Chapter 221 – Xuan Yuanyi, Giant Fault Sword

Luo Tian's actions made the surrounding people coldly laugh.

"Isn't this kid the beggar that was previously asleep under the eaves of someone's house?"

"He can't even survive himself yet he wants to buy someone and their sword? What's the use of buying a piece of trash?"

"A piece of trash buying another piece of trash; they can be termed the Trash Duo! How awesome is that name?"

"Hahaha..."

Luo Tian sat on the ground and stared at the guy before staring at the sword. He didn't even bother with the comments behind him and was only smiling non-stop. The smile came from deep within his heart as he looked at the guy and said: "A bunch of r.e.t.a.r.ds."

There was a brief flash in the man's eyes but he didn't reveal any expressions.

Luo Tian had an excited face as he asked: "Brother, what's your name?"

The guy maintained his silence and didn't respond.

He had never spoken a single word since the beginning and was just like a mute. And the way he looked at Luo Tian clearly showed he could hear him, so at least he wasn't deaf.

Luo Tian asked again: "Brother, where are you from?"

The guy remained silent.

Luo Tian didn't mind the lack of response and seemed to be addicted to asking questions. He then said: "Brother, you should follow me from now on."

"Brother, I don't want your sword or your person. I just want you to follow me and we'll fight for a place that belongs to us in Heavenly Sword City. What do you think about that?"

"Brother, what's the name of your sword?"

Luo Tian was asking many questions.

The guy didn't respond a single time.

Luo Tian was continuously asking questions because he was too excited. If he didn't let it all out by talking, he would really die from excitement!

After last night's embarrassing situation of sleeping on the streets, Luo Tian promised himself that he would make better plans in the future. Now something good has happened to him or more accurately speaking, he had discovered a treasure. And it was exactly this guy before his eyes.

The guy gave Luo Tian an unusual feeling.

He had an aura completely different from a normal human.

At the same time...

The sword beside the guy also had an aura, and the guy's aura and the sword's aura appeared to be synchronized. It was as if this guy had achieved the legendary realm of human and sword becoming one. The sword was like one's heart, and the heart was like one's sword; they were both completely fused together.

Very strong!

Even grandmasters of the sword may not have reached the realm this guy was currently in.

There was also another important note.

Luo Tian couldn't detect this guy's cultivation level and couldn't tell how strong he was.

That's why he became so excited.

Since his aura was different, Luo Tian concluded this guy might be from the demon clans.

The sword could be above the Earth grade level, or might even reach the Divine grade.

No matter if it was the sword or the guy, either one of them made Luo Tian incomparably excited.

"Hahaha..."

"One that keeps asking questions and an idiot that doesn't say a single word. I feel like this pair are made for each other... made to be a pair of trash! Hahaha..."

"Someone selling himself yet won't say a price. And a buyer that continuously asks random useless questions."

"..."

More and more passersby stopped to look and the words of ridicule became more and more.

Luo Tian and the guy seemed to have formed a rapport and didn't bother with what the others were saying.

It was just like how Luo Tian had previously said: They were just a bunch of r.e.t.a.r.ds!

"Coming!"

"The buns are coming! Buns that just came out of the oven!"

Suddenly...

Tang Tang was running over like crazy while carrying a large steamer tray. She then shouted: "Move aside! Move aside! Steaming hot buns coming through!"

Hearing the word buns, the guy's gaze was no longer calm anymore.

Luo Tian received the steamer and placed it in front of the guy. "Go ahead and eat. I will buy however many buns you can eat. If need be, I will buy all the buns in the entire Heavenly Sword City."

The guy looked at Luo Tian with eyes that appeared to be ablaze.

Immediately after...

The guy opened the steamer and saw all the hot meat buns. He swallowed his saliva down a few times before grabbing a bun. He didn't care how hot it was and directly shoved it into his mouth. There were no signs of chewing as he just swallowed the thing down whole.

Luo Tian was dumbfounded.

Tang Tang was dumbfounded. The surrounding crowd was also dumbfounded.

How many days has this guy not eaten?

Luo Tian then said with a faint smile: "Is this all the buns we can get?"

Tang Tang regained her look before saying excitedly: "You d.a.m.n scoundrel, your spatial plaques is filled to the brim with attributed demon cores! You, you, you, you're like some super rich dude! I'm afraid there's not many people in Heavenly Sword City that is richer than you. No wonder yesterday you didn't mind leaving behind that demon core, so it's because you are so loaded! This Miss is about to die from fright because of you!"

Luo Tian rolled his eyes at her and asked: "How much silver did we get for a demon core?"

Seeing how happily the guy was eating, Tang Tang responded happily: "100 silver."

"One..."

"One hundred silver?!"

Luo Tian's eyeb.a.l.l.s almost popped out of its sockets. Yesterday's meal was about 300 silver... An attributed demon core was worth about a million gold yet was exchanged for 100 silver. This...

Suddenly...

Luo Tian couldn't endure anymore and almost wanted to fiercely slap Tang Tang's little b.u.t.t right then and there. He then muttered: "You d.a.m.n spendthrift..."

Tang Tang then said with att.i.tude like she was naturally right: "You have so many demon cores so exchanging them for a hundred silver is not a big deal. It's just a small matter to you right?"

Luo Tian was too lazy to continue arguing and asked: "A hundred silver could only be this many buns?"

Tang Tang immediately responded: "d.a.m.n, you think this Miss is an idiot? I used a hundred silver to buy two hundred buns and that's only one hundred of them here. The boss will deliver another hundred buns later. He said that he could deliver it to us wherever we were in Heavenly Sword City so don't worry about it."

"A hundred silver to buy two hundred buns..."

"You..."

Luo Tian was nearly played to death by Tang Tang. This girl had absolutely no common sense so he could only sigh and say: "Did you know that a bun only costs 5 cents? A silver tael can buy twenty buns. You..."

"Huh?"

"Sigh. Since you're so rich, what is this little bit of money considered?"

"Moreover, the elderly couple has worked very hard to make these buns so who cares if they earn a little bit more money?" Tang Tang said indifferently. Seeing how happily the guy was eating, she then giggled and said: "Eat slower so you don't choke, there'll be plenty more."

In less than five minutes...

A hundred buns were completely cleared out.

The guy's face appeared slightly rosier.

Also around this time...

The other one hundred buns were delivered over. The boss showed a beautiful and happy smile towards Tang Tang.

Luo Tian didn't pursue this since it wasn't easy for the elderly to make a living nowadays.

The guy grabbed those buns and continued scarfing them down in a crazy manner.

But...

This time he finally said some words.

"My name is Xuan Yuanyi."

"I'm from Red River."

"I will follow you."

"I am willing to join you in fighting for our own place in the Heavenly Sword City."

"My sword is called Giant Fault!" 1

He responded one sentence at a time.

His response was all the questions Luo Tian had asked him prior. He had remembered them all and given simple responses.

Towards the end of this...

Xuan Yuanyi said in a serious manner: "The price of selling myself is only a single bun, but the price of my sword is a trillion gold! You have bought my person but you haven't bought my sword, so it will remain as my possession."

Luo Tian faintly smiled and responded: "Understood!"

At this time, five to six people in black robes and a tiger emblem sewn on it sauntered over in an arrogant manner.

Chapter 222 – Should I Kill Them All?

Giant Fault!

A trillion!

The crowd started laughing while even Tang Tang began to frown.

But Luo Tian merely smiled in response.

His smile was different to others that were laughing and smiling in ridicule. Luo Tian's smile contained an excitement that couldn't be described in words. He then thought: "Who would've imagined the Giant Fault Sword had arrived in this world as well."

"This guy isn't just an idiot, he's complete bonkers."

"A dilapidated sword selling for a trillion? He's definitely an idiot who enjoys blabbing nonsense."

"Who the h.e.l.l would buy a c.r.a.ppy looking sword filled with rust?"

Some of the people in the surrounding crowd were irritated from hearing Xuan Yuanyi's words.

Xuan Yuanyi ignored the crowd like usual and only looked at Luo Tian in a serious manner. He then said to himself: "It looks like this human is different from the others."

Inside his heart, Luo Tian was really different.

Luo Tian's attention landed on his sword first and not himself.

And Luo Tian's gaze showed a sense of familiarity.

There also seemed to be a blaze ignited in Luo Tian's eyes as he looked at the Giant Fault Sword. Seeing that fiery glance of Luo Tian, Xuan Yuanyi could tell he was excited. The gaze was similar to when one saw a Divine grade weapon.

In the Red River...

This sword was actually a Divine weapon!

When Luo Tian sat on the ground, he just kept on asking questions whether Xuan Yuanyi responded or not.

From the tone of his voice, Xuan Yuanyi could tell the excitement in Luo Tian.

And the reason why he didn't respond was because he was hungry. He was extremely extremely hungry. He was so hungry that he didn't even have the energy to answer. Xuan Yuanyi was trying to preserve his energy because speaking also wasted a lot of it.

He had to continue living because there were a lot things he hadn't done yet.

So he didn't respond because he had to preserve his energy!

There was another reason.

Luo Tian didn't directly give him any money and gave Tang Tang something to p.a.w.n for money in order to buy buns.

p.a.w.ning an item showed Xuan Yuanyi that Luo Tian didn't have any money. Since he was willing to p.a.w.n an item, it showed that Luo Tian was a good person, or at least was a good person amongst the humans. When the steaming hot buns were brought over, Xuan Yuanyi felt warmth from his actions. This was the first time Xuan Yuanyi felt warmth since he arrived at Heavenly Sword City.

This feeling gave him a sense of being a part of a family.

This happened to remind him of his hometown. At this moment, Xuan Yuanyi clenched his fists before eating even faster. Mouthful of meat buns were being swallowed down at a crazy rate while the corner of his eyes was slightly damp. He wasn't sure if he was touched by Luo Tian's actions or he missed his hometown.

Tang Tang was off to the side with a slight frown as if she was thinking of something.

After a while...

Her expression turned serious. She then stared at the rusted sword with some chains locked around the handle and softly said: "Giant Fault Divine Sword – the demon clan's divine weapon. A divine weapon ranked 9th in the profound weapon's chart. Could it be that..."

Her voice was very soft...

Because she didn't dare to continue speaking. Upon seeing Luo Tian's excited look, Tang Tang asked herself internally: "Could it be that this d.a.m.n scoundrel knew about it right from the start? The Giant Fault Divine Sword is something not many people know about, so how does he know?"

"This d.a.m.n scoundrel seems very mysterious!"

There aren't many people who know the existence of the Giant Fault Divine Sword and there's even less people that have seen it.

Because it's the demon clan's number one divine weapon.

Moreover, not many people in the demon clans know of its existence either. Giant Fault is capable of recognizing its master so if the master leaves, it will disappear along with them. Only when the next master shows up will Giant Fault appear in this world again.

No one in the demon clans knows its whereabouts.

Suddenly, a commotion arose in the crowd.

At a nearby store, the tray of buns the elderly couple made was flipped over, causing those two to start shaking in fear.

"You old b.a.s.t.a.r.ds, when are you guys going to pay this month's protection fees?"

"If you two don't pay up today, this daddy will dismantle your old bones right here!"

Two men in black robes shouted at the elderly couple while stomping down on the steam trays.

The elderly couple was shaking as they pulled out the silver that Tang Tang had given them earlier.

Before it was fully pulled out, one of the burly guys s.n.a.t.c.hed it over. His expression turned grim as he shouted "A hundred silver?!"

"F*ck!"

"You d.a.m.n old fogies; yesterday you said you didn't have any money! Since you don't have any money, where did this 100 silver come from?! Do you really think our Fierce Tiger Gang are vegetarians if we don't demonstrate our powers?!"

After saying that...

The burly guy slapped out his palm.

The elderly male was immediately struck and spat out a mouthful of blood, almost fainting from the severe pain.

"Something looks interesting up ahead."

"Enough bulls.h.i.tting with these old b.a.s.t.a.r.ds and let's go take a look."

The old man then crawled over and grabbed the burly guy with the money: "Great Lord, the protection fee is only 10 silver and you took 100 from me. Could you please give me back the change? My son is sick and needs that money for medicine."

"Humph!"

"You d.a.m.n old fogey; this 100 silver is the fee for my emotional loss from being lied to yesterday. As for your son being sick... what the h.e.l.l does that have to do with me?! You better remove your hands from this daddy or else this daddy will stomp you to death!" The burly guy angrily grunted.

The old woman grabbed the old man and said while crying: "Let go! Let go! If you don't let go, you could lose your life! Do you want to end up just like Shan'er who's been stuck lying on the bed all this time?!"

Their son was beaten to the point of being half paralyzed because of a dispute with the Fierce Tiger Gang.

The old man clenched his teeth. Upon thinking of his son, flames of anger appeared in his eyes but he still removed his hands.

If he was to be injured right now, what would happen to his wife and son?

"Scram aside!"

"Scram!"

"The Prince of the Fierce Tiger Gang has arrived! Quickly move aside! Move aside!"

Suddenly...

Six people in long black robes with a tiger emblem sewn on their chest area arrived.

The six of them had an extremely arrogant look on their faces.

The person in lead was called Wu Hu, and was the Fierce Tiger Gang's Prince.

Waving his fan and sauntering along, he had the complete look of a second generation profligate son. His face was filled with absolute arrogance as he swaggered before the crowd.

Seeing how there was a crowd of people gathered here, Wu Hu snapped closed his fan and shouted: "Let's go take a look and see who dares to make trouble in my territory!"

The crowd quickly dispersed.

They lowered their heads and didn't dare to look at Wu Hu while walking away.

This entire street was a territory of the Fierce Tiger Gang, and they were considered the overlord here.

The chaos in the northern city was pretty much out of control.

Nearly every street would be controlled by one gang or another. Apart from some main streets being peaceful, nearly all the side streets would have some type of warfare going on each day. People dying here was very normal, and the government didn't really care too much about it.

And this place...

Happens to be the best place for a foreigner to rise up and make a name for themselves.

The law of the jungle demonstrated itself the fullest here. As long as you were strong enough and had enough courage, you could take your share of the pie here. The northern city could even act as your springboard and launch you into the status of a noble aristocrat!

The force of the Fierce Tiger Gang in the northern city wasn't weak.

And they've enjoyed a stable position here for over two years.

When the crowd dispersed, only Luo Tian, Tang Tang, and Xuan Yuanyi was left.

What happened at the store selling buns was seen by the three of them.

Tang Tang was the angriest. She then shouted at Wu Hu: "How could you treat them like that?! They are elderly people! I want you to return the money to them and apologize!"

"Hahaha..."

"Hahaha... you want our Fierce Tiger Gang to apologize? Is your brain filled with s.h.i.t?"

Xuan Yuanyi had a cold expression as he asked Luo Tian: "Should I kill them all?"

Chapter 223 – The Terrifying Xuan Yuanyi

That sentence was said in a very casual tone.

"Should I kill them all?"

Calm.

There were no traces of emotion.

People couldn't even detect a bit of cold killing intent from it. It was similar to friends having a casual conversation with each other.

Luo Tian's mouth curved into a ferocious grin as he said: "It's up to you."

Xuan Yuanyi was a bit startled by that response and said: "You are currently my master and your words are my command. I can no longer do things according to my own free will. On the other hand, my sword is still free but I wish to remain together with it."

He had already sold himself.

Xuan Yuanyi was clear on what that meant.

The moment he ate the first meat bun, he belonged to Luo Tian.

Therefore...

He started calling Luo Tian – master.

Xuan Yuanyi had to ask Luo Tian anytime there was a decision to be made. In front of him was a bunch of despicable b.a.s.t.a.r.ds that he wanted to kill badly, but he had to first ask for Luo Tian's permission because this was considered respect to one's master.

Luo Tian looked at Xuan Yuanyi in a serious manner and replied: "I am not your master, I am your brother. Everything you want to do should be up to your own nature and personality."

"No!"

"You are my master!" insisted Xuan Yuanyi.

He was a very stubborn person. More accurately speaking, he was a very stubborn demon clan member.

In order to achieve his dreams, he had arrived at the Heavenly Sword City.

He had very very big dreams; he always strove forward and never wavered from adversity.

Luo Tian exhaled and chuckled a bit. He could tell there was no way he could change Xuan Yuanyi's thought process.

At this time...

Wu Hu and company had ugly expressions on their faces.

The reason was they clearly heard the conversation between Luo Tian and Xuan Yuanyi. It was like their group was completely ignored and was no different than pa.s.sing air.

This was considered a huge insult to Wu Hu.

Suddenly...

Wu Hu opened his fan with a "whack" and shouted: "This daddy doesn't care who you are and what kind of backgrounds you have! Today, this daddy will kill all you d.a.m.n b.u.m.pkins so don't even think of escaping!"

"Someone come over..."

"And kill these three for me!"

The five behind Wu Hu grunted before dashing forward.

Tang Tang hid behind Luo Tian and weakly said: "They are all bad people. Kill them, kill them all."

"What a d.a.m.n sissy!"

"Guys speaking like that really annoys this daddy!" Said one of the burly guys.

Because of the disguise, no one could tell Tang Tang was a girl.

Also at this time...

Xuan Yuanyi saw that Luo Tian stayed in place without moving an inch. His sword stabbed into the ground was the same as well, silent and motionless as if it had been there for tens of thousands of years.

Luo Tian faintly smiled and said: "Fine!"

"You can go ahead."

"But I have a small request: The six of them cannot die so just leave them on their last breath. Anything else you can do according to your own free will."

You want to kill people but you want me to leave them on their last breath?

Anyone would say Luo Tian's request was a bit strange.

But to Luo Tian, these people were all experience points and undefeated points. No matter how tiny a mosquito is, they still have some meat on them and he didn't want to waste that. Most importantly, the undefeated value cannot be wasted because he already had the Azure Dragon bloodline and only needed three more to go.

He still needed 6000 points in the undefeated value category.

Luo Tian couldn't let any dead person go!

Xuan Yuanyi replied: "I can do it!"

Immediately after...

He took a step out.

"Boom~!"

A loud explosive sound was heard deep inside the earth. Powerful energy rings rippled out from the ground beneath Xuan Yuanyi's grass shoes, and the street started shaking as if there was an earthquake in the area.

It was only a single step!

His strength made Luo Tian shocked beyond words.

Luo Tian smiled. He was smiling in a cheap matter as he said internally: "I've struck it rich! I've really struck the big one this time! Who would've imagined a tray of steamed meat buns would in return give me a treasure, and this treasure happens to be a fierce guy holding onto the Great Fault Divine Sword! Hahaha..."

Several more steps were taken and each step practically shook the whole northern city.

Those five members of the Fierce Tiger Gang looked at each other with expressions changing.

Wu Hu didn't care about this. This was his father's territory and he was considered a Prince of this stretch of land, the heaven above these mere mortals. No matter who it was, anyone that dares to mess with him shall die.

Wu Hu's brows scrunched up as he shouted: "Kill them for me!"

The fists of those five started moving directly at Xuan Yuanyi. The powerful energy on the surface of their fists showed how much power was contained within them.

All five of them were at the peak of the Profound Grandmaster realm.

Their strength was remarkably high!

Of course...

Their remarkable strength was based on comparing them to the common citizens here.

The moment they rushed forward, Xuan Yuanyi's right hand reached out.

"Ommm~... ommm~..."

"Bzzzt~ ... clang~...clang~..."

The Great Fault Sword started exploding out with the sounds of metals colliding with each other. The chain on the handle then started moving on its own and started making clanging sounds as well. The chain wasn't that long but it gave people an illusion that it was endless in length.

"Whoosh~!"

The Great Fault Sword suddenly disappeared.

The next second, it had appeared in Xuan Yuanyi's hand.

As his right hand moved, and the momentum on the sword's blade exploded out like a tsunami sweeping outwards.

"Whoosh~!"

A crack in s.p.a.ce appeared in the air, which was directly opened by Xuan Yuanyi moving the sword. Those actions were so simple that it looked like someone slicing a piece of paper apart.

Right after that...

The face on the five of them paled as they froze in place without moving.

Also at this moment...

Xuan Yuanyi's figure suddenly disappeared. The speed of his disappearance was similar to the speed of how the Great Fault Sword vanished. The next second, he was already in front of Wu Hu. His Giant Fault Sword that seem to be splitting s.p.a.ce apart was emitting a powerful aura that crushed him onto the ground.

"Boom~!"

Wu Hu's body was turned around and was forced into a kneeling position towards the elderly couple selling buns. His knees had smashed the tiles beneath it and his kneecaps gave off a "crack" sound before blood started flowing out.

Soon after...

Xuan Yuanyi slapped the back of Wu Hu's head.

His head was forced slamming into the ground like a kowtow!

"Bang~!"

Wu Hu's forehead cracked and blood started spilling out.

All of this happened in less than three seconds.

Fast!

And his movements were fluid like water! Everything was beautifully done in the time it took someone to take a breath.

That beautiful method of Xuan Yuanyi brought along a trace of the demon clan's typical boorish attitude. It was really enjoyable to watch a scene filled with complete arrogance!

Luo Tian started smiling again.

His smile made him look like an idiot as he started shouting internally: "I've struck it rich! This guy is practically a demon star!"

Suddenly...

Step by step, Luo Tian slowly walked forward with a smile. "You did a pretty good job and I'm very satisfied with it. Let me handle the rest of the things from here on."

Immediately after...

In a blink of an eye, Luo Tian's figure had punched out five times.

"Bang~, bang~, bang~..."

A faint sign of shock showed in Xuan Yuanyi's gaze.

Luo Tian's speed had exceeded his expectations.

The five from the Fierce Tiger Gang instantly toppled over and the system sounded off alert tones in Luo Tian's mind.

There weren't much experience points but his undefeated value went up by 5 points.

Luo Tian continued forward to Wu Hu's side. While looking at his wounded condition, he asked with a faint smile: "We village b.u.mpkins aren't too bad huh?"

While saying this...

Luo Tian started searching all over Wu Hu's body. Upon finding pouches of money, he threw them towards the elderly couple selling buns and said: "Old couple, quickly take this money and go home."

The elderly couple almost started kowtowing to Luo Tian! After taking the money, they quickly disappeared down a small alleyway.

Wu Hu turned to look at Luo Tian fiercely and shouted: "If you dare to touch a single hair on this daddy, this daddy will make you regret ever being born in this world!"

"I will make you regret it!"

A single punch then smashed down!

Chapter 224 – Another Big Wave Of Experience

Wu Hu's words were brusque and filled with hatred.

Luo Tian didn't hesitate at all as he smashed Wu Hu's head apart.

The system gave off an alert tone.

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing Wu Hu. You have gained 1000 experience points, 300 profound energy..."

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining +1 to your Undefeated Value."

No loot exploded out of his corpse.

Luo Tian didn't really care because even if something did come out of a small time character like Wu Hu, it would still be nothing more than trash.

Loots were unimportant because the only thing Luo Tian wanted was undefeated points right now.

For anyone that deserved death, Luo Tian wasn't going to let them off anymore. To him, they were all points to increase his undefeated value. In the future, he will attain all four divine beasts' bloodlines and then fuse them together. Then he will finally have the capital to completely steamroll over Murong Wanjian.

Tang Tang came over and looked at Wu Hu lying in a pool of blood. There was no fear on her face and she actually asked in confusion: "Xuan Yuanyi could clearly kill all these people himself. How come you won't let him do it and want to do it personally?"

Xuan Yuanyi also couldn't understand this.

He could beat down a hundred of these trashes alone, and could kill them very quickly as well.

As the master, there was no need for Luo Tian to make a move.

But Xuan Yuanyi didn't ask about this.

In the beginning, Xuan Yuanyi thought Luo Tian was testing his strength, but now he didn't think that was the case anymore.

Luo Tian smiled mysteriously and looked at Tang Tang. "Maybe I wish to give a good performance in front of you? The time will soon come when your Ninth brother's idol will beat me to the point of picking my teeth off the floor. If I help you vent your frustration on these gangsters, maybe you will tell him to soften his blows a bit...?"

Tang Tang started giggling.

Her smile was very stunning.

It was very beautiful. Even after disguising as a man, she still looked very beautiful.

Tang Tang said while laughing: "Hehehe, you d.a.m.n scoundrel... so you really are afraid of my Ninth brother's idol. En, not bad. This Miss will plead on your behalf in front of Ninth brother's idol, but you have to listen to my words here on out. Otherwise..."

Without waiting for her to finish, Luo Tian raised his palm.

Suddenly...

Tang Tang immediately zipped her mouth close and weakly said: "Big brother, I don't dare..."

Luo Tian smiled in a smug manner and then said: "I naturally have my own reasons for it. Xuan Yuanyi, whenever I'm around in the future, you must always leave people on their last breath for me to kill."

Xuan Yuanyi was considered a fierce big shot.

For him to kill these cultivators at the Profound Grandmaster realm was easier than cutting up cabbage.

Especially that Great Fault Divine Sword in his hands. If that sword swept out, most likely not even their s.h.i.t would be left behind, let alone undefeated points.

That's why...

Luo Tian gave him that command.

Xuan Yuanyi nodded and said: "Yes, master!"

Luo Tian was hiddenly annoyed as he said: "I am your brother so stop calling me master."

Xuan Yuanyi maintained his simple minded stubborn ways and replied: "Yes, master!"

His simple mindedness could be compared to Feng Lei's.

In regards to this, Luo Tian started thinking about Feng Lei. He then said to himself: "Fatty, where the h.e.l.l are you?"

Heavenly Sword City was more complicated than what Luo Tian imagined.

It was also more chaotic than imagined.

They had just killed six people out in public and no one intervened. Not a single person from the government showed up. Could it be that the Great Tang Dynasty didn't care about these matters?

In fact...

Luo Tian didn't know that the northern city was a territory that was similar to a no man's land.

As long as one didn't initiate any mass slaughters within the northern city, the government wouldn't bother with it. It has been like this for many years and it slowly became a hidden rule for everyone.

But...

None of the forces or gangs in the northern city would dare to ignore the government. In fact, they were very afraid of the government because it was nonetheless the Great Tang Dynasty. Any random expert in their ranks could make them never rise up ever again.

"Let's go!"

"Let's go look for some breakfast."

Luo Tian gave a shout and started walking towards a certain restaurant.

Tang Tang immediately followed and quickly asked: "Did you bring any money?"

"Huh?"

Luo Tian became embarrassed.

He was very wealthy; extremely wealthy. But the denominations of his currency were too big and became too troubling to use normally. And most people will just look at him and call him a fraudster. How could a guy that looks like a beggar have demon cores on him? And they were even attributed demon cores?

Suddenly...

Luo Tian ran back to those Fierce Tiger Gang members in black and started rummaging through their corpses. After finding five pouches of money that added up to over a hundred taels of silver, he started laughing: "Hahaha... this daddy has money now!"

Luo Tian sauntered over to a restaurant with Tang Tang and Xuan Yuanyi.

But...

Before Luo Tian could even enter, several waiters from the restaurant swiftly closed the door on them.

Luo Tian shouted: "d.a.m.n, you guys don't even want to earn money?!"

They changed to several other restaurants on the street but the outcome was exactly the same. When workers saw those three, it was as if they saw a walking plague and immediately closed their doors.

It wasn't just the restaurants...

People walking behind Luo Tian and company were whispering and pointing at them.

"The Prince of the Fierce Tiger Gang was killed by those three."

"They aren't even trying to run away? They really aren't afraid of dying since they dare to provoke the Fierce Tiger Gang."

"My guess is that those three won't be able to see tomorrow's sunrise."

"Tomorrow's sunrise? I'm afraid they won't be able to even see the midday sun."

Every time Luo Tian turned around, those pedestrians behind him would immediately shut their mouths and quickly scatter. It was as if they were afraid people would erroneously associate them with Luo Tian's group.

"I refuse to believe this."

"What's the big deal about this gang? This daddy refuses to believe that he can't eat when he has money!" Luo Tian shouted in an irritated manner.

Suddenly...

A voice was heard saying: "On this street, you really won't be able to eat anything even if you have money."

Luo Tian turned around to take a look and realized there was a fortune teller following behind. He was using a blind person's probing cane, there was a worn out flag in his other hand and he was carrying a rundown erhu.

On the flag were the words "Prophet Liu."

Luo Tian was a bit startled and asked: "Why can't we eat anything?"

Blindman Liu stopped and faintly smiled. He then asked: "Brother, do you want me to divine your fortune?"

Luo Tian replied in disdain: "My fate is controlled by me and not the heavens. Even if you make ten divinations for me, I can still change them all."

Blindman Liu's expression turned serious and his forehead showed a frown. The pupils in his blank looking eyes seem to widen as if he was trying to peer through Luo Tian. He then said: "What a good 'my fate is controlled by me and not the heavens.' If you don't die today, come back to this street in search for me and I will point you towards a great path."

After saying that...

Blindman Liu started tapping his cane and walking towards the end of the street. He then started humming a tune while saying: "My fate is controlled by me and not the heavens. A b.l.o.o.d.y ma.s.sacre shall make its appearance. Surviving will allow you to ascend the heavens, except you will be in the midst of slaughter. Don't kill, don't die, don't beg, and you shan't ascend to heaven."

Tang Tang started muttering: "Don't kill, don't die, don't beg, and you shan't ascend to heaven seems to mean something. And the beginning seems to be talking about you."

Luo Tian was too lazy to bother with the fortune teller and said to Tang Tang: "Don't listen to him; he's probably just a fraud. Let's continue looking for a place to eat."

The Giant Fault Sword on Xuan Yuanyi's shoulder suddenly descended at the low ready. There was a brief flash of light in his eyes as he faintly said: "I'm afraid we won't have time to find a place to eat."

Luo Tian also stopped.

His mouth formed a cold grin as he said: "It's another big wave of experience points."

Chapter 225 – This Is Going To Be A Ma.s.sacre

"The Fierce Tiger Gang is at work. Those not involved move the f*ck aside!"

"The Fierce Tiger Gang is at work. Those not involved move the f*ck aside!"

In less than a minute, the lively street filled with people was now completely empty. The stores along the side of the streets closed their doors in unison, and even their windows were closed as tightly as possible. Along the cracks and crevices of the doorways were multiple eyeb.a.l.l.s peering towards the street as if they were looking forward to seeing what was going to happen next.

They were all looking forward to one thing.

How Luo Tian and company were going to die.

Chopped to death by blades?

Shot to death by arrows?

Or was it like last time where someone was beaten to death before their corpse was stuffed into a sack and thrown into the river?

But...

This time was a bit different than the last incident; the matter today was just too serious.

The Prince of the Fierce Tiger Gang was killed and his corpse was still lying at the end of the street. He had died a miserable death. His knees were shattered, his head smashed into mush, and his death might be even more miserable than what the Fierce Tiger Gang has ever done themselves.

"The streets are clear!"

"The streets are clear!"

Several deep voices came from the area of the Fierce Tiger Gang members.

Luo Tian turned around to look and muttered: "Holy c.r.a.p! That speed is like out of this world! In a single moment, a lively street was turned into a completely dead street. It looks like gangs in this area have quite a powerful influence."

Shock.

He was indeed very shocked.

When they said to clear the streets, the streets were cleared almost instantly. And this was happening within an arm's reach of the Emperor.

He's actually allowing such forces to exist? Is this still a f*cking country that's governed by laws and regulations?

Tang Tang exhaled before explaining: "The northern city is the most chaotic part of the Heavenly Sword City. Gangs constantly cause chaos and fight each other. As long as they don't go to any extremes, the government will not interfere with their matters. But there is one important rule: The forces in the northern city aren't allowed to spread their influence into other districts or else their organization will be instantly uprooted."

Heavenly Sword City was separated into five major districts.

North, South, East, West, and the Center.

The center was where the imperial palace was, and it also happened to take up the most area. Living there were all the people of nobility, each having extremely prominent statuses. And this place wasn't a place where someone with money could live in. One must have a status – at least a grade 1 official.

The eastern district was considered a grade 2 area.

This place was made up of subdivisions of the continent's major sects, such as the Sea Cloud Sect etc.

Apart from these major sects, there were also some powerful clans such as the Violet organization.

The southern district was for the rich people.

The western district was considered the school district. Those major sects in Heavenly Sword City would setup some schools here and they were considered quite prestigious establishments.

And then there was the northern district, where people would usually call it the northern city.

This was a place where the rich disdained.

In their eyes, the northern city was the eyesore of Heavenly Sword City that was extremely shameful to mention.

Various gangs and forces committing multitudes of different crimes all mixed together. This place also had another name – the Underground District!

The people living here only believed in one thing – strength!

The strength of a gang or the strength of an individual. The stronger you were here, the higher your status would be! It was even possible for you to become a resident in the wealthy southern district!

Out of all the districts, the northern district was the most chaotic and also the weakest in power. The reason was that they were just made up of motley crews with no sense of discipline. No one saw them as equals. In the wealthy district, the residents there would call it a gathering of trash – basically the slums.

History showed that it has been at least a thousand years where the government hasn't bothered with the northern district.

As long as there weren't any large scale massacres, the government wouldn't intervene in their business.

That's why when Luo Tian killed six people; he didn't see any government officials investigate the crime.

Luo Tian was a bit stunned so he asked: "Since the government doesn't care, who's in control?"

Tang Tang rolled her eyes at him and replied: "Whoever is the strongest is the one in charge."

Luo Tian asked again: "Then who's the strongest here?"

Tang Tang was in thought for a while before saying: "I remember Ninth brother say it's someone called Madman Du. I think his cultivation level is at the Profound King 5th rank and is considered the northern city's king. As for whether that's true or not, I have no clue... but I do know who's the strongest on this street.

Luo Tian asked: "Who?"

"Him!"

Tang Tang pointed to a guy about fifty years old crouched next to Wu Hu's corpse before continuing:
"Him of course! The boss of the Fierce Tiger Gang."

"Oh...!"

"You're such a smart girl." Luo Tian smiled once before turning his attention towards a large crowd of minions wearing the black robes of the Fierce Tiger Gang. He then reminded in a soft voice: "Xuan Yuanyi, remember not to kill them. Leave them on their last breath so that I can kill them."

Xuan Yuanyi nodded foolishly and said: "En."

"Fu'er, Fu'er..." 1

"Where's the person that killed my son?!" Wu Xiao roared out. The veins on his forehead could be seen and the aura on his body exploded out directly forming a phantom image of a tiger. The tiger started roaring into the air causing the whole street to shake.

"Roar~!"

The green-eyed white tiger revealed its powers for all to see.

"Leader, it's those three over there."

"Kill them to avenge our Prince!"

"Kill them to avenge our Prince!"

Many minions started chanting loudly together. A fierce light flashed in their eyes before they coldly glared at Luo Tian and company.

Tang Tang then said in an irritated manner: "Mere common civilians dare to call themselves a Prince? They don't even know the immensity of the heavens or the earth. If the Palace Guards were here, they would definitely all lose their lives."

Luo Tian laughed and said: "If the Palace Guards were here, you'd be captured and then be attending an engagement ceremony with that Nangong Hao. Hahaha..."

"You d.a.m.n scoundrel, you..." Tang Tang fiercely glared at Luo Tian.

Luo Tian smiled happily in response. Upon seeing a bunch of Fierce Tiger Gang members rushing towards them, he reminded her: "Girl, you need to take care of yourself and don't get injured. I can't afford the consequences of your precious body being damaged. If your Ninth brother's idol finds out, I'll be pretty much screwed."

As his voice faded...

Luo Tian looked over at Xuan Yuanyi and said: "Go!"

Immediately after...

The two of them rushed forth with gloomy eyes containing killing intent.

This kind of scene reminded Luo Tian of the TV series of his previous life, The Bund. 2 Recalling those crazy fight scenes, his heart couldn't help start feeling excited. Once upon a time, he too fantasized himself as brother Xiao Ma that slaughtered his way through many territories!

"Clang~ ... clang~ ..."

The chain on the Great Fault sword started giving off sounds of metal colliding together.

A person and sword with their aura's as one was quite domineering.

Luo Tian sighed to himself and said: "What a fierce guy... he's definitely some top notch fierce guy."

Seeing Luo Tian and Xuan Yuanyi rushing over, the phantom tiger above Wu Xiao started roaring out again. He then angrily shouted: "Did you two little mongrels know who he was?!"

Luo Tian coldly smiled and replied: "I do, he was a little beast."

"You're courting death!"

"Even if the Emperor comes today, he wouldn't be able to save you guys!"

In an instant...

Wu Xiao angrily shouted: "Kill them for me! I want them to die a miserable death ten thousand times worse than Fu'er!"

"Kill!"

"Kill!"

"Kill!"

Their voices shook the skies and was heard several streets over.

Other gangs started running over and hiding in the corners to observe everything.

Luo Tian swept his eyes past the minions of the Fierce Tiger Gang and started counting. "One, two, three... eighteen... fifty-seven... awesome! There's at least a hundred undefeated points here!"

Immediately after...

Luo Tian's brows furrowed and the killing intent billowed out of his body. "Xuan Yuanyi, kill them for me!"

Chapter 226 – Crushed!

"The Fierce Tiger Gang is going to war!"

"The Fierce Tiger Gang is going to war!"

"Who dared to touch the Fierce Tiger Gang's street? It was Forefather Du that gifted them that street to take care of and no one has dared to move against it these past two years. Who on earth has the courage to go against Forefather Du? Do they not want to survive in the northern city anymore?"

"I have no clue. It seems like their opponent consists of three people and they somehow killed Tiger Wu's son. They don't seem to be people of the northern city and look like foreigners."

"A bunch of greenhorns?"

"Could it be that they want to step on Wu Xiao's old tiger head in order to rise up?"

"Then they're in way over their heads. Wu Xiao's cultivation is at the peak of the Profound Spirit 9th rank, and is considered one of the top experts in the northern city. Those three greenhorns are basically seeking their own deaths."

The matters of the Fierce Tiger Gang were spreading out super fast.

This piece of news basically exploded in the northern city in less than half an hour.

Many people were discussing this.

Many people ran over to watch.

But no one dared to directly step into the Fierce Tiger Gang's territory.

The reason was very simple: Forefather Du had given this street to Tiger Wu to take care of. Without his okay, no one would dare step foot onto it because Forefather Du was the King of the northern city!

None of the other forces dared to provoke him.

Moreover...

Apart from being at the Profound King realm, Forefather Du had relationships with many big bosses in the wealthy district.

He was at a position that no one dared to shake!

No one dared to touch his subordinates either, which was something everyone in the northern city was clear on.

Luo Tian and company appeared out of nowhere and suddenly killed Tiger Wu's son. This had already violated Forefather Du's bottom line, so even if Luo Tian and company wants to live, death is their only outcome.

Just as Blindman Liu divined, a b.l.o.o.d.y crisis will appear!

Luo Tian was never afraid of things getting out of hand.

He was only afraid that there would be no one left for him to kill!

After killing people, he would gain experience and undefeated points. To him, this was similar to people's desire of eating meat and drinking alcohol – it was a very enjoyable thing to experience.

When it came to gangs like the Fierce Tiger Gang, Luo Tian felt disgusted with their actions. They didn't even let an elderly couple selling buns on the street off, and would beat them up nonchalantly. Such a gang to Luo Tian was just a bunch of beasts and had no reason to continue existing in this world.

Since they were beasts, then there was no need for Luo Tian to show mercy!

Therefore...

Luo Tian's desire to slaughter had appeared.

"Kill!"

"Leave not a single one behind!"

Luo Tian's brows furrowed while he clenched his fists tightly. "Level 2 Magma Fire!"

"Boom~!"

"Boom~!"

His hands and legs turned into magma that gave off a blistering heat.

Xuan Yuanyi was a bit startled as he was stunned by the aura coming from Luo Tian. He felt like he gained a new understanding to Luo Tian's abilities.

There was only a slight change to Wu Xiao's gaze as he coldly smiled. "So it's just a Profound Spirit 9th ranker. This daddy is at the peak of Profound Spirit 9th rank, an invincible existence under the Profound King realm. A little kid like you should just go to h.e.l.l for me!"

Wu Xiao was extremely confident in his own strength.

The confidence he had came from him personally killing six other Profound Spirit 9th rankers in the past.

In his eyes, he was the king of all Profound Spirit 9th rankers, an invincible existence!

Luo Tian coldly laughed once before saying: "Bla bla bla your sister! Every d.a.m.n r.e.t.a.r.d tells this daddy that he's invincible under the Profound King realm. Invincible your sister! This daddy hasn't even mentioned that yet so what f*cking qualifications do you guys have to say you're invincible?!"

Immediately after...

Luo Tian said in an irritated manner: "Xuan Yuanyi, those minions will be left for you. I will go and slap that old thing to his death!"

Xuan Yuanyi nodded seriously. The Giant Fault Divine Sword in his hand started exuding its might. As the sword was waved through the air, multiple illusory phantom images of the sword appeared which created an oppressive pressure. If Luo Tian hadn't made him leave these people on their last breath, he would've used another sword skill.

"Apes Traversing To Heaven!"

"One sword splits a mountain!"

Two sword skills were simultaneously casted out. The weapons those minions were holding were directly shattered by the sword qi, clanging to the ground in small broken pieces. This clearly showed they weren't even on the same fighting level as Xuan Yuanyi!

Those minions were then being oppressed by the formless pressure until they were forced down in a bent position.

Only those that were in the Profound Spirit realm were able to barely withstand it. They all rushed forward with more zeal albeit having pale faces.

On Luo Tian's side.

Luo Tian didn't stop as he shouted: "Level 3 Shadewind Steps, Thousand Phantoms!"

"Raging Tiger Shatters the Heavens!"

Wu Xiao's fists started moving, and the green eyed white tiger condensed by his aura opened up its mouth and starting roaring. The energy ripples surrounding his fists exploded forth with extra power as it smashed towards the phantom image of Luo Tian.

"Playing these pony tricks in front of me? You're still too green!"

Luo Tian's Shadewind Steps was seen through by him!

Luo Tian's figure was locked down by Wu Xiao's fist.

The strength behind the fist was extremely powerful as it smashed over with might that was capable of shattering s.p.a.ce.

It was similar to an unstoppable force!

Luo Tian's mouth turned into a cold sneer as he said: "So what if you can see this daddy's actual body? I'm only here to get close to you and show you what an invincible existence under the Profound King realm really is."

"Level 3 Berserk!"

"Boom~!"

Eight times his base attributes exploded forth, and Luo Tian's aura drastically changed.

However...

Luo Tian didn't meet Wu Xiao's strike head on because he thought that it was meaningless. It was best to use the strongest power for absolute suppression when dealing with overly proud people like him. Luo Tian wanted to use a single slap to slap him to death. That'll teach him to act arrogant in front of him! That'll teach him for hopping around like a d.a.m.n clown!

"Eternal Kingdom!"

"Whoosh~..."

A dark colored spatial domain shot out from Luo Tian's body.

In a blink of an eye...

Wu Xiao was enshrouded by the Eternal Kingdom skill.

Suddenly...

Wu Xiao felt like the world had been somehow frozen. Time stopped, and the power surrounding his fists stopped as well. He then felt a burst of fear inside him growing while thinking: "How is this possible? How could this be happening? A martial skill containing spatial laws? Even those big sects don't have this! How could a country b.u.mpin cultivate such a powerful martial skill?"

Luo Tian coldly smirked and walked over. Upon seeing Wu Xiao's look of horror, he said in a gloomy manner: "Now do you know what an invincible existence under the Profound King realm is? This daddy is telling you that right now!"

As his voice faded...

The full power of level 3 Berserk condensed in Luo Tian's right arm before flowing to his palms. Luo Tian then fiercely slapped forth.

"Bang~!"

Wu Xiao was directly slapped to the ground. His head heavily struck the ground and completely destroyed the tiles of the floor into little tiny pieces.

Also at this moment, the Eternal Kingdom's skill timer was up.

Wu Xiao's face paled while clenching his jaws so hard that cracking sounds could be heard. He then angrily roared: "You little mongrel, this daddy will not spare..."

Before he could finish his sentence...

Luo Tian took advantage of the situation and struck out with a punch. His fist once again landed on Wu Xiao's face as he yelled: "So much arrogance! Try acting arrogant in front of this daddy again!"

"Bang~!"

Another punch smashed out!

Wu Xiao's face instantly resembled a pig's head. His cheeks were red and swollen, and he himself was quite an embarrassing sight to behold.

An invincible existence under the Profound King realm?

A sorry looking thing like him was invincible?

Luo Tian coldly smiled and said: "Invincible with your abilities? Invincible your sister! Go die for this daddy!"

"d.a.m.n dog b.a.s.t.a.r.d!"

"If you dare kill me, all eighteen generations of your family will accompany me in burial! I am Forefather Du's G.o.dson! If you kill me, my G.o.dfather will make your soul tremble with your miserable death!"
Wu Xiao maintained his arrogant tone.

In the northern city, Forefather Du was the King.

As for him, he was Forefather Du's G.o.dson, an existence that no one would dare kill.

Luo Tian didn't bother talking nonsense with him anymore. He directly stomped down and crushed Wu Xiao's head. "d.a.m.n it! Still f*cking acting arrogant in front of this daddy?!"

"Ding!"

Chapter 227 – Establishing A Gang, Flame Dragon

"What this daddy hates the most is someone acting arrogant in front of me."

"And you're about to die yet you're still acting so arrogant? Did your mother give birth to you with that courage?"

Luo Tian harrumphed twice before his fist fiercely smashed down.

A single punch to crush his head!

The system immediately gave an alert.

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing Wu Xiao. You have gained 6000 experience points, 2000 profound energy..."

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining a medium grade xuan stone and a 4 low grade xuan stones.

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining Tiger's Mystical Form skill. Will you be cultivating it?"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining a Fierce Tiger Decree. Will you be establishing your own gang?"

"Holy s.h.i.t!"

"A Fierce Tiger Decree?"

"Establishing a gang? What's going on? Could it really be some special item to establish one's own gang?" Luo Tian was a bit stunned. Once he opened up the system interface to look into it, he then mumbled: "It's actually real!"

Item: Fierce Tiger Decree

Description: This item is the token of the Fierce Tiger Gang and can be used to establish one's own gang. There is only one chance to modify it so please choose carefully.

Description 2: This item is considered a low grade item for establishing a gang. The maximum members you can have are 100 people.

Description 3: Taking over this token means one can seize the Fierce Tiger Gang's territory.

"Interesting... very interesting."

"I never imagined that I could only watch those gang bosses on television in my previous life, but now in this world, I can get to experience that here. Hahaha..." Luo Tian couldn't hold it in anymore and started laughing out loud.

Anyone trying to make a living in this world would want to rise up in the ranks of success.

All those gang movies in his previous life had caused many teenagers to worship that society.

But those were all just movies where actors acted for the viewers; it couldn't be taken for reality.

Who didn't want the dream of being the big boss of a gang? A bunch of subordinates; plenty of girls swarming around you; and a single call would summon hundreds of people carrying machetes to kill for you. These types of scenes had once played through Luo Tian's mind many many times.

Luo Tian's mouth turned into a smile as he muttered: "What kind of name should I give it?"

"Master..."

"Those people have been taken care of."

Xuan Yuanyi placed the Giant Fault Sword on his shoulder while looking at Luo Tian. He was staring with heated eyes as Luo Tian's status in his heart had risen to another level.

Spatial laws!

It was capable of instantly crushing Wu Xiao who was at the peak of the Profound Spirit 9th rank.

This master of his was not simple at all.

Luo Tian regained his senses had laughed: "Haha... I almost forgot about them."

Seeing those half-dead looking Fierce Tiger Gang members on the ground, Luo Tian said with a sneer: "You bunch of sc.u.mbags! Committing murder and all sorts of evils, today this daddy will send you all to h.e.l.l for your deeds."

"Myriad Thunder Roar!"

"Level 3!"

"Explode for me...!"

After shouting that out, storm clouds in the sky started accumulating. Countless lightning streaked through the stormy clouds before they started descending, destroying over a hundred Fierce Tiger Gang minions.

The system's alert tones were sounding off continuously.

"Ding!"

"Undeclared value +1."

"Undeclared value +1."

Luo Tian glanced at all those messages and said internally: "Awesome! If I could increase my undefeated points everyday like this, then it won't be long until I can fuse all four divine beast bloodlines together! Hahaha..."

Undeclared points!

The only thing that can be exchanged for the undefeated bloodlines.

Luo Tian could only count on killing people to gain them.

Every single person he kills would increase his undefeated value by a bit.

In this world where the law of the jungle was prevalent, a person's life was of little value. Killing people was a very easy task; a Profound Spirit 9th ranker killing people was even easier. But Luo Tian didn't wantonly kill innocents; those he killed all deserved their deaths.

He has never thought of himself as a good person.

But he was definitely not some bloodthirsty psychotic killer.

"Come, you two come over!" Luo Tian said loudly.

Xuan Yuanyi looked at Luo Tian.

Tang Tang who was off to a distance also looked at Luo Tian.

Their gazes were similar to each other; they both looked at Luo Tian like they were looking at a freak.

Xuan Yuanyi's heart beat had increased a bit as he asked himself: "What kind of person is he exactly? He's been exceeding my expectations time after time. He's so young yet has cultivated so many heaven-defying martial skills: He knows spatial laws; can instantly explode forth with greater power; has a martial skill that's capable of changing his hands and legs into magma; has a movement skill that turns him into the wind; and has a lightning skill that summons storm clouds filled with lightning strikes. The martial skills he cultivates are all over the place yet how did he manage to be so proficient in all of them?"

He couldn't figure it out.

The more he thought about it, the more puzzled he became.

In the Tianxuan Continent, martial skills reigned supreme.

A set of good martial skills was extremely rare, and a martial cultivator would struggle their whole lives in order to perfect it. But the martial skills that Luo Tian trained in were all extremely powerful. The most surprising thing was a typical person only trained in certain types of martial skills that were related to their expertise, whereas Luo Tian trained in all different types. And he was able to exhibit the martial skill's power to their utmost ability. This...

What the h.e.l.l is going on?

Xuan Yuanyi, a youth of the demon clan couldn't understand this.

Luo Tian had completely turned his understanding of martial skills upside down.

It was the same with Tang Tang.

Except she felt Luo Tian was becoming more and more mysterious and she couldn't figure him out.

Did this kid really come to Heavenly Sword City to look for his wife? He really wasn't here to participate in the battles of the Heaven or Earth rankings list?

This was too inconceivable!

"Why are you two in a daze?"

"Quickly come over, I've got some serious matters to discuss with you two." Luo Tian anxiously said.

Around this time...

Blindman Liu appeared out of nowhere.

He didn't make a single sound.

He was like a ghost that floated right up behind Luo Tian. He smiled revealing his yellow teeth and asked: "May I ask this hero if you're accepting people?"

Luo Tian jumped in shock. He turned around to look at Blindman Liu and shouted: "d.a.m.n.it! When the h.e.l.l did you get here? Can you not act like a ghost floating around in the middle of the day? You can scare someone to death like that!"

Blindman Liu wasn't bothered by those words and asked again: "May I ask this hero if you're accepting people?"

Luo Tian looked at Blindman Liu and asked in confusion: "Accepting what people?"

Blindman Liu started chuckling, showing his yellow teeth that looked like they hadn't been brushed in decades. He then excitedly said: "Tiger Wu has been beaten to death by you and the Fierce Tiger Gang has been annihilated. You are currently the boss of the Fierce Tiger Gang so... heh heh..."

Blindman Liu rubbed his hands together and revealed a wretched looking smile. "So, are you accepting people?"

This was the rule of the northern city.

Once a gang was annihilated, those that destroyed it would take over the territories.

Luo Tian was stunned, "Your speed is too d.a.m.n fast!"

At this time, Tang Tang and Xuan Yuanyi came over.

Luo Tian smiled and said: "You two came just in time. Since we don't have a place to stay in Heavenly Sword City and the northern city is a jumble of people from all walks of life, I feel like it's perfect for us. How about we stay here for now and figure out what to do in the future?"

"Yeah!"

"I have no problem with that." Tang Tang jumped in excitement.

Xuan Yuanyi replied: "I have no problem with it either."

Luo Tian faintly smiled and said: "I do have a question right now: I want to establish a gang here so what name do you guys think we should use?"

"Huh?"

"Establish a gang? Awesome! Bro, you are too fierce! This Miss has always dreamed of establishing a gang and then killing our way through all obstacles. Just thinking about it makes me super excited!" Tang Tang showed incomparable enthusiasm.

Xuan Yuanyi didn't say a thing because this wasn't a question he cared about.

Blindman Liu then offered: "How about calling it the Prophet Gang?"

Luo Tian completely ignored him and muttered: "A descendant of the Yellow Emperor is in a foreign world. A descendant of a dragon shall display their divine might – let's call it Flame Dragon Gang!"

Chapter 228 – Summoning Brothers To Kill Their Way Over

"Extra extra, read all about it!"

"Tiger Wu was beaten to death, and the Flame Dragon Gang was established!"

"Tiger Wu was beaten to death by a foreign b.u.mpkín! The Flame Dragon Gang is established under the eyelids of Forefather Du!"

"Forefather Du's G.o.dson was beaten to death by a b.u.mpkín from the countryside! Without the permission of Forefather Du, the Flame Dragon Gang was established..."

News were flying everywhere.

In less than a day, the entire northern city had heard about it.

On main roads and small alleyways, people were all discussing this in small tea shops to large restaurants.

"One look at those three greenhorns and you can tell they're bumpkins from the countryside. They actually dare to cause trouble in Forefather Du's territories... In less than three days, I bet there'll be three extra corpses in the moat."

"I'm surprised there are still people here that don't fear death. Even if you want to rise up the ranks, you need to take a good look at what place this is and what people run it. Wu Xiao was a grandson that Forefather Du favored so now that he was beaten to death, Forefather Du will definitely be pissed. If he ever gets angry, I'm afraid the north district will experience a magnitude 3 earthquake."

"We'll just sit back and watch how those three will die here on out."

"Hahaha... since the Fierce Tiger Gang was destroyed, I'm afraid Forefather Du won't even have time to make a move before those three are sent to hell. How many gangs have been eyeing the Fierce Tiger Gang's territories? Since they were destroyed, won't those gangs just take advantage of the muddy waters to rise up?"

There were various discussions and guesses among the common masses.

But all conclusions lead to the same outcome – Luo Tian and company were going to die!

Moreover...

Their deaths will be extremely miserable.

Inside Feng Lei's courtyard.

"Boss, I heard this morning that the Fierce Tiger Gang was destroyed by three foreign kids."

Feng Lei's body was covered in bandaged wounds. Last night he fought with Poison Dragon and suffered some injuries, but the Poison Dragon Gang had been destroyed by his group.

An Chunchun was off to the side playing with some goldfish inside a tank.

To the side of her was Ghost Dragon quietly guarding her. Except for its skeletal structure being larger than before, it was still expressionless like usual. Its two eyes that exuded a death aura also seemed to be stronger than before.

Feng Lei's brows tightened and said: "I wonder who is it that's so fierce? Could it be that they want to rise up the ranks in the north district before they participate in the Heaven and Earth ranking battles?"

"No way!"

"The north district only has a quota of five people, so we can't let them take it away!" Feng Lei growled.

No matter if it was the Heaven ranking battles or the Earth ranking battles, they both needed qualifications.

As for the north district, they were only given the small quota of five people!

This was their only springboard.

This was a springboard to establishing a greater force, and was the ideal opportunity to rise up amongst the rabble.

Feng Lei didn't want to miss the opportunity because this was the only way he could interact with people with higher statuses. Only then would he be able to get some news on An Chunchun's mother. These past eight months, Feng Lei had been investigating any sort of news about her but never heard anything back.

The only piece of news he got that maybe related to her was that in a month and a half, there would be an auction that was on an unprecedented level.

Rumor says...

The auction would have someone of the demon fox clan!

In order to attain this piece of news, Feng Lei had paid a big price for it.

Before reuniting with his boss, Feng Lei had to figure out where An Chunchun's mother was imprisoned at. He absolutely could not allow her to appear in the auction because only after reaching Heavenly Sword City did he find out how much money a mature demon fox woman would cost.

He didn't have enough money. Even if he earned a lifetime of money, it would still not be enough.

The only method was to rescue her before the auction begins!

"I heard the Green Leaf Sect, the Hungry Wolf Sect, and several large forces will be attending. I heard they were using this opportunity to swallow the Dragon Flame Gang and give Forefather Du a good performance. Perhaps they might even be qualified to participate in the Heaven rankings battle!"

Forefather Du is the person of the north district that controls the five quotas. Only if he nods his head will one be qualified to participate, otherwise you can only dream of taking a step out of the northern city!

Feng Lei's brows furrowed before saying: "This can't go on; we can't let them seize this opportunity ahead of us. We should go stir up some trouble as well since they can quit dreaming of taking credit in front of Forefather Du. If I was given another months' time, I would definitely be able to carve out a piece of land belonging to me. By that time, I will definitely be able to compete for one of those quotas."

This quota was specially prepared for Luo Tian.

Feng Lei had once said after leaving Jade Mountain City that he would take care of everything. The only thing his boss had to do was arrive at Heavenly Sword City!

"Summon our brothers; we're heading over to the Fierce Tiger Gang's headquarters!"

Northern city.

In a manor that was considered rather luxurious.

"Forefather; since Wu Xiao has died, don't you think we should express some type of action?"

A person was lying on a rocking chair, smoking a hookah and puffing up clouds. Behind him were two servants gently rocking the chair for him.

On the rocking chair...

Was a male that looked like he was just skin and bones.

The male's eyes were closed and his expression calm. After puffing out some smoke, he then said in a feminine voice: "There would naturally be people taking care of those three outsiders who don't know anything. If I even have to action on such a simple task, why should I bother supporting those pieces of trash?"

His voice was high pitched just like a woman's.

One could see this male had no adam's apple, no beard, and barely any hair on his body.

He should be a eunuch!

"Yes, yes, yes!"

The skinny looking man's eyes widened as he faintly said: "Over a hundred people in the Fierce Tiger Gang was killed so this should be considered a massacre right? Go notify Official Liu and see if he's going to take care of the situation or not."

"Understood, I'll take care of that right now."

The skinny looking man then said: "Those three b.u.mpkins easily annihilated the Fierce Tiger Gang, so it looks like those three really want to rise up in the northern city. Overconfident fools... Tell Kun to check it out. If the government officials can't handle it well, he can make a move himself."

"Understood."

"I'll take care of it right now!"

At the main gates of the Fierce Tiger Gang's headquarters stood four people.

Luo Tian looked at the messy courtyard. Many things were either broken or shattered, making the whole place look like it was in ruins.

Once Wu Xiao died, the rest of their members all scattered. All the valuable things in this place were taken by them and only the manor was left in this condition.

But...

This was still considered a place for them to live.

At least it was better than sleeping under the eaves of someone's roof like last night.

The important thing was...

The northern city was a chaotic place, so the palace guards, the Black Dragon Guards, and the killers motivated by the Sea Cloud Sect shouldn't be able to find them for a short period of time. Even if they did find them, this place was where fish and dragons all mingle together and wasn't an easy place to infiltrate. That's why Luo Tian decided to camp here for the time being.

They'll figure out their future after stabilizing their daily needs first.

Luo Tian had a little bit over a month to find the whereabouts of An Chunchun's mother.

Whether it be an auction or an under the table transaction, he must rescue her. This was all about the promise he made to An Chunchun and the prospective rewards for completing an S-rank quest. There's also that 10,000 points of favorability...

Luo Tian stepped past the entrance and said: "From today onwards, this will be our home."

"En!"

Tang Tang nodded excitedly. She had lived in the imperial palace for over a decade plus and had never experienced so much excitement like these past two days. Due to this reason, she planned on hanging around with Luo Tian for a few more days. She was thinking that with this kid around, there would always be excitement and surprises abound.

Xuan Yuanyi silently went about the courtyard and started cleaning up the place.

Luo Tian glanced at Blindman Liu and said: "Mr. Prophet, you wanted to join us right? I'll give you a chance – tidy up this place for me."

Blindman Liu was stunned. He then tapped the probing cane in his hand and said: "I'm a blind person..."

"Blind your sister!"

"Don't think this daddy can't see through it."

Blindman Liu was shocked as he lowered his eyes. He then smiled slyly: "I will go right away!"

"Despicable!"

"You can pretend to be anything yet you pretend to be blind?!"

Chapter 229 – Let Me Do It!

The few of them were busying themselves up until the evening hours, and managed to clean up the courtyard.

Luo Tian went into the kitchen.

The kitchen didn't have anything valuable except for some leftover ingredients, so he went and started up a fire.

In less than half an hour, five dishes and a soup was set upon the table.

It was unknown from where Blindman Liu found a jar of wine, but everyone received a full cup. Just when he was about to talk about some random topics...

Luo Tian stood up and said: "Come, let us drink to our new home."

The four of them stood up, clinked their cups and downed the wine.

The strong wine coursed down the throat and heated up his stomach. Luo Tian wasn't really use to it so his face started turning red. He then said happily: "Since we now have a shelter for us to stay at, we will consider it the headquarters of our Flame Dragon Gang."

Blindman Liu immediately chuckled and said: "You will be the head dragon and I'll be the second dragon."

Luo Tian rolled his eyes at him and said: "Why bother with the head dragon and second dragon titles? All those entering the Flame Dragon Gang are brothers, and there's no distinction of higher or lower statuses. Since you love being second so much, don't call yourself Blindman Liu from here on out. You will now be Liu Er." (Liu Two)

"No, no, no!"

"I'd rather continue be called Blindman Liu then." said Blindman Liu.

Tang Tang covered her mouth and started giggling.

She was very happy today; much happier than when she was in the imperial palace.

Xuan Yuanyi had his head lowered while eating. He was eating very quickly and fiercely like he hadn't eaten in a decade. Eating the delicious tasting dishes, there was a sense of admiration towards Luo Tian from the bottom of his heart.

Because...

A person that's capable of cultivating so many random martial skills to such high proficiency and is also able to cook up a great tasting dish; what kind of awesome existence is that?

Tang Tang was picking up some more food before saying happily: "You smelly scoundrel, who would've imagined you were so capable in the kitchen. It's even better than the dishes I eat at the imperial... Yellow Immortal Restaurant." 1

Immediately after...

Tang Tang looked at Blindman Liu wolfing down the food and said: "Blindman, didn't you say there was going to be a b.l.o.o.d.y crisis? Today is about to be over so where's that b.l.o.o.d.y crisis? Are you actually some type of fraudster? I'm never going to believe in fortune telling ever again."

Blindman Liu finished the mouthful of rice before revealing his yellow teeth with a smile. He then said: "Today isn't over yet. Don't you see there's a dark aura around his head? Something big will definitely happen tonight."

"s.h.i.t!"

"Blindman, do you believe that I will really make you blind?" Luo Tian continued: "Do you enjoy cursing me or something?"

Blindman Liu then said seriously: "You guys really think I'm trying to cheat you? If I really did lie to people, do you think that I, Prophet Liu would survive until now? I, Prophet Liu will never speak bulls.h.i.t. This was all calculated one step at a time according to my abilities, that's why I dare to give myself the t.i.tle of Prophet."

Luo Tian directly gave him the middle finger since he didn't believe his words.

At this time...

The manor's front entrance that was just fixed this afternoon collapsed!

"Bang~!"

"All the pieces of s.h.i.t from the Flame Dragon Gang better scam out here for this daddy!"

A large crowd of people were rushing over.

Everyone had ferocious expressions with killing intent while holding onto large machetes.

"d.a.m.n!"

"The daddy just fixed the door this afternoon! It hasn't even reached nighttime yet and it's already ruined!" Luo Tian's anger was rising up like crazy.

Smashing someone's entrance was a taboo!

It was similar to destroying someone's house.

This basically meant the offenders wanted the inhabitants to die.

Xuan Yuanyi put down his bowl and chopsticks. He then gently wiped his mouth before saying: "I'll do it!"

Blindman Liu started chuckling before saying: "I didn't say it wrong right? You guys look; this is just the first wave. There's going to be countless waves after this. There's only three of you and there's one that doesn't have any battle power. The b.l.o.o.d.y crisis cannot be averted..."

"I dare you to keep talking..."

"You guys you guys, aren't YOU someone of the Flame Dragon Gang too?"

"If something happens to us, you won't be able to escape either. This daddy should throw you out there first then!" Shouted Luo Tian.

Blindman Liu immediately lowered his head and didn't dare to say anything more.

Xuan Yuanyi instantly shot out and arrived at the main entrance.

A single person with a sword immediately forced those people back. He then coldly said: "I will give you guys one minute to fix the front door and then apologize by kowtowing. After doing all this, you guys can then scam away for me."

"Oh really?!"

"You're that dog thing that was selling your own body and your sword right?"

"You dare to speak to your daddy like that? Do you know who this daddy is?"

"I am the Vice Leader of the Green Leaf Sect, Qian Ba!"

Xuan Yuanyi didn't respond and didn't even glance at him. He was quietly counting: "18, 19, 20..."

"This daddy is talking to you! Do you not hear my words?!"

"Fellow brothers, beat him up for me!"

"Pretending to be cool in front of me? Who the h.e.l.l do you think you are?!" Qian Ba angrily shouted. He then waved his hand and over a dozen subordinates of his rushed forth with their machetes.

"50!"

"51!"

Xuan Yuanyi was still counting and not even looking at them.

"60!"

"One minute is up."

Xuan Yuanyi first glanced at Luo Tian in the main hall.

Luo Tian then loudly said: "Same old rules."

Xuan Yuanyi nodded: "Understood!"

Immediately after...

The chain on Great Fault started moving with ear grating clanging noises. The large and heavy sword was lowered to the ground as it exploded with an unstoppable sword aura. The aura then started fluctuating at the same rhythm as Xuan Yuanyi's body.

In an instant...

Xuan Yuanyi's aura enshrouded all the people in front of him. He then shouted: "Nether Sword!"

The sword qi on the blade formed a netherworld like ghost before rushing out.

Wherever the sword qi swept through, sounds of ghostly mourning made this place like a living h.e.l.l.

As the sword qi retreated...

A powerful sword intent then rushed straight towards Qian Ba whose face was pale and his whole body shaking.

Qian Ba had already lost all courage while his legs shook from fear. He never imagined this idiotic looking Xuan Yuanyi was capable of exploding forth with such power. The craziest thing of all was that large rusted sword of his exploded forth with a power they terrified the c.r.a.p out of everyone.

Within an instant...

A sharp arrow shot out!

"Dong~!"

The powerful sword intent was shaken by the arrow!

The arrow fell down and a figure moved. His lips revealed a cold smile as he said: "What a strong sword intent, but the strength is a bit weak. After injuring so many brothers of mine, you should go to h.e.l.l for me now!"

Luo Tian made a slight movement and then said: "Eh?"

"An elite monster?"

"Could he be the boss of the Green Leaf Sect?"

Wu Xiao was considered an elite monster since his body had traces of a golden glow. Upon killing him, his corpse exploded with a Fierce Tiger Gang decree and several xuan stones as loot.

Xuan Yuanyi's right hand started moving, and the Great Fault Sword started exuding a powerful sword aura. His face was expressionless but his power was silently condensing. The aura on his body started changing dramatically and the surrounding environment immediately developed an oppressive pressure.

Demon clan.

Their strength was extremely powerful.

Almost every demon clan member was innately born with super strength.

Being ridiculed by others for being weak made Xuan Yuanyi angry, but he didn't reveal this on his face.

It was unknown when...

Luo Tian appeared behind Xuan Yuanyi while patting his shoulder with an excited smile on his face. "Let me do it! Heh heh..."

Chapter 230 – d.a.m.n, One Wave After Another

Of course he couldn't miss out on an elite monster!

Xuan Yuanyi was very angry, but he still withdrew.

Luo Tian looked at the Sect Leader of the Green Leaf Sect and said with a smile: "The door to my manor has been smashed by your people, so how are you going to compensate me?"

"How do you want me to compensate?" Qian Hong asked while touching the bow strapped to his wrist. Several arrows were currently being aimed at Luo Tian's head. At such a close distance, most likely no one would be able to dodge it. Qian Hong then unconsciously displayed a cold smile on his face.

Luo Tian shrugged and said: "Smashing someone's door means they didn't want people inside to continue living. Since they didn't want us to live, then they should compensate with their own lives!"

"Compensate with their own lives?"

"Good, good, very good." Qian Hong had a smug smile on his face as he turned his wrist around. He then shouted: "Then this daddy will compensate you with your own life!"

"Storm Blossom!"

Qian Hong gave a throaty roar.

The arrows from his wrist-bow shot out like a storm; their white flashes were similar to the opening of the pear blossoms.

Luo Tian faced certain death at such a close range!

The moment over a dozen arrows shot out, Qian Hong showed an arrogant smile as he shouted: "A greenhorn with your capabilities dreams of rising up in the northern city? I really don't understand how Tiger Wu was killed by you!"

Luo Tian's brows tightened as he took several steps back. Seeing how over a dozen arrows had sealed off his escape routes, he coldly smiled. He then pointed at Qian Hong and said: "You don't understand? Then this daddy will show you how he died!"

Immediately after...

Luo Tian's brows quivered as he shouted: "Eternal Kingdom!"

"Ommm~!"

The force of spatial laws shot out from Luo Tian's body...

Instantly encasing Qian Hong within its sphere of influence.

Qian Hong's expression hiddenly changed. He could feel there was a slight change to the environment but couldn't really pinpoint what it was. He could only feel a slight uncomfortable feeling at the bottom of his heart.

Eternal Kingdom.

It was capable of restricting any martial cultivator at the same cultivation level or lower than Luo Tian's.

s.p.a.ce itself was omnipresent, that's why the martial cultivators not stronger than Luo Tian couldn't sense its existence nor break through it.

And within the s.p.a.ce of Eternal Kingdom, Luo Tian was the overlord!

Luo Tian made a thought and all the arrows in front of him stopped. Luo Tian then started picking off one arrow after another that was floating in midair. He looked at the dumbstruck Qian Hong and sneered: "Now you know why Tiger Wu died right?"

As his voice faded...

The Eternal Kingdom skill's timer was up.

Also at this instant, Luo Tian roared in his mind: "Level 3 Berserk!"

His figure shot out like lightning and his fists became palms. He then shouted: "Primordial Chaos Palm!"

"Bang~!"

"Bang~!"

The blood in Qian Hong's chest started boiling as his figure was smashed flying.

Around this time...

Luo Tian shouted once again: "Level 3 Shadewind Steps!"

"Fierce Tiger Form Fist!"

"Roar~!"

A green eyed white tiger appeared on his body. It was a huge tiger that was fully condensed by aura energy. Every time a punch was thrown, the roar of a tiger was heard. Without giving Qian Hong a chance to fall down to the ground, Luo Tian had already punched out over a dozen times.

"Bang~, bang~, bang~..."

"Puff~..."

A mouthful of blood sprayed out!

Qian Hong heavily smashed into the manor's wall. This was Luo Tian's beloved courtyard wall or else he would have used more strength and smashed Qian Hong straight through it.

"Boom~!"

Qian Hong's body slowly slid down the wall before he sat sprawling on the ground. His eyes stared at Luo Tian before muttering: "s.p.a.ce, s.p.a.ce, spatial laws... there's also the martial skill that Tiger Wu cultivated. You, you, who are you exactly?"

Qian Hong's face was pale without any strength left while his eyes were filled with fear.

How could a country bumpkin have such heaven defying martial skills?

And how did he comprehend the martial skills of Tiger Wu?

He couldn't understand what was going on!

It wasn't just him. Even Xuan Yuanyi off to the side was deep in thought while his brows showed a frown. Looking at Luo Tian's back, he realized he couldn't see through Luo Tian at all. He had exceeded Xuan Yuanyi's expectations time and time again.

What kind of person was he?

How many more powerful martial skills has Luo Tian not displayed yet?

How did he comprehend someone's martial skill in less than a day?

At this moment...

Xuan Yuanyi started to worship Luo Tian.

In the demon clans, Xuan Yuanyi had never worshipped anyone before.

He has never worshipped anyone after arriving at Heavenly Sword City either. Even if it was experts that have already surpassed his goal, Xuan Yuanyi didn't have feelings of worship towards them.

But...

From here on out, his heart had started worshipping Luo Tian!

"Perhaps..."

"He might be able to bring me to the peak!"

Suddenly...

These strange thoughts that appeared in Xuan Yuanyi's mind made him smile, and his mouth formed a very foolish looking smile. This was the first time he had ever smiled after leaving the demon clan territories, and it was very brilliant looking one at that.

As for Tang Tang...

She had been observing Luo Tian from the very start. Seeing how Luo Tian used a martial skill belonging to Tiger Wu, her expression hiddenly changed. She was muttering to herself: "What kind of man is he? How could... Tang Shisan1, you can't have fallen for that smelly scoundrel right?"

"Ptui~, how could I like that d.a.m.n scoundrel? I'm a woman that's going to marry Ninth brother's idol so why would I like a pervert that enjoys looking at my naked body? I can't wait to kill him already, humph!"

Tang Tang's heart was a bit fl.u.s.tered.

This type of fl.u.s.ter was something she couldn't understand. The only thing she knew was it was in a mess!

She didn't want to look at Luo Tian but her eyes couldn't leave his sight.

This girl... had probably developed feelings for someone!

She would never admit it even if she was beaten to death. Blindman Liu on the side started chuckling and said: "Miss Tang Tang, isn't our dragon head boss handsome?"

Tang Tang didn't even think properly and automatically replied: "Handsome!"

"Huh?"

"Handsome his a.s.s! He's basically a d.a.m.n scoundrel who's a huge pervert! He's a bad egg that constantly smacks my bottom, humph!" Tang Tang immediately corrected herself. Recalling the slight pain she felt when Luo Tian smacked her b.u.t.t, her heart unconsciously was looking forward to it. "It seems like I want to experience my b.u.t.t being smacked again or something..."

"Huh?!"

"Tang Tang, did you become a m.a.s.o.c.h.i.s.t?!" Tang Tang's started cursing at herself internally. It was similar to there being two people inside her heart: One was a good person while one was a bad person, and those two were in a heated dispute. Tang Tang huffed a few times before glaring at Luo Tian and saying: "Big bad egg!"

Blindman Liu was secretly smiling at this.

"Heh heh...!"

"Now you know how Tiger Wu died right?" Luo Tian walked forward one step at a time while chuckling at the dying Qian Hong.

Around this time...

Qian Ba, who had been hiding in a corner shaking all this time couldn't stand it anymore. He suddenly rushed out to escape.

Luo Tian's mouth formed a sneer before shouting: "You want to run away after smashing this daddy's door down? Xuan Yuanyi, drag him back here for me!"

Xuan Yuanyi eyes flicked over and the chain on the Great Fault Sword shot out. The chain extended and wrapped around Qian Ba's throat before forcefully retracting.

Qian Ba was struggling on the ground for a while before he was eventually kneeling before Luo Tian.

Luo Tian didn't say a word and smashed his fist down.

"Bang~!"

"Ding!"

Instakill!

The system gave an alert tone but Luo Tian didn't pay attention to the rest of the messages. He immediately turned around and shouted: "Myriad Thunder Roar!"

All the minions from the Green Leaf Sect were directly killed on the spot!

His undefeated value underwent a huge increase!

Finally, Luo Tian lowered himself before softly saying: "You're the only one left now so I wonder what kind of loot will explode out of you?"

Right at this time...

A side entrance door was smashed flying before a haughty voice was heard. "All the Flame Dragon Gang chop suey better scam out here for this daddy!"
