

Leveling Up 231

Chapter 231 – Brothers Reuniting

"What the f*ck?!"

"Are people addicted to smashing this daddy's entrances today?"

Luo Tian's anger was rising up like crazy.

His expression turned grim. He looked over and noticed a large wave of people rushing into his courtyard. Everyone had a ferocious expression on their faces that was supposed to cast fear onto the beholders, but Luo Tian felt it looked kind of funny.

"Hahaha..."

"Evil Wolf, you've come as well."

"Hahaha... Kid, you're definitely gonna die today!"

"Hahaha..."

Qian Hong started laughing smugly. Seeing this large group of people entering, he understood that Forefather Du had already silently made some decisions.

If this was the case...

No matter what, Luo Tian will have to die today.

Whoever Forefather Du wanted to die in the northern city, they wouldn't survive to the next day.

Evil Wolf Lei Jiu had killed countless people in his life. He was extremely ferocious and similar to a crazy wolf that would bite anyone he sees. No one has ever survived under his hands!

"Haha..."

"Sect Leader Qian, what are you doing down there? Were you bitten by a dog?" Lei Jiu strode over and ignored Luo Tian. Only after arriving beside Qian Hong did he coldly glance over at Luo Tian before saying with disdain: "You're the dog chop suey from the Flame Dragon Gang?"

Luo Tian scratched his head before standing up. Anger was rising in his heart as he looked at the pudgy face of Lei Jiu and said: "This daddy is too lazy to have you guys compensate my manor's door. You can all just go straight to h.e.l.l for me!"

His anger was on the rise!

Motherf*ckers; he couldn't even enjoy a peaceful dinner.

Those words of calling him dog chop suey had completely made Luo Tian's anger flare up.

And that something Forefather Du name – hearing that over and over again irritated the h.e.l.l out of Luo Tian.

Lei Jiu started laughing out loudly in an arrogant manner. "d.a.m.n dog thing, you killed Forefather Du's G.o.dson and you still want to live peacefully in the northern city? We just happen to arrive early... you should take a look behind us."

"The Hammer Gang has arrived!"

"The Killer Wasp Sect has arrived!"

"The b.l.o.o.d.y Knife Sect has arrived!"

In less than half a minute, the courtyard was crowded with people.

Each and every one of them was ferociously glaring at Luo Tian. If looks could kill, most likely Luo Tian would be riddled with holes already.

"Holy c.r.a.p!"

"This is too awesome!"

"A single arrow flare and an army immediately arrives." Luo Tian was a bit stunned and excited at the same time. Seeing all the people around him, he made a brief count and muttered: "d.a.m.n! There's a few hundred people here!"

"Everyone really thinks highly of my Flame Dragon Gang. I've just established it yet so many people have come to congratulate me. Good, good, very good!"

Luo Tian looked over at Xuan Yuanyi and said: "You go and protect Tang Tang and Blindman Liu. I will take care of the matters here."

Xuan Yuanyi hesitated for a second but then withdrew back to the house. He then stood at the entrance like the G.o.d of Death.

"You d.a.m.n dog thing, we came here for your life!"

"You want us to congratulate you with your qualifications? This daddy will go ahead and congratulate the whole eighteen generations of yours!"

"Killing Tiger Wu and offending Forefather Du, yet you still want to rise up in the northern city? A kid like you really knows how to fantasize!"

Everyone was making a comment and their tones were filled with ridicule.

It was as if Luo Tian was a fish on the cutting board and they were all holding a large machete in their hands. Each of them stared at Luo Tian with fierce expressions as if they were about to hack down at any given moment.

But...

The scenario was different in Luo Tian's eyes.

Seeing the large crowd of people, Luo Tian was extremely excited. Upon making some slight calculations, he then said to himself: "It's another big wave of experience, and a big wave of undefeated points! This daddy thought that it would be hard to level up after coming to the Heavenly Sword City because there wouldn't be any demonic beasts to kill. If I knew there were so many mobs here for me to kill, this daddy would've come here much earlier!"

"Oh?!"

"This dog chop suey is actually smiling."

"Fellow brothers! Forefather Du said that whoever manages to kill him, this street will belong to their gang!"

"Then what are we waiting for?"

"The lives of these dogs from the Flame Dragon Gang belong to the Evil Wolf Gang! Whoever dares to steal from us, don't blame me, Lei Jiu for turning hostile and not recognizing you!" Lei Jiu suddenly shouted while the fat on his face quivered in a menacing way.

"Lei Jiu, your Evil Wolf Gang is indeed powerful but our Horsehead Gang aren't pushovers either!"

"You want to devour this big piece of fatty meat all by yourself? Lei Jiu, do you think we all came here just to watch your show?"

"That's right!"

"Don't think that just because you have a bit of capabilities and some people here that you're all that. Why don't you take a look at how many people we have here? No matter how strong your Evil Wolf Gang is, do you think you can beat all of us here?"

For the time being, everyone was arguing over how to divide Luo Tian's head.

They were completely ignoring Luo Tian's existence.

Luo Tian was too lazy to bother with them as well. He walked over to a corner of the wall and lowered himself to look at the half dead Qian Hong. He then grinned: "Consider it as my gift since I allowed you to live for a few extra minutes longer. Now this daddy is very unhappy so you can go ahead and die. Just wait a bit and your fellow brothers will accompany you in the afterlife."

As his voice faded...

Luo Tian shouted internally: "Level 3 Berserk!"

The aura on his body drastically changed, and his sea of consciousness immediately released the killing intent of the grim reaper's path of slaughter. This killing intent completely enshrouded everyone in his courtyard. Luo Tian's brows tightened before directly cursing: "Motherf*ckers! You guys dared to act arrogant in this daddy's territory? Each and every one of you guys are guilty as charged, so everyone needs to die!"

After saying that...

His right leg rose up before stomping out fiercely.

Qian Hong's neck was directly stomped into two. Blood started spurting out and sprayed onto Luo Tian's face. Luo Tian's expression became even more ferocious looking, especially when he had that grim reaper like smile on his face.

The expression on all the people present turned grim. They were able to feel the oppressive pressure coming from Luo Tian's body and a large portion of them started revealing signs of pain.

The aura of death was slowly diffusing outwards.

Killing intent was flowing about in the surrounding area.

For the time being...

No one dared to continue speaking. Looking at Qian Hong against the wall with his head separated, and then looking at Luo Tian's face covered in blood, they could feel a sinking feeling in their hearts. A small seed of doubt had arisen in some of them where they felt like they had provoked someone they shouldn't have provoked.

Oppression!

Extremely powerful oppression!

Within this instant...

Lei Jiu suddenly roared into the sky: "Fellow brothers, everyone attack together! I refuse to believe he has such great capabilities that can go against all of us! If he really was that capable, he wouldn't be hanging around the northern city to begin with!"

"That's right!"

"He wants to overturn this district solely by himself?!"

"The northern city isn't a place he can come and go as he pleases. He needs to take a good look at whose place this is!"

"Fellow brothers, kill him!"

"The Flame Dragon Gang was established today but will also be abolished today!"

Inside the main hall.

Tang Tang's heart felt like it had risen up to her throat. She then mumbled: "Nothing's going to happen to him right?"

Xuan Yuanyi's expression secretly sank as he started getting worried as well. After all, there were simply too many people out there.

And there was no shortage of people at the Profound Spirit 7th and 8th ranks either. Can Luo Tian really do it alone?

The moment when the crowd started inching forward...

Another wave of people arrived at the manor's entrance.

"The Sect that has not come up with a good name yet has arrived!"

Suddenly...

A large baldy rushed through the crowd. On the back of his head was a blood red ferocious looking beast and behind him was a bunch of his little brothers. Seeing Luo Tian in the middle of the courtyard, his expression underwent a drastic change. He then excitedly shouted: "Boss!!!"

Chapter 232 – Two Large Warrior Attendants

The Sect that has not come up with a good name yet has arrived!

Everyone started laughing out loud when they heard this.

"Isn't that one of the recent rising stars – Blood Baldy?"

"Since you haven't even thought of your gang's name yet, you shouldn't bother coming here to join in the fun."

"Baldy, you should go back to where your kind belongs. A little shrimp like you wants a piece of the cake when you lack the capabilities?"

"Hahaha..."

Fatty Feng Lei...

Was standing there like an idiot. His eyes just stared at Luo Tian with tears glistening in them. He then smiled in a foolish manner and shouted: "Boss!"

The crowd was startled by this.

A subordinate beside Feng Lei advised him: "Boss, he's the dragon head of the Flame Dragon Gang. You shouldn't randomly scream out a t.i.tle like that."

Feng Lei turned around with a serious look. He then firmly said: "Give you greetings to the new boss!"

"New boss?"

"Who is it?"

"Boss, who are you talking about? Is it the Evil Wolf Gang's boss Lei?"

They didn't know who Feng Lei was talking about and just glanced at each other with a dumbstruck expression.

They would never have imagined that the so called boss from Feng Lei's mouth would be Luo Tian who was being surrounded by pretty much all the gangs in northern city.

The other gang members were also stunned by this.

"You d.a.m.n baldy! Saying you aren't qualified here and you run out and randomly recognize a new boss? Even if you call Lei Jiu boss, you can still forget about getting a piece of the new territory! Humph!"

"That's right."

"Why don't you take a good look at your cultivation? You think that by beating a third rate Poison Dragon Gang will let you rise up the ranks? You're over thinking things you d.a.m.n b.u.m.pkin!"

Lei Jiu faintly smiled as he was kind of interested in Feng Lei. As long as Feng Lei joined his Evil Wolf Gang, the powers he grasped would increase by a little. The success rate of contesting Tiger Wu's territories would also increase by a little. He then said with a smile: "Baldy, as long as you worship me as the boss, anyone that touches you today and I will play him to death! And bring in all your brothers into my Evil Wolf Gang and I'll give you the position of Third Leader. At that time, we brothers will fight together for our own piece of territory in this world, hahaha..."

He was laughing in a wildly arrogant manner.

The Evil Wolf Gang was considered a gang that was quite powerful in this area.

If Feng Lei joined his gang at this time, it would surely increase his influence over the northern city. The most important thing was it greatly satisfied his ego.

This was probably the reason he was most happy about.

Feng Lei's subordinates also became excited. If they could join the Evil Wolf Gang, the other gangs will no longer bully them out there.

Apart from Forefather Du and some major powers, who else would dare touch them in the northern city?

"Boss, the Evil Wolf Gang is truly not bad."

"Boss, no one will dare to bully us again once we join the Evil Wolf Gang."

"Boss, let's join! Lei Jiu is an expert at the Profound Spirit 9th rank, so Tiger Wu's territory will definitely be taken over by him. He might even become favored by Forefather Du after today, then we'll really have struck it rich! Hahaha..."

Some of Feng Lei's subordinates were excited while some maintained their silence.

Lei Jiu was a ruthless person who had murdered countless people. Everyone knew this in the northern city so that's why they maintained their silence. Another reason was that they were waiting for Feng Lei's actual decision.

"Hahaha..."

"Baldy, I like those little brothers of yours." Lei Jiu laughed happily. He then walked over to Feng Lei's side, waiting for Feng Lei to kneel down to greet him as the boss. He then said to himself: "Once you guys join the Evil Wolf Gang, I will have you all fight first since someone naturally has to be cannon fodder. I really didn't expect such a great thing to happen to me today, hahaha..."

Feng Lei was expressionless as he pointed to the subordinates of his that spoke out. "You, you, you... and you. From today onwards, the eleven of you are no longer my little brothers and can join any gang you want."

Those subordinates of his became dumbstruck.

They couldn't figure out why Feng Lei was angry.

Just when they wanted to ask, Feng Lei angrily shouted: "Who else wants to join the Evil Wolf Gang?!"

No one said a word.

Everyone looked at Feng Lei.

Feng Lei maintained his expressionless face before shouting: "Whoever still wants to follow me, Feng Lei to make a living, take one step forward!"

Feng Lei turned around and walked towards Luo Tian.

Behind him were twenty something people followed.

Lei Jiu's expression changed a bit as he said: "Baldy, what are you trying to do?"

"Did this baldy go nuts?"

"What the h.e.l.l is he doing?"

They were all confused and couldn't understand what that baldy was trying to do.

Once he arrived about two meters in front of Luo Tian, Feng Lei stopped and once again shouted: "Give your greetings to your new boss! He is our family's young master and also my boss! Now he is the Flame Dragon Gang's dragon head!"

"Waaah?!"

As Feng Lei said those words, the crowd erupted into a clamor.

Lei Jiu had a really ugly expression on his face. He originally thought that Feng Lei joining his Evil Wolf Gang in front of so many people would be a scene he could flaunt, but Feng Lei hadn't even looked at him the entire time and pretty much ignored him.

"He really has gone insane."

"No wonder! So there was someone he knew in the northern city. But is the baldy even a person of noteworthy?"

"Of course he is considered a person of noteworthy, especially when he's going to be a dead person soon. Hahaha..."

The crowd just looked at them with ridicule.

Because...

They didn't put Feng Lei in their eyes, and they definitely didn't consider Luo Tian a threat. To them, Feng Lei joining Luo Tian was just a few more corpses joining the other side.

The twenty something little brothers behind Feng Lei looked at each other a few times. Eventually, only thirteen of them knelt down and shouted: "Boss!"

The remaining ten didn't make any moves.

They were hesitating. When facing a siege of so many gangs of the northern city, they must clearly think things through. Once they knelt down, this could become a one way ticket straight to h.e.l.l.

Feng Lei didn't say anything and remained expressionless; he was waiting for their decision.

Eventually...

The remaining group took a small step back and one of them said: "Boss, we don't want to die so..."

Feng Lei faintly smiled and said: "Every person has the right to make their own choices. From today onwards, we have no relationships whatsoever so I hope you all will look out for yourselves. Next time we meet, we may still be friends. If we happen to be enemies, you guys don't have to hold back because I won't hold back either. You guys should go now!"

Those people didn't stay and quickly retreated out of the courtyard.

"Hahaha..."

"In the end, you guys only have this tiny amount of people left. What are you guys going to use to fight with us?"

"You're just a gathering of trash!"

The crowd took one step forward and tightened the encirclement around Luo Tian and company.

Their eyes showed their extreme aggression.

Even though Luo Tian previously exploded forth with a powerful killing intent that oppressed them, they still felt Luo Tian was a soon to be dead fish on the cutting board.

Luo Tian faintly smiled with a trace of excitement.

He was excited from seeing fatty.

He was excited from seeing that fatty wasn't missing any arms or legs.

Lastly, he was excited from seeing such a large wave of experience, profound energy, and undefeated points in front of him.

At this time...

Xuan Yuanyi came over and stood to the left of Luo Tian. He then looked at Feng Lei seriously for a bit before standing there like a block of wood without saying a thing.

Feng Lei then stood to the right of Luo Tian.

To Luo Tian's left and right were two large warriors – his Grim Reaper's warrior attendants!

Feng Lei grinned and asked: "Boss, are we attacking yet?"

"Kill!"

Chapter 233 – Prelude To A Massacre

“Boss, are we attacking?”

“Kill!”

“Heh heh...”

Feng Lei started chuckling excitedly.

Xuan Yuanyi on the left also had a curve to his mouth, and it was really a rare sight for him to show a smile.

In the eyes of those three, they weren't the ones being surrounded. It was Lei Jiu and the several hundred people around them that were being surrounded.

This was a difference of opinion!

"Are we making a move yet? I almost can't wait any longer." said Feng Lei as he rubbed his fists and palms.

Xuan Yuanyi looked over at Luo Tian seriously.

Luo Tian faintly smiled and said: "These thirteen fellow brothers; thank you for following me at a time like this. You guys can go off to the side and take a break since there's no need for you to take any actions here."

A scene like this and there wasn't any need for the subordinates to take action?

Then under what circumstances will the subordinates take action?

The people with Lei Jiu started laughing loudly again in ridicule.

"Greenhorns are truly greenhorns. They aren't even acting like a boss and letting their little brothers go off to the side to rest while they themselves go to the frontline. Hahaha..."

"What a nut job!"

"Not only is he a nut job, he's also a piece of trash that's too full of himself."

“Enough of the bullshit and quickly take them down. We can then have a good discussion on how to split Tiger Wu’s territory.”

“Right, right, hurry it up a bit! My wife has cooked soup tonight and is still waiting for me to go home.”

The fight was starting!

Tang Tang was standing at the main hall entrance filled with worry. After all, there were simply too many opponents where it came out to three against three hundred plus people.

Blindman Liu was off to the side and leisurely shouted out: “Dragon head, I will play the Ambush From All Directions song for you!”

Tang Tang angrily glared at Blindman Liu and said: “You damn blind guy, can’t you say some auspicious words instead? What ambush from all directions? If you’re going to play something, you should play Happy New Year!”

“Puff~!”

Blindman Liu almost sprayed out saliva before muttering: “Miss Tang Tang, I only know this one song. But don’t worry, so what if it’s an ambush from all directions? He has a Buddha’s warrior attendants to his left and right so all ambushes are futile!”

“Huh?” Tang Tang was a bit confused and couldn’t understand what Blindman Liu was saying. She looked over at Luo Tian and was about to shout out but then softly said: “Smelly scoundrel, you need to be careful.”

Luo Tian’s right hand was raised into the air before he snapped and said: “Blindman Liu, let the music begin!”

“I obey!”

Blindman Liu’s finger touched the strings while his other hand started pulling the bow.

In an instant...

The erhu exuded a thick amount of killing intent. The thick killing intent started dispersing through the surrounding as if someone was being ambushed by tens of thousands of soldiers.

“Damn!”

“Blindman Liu, you’re really capable! You can actually play such an awesome piece of music! This daddy likes it!” Luo Tian grinned. He then looked to the left and right and said: “You two; the same old rules!”

Feng Lei rubbed his nose and smiled foolishly: “Understood!”

Xuan Yuanyi didn’t respond. The Great Fault Sword on his shoulder suddenly moved and it looked like the sword was leading the person. His figure seemed to become the sword as it suddenly shot forth into the crowd.

“Damn it!”

“Kid, you’re cheating!” Feng Lei touched his bald head and the ferocious looking beast on his head started glowing bloody red. His body then shot out like a quick moving tank. Every step he took, the courtyard would shake from the impact.

Their powers were raging!

“Hahaha...”

“Here comes this daddy!”

The two of them were like wolves rushing into a pen of sheep with extremely excited expressions.

Xuan Yuanyi slashed with his sword.

Feng Lei punched out.

The two of them looked like they were competing. Neither of them was willing to be left behind or relax one bit. The control of their strength was exceptional as each strike of theirs wouldn't kill but leave their opponent in a half dead state for Luo Tian to reap.

Luo Tian started grinning.

Xuan Yuanyi's bravery with his sword and holder becoming one.

Feng Lei's boorish and bloody beast becoming one with his person.

Awesome!

The two of them were simply too awesome!

Luo Tian was internally ecstatic. The life of these two will definitely be rather colorful in the future. Being able to become brothers with these two was truly one of life's greatest pleasures. Luo Tian then started feeling blessed.

Brothers!

These are the brothers I've always wanted!

Tonight, I shall battle alongside my brothers!

Fighting for my brothers!

Luo Tian clenched his fists before shouting: "Level 3 Berserk!"

"Ommm~!"

Eight times the attributes exploded out, and the aura on his body rose up like intense flames.

Luo Tian faintly smiled before bending his fingers at Lei Jiu's direction. "You were just very arrogant then, right? Come, come over here. This daddy will show you what true arrogance is, and how some arrogance can lead to one's death!"

Lei Jiu's expression turned fierce as his anger rose to the sky. He then shouted: "Brothers of the Evil Wolf Gang, kill them for me!"

His shout rallied his men!

The members of the Evil Wolf Gang pulled out their weapons and started rushing forth.

"Brothers of the Hammer Gang, kill them for me!"

"Kill them for me!"

"Kill!"

At this moment, all the gangs had focused their strength on the battle.

Lei Jiu roared out sounding like the king of wolves and his body exploded out with an aura that belonged to a savage beast. His hands slammed into the ground before catapulting into the air just like a wolf pouncing over.

“Nine Wolves Howling to the Moon!”

“Ahwooo~, ahwooo~, ahwooo~...”

Lei Jiu’s body created nine illusory wolf shadows.

“Hahaha...”

“Boss Lei’s Nine Wolves Mystical Skill has been released.”

“Forefather Du said that whoever manages to get this kid’s head will take over this street, so don’t let Lei Jiu grab it first!”

“Wang Dachiu is coming!”

Several gang bosses started rushing forward.

Luo Tian looked up at the nine wolf shadows and said with a smile: “Merely nine little pugs.”

“You’re courting death!”

The nine wolves moved in unison; their claws possessing the power to rip space apart all rushed downwards.

Nine different directions.

Nine sources of power.

Every wolf was a real entity. This was Lei Jiu's martial skill that made him famous. It had been cultivated for several decades and over a hundred to a thousand people had died under it!

In his eyes, Luo Tian was about to meet his doom!

All the other bosses were all rushing forth releasing their most powerful martial skills. They were trying to prevent Lei Jiu from taking the lead since none of them wanted to fall behind.

Luo Tian gave a gloomy smile. He originally wanted to activate Eternal Kingdom but ultimately did not.

Instead...

"Magma Fire!"

"Level 3!"

"Entire body in flames!"

"Boom~!"

Luo Tian's whole body turned into molten lava exuding a searing aura. He then locked onto Lei Jiu's nine shadow wolves and shouted: "This daddy will show you what true arrogance is!"

"Shadewind Steps!"

"Level 3, Thousand Phantoms!"

"Whoosh~..."

Luo Tian's figure blurred and created a thousand phantom images of himself. All phantoms were fiery red and lit up the crowded courtyard. Even the sky above northern city seemed to be dyed red like a column of fire had rushed into the sky.

"Merely nine shadow figures."

"This daddy has a thousand of them!"

"Now die for me!"

"Great Flame Commandment!" (Dai Enkai)

One Piece's Portgas D. Ace's ability?

Nope.

Luo Tian created his own version and gave it the same name as Great Flame Commandment.

A thousand phantom images all burning with magma. They all then shot fire out towards a single point condensing the magma into an incomparably huge fireball. The fireball had completely lit up the entire northern city...!

This was powerful to a complete mess!

Chapter 234 – I Want To Become Famous

Luo Tian had always thought of himself as an imaginative youth.

Sometimes.

Sometimes it would be a dud.

And sometimes he would come up with some unconventional thought that would quickly propel him to into the godhood of awesomeness!

He was able to create his own version of Great Flame Commandment, which showed he was quite awesome this time.

According to Luo Tian's own words: "Since I'm so fierce – If I was a girl, I would definitely fall head over heels for myself."

Very narcissistic!

Very arrogant!

But he was that kind of person. When it was time to be arrogant, Luo Tian would do it to the extreme. When it was time to be ruthless, he would beat his opponent to the point that they couldn't retaliate. When it was time crush someone completely, he would take that to the furthest point possible. He was going to show them what true unbridled arrogance was!

"Braised Pugs!"

"I'll completely burn you f*ckers up!" Roared Luo Tian.

He then said in his mind: "I am so damn fierce!"

Under level 3 Berserk, eight times his attributes were activated with the addition of the level 3 Magma Fire. This directly created a huge fireball that seemed to have covered half the sky, eclipsing all nine of Lei Jiu's shadow wolves.

It was similar to the rising sun.

The fiery red color was extremely eye-catching and shocked the beholders to the core.

“Wow! Boss is truly the boss; he’s even more awesome than before!” Feng Lei smiled foolishly while looking up at the sky. His heart was incomparably excited for Luo Tian. He was even more excited than the time he broke through to the Profound Spirit realm!

“What other powerful abilities has he not displayed yet?” Xuan Yuanyi stared at the sky dumbstruck while the sense of worship in his heart increased to another level.

Shock.

Apart from being shocked, he couldn’t use any other words to describe his current feelings.

A flash of light passed through Tang Tang’s eyes as she muttered: “Not bad you smelly scoundrel, hee hee...”

Blindman Liu’s Ambush From All Directions came to a pause as he peeked outside. After a brief moment of silence, he mumbled: “Did I, Prophet Liu really divine it wrong?”

Immediately after...

He started playing his erhu again. Ambush From All Directions had reached the last section of the score. The plot twist appeared and the murderous intent revealed, and the killing intent was much stronger than the earlier sections of the music.

“Boss is mighty!”

“Boss is domineering!”

“This new boss is simply too awesome. I can no longer help myself from falling in love with him!”

The dozen or so little brothers standing off to the side showed an unconcealed intent of worship – this was worship towards a powerful person!

Wow!

Too awesome!

The flames then stopped converging in the air.

In an instant...

“Boom~...”

“Boom~...”

“Boom~...”

It looked like the air couldn't handle it anymore as signs of space being distorted could be seen by the naked eye. The earth started shaking sending tremors throughout the entire northern city. Lines of powerful energy burst out and made this scene a complete mess of craziness!

“Ahwooo~, Ahwooo~...”

The eight shadow wolves and a body fell down from the air in unison.

Their bodies were completely black just like pieces of charcoal.

The eight wolves had directly perished while the body showed an expression of extreme panic. His eyes bulged out like it had seen something incomparably terrifying. Seeing Luo Tian slowly descend to the ground, the body started shaking even more from fear.

Incomparable fear!

He had never felt such fear in his entire life. Even when facing Forefather Du, he had never been this afraid.

Luo Tian slowly walked over with a grin. "Now do you understand what true arrogance is?"

"Spare, spare, spare this dog's life of mine!"

"I, I, I Lei Jiu will immediately scam out of the north district and will not dare to step foot here ever again! Spare me, spare my life!" Lei Jiu's teeth were chattering and stuttered those words out. No one could tell his expression from his blackened face but everyone could tell he was scared out of his mind.

Luo Tian glanced at the eight wolf corpses before saying with a smile: "You've seen what true arrogance is, so now I will let you know the price for being arrogant in front of this daddy!"

"Spare your dog's life?"

"Humph!"

"Do you even think I would do that?"

Of course Luo Tian wouldn't.

A little bit of experience was still experience, and a little bit of profound energy was still energy. Luo Tian had become rather stingy towards this area now and would never pass up the opportunity for a bit of mosquito meat.

That's why he will never spare Lei Jiu.

A person like him who has murdered countless people should be sent to hell a little earlier.

Luo Tian's brows tightened before he swept his eyes across those other gang bosses. His right foot then stomped down heavily causing Lei Jiu's head to directly burst apart. He then showed them a gloomy grin and said: "The little pug has died so now it's your turn."

"Ding!"

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for killing Lei Jiu. You have gained 1000 experience points, 500 profound energy..."

"Congratulations to player Luo Tian for gaining a mid grade xuan stone."

"Ding!"

"Undeclared value +1."

The short series of alert tones came to a stop. Luo Tian faintly grinned as he looked at his Undeclared points before muttering: "I'm still pretty far from 2000 points, so it looks like I'll have to become more ruthless from now on."

Two thousand points of Undeclared value to exchange for one of the four divine beast's bloodline.

Luo Tian was still missing three of them!

Looking at Luo Tian's gaze that seemed to want to swallow them whole, everyone felt a shiver in their hearts. The crowd unconsciously took a step away from him.

The arrogant expression was gone from Luo Tian's face and was replaced by his brows locking together.

"Fatty!"

"Xuan Yuanyi! You two withdraw!"

"I'm going to release a special move!"

Luo Tian showed a fierce expression with a gloomy looking smile.

There were already a lot of people lying on the ground half dead. If he didn't reap their lives right now, they might go ahead and die any second.

These were all undefeated points to him so how could he waste them like that?

Xuan Yuanyi's expression changed slightly as he muttered: "There's a special move you haven't used yet?"

Feng Lei started smiling foolishly. The bloody glow around him receded as he took several large strides backwards. He then chuckled: "Boss, you are too awesome."

Tang Tang looked at Luo Tian with a silly expression. Her eyes never left Luo Tian's figure as she unconsciously said in her heart: "So handsome..."

Immediately after, another Tang Tang in her heart appeared and shouted: "Tang Tang! Are you swooning over a crush? You need to remember you are Princess Forever Peace, a genuine Princess! You can have as many handsome men as you want in this world. How can you be infatuated with a damn scoundrel like him?"

"Scram!"

The bad Tang Tang shouted as she crawled into existence. "He's not a scoundrel! Even if he's a scoundrel, he's the world's most handsome and coolest looking scoundrel, humph!"

Luo Tian took one step forward...

His left and right hands opened to the side of him as he slowly rose up into the air. Once he reached a certain height, he coldly smiled and said: "Level 3 Berserk."

"Ommm~!"

His body shook as power swelled out like an angry sea.

Incomparably powerful!

"Humph!"

"This daddy refuses to believe that you can take on all of us alone."

"Don't be scared everyone, Forefather Du will back us up! I refuse to believe a foreign bumpkin can climb over us and piss all over our heads. Fellow brothers, everyone attack together and kill him!"

"Kill!"

At this time...

No one held back anymore and released their most powerful abilities towards Luo Tian.

While in the air...

Luo Tian slowly gathered his strength before suddenly shouting: “Myriad Thunder Roar!”

“Level 4!”

“Innumerable Thunderbolts!”

“Bombard them all to hell for me!”

Luo Tian had been continuously training and leveling up his skills for several months inside the Ghostly Mountain Range. It was all because he wanted to become famous in Heavenly Sword City!

Chapter 235 – Causing A Big Uproar

After being in the Ghostly Mountain Range for several months, Luo Tian trained to the point of almost going insane.

A training regimen that had neither day nor night!

As long as it was a skill he had, he would train it nonstop.

Since what he had was plenty of were demon cores, profound energy was something he didn’t have to worry about. He trained like crazy until he started feeling sick of his own skills. This kind of feeling to him was extremely painful that words couldn’t even describe it, but he couldn’t afford to not continue training.

He had to become stronger.

The experience he got from the demonic beasts there couldn’t satisfy his needs of leveling up anymore. Luo Tian couldn’t waste his precious time so he could only activate his skills like crazy.

He was just like a mentally insane person.

Sometimes it would be Shadewind Steps, then it would switch to Primordial Chaos Palm. Then it would be Eternal Kingdom, then Magma Fire, then Pill Alchemy, then Healing Art, then Refining Gu, then Engraving Arrays...

He was training them all continuously!

He almost trained himself to the point of going nuts.

Although it was difficult to endure, Luo Tian never had the thought of stopping himself.

He had too much pressure.

Murong Wanjian's true dragon's blood – with his powerful strength, he was able to annihilate the gigantic existence known as Green Cloud Sect. He was also the future master of the Shattered Sky City, a dragon amongst the human race. He was most likely going to break through into the Profound Saint realm and become a Holy King existence of this generation.

All of this gave Luo Tian an invisible pressure.

The pressure was so much that at times he couldn't breathe properly!

In order to step on Murong Wanjian, Luo Tian had to become stronger. If he couldn't even protect the woman he loved, then he could only watch as she unwillingly marries another person. If this was the case, what qualifications does he have to be a real man?

What reason was there to continue living in this world?

In preparation for the marriage ceremony in two years time...

Luo Tian trained desperately with all his might.

His efforts were much more bitter than most cultivators because he was training with his life on the line!

Myriad Thunder Roar!

Level 4 – Innumerable Thunderbolts.

The power of lightning had increased by several times!

In an instant...

Luo Tian closed his eyes and the storm clouds above him started roiling turbulently around. Ear deafening sounds of thunder were constantly heard. Thunder and lightning was raging about and the surrounding atmosphere had turned extremely oppressive.

At this time...

Luo Tian's sea of consciousness suddenly moved. A powerful aura of death and the grim reaper's killing intent shot into the storm clouds. After faintly grinning, he said: "I will let you guys have a taste of my Lightning of Death!"

This was another one of his experimental fusions!

He had fused the Myriad Thunder Roar with his own concept of death – the grim reaper's path of slaughter.

Each streak of lightning contained the grim reaper's path of slaughter. This allowed the lightning to have its own killing intent which made its attack power increase by many levels.

“Descend for me!”

“Hong~... BOOM~!”

A deafening sound was heard in the sky as if it was about to crack apart.

A streak of lightning appeared in the storm clouds looking like it had come from the nine heavens above. It then struck down containing the power of absolute annihilation!

“Bang~!”

“Bang~!”

“Bang~!”

It didn't look like lightning anymore and had almost turned into a laser beam!

The shockwave was similar to the impact of a missile, creating a scene that was just too shocking to describe.

The Great Flame Commandment had shaken the entire northern city.

Now the grim reaper's path of slaughter added to the Innumerable Thunderbolt had shaken the entire Heavenly Sword City!

Countless experts shot into the air to investigate this.

They were all shocked from such a powerful energy, and shocked that this ability came from a cultivator who was only at the Profound Spirit 9th rank.

Within the courtyard...

Not many people survived the lightning field. The only exceptions were the so called gang bosses with their Profound Spirit cultivation who managed to dodge this crisis. They escaped the lightning field and watched a beam of light that reached the sky. They were scared stiff and couldn't understand how this could be happening.

Their mouths only mumbled: "Madman... he's a complete madman."

Liu Tingyu – the northern city's highest standing government official.

He had already received Madman Du's letter early on.

He was a bit irritated. An old eunuch dared to instruct him on what to do?

But...

He didn't dare to not do a thing, and sent several constables over to the scene.

The moment he saw the fiery beam of light above the north district, his heart immediately quivered. He immediately kicked the woman in his embrace away, put on his clothes, and quickly grabbed the rest of the constables to rush towards the light column.

Halfway there, he noticed the light column had disappeared and was replaced with a terrifying streak of lightning.

Liu Tingyu's heart sank into the abyss as he muttered: "Finished. This time I'm truly finished. Who the f*ck is so arrogant in the north district? Since you're not letting this daddy have a good life, you guys can forget about having good days yourself."

Anger!

Extreme anger!

There would usually be a limit when the gangs fought and killed so he was too lazy to bother with them.

But now they made such a big mess and even the entire Heavenly Sword City stirred up, so how can he let it go anymore?

Not to mention the imperial palace...

All the strongest experts from the east, south, and west districts had taken notice on what was going on in the north district. The north district had instantly become famous while he, Liu Tingyu will suffer miserably for it.

The Du Manor.

Originally asleep on the rocking chair...

But instantly flipped out of the chair. The male coldly harrumphed: "What's going on?"

A person came out from the shadows and said with his head lowered: "The strength of those that killed Wu Xiao has exceeded our expectations. Green Leaf Sect's Qian Hong, Evil Wolf Gang's Lei Jiu and others have all died. And... those outsiders seemed to have everything pre-planned because they have people inside the northern city. It's exactly that newly emerged star Blood Baldy."

"What?" Madman Du exclaimed coldly.

The dark shadow continued saying: "Blood Baldy has joined the Flame Dragon Gang and those two seem to be familiar with each other. I sent someone to investigate this and it looks like those two both came from Jade Mountain City. They're as close as biological brothers and the baldy is that guy's servant."

"Humph!"

"Secretly developing strength in MY territory?"

"They're courting death!"

Madman Du's small eyes narrowed. He then revealed an evil smile before saying: "I heard that there's a girl at Blood Baldy's home who is quite the little seductress. Capture her and bring her here!"

"I obey!"

"Master, do I need to send more people over to the Fierce Tiger Gang headquarters? I'm afraid Kun won't be able to handle it alone."

Madman Du widened his eyes and replied: "No need. After causing such an uproar, Liu Tingyu would definitely be antsy and will send people over to suppress them. If they can't handle it, Kun's assistance with his early Profound King cultivation should be enough to deal with a bumpkin at the Profound Spirit 9th rank."

"Understood."

"I will immediately send some people over to capture the little girl."

In Luo Tian's manor.

The bright beam of lightning turned the courtyard into a complete mess.

Not a single blade of grass survived. Everything was burnt black with smoldering heat rising into the atmosphere.

Luo Tian coldly grinned. The system alerts continuously sounded off like a symphony of music, making him feel extremely great. Eight months of bitter training was worth it – the power behind Innumerable Thunderbolts had greatly exceeded his expectations.

“So mighty!”

“So motherf*cking mighty!”

“This boss is out of control!”

Fatty’s face looked like it was blooming flowers. “Hahaha... hahaha...”

There was nothing but a sense of worship in Xuan Yuanyi’s gaze.

Tang Tang leaned against the door frame with an infatuated expression. She then mumbled: “He’s really handsome... really really handsome...”

Blindman Liu lowered his head and muttered to himself: “That doesn’t make sense; could it be that I really calculated wrongly?”

“Flame Dragon Gang!”

“Flame Dragon Gang!”

“Flame Dragon Gang!”

Their shouts shook the sky!

It was awesome to a complete mess!

Also at this time, a large group of people rushed in from the main entrance – people from the government!

Chapter 236 – Let Me Take Care Of Them

Another big wave of people rushed into the courtyard.

There was pretty much nothing left of the door after being trampled by them.

Luo Tian's heart ached as he said: "Those bastards, this daddy's door is a goner..."

"Humph!"

"It's pure bad luck for that kid now."

"Lord Liu Tingyu has arrived. So what if the Flame Dragon Gang is powerful? Do they dare to go against the government?"

"Liu Tingyu was definitely sent here by Forefather Du. This means the members of the Flame Dragon Gang will definitely die here, hahaha..."

Those that survived the crisis started mouthing off in an arrogant tone.

To them...

No matter what has happened today, Luo Tian will have to die!

They were very clear on the relationship between Liu Tingyu and Madman Du.

Within the northern city, Madman Du was the big boss behind all the gangs while Liu Tingyu was the highest government official. It would be a huge matter if either of them made an appearance personally, and looking at the current circumstances, Liu Tingyu will definitely be pissed about this.

After all, this was his territory.

Causing such a huge matter in his territory? If he didn't settle this issue quickly and those above him found out, he can forget about staying as the top brass in the northern city.

Two columns of constables rushed into the courtyard and quickly surrounded everyone inside.

Liu Tingyu started scolding from a distance: "Did shit enter all your brains? Creating such a huge disturbance in this daddy's territory, you guys must be tired of living!"

Those words sounded like it came from someone uncultured.

And the structure of the sentences was incomparably crude.

There was absolutely no style of what a government official was supposed to be like.

Of course...

This was the northern city and no one would care about one's demeanor. And Liu Tingyu happened to become like this after running the northern city. Back then, he too was a cultured scholarly person but now had become something resembling a bandit.

Wearing the uniform of a government official, he stepped into the courtyard and swept his angry looking eyes past everyone. When he couldn't find any traces of Madman Du, he immediately shouted: "Everyone present will be all brought back to the magistrate's office. Anyone that doesn't comply will be beaten to death!"

"Motherf*ckers, if you don't allow this daddy to have good days ahead, do you think this daddy will let you guys have it easy?"

He had to handle this incident properly.

If he makes any mistakes in handling this, there will definitely be criticism from all over. The ruckus today was simply too big. If he didn't do a good job on this, those above might send people to investigate. By that time, not to mention the chance of losing his uniform, his head might even be lost.

One of the constables narrowed his eyes and shouted: "Everyone better behave properly. If you dare to make a move, we will instantly take your dog lives!"

Their cultivation levels weren't very high.

Some of them were still in the Profound Master realm, and anyone present had cultivations much higher than theirs.

But...

Facing their angry shouts, no one dared to make any senseless moves.

They were all acting like docile little sheep and doing whatever the constables were saying, which may make some people wonder why.

The underground forces fearing the government was very normal.

But was there a need to be scared to this point?

“Lord Liu, I am Wang Dachui from the Hammer Gang. I give Forefather Du 10,000 silver every month.”

“Lord Liu, I do too, I do too.”

“Lord Liu...”

All these gangs had to pay their protection fees on time every month, and the money would be split amongst Forefather Du and Liu Tingyu 6:4. Out of the 10,000 silver, Liu Tingyu would gain 4000 silver. Northern city had several dozens of large and small gangs so every month; he could gain over 100,000 silver.

Northern city was poor, but those in official positions would be so fat from the wealth that oil could be squeezed out of them.

And all the large and small forces were afraid of the government officials.

They didn't dare to provoke any officials, even if they were the lowest ranking constable.

There were simply too many experts within the Great Tang Dynasty. Those daring to touch a government official can quit dreaming of making a living in Heavenly Sword City.

This was the reason they all became docile little sheeps in front of Liu Tingyu.

Liu Tingyu signaled several constables with his eyes.

Those constables took the hint.

Wang Dachui immediately ran out and pointed at Luo Tian: “Lord Liu, it's him that killed Wu Xiao and over a hundred people from the Fierce Tiger Gang. He also killed over several hundred people just now. It's this bumpkin that doesn't know the rules that created such a huge ruckus, while we are the ones that would never dare to cause such a huge matter under your jurisdiction.”

“That’s right! It’s this dog thing that doesn’t know the immensity of the heavens or the earth.”

“Green Leaf Sect, Evil Wolf Gang and several other gangs have been eradicated by him. This was basically a massacre! There was over a few hundred people he killed today alone. Lord Liu, this type of person is definitely someone that can be sentenced to death right now.”

Several people started adding oil to the fire.

Liu Tingyu’s brows scrunched up fiercely while flames of rage seem to flare out from his eyes. He then glared at Luo Tian and said: “So the kid that doesn’t want me to have a good life is you huh?”

Luo Tian faintly smiled and said: “It was them that didn’t want me to live a good life. They broke down my door and didn’t even give me a chance to finish my dinner!”

“Such audacity!”

“Why isn’t a lowly citizen like you kneeling before the Lord?”

Two constables stepped forth and was about to strike their poles onto Luo Tian’s head.

Feng Lei and Xuan Yuanyi’s expression quickly changed as they both rushed forth.

Luo Tian’s right hand gently waved in the air, and an energy ripple directly blocked the poles above his head.

“Bang~!”

“Dong~, dong~, crack~”

Those two long poles broke into four pieces.

Luo Tian glanced to the side at those two constables and said with a cold smile: "If you dare try that again, this daddy will directly kill you guys!"

Right after that...

Luo Tian then revealed a cold looking disdainful expression and said: "You guys want to make a living like this? Establishing a gang? Establish your sister! You guys are so scared of the government that you look like damn pathetic dogs! You f*ckers have lost all face for the gangs of this world; your face has been lost all the way to the Pacific Ocean!"

He really looked down on them all.

What meaning is there if they are so scared while trying to make a living in the underworld society?

And they were giving monthly offerings to the government? Was that even still making a living in the underworld society? It was no different than a pile of dog shit!

"Presumptuous!"

Liu Tingyu then said with an angry expression: "The crime of murder, the crime of bribing government officials, the crime of rape, the crime of abduction, trafficking children, and last night a mother pig was stolen in the northern city, all those will be charged against you."

"You can deny it..."

"But what this official has is time, so I will have you eventually admit to every single crime."

Luo Tian became stunned from hearing this.

Motherf*cker...

Luo Tian then faintly smiled: “You merely want to play me to death so why are you finding so many excuses? If you have the guts, directly kill me now. If you aren’t able to kill this daddy, this daddy will f*ck up all eighteen generations of your ancestors.”

“F*ck man, my anger is blazing right now.”

How can government officials be like this?!

If Liu Tingyu dares to move against him, Luo Tian will directly send him straight to hell with a slap.

These kinds of dog officials have no need to continue existing in this world.

Liu Tingyu’s expression changed again as he was getting really pissed off. He was worried those above him would blame him for this mess and now he was being criticized by a country bumpkin. He was so annoyed that he angrily shouted: “Kid, today you will definitely die here!”

“Seize him for me!”

“If anyone in the Flame Dragon Gang dares to resist – kill without mercy!”

The constables all rushed over and aimed their poles at Luo Tian.

At this moment...

Tang Tang happily ran over and giggled to Luo Tian: “You guys must be tired from all that fighting so just hand these guys to me. I will take care of them really quickly so you all can take a rest off to the side.”

Her expression was extremely happy as she muttered internally: “It’s finally for this Miss to make an appearance, hahaha...”

Chapter 237 – Buried To Our Graves Because Of You

Tang Tang was very smug.

An expression filled with joking playfulness.

There was a smile on her face as she skipped forward. She then said with a giggle: “Go ahead and take a rest, I will take care of everything here now. This Miss is an existence akin to a grand finale so it should be time for me to make an appearance.”

The crowd was puzzled by this.

Luo Tian momentarily couldn't figure out what Tang Tang was planning on doing.

The others looked at her like they were staring at pretty boy who sprouted an extra head.

Let him do it?

Did the door fall on his head previously? Or was he bitten by a dog when he was young?

He's making an appearance to ease the atmosphere right?

Swords were drawn and a battle was imminent, yet let him take care of this?

What the hell is going on?

Everyone's mind was filled with confusion.

Feng Lei then asked softly: “Boss, who is this kid? Why are you looking at him with such a strange gaze? Is he your new little brother? Is he as fierce as this guy over here?”

This guy over here was obviously directed at Xuan Yuanyi.

Xuan Yuanyi then asked in confusion: “Master, can he do it?”

“Master?”

“Boss, why is this guy calling you master?” A light bulb went off in Feng Lei’s head before he said with a chuckle: “Brother, boss doesn’t like others calling him master. If you are willing to follow him, you can call him boss just like me.”

The first time he saw Xuan Yuanyi, Feng Lei felt a sense of closeness towards him.

It was the same for Xuan Yuanyi.

This was a very intriguing feeling. When he saw the tattoo on the back of Feng Lei’s head glow red, he felt like he had seen this image someplace before. It looked very familiar but he couldn’t quite figure out where.

But Xuan Yuanyi was sure that he saw the image within the territories of the demon clans.

Who was this baldy? The aura coming from his body was very similar to a beast, and every time he looked at Feng Lei, there was a feeling in his heart that made him want to kneel down and worship him. It was as if Feng Lei’s body housed a Primeval Lord of the demon clans.

Xuan Yuanyi softly spat out a single word: “Fine!”

“Hahaha...”

“Good brother!” Fatty wrapped his arm around Xuan Yuanyi’s shoulder like they were very close with each other.

Afterwards...

Feng Lei then asked: “Is this kid more powerful than you?”

Xuan Yuanyi shook his head and said: “I have never seen him make a move since he has always been hiding in the back. Master... I mean boss should be the most clear on this.”

“It can’t be another super fierce guy right?”

“He doesn’t look very strong from his stature.” whispered Feng Lei.

Luo Tian glared at Tang Tang and said: “There’s nothing for you to do here so quickly withdraw.”

Tang Tang didn’t move back and actually became happier as she said: “Don’t worry! With me here, none of them will dare to make a move against you. If they dare mess with you, this Mis... young master will make every one of them run away while begging for their lives.”

There was a slight feeling of bliss inside Tang Tang’s heart when Luo Tian looked concerned for her safety.

There was a somewhat sweet feeling to it.

The more critical the situation, the important it would feel if she made a move. This was the type of feeling that Tang Tang enjoyed having.

Moreover...

She was very clear on one thing:

The consequences of killing government officials inside Heavenly Sword City.

Unknowingly, she had started to consider Luo Tian's well-being.

Suddenly...

Luo Tian realized what Tang Tang wanted to do and his expression underwent a drastic change. Just as he was about to stop her, Tang Tang had already pulled out a small jade plate.

As the jade plate appeared, Tang Tang's expression immediately changed. Her body seemed to exude an aura of might that only the imperial clan would possess. She then shouted: "Everyone kneel down for me!"

Liu Tingyu was originally thinking: "Let me see what a greenhorn like you can do."

When he saw the jade plate in Tang Tang's hand, he was first stunned before his face started paling drastically. He was so scared that his legs immediately started shaking. Without waiting for Tang Tang to finish whatever she was going to say, there was already a "plop" sound as he kneeled down. He kneeled down so heavily that even the tile beneath his knees had cracked.

"What's going on?"

"Damn, this kid looks quite fierce!"

"Just merely thrusting his hand out and the northern city's highest official kneeled down. Isn't that a bit too fierce?" said Feng Lei filled with shock while he gaped at Tang Tang.

Xuan Yuanyi's expression was the same.

Apart from Luo Tian, everyone in the area also had the same expression.

They were gaping at her in a dumbstruck manner!

They had been in the northern city for several decades and have never seen Liu Tingyu kneel before anyone. Yet now, he was kneeling before a bumpkin of a kid so it was rather difficult for them to grasp the situation.

Could this kid have casted some type of evil spell?

All the constables were looking at each other in surprise. Seeing how Liu Tingyu was kneeling down trembling, they didn't know what they should be doing right now.

Liu Tingyu was deeply regretting it; he was regretting this on behalf of all eighteen generations of his ancestors. Even his guts were shivering as he thought: "How could it be like this? Why would this place have a Prince? How could this be happening? I am finished this time, completely finished."

Seeing how his subordinates didn't kneel down, Liu Tingyu was like an angry lion as he shouted: "You guys quickly pay your respects to the Pri..."

"Humph!"

Tang Tang coldly harrumphed in a low tone.

Liu Tingyu quickly corrected his words and almost peed his pants in fright. "Kneel down! Why haven't you damn dog servants kneeled down for this daddy yet?!"

Anger.

Anger to the extreme.

He practically wanted to kill every single constable right now.

Not kneeling upon seeing a Prince is considered a serious crime.

Moreover...

No matter how powerful he was, a little official in the north district would never dare to confront a Prince from the Great Tang Dynasty. The depiction of a dragon on the jade plate was so lifelike and accurate that he would never forget it for the rest of his life.

The constables didn't dare to hesitate any longer and immediately kneeled down heavily as well.

Although they didn't know what was going on, they didn't dare to defy Liu Tingyu's command.

Tang Tang faintly smiled before saying: "Have all these irrelevant people scam out of here."

Liu Tingyu immediately said: "Everyone scam out of here! If you guys don't scam immediately, I will capture every single one of you! Hurry up and scam!"

Wang Dachui and the others had no clue what was going on.

Wasn't it just a crappy jade plate? Was there really the need to be that scared?

They were feeling irritated but didn't dare to go against the words.

Most of the crowd left the courtyard but before they did, they coldly glanced at Luo Tian with killing intent. It was as if they were saying that today's incident wasn't over.

Luo Tian was annoyed.

He fiercely glared at Tang Tang while saying bitterly to himself: "This girl... this daddy is going to die of anger because of you! A big wave of experience and undefeated points have all disappeared just like that. Sigh..."

He could only sigh in his heart.

And then helplessly shake his head.

Tang Tang then shouted: "Have your people scam out of the courtyard as well!"

Liu Tingyu immediately shouted: "Scram for me! Quickly scam out of here!"

Those constables too left the courtyard.

At this time...

Tang Tang walked forward and lowered herself before whispering to Liu Tingyu: "Do not reveal a single word of what happened here today; otherwise you should know the consequences of it."

"Drip~, drip~"

Yellow substance started dripping out of the opening of Liu Tingyu's pants. He then nodded furiously: "This lowly official won't dare, this lowly official won't dare."

Tang Tang covered her nose and coldly said: "Scram then!"

Liu Tingyu scrambled out of the courtyard and started to hate his mother for not birthing him with a pair of extra legs.

Once Liu Tingyu disappeared from sight, Tang Tang smiled like flowers were blooming on her face before saying: "You smelly scoundrel, how was it? This Miss was pretty cool huh?"

Luo Tian glared at her and said: “The saying that people with big breasts have no brains is too accurate. You’ve created a big disaster this time and we’re going to be buried to our graves because of you, sigh...”

Chapter 238 – A Crisis From All Sides

Tang Tang had a lost expression on her face.

After thinking for a few seconds, she then said unhappily: “How did I screw you over? How did I cause a huge disaster? I was helping you out yet you don’t appreciate it. If it wasn’t me making an appearance, you would’ve started fighting with the officials already. Do you even know the consequences of killing government officials in Heavenly Sword City?”

She was helping Luo Tian.

At least that was what she was thinking.

Feng Lei and Xuan Yuanyi also thought this was the case as well.

Luo Tian smiled while shaking his head. “What you did will only make this matter even more complicated. It’s actually easier for me to just kill them all in one go. Do you really think a single word from you and that surnamed Liu won’t say a thing?”

“I’m afraid this very moment he has already left northern city towards the imperial palace to report it.”

“Taking out your jade plate means revealing your identity. It won’t be long before a large group of Palace Guards will be rushing here. There’ll probably be a large swath of experts from the Great Tang as well. You’ll be fine but we’ll be dying because of you.”

“We have all become the culprits involved in kidnapping the Princess.”

“Sigh...”

Luo Tian knows that Tang Tang only wanted to help him.

But he would rather kill Liu Tingyu and all his people instead of having her take out her jade plate and revealing her identity.

It was very clear that...

The news of her being in the northern city would quickly spread. At that time, not only would the government know, there were also people of the Sea Cloud Sect and maybe even some assassins would rush over. They will all be thrown into quite a difficult mess by that time.

These types of issues could easily be deduced when someone puts a little effort into their thoughts, but Tang Tang...

Women....

Was their intelligence really affected if they had large breasts?

“Princess?!”

“Princess?!”

Feng Lei and Xuan Yuanyi looked at Tang Tang with shock.

They both then asked in unison: “Boss, she’s the Princess you kidnapped?”

Luo Tian rolled his eyes at them before saying to Tang Tang: “You are the Princess so no one will dare to do anything to you, but we’re different. You ran away because you wanted to avoid your marriage so even if you explained that to your father, it will still be hard for us to escape our deaths.”

“The reason is that someone needs to be responsible for such a big incident and we happen to be the sacrifice.”

Tang Tang had run away from a forced marriage.

And the Great Tang Dynasty didn't want to offend the Sea Cloud Sect.

Therefore, someone needs to be held responsible. The entire city knows the Princess was kidnapped so Luo Tian and company were the perfect sacrificial lambs.

In order to appease the Sea Cloud Sect, Luo Tian and company will have to die.

Except...

Luo Tian didn't know that the moment he and Tang Tang entered the city, their presence was already made known. Every movement they have made thus far had been taken notice of by an expert in the depths of the imperial palace.

It's unknown why...

The Great Tang's Emperor didn't send anyone over, which is worth pondering over!

Hearing Luo Tian's logical deductions, Tang Tang's head flopped down a bit while her small mouth formed a pout. She was just like a child who had done something wrong. “I'm sorry; I didn't think that far ahead. I only wanted to help you... I'm sorry.”

Since things had come to this point, Luo Tian didn't want to continue blaming her. After all, Tang Tang was intending to help him. Luo Tian faintly smiled and said: “Never mind, let's go back and finish our dinner. The food will get cold if we don't eat it now.”

“En!”

Tang Tang nodded and didn't dare to look Luo Tian in the eye because she was still a bit scared.

Tang Tang went back into the house.

A frown appeared on Luo Tian's face, "Xuan Yuanyi, you will guard this place tonight."

Xuan Yuanyi nodded and said: "Understood!"

Luo Tian then looked at Feng Lei and asked: "Fatty, where's An Chunchun?"

Feng Lei responded with a faint startlement: "Staying where I currently live. She was so happy when she found out you had arrived in Heavenly Sword City and... she should be sleeping at this time."

Luo Tian was somewhat reassured and said: "We'll bring her back here in a bit. I'm afraid this location isn't a place we should stay for too long now. We need to make some preparations and send An Chunchun away before morning comes. There's also your subordinates – those that can leave should all leave. There's no use for them to stay around and accompany us to their deaths."

"En!"

Feng Lei nodded.

Luo Tian looked up at the dark night sky and felt a sense of thick murderous intent.

Just like Luo Tian deduced...

Liu Tingyu was in deep thought as he retreated.

Suddenly...

Luo Tian's appearance looked kind of familiar and was plaguing his mind. Only when he reached the entrance to his house did he finally realize who he was. He was the criminal wanted for kidnapping the Princess, which meant the Princess was in his hands!

Thinking to this point...

Liu Tingyu's expression drastically changed. He didn't bother changing his clothes and immediately rushed off to the Internal Affairs Minister's manor.

How come it's not the imperial palace?

Because he was not qualified. He had to first report this to the Internal Affairs Minister Li Wenzong.

Deep into the night...

Li Wenzong's brows faintly tightened while a brief chilled light flashed in his eyes. "I didn't expect him to be hiding in Heavenly Sword City. He has truly given me a tough time in searching for him."

"Old master, it's time to avenge Badao's death." Adviser Bai softly said from the side.

Li Wenzong's gaze became stern as he said: "Have Liu Sha and them make a move. Make sure they remember to make that kid's death to be extremely miserable. Touching the nephew of I, Li Wenzong means you won't be able to enter through the gates of hell."

Adviser Bai's gaze became secretly happy as he said: "I will get Liu Sha and them right now."

Inside the imperial palace...

Tang Jiu was excited.

“Hahaha...”

“I already knew my idol was extraordinary. The most dangerous place is the safest – how come I’ve never thought of that? Who would’ve guessed that they were inside Heavenly Sword City all this time? Most likely the huge ruckus in the northern city was caused by him as well. Good, good, good!”

Tang Jiu was very excited. Just thinking of Luo Tian and his blood couldn’t help start boiling.

Looking up at the sky...

He was too antsy to keep waiting and started rushing off in the direction of the northern city.

Following behind him were two terrifyingly strong experts!

“Is it for real?”

“He’s really in the northern city?”

Qin Yue’er was just like Tang Jiu who became instantly excited.

She quickly wore her clothes and revealed a sultry gaze. She then muttered: “You bastard, this older sister wants to battle 3000 rounds with you. Kekeke...”

In some corner of the Heavenly Sword City.

“Reporting to senior brother: The location of Princess Lasting Peace has been found, and there’s also that kidnapper.”

Nangong Hao’s lips formed a slight grin as he coldly said: “We’ve found them at last. Snatching my, Nangong Hao’s woman? I would like to see how many heads you can lose to compete with me!”

Immediately after...

Nangong Hao’s figure turned illusory before suddenly disappearing.

Luo Tian and Feng Lei were continuously shuttling through many dark alleyways at high speeds.

Suddenly...

Sounds of fighting was heard not too far away.

The constant sounds of fighting were very normal in the northern city. This would play out pretty much every single night so there wasn’t any need to make a fuss about it.

But...

There would occasionally be sounds of a dragon’s roar during the fighting!

Luo Tian came to a stop as his brows formed a frown. He then shouted: “Ghost Dragon’s aura! It’s Ghost Dragon’s roars!”

“Something happened to An Chunchun!”

Feng Lei’s expression underwent a drastic change.

Luo Tian clenched his fists as his speed was raised to the max while rushing out.

Ghost Dragon.

It was him that found An Chunchun in the Ghostly Mountain Range and brought her to see Luo Tian on his back.

Just prior...

He fought with his life on the line to protect An Chunchun, but...

Rewinding for a bit – when Luo Tian and Feng Lei left their courtyard...

A shadowy figure appeared. The figure exploded forth with an aura of a super expert – the aura of a Profound King!

At this time...

Xuan Yuanyi toppled over into a pool of his own blood...

Chapter 239 – Boundless Rage

“Roar~!”

Ghost Dragon, with his figure composed of skeletal bones ripped apart a martial cultivator. There were multiple bones broken on his body yet his black hole like eyes still exuded endless amounts of death aura.

He was angry.

Incomparably angry.

Surrounding him were five to six cultivators continuously attacking him.

“This damn demonic dragon was actually a rank 6 demonic beast. Could it be a creature that originated from the Extreme Yin Lands of the North?”

“Stop talking so much! Let’s dismantle the bones of this thing first before we chat further!”

“If we can’t even take care of such a small matter, I’m afraid we won’t be able to follow Forefather Du anymore.”

As they were conversing with each other...

Two figures landed heavily on the ground.

“Ghost Dragon!”

Shouted Luo Tian as he saw how Ghost Dragon kept retreating from the attacks and most of its bones were broken. Every time it shifted its huge body, a piece of bone will drop down and scatter randomly on the ground. Luo Tian’s expression turned grim, his anger rising, and his jaws cracking from being clenched too hard. He fiercely clenched his fists before a powerful explosion of energy came from his body.

When Ghost Dragon saw Luo Tian, it started roaring out towards a certain direction as if trying to tell him something.

Luo Tian looked at the darkness behind him and his expression drastically changed.

Feng Lei directly rushed forth and shouted: "Screw all eighteen generations of your ancestors!"

"Huh?"

"Another two have come?"

"This is the matter of the Du family so all irrelevant people need to scam away!"

Shouted one of the people.

"The Du family?!"

"It's that old fogey Forefather Du again huh?" Luo Tian's gaze turned cold as his speed underwent a huge change.

"Shadewind Steps, Thousand Phantoms!"

"Level 3 Berserk!"

His figure was like a cannonball as it shot out.

One punch!

“Bang~!”

Another punch!

“Bang~!”

And another punch!

“Bang~!”

Five punches were thrown out at the speed of lightning. Out of six Profound Spirit cultivators, there was only one person left from the group. The rest were all instantly killed by a single punch!

The expression of the remaining person paled.

Looking at Luo Tian was similar to seeing a grim reaper of death.

“Don’t come over, don’t come over...” That person’s voice was shaking as his heart was gripped with fear.

Luo Tian glared at him and shouted: “Where have you taken the girl you guys kidnapped? Tell me now!”

“I don’t know!”

“I don’t know, I really don’t know.” That person kept shaking his head like a rattle drum. “We’re only responsible for pinning down this undead demonic beast and don’t know anything else. But... I, I, I’m a person of the Du family. You cannot kill me and don’t dare to...”

Before he was finished with his words...

Luo Tian's fist had already smashed out.

"Bang~!"

There was a deep hole in his chest which instantly caused his death.

Ghost Dragon once again gave a strange roar as it struggled towards the darkness. Each step it took, several bones would now fall down to the ground causing its body to sink lower. Its body seemed to have become heavier and slower like an old man having a hard time walking.

Luo Tian's heart ached from watching this. He caught up to Ghost Dragon and gently patted his body before placating him: "Don't worry, we'll go rescue An Chunchun. I will definitely rescue her from whatever situation she's in. Stop worrying so that I can start healing you."

"Fatty..."

"Gather all the bones on the ground..."

Feng Lei's eyes were a bit wet. He had been together with Ghost Dragon all these months and treated him like a fellow brother. Each day, Ghost Dragon was the one watching over An Chunchun and playing with her, just like what a mother would do.

Watching how the aura on his body was getting weaker and weaker, Feng Lei's aching heart felt like it was being squeezed.

After hearing Luo Tian's words, Ghost Dragon didn't struggle forward anymore. His two black hole like eyes stared at Luo Tian with expectancy – he was looking forward to the time when Luo Tian would return safely with An Chunchun in tow.

Slowly...

Slowly...

Ghost Dragon's large body collapsed to the ground. Luo Tian desperately tried to support him but the bones on Ghost Dragon's body seemed like they had lost all connection with the profound energy instilled inside. Each piece of bone started falling off. Tears gushed out of Luo Tian as he shouted: "Don't die! Don't die!"

He then started casting Healing Art like crazy.

But no matter how much Luo Tian casted Healing Art, the bones on Ghost Dragon continued raining down onto the ground.

Ghost Dragon looked at Luo Tian and shook his head. His eyes narrowed like he was smiling – a smile that was filled with joy.

"Hurry up fatty!"

Luo Tian desperately used his Healing Art in order to save Ghost Dragon.

But...

The aura of life in Ghost Dragon was gradually disappearing and his two black hole like eyes slowly became powerless. They then slowly closed while an awkward human language came out of his mouth: "Thank you Luo Tian. Thank you for creating me and allowing me to experience the joy from humans. Thank you. Protect An Chunchun for me. I'm sorry that I couldn't protect her, I'm really sorry..."

"Save her... you have to save her."

"She can help you achieve everything you want."

"Remember... remember to say goodbye to her on my behalf. Tell her... tell her that I have gone to a very faraway place. You must take good care of her. Apart from her mother, you are the closest person she has to a family."

“Luo Tian...”

“Don’t bother trying to save me, it’s useless. My life energy has already disappeared.”

“If we are fated... fated... we will meet again in the future. Remember to take good care of An Chunchun...”

His voice was very soft until the point it finally disappeared.

Luo Tian cried.

He had always told himself that men can bleed but cannot cry.

But he couldn’t hold back and started crying.

This type of feeling was really hard to endure. Luo Tian would rather bear the recoil effects of the Void Piercing Dragon Technique than what he was currently feeling. Watching Ghost Dragon slowly leaving this world, his heart felt incomparably heavy. After gently touching each piece of Ghost Dragon’s bones, he then stored them away inside his spatial plaque. He then said in a low voice: “I will definitely rescue An Chunchun and I will definitely take good care of her – this I swear to the heavens. Ghost Dragon, have a safe journey!”

Feng Lei was sitting on the ground in a dejected state while his teeth almost cracked from clenching so hard. He then said one word at a time: “Du Yuansong, you damn old eunuch! This daddy will not let you off! This daddy will definitely rip you into pieces!”

After saying that...

Feng Lei got up and started rushing off.

Luo Tian then roared out: “Stand still for me!”

“Do you even know what his current strength is at?”

“Are you his opponent?”

“Aren’t you just courting your own death?”

Feng Lei turned around and said: “Boss, so we’re not going to rescue Chunchun? Aren’t we going to get revenge for Ghost Dragon?”

“Of course we’re rescuing her!”

“And Ghost Dragon will also be avenged.”

Luo Tian was feeling extreme rage inside his heart and wanted to kill Du Yuansong even more than Feng Lei. But recklessly rushing over there right now would only lead to their deaths.

Du Yuansong had dominated northern city for over a decade.

His cultivation level was for certain on a terrifying level.

They didn’t know anything about him so how were they going to kill him?

Around this time...

The sound of a muffled explosion was heard in the direction of the Flame Dragon Gang’s manor.

Luo Tian looked over while his expression turned grim. He was feeling an ominous premonition in his heart right now. His eyes looked like they were spraying out flames of rage as he roared into the air: “Agggghhh...!”

He then sped back at full speed.

Within a courtyard...

Xuan Yuanyi's body was filled with bloody wounds, but one man and one sword blocked in front of the main hall's entrance with a deadpan expression!

Chapter 240 – The Devil Inside Blindman Liu

“Humph!”

“You think you can block me just because you have the physique of the demon race?”

“You overestimate yourself!”

“Today, everyone here has to die.”

Luo Kun was holding a sword exuding a chilling light. His face revealed his disdain as he coldly glared at Xuan Yuanyi blocking the entrance.

Filled with wounds, Xuan Yuanyi struggled to look up as he said: “Even if I’m overestimating my abilities, I still need to stop you.”

His voice wasn’t loud but it was still filled with a powerful energy.

The Giant Fault Sword next to him was giving off a heavy ringing sound.

A big difference!

A big difference in cultivation levels!

Before they even fought, the suppression from their difference in cultivation levels already made Xuan Yuanyi unable to move. Every time he wanted to make a move, it felt like there was a mountain weighing down on his body. It was very uncomfortable! His movement and his sword intent had been completely suppressed.

Demon race.

They were different from the human race.

They had powerful bodies but weren't proficient at using oppressive pressures. The reason being the development of their sea of consciousness was not as strong as a human's.

Their defensive ability against the pressure from the sea of consciousness was also rather weak.

This was the demon race's fatal weakness.

Luo Kun – one of the five strongest killers from the Du manor!

He was an expert at using his oppressive pressure. When dealing with people at lower cultivation levels than him, he could efficiently crush his opponent before they even start fighting. He will practically freeze your movement with his pressure and then slowly play you to death. His methods were extremely vicious and evil!

But...

Today, Luo Kun was a bit annoyed.

He encountered Xuan Yuanyi from one of the demon clans. If it weren't for his advantage in oppressive pressure, it might be a tough fight for him to subdue Xuan Yuanyi due to his powerful sword intent.

Fortunately...

His own cultivation level had already reached the Profound King realm.

Luo Kun's mouth formed a cold sneer as he said: "Block me? Humph, you want to block me based on you alone? You really overestimate yourself. The body of demon clan members are quite powerful, but so what? Isn't it merely your skin is a bit thicker and your meat a bit rougher?"

"My Cold Wind Sword will show how your demon race's so called powerful physical body is merely a joke before it!"

As his voice faded...

Luo Kun's brows formed a frown. His Profound King cultivation exploded out like a tsunami and smashed into Xuan Yuanyi's sea of consciousness.

"Ommm~!"

Xuan Yuanyi started hearing a ringing noise in his head and his body suddenly sank down like a large mountain was sitting on top of his head. This feeling was extremely uncomfortable and made him pissed off. Unfortunately, he had no idea how to defend against this oppression.

When facing a difference in cultivation levels, he had no way to defend at all.

Oppressive pressure.

A formless pressure due to differences in cultivation levels and could not be avoided.

Seeing how Xuan Yuanyi's body slightly sink down, Luo Kun started smiling evilly. He gently shook the Cold Wind Sword in his hand and it started emitting the ringing sounds of a cold chilling wind. The sword qi coming out were like ripples of wind blades as Luo Kun slowly walked towards Xuan Yuanyi.

Inside the main hall.

Tang Tang had a pale expression on her face. She then said in a serious tone: "Blindman, think of a way to save him. If we don't save him, he'll definitely die here."

They were watching how Xuan Yuanyi had been completely suppressed by Luo Kun. Tang Tang wanted to help but... her cultivation level wasn't even enough to fill one's tooth gap. Rushing out now would only give Xuan Yuanyi more trouble, and Xuan Yuanyi had already warned them not to get involved.

Blindman Liu also had an ugly expression on his face. He then started making calculations with his fingers trying to divine something.

Tang Tang glared at him and said: "We've arrived at such a predicament and you still have time to divine people's fortune? Are you even still a member of the Flame Dragon Gang? Xuan Yuanyi is about to die soon so can't you quickly think of a solution?"

She was extremely anxious.

She became even more anxious when she saw Blindman Liu start his divination with his fingers.

Beads of sweat appeared on Blindman Liu's forehead as if his divination was consuming his vitality. Not long after, his fingers stopped moving and said: "Today he will encounter a crisis but it won't be a calamity; it won't be life threatening."

"It won't be your big head!"

“Look at how much he’s bleeding! If it were you in his place, you would have lost your life already and you still say there’s no calamity. Once the dragon head comes back, I’ll have him immediately kick you out of the Flame Dragon Gang! Humph!” said Tang Tang in an angry manner. She really couldn’t understand how Blindman Liu’s divination could show such a thing.

The doorway was practically covered in Xuan Yuanyi’s blood right now.

If it was someone of the human race, they would’ve died already from excessive blood loss.

Blindman Liu’s brows were somewhat locked together as he didn’t really care about Tang Tang’s words. He then said to himself: “Did I calculate wrong again? Impossible. I, Prophet Liu have been making a living on this for twenty years and have never made a wrong divination. How could I divine it wrong twice today?”

His head was faintly lowered as he looked at the large figure at the main hall entrance.

His fingers gently touched the erhu’s strings and his brows faintly quivered. He then said internally: “Do I really need to make a move? I promised my old master that unless I was in life threatening danger, I cannot make a move. Do I have to make an exception today?”

“Amitabha...”

There was a change in Blindman Liu’s expression because he had already made up his mind!

He was originally a monk.

He was expelled from the temple after breaking a rule. The day he was leaving, his disheveled master who was responsible for sweeping the grounds gave him a book and made him wait for a certain person to appear in Heavenly Sword City. This special person was someone that could bring him to the peak of life.

He wasn’t clear on who that special person was.

His master didn't say either and only said: Your heart will know!

He had muddled along Heavenly Sword City for twenty years now. Relying on his master's book to calculate his divinations, each of them was completely accurate.

During these recent years, he gradually found out his master used to have a title – Daoist Heavenly Secret. He was already famous a thousand years ago. He was able to divine anything in the world and reached the realm of becoming all-knowing, capable of peeking into the secrets only the heavens knew.

That's why he believed in the words his master had said.

After waiting in Heavenly Sword City for twenty years, he met Luo Tian on the streets today. His heart started beating rapidly and after making some light calculations, he discovered Luo Tian's life was extremely complicated. And his fate would constantly change every moment!

It was extremely strange and he had never seen such a destiny before!

And when Luo Tian said the words "my fate is controlled by me and not the heavens," this made Blindman Liu even more shocked. He then started crazily making calculations using the methods of the unnamed book his master gave him and in the end; he could only peer into Luo Tian's one day of life. Anything after that, he couldn't divine what would happen to him.

It didn't mean he was going to die.

Maybe it was really what he had said: My fate is controlled by me and not the heavens.

But...

The fortunes of Luo Tian today clearly showed he would encounter a bloody crisis.

It was only half an hour until midnight, which meant only half an hour until his divination would become inaccurate.

And now...

He made an exception and calculated a second divination for Xuan Yuanyi, precisely showing a crisis but not a calamity – this meant his life was not in danger. But the chilling light exuding from the Cold Wind Sword in Luo Kun's hands made his heart sink, so he unconsciously blurted out: "Could I have really calculated wrong?"

In order to make up for his mistake...

He decided to take action.

Ever since he descended down the mountain, he had never taken action personally. Even when he was trampled into the mud by the lowly miscreants of this city, he didn't make a move to defend himself.

He was afraid that once he took action...

He wouldn't be able to suppress the devil inside him.

Back then...

He was being bullied in the temple and couldn't restrain himself anymore. The devil inside him was released and in the end, he smashed the Chief of Dharma Hall to death. That day, he killed a total of 108 people... that day was the nightmare he would never forget.

He couldn't control himself at all.

Thinking back to that day, his heart would unconsciously start trembling.

Did he really have to make a move?