sisters will always be level and flat, hahaha... How can that Nangong Hao like a girl like you? Hahaha... this is just way too funny!"

"You..."

"You..."

"You're too hateful! This Princess is not going to let you off!" Tang Tang was so angry that she couldn't even speak properly. She realized her status as a Princess had no effect on Luo Tian at all. If it was other people in Luo Tian's place, they wouldn't even dare to look at her openly let alone make fun of her.

This guy was really not ordinary.

Tang Tang was really angry but at the same time, a weird special feeling was growing inside her.

But...

She was too angry to detect this special feeling.

Luo Tian couldn't be bothered talking nonsense with her any longer and directly said: "I'm going to ask again: Are you going to take it off or not? If you don't do it, I will personally do it for you. Don't blame me for being rude at that time..."

"I'd rather you beat me to death than to take it off!"

"You d.a.m.n scoundrel, quit dreaming that this Princess will give in!" Tang Tang fiercely replied.

Luo Tian's mouth curved into a perverted smile as he started rubbing his hands together. "I've never taken the clothes off a Princess before so I must thoroughly enjoy this today."

After saying that...

Luo Tian instantaneously arrived next to Tang Tang. He first slapped her b.u.t.t before saying: "Who told you to be arrogant in front of me? You still want to suppress me with your status as a Princess? Let me tell you that this daddy doesn't give a c.r.a.p about those things. This slap will be a small reminder to you; if this happens again next time, I'm going to smack your bottom until he starts blooming flowers!"

"Agghh..."

Tang Tang yelped out loudly.

Luo Tian embraced Tang Tang's waist and quickly unbuttoned everything. Tang Tang's dress scattered apart and was pulled down. Her light blue dress was thus almost instantly pulled off by Luo Tian.

His movement almost seem like he was a pro at it!

The moment the dress was taken off, Luo Tian became stunned!

Apart from a small bodice cover and an underwear, there was nothing else underneath!

Pretty much her entire body was exposed.

Her skin was like fine white jade and every inch of skin contained endless temptation. Any normal male seeing it would be absolutely enticed by it. A bright light flashed in Luo Tian's eyes as he kept swallowing down saliva. He then said internally: "d.a.m.n! This body is so perfect! I can't even see any blemishes at all and her b.r.e.a.s.t.s really aren't that small. Those two little dots protruding from her mounds can be clearly seen through the bodice cover! They look quite perky! Those twin peaks of hers are considered top grade!"

Looking at her waist...

The curves were similar to a water snake.

Looking at her legs...

They were long, white and didn't have any excess fat. It was simply beautiful to the extreme!

Looking below her waist at the forbidden mysterious area, it...

Luo Tian's crotch was instantly stimulated and felt like it was about to explode out. Looking at her mysterious area, his throat felt parched and thirsty as if he was about to spew out flames.

"Calm down!"

"Calm down!"

Luo Tian kept telling himself that and forced himself to calm down.

Tang Tang started crying.

Her hands were covering her chest area as tears streamed out.

Ever since she was born, no other man has seen her body before. She wanted to find the world's most perfect man and then give herself to him on their wedding night. But now...

She was being seen naked by a man she had known for less than a day.

This created a very unpleasant feeling in her heart. If it weren't for her not wanting to go home, she would've already started screaming. She would then have people chop this guy up into pieces and then fed to the dogs.

Seeing Tang Tang's tears, Luo Tian's perverted feelings immediately disappeared. He brought out his clothing and covered her with it before trying to explain: "I wanted you to take off your clothes so that I could give you a new disguise. Since you didn't agree, I figured I'd just do it quickly myself."

"Don't worry, I didn't see anything. I saw nothing."

The corner of Luo Tian's eyes involuntarily focused on the raised mounds seen down the opening of what his clothing couldn't cover in a hurry.

Tang Tang fiercely glared at Luo Tian and said: "You didn't see anything?"

Luo Tian immediately replied: "I swear that I really didn't see anything."

"En."

Tang Tang softly replied as if she had calmed down.

After a while...

Tang Tang suddenly asked: "Are my b.r.e.a.s.t.s big?"

Luo Tian instinctively reacted by saying: "Big; very big."

"You, you, you d.a.m.n scoundrel..."

Chapter 218 – Ninth Brother's Idol Is My Man

Women...

Were considered strange creatures.

When you praise that she's pretty, her heart is happy but her mouth would scold you.

Of course...

Luo Tian's response was a natural reaction of his. Those words reflected his inner thoughts and were filled with sincerity.

There were indeed quite big.

If it was calculated by the terms of his previous life, her b.r.e.a.s.t.s would be at least 36C's or higher.

Originally Luo Tian didn't pay attention to them because Tang Tang's clothing made it seem not that big. But once the clothes were taken off, Luo Tian realized he was completely wrong. He was also wrong about what kind of underwear he presumed she was wearing.

They were big.

They were very bountiful where a single hand could perfectly cup it. It would definitely be very satisfying to touch them.

Luo Tian gave a long exhale before muttering: "Looks like the name your father gave you had an opposite effect. At such a young age, your mounds are already so bountiful. One could imagine your sister Princess Forever Peace must have ones capable of domineering all others."

"You're still talking about it?"

"If you keep talking about it, I, I..." Tang Tang kept on stuttering the word "I" while wrapping the clothes around herself tightly. She couldn't think of what to say after the word "I" because this guy in front of her was completely different to other men she has encountered.

She had nothing to scare him with.

And the more she tried to scare him, the more she would suffer instead.

Thinking of the words Luo Tian said, Tang Tang then said in a weak and unconfident voice: "I, I will have my ninth brother beat you until you have no clue which direction is which! Humph!"

Immediately after...

Tang Tang's brows scrunched up as she mumbled: "Ninth brother's strength seems to be only at the Profound Spirit 6th rank and isn't the opponent of this scoundrel..."

After thinking for a while, Tang Tang's voice was a few level's louder as she shouted: "I will have Ninth brother's idol beat you until you have to pick up your own teeth off the ground, humph! My Ninth brother's idol is number one in this world! Ninth brother said that he's 10,000 times more awesome than the Shattered Sky City's Murong Wanjian! If you dare bully me again, I will definitely have him teach you a fierce lesson!"

As she was saying this...

Tang Tang's expression was filled with pure innocence.

Amongst all her brothers and sisters, she was the closest to Tang Jiu.

When Tang Jiu returned to the Heavenly Sword City, he told Tang Tang everything that had happened in the Dark Mountain Corpse City and described Luo Tian similar to a G.o.d. There was naturally lots of exaggeration but in Tang Jiu's heart, Luo Tian was even more awesome than a G.o.d.

Unknowingly...

Tang Tang became very curious towards this idol of her ninth brother.

She also started thinking that only such a guy was worthy of being her man, and she would only marry someone with such capability.

"Your ninth brother's idol?"

Luo Tian was startled by this and mumbled internally: "Isn't that me?"

"d.a.m.n!"

"Who the h.e.l.l is bored enough to beat himself until they have to pick up their own teeth off the ground? Hahaha..."

Luo Tian wanted to laugh out loud but didn't.

Looking at Tang Tang, he found that she was becoming cuter to his eyes. She was a mature girl that still had the playfulness of a youth.

Luo Tian deliberately revealed a scared expression and said: "Your ninth brother's idol is a guy even more awesome than a G.o.d? I'm really scared! But you better start putting up your hair now because if we don't enter the city before dark, we'll have no place to sleep tonight!" Urged Luo Tian.

He then started disguising himself as well.

Using the words of his previous life, it was basically him putting on makeup.

In his previous life, Luo Tian had seen some makeup videos when he was really bored. In just a few minutes, an ugly woman would suddenly become a super beauty. It was due to this that it peaked his curiosity so he would waste some time on them.

He never imagined that random knowledge would be useful in this foreign world.

But...

Due to the lack of materials, he could only use the dirt on the ground and the things of the environment to change his face slightly and put on a few moles here and there.

In less than ten minutes, it was as if Luo Tian had become another person.

Off to the side, Tang Tang was staring in shock as she asked: "You, you... how did you do that? If I didn't witness this first hand, I wouldn't be able to recognize you! A d.a.m.n scoundrel like you actually has so many talents... you've must've used this to cheat many girls in your life! Is this also how you cheated to get your wife in the city?"

Luo Tian was too lazy to bother with her and said: "Put away your Fire Cloud Unicorn and we'll enter the city one after another."

"Remember!"

"Don't panic, and those Black Dragon Legion won't be able to recognize you."

"And don't speak if you don't have to."

Luo Tian lectured her.

He was now a wanted felon in the country. If he was accidentally discovered, at least Tang Tang by his side would be able to explain the truth of the matter. This was why she had to safely enter the city with him.

Tang Tang nodded: "En, don't worry."

Immediately after...

The two of them went back onto the main road. One in front and the other in the back; it was like they were strangers on the same route hurrying towards the city.

The process of entering the city was surprisingly smooth!

It was unexpectedly smooth.

It was so smooth that Luo Tian felt it was kind of strange. Those Black Dragon Legion didn't even glance at him, let alone conduct any investigations. He couldn't help ponder internally: "What on earth is really going on? The Princess was kidnapped yet the city gates are so lax. On the surface it looks like the Black Dragon Legion are in charge, but their method of inspection wasn't as strict as the regular city guards earlier in the day. They are practically empty shells standing guard!"

"Yeaaaaa!"

"We've entered the city, hahaha..."

Tang Tang quickly rushed to a corner before laughing excitedly. "How's that? How's that? This Princess performed quite well huh? Those Black Dragon guys didn't discover me and barely even looked at me!"

Luo Tian rolled his eyes at her and didn't bother thinking too much about it. "Since we've entered the city, we should find a place to stay."

"Sounds good!"

"But we should first solve my growling tummy." A sound was heard coming from Tang Tang's stomach.

Luo Tian was also a bit hungry so he said: "Come with me and I'll treat you to a big meal."

The moment when Luo Tian and Tang Tang disappeared down the street...

The eyes of those originally motionless Black Dragon Legion turned fierce. The leader of the guards then said to his subordinate: "Notify the General that the Princess has returned to the city!"

Even in his dreams would Luo Tian not have imagined this!

What kind of place was the Great Tang's Dynasty?

A dynasty capable of standing in this continent for over ten thousand years couldn't even capture a single person?

Even since the arrest warrant was issued, how come not a single soldier had left the city to chase after them?

The reason was really simple:

There was a Godly expert inside the imperial palace. His spiritual senses was capable of detecting all living creatures within a radius of a million kilometers.

Tang Tang's every movement was monitored by his senses.

Also...

He was able to reproduce the unique aura of the princess and allow the Black Dragon Legion to familiarize themselves with it. On the surface, they looked like they weren't doing anything at the city gates but in reality; they were observing everything through their powers. They did nothing when they detected the Princess because they received that command early on.

Northern part of the city, inside a large restaurant.

"Wow, I am completely stuffed!"

"The taste of the food here is not bad at all. This Princ... this Miss hasn't enjoyed herself like this in a very long time!" Said Tang Tang while rubbing her large round belly.

Luo Tian couldn't help say: "An imperial capital is truly an imperial capital; the things here aren't the same as other places."

Also at this time...

A waiter came over with a cold expression as he looked at the table filled with empty plates. "The two of you should be done right? The cost of the food is 347 silver tales; I will round it down to 340 silver for you."

"Not expensive at all..."

"So many dishes were only a bit of money." Smiled Tang Tang.

Luo Tian patted his pockets and smiled embarrassedly: "Boss, I didn't bring any money with me."

"Humph!"

"Fellow brothers, everyone come out for me! I already figured these poor wretched things don't have any money on them. Beat them up for me until they throw up everything that they've eaten!" The expression of the waiter had turned from friendly to fierce in an instant!

Chapter 219 – Gang Warfare

From the kitchen area, a dozen plus kitchen workers suddenly rushed out.

Some were holding spatulas, some with spoons, and some were holding kitchen knives that glimmered a cold light.

The head chef then shouted: "Who the f*ck dares to eat without paying at the Hibiscus Restaurant?! This daddy is gonna hack him to death!"

In just several seconds...

Luo Tian and Tang Tang were surrounded.

Tang Tang started smiling!

Not only was she smiling because she was happy, she was smiling because this was a lot of fun to her!

Luo Tian glared at her and said: "Do you have any money on you?"

Tang Tang waved her hand and said: "This Miss never brings money with her. Three hundred something silver taels isn't a small number so if you can't take that out, these guys will not let you off."

She was taking pleasure in other's misery!

She was still smiling like flowers were blooming at this time.

If there weren't so many people present, Luo Tian would've already slapped her little b.u.t.t and shouted: "Little girl, keep smiling for this daddy to see!"

Luo Tian continued searching through his belongings and smiled embarrassedly: "Boss, do you accept demon cores?"

Luo Tian was actually very rich.

He was so rich that not many in the Heavenly Sword City could exceed his wealth.

But...

What he had were demon cores. A single attributed demon core had a value of a million gold.

Luo Tian had several spatial plaques filled with demon cores. One could say he was close to a billionaire.

But there's one important point...

Demon cores weren't a currency and cannot be used to purchase goods, unless the other person was willing.

After saying that...

Luo Tian pulled out a wind attributed demon core and placed it on the table. "Boss, this demon core will be used to pay for our meal and you don't need to give me any change."

Even if the boss wanted to give Luo Tian change, most likely he wouldn't be capable of doing that!

This entire restaurant was not worth a single attributed demon core!

Once the demon core appeared, it was shining with a bright crystal light. There would occasionally be traces of a breeze swirling around it. Tang Tang's eyes showed shock as she suddenly said: "It's really a wind attributed demon core! Are you crazy?! This meal was only a few hundred silvers while your demon core is at least a million gold!"

"Humph!"

The boss with a large belly came forward. He originally was startled by it as well and his expression was not much different to Tang Tang's, but his expression turned cold as he harrumphed: "You two don't need to keep acting. You think this daddy is easy to cheat because I haven't gone to school before? If it really is a wind attributed demon core, would you even dare to take out here? Why don't you take a look around and see where you're at?"

Northern city!

This was the area of Heavenly Sword City that was the most messy and chaotic.

Many different forces of power resided here.

Many types of crimes happened here and it wasn't a place where people can expose their wealth. Once exposed, it would definitely be stolen or robbed by those forces. That's why the restaurant's boss didn't believe Luo Tian one bit.

Moreover...

How could a person that can't even take out money for a meal have a demon core? And it was even an attributed demon core!

Add on Tang Tang's exaggerated expression, the boss of the restaurant was pretty confident the demon core was a fake. Thinking up to this point, he became even angrier as he shouted: "People come! Beat him until all the food he has eaten comes back out! Not a single sc.r.a.p of food can be missing! Your d.a.m.n granny; you dare to eat without paying in this daddy's restaurant?! This daddy will let you eat your fill!"

As his voice faded...

Luo Tian's brows scrunched up since he didn't want to blow this situation out of proportion.

If this mess gets out of hand, it's possible he would be recognized by others. And since the whole country was searching for him, being recognized would cause him some major headache.

Immediately after...

Luo Tian's eyes turned grim as he grabbed onto Tang Tang's soft jaded hands. He then shouted: "Level 2 Berserk!"

"Shadewind Steps!"

"Level 3 – Thousand Phantoms!"

His powers sank down and his figure shot out like an arrow. In less than half a second, only a trail of a thousand phantom images of Luo Tian was left behind. His speed was so fast that it was just a blur for onlookers and no one had time to react.

In an instant...

Luo Tian pulling Tang Tang along had travelled over several hundred meters and had disappeared into the night.

The waiter finally managed to react and rushed onto the street. He looked left and right but had no idea which direction Luo Tian had run off to.

"Kid, don't let me see you again or else this daddy will break your third leg."

"..."

Several workers came out and cursed Luo Tian before unhappily heading back inside the restaurant.

Around this moment...

A middle-aged man came down the second floor of the restaurant in an irritable manner. "What's going on? Why is it so noisy?"

The large bellied shopkeeper ran forth and smiled respectfully: "Big boss, someone ate without paying. We've already beaten him running for his life."

"Oh..."

The middle-aged man responded casually but when he was just about to walk back up to the second floor, something drew his attention from the corner of his eyes. When he looked over, his figure suddenly disappeared before reappearing at the table filled with empty plates.

The middle-aged man's eyes tightened while he grabbed the demon core from the table. After sensing it for a bit, his expression turned to shock as he said: "A wind attributed demon core... a wind attributed demon core! Hahaha... it's actually a wind attributed demon core!"

The shopkeeper became dumbfounded.

The other kitchen workers became dumbfounded as well.

The big boss cannot be wrong, so the demon core was truly a wind attributed demon core!

The moment he made a move, a country bumpkin pulled out a wind attributed demon core?

Everyone felt their minds in chaos.

The middle-aged man stored the wind attributed demon core and said happily: "It looks like the Gale Palms I cultivate will make a breakthrough soon, hahaha! Fu San, you did well; you guys all did a good job. I will give you guys a generous reward for your efforts, hahaha..."

Switching over to Luo Tian's side...

He managed to run past several streets on a single breath while pulling Tang Tang along.

Luo Tian finally stopped in an inconspicuous corner.

Tang Tang's face was red and she was gasping for air while saying: "Haaa~, haaa~, haaa~, so, so, so much fun! That was too exhilarating! I didn't imagine that we successfully ate without paying! Hee hee..."

She was extremely happy.

She had never experienced this type of excitement before.

Luo Tian then glared at her and said: "What eating without paying? This daddy gave them money! Does this daddy look like someone that doesn't have any money?!"

Tang Tang's expression became stunned. She then stared at Luo Tian and asked in a serious manner: "You didn't take the wind attributed demon core with you?"

"Nope."

"You, you, you d.a.m.n prodigal squanderer! A single wind attributed demon core could buy their entire restaurant! You actually left it behind?! You're driving me nuts!" Tang Tang said with an angry pout.

Luo Tian didn't look at her and said with disdain: "This daddy has nothing but attributed demon cores, so there's no need for you to concern yourself with my actions."

"I..."

Tang Tang was so mad that she couldn't even speak anymore.

Around this time...

At the end of the street under a dim street light were two groups of people killing each other.

The scene of them killing each other was similar to the movie Young and Dangerous that Luo Tian had watched in his previous life, except the scene here was even crazier. They were fighting from the ground to the air, and then from the air back to the ground. Each of them were fighting viciously like it was either you die or I die.

Warfare!

A gang warfare!

Tang Tang was instantly attracted to it and said excitedly: "Go, go, go! Let's get closer to watch! There's gang warfare going on everyday in the northern city and I have never seen it before. Today, this Miss must go watch it and enjoy herself!"

Luo Tian's brows scrunched up as his palm slapped onto Tang Tang's little b.u.t.t. He then shouted: "Enjoy your sister! Hurry up and run! If you don't run now, they'll be killing their way over here soon!"

Luo Tian grabbed Tang Tang and started running like crazy again.

While running away, Luo Tian became even more worried for Feng Lei. He then said internally: "Fatty, I hope you're doing well."

Luo Tian then disappeared into the night.

"Achoo~!"

Just a short distance away from Luo Tian, Feng Lei suddenly sneezed. The tang blade in his hand chopped down and smashed a person tumbling away. He then muttered: "Who is thinking of me? Could it be boss?"

"Fellow brothers, kill for me! Kill every one of these Poison Dragon Gang mongrels!

Chapter 220 – Selling Myself; Selling My Sword

Luo Tian himself didn't know that he was only about a hundred meters away from Fatty, and had lost the chance for a reunion.

Luo Tian was holding onto Tang Tang as he ran towards another street.

As for the Fatty, it was as if he ate some v.i.a.g.r.a and fought all over the place. He managed to defeat the Poison Dragon Gang in a single night.

Luo Tian was never afraid of trouble.

But his decision to run away was based on calm reasoning.

After entering Heavenly Sword City, Luo Tian realized this place wasn't simple at all. Even a chef had a cultivation level at the Profound Grandmaster level. Now, he was wondering what kind of place Heavenly Sword City really was.

He was carrying Tang Tang with him while running crazily. Once again, they ran past several streets before stopping at the eaves of someone's house.

Tang Tang was so tired that she fell asleep on Luo Tian's shoulder.

There was a slight pout to her lips and her nose was fluctuating slightly from her breathing, showing she had fallen into a deep sleep. Her hands were grabbing onto Luo Tian tightly and her legs had wrapped itself around his waist. Her entire body was like an octopus holding onto Luo Tian tightly.

It looked like she was afraid Luo Tian would dump her off somewhere while she was asleep.

Luo Tian was also tired. Leaning against the wall below the eaves, he too fell asleep.

The first night coming to Heavenly Sword City and they were sleeping on the streets.

So cruel!

The craziest thing was beside Luo Tian was a Princess running away from her marriage.

This was something Luo Tian would never ever dream of happening.

The eastern sky started getting bright.

Morning – people on the streets started increasing.

Many people were walking on the streets but not many of them paid attention to Luo Tian and Tang Tang. The reason was there were too many people sleeping on the streets each day. Heavenly Sword City was a place that anything was possible. One day a person could be from a wealthy family and the next day, they could end up as a beggar living off the streets.

Not too far from the end of the street.

A lot of people were surrounding something!

They weren't surrounding a person sleeping on the streets but surrounding a person kneeling down.

Someone was selling themselves!

And it was a guy that was selling himself.

Beside him was a sword stabbed into the ground. The sword was quite large and broad, and the blade was covered in rust. It looked no different than a piece of junk.

The man looked very strong and tall.

The thin clothing on his body revealed his bulky muscles filled with explosive power. While he was kneeling down, his height was the same as his sword stabbed into the ground. He gave off a feeling that he too was as deadly as a sword.

He and his broadsword were like a set.

Except...

He seemed to be even rustier than his broadsword. He looked completely miserable, his clothes were in tatters, his hair was scattered wildly about and the stench from his body was disgusting. One could easily guess that he hadn't bathed for over half a month.

Of course...

For a person that hadn't eaten for ten days, bathing was simply a nonexistent issue.

Kneeling behind a sign was the words "Selling Myself; Selling My Sword."

The guy's eyes still had spirit in them as his head was slightly raised. Even though he was kneeling there, he still managed to exude an innately born arrogance.

"Selling such a worn out sword... isn't that a bit too shameful?"

"What kind of trashy toy is that?"

"What's your cultivation level? Can I use you to kill people if I bought you?"

"Looking at his miserable image, isn't he just a beggar? Who knows where he grabbed that broken sword from? Selling yourself and selling the sword? I think it'll be more realistic to earn some money by barking like a dog to entertain us."

"Hahaha..."

"Haha..."

The crowd started laughing loudly.

The man's gaze didn't change at all, as if he didn't hear those words ridiculing him.

Around the same time...

"Why is it so noisy?"

"Who is interrupting this Princess's sleep? Careful that I cut your head off." Tang Tang mumbled while stretching her waist.

Her eyes slowly opened.

She realized a pair of eyes was staring back at her, and it was only about 1 centimeter away.

Those two were looking at each other and their mouths almost touching.

Tang Tang shrank back in shock before pointing at Luo Tian and angrily shouting: "What are you doing?! You dare to disrespect this Princess, this, this Miss? Do you believe I'll start screaming...?!"

"I believe!"

"Isn't it having your Ninth brother's idol beat me until I have to pick up my own teeth? I believe it!" Luo Tian was too lazy to listen to her rambling. His whole body was aching and couldn't help gasping from the pain. "Huuu~..."

Tang Tang was startled and asked: "What's going on with you? Aren't you an expert at the Profound Spirit 9th rank? How can a single night make you so tired looking?"

"Screw you!"

"If you have the guts, let me sit on you and crush you the entire night and see how you'd feel." Luo Tian said unhappily.

Tang Tang giggled embarrassedly and said: "Hee hee... so I've crushed you an entire night, how come I didn't know? Hee hee... since you took good care of this Miss, then when Ninth brother's idol beats you up; I'll have him soften his blows."

Luo Tian rolled his eyes at her and stood up to exercise his body a bit.

He didn't move the whole night. Luo Tian was afraid he'd wake Tang Tang up so he maintained his position the whole night. He didn't even want to mention how much his legs ached right now.

After moving around for a bit, blood was flowing smoothly once again and his aches lessened a lot.

"Let's go over there to take a look!"

"You see how many people are gathered around there? It must be something really fun!" Tang Tang didn't wait for Luo Tian's agreement and had already run off.

Luo Tian heavily exhaled and could only follow her.

"Hey, are you a mute?"

"I'm asking you a question!"

"You d.a.m.n beggar, what kind of game are you trying to play here?"

"Are you selling yourself? Looking at your body, it shouldn't be too bad if you worked at a kiln."

Some people in the crowd were scolding him while some were ridiculing him again.

The guy maintained his originally emotionless expression.

As Luo Tian and Tang Tang approached, Luo Tian was irritated with the taunting he heard from the crowd.

Tang Tang lowered herself to look at the guy.

After looking at him for a while, she mumbled: "Can we buy him?"

Just when Luo Tian was about to respond...

His expression suddenly changed!

This change was similar someone being struck by lightning. His entire person was completely shocked to the core!

"Spirit weapon?!"

"Earth weapon?!"

"Sky weapon?!"

"Or is it a legendary Divine weapon?"

It was too dazzling to the eyes!

It was incomparably dazzling to the eyes! The rusted broken looking broadsword gave off an eye piercing bright light! This bright light almost made Luo Tian unable to open his eyes! It was too dazzling! Luo Tian couldn't imagine this was happening. He went forward a step and got closer towards the broadsword.

At this moment...

The man made his first movement ever since he had kneeled down, and that was turn to look at Luo Tian.

His eyes were crystal clear as if he wanted to see through Luo Tian's soul.

Luo Tian didn't continue looking at the sword and then asked seriously: "How much is your sword?"

The guy looked at Luo Tian and didn't say anything.

Luo Tian became anxious. He stared at the sword again and excitedly said to himself: "It is definitely above an Earth grade weapon and might even be a Divine weapon! The bright light it was giving off was too dazzling to the eyes!"

The guy still didn't say a word.

But...

The guy's stomach was giving off a series of growling noises.

Luo Tian's brows quivered and he directly threw out a spatial plaque to Tang Tang. "Take one item from inside and go to the p.a.w.n shop to exchange for some money! Don't worry about the exchange rate, just get it done quickly! Then use the money to buy as many buns as you can!"

Tang Tang was stunned motionless.

Luo Tian then shouted: "Quickly go!"

The blood inside Luo Tian started boiling...
